

Chapter 793

"Shut up! Are you trying to pretend in front of me?" Libby shouted at Chuck angrily!

"I'm not pretending! There's no need for me to pretend!" Chuck shook his head.

"You're not? Alright, how long will it take for the owner of this shop to get here?" Libby sneered, unable to contain her anger!

"He's not far from here!"

Chuck's phone rang. He nodded and answered, "Okay, got it."

The call ended.

"Auntie, it won't take long! He is just nearby now!" Chuck said. Betty found the owner, Matteo Kohler's phone number, and contacted him. It was so simple.

Libby did not believe him at all!

"Are you still pretending? Guards, throw him out now!" Wina shouted.

Several security guards rushed over!

They had also heard and seen what Chuck had done earlier. They felt that Chuck was really a clown!

Sergio was not bothered. He was annoyed that he had wasted so much time on that buffoon.

"Who wanted to see me?"

Suddenly, a man strode in from the outside.

He was in his forties; he looked casually dressed in sportswear. He looked like a rich person at a glance.

"Boss!" Wina's face immediately changed and she approached him with a smile. "Boss, why are you here?"

Sergio was stunned. Had Chuck really called the owner to come over?

Could it be a harassment call?

Was the jewelry store owner here out of anger?

There was no doubt, it had to be the case!

Quinn was in a state of shock...

Libby had no expression on her face. Her thoughts were the same as Sergio's. The reason why the owner of the store appeared was that he had received a phone call from Chuck and was there to denounce him!

If that was the case, then it would be great!

The owner could teach Chuck a harsh lesson.

"I've received a phone call. Who is Chuck Cannon?" Matteo asked.

"He is." Wina disdainfully pointed at Chuck and said, "Boss, this man is crazy. He said he wanted to buy your store. Is he out of his mind?"

Matteo glanced at Chuck and walked over. "You want to buy my store?"

"Yes, that's right!"

Wina rolled her eyes. He was still pretending!

"Why should I sell it to you?"

"Because I'm rich!"

"Rich? How rich are you?" Matteo laughed and sneered.

Sergio laughed. He was rich?

What an ignorant person!

"I have estimated that your store is worth about 700 million, inclusive of all the jewelries, is it not?" It was what Chuck had observed earlier.

"Yes, it's about that amount. But what does it have to do with you? I won't sell it to you! So, there is no need to talk about it anymore. You should leave while I'm still in a good mood."

"Look, even the boss wants to kick him out. Isn't he ashamed? Sigh!"

Libby spoke.

Quinn's beautiful eyes were fixed on Chuck. She was curious. She knew the owner. He was famous for making things difficult for others. How could Chuck buy a store from such a person?

"Why are you all still standing here?" Wina lowered her voice and ordered the security guards.

Several security guards surrounded Chuck. They tried to prove themselves in front of the owner.

Chuck's expression was still calm. "You're in the jewelry industry. Didn't you hear a few days ago that three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite have been discovered?"

Matteo frowned and said, "Yes, my friend told me that three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite have been found. Those pieces were discovered in an auction and have been bought by a young man..."

It was such big news. As the owner of a jewelry store, even if he did not participate in the auction, he would find out immediately after the auction!

Because the jades were extremely rare. It could be said that the discovery of three imperial jades at the same time was shocking to the entire jewelry industry.

After he found out about it, he really wanted to meet the young man. How did the young man have such a keen eye? He had been in the jewelry industry for so many years, and had never met such a person.

"I'm young?" Chuck asked suddenly.

Matteo was stunned and extremely skeptical. "You mean you were the one who bought it?"

"Yes, it was me."

"Do you think I'd believe you?" Of course Matteo did not believe Chuck. Why would he believe Chuck?

How could he expect him to believe him with just his words?

How could a person with such a sharp eye look as ordinary as Chuck did?

"It's up to you whether or not you believe me! I..." Before Chuck could say further, Matteo received a phone call. "Spencer, why didn't you answer my call? What happened to you recently? What? You're nearby? All right, come over!"

After he hung up, Matteo glanced at Chuck and said, "Leave! You are really wasting my time!"

When he walked to the entrance, the store employees and Wina laughed at him. Even Libby laughed at him.

That sarcasm was directed to Chuck alone!

After talking for such a long while, Matteo did not even bother to talk to him at all!

Wina glared at him with disdain. "Aren't you ashamed? Didn't you say that you wanted to buy our boss' store? Why aren't you buying it?"

"If your boss is not even bothered, how can he buy it?" Sergio said with a smile.

Chuck looked at the two of them. Under Wina's orders, several security guards prepared to kick Chuck out.

At that moment, a man walked in from the outside. Matteo was surprised when he saw the man. "Spencer, what happened to you? I have not seen you for a few days. Why do you look like this?"

"Stop it. Something happened. I'm working for a new boss now," Spencer said.

"You're working for a new boss now? Stop fooling around. You took dozens of men with you for a mission, didn't you? Anyway, are you free these days? I need your help to settle a debt..."

"I'm not free. I'm really working for a new boss now."

"Who?" Matteo was very interested. He rarely saw such an expression on Spencer's face.

"You should have heard about the auction of the three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite."

"Of course I've heard about it. What's the matter? Do you mean that your new boss is the young man who bought the three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite?" Matteo became extremely suspicious in an instant.

"Yes, he is my new boss!"

"Why? It's not like you!"

"If you meet him personally, don't challenge him. He is the most horrifying person I've ever met!" Spencer's face turned pale. "You know that I had dozens of men with me, don't you?"

"Yes, of course I know. Your men helped me to collect some debts last time," Matteo said. Spencer's men were really good at what they did. They were really fierce!

"My men were all killed by him. More than 20 of them, in less than a minute!" Spencer's face was horribly pale!

"What!" Matteo was stunned, "You're joking, right?"

"No, I'm not!" Spencer shook his head. Why would he joke about it?

Matteo could not believe it. Spencer's expression was filled with fear. Was it true?

"How could there be such a terrifying person? He killed all your men and bought three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite? By the way, what does that person look like?" Matteo did not look inside the shop at all. He was shocked by what Spencer told him.

Suddenly, Spencer's gaze was filled with surprise. "Mr. Cannon, why are you here?"

Chapter 794

Matteo was stunned. Mr. Cannon?

Could it be...

His heart began to tremble. He turned around and found that Spencer's expression had changed all of a sudden. He became extremely respectful as he repeated, "Mr. Cannon, why are you here?"

Spencer was facing Chuck who had a smirk on his face!

Matteo was utterly shocked!

He had known Spencer for many years and he knew that Spencer was a retired mercenary. He led a group of fierce men and was afraid of nothing!

He had worked with Spencer several times, and Spencer did a very good job for each assignment. He knew Spencer's capability, but he was so polite to that person?

He even addressed him as Mister?

It felt like a double blow to Matteo. He was stunned!

Furthermore, Spencer just mentioned that he was working for a person who had killed dozens of his men and had bought three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite...

Was that the same person he just met in the store?

In an instant, Matteo broke out in a cold sweat.

The man in the store admitted that it was him earlier, but he did not believe him...

Matteo started sweating!

Rumors had spread in the industry that the man who bought the three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite was a filthy rich person!

Otherwise, how could someone be so bold as to spend one billion dollars on three raw stones that no one thought highly of?

Even he himself did not dare do that!

If it caused him a huge loss, he would be extremely distressed!

Furthermore...

There was also surprising news that the two big bosses, who had the same status as him, died after the auction that night...

Who could have killed them?

No one in their circle of friends was sure because it was such shocking news!

There was also a brief moment of panic among the circle of friends!

There was a reasonable explanation for the news that was going around. Apparently, the two bosses had evil intentions as they were jealous, and had hired someone to kill the young man with the three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite. However, they were instead killed by this young man...

That rumor flashed across Matteo's mind. The more he thought about it, the more he broke out in a cold sweat!

Was it him?

That person turned out to be right here in his store. He even mentioned that he wanted to buy his store, but he rejected him...

Matteo's face turned pale.

Sergio, Wina and Libby were astonished!

They did not know Spencer. But what did he mean by addressing Chuck as Mr. Cannon?

Quinn was shocked. What actually had happened to Chuck?

Just what has he been up to recently?

"I'm here to buy something." Chuck shrugged.

"Buy something? Mr. Cannon, what do you want to buy? I know the boss here. He can give it to you as a gift!" Spencer waved at Matteo.

Matteo was dumbfounded and confused.

"Give it to me as a gift? No, I wanted to buy it but he refused to sell it," Chuck said.

"He refused?"

Spencer was astonished. He walked over and said, "Matteo, what are you doing? Why wouldn't you sell it to Mr. Cannon?"

"He... he really bought the three pieces of the Imperial Green Jadeite?" Matteo's voice became coarse.

"Yes, he did!"

Matteo felt even more uneasy.

"Matteo, don't blame me for not telling you this. Pedro asked me to kill him that night. I took more than 20 men with me, but he killed them all in one minute..."

"What?" Matteo was extremely shocked!

He looked so young, how could he be so powerful?

"You decide. I won't say much. But now that you've offended him, you should be cautious!"

"Me?" Matteo felt uncomfortable, "What do you mean? Will he kill me?"

Since he had killed Spencer's men in just a minute, wouldn't it be very easy to kill him?

Matteo knew his own abilities!

"I don't know, but he's super-rich. His value is indescribable. Don't judge a book by its cover. I'll be frank with you, boss. Sometimes, it's good to realize what you're capable of, and what's best for you!"

Matteo's back was soaked with cold sweat. "Then should I accommodate his request?"

"Go ahead!"

Matteo ran over to Chuck and said, "You want to buy my store? Okay, I'll sell it to you!"

As soon as Matteo said that, everyone went into an uproar!

"What... what did the boss say? He's selling the store?"

"Why?" Wina was in disbelief.

Sergio was stunned. He looked at Libby in shock. Why did the boss suddenly change his mind?

"Didn't you say that you did not want to?" Chuck shrugged.

"Sorry, I was wrong just now. If you want to buy it, I can sell it to you any time," Matteo said it in an ingratiating manner.

At that moment, he realized the reason Spencer was so polite to Chuck.

As he approached Chuck, he could feel the pressure from his aura.

It was definitely the feeling that only a super-rich person could give off!

"Any time? All right, tell me your price!"

"700 million. No, no, 300 million dollars!" Matteo was in a cold sweat!

Sergio froze in shock!

How could the value of the store be only 300 million dollars? He was actually selling the store to Chuck at a loss? Why?

He really could not understand.

"I won't take advantage of you. I'll buy this store for 700 million dollars,"

Chuck said. He was not a pirate.

"Also, I want to buy more than one shop!" Just what was Chuck thinking?

Nancy had established a production line which would need stores for the retail business. It would be easier to buy all of his stores directly.

"What do you mean?" Matteo broke out in a cold sweat.

"All of them, I want to buy all of them!"

Matteo was in a daze. "All of the stores? There are 109 stores!"

"I want all of them! Tomorrow, I will arrange for my people to estimate the value of all the stores, and then I'll buy them at a market value of ten percent higher!"

Matteo was shocked and immediately changed his expression. "What? You're willing to offer ten percent higher?"

The investment of more than a hundred shops was different. The total value of jewelries was over five billion dollars, while the rest of the shops were estimated to be worth about sixteen billion!

In other words, a ten percent increase was equivalent to 1.6 billion dollars!

Matteo was pleasantly surprised. It was a great opportunity for him.

How could such a good thing happen?

"Yes! I'll buy it. I'm sure you are pleased!" Chuck shrugged.

"Okay, I'll sell them! I'll sell all of my stores!"

"Alright, I'll give you the estimated value tomorrow!"

"Matteo, he's just joking! Don't take it seriously!" Sergio sneered as he walked over. How could he not know the value of Matteo's stores?

It was over ten billion dollars. Did Chuck have so much money to buy them?

It was impossible!

Matteo frowned. "Mr. Felton, I think you should be tactful with your words!"

"Be tactful? I will not be fooled by him!" Sergio walked over slowly. "He does not have that much money to buy..."

Before Sergio could say any further, he was slapped!

Sergio was stunned, "Matteo, did you just slap me?"

"D*mn it, don't cause me trouble! You're a nobody compared to Mr.

Cannon. Do you understand?" Matteo said coldly.
