

Chapter 661

Fade and Momo both signaled to the people around them before leaving together.

Not long after, Momo's cell phone rang. When she looked at the phone number, her face suddenly sank. She picked up the phone, quickly said a few words, and then hung up the phone.

Then, Momo looked at Fade and said, "Fade, my aunt is here. She is in the hotel not far away from the school. She wants me to go there."

Fade took her hand and said, "Let's go!"

"Okay!" Momo nodded and walked alongside Fade.

However, the young girl, who was usually lively and active, seemed worried and uneasy at the moment.

When he saw this, Fade gently pinched Momo's cheek and said, "Don't worry. I'm here. You will be fine."

Momo nodded, and then she seemed to have thought of something. She told Fade, "Fade, since you're playing the role of my boyfriend now, I must be careful not to address you so casually anymore. I need to give you a loving nickname."

"Well, that's right," Fade said. Then, he looked at Momo and said, "I still call you Momo."

Momo nodded and then said, "Well, I can still call you Fade, but it doesn't feel right!"

Upon hearing this, Fade smiled and said, "Why don't you call me honey then?"

When Momo heard this, she glared at Fade and said, "Fade, you are taking advantage of me again. Oh, no, I'd better stick to calling you Fade. Anyway, I'll introduce you to my aunt later, so there shouldn't be a problem."

Fade nodded and said, "Well, you can call me whatever you please."

While they were speaking, they had already arrived at the door of the hotel. This was a five-star hotel, and it was considered luxurious in Bay City. Momo's aunt had chosen this place to meet, and it was a reflection of the Soo family's wealth.

Momo, who was walking toward the hotel door, suddenly became nervous again. She took a deep breath and trembled slightly.

Seeing this, Fade grabbed Momo's delicate hand, clenched it slightly, and said, "Don't worry, I'm here."

"Okay!" Momo nodded, and then they walked into the hotel together.

Soon, Momo saw her aunt sitting at the seats near the window. She held Fade's hand more tightly as she walked over.

As they approached, Fade had a clearer view of the woman sitting there. She was a middle-aged woman in her forties. She had short hair and was dressed in a casual suit. She wore a pair of black-framed glasses, which made her look like a businesswoman.

However, the jewelry and leather bag she was carrying were from world-famous luxury brands that an ordinary businesswoman could not afford.

As the Fade and Momo approached her, the woman noticed and turned over to look.

The woman nodded slightly when she saw Momo. Then, she smiled and said, "Momo, you're here."

Momo forced a smile and said, "Aunt Lyla!"

Immediately, the middle-aged woman glanced around and her gaze fell on Fade, especially when she saw that Fade and Momo were holding hands. In an instant, her face sank, and her tone became cold. She stared at Fade and said, "You are?"

Fade smiled gently as Momo did the quick introductions, "Fade, this is my aunt, Lyla Soo."

"Auntie, this is Fade Chen, my... friend!" When she saw Aunt Lyla's cold eyes, Momo did not say the word "boyfriend", but instead introduced him as a "friend".

However, although she used the word "friend", Lyla could see that they were holding hands, and her eyes were still cold. Lyla said in an unfriendly tone, "Momo, I didn't know that you have such a friend. Furthermore, he's a male."

Momo took a deep breath and explained, "Auntie, I met Fade in the university. We have a good relationship."

After that, Momo said firmly, "Auntie, shall we sit down and have a chat?"

Lyla held back her anger and snorted. She did not speak.

Seeing this, Momo guided Fade and sat down opposite Lyla.

Fade picked up the menu and said, "Aunt Soo, you probably have not had your meal yet. How about we order some dishes to eat while we chat?"

Lyla said coldly, "I'm not your aunt!"

Fade didn't get annoyed. Instead, he continued, "What would you like to eat, Madam Soo?"

Lyla ignored Fade. She looked directly at Momo and said, "Momo, I told you on the phone the reason why I am here. So what are you trying to do?"

When Momo heard this, she couldn't help but frown. Then, she took a deep breath and said firmly, "Auntie, I've already said it. I don't know Master Yao well, and I don't want to get engaged to him. I'll decide on my own marriage."

Hearing this, Lyla suddenly slapped the table and said, "Momo, what are you talking about? How old are you? How can you decide on something as major as this?"

Momo was also anxious and she said, "Auntie, as you said, marriage is a big deal! But you didn't ask me for my opinion before deciding that I should marry Master Yao. Isn't that ridiculous?"

"Master Yao was chosen by your parents, myself, as well as the elders of the Soo family. The Yao family is a wealthy family in South Bay City, and Master Yao is also a famous rich man. If you get engaged to him, it will do no harm to the Soo family," Lyla said.

The more Momo listened, the angrier she became. She said, "You only care about the benefits. Have you ever asked me for my opinion? Have you ever asked if I like it? I will never agree to this kind of marriage."

"As I've said, the Yao family is very good, and Master Yao is outstanding. Forget South Bay City, even in the entire southern region, he is the most outstanding among the rich young masters. Given his prestige, what are you dissatisfied with?" Lyla said.

"All you all care about are the benefits and his family background. But this is a marriage we're talking about, a relationship! It's not something that can be measured with money or fame," Momo said.

When she heard this, Lyla's expression changed and she immediately said, "You are just a child. What do you know about love? Our elders considered it carefully and decided on this engagement. It's not bad for you."

Momo was angry and anxious. She felt that her aunt was being difficult to reason with, so she stopped defending herself. Instead, she grabbed Fade's arm right away and pouted. "If there's no harm, you can marry Master Yao yourself. Anyway, I don't want to marry him. Besides, I already have a boyfriend, and he is Fade Chen."

Lyla's face fell significantly when she heard what Momo said about her relationship with Fade. She glared at Fade and then said angrily, "Momo, how can you be so unreasonable?"

Chapter 662

Momo was going all out. She leaned against Fade's shoulder, saying, "I'm in a relationship, how is that unreasonable? Anyway, Fade and I are already together. We have done everything between a couple."

"What, you..." Hearing this, Lyla got even more furious. She got up and wanted to slap Momo.

After considering her surroundings, Lyla sat back down and took a deep breath. She took a sip of water to calm herself down.

Then, she took out her mobile phone and made a phone call. She handed the phone to Momo and said, "Momo, talk to your mother yourself!"

Momo looked unhappy, but she had no choice but to accept the phone. She got up and went somewhere else to speak to her mother.

On the other side of the dining table, after Momo left, Lyla's face completely darkened as she stared at Fade fiercely. If Lyla's eyes were blades, Fade would have been sliced into pieces.

However, at this moment, Fade was smiling as if nothing had happened. He turned the menu over and said to Lyla, "Madam Soo, the traditional cuisine in this hotel is delicious. I heard that the head chef's guru once catered for the state banquet. Why don't you try it?"

As he spoke, Fade handed the menu over.

21:23

However, Lyla did not accept it. She said coldly, "Now, I'm giving you a chance to leave Momo."

Hearing what she said, Fade put the menu away. Instead of getting angry, he grinned.

Seeing this, Lyla looked even more displeased. She said coldly, "What are you laughing at? Do you find my words funny?"

Fade covered his mouth and said, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry! Madam Soo, It's just that I feel like I'm the lead actor in a soap opera."

"I'm wondering if you would throw me a bank card and say, 'Here is a million yuan. Leave Momo.' If you do that, it would be so dramatic," Fade said with a smile.

Lyla was indeed reaching into her bag for her bank card at this moment. As a result, she was stunned. She stared at Fade with a bewildered look in her eyes, "Y-you..."

Fade looked at Lyla, and then his eyes fell on the bank card that was halfway out of her leather bag. He looked surprised and said, "Madam Soo, are you really going to bribe me and force me to leave Momo?"

Hearing this, Lyla's face was a little uncertain and her expression was ugly. However, she immediately took the bank card out, slapped it on the table, and said to Fade, "Judging from your outfit, your family background must be average. You must have gotten together with Momo because you are greedy for our family's wealth. Since you are in this for money, take this money and leave immediately."

"Ah, you really did it!" Seeing this, Fade looked at Lyla in surprise.

Then, he picked up the bank card and looked at it over and over again. He looked at Lyla with a sneaky look and said, "Madam Soo, how much is on your card?"

When Lyla saw Fade's greedy look, she couldn't help but feel disgusted, but her heart relaxed. She said, "There is 500,000 yuan in there. Take the money and leave Momo immediately."

"500,000!" Fade put the bank card down and sighed. "Only 500,000? In soap operas, even if it wasn't 5 million, it would at least be 1 million. This is just 500,000, Madam Soo. You're so stingy!"

"You!" Lyla was so angry that she almost exploded. Then, she took out another bank card and threw it on the table, saying, "There is 500,000 yuan here, so that's a total of one million yuan. So, you'd better leave now."

Fade picked up the two bank cards and twiddled them between his thumbs. Then, he looked at Lyla and said, "Madam Soo, you know, a girl like Momo has a good figure and an extraordinary family background. Yet, you are offering me one million yuan to leave her. Don't you think that price is a little low? Is Momo worth only one million yuan to you?"

Lyla did not expect this guy to be so shameless. She was so angry that her veins were protruding out of her forehead. She glared at Fade and said, "Y-you are blackmailing me."

Fade sneered and said, "Madam Soo, weren't you being arrogant and looking down on me just now? So, why can't you even afford such a small sum of money now?"

"You are a greedy beggar, Let me tell you, if you don't leave with the money now, you won't get anything after this!" Lyla put away her bank card and threatened Fade.

Hearing this, Fade sneered disdainfully and then crossed his arms. He then took out a black bank card and threw it right in front of Lyla.

Lyla was stunned and asked in confusion, "What do you mean?"

Fade raised his head slightly and said coldly, "Since you can't afford it, don't use this trick against me. Let me tell you, Momo is priceless in my heart."

"There is ten million yuan on this black card. Take it and get out of here immediately. Don't interfere in my business with Momo," Fade said proudly.

Hearing this, Lyla was so angry that she was going to explode. She didn't expect this poor boy to humiliate her like this. The veins were almost popping out of her forehead. She grabbed the black card and was ready to throw it away. "You poor boy, where would you find ten million yuan? You want to fool..."

Suddenly, she was stunned because she realized that the black card in her hand was really a top VIP black card that was issued by the bank. Even if there were no 10 million yuan of credits on the card, the card itself could withdraw an overdraft of 50 million yuan.

For a moment, Lyla was a little stunned. She looked at Fade who was in front of her in disbelief. "H-how could you..."

Fade leaned back in his chair and inadvertently revealed his limited edition watch. He looked at Lyla and said, "Madam Soo, I respect you as Momo's aunt, so I didn't do anything to you. If someone treated me like this at any other time, I would smash her to death with my cash."

"You..." Lyla's face changed and she wanted to refute, but when she thought of Fade's black card and watch, the words were stuck in her throat. It seemed like this Fade who was in front of her might be a local rich kid.

However, after a pause, Lyla's face returned to its normal expression.

In her opinion, even if Fade was rich, he was nothing compared to Master Yao and the Yao family who was a noble and ancient family.

21:23

Therefore, no matter what, Lyla would never agree to Momo and Fade being together.

Next, she sneered and said, "Perhaps you do have some money, but an actual noble family is not measured by their wealth. A nouveau riche like you is nothing compared to Master Yao. Therefore, you can't stop the marriage between Momo and Master Yao."

Chapter 663

Fade shook his head and sighed emotionally. He looked at Lyla and said, "Sometimes, I really don't understand rich people like you."

"Eh?" Lyla looked puzzled.

Fade asked in a cold voice, "Why are you so sure that I am hopeless? On what grounds did you think I would lose? Just because you have money?"

"I..." The expression on Lyla's face looked a little ugly.

Fade said, "In the beginning, you thought that I was a poor boy because of my clothes and you wanted to use your money to get rid of me. As a result, I showed you my money, and now you think that I am a nouveau riche. You then oppressed me by saying I can't compare to a true noble family. I would like to ask you, how do you know that a noble family can defeat me?"

"I..." Lyla's face was stiff, and her expression was very ugly, but yet she said coldly, "You can't imagine the strength of Master Yao and the Yao family. You think you can beat him with your fancy words?"

Fade shook his head, then looked at Lyla and shouted, "I can't imagine the Yao family's strength? Can you imagine my strength, then?"

His shout burst out with an oppressive aura, causing Lyla's expression to stiffen and her whole body trembled.

Fortunately, just then, Momo wrapped up the call and pouted as she walked back with a sullen expression. Fade immediately withdrew his oppressive aura, allowing Lyla to feel relaxed as her whole body suddenly collapsed onto the sofa.

When Momo saw this, she was curious and she asked, "Auntie, what's wrong with you? Are you not feeling well?"

Lyla glanced at Fade and her mouth moved, but she didn't know what to say.

At this moment, Fade picked up a glass of water, took a sip, and said blandly, "Nothing. I was just chatting with Madam Soo."

As he spoke, Fade tugged on Momo's hand so that she would sit next to him. They looked very intimate.

Seeing this, Lyla's eyes turned cold and she wanted to lose her temper. But when she thought of Fade's aura, she couldn't help but feel a little weak and she didn't say a word.

The situation surprised Momo. She looked at her aunt and then at Fade. She didn't quite understand how Fade compelled her strong aunt to admit defeat.

At this moment, there was a sudden burst of noisy shouts and footsteps.

"Over there. It's them!"

"Hurry! Hurry up!"

"Stop right there. Don't even think of running away this time."

.....

When they heard the commotion, Fade, Momo and Lyla couldn't help but turn their heads to look over.

21:23

As soon as they saw the few people approaching, Fade and Momo's faces suddenly turned cold, and there was a chill on their faces.

It was because the group coming over was none other than Liam and his companions. Moreover, in front of Liam was Louise, and her cheeks were red and swollen. Her hair was grabbed and her face had a pained expression on it.

When she saw the situation, Momo stood up immediately. "Louise! You guys..."

Louise had an apologetic look on her face. She said, "Momo, I'm sorry. I-I didn't want to reveal your location. But they forced me. I..."

There was no need to explain because Fade and Momo understood everything. After Liam and the others were taught a lesson, they were pissed, so they went back and looked for help, forcing Louise to lead the way, and then came back for revenge.

In an instant, Fade's expression turned cold. He glared at Liam and said coldly, "Looks like you've not learned your lesson yet."

When Liam saw Fade, his face was full of hatred. He gnashed his teeth and said, "Brat, you hurt us twice. This time, I will have my vengeance."

"Beat them up!" As he spoke, Liam waved his hand. Seven burly men rushed forward and they were about to attack Fade and Momo.

Fade and Momo were furious. They rushed forward to meet the attackers, but Lyla suddenly grabbed Momo and shouted, "Momo, come back. How could you get involved in such a fight?"

Momo said angrily, "They bullied my classmate. I'm going to help..."

21:23

Lyla grabbed Momo's hand and said, "You're just a girl. What can you do to help?"

"Besides, such things have never happened to you. It must be Fade who influenced you badly, getting you into fights. You should stay away from him, he is definitely not a good person!" Despite the circumstances, Lyla did not forget to lecture Momo and speak ill of Fade.

At this moment, Fade let out a burst of thunderous sounds as he beat all of Liam's men to the ground. They had no strength to fight back at all.

After defeating them, Fade walked coldly toward Liam.

Seeing this, Liam shivered and said with fear on his face, "W-what are you going to do?"

Liam didn't expect the fighters, whom he hired for a lot of money, to be so weak. He suddenly became a little timid.

Fade clenched his fists and said coldly, "What do you think?"

As he spoke, Fade was about to attack Liam.

But at this moment, a potbellied man appeared and shouted angrily, "What are you doing? Stop!"

As he spoke, the man walked over to Fade, put his hands behind his back, and shouted, "Stop!"

Fade looked at him and said coldly, "Who are you?"

The man said proudly, "My name is Gavin Hu, director of the academic administration of Bay City University. Beating up a student of our university is a serious violation of our rules."

"Student? These hooligans are your students?" Fade sneered and looked at Mr. Hu. Then, he pointed at Louise and Momo, saying, "Even if those men were your students, how can they be allowed to bully Louise and Momo? How are you going to deal with this? The girls are also students at your university."

Mr. Hu looked at Louise and Momo, frowned, and said, "It's yet to be confirmed if these girls are students of Bay City University. What's more, even if they are students of Bay City University, it is also a serious violation to bully their juniors alongside you. They would be punished severely."

Hearing this, Fade was so angry that he laughed. "So, did you really think that these two young girls, one of them covered in bruises, dared bully these burly men? Such shameless words, Mr. Hu, would you even believe them?"

Momo was also very angry and she scolded right away. "Mr. Hu, are you still going to shamelessly protect them like this? What kind of benefits did they promise you?"

Hearing this, Mr. Hu's face changed and he shouted, "Nonsense! Total nonsense!"

Then, he pointed at Louise and Momo and said, "You are slandering me. If you don't admit it, as the director of academic administration, I can expel you two."

"Haha, you're not expelling the students who are the bullies. Instead, you are trying to expel the students who were bullied. Are you blind, Mr. Hu?" Momo sneered.

Chapter 664

"H-how dare you scold me! Since you're disrespecting a teacher, I'll expel you all!" Mr. Hu shouted angrily.

Momo was so angry that she almost wanted to rush over and fight with Mr. Hu.

But at this moment, Lyla grabbed Momo's hand and said to Mr. Hu, "Mr. Hu? I don't think any of this has anything to do with my Momo."

When Mr. Hu saw Lyla's luxurious dressing and her elegant temperament, his expression suddenly changed. A thought crossed his mind and he said, "In that case, the two of them were the troublemakers here!"

As he spoke, Mr. Hu pointed at Fade and Louise.

Seeing this, Momo was both angry and exasperated. She wanted to refute, but Lyla stopped her and said, "Momo, it's none of your business. Why are you joining in?"

Momo said, "Auntie, they've gone too far. I can't let them bully Fade and Louise like this. Besides, I..."

Lyla waved her hand and interrupted Momo, saying, "Don't talk too much. If your so-called boyfriend can't even solve this little problem, how is he supposed to compete with Master Yao? He won't even be worthy of entering Master Yao's line of sight."

"Auntie, I..." Momo wanted to say something, but at this moment, Mr. Hu began a verbal assault at Louise and threatened to expel her.

Louise's family had fallen from grace, and now she was about to get expelled from school. Immediately, she felt panic and sadness. She was crying so hard that she almost collapsed to the ground.

Seeing this, Fade held Louise up, glared at Mr. Hu coldly, and then said, "Don't worry, he can't expel you."

Mr. Hu sneered and said, "Who do you think you are? As the director of the academic administration of Bay City University, it's a piece of cake for me to expel a student."

"Really?" Fade said in a cold voice. He took his phone out and made a phone call. Then, he said in a cold voice, "When Principal Gao arrives, are you going to say this to him?"

"Principal Gao!" Mr. Hu was stunned, and then he had a look of disbelief. He said, "Boy, are you trying to fool me? Who do you think you are? How can you possibly know our principal? Besides, even if the principal comes, I will also attend to this case in the same way. You bullied Liam, and I am handling it impartially."

"What do you mean by impartial handling!" Fade sneered and swung a punch at Mr. Hu. "Then I'll let you have a taste of my impartial handling right now."

"How dare you..." Mr. Hu was shocked when he saw Fade's fist flying toward him.

However, before he could voice his displeasure, Fade's fist had already landed firmly on Mr. Hu's face.

With a loud crack, Mr. Hu's face was swollen and blood splashed everywhere. He was in a mess.

"Y-you dare to hit me? You dare..." Mr. Hu covered his bloody cheek and glared at Fade.

"That was just the beginning!" Fade snorted, and then his fists and feet continued to attack Mr. Hu.

21:23

After a series of punches and kicks, Mr. Hu was badly beaten and he let out a series of pitiful wails.

"I'm going to call the police. I'm going to arrest all of you. I'm going to..." shouted Mr. Hu.

At this moment, there was a series of quick footsteps.

Everyone turned their heads and saw a middle-aged man in his mid-fifties, dressed in a suit, walking over quickly.

As soon as he saw the man, Mr. Hu was shocked and he cried, "Principal Gao, you're here. I was..."

However, Principal Gao only glanced at Mr. Hu before walking past him. He walked quickly to Fade and said respectfully, "Mr. Chen, y-you have returned to Bay City."

Fade said blandly, "I will be here for awhile."

Then, he pointed at Mr. Hu and Liam and said, "Principal Gao, this teacher, and students are from your school. They bullied other students and engaged in vile behaviour and evil deeds. This teacher even tried shielding the bullies righteously! You must handle this matter!"

Principal Gao nodded quickly and said, "I will definitely deal with them severely."

Then, Principal Gao walked over to Mr. Hu and shouted, "Gavin, are you going to apologize to Mr. Chen?"

Hearing this, Mr. Hu was stunned and he said, "Principal Gao, he hit me. I was just..."

Principal Gao snapped, "You don't have to explain. I asked you to apologize to Mr. Chen. Didn't you hear me?"

"Principal Gao, about this, I was not wrong. I..." Mr. Hu was still trying to explain himself.

Principal Gao was furious. He glared at Gavin and shouted, "Gavin, do you think I really don't know what's going on? Also, I'll say this one last time. Mr. Chen asked you to apologize. This is Mr. Chen's order."

When he heard the Principal emphasize the name 'Mr. Chen', Mr. Hu faintly realized something. "Mr. Chen. His name is Fade Chen. Is he..."

Principal Gao said coldly, "Mr. Chen here is the great Master Chen. How dare you lie in front of Master Chen? Are you looking for death?"

After Principal Gao confirmed that Mr. Chen was indeed Master Chen, Mr. Hu's face changed dramatically in an instant. He was so scared that he knelt down and kowtowed to Fade while apologizing. "Master Chen, I was wrong. I didn't know that you are the Master Chen. I was wrong, I..."

Fade glanced at him coldly and said, "So, when I'm the Master Chen, you're admitting that you were wrong. But if I'm not, you'll claim to be in the right. Is that what you mean?"

"No, no, I'm not..." Mr. Hu was still trying to explain himself.

However, Fade waved his hand and said, "I don't want to hear your hypocritical explanation. Let's deal with this right away!"

Principal Gao agreed to the second half of the sentence right away. He quickly nodded and then said to Mr. Hu, "Gavin Hu, from now on, you are dismissed from the university. Also, you took advantage of your position at the university and did all sorts of shameful things. The university will report this to the respective departments."

Hearing this, Mr. Hu seemed to have lost all his energy and spirit. He suddenly collapsed to the ground and looked at the ceiling of the hotel lobby with a dull gaze. He was in a daze.

However, no one sympathized with him because he deserved it.

21:23

The scene caused Lyla, who was holding Momo's hand, to be a little shocked. She looked at Fade with surprise and said, "I didn't expect him to be a little capable!"

With a smile on her face, Momo said, "That's not true. Fade is Master Chen. He is a famous big shot in Bay City and Long City."

Lyla didn't take what Momo said seriously. She raised the corner of her mouth and said lightly, "What master? A young man in his twenties dares call himself a master! Are there no other capable people in Bay City and Long City? How could they let him behave so recklessly?"

Momo was discontent and she said, "Auntie, it's not like what you think. Fade is very powerful, especially in martial arts. Brother Chen is the top master in Long City. He defeated even Elder Sun. Many big shots have to listen to his orders!"

Chapter 665

Hearing this, Lyla became more skeptical. She waved her hand and told Momo, "Momo, I know you want to prove that he is powerful, but it's too much to say that he is the top master in Long City."

"Furthermore, a martial artist is just a martial artist after all. When faced with powerful big shots, he is just a thug. Master Yao can command a group of people by simply moving his mouth." As Lyla spoke, she shook her head, as if she thought nothing of Fade, and casually exaggerated the power of Master Yao.

Momo was so angry, and she wanted to explain how powerful Fade was, but she realized that her aunt would not listen to her at all. So, she could only stamp her feet and say, "I don't care. No matter what you say, I won't marry Hector Yao."

At this moment, Principal Gao, who had finished dealing with Mr. Hu, looked at Liam and the others. He said coldly, "You are all expelled. From now on, you are no longer students of Bay City University."

Hearing this, the expression on Liam and his companions' faces changed, and then they started shouting in dissent.

"You want to expel me? My father gave a lot of money to the school!"

"Mr. Gao. You're turning against me. I'm going to report you."

"If you dare to expel me, I'll make a fuss to the university."

They shouted threateningly. However, Principal Gao's expression was indifferent and he said coldly, "I'll find out about the donations and payments and will deal with them one by one. As for you guys, no matter where you guys go, I will not change my mind about expelling you."

They didn't expect the principal to be so hard on his decision. For a moment, they were a little surprised.

Liam's face darkened. He looked at the principal and said, "Principal Gao, are you sure you want to expel us? My father is a follower of Master Xu!"

Hearing this, Principal Gao's face couldn't help but darken slightly.

He had heard a lot of news about Master Xu recently. It had been only a few months since Master Xu arrived at Bay City, but he had amassed influence quickly. He was getting more and more powerful. It was obvious that he was on track to becoming a big shot in the region.

Some people even claimed that the original big boss of Bay City, Uncle Jimmy Wei, had been overthrown by Master Xu. Otherwise, why had Uncle Jimmy not made an appearance during this period of time?

Amidst these rumors, Master Xu had boasted that he was the new boss of the Bay City underground world.

Since he was such a big shot, ordinary people did not dare offend him.

However, Principal Gao knew that no matter if Master Xu really overthrew Uncle Jimmy or not, the result would still be the same, because the real master of Bay City was standing right there. He was none other than Fade Chen, the great Master Chen.

When compared to Master Chen, Master Xu was not even worth mentioning at all.

Thinking of this, Principal Gao made up his mind. He looked at Liam and said coldly, "I don't care which big shot your father follows, and I do not know who Master Xu is. If you do something wrong, you must pay the price."

"You..." Liam did not expect Principal Gao to be so firm. He did not even give his father and Master Xu any face. Liam was so angry that he gnashed his teeth, but there was nothing he could do.

Principal Gao turned around and said goodbye to Fade, and he was ready to leave.

At this moment, a deep and vigorous middle-aged man's voice rang aloud, "Principal Gao, you must be such a big shot. I, the great Levi, did not earn your respect, it seems."

While they were talking, a stout man with a tattoo of a black dragon on his neck approached aggressively and looked at Principal Gao.

"You are..." Principal Gao's face changed as he looked at the man.

The man said in a deep voice, "I am the person you looked down on, Master Xu's underling. My name is Levi, and I am Liam's father."

At this moment, Liam ran to the burly man with a happy face and said joyfully, "Dad, you are here."

The scene caused the principal's face to wrinkle slightly, but then he began to speak in a deep voice, "I didn't look down on anyone. I'm just doing my job."

"What a good reason!" Levi shouted coldly, then pointed at his son. He told Principal Gao, "Then I would like to ask you, Principal Gao, to do your job and retract your recent expulsion of my son."

21:23

Principal Gao shook his head and said, "It's impossible!"

Levi's face twisted, and he punched the stone pillar next to Principal Gao.

Bang! The stone pillar shook a little, and there were several cracks on it. A few pieces of debris fell onto the ground.

"Principal Gao, I don't like to hear the word 'impossible!'" Liam looked at Principal Gao with a threatening look.

Liam and his companions were all full of smiles at this moment. They were feeling smug and delighted.

"Principal Gao, we didn't make a mistake. You can't expel us."

"That's right. It was this b*tch who made the mistake. She offended us. She should be the one that got expelled."

.....

"Principal Gao, who are you going to expel? Think about it carefully!" Liam threatened Principal Gao with a confident smile.

The situation made Momo's face darken significantly. She was furious and was about to retort.

However, Lyla pulled her back with a surprised expression. She said, "Since Levi has appeared, then this 'Master Xu' whom they were talking about must be him."

Hearing this, Momo was a little confused and curious. She asked, "Auntie, do you know them?"

Lyla nodded, then glanced at Fade as she said to Momo, "No one can afford to provoke those people. Make that guy apologize, and maybe they would spare his life."

This caused Momo to frown and say, "Auntie, it was clearly their fault. Why should Fade apologize? It's impossible!"

21:23

Lyla chuckled and said, "In the face of absolute strength and influence, nothing is impossible!"

"Absolute strength and influence? Are they very powerful?" Momo asked.

"They aren't just powerful... They're extremely powerful!" Lyla said. "Let me tell you this. Levi was originally trained by the Yao family. His strength was extraordinary. He reached the peak of the Yellow Level and became one of Master Yao's personal guards."

"Hector's personal guard? So why is he here?" Momo was surprised.

Lyla continued, "Weren't you listening just now? Levi is a follower of Master Xu. Master Xu's name is Gary Xu. Gary's mother is from the Yao family and is Master Yao's aunt. In short, Gary is Hector's cousin."

"They have a good relationship. Some time ago, Gary said that he would leave the family to run his own business. Therefore, Master Yao arranged for his personal guard, Levi, to protect his cousin during this time," Lyla squinted slightly as she said.

"As you can see, they actually have a connection to Hector!" When it came to Master Yao, Momo couldn't help but frown in displeasure.

Chapter 666

Seeing that Momo was frowning and looking worried, Lyla smiled and said, "Now, they offended not just Levi, but also Gary and Master Yao.."

"This Fade Chen, he has the backing of a university principal, and that's not bad for him."

"However, compared to rich young masters like Master Yao and Gary, a mere principal is not even worth mentioning," Lyla said, looking at Fade as if she was watching a good show. "So, Momo, it's not too late for him to apologize now. It will be too late when Levi decides to take action."

Hearing this, even Momo looked worried. After all, even if she did not like Hector, she knew that the Yao family was very powerful and definitely not inferior to the Sun family in Long City.

Therefore, as she looked at the approaching Levi, Momo could not help but feel some worry for Fade.

At this moment, Levi continued to be aggressive. He stared at Principal Gao and said, "Principal Gao, my patience is limited. Do you make up your mind?"

Principal Gao turned his head and looked at Fade.

Seeing this, Fade stepped forward, nodded to Principal Gao, and said, "Let me do it."

Principal Gao felt as if he had been granted amnesty. He stepped back and made way for Fade.

21:23

As Fade moved forward, Levi narrowed his eyes and asked coldly, "Who are you?"

Before Fade could open his mouth, Liam immediately said with resentment, "Dad, he is the culprit. He hit us nearly three times. Teach him a lesson."

Hearing this, Levi stared at Fade coldly and said, "So it was you who hit my son. Tell me, how do you want to explain this?"

Fade shook his head and said, "There's nothing to explain, He deserved to be beaten."

"You're courting death!" Levi was furious. He glared at Fade and was about to attack him.

The situation shocked Momo. She pulled her aunt's arm and said, "Aunt, you're familiar with Gary and the Yao family. You should be able to stop Levi. Come on!"

However, Lyla sat still and she said, "I can do it, but why should I?"

Momo continued to plead and she even lost her temper. "Aunt, if you don't help me, I will never go home again."

After all, Momo was the daughter of the Soo family. Lyla wanted to matchmake Momo with Hector, so she could only nod and say, "I could say something, but I won't do it for nothing."

As she spoke, Lyla stood up and walked over. She said, "Levi, stop!"

Levi, who was about to launch an attack on Fade, was stunned. He looked at Lyla and sized her up. He frowned and said, "Who are you? Stay out of this."

Levi didn't recognize Lyla at first glance, and this embarrassed her. Her expression hardened as she said coldly, "As the bodyguard of the Yao family. How could you not recognize me, Lyla Soo?"

21:23

When he heard Lyla's name, Levi was shocked and he stared at her for a few moments. Then, he cupped his hands and said, "Director Soo, I didn't recognize you at first. Please forgive me."

The aggressive Levi saluted her publicly, and this made Lyla feel very proud.

Then, Lyla looked at Fade with a proud smile and said, "Now, do you know how the extremely powerful truly be like?"

Fade curled his lip and said nothing.

His expression made Lyla feel even more arrogant. She said to Fade, "Now, I'll give you a chance."

"As long as you leave Momo alone, never see each other again, I will help you solve the problem at hand. I'm sure Levi would give me face." Lyla looked confident. Then, she turned to Levi and said, "Levi, do me a favor. I have to protect this person today."

Hearing this, Levi's face changed, and he looked a little angry and embarrassed. "Director Soo, this man beat my son, I..."

Hearing this, Lyla flashed a look of displeasure as she said, "I will compensate you for your loss. There is one million on this card. You can have it first."

Seeing the bank card, Levi's expression relaxed a little, and then he smiled and said, "Since you have personally asked for it, Director Soo, I will definitely do you a favor."

"Today, I'll let this brat go!" As he spoke, Levi glared at Fade. He said coldly, "Kid, you're lucky today. Director Soo has protected you. But if there is a next time, you won't be so lucky."

After that, Levi took a step back.

Lyla crossed her arms in front of her chest and looked at Fade proudly, saying, "Now, it's your turn."

21:23

"From now on, leave Momo alone, and I will..."

Looking at the arrogant Lyla, Fade shook his head and laughed out loud.

Lyla suddenly frowned at the situation and said unhappily, "Why are you laughing? I am giving you a chance."

"A chance?" Fade looked at Lyla, He said with a smile, "You are thinking too much! When did I say that I want you to give me a chance? When did I say that I want you to protect me? Don't be so conceited!"

"Y-you... you ungrateful thing!" Lyla was so angry that her cheeks turned red. She shook her hand and shouted, "Since you're looking for death, then you'll have to suffer on your own."

With this, Lyla told Levi, "Levi, forget what I have just said. This person has nothing to do with me. You can do whatever you want to him."

After that, Lyla sat back down angrily.

At this moment, Levi clenched his fists with a ferocious look on his face. He aimed a punch at Fade. "B*stard, go to hell!"

When she saw the fist flying toward Fade, Lyla couldn't help but enjoy the pleasure of revenge. She gritted her teeth and said, "You deserve it. You'd better get beaten to death."

Liam and others were also excited, gnashing their teeth.

"Dad, beat that guy to death!"

"Beat him hard. Teach him a good lesson."

"Arrogant b*stard! Go to hell."

.....

Amidst the noisy shouting, Fade shook his head gently. Looking at the fist that was about to hit his face, he gently stretched out his right index finger and pointed forward.

Seeing this, Levi said disdainfully, "You're courting death!"

In an instant, Levi's huge fist, like a cannonball, was about to smash into Fade's finger, and also his arm. The impact would be enough to shatter anyone's bones.

However, at the moment of collision, Fade's slender index finger stopped Levi's aggressive fist, and Levi couldn't move an inch.

The situation stunned everyone present, and their faces were full of disbelief.

Chapter 667

Everyone watched the scene unfold in shock. At this moment, Levi's face was heavily wrinkled. He gritted his teeth and used all his strength to say, "Your finger will break!"

Levi expelled more strength and his cheeks were red. In spite of that, Fade still managed to stop Levi's fist with only his index finger. Levi kept standing there, unmoving.

"H-how could this be possible?" Levi could not believe what had just happened.

At this moment, Fade gently shook his head and said, "Nothing is impossible! You think it's impossible, but it's actually because you're too weak."

As he spoke, Fade's right index finger moved slightly and pointed forward.

In an instant, Levi felt an unstoppable force enter his arm. The tremendous force knocked his strong backward, and his body slammed into the wall of the hotel, slipped down the wall, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

The scene caused Liam and others, who were shouting happily, to be stunned. They waved their arms in the air and felt lost.

"H-how could this be possible?"

"Uncle Levi lost. T-this is impossible!"

"My father lost. He was defeated in one move. This..."

Liam and his gang were stunned. At this moment, Fade walked to face Levi with a cold expression, raised his right foot, stepped on Levi who was struggling to get up, and said coolly, "Now, who is in the wrong? Do you know?"

The look on Levi's face was extremely gloomy. He glared at Fade, gnashed his teeth, and said, "You're a martial arts practitioner. Who are you working for? I'm Gary Xu's man, and you..."

Despite the circumstances, Levi was still trying to intimidate Fade with his background.

This caused Fade to shake his head and say coldly, "It seems like you have not realized your mistake yet. In that case, I will educate you more thoroughly."

As he spoke, Fade turned around and looked at Liam. He kicked Liam's right arm.

Suddenly, there was a loud cracking sound. Liam screamed because his right arm had been instantly broken. He fell to the ground, clutching his arm, and shouting in pain. The veins on his face were bulging, and he was sweating profusely. He was in tremendous agony.

Levi was furious when he saw that his son was injured. He gritted his teeth and wanted to get up and fight Fade.

"You hurt my son, so I'll fight you to death. I will kill you. I..." At this moment, Levi gnashed his teeth and was full of anger, as if he wanted to skin Fade alive and devour him.

However, Fade turned around and kicked Levi to the ground again. Then he walked over, stepped on Liam's left arm with his right foot, and looked at Levi coldly.

"If you dare to touch my son, I won't let you go, and Master Xu would not let you go either," Levi roared with blood all over his mouth.

Hearing this, Fade didn't say anything at all. He snorted and exerted force onto his foot. With another loud crack, Liam's left arm was broken too. Liam was screaming and almost fainted from the agony.

When Levi saw this, it seemed like his bloodshot eyes were about to pop out of his eye sockets. Blue veins popped out of his forehead. He stared at Fade fiercely and wanted to get off the ground.

However, Fade just waved his hand casually and struck a blast of Qi energy, hitting Levi squarely in the chest, immediately knocking him to the ground again.

Levi, who was limp on the ground and leaning against the wall, felt powerless and angry. At this moment, all he could do was plead helplessly. Looking at Fade, he said, "Please, I beg you, stop it. He is still a child, and he is innocent."

Hearing this, Fade sneered and shook his head. He kicked Liam to the ground and said, "Is he still a child? A child who bullies others and is arrogant and domineering?"

"Now, your son is injured. Do you understand the pain now? Previously, when your son bullied other people, why didn't you think about it? Didn't you consider the pain of their parents?" Fade asked.

Levi's face changed. He couldn't answer Fade's question. He could only keep begging, "I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I'm willing to bear all the mistakes for him. Please, don't hit him anymore."

Looking at Levi who was pleading so pitifully, Fade snorted coldly and then kicked Liam back to Levi's side. Fade said coldly, "For your father's sake, I will spare your life. Get out of here. Don't let me see your face again, otherwise, you know the consequences."

Levi nodded quickly and thanked him. Then, he gritted his teeth and stood up. He helped Liam whose arms were broken and walked out of the hotel.

As for Liam's companions, they wanted to leave with Liam too. However, with a wave of his hand, Fade broke all their arms, and then kicked them out of the hotel one by one.

After doing all this, Fade turned back and said to Principal Gao, "Principal Gao, it's alright. Sorry for troubling you today."

Principal Gao quickly waved his hand and said, "Mr. Chen, it was no trouble at all. Besides, this was originally a matter of our school. It is our inept management that caused this to happen. I have to thank you, Mr. Chen, for your help."

"Well, enough with the pleasantries. Go ahead and deal with the university's affairs," Fade waved his hand and said.

Principal Gao immediately left respectfully. Next, Fade asked the hotel staff to take Louise to the hospital for treatment.

Then, he turned back with a smile on his face. Momo immediately rushed over with a smile and held Fade's arm intimately. "Honey, you were so amazing."

When she saw this, Lyla's expression turned cold and her face fell. She shouted, "Momo, what are you doing? How can you behave like this in front of so many people?"

But Momo didn't let go. "Auntie, what era is it already? Besides, Fade is my boyfriend. We can hold each other's hand. What's wrong with that?"

Fade, along with Momo on his arm, sat back down in front of Lyla. Fade smiled and said, "So, Director Soo, what do you think of the lesson I taught Levi?"

21:24

As he said this, Lyla's face fell again. Fade refused her help just now, so she was angrily shouting for Levi to teach Fade a lesson. Unexpectedly, it was Fade who taught Levi a lesson.

Therefore, what Fade said felt like a mockery and Lyla's expression was very livid.

Without replying Fade's question, Lyla snorted coldly. Instead, she looked at Momo and said, "Momo, your marriage to Master Yao has been set by the elders of the two families. I'm just here to inform you of the matter. You have no say in this."

"Auntie, how can you be so oppressive? It's my marriage. You don't get to decide for me!" Momo was anxious.

Lyla said, "It's no use telling me. Your grandfather has already agreed to it."

"You... How can you do this?" Momo was angry and anxious, but she felt helpless.

Chapter 668

Seeing this, Fade pinched Momo's hand and comforted her softly, "Momo, don't worry. It's okay as long as I'm here. I will make sure you do not marry that Master Yao!"

Hearing this, Momo felt a little better.

However, Lyla sneered and said with a disdainful smile, "You? Don't think that because you have some money in Bay City, know a few people, and know some martial arts that it means something. When you come to South Bay City and stand in front of Master Yao, all of you are worthless."

When faced with Lyla's disdain, Fade was not angry. He said indifferently, "When we meet, we will find out if i'm really worthless. After all, just now, there was somebody who thought that I won't be able to hold myself against Levi."

He mocked Lyla with his words again and her face sank. She picked up her leather bag and stood up. "You are young and ignorant, so I have nothing to say to you."

"Momo, I've said everything I want to say. Come back home this coming winter holiday. The two families will confirm the marriage between you and Master Yao then." After Lyla finished speaking, she left right away.

When she heard this, Momo's face darkened.

Seeing this, Fade gently pinched Momo's cheek and said with a smile, "My dear Momo, don't be angry. I just said that I won't let you marry that Yao guy."

Momo was still unhappy, "What's the point of you saying this, Fade? You can't marry me. When I go home during the winter vacation, my family will still force me to do it."

Fade paused and then said with a smile, "Who said I can't marry you?"

Momo was stunned, then she looked at Fade and said, "Fade, you are joking again. You are married to my Sister! Moreover, just now, when you thought that I liked you, you rejected me. However, now you are saying that you want to marry me. You men are playboys."

Fade was speechless. He explained, "Momo, I didn't mean that! I meant, since I have pretended to be your boyfriend, why can't I pretend to be your husband?"

"Pretend to be my husband?" Momo tilted her little head and thought about the feasibility of this method. However, when she saw Fade's smiling face, she immediately raised her tiny fist and gave him a few punches. "You evil guy, you are taking advantage of me again. It's not easy to pretend to be a husband. You need the documents, hold a wedding, and..."

Momo paused as she suddenly thought of something. She blushed, and stopped talking.

When he saw this, Fade smiled and said, "And we'll need to sleep on the same bed. Other things might be a little troublesome, but this one will be quite simple."

"Hmmp, Fade, you are still trying to take advantage of me?" Momo glared at Fade angrily and said. "If you continue like this, I will tell Quin about the photos I've saved on my mobile phone."

"Momo, I just helped you. You can't turn against me like this!" Fade immediately sat upright and did not dare to say anything else when she heard his threat.

Momo looked at Fade with a proud look and said, "Yes, you've already helped me. Since I don't have to beg you now, I'm not afraid anymore."

Fade was speechless. "Momo, you can't do this! You're repaying kindness with ingratitude!"

"I don't care. Fade, why did you take advantage of me just now?" She pouted and took out her mobile phone at the same time, pretending to send a message.

Seeing this, Fade rushed over to grab her mobile phone. "Momo, I was wrong. Hurry up and put your mobile phone down."

"Humph, I don't believe you, Fade. I want to call Quin!" Momo got up and dodged.

As a result, as she was running around, Momo stumbled and was about to fall.

Seeing this, Fade stepped forward, stretched out his arm, grabbed Momo's waist, leaned over, did a twist, and landed under Momo as they fell to the ground.

As a result, Momo lay on top of Fade in an extremely flirtatious position.

Moreover, they were very close to each other; face to face, chest to chest, and with their legs intertwined.

Fade's large hands even circled Momo's waist and landed on certain key parts of her body.

The situation stunned both of them for a moment.

What was even more unfortunate was that right before she fell, Momo had switched on a video call with Quin.

So, at this moment, the phone, which fell not too far away, had the two of them perfectly in frame as the call with Quin connected.

"Momo, is there something...?" Quin, who had just answered the video call, greeted calmly. When she saw the scene on the screen of the phone, she was obviously stunned and she stopped talking.

At this moment, as Fade and Momo heard Quin's voice, they were dumbfounded when they saw the video call connect.

"Sister, this, this is not... Fade and I, we..."

Momo tried to explain as she struggled to get off Fade. As a result, she became more unstable. Consequently, she fell again and kissed Fade on the lips. Her soft and delicate body landed right in Fade's arms.

On the other end of the video call, Quin, who was calm and steady, couldn't help but tremble when she saw what was going on. She said, "If it's not convenient to talk now, I will call you later."

As she spoke, Quin was about to end the call.

At this moment, Fade was also anxious and he hurriedly shouted, "Honey, don't do that. This is really a misunderstanding. Momo and I are innocent. We just accidentally..."

Unfortunately, right then, a waiter approached and asked with concern, "Sir, are you and your girlfriend okay? Do you need our help?"

Hence, Quin, who was on the other end of the video call, ended the call.

Fade was so exasperated, he was almost in tears. He helped Momo up and they both sat on the ground.

Momo was really worried. She lowered her head and looked at Fade, saying, "Fade, Sister has discovered our affairs, so what should we do?"

As soon as she said this, Fade noted with certainty that the waiter and other guests around him changed their expressions and whispered.

"A guy getting having an affair with his sister-in-law? This is so dramatic!"

"F**k, this boy is so lucky. He has such a beautiful sister-in-law."

"This sister-in-law is so pretty. I'm sure her sister is not bad either. That guy has conquered two sisters at the same time. Tsk tsk!"

.....

Obviously, those were the men talking.

As for women, they were obviously saying something completely different.

"What a shameless guy, how dare you do such a thing in front of so many people?"

"She managed to seduce her brother-in-law at such a young age. What a vixen."

"A vile couple!"

"If this happened in ancient times, they would be put inside a cage and dragged through a river as a form of torture!"

.....

Chapter 669

Listening to the discussion and cursing from the crowd, Fade was even more speechless. He said quietly, "Momo, be careful! If you say that, it sounds like I had an affair with my sister-in-law."

However, she did not realize the ambiguity of her words at this moment. She muttered, "What should I do? Will my sister blame me? How should I explain myself? Although you have seen my body, but..."

As he heard Momo's words gradually get more misleading, Fade quickly covered her mouth and left the hotel with her.

Once they were outside, Fade shook the dazed Momo so hard that she came back to her senses.

Then, Fade and Momo standardize their statements regarding this matter and Fade was ready to explain it to Quin.

They had to agree on a common statement not because Fade was trying to hide anything. After all, nothing had happened between him and Momo. It was just that Momo sometimes spoke without thinking, and what she said could sometimes be misleading.

Therefore, in order to avoid deeper misunderstanding, Fade and Momo had to come up with an agreed statement to explain the situation to Quin.

Then, Fade drove back home right away.

When they got home, as soon as Fade entered the villa, he saw Quin sitting on the sofa in the living room, drinking tea.

21:24

"Dear, I'm back!" Fade smiled tentatively as he walked in.

Quin merely glanced at him, and then she turned her head without saying a word.

Seeing this, Fade felt a headache. He went to Quin's side and said with a smile, "Dear, I went to the campus just now because your cousin needed my help with something. I went..."

Fade spoke cautiously. In his speech, he didn't even dare to refer to Momo by name, for fear that his wife would feel that he was overly close to Momo.

However, before Fade could finish speaking, Quin interrupted him coldly, "There's no need to explain. I know everything now."

Hearing this, Fade was exasperated to the point of tears. His wife's misunderstanding had deepened. "Honey, there's really nothing between your cousin and myself. What you saw in the video was an accident. At that time, we were..."

Quin interrupted Fade again in a cold voice. "I've said it. I know about it already. I don't want to listen to your explanation."

As Quin spoke, she stood up.

Seeing this, Fade was about to cry. He grabbed Quin's arm and said, "Dear, you really misunderstood. Momo and I didn't do anything at all. The waiter referred to Momo as my girlfriend only because Momo's aunt came to talk about her engagement, so I..."

"I don't want to hear your excuses. Let go of me!" Quin's voice was a little cold and even a little anxious.

"Dear, why don't you listen to my explanation? I really didn't..." Fade held Quin's hand and refused to let go.

Quin frowned and said, "I've told you, I know everything now. Let go of me."

"Dear, if you don't listen to my explanation, I won't let go!" Fade refused to let go.

Quin's face darkened and said, "I've told you that I know everything. I know Momo's family forced her to get married. She didn't want to, so she asked you to pretend to be her boyfriend to deal with Lyla Soo. Then, when you were making a fuss, you accidentally fell down, which led to what happened."

Quin's words surprised Fade. "Ah, Honey, so you know everything..."

"Like I said just now. I know everything," Quin said.

"I thought you were just making a fuss. After all, you didn't look very happy just now," Fade touched his head.

Quin said with a cold face, "That's just my usual expression."

Fade quickly corrected her, "Honey, you look great all the time. Perfect and flawless. It was I who misread you. It's my fault."

Quin shook her hand and said in a somewhat anxious tone, "I see. Now, you can let me go!"

Fade's heart skipped a beat when he saw the expression on Quin's face. "Honey, are you angry again? Did you lie to me just now?"

Quin's face turned a little red at that moment. She shook her hand hard and said, "Let me go!"

"No, Honey, if you don't make it clear to me, I won't let you go," Fade said.

Quin's face turned redder as she twisted her body unnaturally. She glared at Fade and twisted her wrist.

In the end, she couldn't overcome Fade's strength. She could only say with a red face, "I-I'm going to the bathroom. Let me go."

"Ah, the bathroom?" Fade was still in a daze.

Quin said in a hurry, "I drank a few cups of tea just now and was about to go to the bathroom, but then you got back. You pulled me over to talk about this and that right away. Did you think that my face would look good in a situation like this?"

Hearing this explanation, Fade was stunned. It turned out that his wife had not misunderstood and she was not asking him to leave out of her anger. Instead, she drank too much tea and needed to go to the toilet.

Suddenly, Fade smiled and quickly loosened his grip. "I'll let go. Dear, go to the bathroom. It's unhealthy to hold your urine in for so long."

Quin's face turned red immediately. She glared at Fade and trotted toward the bathroom.

Fade, who had clarified the misunderstanding, was in a good mood at the moment. He sat on the sofa and hummed a tune.

Meanwhile, just as Fade returned home, Levi and his son, Liam, were both lying in hospital beds.

At this moment, a young man in his mid-twenties was standing in front of their beds.

Liam's face was full of resentment. He looked at the young man and said, "Master Xu, I'm in this state because that horrible Fade Chen beat me up. You must not let him go. You must not. I want him to be torn to pieces."

Master Xu nodded and said, "Don't worry. He's just a local gangster. I can crush a man like him with the mere flick of my fingers."

As for Levi, at this moment, he seemed really afraid of Fade's fighting skills. He said, "Master Xu, that guy is really skilled at fighting. I'm afraid that Fade has the strength of the Black Level Realm. You can't take him lightly."

Master Xu smiled and said, "Pooh, a Black Level master is not even worth mentioning! Fade is just one man. I have more than half of the forces in Bay City under my control. I will launch a massive attack soon. When that happens, he will definitely die."

"Massive attack? Already?" Levi was a little surprised. "Master Xu, are you going to attack Uncle Jimmy's people?" Master Xu said, "I didn't come to Bay City to share the territory. That Uncle Jimmy, he's just an old guy. I can kill him at anytime. It's no big deal."

"But Jimmy seems really powerful too. Master Xu, you..." When Levi heard what Master Xu said, Levi wanted to remind him of Jimmy Wei's power.

However, Master Xu did not care at all. He waved his hand and said, "I have arranged for the massive attack. Levi, you don't have to worry about it. Take good care of yourself."

Chapter 670

At this point, Levi had nothing more to say on the matter. He started talking about Lyla and could not help saying, "Master Xu, at that moment, I saw Lyla from the Soo family. Lyla seems to know that guy, and she even wanted to help him."

"If it's related to the Soo family, then I'm afraid..." Levi said.

Gary shook his head and said, "Don't worry. Lyla has already made it clear to my cousin. She has nothing to do with that guy. There is no need to consider the Soo family."

"I see. That's great," said Levi.

"Well, have a good rest," Gary said goodbye and left the hospital.

Meanwhile, Fade went home and spent some time with his wife. The next day, he went to Long Enterprise.

Uncle Jimmy had not returned and that was why Tom Wei was in Long City. At this moment, Darren Hong and his gang, the Four Heavenly Kings, were at the helm of Long Enterprise.

In the conference room, Darren gave Fade a detailed report on the investigation of the past few days.

Upon completion of the investigation, Darren and the others were shocked by the results.

Master Xu had only been in Bay City for a few months, and he had never fought Long Enterprise head on. Initially, Darren and the others didn't take him seriously.

But now, from the investigation, they discovered that within a few months, Gary's people had penetrated more than half of the forces in Bay City.

Although many of them were gangsters and small forces on the street, Gary's sphere of influence was comparable to Long Enterprise.

If Fade hadn't asked Darren to investigate this matter, Long Enterprise would have continued in their ignorance, been kept in the dark, and eventually get swallowed by Master Xu's people.

By that time, it would be too late for Long Enterprise to realize what had happened.

At this point, the Four Heavenly Kings could not help but feel angry and fearful. After all, Uncle Jimmy handed the territory over to them to care for, and this happened within just a few months. They were not doing a good job at all.

Therefore, at this moment, the Four Heavenly Kings were eager to defeat Master Xu and take back the territories that had been taken over.

After listening to the explanation, Fade thought for a moment and then asked, "What's your plan now?"

While gesticulating over the map, Darren explained to Fade, "Mr. Chen, we've contacted Uncle Jimmy, and he'll be back soon. Meanwhile, we have secretly gathered our men, and we're prepared to break through Gary's territory gradually."

"Tell me in detail," Fade said.

Darren explained, "Now, Gary's men are on a par with us in terms of overall scale. But after all, he is an outsider, and he managed to recruit the people he did because of money. His operation is not very stable."

21:24

"Therefore, their territories are relatively scattered. It's here, there, and everywhere. It's not convenient for them to gather."

"Our territory is an entire plot of land. As long as we gather enough manpower to attack their separate territories, we can break them one by one and finally recover our territory."

Fade nodded and said, "That's a good plan. What stage are we now in terms of preparation?"

Darren pointed at their territory in North Bay City and said, "We have gathered 500 loyal men and we are ready to attack this area the day after tomorrow."

"The territory located in the south originally belonged to the Wan family. After you defeated them, Mr. Chen, Uncle Jimmy took over this area and handed the territory over to Elder Fang, who was in charge of the steel business, to look after."

"Elder Fang is an indigenous in Bay City. He is very familiar with this area and has a lot of steel factories under his name. We, along with Elder Fang, will launch an attack on Gary's small plots of land in the south. They will definitely not be able to resist."

Looking at the map, Fade couldn't help but nod.

Indeed, the location of the territory was good. It was like a wedge that directly inserted Gary's territory in South Bay City, splitting the two into halves.

If they started the attack from there, it would be really difficult for Gary to resist. In addition, Darren and Elder Fang were both locals, so it was also their advantage as they were familiar with the territory. They expected to be victorious in this big battle.

"You're familiar with the situation. Since I'm not as familiar with things, I won't intervene. I'll just follow your plan," Fade said. "If there's any unforeseen situation, you can contact me."

"Yes, thank you, Mr. Chen." Darren and others were full of joy.

Fade said goodbye and left Long Enterprise.

For the next two days, the atmosphere in Bay City became tense. Especially for Long Enterprise, which had been quiet for a long time. They suddenly gathered troops and people could not help but smell war.

Instantly, there were rumors about the conflict between Long Enterprise and Master Xu. The public debated hotly who they predicted the winner to be.

Amidst this atmosphere, time was up and the war was about to begin.

As planned, Darren and Long Enterprise, along with hundreds of people, gathered in the steel factory in the south and launched an attack on Master Xu's territory.

Fade waited for Darren's news at home.

He glanced at the time and saw that it was already three o'clock in the afternoon. It had been two hours since Darren and others had started the battle.

If things went smoothly, they should have gotten Gary's first plot of land.

Just as Fade was deep in thought, his cell phone rang. It was from Darren.

Fade answered the phone immediately and said, "How is it? Did you conquer it?"

Darren's anxious and angry voice came from the other end of the line, "Mr. Chen, we lost. Third Brother and Fourth Brother were caught."

"What?" Hearing this, Fade was shocked and he immediately said, "How could you lose? What exactly happened?"

21:25

"Elder Fang betrayed us. He colluded with that Master Xu and set up an ambush against us." Even Fade could hear Darren's angry roar through the phone.

Suddenly, Fade's face darkened and he said, "Where are you? I'll be right there."

"I'm in the company. Mr. Chen, come quickly!" Darren said.

Fade hung up the phone and rushed to Long Enterprise.

When he reached the company's meeting room, Darren and others were sitting inside. Their faces were gloomy, some of them were injured, and they were smoking. The whole meeting room was filled with smoke.

Seeing Fade enter, Darren stood up right away and greeted him, "Mr. Chen, you're here!"

Fade waved his hand and said, "Just tell me what happened."
