

Chapter 191

Jason Smith replied, "It's okay."

On the other hand, Joe Qiao replied, "Young master, are you in the Dragon Palace? Mr. Qian, the head of the capital city of the Smith Group, happens to be with me. He wants to meet and talk about Bi Kang's investment with you. Should I ask him to wait for you in the Dragon Palace?"

The person in charge of Smith Group's capital city branch?

Jason looked suspicious and a playful smile appeared on his face. He looked at Hudson Han who was still bragging away and replied, "Okay, invite him to come over."

After finishing, Jason put down his mobile phone.

The Smith Group was big. The branch in the capital city was just a small section of the company as a whole.

Amanda Yang was really disappointed. After muttering for a while, she smiled apologetically and said to Hudson and her second sister, "How could I let you spend so much? Why don't I pay for today's meal?"

She obliged to treat this people..

This made a deep hole in Amanda's pocket.

But there was no other way. She had to make a good impression.

How could a loser like Jason ever help her to gain respect?

That would never work.

"Oh, Aunt Amanda, it's a just meal. Why are you being so polite? Besides, Hudson's annual salary is more than four hundred thousand dollars. This isn't so expensive. But can Jason afford to pay the room fee? Can he afford to pay for the Dragon King's banquet?"

Cecelia Zhou put away her cosmetic box at this time. She sneered and mocked him mercilessly.

This was amazing. She had not been able to show off in front of Cindy Jiang for a long time.

If Cindy had not had found such a loser for a husband, Cecelia really would not be able to show off in front of a perfect woman like her.

"That's right, Aunt Amanda. You just enjoy the meal. This is just a small amount of money. It's nothing to me."

At this moment, Hudson was full of energy that he could show off his wealth.

His main reason for feeling happy was that he could do this in front of Cindy.

Thanks to that loser Jason, Hudson could look powerful and respected.

Amanda had almost buried her head at the bottom of the table. It was so embarrassing. She was really jealous of her second sister, Josephine Yang and also felt hate for Jason.

She looked at him.

Jason was still sitting next to Cindy with a silly smile and did not know what to say.

"Laughing?! What are you laughing at? Look at Hudson and then at yourself! If you were half as capable as him, I, Amanda, would give you respect!"

Amanda was so angry that she got a headache.

She stared at Jason and complained.

Cindy wanted to defend Jason when she heard this, but Jason held her hand under the table.

"It's okay." Jason whispered in Cindy's ear.

On the other hand, Josephine and Cecelia who were sitting opposite to him gave a mocking laugh.

The feeling of being high above the masses and looking down on a loser was really satisfying.

Then Jason calmly said to Amanda, "Mom, in fact, I'm quite rich as well. If you don't believe me, I will pay for today's meal."

"What?"

Amanda was so angry that she was about to explode when she heard this!

What did he mean by 'pay for the meal'?

Could he afford it?

The Dragon King's banquet cost ten thousand dollars per pax!

There were six people present which meant it would cost sixty thousand!

Was it possible that he just wanted his mother-in-law to pay in the end?

Therefore, Amanda immediately blamed Jason, "You are getting more and more shameless! Do you think you have money just because you say so? Whose money is it? It's Cindy's! How much money can you make in a year with your poor salary?"

"Mom, I'm really rich. I have..."

"What's you have? Shut up!" The more Amanda talked, the angrier she became. She immediately interrupted Jason.

Jason had nothing to say. He would definitely not be able to argue with Amanda, so he could only give up.

"Aunt Amanda, don't quarrel with Jason. I don't think it's easy for him. How about this? I can arrange a job for him where he will be able to earn more than ten thousand dollars."

Hudson said this in a generous manner.

Amanda nodded vigorously, "Then I'll leave it to you."

Hudson's vanity was greatly satisfied. He got up and walked over to Jason's side. He patted Jason's shoulder and said with a smile, "Jason, as a grown man you shouldn't rely on Cindy all the time. If you want to work and make money, you can come to me at any time. I can arrange it for you. What do you think?"

Jason raised his eyebrows and looked calm. Looking at the smug and arrogant Hudson, he thought, "Isn't this guy just using this opportunity to come to me and show off in front of Cindy?"

Could he make the arrangements for him?

He, Jason made arrangements for his CEO. And Hudson was going to make arrangements for him?

Did he really think he's useless?

"You don't have to do that, Hudson. I like depending on my wife to support me. She likes it too."

Jason was shameless. He pulled Cindy and said this with a smile.

"Okay, I'll support you." Cindy cooperated and smiled with shimmering light in her eyes.

Hudson was furious when he saw this. He sneered and sat back down without saying a word.

Cecelia finally understood. At this moment, she kicked Hudson hard under the table and muttered, "What do you mean? Don't tell me you've fallen in love with my cousin!"

Her eyes were full of murderous intent.

Hudson smiled and took Cecelia's little hand to explain, "What are you talking about? You're the only one in my heart."

Afterwards, the meal was awkward. Josephine's family always looked for opportunities to condemn Jason. However, Jason did not care. He just ate his food. He could not let these silly words spoil his mood during the meal.

Cindy was very worried and kicked his foot. She asked in a low voice, "Are you okay? If you're uncomfortable, I'll leave with you."

Jason smiled, "It's okay. I'm used to it."

Hudson was even angrier when he saw Jason and Cindy whispering. He had to make a fool out of Jason in public!

"Manager Sun, what's going on? Didn't I mentioned that I've booked the Dragon King's private room?"

At this time, a very uncomfortable middle-aged man's voice came from the door.

"I'm really sorry. Mr. Wang, it's my mistake. How about I change it to the Crown Prince's Manor for you?"

"Change it? What's the point of changing it now? I want this room! Do you know who Chairman Qian wants to treat today? Tell the people inside to vacant the room and I'll pay for it."

"Well... Mr. Wang, to tell you the truth, the person inside the room is Health Care Pharmaceutical's General Manager. I really can't afford to offend him."

Hudson was the Health Care Pharmaceutical's General Manager that Manager Sun mentioned. After all, it was listed and top five hundred company. As a restaurant manager, he could not afford to offend him.

Hudson became angry the moment he heard the manager's argument from the outside. He stood up and shouted at the manager, "Who is outside the door? Don't you know we are eating? Manager Sun, send him out quickly!"

His shout made Josephine and other people in the private room feel that their status was heightened. They unconsciously puffed out their chests!

"I am Monte Wang."

As soon as he finished speaking, a man who was in his thirties and wearing glasses entered. He looked like a nice guy. He said politely, "Everyone, I'm very sorry. Can you change to another room? I've booked this room. You don't have to worry about the bill. I'll cover it. What do you think?"

"No! Why do you want us to change? What about the fee? Do you think you're better than us?"

"That's right. Who are you? What right do you have to tell us what to do?"

"Hudson isn't short of money, he doesn't need to change the room!"

Josephine and Amanda were the fiercest of them. They did not take Monte seriously at all.

Hudson panicked slightly at first when he heard Monte's name. It sounded familiar. However, his mother-in-law and his wife Cecelia spoke for him. He had to look tough, "Mr. Wang, we've only eaten half of the food. It's unreasonable for you to make us leave, isn't it?"

"Mr. Hudson? I'm really sorry. I hope you can do me this favor." Monte put his palms together as he said this.

"I'm sorry, I can't! It's okay if you want this private room. Let's talk about it after we've finished eating."

Hudson was stern. After all, he was in front of his mother-in-law and wife, not to mention Cindy and Jason were still here. He could not embarrass himself!

"That's right. Come back after we've finished eating. Hurry up and get out of here!"

Josephine began to swear again and said to Amanda, "Amanda, let's eat. Don't bother about him. Our Hudson knows the restaurant's boss. Who is Monte? I've never heard of him."

"Monte, what's the matter? Why haven't you changed the room? Master Smith will come later."

A voice came from outside, then an old whited haired man entered.

"Chairman Qian, you've come just in time. They don't want to change. Health Care Pharmaceutical's General Manager is treating his guests to dinner. He asked us to come back after they've finished eating."

Monte glanced coldly at Hudson as he said this.

"Chair... Chairman Qian?!"

Hudson's face turned pale with fear. He stood up in a flurry and panic.

"Hudson? Is this your private room?"

Hayes Qian had a vague memory of Hudson. He had met Hudson when he had last gone to Health Care Pharmaceutical.

"Chair...Chairman Qian, I, I didn't know that it was you who wanted this private room. This, this..."

Hudson's voice trailed off and he broke out in a cold sweat. This was the CEO of the Capital City Smith Group!

The last time he met with Prosperity Pharmaceutical's director, he was fortunate enough to have met Hayes briefly.

It could be said that he was the spokesperson of Master Smith in the capital city!

"Well, I've invited a distinguished guest to dinner later. Would you please let me know when you give this room to us? What do you think?"

Hayes said this with a dignified look.

"No problem, no problem, Chairman Qian, please."

Hudson hurriedly nodded in agreement and then he winked at his mother-in-law, Cecelia, and the others. This showed that they had to change the room quickly.

Everyone became angry but dared not say anything when they saw Hudson's behavior. They swallowed their anger and walked out of the room.

Josephine even muttered something angrily in a low voice.

However, all of a sudden!

"Chairman Qian, why don't you wait until we've finished eating before we change rooms?"

Meanwhile Jason who was still sitting in his seat and eating, said calmly.

Chapter 192

"Jason, what are you doing?"

Hudson Han shouted angrily. Where had this loser got the confidence to speak? If Jason Smith offended Hayes Qian, he would regret it.

"Do you know who he is? This is Mr. Hayes from the capital city branch of Smith Group ! You're too presumptuous. Apologize to Mr. Hayes immediately!"

Hudson felt anxious. how could Jason dare to say this?

This was the director from the Smith Group's capital city branch!

He handled the company's matters. That was a company that worth billions!

This truly showed Director Qian's power and networking ability!

"Are you crazy, Jason?!"

Josephine Yang exclaimed. She was almost scared out of her wits when she heard what her son-in-laws said!

Jason was too bold. Chairman Hayes was actually the CEO of Smith Group's capital city branch. What right did he have to poke his nose into other's business?

What a fool!

If they offended Director Hayes, everyone in this place would be in big trouble!

Therefore, Josephine and Cecelia Zhou's eyes were burning with anger at that moment. They stared at Jason who was still eating his dishes. They wanted to throw him out of the window so he could not annoy them anymore.

Amanda Yang was so scared that she did not dare to speak. Such a powerful figure was actually just stood in front of her!

Smith Group's capital city's CEO?

Wasn't that Young Master Smith's company?

Oh my God, was Master Smith in this restaurant as well? That was great.

Cindy Jiang's heart trembled when she heard

Hudson told her who he was. She immediately tugged on Jason's arm and urged him not to talk nonsense.

This was the rich man who had invested her company, so she could not afford to offend him.

If this rich man withdrew the investment because of Jason's nonsense, it would not be end well.

On the other hand, Hayes happened to hear this voice and frowned. When he was about to rebuke, he saw Jason leisurely eating vegetables behind the crowd. His eyes widened in shock.

Wasn't this the young master?

He was here!

Hayes' smile immediately changed to respectful and polite one. Just as he was about to run over to flatter him, he was halted by Jason's words.

"Chairman Hayes, I didn't expect to meet you here. Let's talk after we've finished eating. Anyway, you aren't in a hurry, are you?"

Jason said this calmly, but at the same time Hayes was stopped in his tracks by just one look.

Hayes who had been a part of the Smith family for so many years naturally learned the gestures. He immediately understood what young master meant. Young master wanted to keep a low profile. That was good.

He immediately smiled and bent over to Jason, "Yes. Yes. Yes. No hurry. I didn't expect Mr. Smith to be here, so I won't bother you. It's okay to go to the Prince's Pavilion. I apologize to everyone. Please continue eating and I'll change the room."

The people in the room were stunned and all stared at each other. They had no idea what had just happened.

Did Jason really just make Hayes exchange rooms with just with a few words?

This was unbelievable!

That was the CEO of Smith Group's capital city branch!

He was an experienced CEO who was in charge of a company that was worth hundreds of billions dollars!

What had happened to Jason? Was he still the loser they were used to?

Did he know Hayes?

Amanda and her second sister, Josephine were very suspicious. They looked over at Jason the loser, again and again.

Who was this guy actually?

After Hayes had left, the people in the room all looked at Jason with different expressions. They could not wait to find out.

Hudson turned around and looked at Jason who was still sitting there. He was full of doubt. Hayes had changed his mind because of what Jason had said.

And Hayes was from the capital city branch of Smith Group! That was so surprising!

It was the country's top company and wealthy family!

Anyone who dared to refuse them would be digging their own grave!

"Haha, Jason, I didn't expect that you'd know Director Hayes. Why didn't you tell me earlier?"

Hudson smiled. However envy and suspicion were hidden behind his smile.

Jason smiled faintly. He looked around at all the guests' eyes. They were eager to suck up to him, even though they were feeling suspicious.

He said, "Well, I admit that I know Director Hayes, but it's not as well as you think. I just met him when I was at home and doing business with my father. Director Hayes was not Smith Group's CEO back then. I didn't expect that he would be like this after so many years."

Jason said with a sad tone.

Hudson frowned. Although he was not very willing to believe it, it seemed to be quite credible.

Otherwise, how could Jason, a loser know someone like Hayes?

Josephine took a breath and said with a smile, "Haha, I thought that Jason was someone special. It turns out that they knew each other in the past. Director Hayes is really polite and just didn't want to quarrel with us. In my opinion, we should have given the room to him just now. So that we'll made a good impression on master Smith ."

As soon as she said this, Cecelia echoed, "Yes, mom, I think so too. But wasn't this Jason trying to show off? Well, now Mr. Hayes is gone."

Amanda was angry when she heard this.

Anyway, it was Jason's fault.

It was Jason's fault that he knew Hayes and it was also his fault that they did not leave the private room.

All in all, it was because he was a loser. So everything was his fault.

"Jason, when you encounter such a thing in the future, you should tell us. Don't just talk nonsense."

Amanda said discontentedly.

However, she had already set her mind on it.

What was Jason's family business in the past?

How could he knows Director Hayes? It must be quite extraordinary.

Could it be that his family had gone bankrupt?

It was possible!

On the other hand, Cindy who thought totally different from others, scorchingly looked at Jason.

Had her husband been hiding something from her?

Since Jason had told her that his family owned a restaurant, Jason seemed to have changed a lot.

Today, Director Hayes was another example.

Was it really that simple?

"What's wrong, Cindy? What's on your mind?"

Jason turned around and saw Cindy staring at him. His heart skipped a beat.

Had his identity been exposed?

Cindy smiled and said with her eyebrows raised, "It's all right. I'm just thinking about what kind of person my husband is, seems a little mysterious."

What the f*ck!

No way, could she have guessed it?

Jason was a little flustered. He hurriedly poured a glass of wine to calm himself down, and then said, "You think too much. I'm just an ordinary person, your husband, and Angela's father."

Cindy nodded and said nothing more.

When dinner was almost over, Jason told Cindy that he wanted to go to the bathroom. He went downstairs and came to Prince's Pavilion.

Hayes had sent him a text message just now and was waiting for him in the room.

"Young master."

Hayes brought several people to greet Jason at the door respectfully with a very respectful attitude.

Jason waved his hand and motioned them to go inside to talk.

After sitting down, Jason looked around for a while and saw a middle-aged man sitting at the head of the table. He had a strong jaw and a thick pair of eyebrows. He did not look angry but he was stern.

"By the way, Young master let me introduce you. This is Director Dong who's responsible for sourcing and investment."

Hayes introduced this person with a smile and then whispered to Jason, "Young master, the high-level officials in Shang Jiang City want me to contact you in order to talk about their investments. Director Dong is their representative this time around."

Director Dong reached out his hand and shook hands with Jason. He said with a reddened face, "Master Smith, I've heard a lot about you. You're a good disciple from a powerful family. You're very talented."

After a brief introduction, Jason had some dishes again with several senior executives in Shang Jiang City, and learned a lot about the current development situation of Shang Jiang City at the same time.

"Master Smith, to tell you the truth, we want to talk about the investment with you. Can you transfer some money to us for further developments?" Director Dong asked like a cunning old fox.

"How much do you want?" Jason asked with a smile.

Director Dong knew that it was possible, said while rubbing his hands, "Ten billion dollars. The main purpose is to build..."

"Well, you can negotiate with Director Hayes for specific details. It's just ten billion dollars. Let's try."

Jason said blandly.

Director Dong's heart skipped a beat when he heard that.

Ten billion dollars. How could they negotiate as easily as this?

Master Smith was really so rich!

Was ten billion dollars like nothing?

Director Dong had inquired about young master Smith, Charles Jiang's useless son-in-law before he came here.

Charles was from the same batch with him. However, Charles' career was not smooth and he left early, but the he had continued to progress .

Unexpectedly, Charles' son-in-law was the famous Smith Group's young master from the capital city!

Now, everyone in Shang Jiang City flocked to get to know Master Smith but they were rejected.

Even some of the businessmen and high-level representatives from other cities rushed to Shang Jiang City one after another. They were looking for opportunities to cooperate with Master Smith.

Before Jason left, he told Director Dong, "You should be able to find me. I hope Director Dong can take care of my wife's company If something happens.

Director Dong hurriedly agreed and did not dare to refuse.

After coming out of the room, Jason went back to Jiang family's old mansion with Cindy.

Then Cindy got ready to go back to the company. Jason accompanied her there. On the way, Cindy mentioned about the night's meal with Hudson.

"Jason, I'm going to have dinner with Hudson tonight. I want to meet the Smith Group's Master Smith. Do you want to come with me?"

Cindy asked. She was looking forward to it. Who was the Smith Group's young master?

As she thought about it, she glanced at Jason next to her. "Is it him?"

However, it did not take long for Cindy to dismiss this ridiculous idea.

Should not be.

Jason shook his head hurriedly, "I don't want to go. You just go to talk about business."

Cindy nodded and said nothing more. She got out of the car.

Just as Jason was about to ask the driver to turn around and go to the hospital, he received a phone call from Joe Qiao.

"Young master, there is a meal this evening. Several board members of family's pharmaceutical industry have specially prepared a banquet for you. Many local pharmaceutical bosses want to meet you," Joe said respectfully.

Jason was stunned for a moment. What f*cking dinner?!

He thought that it was Hudson who was deliberately setting him up, and he was going to find Bruce Scott to teach Hudson a lesson this evening.

Should he go or not?

He had just told Cindy that he did not want to go. Wouldn't his identity be exposed if he went there?

"Go!" Jason thought for a moment and replied.

Whatever, just go. Just hoped that they would not be too surprised when the time came.

Chapter 193

At about six o'clock in the evening, Jason Smith received a phone call from Joe Qiao while he was accompanying Angela in the hospital.

"Young master, there's a banquet for you tonight. Don't forget it. Do you need me to pick you up?"

"No, I can get there by myself." Jason replied.

He really had to attend the banquet at Empire Restaurant.

He was looking forward to meeting all of these people.

How would Cindy Jiang react when she realised who he was?

And Hudson Han? Would he be so scared that he pee his pants on the spot?

"Hey, Gerry, let's go to the mall and buy some clothes later. Join me for dinner tonight."

Jason called Gerry Liu, "By the way, bring your car and pick me up."

Jason only occasionally made some phone calls with Gerry since the incident.

Gerry was busy recently. It was really not easy to manage a company.

Gerry only partially knew of Jason's identity, which was already beyond an ordinary person's imagination.

He would bring Gerry with him tonight to introduce him to some resources and contacts.

That's what a best friend could do for him.

"Okay," Gerry replied.

After hanging up, Jason received an invitation card which had been sent by Joe right after he walked out of the hospital. But unfortunately, he ran into Cecelia Zhou who was just about to get into a car by the entrance. And this car was obviously the Lincoln that Hudson had bought for her. It cost more than one million dollars.

Of course, Cecelia saw Jason as well. The two of them looked at each other but did not say hello.

Her eyes were full of contempt.

Hudson felt like showing off. He rolled down the window and said with a faint smile, "Hey, aren't you Jason? Where are you going? Do you want me to fetch you?'

"It's okay." Jason said.

Hudson did not intend on pick him up either. He was just teasing Jason.

"Haha, loser, do you really think I'd give you a ride? Why don't you look at yourself in the mirror?"

Hudson muttered to himself. His voice was that not loud, but everyone heard him.

He pretended to be a proper gentleman in front of Cindy. However, he showed his true colors in front of Jason.

"Hudson, are you all right? Why are you talking with that loser? Let's go." Cecelia sat in the passenger seat as she said coldly.

She felt very uncomfortable. She came to the hospital for a check- up to see if she was pregnant.

Cindy already had two babies. Why couldn't she conceive?

Could it be that she had always aborted her babies before, so now it was hard for her to conceive?

Jason smiled coldly after he saw the car driving away. He really did not know what expression Hudson would have on his face at the banquet tonight.

When they arrived at their destination, Gerry parked the one-million-dollar Mercedes he had just bought by the roadside. He waved to Jason with a smile on his face, "Jason, over here."

When Jason got in the car, he saw that there was a woman in there too. She looked so beautiful, well-shaped, polite, and sweet.

"Hello, Brother Smith. I'm Gerry's girlfriend. My name is Belle."

Jason looked suspiciously at Gerry who was sitting in the driver's seat. He smiled, "Alright, have you forgotten about everything?"

Gerry grinned and turned back to say, "I've forgotten all about it, it was just a life lesson. Belle is from my hometown. Now she is working as a secretary in my company. We're ready to get married at the end of the year."

Jason was even more surprised. He smiled,

"Congratulations. I'll be sure to attend your wedding."

There was saying that the best way to cure a man's broken heart was to find another girl and marry her.

After that, the three of them headed straight to Wanda.

The purpose of Jason going out was to buy clothes. He spent whatever he wanted. He asked Belle to make decisions for them, and they just bought whatever she recommended..

Jason tried on a suit in front of the fitting mirror. Belle stroked her chin and shook her head. Then Belle also shook her head after Jason tried on the British style...

He tried a dozen suits one after another but none of them suited him.

In the end, he bought the most fitted, comfortable and elegant casual clothes from Brioni.

Jason could not believe it when he looked at himself in the mirror. Was that him?

He was so damn handsome!

Sure enough, men have to take care of their appearances too.

After three years of being cooped up, he had almost forgotten how handsome he was back then.

Then, they went to the Cartier store to buy a watch.

"Just this." Jason pointed at the diamond-studded watch on the counter.

One hundred and sixty eight thousand dollars!

He swiped his card and left with a stride!

A row of female waitresses bent down at the door and shouted respectfully, "You're welcome here anytime."

Rich people could always make others bow to them.

Everything was ready. There were two rows of salesgirls carrying things behind the three of them. They walked out of Wanda proudly!

This scene caused quite a stir at Wanda's entrance.

What a nouveau riche he was!

This cost him five hundred thousand dollars in total!

Three of them had changed into their expensive clothes!

"Let's go to the Empire Restaurant."

As soon as they got in the car, Jason shouted in excitement.

Jason did not know how his old acquaintances would react to his outfit when he appeared at the important gathering.

"I, Jason, am going to the Empire Restaurant's banquet!" he secretly shouted in his mind.

The Empire Restaurant was located in the downtown area. It was a very luxurious five-star hotel in Shang Shang Jiang City!

It was an ancient building!

The venue was magnificent and imposing with a total of seven floors!

The banquet must be very grand to hold the dinner here.

There were extremely strict security measures inside and out of the Empire Restaurant at that moment. After all, the guests present today were all big shots and entrepreneurs from the capital city. They were well-known businessmen from all walks of life in Shang Shang Jiang City. Hence, they could not afford to be careless.

There were a lot of reporters, who were ready to capture the story, gathered at the entrance.

Jason parked the car in the nearby parking lot and walked over.

As soon as he arrived at the door, he was attracted by this magnificent classical building design.

"Let's go. Let's walk inside." Jason said.

Just when he was about to take out the invitation card to hand it to the security guard, an Audi drove over quickly. A young couple got out of the car.

"What the f*ck, Jason? Why are you here?"

The one who walked over first was Hudson. He took off his sunglasses and squinted at Jason and the other two people. "Yo ho, this outfit is not bad. It's Brioni and it must be worth around ten thousand dollars. You hired it, right? How much per day? Didn't you say you wouldn't come? Why are you here?"

Gerry was very angry. He clenched his fists in anger as he said this, "It's none of your business! Who the f*ck are you?"

He was very unhappy with Hudson's attitude towards Jason.

"Haha, these two people. The clothes they're wearing look like they were taken from a garbage pile."

Cecelia, the little bitch was wearing a lemonade color coat and a white light-doom color skirt. She had bare legs and tender skin. With her hands crossed on her chest. The contemptuous expression on her face was very obvious.

"Hey, what are you talking about? Don't you know how to behave yourself?"

Belle could not stand it any longer and immediately pointed at Cecelia and retorted.

But Cecelia was not an easy-going woman. With a sniff, she pointed at Belle and asked Jason, "Hey, is this your sugar mommy? I don't think she looks good. She looks like a yellow croaker."

F*ck!

Belle was so angry that she rolled up her sleeves and scolded, "How can you talk like this? Who's sugar mommy? I'm Gerry's girlfriend! Do you wish for a slap?"

How could Gerry's girlfriend be this hot tempered?

Jason was stunned by what he saw.

This girl looked as innocent a virgin but was as violent as a woman!

"What? Do you want to hit me? Come on, I'm not afraid of you! Ugly woman!"

Cecelia put up her chest and walked forward, looking as if she was not afraid of death.

"I think you three are b*tches that sleep in the same bed. Shameless!"

Cecelia turned her face and cursed them again.

"I dare you to say it again!" Belle was angry.

Jason quickly pulled the furious Belle back. He shook his head, "Forget it. Don't argue with her. Let's go in."

Belle cursed a little more, then turned around and followed Jason and Gerry in.

Hudson sneered, "Jason, don't tell me you're going in?"

"Yes, what's the problem?" Jason naturally turned around and shrugged.

"Hahahaha..."

With a burst of laughter, Hudson laughed and patted Jason on the shoulder, saying, "Jason, do you know what this place is? Do you know what's going on tonight?"

"The Empire Restaurant, don't you know how to read?"

Jason pointed at the big characters on the brick wall above his head.

Huh?

Hudson was stunned, but his words were stuck in his throat and he looked confused. He said, "Yes, this is the Empire Restaurant, but not just anyone can enter. Moreover, tonight's banquet is being held for the big bosses and businessmen from the capital city. Also for entrepreneurs from Shang Jiang City. What is a loser doing here? If you don't trust your wife Cindy, you can wait at the door. I can kindly get three chairs for you."

Hudson's meaning was very obvious. Jason could not get in and he could only wait at the door.

"Is that so?"

Jason deliberately asked in confusion. He frowned slightly. He was thinking whether to ask Hayes Qian to come to the entrance with some people to welcome him.
