Jiang Ning walked over and sat in front of the buffet table to eat snacks and drink. He didn't even look at Li Genhong and seemed deaf to all the compliments people were paying him.

Lin Yuzhen made eye contact, but she was frowning slightly and seemed hesitant about what to say.

Maybe they were still trying to get used to things abroad?

Li Genhong could sympathize. Some of the people who flatter him now used to look like that too, but they got used to it in the end.

"Are you from Lin Group?" asked Li Genhong as he walked over and looked at Lin Yuzhen. Then he laughed and said, "Hi there, I'm Li Genhong. Miss Amelia must have told you about me, right?"

Although Amelia asked Li Genhong to take care of the people from Lin Group, he knew what she truly meant.

"Hi, I'm Lin Yuzhen, CEO of Lin Group."

Amelia didn't tell Lin Yuzhen about Li Genhong before. But judging from the guests' reactions, Li Genhong had high social status.

His status in that Chinese Chamber of Commerce they were talking about was especially high.

“Miss Amelia told me Lin Group wants to expand overseas. Since you are friends with her, then the Li family considers you a friend too. I will do my best to give you all my support,” said Li Genhong calmly as he looked at Lin Yuzhen with sincerity.

“Thanks!” said Lin Yuzhen as she nodded and raised her wine glass. “It’s Lin Group’s first attempt to go overseas, so there are plenty of things I don’t understand. If Young Master Li could give us any assistance, we’d be very grateful.”

“Sure,” said Li Genhong as he smiled. He turned and pointed at Jiang Ning and frowned slightly. Jiang Ning didn’t even bother to look at him the entire time. Then he asked Lin Yuzhen, “Who’s that?”

“Oh, I almost forgot.” Lin Yuzhen quickly called out, “Jiang Ning!”

Jiang Ning was focused on those exquisite cakes and was sending photos to the Legend of Shengcheng when he heard Lin Yuzhen call him and he turned around.

“Yes?” asked Jiang Ning as he waved. He saw someone standing next to Lin Yuzhen, so he walked over.

“This is my husband, Jiang Ning,” said Lin Yuzhen.

“How do you do?” said Li Genhong lukewarmly.

Lin Yuzhen was already married. Why did Amelia ask him to introduce some men to her?

But judging from Jiang Ning's appearance, he didn't seem impressive. Although he was dressed in a suit, it wasn't considered high-end, and he didn't give off the aura of a wealthy man.

"Not too bad," replied Jiang Ning as he nodded.

Li Genhong paused. He didn't expect such a casual answer from Jiang Ning.

He was accustomed to flattery, but Lin Yuzhen and Jiang Ning looked at him too composedly.

It seemed as though they were looking at an ordinary person, and Li Genhong didn't like it.

"If you want to develop your business overseas, it's best to join the Chinese Chamber of Commerce. The Li family has the most influence in it," said Li Genhong calmly as he narrowed his eyes without beating around the bush. "Since Miss Amelia introduced you, I will get straight to the point and be blunt about it."

"The fees for joining the Chinese Chamber of Commerce is 20% of your annual profit. But I can do Miss Amelia the favor of taking only 15% from Lin Group."

Li Genhong sounded as though he was being charitable and doing them a favor. He sounded particularly lofty when he glanced at Jiang Ning.

At first, he didn't want to give them a 5% discount on member's fees, but when he saw Jiang Ning, he suddenly wanted to show off his influence to Lin Yuzhen.

Li Genhong wanted to see the look of thrill, excitement, and gratitude on Jiang Ning's face.

But there were none at all.

"Who said we wanted to join the Chinese Chamber of Commerce?" asked Jiang Ning as he glanced at Li Genhong and shook his head. "I'm sorry, but we aren't interested."

“What did you just say?”

Li Genhong thought he misheard Jiang Ning.

The wine glass in his hand even moved gently.

A nasty look flashed in his eyes when he looked at Jiang Ning.

Li Genhong didn't like it when people rejected him, especially when he was doing them a favor!

“I said, we aren't interested in the Chinese Chamber of Commerce or the Li family,” said Jiang Ning calmly. “The membership fees are 20% of our annual profit. Are you crazy about money or what?”

Li Genhong started to look angry now.

“We did Amelia a favor by coming. She said you didn't have a lot of friends and was pitiful, so we came to chat with you out of sympathy,” sighed Jiang Ning. “But I didn't think that you would be delusional.”

Jiang Ning's eyes were filled with so much pity that it made Li Genhong suddenly inhale deeply. A wave of fury instantly surged into Li Genhong's heart.

“Did you say I was delusional?” asked Li Genhong as he stepped forward. He was less than a meter away from Jiang Ning.

“Brat, do you have any idea who I am? If I want to do charity, it's not up to you to reject me!"

"Then I'm not interested," said Jiang Ning casually without the slightest change in his expression.

"You..." said Li Genhong as his expression darkened.

But he wasn't mad enough from the embarrassment to fight with Jiang Ning here.

Li Genhong scoffed coldly and turned to look at Lin Yuzhen.

"Miss Lin, is this his personal opinion, or does Lin Group agree?"

Lin Yuzhen glanced at Jiang Ning.

"We don't want to join the Chinese Chamber of Commerce."

She had never heard of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce before.

Neither had she ever heard about paying member's fees to the Chinese Chamber of Commerce before they could run their business abroad. The member's fees were 20% of the company's annual profits. That was as good as daylight robbery.

Now Lin Yuzhen suddenly realized that Amelia was genuinely up to no good.

Amelia wanted to place Lin Group in front of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to either become a slice of meat to chew on or wait for them to have a conflict!

This woman's ultimate goal wasn't Jiang Ning. It was Lin Group.

Lin Yuzhen's words made Li Genhong utterly infuriated.

"You think too highly of yourselves," said Li Genhong coldly. "Lin Group won't be able to operate without the support of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce when it's abroad! But I can give you a chance if you apologize!"

Li Genhong stared at Lin Yuzhen as he said coldly, "If you do your best to please me, I can forgive you for your ignorance..."

BAM!

Jiang Ning kicked Li Genhong and sent him flying for several meters.

"How can you talk like that to my wife? Apologize? Please you?" sneered Jiang Ning coldly. "Even I would think twice about talking to her like that!"

"You..."

Li Genhong retreated by several meters and knelt on the ground as he held his belly in agony.

His face was completely livid!

UNGGGHH!!!

He let out a stifled cry and trembled for a while before he looked up and roared at the top of his lungs, "What the hell are you waiting for? Kill him!"

Jiang Ning's kick almost made his guts knot up!

Chen Guo rushed out and walked over from a distance when he heard the noise. Then he helped Li Genhong up with a look of shock on his face.

No one had ever dared to touch Young Master Li from the Li family while they were on the Chinese Chamber of Commerce's territory.

"Attack!" roared Chen Guo. "Break their legs!"

Dozens of men instantly charged over. The businessmen around them were terrified.

They didn't think someone would dare to get into a fight here. Or that Lin Group, which had just ventured abroad with plans to expand, would be the one picking a fight.

Were they insane?
