Those leaders literally disappeared into thin air.

All of Black Dragon Society went into a frenzy. Several highly skilled fighters took action but they turned out to be like a stone thrown into the ocean. They didn't cause a single ripple and they just disappeared without a trace.

News got out that all these highly skilled fighters had made their way to Extreme Martial Arts Academy, but while nothing happened to the academy, all these men went in and never came out again.

Important members of Black Dragon Society disappeared one after another. Leaders and elders both disappeared as if it was their fate and nobody could do anything about it.

Even the head of Black Dragon Society started to panic. Nobody in Korea had ever challenged the Black Dragon Society before. Furthermore, this wasn't even a challenge!

This was a massacre!

Five days!

Black Dragon Society lost eight leaders, three elders and suffered more than a thousand casualties.

It was as if an earthquake had shaken the country. Seoul was already a city that never slept, but now everyone was so afraid of the night, as if spirits would emerge from hell, so many people didn't dare to walk the streets at night anymore.

Besides Black Dragon Society, Lin Group was also making big waves.

Within five days, Lin Group's products landed in Seoul like a torpedo and immediately took the Korean market by storm.

The exquisite products and their perfect effects instantly caused a frenzy in just a few days.

Lin Group broke through all of Lee Group's weaknesses and their aggressive attacks made it hard for Lee Group to react in time.

They never knew that the marketing department had so many loopholes and Lin Group had caught them all.

In the main hall of the Lee house.

The atmosphere was unbearably tense.

"In five days, Lee Group has lost more than $1 billion!" The man in the seat for the head of the family had a grim look on his face as he slammed the table and roared angrily, "What happened during these five days and what have all of you been doing?!"

He was furious.

Five days had actually passed before he was told about this.

"This Lin Group has really been aggressive," spoke up one of them. "I'm afraid they've used the secrets from Consultant Seo to attack Lee Group."

“This Lin Group is despicable! Shameless!”

“Mr Lee, we can’t just let Lin Group off like that. They’ve barged into Korea and barged into Seoul to challenge and humiliate Lee Group like this. If we don’t fight back, then we’ll lose any reputation we have.”

Someone else chimed in and said loudly, “Mr Lee, you have to punish Lin Group severely!”

Lee Seongbong ignored him. Punish severely?

Tsk!

He turned to look at the silent Lee Seongjae.

“Seongjae, what do you say? I heard you lost five highly skilled fighters? How did they die? Is it Lin Group’s doing too?”

“It’s the Extreme Martial Arts Academy,” replied Lee Seongjae. “It’s a martial arts academy with very close ties to Lin Group.”

He looked at Lee Seongbong and narrowed his eyes.

“The Extreme Fist Technique manual is within this Extreme Martial Arts Academy.”

Once he mentioned the name Extreme Martial Arts Academy, he knew that Lee Seongbong would find out about the manual and he couldn’t keep it from him.

As expected, Lee Seongbong scoffed. He had asked this on purpose.

Extreme Martial Arts Academy opening a branch in Seoul was big news after all. It was possible to keep it under wraps at first, but after the commotion it had caused, there was no way of hiding its existence anymore.

“You want the manual?” asked Lee Seongbong coldly.

“I need one page of the manual,” replied Lee Seongjae.

“And why should you have the manual?! Answer me!” Lee Seongbong shouted, “You have no right to have the manual!”

He suddenly stood up and seemed to have lost his mind.

“Black Dragon Society is in tatters and you don’t even know who’s behind it. Why should any of you have the manual?!”

Lee Seongjae’s face was red as he opened his mouth to retort but he didn’t get a chance to speak at all.

“All of you are pieces of trash! All of you are too arrogant and full of yourselves!”

Lee Seongbong was almost going insane with anger. There was only one name that kept repeating itself inside his mind right now.

Besides that man, who else would be able to do such a thing?

It had to be him!

“I’m warning all of you! Do not offend someone you cannot afford to offend! Otherwise, you won’t be able to bear the consequences!”

Lee Seongbong was on the verge of killing someone.

Only that one name echoed inside his mind. Besides him, who else could it be?

Back then...

He gulped as he started to remember the past.

The Lee family had a chance to rise to greater heights and fully control all of Korea’s markets precisely because of what that man did back then!

That man had killed off their strongest opponent!

That was an old opponent he had fought for more than ten years, but his opponent had crumbled overnight because of this one man.

After Lee Seongbong found out about it, he didn’t dare to let anyone else know about it at all.

That was because he knew that since that man could destroy his old opponent so easily, that man could destroy him as easily.

“Mr Lee,” Lee Seongjae became a little annoyed. “There’s nobody in Korea that the Lee family can’t afford to offend, is there?”

The Lee Seongbong sitting in front of him right now seemed different from before.

If Lee Seongjae wasn't already sure that this was his own brother, he would have thought that this man here was an imposter.

For so many years, the Lee family had been on the rise and had a stranglehold on all the major industries in Korea. They weren't the Lee family of the past anymore.

They didn't have to fear anybody.

Never mind Korea – even if they were facing the rest of the world, the Lee family was a powerful family that could fight anybody!

“The Lee family has been on the rise for so many years, and we're not going to end up surrendering to someone else or let someone climb all over our heads!” Lee Seongjae didn't bother to sound polite. “You're the head of the family, so you can't allow others to become more powerful and smite your prestige!”

Lee Seongbong laughed coldly.

He could tell that the Lee family had become very complacent now.

Including himself.

Before today, he had no regard for anybody else at all. The Lee family was the most powerful people in all of Korea and nobody dared to make trouble for them at all.

Anyone who tried to be funny would only meet one end – they would disappear off the face of the earth.

But now, Lee Seongbong was in a greater panic than anybody else.

If it was really that man, then the one who would disappear was the Lee family!

“I will not warn you a second time! I am the head of the family, and these are my orders!”

He couldn't reveal the identity of that man. That was a taboo, a taboo of the east!

Lee Seongbong didn't dare to say too much and just used his status as the head of the family to force everyone to comply.

He knew that he still held enough clout in the Lee family, and his decision was final.

Even if Black Dragon Society was destroyed or the Lee family might suffer severe damages, the moment he thought of that man, he didn't even dare to be angry.

When Lee Seongjae saw the sort of attitude Lee Seongbong had, he became even angrier. But he remained expressionless, as if he wasn't bothered, and just left without saying a word.

The rest glanced at each other as well. None of them had seen Lee Seongbong behave like this, and none of them had ever seen Lee Seongbong surrender to others so easily either.

Where did this Extreme Martial Arts Academy come from?

Everyone left the hall except for Lee Seongbong. He took a deep breath, but the worry on his face was still apparent.

“Get the car, I want to visit Extreme Martial Arts Academy.”

“Yes, Mr Lee.”

He leaned against his chair and felt drained of his energy. “If it’s really him...then how should I ask him to leave?”

It was true that Korea was the Lee family’s territory, but it was only so if that man was agreeable, or at least didn’t mind.

Otherwise, if that man wanted to remain in Korea and remain in Seoul, then the Lee family...

Lee Seongbong didn’t dare to delay any further. This was something that would decide the fate of the Lee family.

He didn’t alert anybody and just brought his butler along. He didn’t even bring a single bodyguard along and purposely chose an inconspicuous car. The car left the Lee house and did a few rounds before finally stopping in front of Extreme Martial Arts Academy.
