

Chapter 16

Nice to meet you, Your Highness!

"Poof..."

Xiao Qi couldn't help but laugh out loud. "I'm so funny, Your Highness. I really can't hold it anymore. This woman is so stupid, hahaha..."

No wonder she could find such a strange husband of the Zhou family. It turned out that she was so ignorant.

"Forget it. For the sake of our childhood, we don't need to care about this matter anymore."

After all, Xiao Fei didn't say much about Niannian's mood. Instead, he turned to look at the old man and said, "Grandpa, let's go."

"Okay."

Old Master's mood was also a little complicated at this moment. He thought that Old Yao's granddaughter was the most promising girl in the village and also had a good look.

Seeing that the other party was about to get engaged to the Zhou family, he felt regret in his heart. He felt that his grandson had missed a good girl.

Who would have thought that this little woman was too stupid?

The ignorant woman was eager to climb up to the rich and powerful families to be a rich and powerful woman. However, it was unclear whether it was black or white.

"How dare you insult the Zhou family and try to leave? You're courting death."

"Don't think about the identity of my Zhou family in the east. How can you clay legs in the mountains offend me? Come on, arrest him."

When Xiao Fei turned around, the middle-aged woman screamed.

"Yes."

This engagement, in order to let these ignorant people in the countryside see the power of the Zhou family, specially mobilized more than a dozen walls, which played a big role this time.

Although the two walls were knocked to the ground, more than a dozen people rushed toward Xiao Fei at this moment.

"I can't even get out of here."

Xiao Fei shook his head helplessly and looked at Xiao Qi. Xiao Qi smiled and said, "Your Highness, Xiao Qi feels that since he can't kill these people, there's no point in fighting back and forth, so he specially sent some people over. You see..."

"What?" Su Mo was surprised.

Xiao Fei did not speak, but looked at the sky.
"Boom! Boom! Boom!"

In the east, at the place where the sun rose, a dozen helicopters roared and flew over from the sky.

Such a commotion caused the walls of the Zhou family to retreat as well. Like everyone else, they all raised their heads and looked toward the horizon.

"What? A helicopter?"

The face of the middle-aged woman and the group of people from Zhou's suddenly changed.

"Mom, I remember Uncle said that I'm going to give me a surprise when I get engaged. Did Uncle send a plane directly from the military of the empire?"

At this time, Zhou Jing said with joy on his face.

"It's for sure."

Zhou Jing's mother, the middle-aged lady and the middle-aged woman were overjoyed at once.

Zhou Jing's eldest uncle served in a barrack of the empire and commanded more than a thousand soldiers. He was the leader of 1,000 officers.

Although the 1,000-member Captain was only a middle- Lower- ranking official in the military camp of the empire, he held military power. With the Zhou family's connections, he could be considered a big shot.

Zhou Jing was the most promising person in this generation of the Zhou family. Therefore, Zhou Bao, Zhou Jin's eldest uncle, valued Zhou Jin the most.

"The Zhou family has mobilized soldiers to use helicopters. It's really a big scene." Xiao Qi sighed with a smirk on his face.

"Humph, what a shame. I'm afraid that I've never seen a military helicopter in my life. I'm so frightened."

The middle-aged woman sneered disdainfully.

At the same time, the helicopter team, which was still in the distance, had already flown above them.

"Haha, it's not easy for the Zhou family to get married."

With a hearty laugh, the captain of 1,000 soldiers of the Zhou family stood on the helicopter, looking down at the crowd, and proudly said, "Sister, I specially invited the captain of thousands to be the witness of the engagement. You'd better pay a visit to him now."

"Ah, I didn't expect that my big brother would invite Captain Wan here."

"I've heard that uncle won the respect of his superiors in the barracks, but I didn't expect that Captain of 10,000 soldiers would be invited by him. This time, our Zhou family is going to be rich."

The middle-aged woman shivered and looked extremely excited. Then she turned her head and looked at Yao Yun, who was also stunned and looked up at the sky. She said in a low voice, "Yao Yun, let's continue today's engagement."

Originally, if Zhou's Eldest Uncle hadn't invited Captain Wan to get married, they wouldn't have wanted Yao Yun, their daughter-in-law.

However, since the Captain of 10,000 soldiers was here, it was a rare opportunity for the Zhou family.

They had to continue this engagement no matter what.

"Okay."

Yao Yun was overjoyed when he heard this. He glanced proudly at Xiao Fei. He wanted to see his lost look, but to his surprise, when everyone was shocked, Xiao Fei was still smiling calmly.

"He acted so calmly when he saw the helicopter of special use in the army. I'm afraid he's just pretending to be calm..."

Yao Yun's heart was complicated, but he didn't think much about it. He was immediately attracted by the helicopter flying over from a distance.

This was her future husband's fiancée. Once she was engaged, she would be able to send out a helicopter.

And she, from now on, would get rid of her identity as a country bumpkin and become a rich and powerful family.

"Kid, let's go. Don't stay here anymore." The old man was shocked at the same time, and quickly pulled Xiao Fei to leave.

"Grandpa, you don't need it. Isn't it just a leader of a thousand soldiers and a leader of a thousand soldiers? Later, Xiao Qi will ask him to serve you tea."

Xiao Qi said with a grin.

Although the old man didn't believe it very much, he saw that his grandson was also very calm and said, "Don't be anxious."

He could not help but calm down. He wondered what kind of confidence his grandson had.

"Haha..."

In the sky, the helicopter put down the ladder, and the soldiers slipped down one after another. The leader, with a burly figure and official majesty on his face, was the Captain of 10,000 soldiers.

Next to him was Zhou Jin, Zhou Bao's uncle, who was the 1,000-member Captain of the Zhou family.

"Uncle."

"Eldest Brother."

Zhou Jing and the middle-aged woman stepped forward at the same time, saluting with excitement on their faces.

"Your Excellency, this is my brother's daughter-in-law and my nephew, Zhou Jing." Zhou Jin quickly introduced them to each other.

"Come and pay my respect to Your Honor."

Whether it was Zhou Jing or the middle-aged woman, they all hurriedly saluted and said, "Captain Wan, it's my honor to meet you."

"Haha, you're welcome. I'm just following orders to come here for a mission. I've heard that nephew Zhou Han is engaged, so I'm here to have a look." Captain Wan named Li Gang said with a gentle smile.

"We, the Zhou family, are very grateful that you are here to preside over our engagement ceremony."

While Zhou Mi was talking, she said to Zhou Jing, "Hurry up, let's start the engagement ceremony directly."

Originally, the Zhou family intended to take some people back to the family to hold the engagement. However, Captain Wan's arrival was too rare. Therefore, they wanted to hold the engagement directly in the Yao family under Captain Wan's witness.

In the future, no matter if it was Zhou Jing or the Zhou family, their faces would be bright if it was spread out.

"Oh, okay."

Zhou Jing responded and rushed over to talk to his parents of the Yao family.

The middle-aged woman glanced at Xiao Fei with a smug look and said to Zhou Mi, "Big brother, our Zhou family in Luo City is not the top family, but it can't be humiliated."

"This time, he actually insulted our Zhou family for no reason. We can't let him go easily."

"What?"

Zhou Mi's expression changed, and she looked at the middle-aged woman. "What's going on? Since you're here, let's talk about the dispute. We'll ask you to make the decision."

"Yes."

After hearing this, the middle-aged woman was overjoyed. First, she gave a salute to Captain Wan, and then pointed to Xiao Fei and shouted, "It's them. How dare they say they want to kill us."

"Er..."

The crowd admired the middle-aged woman's ability. Xiao Qi just casually said, "Since I can't kill her, I'll ask some people to come here." But she really remembered it.

"What?"

Zhou Mi's expression changed, and she quickly bowed to the Captain of 10,000 soldiers. "Your Honor, there is a law in the empire, but this person dares to kill people without hesitation. There must be something wrong. Your Honor, please allow me to take him back for investigation."

Li Gang muttered, "It's just a verbal dispute. It's not a big problem. However, this is your Zhou family's engagement. It's really wrong for the other party to do this. Let them apologize and let it go."

"Yes." Although Zhou Jin felt regret in her heart, she did not dare to disobey the other party's meaning, so she had to give the middle-aged woman a wink.

The latter quickly shouted at Xiao Fei and the others, "Your Excellency, please be merciful. As long as you apologize, we Zhou's family will no longer pursue your business."

"Do you still want to kneel down and apologize?" Xiao Qi sneered.

He stepped forward and looked straight at the captain of the ten thousand soldiers, Li Gang. He was not afraid at all.

"How dare you!"

Zhou Mi stepped forward and shouted, "What are you doing?"

"Captain Li Gang, do you know what's your mission of leading people out this time?"

However, Xiao Qi looked at the Captain of Captain Wan with a faint smile.

The latter's expression changed drastically. "Who are you?"

He didn't know what the task was, but he had received the order to ask him to come to this area. Naturally, someone would tell him the task.

Xiao Qi's words made him realize that the young man in front of him was likely to have something to do with this task.

"Clap!"

Xiao Qi did not say much. Instead, he threw a token in front of her and said, "Pick it up."

"What the hell are you doing? How dare you be so rude to His Honor? Come on, hold him hostage."

Zhou Mi sneered and was ready to ask someone to come forward and hold Xiao Qi.

"Stop."

However, in the next moment, the leader's face changed greatly. He suddenly roared and slapped Zhou Jin away.

"Bang"

Zhou Mi fell to the ground and looked at Li Gang in disbelief. "S-sir, what did I do wrong?"

"What's going on?"

"Isn't this Mr. Zhou a member of the Zhou family? Why did he beat someone from the Zhou family?"

"....."

At this moment, not only the people of the Zhou family were stunned, but also the others in the field were gawking at this scene.

However, in the eyes of everyone, Li Gang was carefully squatting on the ground, picking up the token and carefully wiping it. Then, he bowed at 90 degrees, held the token with both hands and sent it to Xiao Qi. He did not dare to say a word.

"You recognized him?"

Xiao Qi said with a faint smile.

"Yes." Li Gang said in a low voice, and his voice was a little trembling.

"Greetings, Your Highness."

Xiao Qi casually put the token away and then turned his head to bow to Xiao Fei.

Li Gang's expression changed drastically. Without waiting for Xiao Qi's instructions, he turned around and bowed to Xiao Fei. "I, Li Gang, pay my respects to Your Highness!"

"What?"

"What's going on?"

"Who, who is he?"

"....."

At this moment, everyone was shocked on the spot.

Chapter 17

If you don't have to work hard to get a dream, you will be destroyed in the end.

"Greetings, Your Highness!"

It was just four words, and the sound was sonorous and forceful.

But all the people in the field were shocked on the spot.

In the past, he was the Captain of thousands who guarded the Luo City's barracks. He held real power and was superior to other so-called business giants.

However, when he appeared, he was shocked when he just glanced at the token that Xiao Qi had thrown on the ground. Whether it was his hands holding the token, or his bowing and bowing to say "Your Highness", it was shocking.

"He, he has been missing for a few years. Didn't he say that he went abroad to study? How did he become a prince?"

Not far away, Yao Yun, who was stunned, was extremely shocked.

Originally, he thought that he could find Zhou Jing, a young master of a rich and powerful family, and become a rich and powerful family. From then on, he could get rid of the humble status of being a peasant in the countryside.

She was even thinking about whether she should cut off all ties with her relatives except for her parents.

However, she did not expect that Xiao Fei, whom she despised, had turned into a superior being at this time. No one could compare with him.

Li Gang, the leader of ten thousand soldiers, was even the Zhou family's oldest uncle, who had real power, so he had to greet the boss with a smile.

"Ma, sir... What, what's going on?"

Zhou Jin's eldest uncle, Zhou Mi's smile froze as she stammered as she looked at Li Gang.

However, Li Gang still bowed and didn't dare to move before Xiao Fei spoke.

At this moment, everyone was shocked.

Zhou Mi was even more shocked. He looked at the middle-aged woman and wanted to ask her about Xiao Fei's identity.

The middle-aged woman was even more shocked. In addition to shock, she was more fearful.

Before that, she was so arrogant that she wanted to deal with him.

At this moment, even his elder brother's boss had to bow to him respectfully. What should he do?

"Please rise."

Xiao Fei's expression was extremely calm. He raised his hand slightly, and it was not until then that he dared to stand up.

Li Gang looked at Xiao Fei, and he was shocked. Such a person was definitely not an ordinary person. His temperament was high above the masses, and he was the only one who was respected. He was like a supreme emperor.

Even his immediate superior, the general's temperament was not as good as Xiao Fei's.

"Your Highness, this guy will be our little follower in the future. If we meet wild dogs like the Zhou family again, just let Li Gang do it."

Xiao Qi came up to her with a smile.

Li Gang straightened his body and stood still. He didn't feel unhappy because of the words "little attendant". Instead, his face became more respectful.

All the members of the Zhou family had long been shocked by this sudden change.

They gawked at Xiao Fei, with extremely shocked eyes. Even Zhou Xiao, the uncle of the Zhou family, began to tremble.

"This..."

He realized that he was in big trouble.

"You take care of this matter."

Xiao Fei was still indifferent. He did not have any emotional fluctuation because of Li Gang's identity. Instead, he turned around and walked to the old man. "Grandpa, let's go back first."

"Okay, okay, okay, hahaha."

The old man also woke up from the shock. He laughed excitedly and looked at Yao Yun and the parents of the Yao family. He only felt a sigh of relief in his heart.

Then, he took a smug look at the middle-aged lady of the Zhou family and left with Xiao Fei.

However, the people of the Zhou family were no longer in the mood to care about Xiao Fei, who was leaving. At this moment, they were terrified and did not know how Xiao Qi would let Li Gang deal with them.

"Surround me up."

Sure enough, after Xiao Fei and the old man turned to leave, Xiao Qi gave Li Gang a look, and the latter directly waved his hand.

"Yes."

All of a sudden, the dozens of soldiers who had just followed Li Mu answered loudly and directly surrounded all the people of the Zhou family.

"Xiao Gang, I suspect that the Zhou family has committed a lot of crimes for the sake of wealth. You send them to the police department and let them check them carefully. If there is anything evil, you can't tolerate it."

Xiao Qi said with a smile.

"Yes."

Li Gang hurriedly saluted.

Zhou Jing, "..."

Zhou Mi didn't know what to say.

The middle-aged woman, "..."

At this moment, the faces of the Zhou family turned as pale as death.

With the Zhou family's power and influence, how could it be possible that they had not done anything?

If they didn't investigate, it would be fine. After this investigation, even if they didn't die, the Zhou family would be peeled off a layer of skin because of the Captain of 10,000 soldiers.

"Oh, by the way, today's matter, everyone shut up and don't spread it, otherwise, tsk, tsk..."

Although there was a smile in Xiao Qi's eyes, when he looked around at the crowd, there was a cold aura on his face that made everyone feel cold.

At this moment, everyone felt a chill in their hearts. They had made up their minds that they must not let this matter spread out.

"Go ahead. After this matter is done, report to me at any time."

Then, Xiao Qi handed Li Gang a business card with his contact information.

He smiled and left with his hands behind his back.

Li Gang looked at the back of Xiao Qi with respect. He was shocked. "It turned out to be the Seventh Childe. It is said that he has been missing for several years. Who would have thought that he would appear? Moreover, what kind of person could make the Seventh Childe salute respectfully?"

He was shocked. As a member of the Li family, he would never forget the glory of the Li family no matter where he was.

"Young Master Li, a legend of the younger generation of the Li family, should appear here."

"Take all the Zhou family members away."

Then, Li Gang waved his hand, and the soldiers directly took away the people of the Zhou family, leaving only the mess and flabbergasted people behind.

"No, Zhou Jing, Yao Yun knows him. Let Yao

Yun plead for mercy."

"Yao Yun, save us, must save us..."

In the distance, the middle-aged woman, who had been arrogant before, kept asking for help in fear.

"Haha, you were so arrogant just now. Why do you ask me to save you now?" Old Yao laughed loudly and felt refreshed.

He was not optimistic about this engagement, and when he saw the face of the middle-aged woman, he was even more furious.

At this moment, the matter of engagement was over, and he was naturally very excited.

Yao Yun, on the other hand, shook her lips and stood on the spot, out of her wits.

It seemed that she was about to wake up from a dream of flying to the branches and becoming a phoenix.

"Dear grandchild, where have you been these years?"

In the Ye Family, the old man looked at Xiao Fei with curiosity. It was not easy for him to ask since there were so many people before. Now that he had returned home, he asked the question in his heart.

"I've been far away."

Xiao Fei chuckled. "Grandpa, it's been eight years. Cangmu Monkey, things are not the same. It's enough to change everything. No matter what changes I have made, I'm your grandson."

"Yes, yes, in any case, you are my good grandson. Ha-ha, well, grandpa is happy to see you have a good future."

The old man laughed happily.

Today, the old man felt so relieved. Although in his heart, it was just his previous idea to let his grandson be with Yao Yun, he saw that Yao Yun really did not hesitate to make friends with the high and low-ranking people.

What's more, the faces of the Zhou family made him even more furious.

Although his grandson didn't make a move, Xiao Qi, his subordinate, came with his men. He slapped the face so hard that the Zhou family members were like dead dogs.

It was awesome.

"However, if you make such a scene, all the villagers in the village will know your situation in the future. Is this okay?" Then, the old man's face was full of joy.

"It doesn't matter."

At this time, a cheerful voice came from outside the door.

Xiao Qi came in and bowed to Xiao Fei. Then, he saluted to the old man and said with a smile, "Don't worry, I've already told them that anyone who dares to spread the news will be investigated thoroughly. Presumably, it can't be spread within a wide range."

"That's good, that's good."

The old man smiled with satisfaction. "Be a man. No matter how capable you are, you should keep a low profile."

Old Master loved to keep a low profile all his life. When his daughter and son-in-law were well-known in the East Gourd, he was only willing to stay in this small village silently.

And now, it was even more so.

.....

Two days later, Xiao Fei left the village reluctantly.

These two days, Yao Yun came, but Xiao Fei did not see her. He could only leave in disappointment.

When the news of the Zhou family came, both Zhou Jing and Zhou Tian were investigated and had problems. They were further dealt with. If Zhou Tian was not safe, the Zhou family's economy would suffer a disastrous decline.

Yao Yun's dream of being a rich and powerful family was shattered, and he felt depressed.

On the contrary, Mr. Yao happily pulled Xiao Fei and the old man to drink several times, and also repeatedly thanked Xiao Fei so that his granddaughter did not have to become the wife of the Zhou family.

The business car moved forward slowly, and Xiao Qi acted as a driver as usual.

As he drove the car, he said excitedly, "Your Highness, Xiaoqi never thought that the life in the countryside would be like this. It's really fun."

"Have fun?"

When Xiao Fei heard this, he couldn't help but laugh. "That's because you have never seen real life in the countryside."

"Why?"

Xiao Qi looked puzzled. "Qing Ping Village is already in the countryside, isn't it? We've been living in the countryside for two days. Why don't we call ourselves living in the countryside?"

Xiao Fei looked out of the window and saw the trees on the side of the road leaving in a hurry. He was lost in thought and slowly opened his mouth.

"For the real life of living in the countryside, the ordinary villagers have no time to rest and work for three meals for one day. Why do they have so much time to rest?"

"You only saw the leisure time of your grandfather's home, but you didn't really see the work of other people in the fields and on the mountains."

"Why does Yao Yun want to marry into a wealthy family and become a rich lady? Doesn't she know that her identity will be looked down upon and made trouble for me when I enter a wealthy family?"

"She understands, but she doesn't want to work hard anymore. She doesn't want to spend her old age on fighting for nothing. That's why she wants to be the daughter-in-law of the Zhou family."

"Humans are like this. They don't feel at ease with the current situation, but don't want to struggle for their own lives..."

Once upon a time, when he was young, the little bug who had been running behind him and shouting "Brother Ye Qing" had also changed its appearance.

What was the purpose of pursuing fame and profit?

"Have you had enough of the three meals?"

No, it was the wild hope in his heart. It was the desire to climb up.

He wanted to be a superior, but he didn't have the ability to be a superior. He didn't want to work hard. How could he do that?

He slightly closed his eyes and felt the breeze blowing, but his mood was unprecedentedly calm.

In the front, Xiao Qi, who was driving, was silent. His whole life grew up with a golden key. When he was born, he was the Seventh Young Master Li. He got the best training since childhood. Even if he followed the Prince, he had not suffered a lot.

They seemed to be superior to each other on the surface, but in fact, the prince treated him like his own younger brother.

He was going to do some small things. When the sky fell, the Prince would take care of it for him.

He had never had any big setback. He thought that the people in the countryside were so leisurely. They didn't have to fight for fame and profit. As long as they could earn their own living by themselves, they would be happy when they were busy. When they were idle, they would drink tea and chat with each other. It was very uncomfortable.

Now, it seemed that he was too simple-minded.

In this life, there was no one who could be relaxed.

The car drove slowly through the mountain path, across the bridge of the river, and towards Luo City.

VAMP20 WORKS

Chapter 18

The Yinxiang Building, a commercial building named Dong boxes, was located at the headquarters of Xiao's Group. However, after the collapse of Xiao's Group, the Yinxiang Building became the Lin family's estate.

It was Luo Cheng's auction, the No. 1 auction in the East.

It was said that the person in charge of Luo Cheng's auction once said that there was nothing in the world that Luo Cheng's auction didn't have. Whether it was cultural relics, antiques or all kinds of treasures, as long as you could afford the price, Luo Cheng's auction could help find it.

Although he was a little boastful, he dared to say such things in public, which showed the strong power of this auction.

The auction was scheduled to be held at three o'clock in the afternoon.

In order to hold this auction, Luo Cheng's auction covered the whole building.

"Long time no see, Yinxiang Building."

Outside the building, Xiao Fei was in a windbreaker, sighing with emotion.

He vaguely remembered that before he entered the building when he was a child, a security guard came up and shouted "Young Master".

Because he was the Crown Prince of the Flyingcrane Restaurant.

But now, no one recognized him even when he was close to Yunxiang.

As time went by, things changed and people changed. Looking back, the monkey was so strange.

o o o o o

"Be careful. Those who come to the auction this time are either rich or powerful. Some of the guests' status can't be measured by money. We can't afford to offend them."

At this moment, outside the Flyingcrane Restaurant, a group of tall and handsome women with a smile on their faces were standing together in cheongsams, listening to a middle-aged man's orders.

They were exactly the staff of Luo Cheng's auction, responsible for waiting outside the door.

"Manager, are there many big bosses with high status in this auction?" A young girl asked curiously.

"This auction is special. Because the products auctioned are more suitable for young people, so, most of the people who come to the auction are young and promising talents of the new generation."

The middle-aged man said, "Although they are young, some of them are much nobler than the big bosses who are active in the public, especially the holder of the Supreme Black invitation, who is very noble."

"Wait a minute, look carefully. The ordinary holder of the golden card will be led by you. If you have a platinum card, or even a higher level Supreme Black Card, you must call me and I will personally lead the other party up."

The guests at the auction could be divided into three levels. Among them, the Supreme Black Card invitation card had the highest level, and the person who could get the black card had an extraordinary identity. Although the middle-aged man was the host of Luo Cheng's auction in Luo City, he did not dare to neglect it.

"Don't worry, Boss Luo. We will do our best."

A group of well-dressed and pretty girls nodded with a smile, but their eyes were full of expectation.

What they were going to meet next were all the upper-class figures they couldn't get in touch with at ordinary times.

They were truly young, rich, and powerful people.

If he could win Zhang Ruochen's favor, or even win his favor, he might be able to jump into a wealthy family and become a wealthy family.

"Someone is coming. Be careful."

Just then, the middle-aged man noticed Xiao Fei and Xiao Qi walking over. The manager quickly came up and said, "Hello, welcome to Luo Cheng's auction. My surname is Luo. You two honored guests can call me Luo."

He had a professional smile on his face. It was clear that he was in his forties, but when facing two young people, Xiao Fei and Xiao Qi, he was extremely humble.

He bowed slightly and said, "Could you please show me the invitation?"

The special feature of Luo Cheng's auction was that only those who had a certain status could enter the auction site to participate in the auction.

Ordinary people, no matter how rich they were, would not be able to enter the auction.

Since the customers were divided into different levels, the attitude of each customer was naturally different.

Xiao Qi handed him a black invitation.

The middle-aged man's face changed when he saw the black invitation.

"It turns out to be the highest Supreme Black Card invitation card. There are only five black cards in this banquet, and all of them are noble..."

After obtaining the black card issued by Luo Cheng's auction, the identities of the two people in front of them were no longer as simple as wealth and wealth. They were definitely descendants of Dong Yi's family.

He bowed 90 degrees and said, "Welcome to Luo Cheng's auction. Please come with me."

As he said that, he was going to walk into the building with the two of them.

"Dear, I think their invitation cards are black, but why are you golden?"

At this time, there was a man and a woman coming from behind. The man was in his twenties or thirties. He was fat and wore gold and silver all over his body. There were countless precious accessories on him, which showed the typical image of a nouveau riche.

He held a seductive woman in his arms, whose clothes were exposed.

The woman reached out her hand, which was covered with red nail polish. In her hand, there was a hot golden invitation. It was shining and moving in the sun.

There was a look of pride on her face.

"You don't understand. Gold is the symbol of nobility. As for other things, black and white are lower than gold."

The young fat man laughed, with a proud look on his face, "However, although they are just the most ordinary black cards that can't be compared with our gold cards, for ordinary people, it is very good to get the invitation of Luo Cheng's auction."

"Honey, you're so great."

The coquettish woman excitedly kissed the young fat man.

However, when she saw Xiao Fei's detached temperament, her eyes lit up. "What a handsome man."

In comparison, his male companion was not only fat, but also bald, which formed a very large gap.

It made her feel a little uncomfortable.

However, when he remembered that he was holding a very noble golden invitation card and that the other party was just a dark invitation card, his heart was filled with pride again.

He proudly raised his head, looked at Xiao Fei, and said sarcastically, "I have more hair than others. What's the point of being handsome? A person, the most important thing is to have something..."

As she spoke, she raised the golden invitation card in her hand.

Obviously, in her opinion, she was holding the most expensive golden invitation card, while Xiaoqi was holding a black one. The level was different, which was the so-called connotation.

Once upon a time, she also imagined that her partner was such a handsome young man with an extraordinary temperament and a rare appearance in the world.

However, things in the world were often difficult to go both ways.

She chose the fat and bald man.

Now, compared with the different levels of invitations from both sides, he only felt that his choice was so correct.

"Two gentlemen..."

The middle-aged manager's face looked a little ugly, and he looked at Xiao Fei and Xiao Qi carefully.

Xiao Fei put his hands on the ground and looked calm. Xiao Qi glanced at the coquettish woman and the young fat man and said faintly, "I heard that the owner of the black card asked others to leave the auction?"

In Luo Cheng's auction, the owner of the black card was a high-ranking Supreme VIP with a lot of privileges.

"This... Yes."

The middle-aged manager agreed. There was no doubt that he had already known the fate of the young fat man and the coquettish woman.

It's not your fault to be ignorant.

However, being ignorant but rampant, biting people everywhere was looking for death.

"Since you have the lowest level invitation card in your hand, just stand aside and wait for us to go in. Don't stay here and pretend to be a wolf."

The coquettish woman didn't realize anything, but continued to sneer. "Do you know what order is?"

On the contrary, the young fat man's face changed. He quickly pulled the woman and said, "Let's go. Don't argue with them. Let's go up first."

"Why don't you get out of the way?"

The coquettish woman did not leave immediately, but told Xiao Fei and Xiao Qi arrogantly.

Xiao Qi and Xiao Fei did not speak. They just looked at the middle-aged manager with a faint smile on their faces.

The middle-aged manager's face changed. He quickly walked over and showed them his identity.

"You two, I am Luo Tian Dong, the person in charge of Luo Cheng's auction in Luo City. Because of the request of the distinguished guests of Supreme Black Card, you will be disqualified from Luo Cheng's auction."

"Right, it's permanent. Any one of Luo Cheng's auctions in the world will not be open to you. Please conduct yourself well."

At the same time, he took out his mobile phone and took a picture of them.

"Crack!"

The flashlights lit up, which was so dazzling.

It meant that the two of them would not be listed in any of Luo Cheng's auctions.

He reached out and took the golden invitation from the coquettish woman's hand. Then, he waved his hand and said, "The Silver Xiang Building is temporarily booked by Luo Cheng's auction. Please don't stand here and block the way of our distinguished guests."

The young fat man, "..."

The coquettish woman didn't know what to say.

The two of them were instantly stunned.

They didn't have to doubt Luo Tian Dong's identity at all. For the sake of this auction, Luo Tian Dong often showed up in the advertisements of all parties.

In their eyes, the most distinguished golden invitation card was permanently deprived of the right to enter any Luo Cheng's auction just because of one sentence from the guy who held the black invitation card?

"How, how could this be?"

The coquettish woman whispered, "Didn't you say that our golden invitation is the most noble one?"

"I, I..."

The young fat man was also stunned. After being questioned for a while, he suddenly flew into a rage and slapped her backhand.

Snapped! Snapped! Snapped!

His voice was very clear and clear, which was in sharp contrast with the coquettish woman's previous insolence.

"Get out of here. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have been banned from entering all Luo Cheng's auctions."

"Damn it, I'll be laughed at by countless people in the future."

It took a lot of effort for him to get the golden invitation of Luo Cheng's auction. Moreover, he also widely spread it in his friends' circle. Some people even wanted him to help them buy some things.

Now, he had been screwed up by this woman before he even entered the auction.

The young fat man gritted his teeth and hurriedly ran to Xiao Fei, with a pleading look on his face. "I'm sorry, I was wrong. It's all that bitch's fault. She looked down on you. It has nothing to do with me. Please forgive me."

"Please give me another chance to return the invitation."

"As long as you can return the invitation to me and make me do anything, I'm willing to do it."

He lowered his head deeply and was no longer as arrogant as he had been before.

Xiao Qi did not speak, but looked at Xiao Fei.

Xiao Fei looked calm and stepped into the building. His every move had a condescending temperament. He was elegant and noble, which was natural and unforgettable.

The dozens of Luo Cheng's guests' eyes lit up and turned into anthomaniacs in an instant.

Only, the young fat man had lost his wits. If he knew that he had missed it, he would not have it anymore.

Since then, no matter how well he developed, it would be impossible for him to enter the auction of Luo Cheng, who represented the noble status.

"How could this be? How could this be?"

The coquettish woman whispered with her hands covering her face.

The young fat man was exhausted. He glared at the woman and turned to leave.

Chapter 19

"Please, this auction will adopt an open auction method, so I'm not going to prepare a fully-closed private room. Please forgive me."

On the 36th floor of Yinxiang Building, Xiao Fei and Xiao Qi walked out of the elevator under the guidance of Luo Cheng, the host of the auction, Luo Tian Dong.

The floor was covered with a red carpet. All kinds of decorations were magnificent.

There was also a beauty in a cheongsam who stood with a smile on her face. When she saw them coming out, she bowed repeatedly and said, "Welcome!"

Everything showed the nobleness and extraordinaryness of Luo Cheng's auction.

Luo Tian Dong carefully introduced the auction with a smile on his face.

"There are a total of five invitations for our auction. As the most distinguished VIP of Supreme Master, we will try our best to meet any requests."

"I wonder if the two of you are satisfied with this position?"

Luo Tian Dong looked at Xiao Fei carefully.

"It doesn't matter."

Xiao Fei nodded slightly and sat down with Xiao Qi.

"What would you like to drink? There's wine, white liquor, beer, all kinds of drinks, tea, and coffee."

Although there was already a beautiful woman wearing a cheongsam coming over, Luo Tian Dong still served her carefully.

"There's no need to do that. You can go and do your own work."

Xiao Fei waved his hand and turned to look at the introduction list of the items on the auction.

After seeing it, Luo Tian Dong quickly took it over and handed it over with both hands. "This is the booklet of the auction. Except for the last few items that remain mysterious for the time being, there are introductions for all other things. You can first know something about it."

"Thank you."

Xiao Fei took it over and gently nodded to thank her. "You can go and do your work. You don't have to entertain us."

People respect me a foot, and I respect people a foot.

Even if he was in a high position, when facing others, he was still polite and would not regard himself as a high-ranking person.

"Okay, I'll leave now. If you have anything to tell me, you can do it anytime."

Luo Tian Dong sighed in his heart that this noble man in front of him was actually so polite. Then he bowed again and turned to leave.

The woman in the cheongsam waited respectfully at any time with a smile on her face. However, Xiao Fei waved her off, and she had to leave with regret on her face.

Xiao Fei casually opened the booklet and began to read it. Since Luo Cheng's auction was the first auction in Luo City, the items at this auction were naturally extraordinary.

There were hundreds of rare treasures, expensive houses, ancient paintings, even some companies... and all kinds of precious things.

Although it was not a large number of treasures, they were all priceless treasures.

If he took it out casually, the starting price would be several million yuan.

However, among these items, the only thing that really caught Xiao Fei's attention was the auction of the luxurious villa on the top floor of the Yun Ding Manor House. This was exactly the former Xiao Family's villa!

"Xiao Family."

Xiao Fei whispered in a low voice, with a cold light in his eyes.

"Your Highness, Xiao Family's villa is yours. There is no need to auction it by auction. Let Xiao Qi directly come forward and take back the villa."

Xiaoqi, who was beside him, said softly.

Xiao Fei shook his head. "I can't expose my identity now. Otherwise, this game will not be fun."

"As far as I'm concerned, I'll just kill them all. There's no need to bother."

Xiao Qi muttered, but he knew that since it was the prince's decision, it was absolutely impossible to change it easily.

Xiao Fei casually looked at the items that were auctioned. The rest of the items did not arouse his interest, except for the Xiao family's villa, which was still like it was eight years ago.

Looking at the picture of the villa, he fell into deep thought.

Xiao Qi quietly looked at the handsome man beside him with respect in his eyes.

Only he knew that this man was like a god, and he was a horrible existence.

At the same time, there was no other ruthlessness of those high-ranking guys.

This was the only perfect person in the world.

With the silence of the two, the auction began, and everyone arrived. In the end, almost all the people were seated.

In particular, to Xiao Fei's surprise, a man appeared beside him. It turned out to be the woman holding an umbrella that he met in the West Mountain cemetery not long ago.

"Hey, it's you. You're here too. What a coincidence."

Su Hanyue looked at Xiao Fei, who was sitting next to her, with surprise on her face.

In the West Mountain Ling Garden, after looking back several times, they were all disappointed. They had thought that they would never see each other again.

She didn't expect that this strange man, who made her feel familiar, would meet her again at Luo Cheng's auction.

"What a coincidence. We meet again."

Xiao Fei smiled. At this moment, a smile came from the bottom of his heart on his face.

"There are not many people who can attend Luo Cheng's auction this time. It's such a coincidence that we meet here again. Thanks to you helping me pick up the umbrella last time."

Su Hwrou said with a smile.

She was unapproachable. With unparalleled beauty and delicate facial features, her big eyes were as ethereal and bright as the starry sky. Besides, her slender neck was connected to her collarbone, forming a perfect match.

What's more, Su Hanrou's beauty was a real holy and elegant beauty. She was like a goddess who was born with a noble aura.

She had an elegant temperament.

In the past eight years, he had been invincible all over the world and had been used to seeing red powder and dried bones. However, few people could compare with Su Hanyue in terms of appearance.

"The thing happened last time had already passed, why do you need to thank me?"

Xiao Fei smiled and said, "Let me introduce myself. My name is Ye Qing."

"Well, well, well, then I won't mention the thing that happened last time. I finally know your name, Eternal Green, your name is also full of artistic conception."

Su Hanyue smiled and reached out her hand. "Hello, my name is Su Hanyan. Nice to meet you."

Baiji stretched out her tender hand and handed it to Xiao Fei. She folded the account book with a smile on her face, but there was something strange in her heart. Usually, she hated to shake hands with others, so how could she take the initiative to reach out her hand?

However, since he had already stretched out his hand, there was no reason for him to withdraw his hand.

When she saw Xiao Fei's knife-sharp and axe-sharp face, her little face blushed slightly unconsciously.

"Hello."

Xiao Fei stretched out his hand and gently grabbed Su Hanrou's white and tender hand. His heart trembled slightly. "Hanrou, it's been a long time."

Eight years ago, his parents died miserably, and he was chased and killed, leaving his parents' bodies alone. No one could take his parents' bodies away.

At that time, Lin Haotian, Huang Tianqi, and others who claimed that they would do anything for the Xiao Family's good and tried their best to swallow the Xiao Family's property, no one came forward to help them hide the body.

Only when a 16-year-old Su Hanyue stepped forward, she stood aside from the public opinion and put away her parents' bodies.

If it weren't for her, Xiao Fei didn't dare to imagine what would happen after his parents passed away.

Now, they finally saw each other again!

Chapter 20

For eight years, the Monkey of the Cang, the things were the same, but the people were the same.

How many people in the whole of Da Luo City could really make Xiao Fei remember and have feelings for him?

Su Hanyue was the only one.

When he learned that Su Hanrou was a girl, in the whirlpool of the Xiao Group at that time, she resolutely stood out in opposition of her family, withdrew the bodies of her parents, and let them die.

Xiao Fei's heart was moved, and what was more, he wanted to protect her.

"You, do your filial duty as a son for me. I will protect you for the rest of my life."

"From now on, as long as I am here, no one can hurt you. This vow can be seen by heaven and earth!"

Being held by 'Ye Qing's hand, Su Hanrou only felt that her heart was beating faster and her little face was slightly red.

However, what she did not know was that the person in front of her was her playmate.

She didn't know what kind of vow the handsome child in front of her had made in her heart.

Ye Qing's name was not unfamiliar in the Qing Ping Village, but in Luo City, no one knew his 'small name', not even Su Hanyue.

"Brother Ye Qing, you're here too."

Just then, a surprised voice rang out.

Not far away, Lin Siyue came over with a surprised look on her face. When she saw Xiao Fei's hand holding Su Hanrou's, her face suddenly changed.

"I didn't expect Miss Su to also participate in this auction."

She walked up to them quickly and stared at their hands tightly.

"Yes... yes."

Su Hanyue quickly withdrew her hand and smiled in a hurry.

Usually, she was elegant, but at this time, she seemed to be blamed for doing something wrong, which made her a little panicked.

Xiao Fei took back his hand with a smile on his face. He was calm and elegant. His every move was graceful and graceful.

Lin Syue stood in front of them. Seeing Su Hanrou in a hurry, she felt resentful and hostile.

She said, "Miss Su usually doesn't attend any parties. Why did she come to Luo Cheng's auction on purpose this time?"

"To attend the auction, of course, I have something to buy."

Su Hanyue had regained her composure. Her temperament was incomparably elegant and her words were bland. However, there was an air of nobility that was even more noble than Lin Syue's.

This was the difference between the descendants groomed by the old and new families and the descendants of the famous families.

The Su family was also a prominent family in Luo City. Furthermore, the Su family was ranked first in the Book Fragrance Sect. It had been hundreds of years of history, and a rising family like the Su family was definitely not comparable to them.

"May I sit beside you?"

Lin Hanyue did not continue to speak to Su Hanyue. Instead, she looked at Xiao Fei.

When they met at the banquet, she had too many things to tell this god-like person in front of her.

However, because of an accident at that time, the banquet was ruined, and Xiao Fei left directly, so she could only hide all the words in her stomach.

Now, seeing Xiao Fei again, she only felt extremely happy in her heart.

Of course, it would be better if Su Hanyue was not around.

Xiao Fei smiled lightly and waved to Xiao Qi. "Give your seat to Miss Lin."

"Yes."

There was a strange look on Xiao Qi's face, but he had to make way for her without saying anything else.

"Thank you."

Lin Siyue politely thanked Xiao Qi, and then elegantly sat down with the corner of her skirt.

She glanced at Su Hanyue, who was as proud as a swan, and said with pride in her heart, "So what if you come first? Even if I am late, I can still sit next to him."

Su Hanyue was speechless. "..."

After parting in the West Mountain Imperial Mausoleum, she had some doubts in her heart. She wanted to take advantage of this meeting to ask Xiao Fei about it, but she didn't expect that Lin Syue would come.

Looking at Lin Syue's reaction, she was afraid that she would be regarded as a rival in love if she said a word.

She smiled and ignored Lin Syue. Instead, she looked at Xiao Fei and said, "Brother Ye, I saw that you were reading the auction pamphlet just now. Do you like it?"

"Some." Xiao Fei nodded.

"There are a lot of good things at this auction. I heard that there is a map of the country, which was made by a famous master a thousand years ago. It is very valuable."

Lin Syue interrupted.

Although there was something wrong with her birthday party and engagement party not long ago, she still had a smile on her face at the moment, showing no sadness.

Even when facing Su Hanrou, she showed her pride as much as possible.

"Map of Mountains and Rivers."

Xiao Fei frowned slightly. He just came to the auction on a spur of the moment, so he did not investigate it. However, there was no record about the Map of Mountains and Rivers in the auction booklet.

Therefore, he did not know that there was an auction on the map.

This painting was made by a famous expert a thousand years ago. It could be said to be extremely valuable.

However, Xiao Fei was not interested in the map. He smiled slightly and did not interrupt.

However, Su Hanyue seemed to be very interested in the map. "If this map is authentic, it is indeed priceless. Did Miss Lin come here for the map?"

She frowned slightly. This time, the reason why she came to the auction was to get the news of the appearance of the River Map, and her purpose was naturally this painting.

If Lin Syue also wanted the Map of the Mountains and Rivers, it would be a little troublesome.

Although the Su family belonged to a long-standing family in Luo City, the Su family mainly belonged to the first aristocratic family of the Book Fragrance Sect. In terms of financial resources, they could not even compare with the rising families like the Lin family.

Moreover, this time, she wanted to buy the River Map by herself. Although she had property under her name, she had not reached the level of real development that could be compared with the family like the Lin Family.

"I haven't decided what to buy yet."

Lin Syue didn't say yes or no, but glanced at Su Hanrou with a faint smile. She made up her mind that if Su Hanrou wanted the River Map, even if she didn't want it, she would change her mind.

He just wanted to disgust Su Hanyue.

After all, she saw Su Hanrou shake hands with her "Brother Ye" with a blushing face at first sight.

No one could figure out the woman's thoughts. Even if Xiao Fei knew Lin Syue's little thoughts about him, he would never think about these things.

He quietly looked through the introduction list of the auction, while Lin Siyue looked at Su Hanrou with thorns in her eyes. "Miss Su also knows Brother Ye. How do you know each other?"

"We haven't known each other for a long time." Even though Su Hanyue was smart, she was inexplicably targeted by Lin Syue, which made her a little puzzled.

"I see."

After hearing this, Lin Siyue's face was a little proud. She leaned over to Xiao Fei, but she was not acting like a fool. She said, "I knew Brother Ye three years ago. This time, Brother Ye came to Luo City to see me."

It seemed that he didn't mean to talk, but deliberately pointed out that he had a lot of relationship with "Brother Ye".

Obviously, his mind was not simple.

"I see."

Su Hanrou was surprised and looked at Xiao Fei. She felt a little uncomfortable unconsciously.

Lin Syue had been staring at Su Hanrou. The subtle change of expression on Su Hanrou's face was noticed by her. She suddenly felt proud and continued to talk with Su Hanrou first. However, she knew how to behave, so she did not continue to target Su Hanrou, in case Xiao Fei was unhappy.

The two women were chatting across Xiao Fei. Xiao Fei didn't even raise his head and quietly looked at the items on the auction booklet. His eyes were attracted by the auction item on it.

It was a jade pendant the size of a thumb. However, inside the jade pendant, there was a little black fish that was lifelike. It looked like it was alive.

"Interesting."

He muttered to himself, looking at the introduction to the jade pendant. There was not much information about it, and the evaluation price was less than a million yuan, but it was not a treasure.

It could be said that this jade pendant was the most worthless item in the auction.

However, he took a fancy to it at a glance.

"Hey, Hanrou, Siyue, you are all here."

Suddenly, a surprised voice came, and then someone patted Xiao Fei on the shoulder, "Brother, let me have a try. I want your seat."
