

Married At First Sight Chapter 3516

Married At First Sight Chapter 3516-Sonny puffed out his chest like a little adult and said, “Grandma, I will take good care of my aunt and won’t let her get tired.”

Serenity smiled without saying anything.

Tania also hugged Sonny, reluctantly letting him go, saying, “Just go and play for a few days. Don’t stay too long; we’ll all miss you.”

Sonny replied, “My aunt and I will be back for the New Year. Uncle Zack said he will pick us up when he returns from his business trip.”

Tania smiled, “Then we won’t see you for more than ten days.”

She pulled Sonny closer again, hugged him, and kissed him on the cheek. “Have fun, and tell Grandma about the games you played with Titus, where you went, and what delicious food you ate. Bring us some specialties from Annenburg when you come back.”

If she weren’t worried about Serenity discovering the situation in Jensburg that everyone was hiding from her, Tania would be more reluctant to let Sonny go to FC Manor so soon.

Usually, Sonny went to kindergarten and might not visit on weekends. When he did come over, it was for a day or two. Everyone missed him dearly.

Now that it was finally winter vacation, Sonny was eager to see his friends again.

“Seren, while you’re out, have fun and don’t worry about home,” Tania advised her daughter-in-law.

Grandma May echoed, “That’s right. While your belly isn’t too big and it doesn’t hinder your movements, enjoy yourself. Once you’re heavily pregnant, even if you want to go out, you’ll hesitate. After giving birth, you’ll have to stay in confinement. After that, you won’t want to leave your child behind. Mothers can’t help but worry about their children.”

If you want to do whatever you want, you have to retire and not have to take care of grandchildren. Then, you can be free to go wherever you want, like the old lady now. However, if you’re too old, you usually won’t travel much because you don’t have the energy to keep up.

Serenity smiled. “Zachary said that once I’m out of confinement, he’ll take a month off to travel with me. He wants to make up for the time we couldn’t go far because of my pregnancy and having the baby.”

Grandma May laughed. “I’m afraid you two won’t want to leave the child then.”

Now, the baby isn’t born yet, so the young couple can’t understand it.

Especially for new mothers, it's hard to leave their children. Unless it's necessary for work, many mothers will try to return home the same day, worried about their children.

"I will take care of the baby for you two then. You can travel or work as you wish," Tania offered.

"Thank you, Mom." Serenity smiled and thanked her.

In the York family, when women gave birth, there would be nannies to help. Even if they wanted to care for the baby themselves, their in-laws would assist.

The baby in her belly would be the first of the next generation in the York family. Everyone would love the child, regardless of gender.

"Okay, let's go now. Don't keep them waiting," Grandma May urged with a smile. She and Tania escorted Serenity and Sonny out of the house.

The old miracle doctor and others were waiting outside.

Except for Uncle Jimenez, who stayed with the Stone family for retirement, the evidence he collected was handed over to Leland. Uncle Jimenez didn't need to worry anymore.

Everyone else accompanied Serenity and Sonny to FC Manor. Dr. Lilian Carden had invited them, and it would be impolite to refuse her invitation.

They feared Lilian would be unhappy and give them laxatives to weaken their legs.
