

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3536-“Mom bit you again. This time she didn’t bite your little butt; she bit your little face instead.”

Lilian was speechless.

In her mother-in-law’s eyes, she might have been born in the Year of the Dog. She likes to bite people, especially little kids, because their skin is so smooth and tender. She really wants to bite them, and when she can’t control herself, she does.

She followed her mother-in-law into the house.

Lilian inquired, “Mom, when will my master and the others arrive?”

“They’ve arrived. Ben and his brothers went out to meet them.”

Lilian breathed a sigh of relief when she saw her son stop crying. She was really afraid that the little guy would cry until the master came into the house.

“Don’t bite Fabian all the time in the future.”

The fourth Mrs. Johnson said to her daughter-in-law, Lilian.

“If you really can’t help it, don’t bite so hard. The child is small and his skin is tender. If you bite him gently, it will be red for a while. Besides, this is your son. Don’t you feel sorry for him? You always bite him. You are a dog. You didn’t eat dog meat when you were pregnant?”

Lilian said embarrassedly, “He smiled at me. I thought it was very cute and kissed him twice. I couldn’t help it and bit him gently again. It was really not hard. My son, how could I not love him? I didn’t eat dog meat. I don’t eat dog meat.”

Lilian really didn’t eat dog meat. She loved to keep pet cats and dogs; how could she eat them?

At most, she used them to test poison. Well, that was when she was a child.

Now, even if she used them to test poison, they would not die. She has an antidote to detoxify. She just wants to see which medicine can detoxify the fastest and what the symptoms are after poisoning.

Fabian smiled at his mother again in his grandmother's arms.

The fourth Mrs. Johnson smiled and said, "Our Fabian is so cute when he smiles. Only you, as a mother, can bear to bite him."

She kissed her grandson on the face again and again, making the little guy laugh even more happily.

Four or five-month-old babies also like adults to play with them.

When someone is talking to them, they are like chatterboxes, babbling, and they don't know what the baby talk they say means.

When Tim went home at night, he liked to tease his son and talk to him in baby talk. Lilian took a lot of videos of the father and son chatting, saying that she would keep them for her son to watch later.

Lilian and Tim recorded Fabian's changes from birth to now with their mobile phones.

Lilian laughed.

The mother-in-law and daughter-in-law entered the house.

Alannah asked, "Is it Fabian crying? It sounds like he is crying."

The fourth Mrs. Johnson responded, "Maybe he knows his grandfather is coming, so he cries louder so that his grandfather can run faster to hug him."

Alannah looked at Lilian who followed in and asked with a smile, "Didn't Lilian bite him?"

Lilian was speechless.

In the eyes of the elders of her in-laws' family, was she a wolf dog that specializes in biting children?

Okay, she won't bite anymore in the future.

Otherwise, her son won't like her hugging him.

The fourth Mrs. Johnson looked at her daughter-in-law.

Alannah knew that she had guessed it right, so she said to Lilian, "Lilian, don't bite Fabian all the time."

"Don't bite other people either," the fourth Mrs. Johnson added. "You just like to bite children, and the children at home don't like you hugging them anymore."

Seeing Avah sitting in the crib playing with toys, she walked over, clapped her hands to attract Avah's attention, and said to Avah, "Yan Yan, come, let Fourth Aunt hug you. Our Yan Yan likes Fourth Aunt hugging her, and Fourth Aunt also likes Yan Yan the most."

"Unlike those four boys, who are naughty and crybabies."

Avah grabbed the toy with one hand, and then stretched out her hands for Lilian to hug her.

Enzo saw it and immediately stretched out his hands, asking Lilian to hug him too.

When they grew up a little, the little brother and sister knew how to compete for favor.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3537

Married At First Sight Chapter 3537-Lilian smiled and said, "Enzo, I can't hold you. You sit down and play with the toys for a while."

Enzo stretched out his hands but was not held up. He shouted at Lilian in displeasure.

"Oh, if I don't hold you, you will still shout."

Lilian amusedly freed one hand, put her arm around Enzo's waist, and held him up.

After Enzo was held up, he saw that Avah was still holding the toy in her hand, and he stretched out his hand to grab it domineeringly.

Avah held the toy tightly and didn't let Enzo take it away.

Enzo still wanted to grab it, and Avah grabbed it back with force, then raised the toy and slapped it at Enzo.

After being hit by Avah with the toy a few times, Enzo immediately flattened his mouth, his eyes turned red, and he was ready to cry.

"Aunt, hold Enzo quickly, he's going to cry." Lilian was most afraid of the child crying. It could be seen from the way she coaxed her own son. As soon as the child cried, she wanted to run away.

Alannah took Enzo away from Lilian's arms, and took Enzo's toys from the crib and stuffed them into Enzo's little hands.

Enzo, who was about to cry with a pout, looked down at the small toy in his hand, and then looked at the toy in Avah's hand, which was the same as his.

He stopped pouting. He shook his toy at Avah.

“You have your own toys. Don’t take your sister’s toys in the future. Your sister won’t let you. You can’t beat your sister, so don’t provoke your sister.” Alannah taught her grandson, Enzo.

Enzo didn’t understand what his grandmother said. He liked to take Avah’s toys. If he couldn’t take them, he would cry. Crying was useless. Avah would not give them to him and would hit him with the toys.

Jane felt that Avah was becoming more and more like Ben.

“Our Avah is still the best.” Lilian couldn’t let go of Avah when she was holding her.

“If Fabian was half as well-behaved as Avah, I wouldn’t feel numb when I heard him cry. I was never nervous or scared when I was operating on patients, but I would panic when Fabian cried.”

Lilian sat down on the sofa holding Avah and teased her. Avah sat in her arms, quietly playing with her toys.

“Our Fabian is also very obedient. It’s you who don’t have patience. You give your patience to your patients, not to Fabian,” said the fourth Mrs. Johnson to her daughter-in-law.

Lilian giggled. Well, she admitted that she didn’t have much patience for her son. She gave her patience to others. Maybe she didn’t have enough time to take care of her son.

After the child was one month old, she flew to Wiltspoon to help Camryn treat her eyes, and later flew to other places to treat other patients and perform operations. In a month, she spent less than five days at home. Even at home, she had to deal with her sticky husband.

The time she spent with her son was even less. Even if it was a biological mother and son, the relationship had to be cultivated by living together day and night. She spent very little time with her son, and the mother-son relationship was not deep enough.

Do you say Lilian doesn’t love her son?

She loves her son, and her love for him is no less than Tim’s. That is, because of her work, she flies around the world, and her son’s love for her, his biological mother, is maintained by the natural blood relationship.

“Fabian doesn’t cry every day now. He cries when he’s uncomfortable. If you bite him, he’ll cry.”

“Whenever I’m at home, I always hear him crying,” Lilian complained in a low voice. “He’s not as easy to take care of as Avah. I must give birth to a daughter as cute and easy to take care of as Avah for my second child.”

Lilian felt that she had a headache because she gave birth to a crying cat as her first child.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3538

Married At First Sight Chapter 3538-If she wants to have a second child, she must have a lovely, fair-skinned daughter.

How lovely a daughter is.

A daughter is also more obedient than a son and not so naughty.

The fourth Mrs. Johnson said, “Didn’t you say you won’t have a second child? If you want to have one, you should wait a few years. When Fabian goes to kindergarten, you two can have a second child.”

She has a casual attitude towards how many children her daughter-in-law wants to have. If her son and daughter-in-law want to have as many children as they want, she won’t object if they don’t want to have children and become DINKs.

The children are all grown up, they have their own ideas, and they know what they are doing. As long as the children feel that they are happy, it doesn’t matter whether they get married, have children or not, or how many children they have.

“Well, not now, there is no time to get pregnant and have a baby now.” Lilian thought that she would take a plane to Wiltspoon in the evening and fly to Jensburg with Grandpa Jimenez.

She ran around every day and really didn’t have time to get pregnant and have a second child.

Let’s wait until the little crying cat grows up a little.

Tim was not in a hurry to have a second child. He said that it was enough to have Fabian, and it didn’t matter whether he had a second child or not. When asked if he didn’t want a little girl, he said that their Johnson family was only slightly better than the York family in Wiltspoon, but not much better.

In Fabian’s generation, there was already a girl named Avah, and it would be very difficult for them to have another little girl.

Didn’t you see that the York family had no girls for several generations?

It was very good for their Johnson family to have a daughter in almost every generation.

Oh, Ben's generation had no sisters.

Tim was not in a hurry to have a second child, and there was another most important reason: when his wife was pregnant, he wanted to be a vegetarian.

As they were talking, the voices of the old doctor and Titus came from outside.

Titus knew that his master was coming back today and insisted on going with his adoptive parents to pick up his master. And his friend Sonny, who he had studied with for many years, also came with his master.

"Master, Fabian must miss you."

Titus pulled Sonny, and the two of them jumped and skipped, and did not forget to talk to the old doctor.

The old doctor smiled and said, "Fabian can't talk, how do you know he misses me? But I miss Fabian and you."

He loved Fabian the most, and his love for Titus had not diminished a bit.

Titus, his disciple, was usually with him.

"Fabian can talk, but I don't know what he means."

"Sonny, are you hungry? I left a lot of delicious snacks for you. They are all delicious. I have eaten them and I think they are delicious, so I left them for you."

Titus was very happy to see Sonny.

Sonny said, "I also brought you a lot of delicious food and fun things."

"Really, let me see." Titus couldn't wait to see the gifts his little friend brought him.

"They are all in my box. Auntie will help me pull the box."

Serenity, who was walking behind, smiled and said, "Let's eat first, and then we can talk after eating."

Jane also said, "Wash your hands after entering, and you can eat."

The two little guys responded in unison.

They jumped into the house.

Looking at the two little guys, Serenity said to Jane, "I haven't seen you for a while. Titus has grown a little taller."

Sonny was a little shorter than Titus.

"He can eat and sleep well, he is an optimist, and he exercises a lot, so he grows fast."

When Titus returned to FC Manor during the winter vacation, Jane felt that her adopted son had grown taller and a little heavier.

Sonny grew really fast. He was probably the tallest among children of the same age.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3539-Serenity smiled and said, "Children are like this. The happiest and most carefree time in a person's life is childhood. When you grow up and go to school, you'll have the pressure of studying, and you won't be as carefree as you are now."

Jane agreed with her words.

"That's right. I want to be young again. I was happiest when I was a little kid."

When she was a child, she was the darling of the family. Everyone doted on her, and she was happier than an adopted child. Titus also had to learn medicine and martial arts.

Before Jane went to elementary school, she was just playing. Serenity said to Jane, "Speak softly, don't let Ben hear it, otherwise he will think that you feel unhappy and regret marrying him, and he will rack his brains to make you happy."

Jane instinctively turned her head to look at Ben.

Ben looked up at her as if he had telepathy.

The couple's eyes met, and Ben smiled at her.

Jane also smiled.

Turning her head, she took Serenity's arm affectionately.

"I have always been happy. Others say that I am God's daughter, and all the good things have been given to me."

She was not the biological daughter of the Murphy family, but she grew up healthily and happily in the Murphy family instead of the real Jane.

The Murphy family treated her very well. If the Lafayette family had not come later, the Murphy family would not have revealed Jane's true life experience.

She also didn't know that she was not the biological daughter of the Murphy family.

Even now, the Murphy family still treated her as their own. She recognized her biological parents but lived in the city where her adoptive parents lived. She has two fathers and two mothers who love her.

Her biological brother and adoptive brother both spoil her immensely. So do her two sisters-in-law.

After marrying into the Johnson family, she was cherished by the elders of her in-laws' family and her husband. She got pregnant and gave birth to a baby, and she had both a son and a daughter.

The daughter was the most favored one. Jane was definitely someone who was blessed by nature. Serenity was also lucky, but compared with Jane, Serenity had suffered. Her parents died when she was ten years old, and she depended on Liberty for life.

Serenity's happiness began when she married into the York family.

In terms of pregnancy and childbirth, Serenity was under pressure to have a baby initially. She hadn't gotten pregnant for a long time. Now that she was pregnant, she wanted to have a daughter, and she was under pressure to have a daughter.

Moreover, Jane's family background was much better than Serenity's.

That's it, people are so annoying when they compare themselves to others. It's best not to compare, as long as you feel that you are okay and happy.

"We all want to be happy."

Serenity smiled, "Yes, we all want to be happy, and we are really happy."

Jane looked at her belly and asked, "Are you feeling any fetal movements?"

Serenity: "Yes."

Jane: "When is the due date?"

Serenity: "May."

Jane smiled and said, "Very soon, it will be over in the blink of an eye, and it's already January now."

The two of them walked into the house, talking and laughing.

After entering the house, Serenity greeted everyone.

Alannah saw her as if she had seen her own daughter. Even when she was holding her grandson, she still had a hand to pull Serenity to sit down.

“You haven’t come to see us for so long, you are so heartless,” Alannah complained about Serenity’s lack of visit from the beginning.

“We miss you so much.”

Sonny, who had greeted the elders first, heard what Alannah said and asked her with wide eyes, “Grandma, don’t you miss me? You only miss my aunt.”

“Yes, I miss Sonny the most.” Alannah laughed, and the boy was jealous.

Sonny said narcissistically, “I am so cute, I know everyone will miss me.”

“Sonny is getting more and more shameless,” Serenity complained about her nephew’s thick skin.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3540-Jane smiled and took Enzo from Alannah’s arms. “Sonny is telling the truth; he is comparable to my Titus.”

It was a double entendre. Both little guys were smart and cute, but their skins were getting thicker and thicker, especially Titus.

Jane felt that Titus had grown up a lot after coming back this time.

He was a little boy but very smart.

With a few masters who didn’t take the secular world seriously, they should not look at Titus with secular eyes.

“Titus and I are good friends, good buddies. My uncle said that Titus and I have played together since we were young, and we will be childhood friends and close friends in the future.”

Sonny and Titus sat around Lilian, as she was still holding Avah.

The adults present all laughed.

The two little guys grew up together, became childhood friends and close friends, which was also what they were happy to see.

It could even be said that it was done deliberately.

Sonny had the York family behind him, and soon there would be the Lewis family, and he was also smart. When he grew up, his future was limitless. Titus needed powerful friends.

Several seniors were welcomed in.

The room became lively.

As soon as the old doctor entered the room, he took Fabian from his in-laws.

After being taken away by the old doctor, little Fabian looked at the old doctor with big eyes.

“Fabian, you haven’t seen me for a while, don’t you recognize your grandpa?”

He and Lilian were master and apprentice, but they were as close as father and daughter. He raised Lilian, and once a teacher, always a father.

Although Lilian didn’t call him dad, in her heart, he has long been her dad.

Fabian and the old doctor were just like grandfather and grandson.

No one thought there was anything wrong with Fabian calling the old doctor grandpa.

Little Fabian suddenly pouted, and tears gradually appeared in his eyes.

The little guy actually cried.

The old doctor was so distressed that he quickly coaxed his grandson. He thought that he hadn’t been here for a while, and his grandson didn’t recognize him, so he didn’t want him to hold him.

He wanted to hand Fabian back to Tim to hold, but when Tim held Fabian, Fabian cried even harder.

The old doctor couldn’t bear to see his grandson cry, so he quickly took him back.

This time, Fabian stopped crying when he returned to his grandfather’s arms.

The old doctor held his grandson and sat down. After the little guy stopped crying, he gently wiped his tears, raised his head and glared at Lilian, and asked: “Lilian, during the time I was away, did you bully Fabian? Fabian just cried when he saw me. He was crying because he was wronged and complaining.”

Lilian: "Master, I am his biological mother, his biological mother who gave birth to him after ten months of pregnancy, not a stepmother! Don't treat me as a vicious stepmother, how could I bully him."

Alannah rudely exposed Lilian's lie and complained to the old doctor: "Lilian just bit Fabian. We heard Fabian crying from a long distance. We just coaxed him, and you came in."

The old doctor and Silver Fox and others glared at Lilian.

Lilian hugged Avah tightly, trying to hide. On her left and right were two little brats, Titus and Sonny. No one could protect her.

She shrank back and giggled, "He was so white, tender, and chubby. I couldn't help but bite him a little. This kid is only a few months old, but he already complains. What will happen when he grows up?"

He must complain every day. He is a complainer!

"He always cries, unlike Avah who is so well-behaved." Lilian muttered softly.

The old doctor stretched out his hand unceremoniously and slapped her arm a few times.

Titus quickly pulled Sonny up and sat in another position.
