

Chapter 2273

Harvey York stepped forward and stood in front of Teresa Thompson. He then squinted at this greasy man and said indifferently, “You can try.

“I was able to crush dozens of people earlier in the morning. Of course, I’ll be able to destroy a couple more tonight.”

“So, it seems that the ignorant brat who beat the subordinates of Third Young Master this morning is you.”

The greasy young man carefully looked at Harvey.

“You’re pretty good! But didn’t anyone tell you? Everyone has to at least show some respect to the Hamiltons in Las Vegas!

“And you even dared to hit Third Young Master’s underlings. You certainly have a death wish!

“I initially wanted to look for that ignorant brat and kill him. But now that you’re here, everything’s just right!

“Come, break his limbs and throw him into the sea to feed the fishes!”

Dale and other guests were amused, and under their derisive gazes, four towering and burly foreign bodyguards walked over while cracking their necks. Their eyes were full of ferocity.

In their opinion, they could easily slap such a weakling like Harvey down to the ground.

As for how Harvey could finish those gangsters in the morning, they did not think much about it.

As for that greasy man, he also brought a golf club from the side at this moment, and his expression was full of sarcasm.

Several women, who looked like rich ladies, all snuggled beside their male partners, looking forward to seeing Teresa become a joke.

‘If you are looking for a man, you must find someone capable and has high status around you.

Teresa’s eyes became cold while looking at this scene. She came here tonight to talk some sense into Denver, not to fight with him. She then said coldly, “Denver, that’s enough!”

“Miss Thompson, I initially thought you came here to see me tonight with sincerity.

“Unexpectedly, you came here with the thought of hitting me in the face.”

Denver drank the red wine in his glass and said with great interest, “You must know that I’m the king, the rule and the law in this turf, Las Vegas!

“No one has ever slapped me in the face.

“And your behavior also makes me very unhappy.

“Of course, Miss Thompson is the eldest young lady of the Thompson family of Wolsing. You are pretty and have a personality. I admire you very much. So, I decided to give you a chance for the sake of the Thompson family of Wolsing.

“Come here by yourself and accompany me well. Then, I won't give your lackey a hard time!”

Denver patted the buttocks of a woman beside him while speaking.

The woman chuckled shyly. She then stepped back a little and got up from her seat.

“Sit down here, and make me happy tonight.

“You will receive the payment tomorrow, and your staff will also be able to leave safely.

“If you don’t, then just wait to collect their bodies.”

Denver spoke slowly as if he was talking about something justly.

His gaze then fell onto Harvey. He smiled and said, “As for this brat, I’ll crush his bones one by one, then find a vase as tall as a person and bury him in it for seven days and seven nights. After that, I’ll throw him into the sea to feed the fishes!

“Don’t question my words because I have the final say in Las Vegas!

“No one in Las Vegas can stop what I want to do!

“Because I’m Third Young Master from the Hamiltons of Las Vegas...”

Denver spoke indifferently, and the words he said were overbearing.

In his eyes, he was the law in this place.

As for Harvey, who had beaten his subordinates, Denver was like a dead person in his eyes.

Chapter 2274

Harvey York then spoke indifferently before Teresa Thompson could respond, “Crushing all my bones? Throwing them into a vase?”

“Denver Hamilton, since you are so capable, why don’t you try to attack me?”

“Try to attack you?!”

After hearing this, Dale Flynn and the other guests in Chinese clothes all showed sarcastic expressions.

This brat certainly did not know his place!

Did he think he could do anything he wanted in Las Vegas just because he practiced martial arts?

Those foreign bodyguards had defeated many so-called masters under the Third Young Master in the past.

Those foreign bodyguards were all retired soldiers from Northern Europe, and each of them was a master and could easily fight against hundreds on the battlefield.

Third Young Master had paid a considerable price to hire those eight foreign bodyguards.

Now that Harvey was clamoring in front of those people, it seemed that he had overestimated his capabilities.

“So, it turns out that there really are people who aren’t afraid of death these days!”

That greasy young man said mockingly.

“Since it’s Third Young Master’s order, kill him!”

Four of those foreign bodyguards moved forward at the same time. All of them moved decisively, blasting punches and kicks in an instant.

Those foreign bodyguards were indeed quite capable.

At least there were no fancy moves when they fought. Ordinary masters might not even be able to rival them.

However, Harvey looked indifferent. This level was no different from a child playing with mud in front of him.

The moment the first person rushed over, Harvey took a step forward indifferently and then slapped him.

Slap!

The first person could not see Harvey's movements. He just went blank as if the sky was falling apart. He then felt pain in his left cheek, and he instantly flew off.

Slap, slap, slap!

The other three foreign bodyguards also flew off. Some hit the marble column, and some even hit the glass coffee table. The ground instantly turned into a mess.

“What?!”

The expression on Dale and others' faces changed drastically, and they looked horrid.

“Third Young Master, if that's all your bodyguards got, then I'm afraid they won't be able to protect you.”

Harvey said indifferently while taking out a tissue to wipe his fingers.

Saying this sentence certainly carried a lot of weight and applied a lot of pressure since it was said after throwing the foreign bodyguards with just a few slaps.

The atmosphere in the crowd was slightly tense, and almost everyone retracted their initial disdain for Harvey.

Several female guests even looked at Harvey intently, with surprised looks on their faces:

Apparently, they never thought that Harvey's seemingly thin figure contained such terrifying strength and speed.

It was no wonder Teresa dared to be so arrogant. It turned out that she had brought a good fighter along with her!

Nonetheless, those mixed feelings quickly faded away.

After all, nowadays, no matter how good at fighting he was, he was just a thug.

Energy, power, connections, money. Any of those could crush a person to the ground.

The two words “good fighter” were just a joke in front of those things, as mentioned earlier.

Dale even sighed and said, “Brat, you are finished!”

He had seen too many ignorant and insensible people in Las Vegas and Hong Kong.

Meanwhile, Dale also felt frustrated while looking at Teresa.

Things that could have been solved easily had turned into such a big mess. How would he clean up the mess in a while?

Sure enough, all those had nothing to do with Dale. He did not care about this. As long as Denver managed to get Teresa, he could still get tens of thousands of dollars.

However, Harvey moved his index finger, beckoning at that greasy young man at this moment.

Chapter 2275

That greasy young man's face looked extremely ugly. He wanted to rush forward just now, but then he remembered the first four foreign bodyguards were easily brought down by Harvey York.

Seeing Harvey provoking him at this moment, this greasy young man's face turned cold. He then waved his hand and said, "Get your weapons, kill him!"

The remaining four foreign bodyguards glanced at each other. All of them took out their electric batons and pressed forward together with that greasy young man.

Slap, slap, slap!

A few more crisp slaps came out. The five who rushed up were being sent flying off again.

In particular, that greasy young man. He screamed loudly, and his face was crooked when he landed on the ground.

Harvey then looked at Denver Hamilton indifferently, ignoring the screams from the crowd. “Third Young Master, your foreign bodyguards aren’t so capable.

“But you and your family have a great business in Las Vegas, and there must be many experts. Why don’t you call a few more of them to try?”

The eyelids of Dale and others twitched wildly, and all of them dared not speak after seeing Harvey disable several foreign bodyguards in the blink of an eye.

On the contrary, Denver glanced at Harvey with disdain, but his expression did not change much.

He replied indifferently while sipping some red wine, “Young man, you are quite skillful and capable. But it doesn't mean you can act arrogantly. You should know what this place is..."

He exuded an aura of a superior as if he was calmly teaching Harvey a lesson. "Just because you are skillful and you could easily bring my bodyguards down, do you think you are really that remarkable?"

"Ignorant! Naïve!

"Do you know that your actions violated the law of Las Vegas?"

"Do you know that you can be imprisoned for beating people up in public?!"

"Just one call from me, and you will be finished your whole life. You could only sit in the cold cell and live the rest of your life miserably."

Harvey looked indifferent and did not respond to his taunts.

Denver looked at Harvey with great interest. He knew that his words did not faze him after seeing that his expression did not change much.

He immediately smiled again. “So, it seems that you are a tough guy! You aren’t afraid of going to prison at all!

“In that case, how about we look at something else and also play something else?”

“My subordinates sent me a video just now. Since it is fate, why don’t we watch it together?!”

“You might be interested in sitting down and chatting with me after watching it.”

Denver nonchalantly snapped his fingers after speaking.

Soon, one of his subordinates switched on the TV in the hall and played a video using Denver’s mobile phone.

In the video, more than ten men and women were placed in a big iron cage, suspended by the steel arm of a crane hanging above the dark sea.

At this moment, as long as the crane's hook was released, the iron cage would fall into the sea. Needless to say, the people in the cage were doomed to die!

Both Harvey and Teresa also slightly frowned, not knowing what Denver meant.

However, soon, Denver raised his head and slightly smiled. He then adjusted the angle playfully.

Soon, multiple faces appeared in front of Teresa and Harvey.

Teresa's face instantly turned pale as sheets. Her delicate body trembled uncontrollably.

This was because the people in the cage were all her employees.

It was just that she did not know when they had fallen into Denver's clutches again.

Chapter 2276

The moment Teresa Thompson's expression changed wildly, the hall door opened again, and then dozens of tall and burly foreign bodyguards rushed in.

There was a blonde in a black leather coat in front of that horde. She was incomparably hot with a beautiful face, exuding an exotic aura.

However, her eyes locked on Harvey York like a cold blade at this moment.

As for the eyes of the other foreign bodyguards, their eyes also fell coldly on Harvey and Teresa, just as though they would take action at any time.

Teresa's expression changed after a while. She then finally gritted her teeth and said, "You are so shameless, Denver Hamilton!

"How dare you kidnap so many of my employees!

“You are Third Young Master of the Hamiltons. How come you do things so shamelessly?!”

“Kidnapping?”

Denver laughed.

“Miss Thompson, although I showed you the video, it doesn't prove anything. Don't you go around accusing me!

“I, Denver Hamilton, is Third Young Master of the Hamiltons of Las Vegas. We are proper businessmen, and we've always been doing legitimate business!

“The businesses under me enable my pocket to be filled with countless money every day. Do you think a person like me needs to kidnap anyone?”

“You can report to the police and see if anyone will believe you.”

Teresa's face turned red with anger. She said coldly, “Denver, stop talking nonsense. Hurry up and let them go!”

“Well, it was about half an hour ago. When you came...”

Denver spoke to himself and lit up a cigarette at the same time to smoke.

“Your employees actually ran to my warehouse, wanting to check if your batch of goods is in my warehouse.

“Unexpectedly, they were discovered by my security guard and were brought down.

“So, Miss Thompson, we are in self-defense right now.

“According to the rules of Las Vegas, even if I let someone cut the rope directly, no one will say anything.

“This is because I’m safeguarding my legal rights!

“There is a slight difference between the law of the mainland and the law of Las Vegas.

“For instance, the law on our side is mainly maritime law, and you are a civil law country...”

“Do you know what a jury is?”

“If this is reported, the jury in Las Vegas will send seven people to hear this case and see if we are right or wrong.

“But I need to remind you, Miss Thompson. Seventy percent of the jury in Las Vegas are the people of the Hamiltons...”

Denver looked very calm as he said the most bombastic words, making Teresa's complexion change incessantly.

She knew the status of the Hamiltons in Las Vegas, but she never thought that the Hamiltons had already reached the level where they could do anything they wanted in Las Vegas.

Dale Flynn took a step forward at this moment. He then walked to the front of Teresa and said indifferently, “Junior, Las Vegas is the territory of the Hamiltons. Even if Young Master Thompson is here, he has to show Third Young Master Hamilton some respect, let alone you...

“You are just an abandoned girl from a wealthy family who is about to be abandoned by the Thompson family of Welsing. Do you think you have the right to challenge Third Young Master?”

“If I were you, I would kneel and beg for mercy now.

“In this case, since Third Young Master Hamilton is fond of women, he will certainly treat you nicely!”

Dale raised his head and laughed after saying this. His face was full of evil smirks of successful conspiracy.

Teresa bit her lip and said coldly, “Dale, you are shameless. It was wrong for me to believe in a scumbag!

“You won’t be able to get the reward from me!”

“Reward?!” Dale gave a wretched smile. “Wait until Third Young Master Hamilton gets tired of playing with you, then aren’t you going to be my reward?”
