

Chapter 2277

“You...”

Teresa Thompson was so angry that her face turned cold. She could never have imagined that Dale Flynn, who used to be a gentleman and a respectable senior, was able to make such a hideous expression on his face.

After taking a deep breath, Teresa resisted the urge to slap him. Instead, she shifted her gaze at Denver Hamilton and said coldly, “Third Young Master Hamilton, if you hurt my staff, I will never let you go!

“Even if they enter your warehouse without permission, their main purpose was just to check whether our batch of goods was there. They had no other bad intentions!

“Even if you treat them as thieves, you have no right to punish them!

“You could only let the police handle it!

“Denver, I’m reminding you. Don’t think you can do whatever you want in Las Vegas!

“All land belongs to the king. All the people are the king’s servants!

“If you don’t let them go, I’ll report to the police!”

Teresa was pretty rattled at this moment. Those staff had always followed her in conquering the world. If something happened to them, she did not know how to make up to them.

Harvey York remained indifferent and kept mum. Instead, he looked around, and finally, his gaze fell on the blonde.

With his prowess, it was only a matter of minutes to get rid of those dozens of people.

However, Teresa was by his side, so he had to be careful.

“Telling me about the law?”

“You must have some misunderstanding about the law.

Denver smiled strangely. “I’m the law in this place, Las Vegas. Don’t you understand?”

“Of course, It’s not impossible for me to let down your staff. Come and drink this cup of tea.

“Drink it, and only then I’ll let them go!”

Dale smiled when he heard those words. Then, he took out a pink pill and threw it in the cup of tea in front of him. After that, he pushed the cup of tea before Teresa.

Harvey’s gaze became cold. “Denver, you are trying to drug her. You are so shameless!”

“Yes, I want to drug her. So? Come and beat me up if you dare!”

Denver smiled.

“Don’t worry. This is just a little thing that helps to lift up the mood. She won’t die from it!”

“Miss Thompson, the lives of your staff depend on your guts!”

As they were talking, the huge iron cage in the footage began to shake as if it would fall into the sea at any time. There were screams constantly coming out of the iron cage. Obviously, no one could maintain absolute calm in the face of life and death.

Harvey stepped forward, but Teresa stopped him. She then said coldly, “Denver, will you really let my staff go if I drink this cup of tea?”

“That’s right.” Denver had a creepy look on his face. “Although I’m only good at gambling, drinking, and has always been doing bad things, I’m still a man of good repute since I’m from the streets. If I ordered to kill your whole family, we’d kill your entire family.

“I’ll naturally let your staff go if I say it!”

“Okay, I’ll drink it!”

Teresa ignored Harvey’s obstruction in the next moment. Then, she instantly picked up the teacup on the table and downed it.

However, why was this drugged tea so delicious?

Teresa looked bitter and had a hard time drinking. Nonetheless, she still drank the whole cup of tea.

However, her pretty face became slightly reddish, and her vision was blurred as if she would collapse to the ground at any time.

“I’m done drinking!”

“Let them go!”

Teresa squeezed her palm and gritted her teeth as she spoke.

Harvey slightly frowned. He then reached out his hand and tapped Teresa’s back a few times to delay the onset of the drug’s effect.

Chapter 2278

“Interesting! Miss Thompson, you truly impressed me!”

“I believe it now after seeing Miss Thompson!”

Denver Hamilton gave a thumbs up. However, he exuded a beast-like aura as he saw Teresa Thompson, who seemed to be misty-eyed at the moment.

He made a gesture in the next instant. Suddenly, the huge iron cage seen on the screen was slowly put down, but it was not placed on the ground but left hanging above the surface of the dark sea. It was still possible for the people to be thrown into the sea at any time.

As for those staff, their screams became even louder.

Teresa was furious while looking at this scene. “Denver, you didn’t keep your words!

“You b*stard!”

Denver smiled while drinking his wine. “Miss Thompson, you’d better watch your tongue.

“I promised you to put the people down. Did I go back on my words?

“Didn’t I put them down now?

“But I didn’t promise to let them go immediately, right?

“Actually, you should know very well. These people have broken into my territory and wanted to mess around. Why would I easily let them go?

“Couldn’t you come to your senses a bit?”

Teresa was trembling with anger. “B*stard, Denver, you are a b*stard!”

Denver smiled lightly and said, “Babe, scold me. The louder you scold me, the more excited I’ll get!

“Oh right, let me tell you something.

“It happens to be the time of high tide now. It is estimated that the tide will rise and completely submerge the iron cage in about two hours.

“I don’t know if they would die or not.

“Oh gosh, I never intended to take their lives. I raised them so high just to teach them a lesson.

“But since I promised you to let them down, then I certainly can’t break my promise, babe!

“Is that right?! Hahaha!”

Denver raised his head and laughed maniacally.

He was shaking with laughter.

“Brute, you are a brute!”

Teresa was trembling with anger, but the drug began to take effect at this moment. Her body instantly went limp, and she could not even barely stand up.

“Babe, although your angry look is cute, I prefer your expression of scolding me!

“Come on, come on, scold me! Hit me!

“The angrier you are, the more excited I am!

“Hahaha!”

Denver blew out a smoke ring, rubbed his hands, and said, “Babe, from now on, let’s play the second game.

“Take your clothes off. Take one clothing item off, and I’ll pull them up by one meter.

“I think they would be safe after you take all our clothes off!”

All the men in the crowd sneered after Denver finished speaking.

What's more exciting than watching a pretty woman take her clothes off one by one unwillingly?

Meanwhile, Harvey York took a step forward and shielded Teresa behind him after looking around the whole place. He then said coldly, “Denver, why are you talking so much nonsense?”

“I'll just say one thing. If anything happens to those staff, then you'll get into trouble!

“If any of them dies, I'll kill you.

“If all of them die, then I'll kill your whole family!

“According to what you said before, we're all from the streets, so we must keep our word!

“If I say I’ll kill your whole family, then I’ll kill your whole family!”

Smash!

“How dare you talk to me like this? You certainly have a death wish!”

Denver smashed the wine glass in his hand to the ground. He then stared coldly at Harvey.

“Brat, you have no say here.”

Chapter 2279

“I won’t talk about those trivial things. Let’s talk about your situation now!

“I have fifty retired Kings of Arms here, and also the best among the Kings of Arms, who is infinitely close to the existence of the God of War!

“They were all hired by the Hamiltons with a considerable amount of money from the battlefield!

“I’ll admit that you’re a good fighter.

“But no matter how good at fighting you are, you can’t get out of here!

“I’ll give you two choices now!”

Thud. When Denver said this, he rested his left leg on the table.

“First, kneel and admit your mistake. Crawl through under my crotch, and then break both your hands yourself. Then I’ll spare your life for Miss Thompson’s sake!

“Second, I’ll crush all your bones, throw them into the vase, bury it inside for seven days and seven nights. After that, I’ll feed them to the fishes in the sea!

“Choose.”

Before Harvey York could even answer, the blonde femme fatale licked her lips and said coldly, “Third Young Master Hamilton, why go through all this trouble?

“Give him to me. I guarantee you that I’ll cut his flesh inch by inch so that he can understand what are the consequences of offending you in Las Vegas, Third Young Master Hamilton!”

Not only was the blonde Denver Hamilton’s favorite subordinate, but she was also his number one fighter.

Thus, she had long been upset after seeing Harvey's arrogant demeanor at that moment.

Therefore, she was convinced that she could easily beat Harvey to death with a single punch.

Harvey's indifferent gaze fell onto that blonde. That woman looked slim and attractive.

However, she was actually quite powerful and was a strong character.

Teresa Thompson spoke again, "Denver, let them go immediately!"

"Babe, why are you being so disobedient again?"

"It seems that you want your staff to die soon!"

Denver snapped his fingers with a smile while speaking.

Suddenly, crack, a sound came out from the monitor, and the iron cage was lowered another meter.

Those encaged staff was all half-soaked in seawater at this moment, with looks of despair seen on their faces.

As long as the tide continued to rise, they would be drowned in no time.

Teresa was trembling all over while watching this scene. She was extremely furious, but she did not dare to speak out again because she was afraid that she would be the cause of the deaths of those staff.

Denver licked his lips after seeing Teresa's angry expression but not daring to speak. His countenance became more unscrupulous.

Harvey looked at Denver coldly and said, "Third Young Master Hamilton, are you sure you want to continue doing this?"

“Not giving yourself a chance at all?”

Denver laughed with a derisive expression on his face. At the same time, he also despised Harvey.

This guy was certainly not afraid of death. He did not want to bother him anymore, but he kept on doing this.

In the next moment, he just ignored Harvey and said indifferently, “Sarah, this man is yours.

“Teach him a good lesson so that he could take it as a lesson in his next life. He should know who he could provoke and who he couldn’t!”

In Denver’s opinion, Harvey was not much different from a dead person at this moment.

“Okay.”

Sarah slightly nodded and then stepped forward.

“Brat, you’re finished!”

Dale smiled ironically.

“Ms. Sarah is the number one fighter in the Italian army, and many men had died in her hands.

“I can only congratulate you!

“But what a way to go!

“Hahaha!”

Chapter 2280

Under Dale Flynn's wanton laughter, Sarah stomped her foot on the ground. She then sprang forward like a cannonball, rushing toward where Harvey York was.

Teresa Thompson unconsciously shrieked, "Harvey, be careful!"

Bang!

Harvey looked indifferent, grabbed a bottle of wine beside him, and threw it forward.

After seeing Harvey's actions, Sarah waved her hand, and a whip instantly appeared in her hand. She then smashed the wine bottle into pieces in an instant.

The surrounding foreign bodyguards unconsciously backed away, apparently knowing how terrifying Sarah's combat power would be if she outbroke.

Shh!

At this moment, Harvey then swung his right foot, and the table was kicked toward Sarah's direction.

Just when Sarah was about to make the next move, his body flashed forward like electricity and instantly came behind Denver Hamilton. The fruit knife in his hand was already on Denver's neck.

Denver's face instantly turned grim.

He could never have imagined that Harvey was so agile. He took him down when he could not react at all.

Harvey held the fruit knife and slightly pressed it at Denver's neck. Then, he mocked all the bodyguards who wanted to step forward and said indifferently, "If anyone dares to step forward, I'll kill Third Young Master Hamilton. I dare you!"

Harvey had already picked up a wine bottle in his left hand when he finished his words. Smash! He instantly smashed it on Denver's head.

"Argh!"

Mournful screams could be heard, causing the bodyguards who were about to surround them to unconsciously back away.

As for Teresa, she strugglingly moved toward Harvey, gasping for breath.

"Brat, how dare you to take Third Young Master as hostage? You're certainly asking for it!"

Sarah was outraged. She did not expect someone to take Denver as hostage in front of her. To her, this was a huge humiliation.

Smash!

Harvey then smashed another wine bottle on Denver's head, making him all dizzy. "Don't talk so much nonsense, and don't come forward. Otherwise, trust me, I'll use my sword next time.

"Third Young Master's life is very precious, and I'm just a nobody. I won't suffer any losses at all if I die with him, right?"

The foreign bodyguards looked at each other after seeing Harvey's smiley face. All of them unconsciously took a few steps back and looked terrified.

They were not afraid of those aloof young masters and princes because those people cherished their lives.

However, Harvey's brazen look at this moment frightened them.

Sarah had to stop. She then looked at Harvey with resentment. "Brat, if you dare to hurt Third Young Master Hamilton, I promise I'll hack you into pieces and kill your entire family!"

"Stop talking so much nonsense! Step back!"

Harvey pressed on his watermelon knife, and blood instantly trickled down Denver's neck.

The crowd of people around him did not dare to attack. Hence, they did not dare to move forward at this moment.

No one dared to doubt that Harvey had the courage to kill Denver after seeing his ruthlessness.

It did not matter if Denver died. However, with the ways of the King of Gambling, if the bodyguards were alive and Denver died, they would all have to be buried alive.

"Back off!"

Although Sarah was extremely aggrieved, she still had to take two steps back at this moment.

Dale, the men, and women in Chinese clothes all stepped back with horrendous expressions for fear of being misunderstood by Harvey that they wanted to save Denver.

“Cough, cough, cough...”

Denver coughed and spurted out blood. His complexion was terrible.
