

Chapter 2393

Queenie York took several breaths and finally calmed herself down.

The appearance of Ethan Hunt today was unexpected, but the arrival of Samuel Bauer was beyond imagination.

Even though these two people seemed to have come almost at the same time, this also showed Harvey York's immense power and strong connections.

"I'm too lazy to talk nonsense. All of you kneel and grovel three times before Harvey. Then I'll end this matter here today."

Samuel's expression was cold. He did not discuss it with Harvey and planned to end this mess immediately.

The eyelids of Queenie and the others twitched lightly, with hideous expressions on their faces.

If they really kneeled tonight, how could they set Harvey up? How could they still do well in Hong Kong and Las Vegas in the future?

If they kneeled, they would certainly disgrace the Dragon Palace of Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

Harvey then glanced at Samuel with great interest. How come this old man would show him respect like this?

He might want him to return the favor next time.

“Master Bauer, I’m Queenie, the fourth faction of the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas. My father is Marcel York.

“At the same time, I’m also the second-in-command of the helm of Dragon Palace.”

Meanwhile, Queenie gritted her teeth and stepped forward. She managed to resist Samuel’s s intimidating pressure and spoke slowly, “It’s not that we want to shoot him to death, but it’s because he is involved in the incident at Las Vegas International Airport. Not only did he refuse to cooperate, but he also hit Tyrell, took him as a hostage, and even tried to escape!

“I’m just doing my duty. I used the firearm because there was no other way!

“If we really wanted to kill him, we wouldn’t have brought him here!

“Moreover, Grandma York and the Lord of Dragon Palace are very concerned about this case. I hope Master Bauer won’t forcibly interfere...”

Since things had developed to such a point, it was impossible for her to kneel with her temperament. Even though Queenie was intimidated by Samuel’s identity and strength, she could only speak at that moment.

“Queenie? You’re the daughter adopted by Marcel York, the current Master of the Yorks?”

Samuel looked at Queenie with great interest. “I heard that you are adopted to be the wife of the current master.

“To put it simply, you are Young Lord York, Vince York’s fiancée?

“How can a person like you be the Madame? Are the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas trying to be funny?

“What are the ins and outs of the whole incident? How did Harvey get involved in it? Don’t you have any idea about it?

“Talking with such a professional tone and even mentioning Grandma York...

“Come. I’ll give you a chance now. Call Grandma York and see if she dares to come to help you.”

Queenie's expression slightly changed. Asking Grandma York for such a trivial matter, wouldn't that prove her incompetence?

In accordance with the style of the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas, she might be able to suppress Samuel if she asked for help now, but her future would also be completely over!

Queenie gritted her teeth at this moment and said slowly, "Master Bauer, what I said is true. Furthermore, Harvey also hurt the people from Dragon Palace. Also, the Elder Group has agreed that we can..."

"Are those people's words important?" Samuel was expressionless.

"Everyone kneels and grovels three times. Then the matter will be over.

"Don't you get it?"

“Or are you not convinced?”

“Not convinced. Then I’ll hit you until you’re convinced.”

Queenie gritted her teeth and forcibly muttered a sentence, “Master Bauer, if you insist on going your way, aren’t you afraid that you will offend Dragon Palace and also the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas?”

“Aren’t you afraid that you will lose a century-old reputation just because of Harvey?”

Slap!

Samuel slapped Queenie until she flew off. Then, he questioned indifferently, “Little girl, are you teaching me to do things?”

Chapter 2394

The group of people from Dragon Palace was furious. However, they did not dare to step forward at this moment and just stared at the ground with their eyes flickering in anger.

Samuel Bauer sneered with a mocking expression on his face.

As for Ethan Hunt, he just stood there, full of admiration. The legendary Master Bauer was indeed domineering.

He acted regardless of the rules and favor. He just did what he came to do, which was very extraordinary.

“Master.”

Harvey suddenly spoke.

“Actually, it’s better to take care of the century-

old reputation of the Longmen.

“You can’t ruin your years of hard work just because of me.

“Didn’t the people from Dragon Palace testify that I have something to do with the Las Vegas International Airport massacre?

“They even asked for an explanation from me.

“Then, I’ll give them a fair statement.

“It’s just that they wanted to kill me, but I want to destroy them all!

“I want the four organizations, Dragon Guards, Dragon Cell, Dragon Palace, and Longmen, to have a joint trial!

“I want to seek justice for the innocent!

“If I’m found guilty, then I’ll admit it!

“But if I’m innocent, I’ll abolish Dragon Palace’s branch in Hong Kong and Las Vegas.”

The faces of Queenie and the others all changed as soon as Harvey said those words.

Samuel was slightly stunned for a moment.

Then, he laughed loudly after a while. “Harvey, I have to admit that I really like your way of doing things.

“Since they want to kill me, then we’ll ruin them!

“Lieutenant Colonel Ethan, please help temporarily take charge of the branch of Dragon Palace in Hong Kong and Las Vegas. People could only enter this turf from now onward, and no one is allowed to leave!

“Today, we’ll give a fair explanation to the innocent and also to the world!”

Boom!

Dark clouds were blocking out the sun above the sky. Thunder flashed through as if the sky was about to collapse.

On the outskirts of Wolsing, there was a place like a tomb, with countless figures passing through everywhere.

A carrier pigeon flew into this isolated place and landed in the hands of a young man.

He was a man with a pale face. He removed the attached letter from the carrier pigeon. A smile appeared on his face after reading it for a while.

After a moment, he respectfully bowed toward the direction of an ancient temple far away and then slowly walked away.

After leaving this isolated area, he only took out his mobile phone and dialed a number. “

Grandma, Jesse Xavier is going to Hong Kong as a representative of the Dragon Guards for a joint hearing on Harvey's case. Do you have any orders?"

In the Dragon Cell of Mordu division.

Peyton Horan put down the phone in his hand. He then caressed the little head of his granddaughter, Talia Horan. He smiled and said, "Talia, Grandfather has to go to Hong Kong and seek justice for Brother Harvey. What do you think?"

Almost at the same time, in the busy city of Victoria Harbor, inside an exquisite flower shop, a bare-faced woman, who was wearing a white dress, was putting down the bouquet in her hand.

Her face was cold, and her temperament was elegant, looking very independent and aloof. She was really charming and attractive.

Everyone in the upper circle of Hong Kong and Las Vegas could recognize her.

She was none other than Lexie York from the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas.

Not only was she from the legendary fifth faction of the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas, but she was also the youngest daughter of the Old Master of the Yorks and the sister of the current master.

Other than that, she also had a special identity.

The Lord of Dragon Palace's wife and the second most powerful person in Dragon Palace, Madam York.

Meanwhile, a Toyota Century slowly stopped at the entrance of the flower shop. A tall and thin figure pushed open the door and walked down with an umbrella.

His face was quite similar to Harvey's but more of a masculine and handsome look. He was the type that could instantly leave a good impression on others whenever he appeared.

This person was Vince York, the Young Lord York of Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

Chapter 2395

Vince York held the umbrella and entered the garden with a smile. Then he walked to Lexie York's side and spoke respectfully, "Aunt, good evening. You summoned me here suddenly. Is there anything that I can help you with?"

Lexie squinted at Vince before her. She looked carefully at him as if she wanted to see through Harvey York.

She then lightly opened her mouth and said slowly, after a long time, "Were you the one who arranged for Harvey to come to Hong Kong and Las Vegas?"

Vince seemed to be startled for a moment.

However, he still managed to smile and said, "Of course not."

Slap!

A tablet was smashed in front of Vince. Lexie then replied indifferently, “Harvey’s mother-in-law was kidnapped. Queenie sneaked up on Harvey twice...

“The fourth faction of the Hamiltons has repeatedly messed around with Harvey.

“Dennis Parker arranged for Harrison Yates’ imprisonment to testify that Harvey was the one who caused the incident at the Las Vegas International Airport.

“Do you dare to claim that these things have nothing to do with you?”

Vince looked surprised and said, “Aunt, I did hear of these matters.

“These people are also from my lineage.

“The problem is, I have never given such orders.”

Lexie merely reasoned indifferently, “Vince, it’s okay to say these words in front of me. But do you think it will be helpful to say these during the joint trial later?”

After hearing the words “joint trial”, Vince, who initially had a mild expression, became a little angry. Soon, he replied softly, “Aunt, I don’t understand. This is the territory of the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas and also the place where Dragon Palace settles things. How come the other three clans are also involved?”

“This is our territory, and these people have no right to act boorishly here.”

Lexie sighed and said, “Why are they involved? Vince, you really don’t understand? Or are you just trying to act stupid?”

“Harvey is a member of the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas. He is also Prince York of South Light and the branch leader of Longmen.

“In many people’s perception, he is a grass-root that can rise!

“But in the eyes of some big shots, he is a carp that may bypass the Longmen!

“Your people have dealt with him repeatedly, not just for the trivial matter of the Yorks in South Light.

“You know very well that only Prince York, Branch Leader York, this brat who hasn’t sired to us, the Yorks, can threaten your status in the entire Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas!

“Although he has no interest in the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas now, that’s because he doesn’t know his background.

“Once he knows about it, you can’t be sure whether he will come back or not. That’s why you want to kill him!

“Even if he is not a threat to you now!

“But his existence in itself is already a sin to you!”

Vince’s expression changed drastically. He never thought that his thoughts hidden in the depths of his mind were all seen through by his pretty aunt.

“Vince, you are the God of War of Dragon Palace. You are ranked the first among the Gods of War in terms of strength. Also, you are about to be canonized as the Chief Instructor of the top nine troops. There are some people and things that shouldn’t be taken seriously.

“Even if Harvey wants to come back and compete, you have been running this for many years...

“Can he compete with you?”

Vince's face changed. Then, he said softly, "Aunt, then what do you think?"

"Go to the branch of Dragon Palace and apologize to Harvey.

"This matter shall end here."

"Impossible!"

Vince's expression turned cold. He was Young Lord York of the Yorks in Hong Kong and Las Vegas, and he was the new God of War of Dragon Palace. He was also one of the top talents among the young talents. How could he apologize to the so-called Prince York?

In Vince's opinion, as long as he was willing, Sky Corporation of South Light could be destroyed in one day!

The owner of the branch of Longmen could also be changed in a single day.

“I’ll do my best for today’s matter. Good luck to you...”

Chapter 2396

‘We are in big trouble!’

Inside the branch of Dragon Palace of Hong Kong and Las Vegas, Queenie York’s expression changed, and there was only this voice in her mind.

With Samuel Bauer supporting him and the warrant from the superior, Ethan Hunt, easily blocked all the entrances and exits of the branch of Dragon Palace of Hong Kong and Las Vegas. Although they did not enter the interior area of the branch, it was enough to prevent even a mosquito from entering this place.

This was because the branch was located on Taiping Mountain. Many dignitaries who also lived here had sent people to survey the place. However, even the first-in-command of Hong Kong had been turned down.

The entire branch of Dragon Palace in Hong Kong and Las Vegas was like a restricted area.

Half a day later, after Harvey York and Ethan had some good tea, people finally started arriving here one after another.

Those people were all big shots in Dragon Palace, Dragon Guards, Dragon Cell, and Longmen. Although they were not the person in charge this time, they were all essential characters.

The joint trial involving the four organizations had not been held for many years. This time, it was held because of Longmen. Thus, the trial must be transparent and fair!

Moreover, the matter this time had international implications. It was said that even the Nine Elders had given instructions on this matter in the Elder Group.

For a moment, the entirety of Hong Kong was so quiet and tense. No one dared to come out and walk around at this moment.

Such a scene made Queenie York's expression, who was in the crowd, even worse, and it also made her feel such unprecedented pressure.

The two powerhouses, the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas and Dragon Palace, were indeed terrifying.

However, if Dragon Guards, Dragon Cell, and Longmen came with the will of the Nine Elders, then no one could do anything in this trial.

Everything could only be done according to the rules.

It could only be judged impartially.

Initially full of confidence, this sort of atmosphere made Queenie feel a little ominous.

At the same time, she stared at Harvey from far away with an incredulous expression.

Why?!

Wasn't this guy just a branch leader of Longmen? Wasn't this guy just Prince York?

Why was he able to get Samuel's full support? He said that there would be a joint trial involving the four organizations, and Samuel actually invited representatives from the four organizations.

He was just a grassroot in the eyes of the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas. He had no right to question her decision.

Where did that leave the Yorks of Hong Kong and Las Vegas? Where did that leave Dragon Palace?

Just when Queenie was full of resentment,

Harvey and Ethan focused their attention on a man with a pale face who had just gotten off the helicopter.

“Jesse Xavier?” Harvey spoke the man’s name unconsciously. “What are the people from the Xavier family of Wolsing doing here?”

Ethan smiled and said, “CEO York, you’re a little outdated. Jesse’s master is the Master of Dragon Guards, also known as Master Xavier. Although he wasn’t too well-known in Wolsing, in other people’s eyes, he was a big shot that was on par with the Four Young Masters of Wolsing.

“It is said that not only does he has excellent skills, but he is also proficient in many things such as painting and calligraphy. Most importantly, he is very well-versed in Feng Shui and physiognomy. He has also made outstanding achievements through the “Book of Changes”.

“I heard that even the big boss had a chat with him.”

“Big boss?” Harvey slightly squinted, and the remarkable man, who was at the top of the great Country H, appeared in his mind.

“To be able to let the big boss think highly of him, he is indeed extraordinary.”

Seemingly sensing the gazes from Harvey and Ethan, Jesse walked over, extended his right hand toward Harvey, smiled, and said, “Prince York, long time no see.”

“Prince Xavier.” Harvey also replied politely.

Jesse smiled and said, “I’m nothing in front of you, Prince York.

“But, I’m here to join the joint hearing this time on behalf of the Dragon Guards. If there is any offense in a while, please forgive me in advance, Prince York.”

“It’s necessary.” Harvey smiled slightly. “The reason I want a joint trial that involves the four organizations is because I want it to be fair and impartial. I want to seek justice for the innocent.”

“Thus, just do what you should do in the meantime.”
