

Genius 2851

Chapter 2851

After Lin Mo snorted, he was tempted to say yes, but understanding the Prince's character, he knew that although this bd's was big-hearted, sometimes, he would also have his own little temper.

"How, how can you think that."

"Let me ask you, was it you who flew the transport ship to bring support to me on the cruise ship in the first place?"

The Prince nodded woodenly without question.

"Let me ask you again, when the Kong family arranged for a*sa*sins to a*sa*sinate me, was it still you who led the support and then destroyed the a*sa*sin group."

The prince still nodded obediently.

"Good, at the banquet yesterday, was it you who spoke out and interfered with that black-robed man, buying me a chance to catch my breath in a disadvantageous situation?"

The prince's eyes lit up and he nodded excitedly once again.

"So is there anything wrong with me saying that I need you to stay around and a*sist me?"

"Big brother, no problem, no problem. Since big brother has a need, I will naturally give my full a*sistance."

The prince had drifted by now, an incomparable gleam of triumph leaking from his eyes.

"By the way, big brother, since you're in the middle of finding someone, why don't you contact those two old guys from the Martial Union, the ones they have?"

Crap!

Lin Mo directly sat up in shock, considering the initial Martial Union's Grand Elder's calendars of the said, he has never opened with the Martial Union side, now the situation is clear, Hanoi South Vietnam also entered the rectification stage, at this time also exercise a whack ah.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo could not help but glance at the crown prince, his gaze carrying a sense of surprise.

Could it be that this fellow came with the attribute of being able to raise his IQ with praise?

The headquarters of the Martial Union in Kyoto, China.

The replacement activities had all ended, and the next step was to enter the closing stage. In order to maintain the vitality of the Martial Union and maintain the strongest fighting force, most of the old people had to face the dilemma of retirement, and only a very small number of elites among the elites would have the opportunity to be promoted.

Those who retire are generally only in their forties or so there, and even the older ones are only in their early fifties.

This huge task also kept the Martial Union Elders' Council busy, and every day was a succession of daily deliberative meetings.

In the morning, the meeting had just ended when the a*sistant walked quickly into the meeting room.

"Grand Elder, a call for you!"

Xuanyuan Ming rubbed his rising brow, "Who is calling?"

"Amba*sador Taishan, Lord Lin Mo Lin!"

When they heard that it was Lin Mo's call, a touch of curiosity suddenly appeared on the faces of several elders who were all ready to adjourn the meeting, and the bodies that had just stood up had immediately done so.

Xuan Yuan Ming is also full of curiosity, isn't this kid busy in Da Qu? But to is going to give up.

As soon as the call was picked up, Lin Mo's anxious voice came from the other end.

"Grand Elder ah, help."

Xuan Yuan Ming froze and snorted, "Kid, can't hold it together so soon?"

"It's just as well, in that case, come back sooner!"

The people present all had a number on the current state of affairs over at Da Qu, they had even made many attempts to rectify the situation, only that they had all failed without exception, and now they were not much surprised by Lin Mo's abandonment.

"Grand Elder, who said to you that if I go back, I have already taken both sides of Hanoi and South Vietnam, and now I am short of manpower.

Remember, I want a lot of manpower, that's all, goodbye!"

Pop! The phone hung up straight away, leaving the group of dazed elders alone to look at each other, if they heard correctly, Lin Mo had just said that the two provinces had already been taken by him, right!

"Someone, hurry up and gather for me Lin Mo's intelligence in Da Qu during this period of time."

During this period of time, Xuan and the others had been so busy wrapping up their work after the change of government that they had no time to pay attention to other matters.

After the a*sistant fetched a thick pile of documents, several elders hurriedly flipped through them, while exclaiming in awe.

After Xuan Yuan Ming finished reading them, he suddenly had a new thought.

That night, countless members of the Retired Alliance who had retired or were about to retire, put on their backpacks and ran in batches to Da Qu.

Chapter 2852

After talking to the Grand Elder Xuan Yuan Ming on the phone, his frown gradually relaxed.

A big problem had finally been solved, and the next step was to wait for someone from the Martial Alliance, and then the restart of the Martial Alliance in the two provinces would be on the right track.

“Big brother, just now the Sixth Prince’s side came to say something, saying that he wanted to invite you to a meal to express his gratitude.”

Lin Mo didn’t hesitate and refused straight away, “No go!”

“Big brother, why not go, I think he respects you quite a lot, and he’s a nice person too.”

Hmm?

Lin Mo had known the Crown Prince for so long, it was rare to hear him praise someone to their face, and the ones that agreed were very few.

“Was it Lilia, who contacted you?”

The prince froze his expression and gave a heated smile, “How did you know that?”

Holy sh*t, was this kid about to spring into action!

Lin Mo’s face turned ugly as he thought of this, this Lilia seemed to think that she couldn’t open a gap in her own hands, so she was taking advantage of the Prince, and the latter unfortunately looked like he was going to be raided.

Although this was just a normal diplomatic tactic, Lin Mo was indeed extremely displeased.

“There’s something I need to explain to you!”

Seeing that his big brother looked serious, the prince put away his playful smile and made his way to the opposite side of Lin Mo with a serious face.

“Speak up, big brother!”

“Well, my relationship with the Sixth Prince is nothing more than a relationship of mutual cooperation and mutual use, and it’s not even considered a friend.”

The prince scratched his head, not understanding the deeper meaning, “Then big brother, why are you treating the sixth prince and giving him land again.

I thought you were on good terms.”

Indeed, what Lin Mo had done was completely unconditional in helping the Sixth Prince, and had even offered any remuneration.

“That’s because, I need to intensify your rivalry between their prince’s.

Only when they divert their energies to the struggle for the throne will we be able to rectify Da Qu more smoothly.”

Lin Mo explained patiently, "Those who are not my people will have a different heart, the reason why they are in awe, we in China is because we are powerful, as long as we appear to be weak, these hungry wolves from our neighbouring countries will definitely show their fangs."

"So cooperation is fine, but we must guard against their hand, can you understand in this way?"

The scourge of moving water was only the first step in pinching off Prince Wanxiang's layout in Daqu, when the Lin Mo Martial Alliance landed, after that their hands that reached in would be cut off, this land he could only be surnamed Hua.

Although the prince's personality was jumpy, his intelligence was still online, and when Lin Mo made such a point, he instantly understood.

"Got it, big brother! I told you that SI*ttty old b*tch, why is she so enthusiastic about me, Cao!"

"Next time, before I see her, I'll make him understand what it is to be a social evil."

The prince's face was filled with indignation with a hint of shame, too humiliated to almost fall for someone else's beauty trick.

Lin Mo patted him on the shoulder, smiling and admonishing him.

"You don't have to be too serious, this is all normal scene, after all, we still need to cooperate with the Sixth Prince at the moment, we can't make too much of a stalemate on the bright side."

"Then I'll listen to big brother, when Da Qu has finished fully reorganising, I'll go to Wan Xiang and uncover that b*tch."

The prince only felt that he had received an insult to his intelligence, very! Angry! Angry!

After Lin Mo had woken him up, he continued to coordinate the construction of the Martial Union in Hanoi Province, and information on all the cities and forces in Hanoi was sent to him in a steady stream.

He worked until midnight, but he only checked less than one percent of the half-human-tall table full of information, which was enough to make Lin Mo's eyes swell.

Fortunately, early the next morning, the first batch of support arrived by air.

Chapter 2853

Lin Mo looked at the more than five hundred retired or soon to be retired members of the Martial Union in front of him, his eyes were filled with joy, this was only the first batch of people they had come for as instructed, there would be far more support staff to follow.

The best part was that these 500 people were all elite professionals with management experience, which was a perfect solution to Lin Mo's pressing needs.

As expected of the Martial Union's Grand Elder, the efficiency of his work was high.

"All right, your tentative will be to sort out the statistics of the various cities and all the forces therein."

This is a top priority, if we don't get to the bottom of them, it will only be a mess when we carry out a comprehensive consolidation phase later on.

"Crown Prince, come out with me!"

After Lin Mo greeted him, he was ready to go out. As for the information, although it was complicated, it was a simple matter, so there was no need for him to be present, after all, Lin Mo had other things to deal with.

When Lin Mo had just taken a few steps out of the gate with the Prince, he bumped into Elder Gan head-on.

"Lord Lin, are you going out here?"

After Old Man Gan learned of Lin Mo's status as the Zhen Yue Envoy, he immediately changed his title to Lord.

"Yes, going out for a trip, they've come all the way to Heshan City, they're unfamiliar with the place, I'll go and arrange for food, clothing and accommodation."

A good Martial Alliance Zhen Yue envoy was reduced to a logistics supervisor, it was a little heartbreaking to think about.

Hearing this, Elder Gan's eyes flashed with a brilliant light.

"Lord Lin, if you were for this matter then you wouldn't have had to make a hard trip."

When Elder Gan explained, Lin Mo was immediately overjoyed.

As there was no office, Lin Mo could only temporarily commandeer the Gan family's living room as a temporary office, and after the astute Gan Lao's learned of this, he immediately contacted all the members of the merchant alliance, and when they learned of this, they instantly moved, those who had money contributed money and those who had people contributed people.

"As of now, I have received six billion dollars in remittances here, and we are clearing out the temporary community, so we expect the adults to be able to move in directly by this afternoon."

"Also the people in the various areas of Hanoi have started to make urgent arrangements to get the infrastructure ready in the fastest time possible as well."

Lin Mo was full of joy, "Then I'll trouble Elder Gan, in addition all the personnel contributions you remembered a detailed list, when the Martial Union is fully implemented, I'll repay them one by one."

He saw Gan Lao's face torn and added: "A sum of money is a sum of money, some things can't be received, the rules can't be broken."

That person's hand is soft, if this money under his hand now, when he encounters conflicts later, it is a time bomb, as for the favours they help, under the principle of not violating not harming the interests of the Martial Union, Lin Mo can appropriately lower the threshold slightly on their backs, this is called human kindness!

"Old man I understand, don't worry I've taken care of what Lord Lin has arranged."

Elder Gan replied with a flattering face, "Lord Lin, why don't we go together and take a look, at the temporary community.

Although it may not be as good as the high-end residences in the big cities, it is already the best place we have here.

As for the new community, and the office building, we still have to wait for a while."

Elder Gan seemed to be more interested in the construction of the Martial Union than Lin Mo himself, considering every aspect, and his energetic appearance seemed to be as if he wanted to settle the headquarters of the Martial Union in Hanoi Province directly in Heshan City.

Lin Mo knew that he had his heart set on it, so he didn't stop him. If he could really build Heshan City into a metropolis, it wasn't impossible to consider this headquarters.

"Old man Gan doesn't need to go to such trouble, just be ordinary, it doesn't need to be too high cla*s."

Old man Gan was saying one thing after another, not knowing whether he had listened to Lin Mo or not.

Chapter 2854

At the junction of Da Qu, Wan Xiang and Zhen La, there is a mountainous area that is not under the administration of any of the three parties, and no one dares to set foot in this mountainous area.

It is one of the six sacred mountains of the world. Although it hardly ever comes into contact with the outside world, it is home to many masters and countless secret codes, and those who live in such places are known to the outside world as the people of the mountain.

The black-robed man had rushed back to Mount Basha the first time he saw the green shadow, and yes, he was also a member of the divine mountain, just of a lower status.

As they hurriedly stepped into the realm of the Basha earth, an ethereal voice suddenly came to their ears 'Stop', and at once the black-robed squad turned pale, a powerful pressure swept across the sky and rose out of nowhere, and several people felt their feet go weak and fell to their knees, with no movement in their bodies.

The leader of the black robe, holding the broken arm, full of pain please brace himself against the terrifying pressure, he desperately pulled out a stone token from his pocket.

"Guardian Lord Guardian of the Realm, we are the out duty squad and have returned this time with important news to bring back."

When he raised the token with difficulty, the pressure around him that made people gasp for breath disappeared.

"Enter!"

"Anyone who excels again, die!"

Although there was no hint of emotional fluctuation under the calm tone, it made the black-robed squad tremble all over.

“We must bear in mind that we were too hasty and careless for a moment this time.”

After the black robe finished, there was no response, blandly he also knew after this result and did not have any surprise, after getting up several people wiped the beads of sweat on their foreheads and immediately continued to rush towards within the deep mountain, and in their position they could already look out to the distant mountain peak that towered into the clouds, that was the main peak of the Basha divine Mountain.

As they entered the main peak, there were no magnificent palaces or other sects or other buildings around them.

The only bright spots are the flowers in bloom and the grasses and trees that are green all year round.

From time to time, one could see ordinary passers-by on the road, but the black robe did not look at any of them, they were all super experts who had already reached the point of returning to their true nature.

At the top of the main peak, a thousand-foot cliff, a middle-aged man with eyes sitting cross-legged on the ground with his eyes tightly closed, without any fluctuation of vitality around him, as if a stone was motionless.

Only when he heard a movement behind him did his eyelids twitch slightly.

“Lord Mountain Master, the squad that went out on duty, said that they had seen Eldest Miss!”

The words fell for a long time, the mountain lord of the Basha divine Mountain, You Li, did not reply directly, it had been about half an hour before he let out a soft sigh of turbid air.

“Little ninny, really playing wild outside, is she still over at He Shan City?”

The last time You Li Bian had been to Heshan City, he secretly took a look at his daughter, only to see her having fun, plus other reasons he did not bring Green Shadow back.

“Yes, Missy is still over there.”

“Go and bring her back, just say that my father misses her, and by the way, bring that Lin Mo back with you.

“I’d like to see what kind of magic this youngster has that can make my precious daughter cling to him so much.”

The subordinate could hear that the mountain lord just had a grudge against the lad, but on second thought he understood, what father likes his baby daughter to cling to other people of the opposite sex.

After receiving the order, he slowly turned around and walked out about a hundred metres before leaping up a hundred metres into the air, stepping on the tops of the trees, and with a few ascents and descents, several figures appeared behind him to follow him out of the divine mountain.

Chapter 2855

Heshan City.

After a few busy days, the members of the Martial Union arrived in twos and threes, and the relaunch of the Martial Union began to get underway, with all the important tasks in full swing and the city of Heshan developing at a rapid pace.

On the docks, huge ships unloaded all kinds of building materials and then loaded them with the specialties of the city of Heshan and all kinds of seafood.

Within the city, apart from Moro Street, which Lin Mo had ordered not to interfere with, other streets had begun to be widened, and such old and disorganised buildings had all been bulldozed to make way for brand new shopping malls, neighbourhoods, schools, hospitals and so on.

In short, under the leadership of Gan Lao, the entire city of Heshan is taking advantage of Lin Mo's relaunch of the Martial Alliance to attract investment everywhere, and he is relying on the Martial Alliance office centre in the centre of the city, which is in a mad rush to be built.

No one knows where Lin Mo will locate the headquarters of the Martial Union, but as long as he is in Heshan, the members of the merchant union, including other businessmen and tycoons, will not stop investing in Heshan.

Today, the entire city has been expanded to the outskirts, and the entire landscape has been given a new look.

Lin Mo naturally knew all this very well in his heart, but he did not interfere with it. Everything that Elder Gan did was legal and compliant, and did not have any impact on the development of the Martial Union, but on the contrary, it was quite helpful.

Moreover, under Elder Gan's planning, the trade between the members of the entire merchant alliance had become closer, which was a good thing, and there were even quite a few projects that Song Zhilan had joined in.

Lin Mo sometimes sighed that this person, who had half a foot in the coffin, had such a clever business mind.

At night, the moon was on the willows.

After arranging the next day's tasks, Lin Mo returned to his room early, the high intensity of work was a bit overwhelming even for him, and it was fortunate that all the members of the Martial Union, whether they were clerks or members of the external office, were all practitioners, otherwise they would have been tired long ago.

By the time he stepped out of the bathroom, the moonlight fell right on top of the little green shadow's cheeks, and the curtains kept swaying from the gusts of cold wind.

"This sleeping face is no one's fault, what if you catch a cold kicking the blanket like that!"

Lin Mo laughed bitterly and then covered up Green Shadow's blanket before he was about to close the window, but before he could get up, his sweat hairs directly exploded, the window was clearly locked by him, how could there be a cold wind blowing in.

And when he walked into the room, he didn't see anyone at all!

Could it be a stalking expert?

At the first moment, Lin Mo associated it with the Japanese side of Ninjutsu.

Six senses, open!

With a twist of his aura, Lin Mo found several extremely faint figures standing quietly in a corner by the window, one of them was sitting on the sofa, while the others were surrounding him.

With this skill of concealment alone, they had demonstrated their superb ability.

After Lin Mo adjusted his breathing state, he glanced at Tai Ah on the bed beside him, and seeing that the other man did not notice, he quickly grabbed Tai Ah, his palm gripping the hilt of his sword in a death grip, and sheathed his cold mane!

It was a long story, but the process was only the blink of an eye.

"Who is it, come out and have a chat!"

A biting sword aura instantly filled the entire room.

"What a keen perception, withdraw the formation, they have already found us!"

As the words fell to the ground, several figures appeared in front of Lin Mo's eyes, while the strange young man leaning against the window, at this time the mysterious purple light on his hand slowly faded and eventually disappeared, and the hexagonal aura under his feet also retracted back into the young man's body together.

"Mr. Lin Mo is it, first time meeting since, I'd like to introduce myself, my single name, Yu."

The person who spoke, looking not too old, probably around thirty, had a faint smile hidden on the delicate features of his face all the time, giving people a very friendly feeling.

It was just that the place where he appeared was a bit out of place.

Chapter 2856

Lin Mo saw that after the other party stood up, he subconsciously took a few steps back, protecting the green shadow on the cot behind him. Although he had not exchanged blows, Lin Mo could sense their terrifying strength from the surging aura of the other group, which was induced but not released.

It was not an exaggeration to say that the strength of any one of them was no less than his own.

After noticing this detail, Yu's smile became even brighter.

"Mr. Lin Mo, you don't need to be nervous, we don't mean any harm."

He said as he spread out his hands and looked at Lin Mo calmly.

“I don’t care if you have good or bad intentions, this is my private residence, now please leave.”

Lin Mo frowned tightly, if he really started to fight, he would not have any bottom line at all.

After waiting for Yu to finish speaking, the sound of rebuke suddenly rang out from across the room.

“How dare you use this tone of voice to speak to Lord Yu.”

After the words were spoken, a teenager from the other side fiercely scurried out, that flying speed was not as fast as Zhao Nan Yue but not too far off, the key was that Elder Zhao would yield to Lin Mo, but this person would not.

Lin Mo had just raised his longsword when he suddenly felt a sharp pain coming from his wrist, the tendons of his hand were struck under, I couldn’t help but let go of my five fingers, the divine weapon came out of my hand, Lin Mo was the first to activate his self-created fusion martial art, the Dark Power Stacked Wave Fist.

Under the collision of the fist blades, the teenage opponent in front of him only smiled disdainfully, “Hmph, a carved insect!”

The strongest strike from Lin Mo’s fists and feet was easily defeated by him.

The aftermath of the exchange of blows between the two sides was dissipated with a casual wave of Yu’s hand.

This scene was familiar to Lin Mo, the black-robed man at the Gan family banquet not long ago had martial arts characteristics that were extremely similar to this man’s. He should be an expert of the same school.

The only thing that Lin Mo did not hesitate to do was to move his mind with a flash of four cold lights, and the Doktor Nine Xuan Needles went straight towards his opponent.

The young man still had that disdainful expression on his face as the curved moon-shaped blade at his waist rose out of thin air to steadily defeat the four Xuan Needles.

“Weak!”

The young man spat out a word indifferently, not even bothering to look at Lin Mo, after turning his one hand into a claw and sucking away the fallen Tai Ah, he walked back to his original position without looking back.

Lin Mo had already played all his cards, but all he got was a comment from his opponent that he was weak.

Lin Mo had not triggered Tai Ah’s Ten Thousand Jun Heavy Mountains attribute, otherwise it would have been impossible for the other party to take Tai Ah. It was just that these people were unknown, and if they found out that Tai Ah was extraordinary, Lin Mo did not dare to guarantee that Tai Ah would not be snatched away by them and killed.

After this quick exchange of blows, Lin Mo had completely seen the gap between the two sides, and knowing that he was no match, he only felt a sense of powerlessness in his heart, while his mind was rapidly thinking of a response plan.

Lin Mo only glanced at the door and the window before a few people came out with no expression on their faces, and by the time they stopped, they had blocked all of Lin Mo's escape routes.

Lin Mo faced with such a desperate situation, can only be bitter in his heart, can not fight, can not escape, the only means not used, but only in the arms of the Lan Ling ghost face, but this also can not help each other.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo calmly looked at the other party and opened his mouth and said.

"Gentlemen, all of you are experts, just come at me if you have anything to do with it.

This little girl, this is all unrelated, don't make a move on him, I'll cooperate with you!"

Since the other party didn't lay a deadly hand or have any killing intent, they must have come for his people, and with that, the only thing Lin Mo could do was to protect the little green shadow so that it wouldn't affect her.

However, this time he guessed wrong.

After hearing Lin Mo's words, Yu laughed dumbly, "Mr. Lin Mo, I think you might have misunderstood."

Chapter 2857

Within the room, the experts who had stalked in, occupied all the passages out of the room and surrounded Lin Mo to death.

The man leading the group, Yu, smiled and explained.

"We're here because we've been ordered to take Miss Green Shadow back!"

"Qin Xiao, don't return Mr. Lin Mo's divine blade!"

As he fell, Qin Xiao raised his hand and flung it, the divine weapon Tai Ah then whistled like a bullet grazing Lin Mo's ear, and in the blink of an eye the entire sword body was lost into the wall.

Last night, he stared at Lin Mo with cold eyes.

"Next time you dare to speak out against with your lordship, it will be your life that you take."

Although his face was unchanged, his condescending tone revealed a strong sense of disdain.

Lin Mo would not say anything back, he had nothing to say even if his skills were inferior, and it was a hundred times better to cultivate diligently to get back the scene later than to speak harshly.

Just as he was thinking this, an icy cold murderous intent suddenly coalesced from behind him.

"Who gave you the guts to touch my Lin Mo!"

At these words, the faces of all the people led by Yu suddenly changed, especially the other killing thought using the formation, who was precisely shocked, as he had clearly inflicted the Sleeping Spell on Miss Green Shadow.

The leading feathered anti reacted instantly and with a sense of surprise, he half-kneeled on the ground and said respectfully with his left hand holding his right chest.

The others behind him followed him and knelt down together, kneeling on one knee in a special ritual.

Green Shadow did not reply, and after a cold snort, she lifted her bare, tiny feet and took a step, and when she landed again she had already arrived in front of Qin Xiao’s body.

The speed was so extreme that it was impossible for anyone to react.

“Who gave you the guts?”

Qin Xiao’s face was full of panic, his cheeks buried in his chest, not daring to look at Green Shadow at all.

“Eldest Miss, my subordinate deserves to die!”

“Very well, knowing your mistake is good, you did deserve to die!”

As the words fell, Green Shadow’s tiny palm fell on top of Qin Xiao’s cheek, and in an instant Qin Xiao’s whole body was like a firecracker going off, his tendons and bones were broken.

After Green Shadow finished dealing with Qin Xiao, his gaze shifted to the other youngster who was using the formation.

Seeing that the situation was not good, Yu hurriedly spoke, “Eldest Miss, I am under the orders of the family head to ask you to return to the mountain!”

Green Shadow frowned, “What did that old man say?”

Feather’s face was tinged with bitterness, the only person who dared to call the Divine Mountain Lord an old man was perhaps this Eldest Miss.

“The Mountain Lord said that he missed you and wanted to meet you, and by the way, he cleared the dark wounds on your body.”

“Just this?”

After glancing at Lin Mo, Yu said hesitantly, “The Mountain Lord also said that he wanted to invite Lin Mo up to the mountain as a guest, saying that he wanted to thank him in person for taking care of Eldest Miss during this period of time.”

Of course the latter remark was Yu’s own guess on the side, judging from the attitude of Eldest Miss just now, this Lin Mo had an extraordinary status in her heart.

Only then did Green Shadow’s serious face ease up quite a bit, and by the time she returned to Lin Mo once again, innocence was written all over her face.

“Brother Lin Mo hug!”

If it wasn't for the pain coming from his hand, Lin Mo would have thought he was dreaming.

What the heck is this? Although he had doubts about Green Shadow's identity, who would have thought that this little loli, who usually looked harmless and cute and quiet, would be a fierce beast on earth.

But when Lin Mo looked down at Green Shadow's big, watery eyes, there were already teardrops spinning.

“Is brother Lin Mo hating, Green Shadow?”

When Lin Mo heard this, his mind couldn't help but recall, the scene when he first met Green Shadow, and then he smiled gently and bent down.

“Why not, the little green shadow is so cute, how could I hate it!”

After saying that he picked up the little green shadow with a hug, and the latter also wrapped her arms around his neck out of habit, laughing heatedly and happily.

No matter what her identity was, in front of herself she would always be the innocent little girl that she was.

Chapter 2858

Feather see green shadow not answer him, also dare not say more, can only quietly half kneel on the ground, and he is also the first time to see, someone green shadow Missy actually so stick to a person, this unusual scene, but he secretly remembered in the bottom of his heart.

Instead, Lin Mo saw the scene a little awkward, softly asked: “Little green shadow, you want to go back?”

The little green shadow lying on his shoulder was silent for a while before asking back in Lin Mo's ear, “Then brother Lin Mo wants to go together?”

“If you go together, I then I will go back.”

Lin Mo looked stunned, he also did not expect this little girl chicken thief very, actually threw the question to himself, of course Lin Mo did not answer her directly, but towards the corner of a few people asked.

“Elder Yu, may I ask, what kind of power are you?”

If it was tens of thousands of kilometers away, Lin Mo could only wait until he was busy with the Martial Union and then accompany Little Green Shadow back.

Feather raised his head and Lin Mo looked at each other and answered with a serious face, “Bashar God Mountain!”

Hearing this answer, Lin Mo's arm holding Green Shadow couldn't help but shake a little, looking at Green Shadow with an incredulous face.

"Your father is Elder You Li?"

"Yes!"

Green Shadow replied with a calm face, and he was not sure why his brother Lin Mo's expression was so strange.

Lin Mo at this time the real person is not good, You Li ah, that is standing at the peak of the martial arts that person ah, the public record of public engagement although very little, but brilliantly incomparable, once a palm almost want to challenge the door to the patriarch to dry waste.

As for the Basha divine Mountain needless to say, a foot down can trample several superb hands, the young generation in the mountain, a randomly picked out to the outside world that can be the top genius, the Basha divine Mountain is said to be the holy land of martial arts is not too much.

And now he is holding in the hands of Lin Mo is the divine mountain's first lady, that is, the You Li senior's daughter, a time Lin Mo feel arm heavy a lot.

On the opposite side, the green shadow that Yu saw so clinging to Lin Mo, his attitude also appeared to change.

"Mr. Lin Mo, trouble you and us to take a trip can?"

There was a hint of pleading in Yu's tone.

Forcibly taking Missy back? Was dreaming, on her that character, as long as the unwilling you can only bring back a corpse at most.

And his voice of this question also let Lin Mo from the shock of a lot of emotions to slow down.

Lin Mo pondered for a while and then agreed: "Then go on a trip!"

The Basha divine Mountain was not far away, but not too close, and it would only take two or three days for a round trip by plane, and since the restart of the Martial Alliance was now on track, it should not be a big problem for him to leave for a few days.

The main thing is that he also wants to see what this holy land, which is called the temple of martial arts, is really like.

"Really good, brother Lin Mo, let me tell you, my old man there, but collected a lot of martial arts secret code, when the time comes, I will take you to see.

There are also all kinds of divine weapons"

Speaking of blades just, the green shadow took a look at the Tai Ah in Lin Mo's hand and immediately skipped the topic.

"There are also spiritual herb garden, many places, when the time comes, I will take you to see, what you want you just take."

Feather looked at Green Shadow this generous and generous promise, cold sweat in front of the forehead, my Missy ah, those can be forbidden places, ah, and he is not our Basha divine Mountain people

Thoughts to this, Yu suddenly thought of something, eyes with deep meaning in the eyes of Lin Mo after a glance, the heart will no longer have any ideas.

After the matter of returning to the mountain was settled, Yu did not intend to stay any longer and proposed to depart directly.

“Remove the soundproof formation, let’s go back!”

With a bang of the feather, the formation of the young man’s ten fingers knotted, Lin Mo only felt an aura across and through, at this time originally at this time there is other movement around.

Chapter 2859

Before, Lin Mo was still worried that this side of the movement will not alarm him Prince and others, now it seems to be completely overthought, with this formation expert’s sound insulation array in, the room even if the redecoration side, the outside can not hear a sound.

“Lord Yu, let’s go!”

With the words of the formation young man fell, the window aside has appeared out of thin air a two-meter high channel, as for the original turn mud has been turned into a puddle of dust with the wind.

“Mr. Lin Mo, Bashar God Mountain is not good to show up in front of outsiders, so please forgive me.”

Feather seems to see through Lin Mo to inform the Prince’s intention, after tugging Lin Mo’s wrist, a line of people directly leaped out of the room, a few longitudinal after they disappeared in the blanket of night.

Lin Mo at the moment to when the speed reaches a certain height, the speed of the dancer can rush speed can be how terrible, all the scenery on both sides of the body just smashed in front of a flash, and then leave a vague shadow.

Front biting wind like a blade, even Lin Mo such a system, are feeling cheek pain, and this group of Basha divine Mountain experts indeed a calm face, darting forward, a step between is a hundred feet distance.

By the time the day dawned, a group of people had arrived at the boundary of the Basha divine Mountain, and then look at the feather as well as the men, there is no feeling of strain, only breathing a little heavier.

Lin Mo for the feather, forcibly dragged away his own heart this behavior is actually quite dissatisfied, but the situation is stronger than people, Lin Mo also clear, the reason why they are on their own and temperament, but only on the face of the green shadow.

Just want to be carried on their shoulders Qin Xiao like, completely did not put themselves in the eyes of the past.

After the feather stopped walking, raised his hand to signal the crowd to stop.

“Mr. Lin Mo, wait for me a moment!”

After saying that he stepped forward and took out a stone token and held it in his palm.

“The field squad is returning, please prove the token to Lord Border Guard!”

In the next second, an ethereal voice rang out, “Enter.”

Just as this voice sounded, Lin Mo suddenly felt as if his heart had been invisible palm dead squeeze, knowing that after the stone token in Yu’s hand disappeared, this feeling only disappeared into thin air.

After Yu saw Lin Mo’s shock, the corners of his mouth with a deep smile, came forward and explained.

“Mr. Lin Mo you don’t need to be surprised, this is our Basha divine Mountain’s realm guardian, whether it’s to enter or leave the Basha divine Mountain, you need the special stone token.

Otherwise, the realm guardian lord, will not be merciful.”

“And this realm guardian lord has been around since the day I can remember, the power has been out of this world, unfathomable.”

Lin Mo smiled and his eyebrows suddenly wrinkled, Yu said these seem to be boasting the realm-keeper, but in fact, it really sub cautioned Lin Mo, do not have other small thoughts, if you go down the mountain without permission, will certainly die.

If it is in accordance with Lin Mo’s past character he directly turned his head and left, what the hell, I do not serve, but now people under the eaves, have to bow down, these people are still polite to him, but all because of the face of the green shadow.

Otherwise, their methods must not be so gentle.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo secretly sighed, and then look at the little green shadow lined up on his shoulder already asleep, Lin Mo suppressed the dryness inside.

“As expected of the divine mountain, it really is a hidden dragon and crouching tiger!”

This sentence is not Lin Mo flattering words, gas is gas, but have to admit, this divine mountain reputation outside, also has his reasons, a single watchman, the strength is enough to abuse him.

After returning a polite sentence with a smile, Yu led Lin Mo to step into the territory of the Bashar divine Mountain and slowly walked towards the main peak.

Chapter 2860

At nine o'clock that morning, the prince was surprised to find that his elder brother, who had always been an early riser, had slept in today, and he had finished his breakfast, but he had not yet seen Lin Mo's figure.

"Let you keep saying that I am bed-ridden, today I will take revenge, let you also taste the feeling of being disliked, hehehe!"

The playful prince came to the second floor with such thoughts, but when he knocked on the door several times, there was no response from the room at all, an unsettling feeling came over him.

"Boss, if you don't open the door, I'll barge in!"

After the prince shouted loudly, there was still no response, at this time he was not due, one hand pinched the door handle, force a turn, all the metal parts clanked all fall to the ground.

After pushing open the door, where there is still any human figure.

"Holy sh*t, just restarted the plan just on track, this leader ran away? What's going on?"

And when he noticed that the window on the gap, suddenly his heart a cold, finished, big brother seems to be robbed, but all normal people who the hell will open a door in the window.

f*ck!

After the prince cursed angrily, rushed to gather everyone.

At noon that day, Chen Jin, Tong Jun, Song Zhilan and several of Lin Mo's inner circle arrived at this side of the villa.

"Crown Prince, what's wrong with you, so anxious to put us in a hurry is there a recognition of important matters?"

Tong Jun looked at the Prince who was full of anxiety and seriousness and asked curiously.

"Wait a little longer, Zhao Lao also came over, should be arriving soon, wait for him to come together to talk."

Song Zhilan looked around after a circle, surprisingly did not see the figure of Lin Mo, and Zhao Lao is busy with the construction of the Martial Union over in South Vietnam Province during this period of time, even he is looking for over, obviously there is something big happening, her heart gradually became uneasy.

Shortly after, the door pushed in and Zhao Nan Yue walked into the living room with quick steps.

"The old man is here!"

The prince didn't even wait for the underlings to serve tea to Old Master Zhao before he spoke directly.

"My elder brother Lin Mo seems to have been swept away!"

At these words, Song Zhilan sat up in shock: "What are you kidding, with Lin Mo's skills how could he be swept away!"

She had an inexplicable confidence in Lin Mo.

The prince's face sank, he was already in an irritable mood, at this time, and then by Song Zhilan such a yell, the little temper was about to burst out, but Zhao Nan Yue, who was frowning at the side, asked in a deep voice: "When did it happen, when did you last see Lin Mo?"

The prince skimmed Song Zhilan's glance and twisted his head to recall.

"Last night after we were busy, around eleven o'clock, then I couldn't stand the sleepiness and went to bed first."

"When I got up this morning, I found that big brother was missing, the phone was left in the room, and there was a huge gap over the window."

Zhao Nan Yue caught the point directly: "Gap? Take me to see!"

A group of people, after arriving at the room, Zhao Nan Yue came to the window to check it after a bit, his eyebrows frowned slightly.

The prince saw his appearance, his heart seized, rushed to come forward and asked.

"Zhao Lao, how is it, can you see anything?"

Zhao Nan Yue sighed slightly: "From the flat cut at this gap you can tell that the other party is a master."

"In addition you did not hear the movement in the middle of the night?"

The prince shook his head, if there was a sound he would have woken up long ago.

"That's more trouble, there is no Lin Mo changed clothes in the room, which means he did not fall asleep at that time.

And this such a situation, can still take down Lin Mo without a sound, this I can not do."

Hearing this, the crowd instantly had a heavier look of worry on their faces, and the only good news was that the other party had taken Lin Mo, indicating that they hadn't come to kill him.
