

Chapter 0031

Amanda could not even imagine the commission and bonus she would receive!

"Ma'am, here are your car keys!" Amanda was ecstatic as she returned Alexander's card. She shakily presented the car keys to Amber. Her voice was quivering with excitement as she continued, "The other formalities have been handled quickly. I've already received approval from upper management, and I'm striving to get your beloved car a lucky and majestic license plate!"

Still in sheer shock, Amber took the car keys. She had not expected this young lady to be so efficient. Moreover, she could not believe there was so much money on Alexander's card!

Was his retirement benefits really this substantial? Moreover, it was a contactless payment?!

Amber had worked for over four years as a massage therapist at the bathhouse. With occasional tips, she saved up a few thousand dollars. Hence, she could not believe the amount of money in Alexander's account! After all, he had only served for five years in the military, and she was unaware of his significant accomplishments...

How could he be so wealthy?

"Alex..." She gazed at Alexander's faint smile, looking troubled. She wanted to say more, but she was not sure how to.

Everything that had just happened felt so real yet surreal. Nonetheless, it was all very real. 1

She had the keys to the Porsche in front of her. The supercar was worth 2.8 million dollars, 20 times more expensive than any Porsche she had ever driven, and it was registered in her name! 1

"D—Did he really pay for it?"

The salespeople behind the service counter were dumbfounded. All of them were consumed by regret. If only they had known the man was rich, they would have attended to him!

It was too late, and the rookie had scored big.

"He paid using contactless payment, didn't he?" A middle-aged, heavily made-up female saleswoman turned to her colleagues, her voice somewhat faltering. "How much money does he have on that card? I remember that the VIP cards issued by Wyverna Bank allow contactless payments up to one ten-thousandth of an individual's total assets. If he used contactless payment for the transaction over two million dollars, could it be that his total assets have reached...billions?" 2

All the other female staff stayed silent.

They were filled with remorse, wishing they could give themselves a good scolding.

What a golden opportunity it had been.

If they could establish a connection with a customer of this caliber, they could have sold many cars, earned numerous commissions, and received substantial bonuses.

The opportunity had been right before their eyes, and they let it slip away.

Next to the Porsche, Amber fixed her gaze on Alexander, gently biting her lip. "Alex, are you hiding something from me? Did you score big in something? Is your retirement benefits...a lot?" 1

"Not much, but enough to spend," Alexander replied, holding Olivia and taking the front passenger seat. "Here's your car, Amber. Come on, give it a try."

Amber hesitated, but she quickly opened the car door and sat in the driver's seat. She did so with great care, not wanting to scratch or dirty it even the slightest.

Amber touched the soft, comfortable leather seats and cautiously ran her hand over the luxurious steering wheel. She played with every metal button on the center console and caressed the high-tech automatic gear lever.

Her eyes gleamed with delight, and she was obviously on cloud nine.

"Sir, Ma'am..." Amanda was still excited and overflowing with enthusiasm. "Here are temporary license plates, and you can drive on the road legally. The official plates will take a few days, but if you need anything in the meantime, feel free to give me a call!" 1

Then, Amanda handed over a business card, blushing as she presented it to Alexander.

Alexander smiled faintly, took the card, and turned to look at Amber before affectionately saying, "Start the car, Amber." 2

Amber's heart raced as the car roared to life. She gripped the steering wheel tightly and drove the Porsche out of the showroom. 1

"Wow, this lady is so lucky..."

Amanda's eyes sparkled with admiration as she watched the Porsche glide gracefully, and she could not help but feel envious. The handsome man in camouflage uniform had definitely opened her eyes! 1

Furthermore, he appeared unfazed when he spent the 2.8 million dollars, and it was a contactless payment method!

Also, was the little girl his daughter with the woman?

Marrying such a man would indeed be a great stroke of luck!

Amber was behind the wheel of the Porsche, having left the dealership and entered the main road in Ol' Mare.

"Well, where to now, Alex?" asked Amber, her joy evident. "Back home or for a joyride? I really love this car!"

Alexander gazed at Amber's radiant face, his heart filled with adoration. As long as Amber was happy, whether it was 2 million or even 2 billion, it was absolutely worth it. 1

As for their next destination...

"Let's head to Chesire Group," Alexander spoke softly as his eyes glimmered. He figured that the contract signing between Bruno and his in-laws was coming to a close.
