

Dear Ex-Wife Back My Son (Anika and Joshua)

Dear 191-197

Chapter 191

du maringe is a bailur

teelwat weg na ang tua matkadha koked at Anik and alsely aand, Now tell me what do you want?"

The ten wars clues it within reach Anika faced hud's complicated gaze and lied) just can't accept want to have you ex

shus Busught 'W's the presked Anika's head against his chest He chuckled softly tears in his laughter."You have it now and then what?

Do you want to leave me?

Anke was firmly held down by his large palm her shoulders feeling as if they were about to shatter.

She hadn't finished speaking when Joshua interrupted her, "Do you believe that without my permission, you will never be able to leave Oasisville?!"

Anika's body trembled slightly as she said, 'promised you that I would repay the money before leaving Besides, William is still here isn't he?' "Where did you get so much money from?" Joshua asked.

Joshua knew that Anika was a famous composer abroad. However, the money she owed, she couldn't repay it for the time being

"I would earn my own living slowly with my own hands, "Anika paused, then looked up at him from his embrace and said, "I will definitely not take a penny less from you."

Joshua, however, became even angrier and tightened his grip.

Anika frowned and said. "I am in pain.

Joshua instantly let go of his hand.

Anika wrapped herself in a blanket and shifted her body backwards."I got up first."

She intended to find clothes to put on but she discovered that the clothes on the ground were either torn apart or mixed with Joshua's clothes It was a mess. Anika could only wrap herself in a thin blanket getting ready to leave. But before she could take a single step.she was once again embraced by Joshua.

"What's the rush?"

He asked, "Didn't you used to say that you wanted to be a real couple with me?Holding hands hugging kissing.

1/2

Anika didn't know why he suddenly brought this up

Anika thought, I was so naive back then."

He was my first love and my secret crush, and he is also the person I married."

So naturally I wanted to do everything that couples do,things that married couples do, with him.I even imagined us having children together and growing old together..."

"But now,after going through so much,I had already given up."

"I dare not ask for these, Anika replied.

Anika thought, "It's not that I dare not ask for it, but I don't want to.

Joshua understood her thoughts and felt even more upset in his heart.

"But now I want to give it a try with you.

Anika was taken aback and looked at him in astonishment.

Joshua continued, "Let's be a couple for a month. If you agree, after a month, if you want to leave, I'll let you go and everything from before will be forgotten." Joshua didn't believe that Anika really didn't love him at all.

In the past, she could only stay angry for a maximum of one week.

'Really? You wouldn't deceive me, would you?'

Anika weighed her options, "One month is just enough time to confirm if I am pregnant. If I am, I will leave here; if not, I can figure out a way to stay."

For some reason, Joshua felt a slight discomfort deep inside when he heard her ask like that.

"Well, I won't lie to you."

Anika also knew that verbal promises had no credibility.

But she had no other choice.

"I trusted you, don't deceive me."

Joshua was even sadder.

Joshua could now confirm that she really wanted to leave.

Suddenly, he had an impulse. That was to tie up Anika and not let her go anywhere.

This thought was quickly suppressed by him.

Joshua thought, "I am not necessarily dependent on Anika!"

Chapter 192

.

Dear 192

Chapter 192

Since choosing to divorce, Anika never once thought about being a real couple with Joshua.

Jeshus brushed the stray hair from her temple and said, 'Call my name

Anika gently parted her red lips and whispered, "Joshua"

Joshua had intended to kiss her but unfortunately, the doorbell interrupted this beautiful moment.

Someone brought food.

After Anika.

The two of them finished their meal and tidied up.

'Is there nothing going on in the company today?'

Anika asked tentatively.

Joshua noticed that Anika seemed to want him to leave.

"Well, had already delegated most of the work to others."

It should have been done earlier. As the chairman of the group, he had too many things to handle, and some of them should have been delegated to others.

Anika couldn't help but worry and thought, "If he doesn't leave, how am I going to go back to the room and get that bottle of sperm?"

Joshua looked at her and asked, "Did you want me to go to the company?"

Anika shook her head and replied, "No, I was just curious."

"This month, I will set aside my work and spend quality time with you," Joshua added.

Anika wondered, "Did he put down his work?"

Anika couldn't believe it, but she nodded and said, "Okay."

'Didn't you used to say that you wanted to go back to Eldol?' Joshua casually spoke.

Anika's hand tightened as she picked up the water cup.

When they had just gotten married, she would often mention to Joshua the small town she grew up in.

After all, liking someone means wanting to share everything with them.

"Um, yes, it was mentioned."

'Clean up a bit later, we drove over this afternoon.'

We agreed to be a couple for a month.

1/2

Joshua decided to fulfil the respons

da tudsed for the first time but he didn't know how to do

Thinking about the honeymoon trip that others have mentioned it must be like the Anika was stunned for a while before she came to her senses and said, "Okay) will go and tidy up tow

Anika returned to her r

She picked up her phone and happened to see a missed call from Raina

Anika dialed back in time

The phone was quickly answered.

"What happened?"Raina eagerly wanted to know the answer

"Ah it worked *

Anika felt that there was a high chance of getting pregnant this time.

"Great,so can we take William and leave here?"Raina asked.

am not sure if I can get pregnant now, so I want to get checked and confirm the pregnancy before proceeding

Anika told Raina about Joshua being referred to as a married couple for a month again, as well as going to Eldol this afternoon.

Raina was a bit confused, "What is this scumbag going to do again?"

Anyway.no matter what, we still had to wait for a month.

Anika touched her abdomen and thought, ifuccessfully conceivejt will also take ten months."

"Okay"

Anika was afraid that Joshua would come upstairs, so she didn't say much to Raina and hung up the phone.

Later, Anika quickly packed a suitcase.

When the hourly maid came to clean the room Anika made an excuse and went to the master bedroom. She wrapped the bottle of sperm in a blanket and secretly took it out. After putting away the bottle of sperm Anika changed into casual clothes and dragged the suitcase downstairs.

"Shall we leave now!

Joshua sat on the sofa reading a book he looked up at her and after a moment he put the book aside.

"Uh-huh."

Chapter 192

He got up and picked up Anika's suitcase before leaving.

Anika followed him blankly, even more astonished.

The box was put into the trunk by Joshua. It was only after she got into the car that Anika realized Joshua was going to drive himself.

"At least five or six Anika are needed to go to Eldol, otherwise, should we let the driver drive?" Anika was afraid that he didn't know the way.

"No need."

Joshua didn't like it when there were other people around when two people went out together.

Before Joshua left today, he told Payton that there was nothing important and not to call him. Chapter 193

.

Dear 193

Chapter 193

1. 0.

in the way to Eldelt rained heavily

Anke sat in the passenger seat and caught a glimpse of Joshua's handsome profile Her Heart skipped a beat She quickly averted her gaze and looked out the car window

To be honest before Anika met Joshua, she always found it difficult to get close to him.

But now she has touched every inch of him.

There is a saying that goes, no matter how aloof a man may be once there is physical intimacy everything between two people changes.

Joshua also noticed Anika looking at him. In the rest area he held her hand.

"I wasn't used to you being so quiet."

Anika looked at him and heard him say, "You always used to have endless things to say?"

Upon hearing these words Anika couldn't help but smile bitterly.

"Then you definitely don't remember when you said you didn't like me talking too much."

Joshua was taken aback.

The atmosphere inside the car suddenly became gloomy.

Anika thought she had said something she shouldn't have and made him upset, so she deliberately looked for a topic.

After we passed this service area, there was a maple forest ahead, and at that time, there were many maple leaves, which were very beautiful.

Now it is early autumn. The nights are getting darker and the weather is gradually getting cooler.

Especially when it rained.

It was evening when their car passed through the maple forest. Due to the rain, the sky was particularly dark, but they could still see the maple leaves falling one after another. At that moment, Joshua saw the long-lost smile on Anika's face.

At this moment, he seemed to have returned to the past, when he first met Anika.

At that time, she was still a romantic and lovely little girl.

After passing through the maple forest, the scenery outside was basically no longer visible.

Anika took out her phone wanting to play for a while, but she realized that the phone had run out of battery.

1/3

suuden kunstarten & mubione atua sang de plaj býkupt phone de o simple des site ant dommunication apps there was nothing else. There any losshad mind and finely gened her browsers check the latent news.

* No & The

When she opened in she immediately saw the sixth sending topic. Vicfet publicly apologized for

Anka's eyes were filled with disbelief because a few days ago. Joshua was still trying to persuade Raina to give up pursuing how come Violet is now publicly apologizing?

Joshua never let her be wronged

When Anika was puzzled the car had already arrived in the town.

Joshua had someone book the hotel in advance.

"Today take a rest first he got off the car.

When they entered together, Anika couldn't help but ask, 'I saw the news earlier, Violet publicly apologized.'

Not only did Violet issue a public apology but he also took down the song and offered a substantial compensation.

Joshua was not curious at all.

This matter was asked by him to have Payton ask Violet to do. He told Violet that if she refused, she wouldn't have to stay at Zeffari Media.

What you said last time is right plagiarism should come with consequences."

Joshua didn't expose the fact that she was Aniya, but he mentioned it.

Anika noticed that he had really changed a lot.

After arriving at the hotel Anika realized that he had only booked one room.

"Shall we sleep together?"

"What else?"

Joshua asked in return.

2/3

Chapter 109

Anika had no power to refuse He took her wrist and beaded towards the elevator.

The luggage attendant had already placed the luggage in the room for the two people.

Joshua walked quickly, and Anika had to jog to keep up with his pace,

Just as she arrived at the door of the room, she was immediately lifted up by a man. Her body was suspended in the air. Before she could even react, she had already landed on a large bed covered in flowers. Joshua pressed his entire body onto her.

"Tell me directly what you want from now on, and I will give it to you."

Joshua thought, "I will prove in one month that I am stronger than Trent."

"Anika pretended to be dead and left me in the past, and now she still wants to leave me. I will make sure she regrets it!"

Dear 194

Chapter 194 night.

Under the gentle light, Anika gazed at the familiar face in front of her, unsure of what to say.

Joshua lowered his head and kissed her forehead.

Anika tightened her hand slightly on the blanket.

"I was a bit tired today and didn't feel like it."

Joshua paused, hugged her tightly, and said nothing.

Anika leaned against his chest, able to hear his strong heartbeat.

"Joshua..."

"Uh-huh."

"Do you remember the first time we hugged?" Anika suddenly asked.

Joshua, upon hearing the words, recalled the first time she embraced him, which was on their wedding

Her father had just passed away, but he pulled her away.

Joshua didn't know why Anika suddenly asked this.

Joshua thought she was blaming him, so he said, "I won't let those things happen again.

He rarely apologized. This attitude was already considered a way of admitting his mistakes.

Anika looked up at him in confusion, not understanding the meaning behind his words.

Anika thought, "The first time we hugged was when I was studying, and he braved the rainy night to pick me up after I was bullied."

"How can you say it won't happen again?"

Anika then said, "I must have liked you back then.

Liked you a lot, really liked you."

Although she said she liked him, Joshua noticed that something was wrong.

When they got married, Joshua was certain that Anika loved him.

Why do we say now that we only liked him back then?

When his confusion remained unresolved, Anika said again, "I felt that you were really great back then. I always thought that I wasn't worthy of you and never imagined that one day I could marry you." Joshua's Adam's Apple slightly moved.

1/3

Chapter 194

He never expected to marry Anika, a little girl.

When Joshua first saw her, she was only ten years old. She was thin and small, but her face was filled with the most beautiful smile.

"We can start over now," Joshua said somehow.

Anika looked deeply and asked, "Is it really possible to start over?"

During her time abroad, she often had dreams. Anika dreamt that Joshua regretted and asked her to come back home, promising to treat her well. However, every time she woke up, it was all just a dream.

She hadn't waited for Joshua to answer when the doorbell rang, and it was the waiter delivering dinner. During dinner, the two of them unconsciously drifted apart from the topic.

In the evening, the two of them slept together. After turning off the lights, Joshua naturally held her in his arms and softly called out, "Anika."

Anika took off her hearing aid and couldn't hear his voice clearly.

After she fell asleep, she had a strange dream. In the dream, she was like a small boat, drifting aimlessly, not knowing where to go. When she opened her eyes, Joshua was already gone. The sky outside was bright, and the wind gently swayed the white curtains.

Anika changed her clothes and got up. She casually picked up her phone and saw a message from Raina, talking about Violet's apology.

Anika also saw a message sent by the foreign assistant. The message stated that Violet had already arranged for compensation.

After turning off her phone, Anika walked out. She saw Joshua standing under a big banyan tree, wearing a black coat. He was tall and straight, holding something in his hand, and walking towards her. As she approached, Anika only then noticed that he was carrying two simple breakfasts in his hands.

It was Eldol's signature hamburger.

Joshua would never have glanced at these things.

"Are you awake? I went to buy breakfast, Joshua looked at her and said gently, " Didn't you say you liked the breakfast here?"

He remembered because during the four or five years he was looking for Anika, he would occasionally look at their chat records.

Watching Anika, she had a lot to say at the beginning, but in the end, she only had simple sharing.

Anika finally snapped out of it and nodded, "Yes."

When the two of them returned to the room, Joshua suddenly stopped in his tracks and looked at her, "Is there something else you haven't done?"

2/3

Chapter 194

Anika looked at him with confusion.

I heard him say, "We are married now. You used to say that being married means holding hands, hugging, and kissing every day."

.

Dear 195

Chapter 195

Chapter 195

After hearing it, Anika raised her hand and gently held Joshua's hand. Then she hugged him and lightly kissed his lips.

She had intended to stop here, but little did she know that Joshua would set down the breakfast. He firmly grasped the back of her head and deepened the entire kiss.

I don't know why, even though they were doing the most intimate things, he couldn't see any fluctuations in Anika's eyes.

Joshua bit down unwillingly.

Anika winced in pain and tried to push him away, but he tightly held onto her hand.

She retaliated by biting Joshua back until her mouth was filled with blood before stopping.

Joshua held her face in his hands and said, "Look at this! Call my name again."

Anika looked up and saw his bitten red lips, with blood on them.

"Joshua.

Joshua looked into her eyes, calm and serene, and understood that she was no longer the young girl who used to have eyes only for him. Joshua felt uneasy in his heart and even felt like crying.

He directly picked up Anika. Regardless of her refusal, he placed her on the sofa.

"Call me!"

Anika didn't know what was wrong with him. He would be gentle one moment and then act like this, unpredictable in his moods.

"Joshua!"

A faint sound, devoid of any emotion.

Joshua listened, feeling as if a lump of cotton was blocking his heart, unsure of what to do.

He didn't say anything else and carried Anika back to the room.

After everything was over, the breakfast had gone cold.

Joshua wanted to ask someone to buy again, but he was stopped by Anika,

There was a microwave in the room to heat up breakfast. Both of them had breakfast again after heating it up, and the taste changed.

1/3

Anika suddenly understood what Joshua had said about starting over.

This is just like this breakfast After it cooled down, even if reheated again, it wouldn't taste the same as before

After breakfast.

Joshua skillfully drove Anika to the place where she used to live.

The old brick house outside was cleaned up very neatly, without any weeds or fallen leaves, as if someone lived there.

While Anika was surprised, a neighbor noticed the cars over there.

When she got off the car, the neighbor couldn't help but ask in surprise, Anika Aren't you dead?"

Anika hadn't realized yet, Joshua got off from the other side and waved to the neighbors.

"It was all a misunderstanding."

After speaking, he took the first step toward the house.

Anika was curious about how he had met the neighbors here.

She politely smiled at the neighbor's aunt and then followed Joshua inside, where it was immaculately cleaned.

*Are you familiar with this place?"she asked.

Joshua paused and turned his head to look at her, 'Because I knew you would come back.'

Anika didn't know that during the days she was gone, Joshua would often come to this place alone hoping to wait for her. Over time, he arranged for someone to come and clean up.

Anika gazed at his stern profile and asked, "Why?

What if I had really died?"

Joshua's thin lips tightened firmly.

After a long time, he finally said, "Didn't you say you were unwilling?How could you bear to die?"

Anika thought, "How could I bear to die?"

Anika couldn't help but smile bitterly in her heart. She walked forward and whispered.

"You were really confident."

Anika thought, "In the past, I was too humble and it gave Joshua the wrong impression. He believed that I would never leave him." Joshua did initially think so.However,now he is becoming more and more uncertain, which is why he brought Anika here.

2/3

Chapter 195

"I showed you something"

Joshus led her towards a bedroom. When they reac

When everything inside the door fell into Anika's ey

She stood still,unable to believe it for a long time.

Dear 196

Chapter 196

Chapter 196

The bedroom was filled with Kenyon's belongings from before, including a painting, which was Anika painted by Kenyon.

After Kenyon's death, Mireya and Eli mismanaged the company and eventually had to auction off all the valuable belongings in their home.

After returning to her home country this time, Anika also made every effort to find her father's belongings, especially this painting.

Anika in the painting was only in her teens, sitting on the balcony in a white dress, holding a large bunch of flowers, with a smile on her face. Anika walked step by step and looked at the painting, which reminded her of her father with white hair.

Anika thought of Kenyon's kind face when he was painting her.

Anika gently reached out and touched the painting, her throat choked as she said, "I thought I would never find this painting again."

you."

Because it was painted by her father, it was not valuable.

She never expected that Joshua could find it.

Joshua saw Anika's current performance and knew that this time he had given her the right thing.

He walked forward step by step, saying, "You can take all these things back to Rafter Villa.

It was to bring back Rafter Villa, not to take it away.

Joshua just wanted to make Anika reluctant to leave as much as possible!

Anika composed her emotions and turned to look at Joshua, gratitude evident in her eyes. She said, "Thank 'Don't mess around anymore in the future. Whatever you want, I'll give it to you, "Joshua said.

Anika wondered, "Was everything I did before just a joke?"

Anika's eyes dimmed slightly, nodding perfunctorily.

At this moment, Joshua took out another black card and handed it to her.

"You could swipe this card freely."

Before, after Anika married him, Joshua always had Payton give Anika her living expenses.

However, it wasn't until Anika left that Joshua realized Payton's money, which she had given to Anika, was not used at all.

Anika looked at the card handed to her, but there was no joy on her face. She shook her head.

1/2

Chapter 196

'No need, I had money!

Joshua's hand froze in mid-air, and after a moment of silence, he explained, "Aren't we married now?"

This was my salary card."

He also didn't know if he should do it as a husband.

Anika had no choice but to accept it, anyway, after this month passed, they wouldn't owe anything anymore.

After agreeing to be married to Joshua for a month Anika found that he seemed like a completely different person. He would ask her to hug, kiss, and hold hands every day. This feeling seemed as if they had truly entered into marriage, rather than just in name.

After spending three days in Eldol, the two of them returned to Oasisville together. At eight o'clock in the evening, Joshua drove Anika to the riverside to watch fireworks. At eight o'clock, the fireworks burst in the sky on time.

The surroundings were filled with people. Anika and Joshua stood together, looking particularly compatible. At that moment, they appeared to be a married couple to outsiders. Anika looked at the fireworks blooming in the sky, feeling the urge to tell Joshua the truth. She wanted to tell him that William was his child.

However, before she could say anything, Joshua received a phone call from Violet.

Anika didn't know what Violet said, but she saw Joshua in a hurry to leave.

She couldn't help but stop him and asked, "Didn't you say these days that no one would disturb us?"

"Wait for me to come back before we talk, Joshua said.

unit."

Anika, however, grabbed his sleeve and said, "If you leave now! won't fulfill my promise anymore."

Anika would no longer agree to be his spouse for a month.

Joshua slowly pulled her hand away and said, Violet had an accident and is now in the intensive care

"I would have someone come to pick you up and take you back."

After speaking he got in the car and left leaving Anika standing alone in the same spot.

Anika watched the car drive away and didn't feel sad.

She just felt foolish, thinking that Joshua had changed, almost telling him about the child.

Anika thought, Luckily I didn't tell him."

2/2

Dear 197

Chapter 197

Bang! "A dazzling firework burst in the sky and disappeared in an instant.

There was a couple standing by. The girl held the boy's hand and said, "We must always be together." Anika watched their backs and suddenly felt a strong desire to have a romantic relationship.

Since she started liking Joshua, she rejected the pursuit of others around her and never dated anyone.

Then she married him, but until now she still doesn't know the feeling of being in love.

Anika looked up at the pitch-black sky, a layer of mist forming in her eyes. She silently said, "Dad, I regret it."

She regretted marrying Joshua, regretted choosing someone who didn't love her.

Half past eight, the fireworks ended.

The crowd dispersed.

When Payton drove over to pick up Anika, he saw her standing alone by the river, her silhouette appearing particularly lonely.

Remembering the words his fiancée had said to him the day before, "If you love someone, you should provide her with enough security. How could you let another woman affect our relationship?"

At this moment, Payton unexpectedly felt some sympathy for this woman.

Payton parked the car by the side of the road, got out, and approached Anika.

"Ms. Carey, I came to take you home."

Anika took a while to come to her senses and when she looked at him, she hid her disappointment in her eyes and politely replied, "Thank you."

Then she got in the car.

Payton deliberately turned up the heat in the car.

Although Anika's health has improved somewhat over the years abroad, she is still too thin compared to others. Especially after being exposed to cold wind, her complexion becomes extremely pale. It seems like she could collapse with just a gust of wind.

Payton looked at her in the rearview mirror as she drove, explaining to Joshua.

Ms. Jonson almost got killed by fans tonight and is currently being treated in the hospital. She said she wants to see Mr. Conan one last time.

1/3

Anika couldn't help but smile bitterly, thinking to herself, "Fans?"

"Joshua would know right away if he just did a little research, that those are not fans."

hastor 101

And with Violet's methods I don't believe she would have been harmed

"Besides Harry is still being held by Trent now, so how could there be a chance for him to harm her?"

It was mostly her own doing"

Um Anika paused, "I knew it all he said."

Payton breathed a sigh of relief.

Payton worked for Joshua for a long time and he realized that Joshua had truly fallen in love with Anika. Otherwise, Joshua wouldn't have been looking for her for so many years, let alone giving up his job for her and going out of his way to buy Kenyon's heirloom.

However, Joshua couldn't express himself. If he loved someone a hundred percent, he would only show ten percent of it.

The lights on the road were flickering. Anika stared absentmindedly out of the car window.

Finally arrived at Rafter Villa.

Joshua had not come back yet. After Anika finished washing up, she lay down on the bed, just in time to call Raina and Evan,

"How have these few days been?" Raina received a call and was asked

Because these days, Anika has been with Joshua all the time, they both didn't have time to contact each other.

Anika briefly explained. She didn't tell Raina about Joshua leaving Violet alone by the river. Afterwards, Anika asked her where Evan was.

"The little one has been going back to his room early these days. Do you want to see him? I will call him now."

"No need, if he's asleep, don't disturb him."

"Okay."

Raina had no idea that Evan next door had not slept at all. After listening to the conversation between Anika and Raina, Evan went online to write code and make money.

'Dad may not be too bad after all, as he knew to retrieve Grandpa's belongings. However, I still need to work hard and earn money,so that Mom can live a worry-free life as soon as possible.'

Evan had an extraordinary talent for computers, but it was still challenging for him to make several billion dollars, especially since he was just starting from scratch

Looking at the long string of numbers on the computer, Evan frowned and thought, "It's only a few tens of millions now, when will I be able to earn enough money for Mommy to achieve financial freedom?" Suddenly, he thought of a sentence. Anything that can make money is written in the law.

2/3

Chapter 197

Evan quickly tapped on the keyboard.

Evan thought, "If I take money from my dad's account it shouldn't be considered illegal,right? It's like taking child support."