

Dear Ex-Wife Back My Son (Anika and Joshua)

61

Chapter 61

When Scott looked into Anika's clear and angry eyes, he couldn't believe what he saw!

That over there looks like Anika. She clearly is Anika

Scott didn't understand why Anika came for a blind date.

Before he could recover his senses.

Anika said to Luciano, "We went."

Luciano protected Anika and left.

The man who was knocked down on the ground was still cursing and muttering, "Don't you dare leave!! I'll remember you, you just wait for me!"

Other spoiled children followed, mocking and provoking him.

"Mr. Scott Hart, you were such a coward. Do you have the guts to fight back?"

"Yeah, don't just yell!"

Scott also wanted to attack Luciano, but Luciano's kick just now left him unable to even stand up.

Scott was also pampered since he was a child. He had never experienced such injustice.

He got up and muttered under his breath.

"I used to lead people, making sure they had no way back."

But Scott hadn't finished speaking yet when Valentin slowly approached him. Valentin's eyes were filled with icy coldness.

"What did you just do to her?"

"That b*tch..."

Seeing that Scott was defenseless, the bodyguards ruthlessly threw punches at his face. It didn't take long for Scott to be knocked down to the ground, spitting out blood.

And Scott still didn't know what mistake he had made.

The other young masters around were also afraid to speak up one by one.

Valentin looked down coldly at him and asked Jaxon beside him, "What did he just do?"

Jaxon truthfully told Valentin about Scott's attempt to embarrass Anika

"There was no need to keep his hand either."

Valentin lost the mood to continue blind dates and went out to find Anika.

When I left Scott's plea for mercy could be heard behind me.

Chapter 61

Those dandies sighed incessantly. They didn't understand who this Raina was, deserving Valentin's anger.

Scott was probably going to get caught here today.

When Valentin left Forde's Garden, Anika was already out of sight.

Valentin's hand, which had been hanging by his side, tightened slightly. He regretted not paying closer attention to the person who had passed by today.

He was originally just putting on a show for his grandfather, and at the same time embarrassing those women who wanted to marry him, so that they would not dare to agree to blind dates in the future. But he didn't expect.

"Go and find out what the relationship is between Ms.

Schmitt and Anika.

Jaxon busily replied, "Yes."

Valentin thought for a moment and then instructed, "And who is the man beside her?"

Anika was already sitting in the car. She was somewhat annoyed to find out that Raina's blind date was Valentin.

Valentin used to dislike Anika so much. Now that he sees Anika replacing Raina for a blind date, I wonder how Valentin would deal with her.

What Anika feared the most was still causing trouble for Raina.

"Mommy, are you okay?"

Evan's voice snapped Anika back to reality.

She smiled lightly and said, "I'm fine. Thanks to Luciano."

After Evan and Luciano thanked her, they gently hugged Anika.

"Unfortunately, I was still too young. When I grew up, I would protect you and Luciano.

Luciano's cold face underwent a subtle change.

Anika felt warm in her heart.

"Okay Mommy and Luciano will wait for you to grow up.

Joshua's bodyguard kept an eye on Anika.

Therefore after coming out of Forde's Garden, Anika got into the car and returned to Raina's villa. After having lunch and settling Evan, Anika went out to meet Joshua at Prosperity Group. Headquarters of the group, President's Office on the top floor.

.

62

Chapter 62

Joshua had already heard the bodyguard say that Anika went to Forde's Garden this morning.

"What did she go to Forde's Garden for?"

According to him, Forde's Garden was a place where some spoiled children lived a life of luxury and indulgence. It was quite 'dirty' there.

The bodyguard hesitated for a moment and replied. "It seems like she went on a blind date."

Joshua's defiant eyes narrowed slightly, emitting a dangerous aura.

Joshua thought, "So, when she said she had something to do, she meant she was going on a blind date?"

Anika really impressed him once again.

Joshua's face immediately darkened.

The bodyguard knew Joshua's temperament.

He didn't dare to touch the mold, so he carefully withdrew from the office.

In the afternoon, it was two o'clock.

Someone knocked on the office door.

"Mr. Conan."

As soon as Anika entered, she noticed that Joshua's aura was off.

Joshua's gloomy eyes lifted lightly looking at her indifferently. His gaze was cold as if it could penetrate into one's heart.

"Are you done?"

Joshua asked slowly and with a hidden meaning.

Anika didn't know what he meant. "Hmm. Weren't you saying yesterday that you were going to take me somewhere?"

Joshua did not answer. He got up and went straight to her.

"What did you do this morning?" he asked, looking straight at Anika.

Since Joshua was able to ask this question, it proves that he already knew.

Anika, facing his scrutinizing gaze, did not hide and said, "Blind date."

Joshua was laughing so hard.

She could actually speak such straightforward words.

Joshua suppressed his anger and questioned. "What? Are you so empty and lonely? Aren't two men enough

Chapter 62

Anika thought, "Am I feeling empty and lonely? I have two men?"

Anika became angry immediately.

She wondered, "What did he think of me?"

She gave a sarcastic smile and said word by word, "Mr.

Conan, have you misunderstood? I am single, why can't I go on a blind date?"

"Are you single?"

Joshua could no longer contain the fire in his heart. He grabbed Anika's arm with a gloomy expression and led her outside.

you single?

"I'm going to make you remember now. Were you si

Joshua dragged Anika into the car.

His grip was very strong. The moment he let go, Anika felt her arm go numb and ache.

With a loud bang the car door was closed.

The vehicle raced on the main road. Anika couldn't help but feel scared

She didn't know where Joshua was taking her. Gradually, she realized that something was wrong.

Although Anika had been away for four or five years, she recognized this road. Not far ahead was the former office building of the Carey Group...

Anika was a little nervous. Her hand, placed by her side, tightened slightly, and her fingertips slowly sank into the palm of her hand.

Joshua noticed her expression, a hint of cruelty tugging at the corners of his mouth, and calmly said.

"Didn't you say that you had intermittent amnesia and couldn't remember many people and things?"

'Do you still remember this place?"

His gaze turned towards a nearby place, which used to be the location of the Carey Group. However, when Group. However, when Anika looked over, that place was nothing but a barren wasteland.

The once majestic Carey Group was unexpectedly pushed...

Anika's pupils suddenly contracted.

She clenched her fist, and her fingertips had already squeezed blood out of her palm.

During their years abroad, at first, Trent and Clare were afraid to let her know anything about their home country.

Anika only found out that Joshua had acquired the Carey Group after returning to the country, but she never expected that he would completely demolish the Carey Group. Anika's throat choked up. She couldn't speak Joshua stopped the car. Looking at her bewildered lanhua haaama 'mom nariain that cha umo pestondian to haun

Chapter 62

His lips curled into a cold smile, appearing somewhat insane. "It seems like you don't remember either."

"Let me tell you, this is the fruit of your grandfather and father's two lifetimes of hard work, the original office building of the Carey Group."

"But now I have leveled it."

63

Chapter 63

The true heartlessness, perhaps, is someone like Joshua.

Anika tightly pursed her lips. She couldn't even feel the pain in her palms

The Carey Group, in Eli's hands, indeed suffered consecutive losses in the past. However, it at least still existed.

her.

But now, even the last wish that her father left for her is gone.

Anika understood that Joshua was seeking revenge on her.

She looked at the place that had become a wasteland, and her throat hurt. She almost burst into tears. "Survival of the fittest. You were the president of the Conan Group, and everything was up to you."

Anika did not realize that her voice had become hoarse.

Joshua didn't expect that even now Anika still refuses to admit that she didn't lose her memory.

He had thought that Anika would question herself, cry and make a scene after seeing the scene in front of

But she didn't do so.

Once, when Anika looked at him, there was a sparkle in her eyes, instead of the calmness of the Dead Sea as it is now.

Joshua's heart ached. He tightly gripped her chin with his slender hand and asked, "Even you were sold to me by the Carey family! Are you saying that it's all forgotten?"

"If I hadn't died, you would never have married anyone else in your life!"

Joshua's eyes turned red at the corners, and he completely lost his sanity.

Anika's pale lips slightly parted, "But I don't have you in my memory.

"The wife you wanted has already died!"

Anika's words completely angered Joshua.

"You forgot, then remember it for me! Even if you die, you have to come back to life for me!"

Joshua, speaking, went crazy and pounced on Anika despite her struggles.

"Joshua, what are you doing? Let go of me quickly or else I will accuse you of kidnapping!"

Joshua ignored Anika and tore open her collar.

'Did you forget about me? I came to help you regain your memory!

Saying that, Joshua fiercely bit Anika's red lips.

Chapter 63

At this moment, a sudden phone call rang.

It was Rachel who called.

Joshua released her and went to answer the phone.

*Joshua, did you come? Hurry up, everyone is waiting for you."

Tonight, Joshua's parents arranged a dinner at Bounty Hotel to celebrate Summer Holiday. They also invited many social celebrities.

Anika saw Joshua let go of herself and directly opened the door to get out of the car.

"Mr. Conan, there is nothing else, I am going back."

She was afraid that Joshua would do something extreme, so she couldn't wait to escape from here.

Joshua was still on the phone, watching Anika's fleeing figure. His mind was filled with the words she had just said. His eyes were welling up with tears. Joshua thought, "Anika, you won't be able to escape unless he dies!"

At this time, it was Bounty Hotel.

Evan stood at the entrance of the Bounty Hotel, wearing a duckbill cap and a mask.

Evan looked at the luxurious Bugatti parked at the entrance of the restaurant.

Valentin got out of the car.

Evan's bright eyes were filled with a layer of coldness. He was practically a miniature version of Joshua "You dared to bully my mommy. Don't blame me." After Valentin entered the restaurant, Evan followed as well.

The waiter stopped him and asked gently."Little child, you can't play here."

Evan looked up at her and softly exclaimed, "Miss, I came with my father. He is inside."

The waiter, upon hearing this, looked at Evan's expensive attire and did not doubt his words. "Shall I take you to find your father?"

I

When the waiter reached out to hold Evan's hand, he quietly dodged, saying, "No need, thank you, miss."

After saying that he ran inside quickly.

The waiter felt a bit disappointed, but couldn't help but sigh when looking at such an adorable child.

"There are so many mischievous children. Well-mannered and well-off children like this are becoming increasingly rare. Not long after Evan left, Joshua also arrived here.

64

Chapter 64

Valentin didn't feel like eating today After Howard found out about what he had done this morning, he specifically asked him to come to the restaurant for a meal In fact, Howard wanted Valentin to meet other socialites at the banquet

Sure enough, shortly after Valentin arrived in the hall, Howard called him aside.

"This is the Conan family's banquet You wouldn't want to mess it up again, would you?"

Howard really hit Valentin where it hurt.

Valentin had no choice but to sit in the corner of the banquet with a stiff face.

He was filled with a chilling sensation all over his body.

Anyone could feel that whoever went now it would be seeking death

Valentin didn't notice that there was a child secretly staring at him the whole time.

The Conan family arranged a banquet, and naturally all the hosts attended.

This time, Violet also came over.

She also noticed Valentin, but she didn't dare to approach and start a conversation.

Violet was not worried about Valentin, but afraid of Howard.

In fact, if it weren't for Howard approaching her separately and Valentin's infatuation with her back then, she would have become Valentin's wife long ago.

Violet still remembers what Howard said to her.

"I don't care who Valentin dates, but someone of your status is definitely not suitable to be a wife of the Arellano family! If you have no shame and seduce Valentin into marrying you, then I wouldn't mind making Valentin a widower."

Lost wife....

Violet knew that Howard could be ruthless.

When Evan was waiting for the opportunity, he realized that his terrible father's family and the woman he liked were all here.

His brows furrowed.

Evan was too eager to seek rev for his mommy today, so he only checked that Valentin would come here But Evan didn't check this party was hosted by the Conan family.

But since he had come he couldn't just leave so easily.

Chapter 64

Valentin..

"Sir, I see that you are in a bad mood, have a drink."

Valentin was thinking about someone who was not very smart when he looked up and saw a child who was not even as tall as his own legs.

He didn't know who brought the child.

Because Evan was wearing a mask and a hat, Valentin could only see his eyes, which were very beautiful. He felt familiar.

But Valentin disliked children the most.

"I didn't drink he said coldly.

Evan, however, did not leave but instead passed the wine forward.

Valentin frowned and reached out to block saying "Go away!"

I don't know if it was his voice being too loud that scared Evan, or something else.

The wine glass in Evan's hand happened to tilt, and the entire glass of red wine instantly spilled onto his pants.

Valentin's face darkened. "Damn it!"

Evan, on the other hand, pretended to be extremely scared. His eyes turned red, and he stammered, "I'm sorry, sir. It wasn't intentional..." Valentin looked at him his eyes filled with anger.

But Evan raised his voice and said with a sob, "Sir, you wouldn't hit a child, would you?"

Evan's voice successfully caught the attention of everyone present. People turned their heads one after another.

Valentin was speechless.

He didn't say he wanted to hit Evan.

Although he was not a good person, he couldn't do something like hitting children.

Valentin's face turned cold and he stood up.

Evan sniffed and said with teary eyes, "Uncle, your pants are dirty. How about I take off my pants and give them to you to wear?"

"Are you not angry anymore, okay?"

Valentin did not speak.

He angrily thought, "Can I fit into your pants?"

65

Chapter 65

The crowd around Vallentin kept growing. He felt that if he stayed here any longer he would definitely become the center of attention.

People who don't know might think that he bullied children.

Valentin walked quickly towards the bathroom.

Evan immediately put away his pitiful look. He picked up his phone watch, found a suitable angle, and took a picture of the disheveled Valentin.

He didn't stop there and went to a suite with Valentin

Not far away, Rachel noticed the child. Her heart softened.

She took a sip of wine and said to Violet beside her "What a lovely child, so well-behaved and polite."

"If Joshua had children, he would definitely be as polite as this child."

Only when facing such a young child did Rachel's perpetually cold face appear affectionate.

Violet knew that she was being urged to get pregnant again, and could only go along with it.

Valentin arrived at the temporary room.

He called and asked Jaxon to bring over a new set of clothes.

Soon, Jaxon brought the clothes over and said, "Mr.

Arellano, I have put the clothes on the table for you."

"Um, you could leave now."

"Yes."

Jaxon opened the door and left, without noticing the hidden spot behind the sofa where a little child was crouching

After all, Valentin's room was not a place that ordinary people dared to enter.

Valentin went to the bathroom to take a shower.

Listening to the sound of water in the bathroom, Evan quietly walked out. He took Valentin's clothes and phone and then threw them directly from the third floor.

"Let you bully my mommy."

After Evan finished everything he destroyed the communication devices in the room that connected to the restaurant before leaving.

Evan lowered his hat and hurriedly went out. When he reached the first-floor lobby and was about to head towards the exit, he ran too fast and collided head-on with a man's straight and slender leg "Sorry..." Chapter 65

Evan rushed over to apologize and looked up to meet his father's deep and icy gaze

Joshua looked into Evan's eyes and felt a sense of familiarity

"It's okay, he replied coldly.

Evan hurriedly ran away

Until he left the restaurant, his heart was still pounding

He didn't expect that he had just bumped into Joshua

Luckily, Evan wore a mask and a hat.

On the other side, Valentin, who had just finished taking a shower in the restaurant room, was extremely irritable!

He didn't know who had thrown away all his clothes. His phone was also missing. The communication devices indoors were also disconnected...

Valentin couldn't help it. He could only wrap a towel around his lower body and go out. Amidst the astonished gazes of the crowd, she borrowed a phone to call Jaxon.

After a search, the bodyguard found Valentin's clothes and phone downstairs

"Mr. Arellano, did someone want to harm you?" Jaxon was somewhat frightened. He didn't know who had managed to break into Valentin's room.

Valentin furrowed his brows. "It probably wasn't."

If someone wanted to harm Valentin, why would they just throw away his clothes and phone?

So childish, it feels like something only a child would do!

The child...

Valentin thought of the little brat wearing a mask looking innocent pouring himself a drink.

His face looked even worse.

Valentin thought, "Could it be that during my promiscuous days in the past, other women gave birth to my children?"

I will send someone to investigate right away, Jaxon added.

"Wait!" Valentin called out to him, "There's no need to check."

If he was a bastard, then he would definitely come back to find Valentin

Valentin shouldn't make a big fuss about this matter if Howard finds out, it won't be beneficial for Valentin! Although Jaxon was confused, he nodded.

Later, Jaxon added, "Mr. Arellano, I found out the information you asked me to look up this morning." Chapter 65

Evan rushed over to apologize and looked up to meet his father's deep and icy gaze.

Joshua looked into Evan's eyes and felt a sense of familiarity.

"It's okay," he replied coldly.

Evan hurriedly ran away.

Until he left the restaurant, his heart was still pounding.

He didn't expect that he had just bumped into Joshua.

Luckily Evan wore a mask and a hat.

On the other side, Valentin, who had just finished taking a shower in the restaurant room, was extremely irritable!

He didn't know who had thrown away all his clothes. His phone was also missing. The communication devices indoors were also disconnected...

Valentin couldn't help it. He could only wrap a towel around his lower body and go out. Amidst the astonished gazes of the crowd, she borrowed a phone to call Jaxon. After a search, the bodyguard found Valentin's clothes and phone downstairs.

"Mr. Arellano, did someone want to harm you?" Jaxon was somewhat frightened. He didn't know who had managed to break into Valentin's room.

Valentin furrowed his brows. "It probably wasn't."

If someone wanted to harm Valentin, why would they just throw away his clothes and phone?

So childish, it feels like something only a child would do!

The child...

Valentin thought of the little brat wearing a mask, looking innocent, pouring himself a drink.

His face looked even worse.

Valentin thought, "Could it be that during my promiscuous days in the past, other women gave birth to my children?"

"I will send someone to investigate right away, Jaxon added.

"Wait!" Valentin called out to him, "There's no need to check."

If he was a bastard, then he would definitely come back to find Valentin.

Valentin shouldn't make a big fuss about this matter if Howard finds out, it won't be beneficial for Valentin! Although Jaxon was confused, he nodded.

Later, Jaxon added, "Mr. Arellano, I found out the information you asked me to look up this morning.

66

Chapter 66

Miss Raina, from the Schmitt family, and Anika were college classmates. After Raina graduated, she went abroad. This time, shortly after Anika returned, she also followed suit and returned to the country. "According to my investigation, Raina had a crush. It was a boy from her grade named Bowe Kibler."

"I suspected that she had Anika come to the blind date because of Bowe."

Jaxon told Valentin everything he knew.

Valentin's eyes concealed deep secrets.

He changed into a new outfit. When he went downstairs, he saw Joshua and Violet standing together, like a couple.

Valentin hesitated for a moment and did not tell Joshua about today's events.

Moonlit Vista..

Anika received a call from Raina. Raina's voice sounded disappointed as she said, "Anika, I am coming back tonight."

"What happened? Did you find him?" Anika asked.

Raina's throat choked up.

"Um, I found him," Raina paused for a moment, seemingly nonchalantly saying, "But he has someone else now. It's completely over between him and me."

Anika didn't know how to comfort her.

Raina changed the subject. "How is your family? They didn't give you a hard time, did they?"

"It's hard to put into words."

Anika glanced out of the window. The sun was setting.

"I came over to see you and Evan in the evening. We'll talk then."

"Okay."

Midsummer night.

After Raina came back, she concealed her disappointment and stopped mentioning Bowe's matter.

Anika and Evan were both considerate. Instead of asking her, they told her about the blind date they had today.

"Valentin? How could it be him? If only I had asked for clarification earlier, Raina sighed.

Chapter 66

Raina, on the other hand, didn't mind. "He's a grown man, bullying the two of us weak women. Does he have any shame?"

same way b

"I used to think the but Valentin would do anything for Violet." Anika never considered Valentin to be a gentleman.

While Evan was reading a book, he listened to the conversation between the two people and quietly uploaded the previously taken photo of Valentin onto the internet. The next morning, the internet exploded.

A news headline appeared on the top hot topic Valentin, the scion of a wealthy family, wet himself after getting drunk."

There was also a picture below the news.

It was last night when Valentin, in the restaurant, left in a disheveled state after his pants got wet from red wine.

Raina woke up in the morning and opened her phone to see this news.

"Anika, look at the news quickly."

Raina couldn't stop laughing, "Did Valentin get what he deserved? That's so satisfying.

"Who dares to do such a thing?" Anika exclaimed in shock.

On the other side.

In the office of Shen Group, Valentin's face turned as black as carbon.

Jaxon stood upright nervously and reported, "I have removed the hot search."

"Who on earth did it? Have you found out?" Valentin looked up at him, anger boiling in his dark eyes.

Valentin had never been falsely accused like this before.

Did he wet himself after getting drunk?

If he knew who did it, he would have beaten him until he wet his pants.

Jaxon shook his head, "No. The person who posted used a virtual address."

"Our people had already gone to investigate early on, but we didn't find anything... Valentin's face looked even worse.

It seems that this time he could only swallow it alive

"I didn't want to see this kind of hot topic appear again next time, understand?"

"Yes."

On the other side, Evan also woke up. He immediately turned on his computer, only to find that all the news about Valentin could not be found.

67

Chapter 67

Sure enough, money can make the impossible possible.

"This time I'll let you go, Evan thought.

Evan rubbed his sleepy eyes, opened the bedroom door, and went out.

"Mommy, Raina, good morning."

"Mischievous boy, good morning, Raina said.

Anika prepared breakfast in the kitchen.

"You guys, hurry up and get ready. It's time for breakfast."

"Evan, Raina helped you find a kindergarten. You enrolled today."

Originally, it was summer vacation at this time.

But the international kindergarten introduced by Raina operates all year round.

Evan studied at school,so Anika didn't have to worry about him being alone during the day.

Moreover, children of his age still needed to communicate with other kids more.

"Okay," Evan said obediently.

In the washroom.

Raina couldn't help but tease Evan as she watched him standing on a small stool, brushing his teeth in front of the mirror.

"Evan,why are you so obedient?Without asking about the school, you agreed to go?"

Raina didn't believe that as a little kid,he would go to unfamiliar places and make friends with strangers without any fear.

Even if he was not afraid, at least he should have been excited or had some other emotions, right?

But after Evan finished washing up and wiped his mouth with a small towel, he calmly replied, "Children are supposed to go to school. Even if I don't agree, I still have to go." Raina didn't know what to say. Evan didn't seem like a child at all.

He was not cute at all.

They had eaten breakfast.

The driver drove and took them to the kindergarten.

With Raina's help, Anika quickly completed Evan's enrollment procedures. Evan was able to start school on the same day.

Chapter 67

Raina, upon hearing this, pointed to a short-haired little boy sitting in the nearby classroom and said, "That's Auntie's nephew, Robinson Schmitt. I have already spoken to him and asked him to protect your nephew, Robinson safety."

"If you were bullied by other children, just find him."

A glimmer flashed in Evan's beautiful eyes as he said Okay."

After hearing about this kindergarten, Evan took the opportunity to investigate the kindergarten while Anika and Raina were tidying up.

He found out that one of them was named Patrick Conan, the great-grandson of the Conan family, and the grandson of Uncle Joshua.

This means that Patrick was Joshua's cousin's son!

It is said that he was very intelligent and now he is highly cherished by the Conan family.

Evan thought about the information he had found. In the past, when Mommy was with the Conan family, she was often bullied by Joshua's cousins and cousin-in-law.

Evan wanted to see what kind of intelligent children this woman would give birth to.

Anika was unaware of her son's plans. In her eyes, Evan had always been a simple and good boy.

When she was abroad before, she sent Evan to a local kindergarten for work.

Evan was very sensible, and both the teachers and the other children liked him a lot.

Anika sent her son into the classroom with peace of mind. After saying goodbye to him, Anika left with Raina.

"Anika, did you notice that Evan seemed to want to stay here?"

For a moment, Raina felt that Evan was up to something, but she couldn't put her finger on it.

Anika, however, didn't mind. "Hmm, Evan always enjoyed studying and making friends."

"That's all right," Raina said, linking her arm with hers. "I was just thinking earlier about what would happen if he got bullied. Now it seems like he needs to take care of Robinson more."

68

Chapter 68

After seeing off the mischievous boy at home, Anika and Raina had a rare opportunity to go shopping together.

Because of Bowe's incident, Raina decided to stay in Oasisville for a while and take care of Evan..

"Raina, thank you so much, Anika sincerely said.

"You don't have to be so polite."

On the other side, in the kindergarten.

As Evan appeared in the classroom, his exquisite and flawless face immediately caught the attention of all the girls in the kindergarten.

The teacher introduced Evan as someone who had just returned from abroad and asked everyone to take good care of him.

Raina's nephew, Robinson, received a phone call from Raina last night. Raina told him that there would be a new transfer student today and he must become good friends with him. Robinson thought that Evan was also a strong boy, just like himself.

He didn't expect Evan to be so beautiful, even more attractive than girls. Evan is adorable and makes people want to protect him.

Robinson waved his hand towards him.

Evan calmly sat in the seat next to him.

"Are you Evan? Raina asked me to take care of you.

Robinson patted his chest and said, "Don't worry. Your matters will be my matters from now on."

"Thank you."

Robinson discovered that Evan not only looked beautiful, but also had a pleasant voice when speaking.

If Evan were a girl, it would be great.

Evan didn't know Robinson's thoughts and looked around the classroom. His gaze settled on a corner, on a solitary seat.

The boy on the seat was wearing an expensive little suit.

Every button on his body was priceless.

He sat in front of the desk, yawning, with a proud expression on his little face.

Robinson followed his gaze and couldn't help but exclaim, "That is Patrick, the second generation of the Conan family. We must not offend him."

1/2

Chapter 68

Evan couldn't help but smile inwardly.

Raina's Robinson was really like her.

"Don't worry."

Evan gave him a reassuring look and then averted his gaze.

Robinson thought, The friends Raina introduced are really worry-free."

In kindergarten, children did nothing but draw, fold paper, play, and occasionally have fun learning foreign languages.

Evan was already familiar with these long ago.

But in order not to stand out too much, he still pretended to be like an ordinary child.

Even so, by the end of the morning, all the girls in the class had surrounded him and were clamoring to talk to Evan, sharing delicious treats with him... Robinson was pushed to the side and felt deeply defeated.

The one with even greater emotional changes than him was Patrick, who used to dominate and rule the school.

Before Evan arrived, he had always been the center of attention.

All those girls used to say that they wanted to marry Patrick and become his wife when they grew up Patrick thought, "You can't trust girls." Patrick was very unhappy.

A newcomer dared to show off in front of him.

Then Evan shouldn't blame Patrick for being impolite.

Patrick kept staring at Evan. When Evan was about to go to the bathroom, Patrick immediately dropped the pen in his hand and followed him. Patrick thought he was hiding well, but he didn't know that Evan had already known he was following him.

Men's restroom.

Patrick closed the door directly and placed the Under Repair sign outside.

He had already used this method repeatedly and was no longer satisfied with it.

Patrick walked in briskly. He thought Evan would be peeing at this time, so he sneaked up behind him and kicked him to the ground.

Read 69

69

Chapter 69

Unexpectedly, Evan stood there, calmly looking at Patrick.

Patrick didn't beat around the bush and went straight to the point, "I don't like you. After you go back today, have your parents arrange for your withdrawal from school."

Upon hearing the words, Evan remained calm. He walked to the sink and carefully washed his hands.

"Why?"

"With the fact that I was the Conan Group, which is the future heir of the Prosperity Group!" Patrick said with a proud expression on his face.

In Oasisville, there was not a single person who did not know about Prosperity Group.

"If you offended me, neither you nor your parents could get away with it. This school is sponsored by the Prosperity Group."

"I asked you to leave, so you had to go.

Evan raised his eyebrows.

He didn't find out that his bad father wanted to give the company to someone else.

1. oh.

Patrick thought he agreed and was feeling proud.

Immediately after, Evan said, "I didn't leave."

Patrick was immediately angered.

He couldn't control his temper and lifted his foot, ready to kick Evan.

Evan swiftly blocked Patrick as his eyesight was quick.

When Evan was abroad, he learned boxing specifically to protect his mother and younger brother when he grew up.

A few minutes later, Patrick's pleas for mercy echoed throughout the restroom.

"Do you still want me to drop out of school?"

"Not anymore..."

"Would you

you report?"

"Would not..."

Patrick's face was swollen from being beaten..

Evan washed his hands again and said, 'Remember, if you tattle on me, I will see you once and hit you

1/3

Chapter 69

Patrick did not dare to speak.

He wouldn't have complained about being so embarrassed by being beaten.

He was a real man,

Anika here.

Raina received a phone call and left in advance. Anika walked into the crowd alone.

She hadn't taken a walk in Oasisville for a long time.

The w weather in midsummer changed quickly. Before long the sky became overcast.

Not long after, the sky flashed with lightning and thundered. A torrential rain started to pour down.

Anika stood under a roof, and a Bentley slowly stopped in front of her.

The car window rolled down, revealing a handsome face of a man.

"Get in the car," Joshua said softly as he sat in the driver's seat.

After hesitating for a moment, Anika opened the backseat door.

"I was not the driver, I sat in the front."

Anika couldn't open the back door no matter what she tried, so she had to sit in the front.

As soon as she got on the car, Anika turned her head and looked out of the window.

For a moment, the car was very quiet.

The heavy rain washed against the car window, but it didn't make the interior any cooler. Instead, it felt unusually stuffy.

Joshua drove the car silently

Anika looked at the unfamiliar road, unsure of where it would lead her.

The car slowly left the main road and drove onto a small path.

Anika looked at the desolate path and suddenly remembered where she was.

When she was in her teens, she was thrown onto a deserted road by a group of spoiled children from school.

That day, it was raining as heavily as it is now. Anika was completely soaked and she walked barefoot into the late night.

It was Joshua who drove all the way to find her.

Back then, he was like her light. Joshua considerately lifted her into the car and gently comforted Anika, telling her not to be afraid. How did the boy who used to be so gentle and tender become so indifferent later on?

2/3

Chapter 69

Joshua didn't stop the car. His peripheral vision fell on Anika's serene face. His Adam's Apple twitched slightly.

Seeing him leaving this place, Anika as ked, "Mr. Conan, where are you taking me?"

70

Chapter 70

Anika thought that Joshua still remembered this place and that he brought her here because he wanted to force her to admit that she hadn't lost her memory.

But Joshua didn't do that.

Joshua clenched the steering wheel with his well-defined hands. With a complex expression, he asked, "Anika, how was that child doing?"

Joshua still remembers when Valentin gave him Anika's medical records, it was written on there that Anika had been pregnant for two weeks.

He had never asked about this matter because he wanted Anika to say it voluntarily.

When Anika heard the word 'child', she squinted her eyes.

"What child?"

Joshua stopped the car and looked at Anika. His mood was particularly gloomy.

"I knew you were pregnant at that time."

Joshua stared at Anika with deep eyes, as if he wanted to see through her completely.

Anika was very afraid that Joshua had already discovered Evan.

Although she had prepared herself, she was still afraid that Joshua would take Evan and William away when she faced him.

Anika forced herself to calm down. "I only remember the attending physician telling me that I had had a miscarriage."

Joshua instantly became disappointed

He thought to himself, I should have understood long ago that the child couldn't possibly exist, otherwise

Anika wouldn't have come back alone.

The person I sent out tracked her for so long. He never found the child.

"And besides, Anika's body was so weak at that time.

How could she possibly give birth to a child?"

Joshua's voice got stuck in his throat. He didn't speak for a while.

1/2

On the way back, Anika was particularly nervous.

As soon as she got home, she couldn't help but dial Trent's phone number.

Soon, the phone was answered. Trent's magnetic voice came through the other end of the line. Chapter 70

"Anika, what happened?"

Trent knew that Anika must have had something going on, otherwise she wouldn't have called him.

"Today Joshua approached me and asked me about the children. He knew that I had been pregnant before, Anika replied truthfully.

A moment later, Trent's comforting words came from the other end of the phone, "Don't worry. I have already had Evan and William's birth dates modified."

"That's good That's good."

Anika knew that she was too flustered at the time "Don't be afraid. As long as I'm here, no one can take away William and Evan."

Thousands of kilometers away, Trent was standing on the rooftop of a coastal building.

Behind him was a large conference room, and a group of executives were waiting inside for him to finish the call and continue the meeting. Although Trent was reluctant to hang up the phone, the call ended.

He said to his assistant, "You must keep an eye on William, and make sure Joshua's people don't find him."

Recently, Trent discovered that someone had started investigating Anika's past.

He didn't expect Joshua to have such influence to be able to investigate here.

He was afraid that Anika would worry, so he didn't tell her about it.

In the evening

Anika had a nightmare in her dream, William and Evan were both discovered by Joshua. Not only did

Joshua not accept William and Evan, but he also wanted to make them disappear

Anika woke up suddenly. Her forehead was covered in cold sweat.

She still remembers when she and Joshua had just gotten married, Rachel urged them to start trying for a baby.

Joshua said to her at that time, "I won't touch you, and even if I did and you got pregnant, I wouldn't allow this child to be born."

Anika couldn't fall asleep.

She knew she had to hurry up.

On the following day.

Anika wore clothes that accentuated her figure and applied a delicate and exquisite light makeup.

When getting ready to leave, she put the tools in her bag to be prepared for any unexpected occurrences. In the CEO's Office of Prosperity Group.

Dear 71

Chapter 71

This time, Payton did not stop Anika.

Joshua was standing by the French window, smoking. He was recalling the words Anika said yesterday.

Anika told him that she had a miscarriage, which meant that the baby had already died.

Hearing the sound of knocking Joshua put out the cigarette in his hand. "Come in."

As Anika pushed open the door, she saw Joshua standing not far away, wearing a sharp suit and standing against the light.

She still remembers the first time she saw Joshua over a decade ago, Joshua looked very similar to today. Joshua was also standing in the sunlight at that time and immediately caught her attention, Joshua looked at Anika's delicate face and graceful figure with sharp eyes.

When Joshua was staring at Anika, she had already closed the office door and stood in front of Joshua. "Mr. Conan, after our conversation yesterday, I went to check the past records. I misunderstood before. We were indeed married before."

you

"I want to explain to you about the blind date I went on before. Actually, I went on behalf of my best friend."

After returning that day, Joshua discovered the truth.

He didn't expect Anika to explain to him proactively. A look of surprise crossed his eyes.

"So you came to see me just to explain this matter?"

Anika looked at Joshua with clear eyes and shook her head, "I have made up my mind to recover my memory, but there are some things I don't quite understand, so I wanted to ask you." Anika was close to Joshua. Joshua vaguely saw her chest.

"What do you want to ask?" Joshua swallowed slightly.

"Did we used to love each other a lot?"

Joshua's expression changed.

Anika pretended not to notice Joshua's changes and continued, "Although I don't remember many people and things, I firmly believe that I wouldn't choose to marry someone I don't love." Joshua's gaze became profound.

At that moment, it was difficult to distinguish whether he was delighted or upset.

"Yes. You loved me very much."

Joshua answered word by word. His eyes turned red without him realizing it, Chapter 71

She tiptoed and approached Joshua. "Can I try to see if I really love you?"

Before Joshua could react, Anika had already kissed his thin lips.

At this moment, Joshua felt as if all the blood in his body had frozen.

Joshua was kissed by Anika haphazardly, as if feathers brushed across his lips.

Seeing that Anika was clumsy, Joshua couldn't help but take the initiative to kiss her.

The

e curtains in all four windows were lowered, and the office fell into darkness. Faint sounds could be heard coming from inside

"I was about to succeed!"

Anika thought.

She used her nails to pinch her palm, trying hard to keep herself awake.

At that moment, a knocking sound came from the door.

"Joshua."

It was Violet.

She disregarded Payton's obstruction and arrived outside the office.

Seeing that Joshua's office door was tightly closed, she had a vague sense that something was amiss.

Anika didn't expect anyone to come and look for Joshua at noon.

She furrowed her brows slightly and had to pause her plan. She reached out and pushed Joshua away.

"Someone came."

Anika dodged Joshua's kiss and shyly said.

Listening to the continuous knocking sound, Joshua had to stop even though his desire was not fulfilled. One minute later, the office door was opened.

As soon as Violet entered the room, she saw Anika's flushed face and watery eyes.

As an adult, Violet immediately knew what Anika and Joshua had just done.

"What happened?"

Joshua's slightly hoarse voice brought Violet back to her senses.

Violet clenched the invitation in her hand and walked up to Joshua, handing it to him.

*Joshua, I will release a new song tonight. I hope you can attend. This song is specially written for you.

.

72

Chapter 72

Chapter 72

Joshua did not accept the invitation. He coldly replied, "I don't have time."

Violet didn't expect Joshua to refuse so decisively.

Thinking about what he and Anika had just done, she dug her nails into the palm of her hand.

She forced herself to suppress the displeasure in her heart and looked towards Anika beside her. Anika, can you attend?"

"It just so happens that after the press conference, there is a college class reunion. Maybe when you see your old classmates, you will be able to recall some memories."

Joshua also looked at Anika.

Anika had just told Joshua that she wanted to regain her memory. She refused Violet's suggestion as inappropriate, so she agreed. "Okay"

Anika took the invitation letter and left the office.

Because Anika agreed to attend the press conference, Joshua felt a little bit intrigued.

After Violet continued persuading Joshua for a while, Joshua also agreed to attend.

Watching Joshua's change in attitude, Violet grew to hate Anika even more.

After returning from Joshua's office, Anika couldn't help but feel regretful.

She almost succeeded....

In the evening.

Anika had the driver drive her to the opera house according to the time written on the invitation.

As soon as she arrived, she found many social celebrities and journalists here.

And some of her college classmates were also here.

The music concert hall and exhibition hall of the opera house were both rented out by Violet. Except for the invited guests, no one else was allowed to enter. Anika entered with the invitation in hand and was assigned to a place with a wide view.

Here, she could see most of the venue.

At first, she didn't understand Violet's intention. It wasn't until she saw that familiar figure before the performance started that she understood.

Joshua also came, and he sat in the front row.

"He said he wouldn't come, didn't he?"

1/3

Chats 72

She thought Sure enough he never really refuses Videt when faced with her

Violet was very proud

Because Joshua was here journalists flocked to report on her, and all the news they released was about her positive achievements.

Her university classmates, who used to look down on her in the past and came from wealthy families wanted to get close to Joshua,so they all flattered her. However,their goal was not achieved because Joshua was surrounded by bodyguards, and no one could get close to him.

saw Joshua and a bodyguard talking about something in the distance.

Anika sa

Not long after,the bodyguard respectfully approached Anika.

"Ms.Carey, Mr.Conan asked for you to come over."

Anika had no reason to refuse. She walked towards Joshua.

At once, everyone looked at Anika.

"Was that Anika, right?"

"She had already died, didn't she?"

"Why was she still alive?"

Anika's classmates whispered among themselves.

Anika, who was being stared at by everyone with strange looks, sat down next to Joshua.

"Mr.Conan, did you call me over for something?"

Joshua looked at Anika with sharp eyes. "You said you wanted to regain your memories, right?"

"I came to help you."

As Joshua looked at her with a scrutinizing gaze, Anika couldn't help but feel a bit nervous.

Fortunately, Violet stepped onto the stage at this moment.

On stage, Violet immediately spotted Anika sitting next to Joshua. She felt a bit displeased, but she didn't show it.

Before singing, she said slowly

"The new song I am going to sing today is the one I wrote for my first love. He was the only person I ever loved."

2/3

First love, the only person she ever loved....

Everyone in the school knew that Violet and Joshua were together at the time.

Therefore, when Violet said these words, everyone knew that the person she was referring to was Joshua. Chapter

Because Joshua was present, some people started to make a fuss.

.

Dear 73

Chapter 73

Compared to those outsiders, Joshua was calmer.

Violet's gaze fell on Anika again. "Although my first love and I went through many twists and turns and couldn't get married, I believe we will eventually be together." Violet was warning Anika in a veiled manner.

As the accompaniment started playing, Violet began singing her new song 'A Beam of Light in the World'. The melody was gentle and touching.

For some reason, Anika felt that this song was familiar, but she couldn't remember where she had heard it before.

"The song is very good. It's just a pity that she ruined this song with her singing, Joshua said slowly.

Anika's attention was brought back by Joshua as she was reminiscing.

Although Violet debuted as a singer, her voice was not really pleasant to listen to.

Joshua looked at Anika. "I remember you used to like singing."

If Joshua hadn't brought up this matter, Anika would have almost forgotten about it.

Anika may have inherited her mother Mireya's genes. She was very sensitive to music from a young age.

Unfortunately, she had a hearing impairment. For someone in the music industry, this was a fatal condition.

Joshua once happened to hear Anika humming a song and thought it sounded really nice.

He thought that if Anika sang this song, it would definitely stand out.

Anika didn't expect Joshua to remember that she liked singing. After all, Joshua used to hate any noise at home.

"Is that so? I don't remember, Anika replied.

In the dim light, Joshua looked at Anika with deep eyes and continued, "Do you remember that Violet's first love was me?"

1/2

Joshua came here because he wanted to see how Anika would behave when facing Violet.

He didn't believe that Anika wouldn't care about what Violet said.

"It was you who took me away from her.

Joshua stared at Anika intently and spoke word by word.

Upon hearing these words, Anika thought to herself, "Nonsense!"

The fact is, after he and Violet broke up, both of our families started discussing our marriage.

How could he twist the truth like that Mika could help but feel angry deep down but she couldn't thought have poor hearing in not nearsighted Was I really so unattractive before? Do I need to compete with her for men?

Really

Anika had a sharp tongue

Joshua's expression froze slightly

Do you think other men were better than me?

if

If there weren't other people here, Joshua would definitely ask for clarification

Anika noticed that Joshua was angry again. She stopped herself from just making an analogy. Mr. Conan don't overthink it

How could Joshua not think more?

After Anika came back it was like she had become a different person

Joshua wanted to say something. Just then Violet finished singing

To be honest, Joshua and Anika didn't listen to Violet at all after she sang a few lines at the beginning.

After the song ended everyone applauded for Violet

Although Violet's singing was average the melody of this new song was truly pleasant and even better than all the melodies of the songs Violet had sung before. Someone has boldly asserted that once this song is released it will definitely become famous.

Violet's new song release event was very successful

Amidst the compliments from the crowd she involuntarily glanced at Anika Her eyes were filled with pride

Finally she once again proved that she was no less than Anka

When the reporters left Violet went straight to Joshua

As she looked at Anika there was a gleam of pride in her eyes "Joshua knew you would come

You never used to miss any of my important moments before never used to m

Anika looked at this sonunable to describe how she felt

Some of the classmates who stayed here and were invited to the press conference naturally felt that Joshua came for Violet when they heard her words

74

Chapter 74

In front of so many people, Joshua did not argue with Violet.

"Joshua,how about joining us for the party later?"Violet continued.

Joshua was annoyed by what Anika had just said, so he deliberately agreed in front of her."Fine"

An entire floor of a five-star hotel was booked.

Joshua was immediately surrounded by Violet and a group of young people from wealthy families as soon as he appeared.

Anika sat alone on the side.

At that momenta seemingly innocent woman approached Anika.

"Did you see it?Only Violet can make Mr.Conan appear in such occasions."

"After all, Violet was his first love."

Anika knew this woman. This woman was Violet's best friend, Joyce.

Anika held a glass of wine, took a sip and casually said, "People who don't know the truth might think you were Joshua's first love."

Joyce wanted to vent her anger on Violet.

But she didn't expect that what Anika said would make her so embarrassed.

Anika didn't want to stay in this unpleasant place anymore. She got up and left.

After Joshua shook off the crowd, Anika's figure was no longer visible.

After saying a few words to Violet in a perfunctory manner, he also left.

In the pouring rain, a top-of-the-line Cadillac luxury car followed behind the vehicle Anika was in.

The man inside the luxury car only withdrew his gaze when Anika returned to Moonlit Vista.

Joshua picked up the phone and called Payton.

"How did it go?"

"There have always been people obstructing our investigation, but we have found out that after Ms. Carey went abroad, she went to Holtswich."

"We needed more time to understand the specific situation, Payton replied.

Joshua responded, "I knew. Then he leaned back on the chair and pinched his forehead.

He was thinking, "Holtswich!"

"I didn't expect Anika to live there all these years."

1/2

Chapter 74

No wonder I couldn't find her even though I looked for her for several years.

"Anika's behavior today was unusual. She must be hiding something from me!"

After Anika had just finished talking to her sons on the phone, she received a call from Violet.

"I was outside the place where you lived. Come out."

Outside Moonlit Vista.

Violet was standing next to a nanny car.

As she walked towards Anika, she looked around.

"This place is truly magnificent. Compared to the Careys' home, it is no less impressive," Violet said meaningfully.

Anika recently found out that the person currently living in the Careys' home is Violet.

After achieving great success, Violet spent a large sum of money to buy the Careys' home.

"Violet, did you bring me out just to talk about the house?"

Anika said.

"Of course not."

Violet walked step by step towards Anika. "I came to ask you to voluntarily leave the Conan Group and go abroad."

Today, everything Joshua did to Anika made Violet a little scared.

She was afraid that Joshua had really fallen in love with Anika!

Anika laughed. "What makes you think you have the right to make me do that?"

Violet was momentarily speechless.

Anika looked at Violet with a mocking expression. "Are you scared?"

Violet felt a little guilty under Anika's gaze. "I have nothing to be afraid of."

you+

'Do you think I am still the orphan who had nothing back then?I have everything I want now!"

"Anika,I used to envy you before, but now I pity you.I pity you for the death of your father and the downfall of your family.I pity you even though you have a mother, it's as if you don't have one." Violet raised her hand and grasped Anika's shoulder, asking with a smile, So many years have passed. Do you know where Mireya and your brother went?"

"If you didn't want them to find put you came back, then go abroad!"

"The black sheep should stay abroad and never come back. Do you understand?"

.

75

Chapter 75

Anika was calm Do you think you're so great? Did you achieve your current success on your own?"

"Without the Carey family.could you have survived?"

"Without Joshua,could you have become a top female star?"

I

Anika lowered her voice and mockingly whispered in Violet's ear,"Don't think I don't know about all the shameful things you did abroad after graduation."

*It Joshua and his family knew the truth, would they still accept you?"

Before returning to her home country, Anika had made all the necessary preparations.

In order to successfully obtain what she wanted,she specifically investigated Violet.

very rich

After investigation, Anika discovered that Violet,who had a pure and goddess-like image,had a very experience during her years abroad.

Violet blinked her eyes vigorously.

She thought she had fooled everyone, but she didn't realize that Anika knew.

"You really didn't lose your memory. Do you believe me if I tell Joshua about this?"

Anika wasn't afraid at all. "Oh, really? So, do you believe that those videos will be seen by Joshua Tomorrow?"

1/2

Violet remained silent once again.

She really didn't expect Anika to become so sharp-tongued after coming back.

"Anika, what do you want exactly to make me and Joshua be together?" Violet began to soften her attitude.

"Besides Joshua, I don't have anything else to apologize to you, right?"

"I beg you to set Joshua free and spare yourself, Violet's eyes welled up with tears.

"Why didn't you let me go back then?"

Anika didn't want to see Violet pretend to be innocent anymore. She turned around and left.

After Anika left, the tears in Violet's eyes disappeared.

She only had fear in her heart.

She was afraid that Anika would tell Joshua about her experiences abroad.

She thought, If Joshua found out, I would be finished,

"Noll absolutely did not allow such a thing to happen"

"Anika, all of this was because of you!"

Chaptres 75

The next day..

Anika was woken up by a phone call from Raina.

"Anika, did you sell your song to Violet?"

Anika couldn't help but feel strange. "Zeffari Media, the company Violet used to work for, had asked me before she thought.

"They wanted to buy the copyright of my song, but I refused them."

Upon hearing this, Raina instantly became furious. "Anika, have you seen the news about Violet's new song? 'A Beam of Light In the World' plagiarized your melody!"
swords, Anika

After listening to Raina's words, Anika opened her computer and found Violet's newly released song "A Beam of Light In the World".

Yesterday, when she heard that song, she felt familiar, but she didn't listen carefully.

It wasn't until today when she heard this song again that she remembered a tune she casually composed several years ago.

"Anika, I still remember the song you composed called 'A Beam of Light'. Even the name of her song similar to the name of your composition, "Raina sneered at Violet.

Because Raina liked this song very much, she remembered the name of this song.

"I remember now. I released this song on a niche platform back then, and then I didn't pay any attention to it," Anika said.

"Violet couldn't buy your song, so she plagiarized it. She is truly shameless!"

Raina was speaking while searching for information on the computer.

more is

"Anika, did you know? Some of the songs Violet used to sing in the past were bought, and some were plagiarized.

"I knew."

Anika was also very angry. "But I didn't expect her to plagiarize my song."

Actually, this is not a coincidence. Violet has always wanted songs composed by foreign composers, so she specifically had someone search for old composers and adapt their works.

"It's ridiculous that she is now becoming popular with this song. Raina wished she could appear in front of Violet immediately to see how shameless Violet is. "I will have someone send her a lawyer's letter right a "Wait a minute, Anika interrupted Raina. "It's not enough to just tell her like this

2/2

Chap 70

WH

□□□□□□ □□ □□□) I gene

a más about setting for gotta taw to wat in wa kami serough ovidence it would be best if 16 could Alter hearing This Rame count only argi and kay hight) wil pefter andenca first time:'Haine Tek zmajor diamante kunt involved in a lawsuit with anyone for a long time Rains said with a smile.

Twere just taken away by CHARGING

Afin Evan Tmasi Rana kitu pone calite wooded on the door and sad faina, did you say statistika kasu aut expect the vip so manyänd she didnt made it ran for ginosa.

E

"She ever just a kit apunte mind party was the wheed your mon and

Rama Desanu move and move excited and another that he was varia father Hamam saatoit hadde des) am just a kid drik understand what

Raina thought as you sure you co

76

Chapter 76

After Evan went out, he picked up his small backpack and said to Raina in a repetitive manner.

"Raina to achieve great things, one must be stendy."

Raina thought to herself, " He said he doesn't understand.

I think you understand more than anyone."

'Study hard.Don't bother educating your aunt for no reason.I am more knowledgeable than you."

After Raina sent Evan off in the car, she immediately went to work at the Schmitt family subsidiary and had someone investigate evidence of Violet plagiarizing a song. Anika did not give up on this either.

She first called her assistant and asked him to inform Zeffari Media on behalf of the company about the plagiarism of the song.

Later, Anika had her assistant leave the chat records on both sides as evidence.

Violet's new song A Beam of Light In the World quickly rose to the top of major music download search rankings, and she herself became a hot topic of discussion.

Many netizens commented.

"Who said Violet was exhausted? Now you know you were wrong,right?"

"I wasn't a fan of Violet, but I really liked this song.

"This song sounded so melancholic..."

"Don't you know the story behind this song?"

This is the song Violet waited for Joshua to write for four years, it's her confession to him.I feel so sorry for Violet, she waited for Mr.Conan for so many years. Now that Mr.

Lu's ex-wife has passed away, she finally got what she wanted."

In less than a day, the comments under the song reached millions.

They didn't know that when Anika composed, it was during the three years she was married to Joshua and suffering from severe depression.

It was after she got married that she wrote to Joshua, but she couldn't let him hear it.

But now, it has become a song written by Violet for Joshua. How ridiculous....

Zeffari Media celebrated Violet's success today, and the atmosphere was lively.

www.

2/2

Chapter **

□□□□□□□□ □□ spy to be met □□□□□□

traphatty if a foreign kong was copredt was just eagled

Generally few people used to fie lowoutcañar al adamnational lawsuits wera time consuming and

What plagiarism? You ask the other party to presentvidence before making any claims

Violet was disdainful

With the current abilities and the support of the Conan family would a small foreign music company dare

to sue Violet

Even if they sell, they couldn't win.

Anika knew that Violet would not admit to plagratiam. The reason she had her assistant send an email to

Zeftan Media was primarily to ensure that when she sued Violet in the future, the public would know that she had warned them from the very moment Violet released the song

Today was Friday

Anika went in the headquarters first to work, preparing to meet Evan in the evening and spend the weekend together

At this moment in the kindergarten, was rest time.

The eldest grandson of the Conan family, Patrick, was completely defeated by Evan last time Nowing matter what Evan asks heute answers honestly

1/2

Are you really the heir of the Conan family?Evan asked.

My mom said that was the eldest grandchild of the Conan familyand from now on everything belonging to the Conan family would be mine"

Ever, however didn't believe it "But how did I hear that your uncle Joshua is now the owner of the Conan

Patrick sued "My uncle doesn't have a son again My mom said he has a problem and can't have

Patrick finished speaking and lowered his voice, My mom even said that when my uncle dies, his herence will also belong to me." "OfEvan pondered.

I wonder what Joshua would have thought upon hearing these words.

Patrick raised his eyebrows and said, Evan, as long as you follow me, I guarantee you will have a good life in the future

I don't know if Patrick learned this from his mother or from watching TV.

Even didn't mind and pretended not to believe.

Who doesn't brag?The Conan family is so big don't believe it's yours:

Your uncle Joshus is so young nowhe must have children I saw in the news that he is getting married to some female celebrity"

"When they get married, Violet will give birth to a baby boy for him. Then, you won't be the most beloved child of the Conan family anymore"

Patrick became anxious as soon as he heard Evan's words.

Patrick angrily threw away the clay in his hand and shouted.

"You're talking nonsense! My mom already told me that my uncle has a problem and he won't have

2/2

Evan continued to tease him, "What if your mom lied to you?"

Patrick didn't know how to answer. He thought for a moment and then lowered his voice.

"You are not allowed to tell anyone. I'm telling you, my uncle didn't like Violet at all."

Even seemed to have caught hold of an intriguing gossip and became serious. "Who told you?"

.

77

Chapter 77 Chapter 77

Violet

Violet never expected that it took her four years to become a singer and another four years to become a top female star. And now, with just one song and one day she was propelled to the divine realm.

Violet couldn't hide her excitement as she looked at the invitations for endorsements from various well-known brands that her assistant had brought.

You should know that becoming an international big brand, just like other celebrities, takes more than a decade, or even several decades of hard work to achieve.

She hadn't been happy for long when the assistant hurried over.

"Sister, someone from Ms. Aniya's company sent us a message, saying that our song was plagiarized, and demanded us to immediately take it down and apologize for compensation."

Violet frowned.

Violet obviously didn't expect to be discovered so quickly.

Originally, if a foreign song was copied it was just copied.

Generally, few people used to file lawsuits after all international lawsuits were time-consuming and laborious.

"What plagiarism? You ask the other party to present evidence before making any claims."

Violet was disdainful.

With her current abilities and the support of the Conan family, would a small foreign music company dare to sue Violet?

Even if they sued, they couldn't win.

Anika knew that Violet would not admit to plagiarism. The reason she had her assistant send an email to Zeffari Media was primarily to ensure that when she sued Violet in the future, the public would know that she had warned them from the very moment Violet released the song. Today was Friday.

Anika went to the headquarters first to work, preparing to meet Evan in the evening and spend the weekend together.

At this moment in the kindergarten, it was rest time.

The eldest grandson of the Conan family, Patrick, was completely defeated by Evan last time. Now, no matter what Evan asks him he answers honestly. "Are you really the heir of the Conan family?" Evan asked.

Chapter 77

Patrick played with the eraser while proudly saying. Of course.

"My mom said that I was the eldest grandchild of the Conan family and from now on, everything belonging to the Conan family would be mine."

Evan, however, didn't believe it. "But how did I hear that your uncle Joshua is now the owner of the Conan family?

Patrick sulked, "My uncle doesn't have a son again. My mom said he has a problem and can't have children."

Patrick finished speaking and lowered his voice, "My mom even said that when my uncle dies, his inheritance will also belong to me." "Oh," Evan pondered.

I wonder what Joshua would have thought upon hearing these words.

Patrick raised his eyebrows and said, Evan as long as you follow me. I guarantee you will have a good life in the future."

I don't know if Patrick learned this from his mother or from watching TV

Evan didn't mind and pretended not to believe.

"Who doesn't brag? The Conan family is so big. I don't believe it's yours."

"Your uncle Joshua is so young now he must have children. I saw in the news that he is getting married to some female celebrity."

"When they get married Violet will give birth to a baby boy for him. Then, you won't be the most beloved child of the Conan family anymore.*

Patrick became anxious as soon as he heard Evan's words.

Patrick angrily threw away the clay in his hand and shouted.

"You're talking nonsense! My mom already told me that my uncle has a problem and he won't have children!"

Evan continued to tease him, "What if your mom lied to you?"

Patrick didn't know how to answer. He thought for a moment and then lowered his voice.

You are not allowed to tell anyone. I'm telling you my uncle didn't like Violet at all."

Evan seemed to have caught hold of an intriguing gossip and became serious. "Who told you?"

.

78

Chapter 78

My mom and dad were talking when they said it. They said Violet and Uncle are together because she had previously saved Rachel."

Patrick whispered, 'I saw Uncle push Violet away earlier

Evan originally just wanted to find out about the Conan family from his mouth, but unexpectedly discovered Joshua's secret.

It needs to be investigated whether it is true or false,

"This is all your one-sided account."

Although Patrick did not understand Evan's meant he could also sense that Evan did not believe him.

"This weekend,it was my great-grandfather's birthday.

Violet was coming, and I was going to go with my parents. If you don't believe me,come along and see for yourself.

It really came effortlessly.

"Alright,if you are right,I will believe you. You must promise me a prosperous life, Evan agreed readily.

Anyway, he wouldn't have suffered any loss.

Evan went to Conan's residence this time to teach Violet, the bad woman, a lesson.

Violet not only stole Dad's belongings, but also dared to steal Mommy's work!

Damn it!

On the weekend Anika got into a private car and headed to Raina's house early in the morning.

On the way.

She looked at the heavy rain outside, lost in thought.

The driver occasionally spoke to her, "Ms. Carey. Mr.

Hume also enjoys looking out the window like you do while riding in the car."

"He often said that there was a little girl who liked to do this, saying that watching the rain outside would take away the sorrow

"So, that little girl was you."

Anika couldn't help but laugh.

"That must have been something I said a long time ago, Anika. I have even forgotten it myself."

The driver said again it's fate to meet you again, Mr. Hume."

1/2

Chapter 78

Anika finally arrived at Raina's villa,

Evan came back early today.

Raina and Evan welcomed Anika in.

"Anika, come in quickly, Raina and Evan are waiting for you to have dinner. "Raina and Evan both looked at her with anticipation.

"Okay."

Anika hadn't seen her child for a few days, so she couldn't help but hug Evan and rub his cheeks.

"How have you been doing recently at school?"

Anika's cheeks turned slightly red and she said, "Very well."

Raina replied, "My nephew Robinson said that he was very popular among young girls now, stealing the limelight from other boys."

Evan inherited the good genes from Anika and Joshua, and grew up to be particularly adorable and intelligent.

Raina thought that he would be a heartbreaker when he grew up.

"Mummy, I was very obedient, Evan continued.

Anika couldn't help but rub his cheeks and then planted a kiss on his forehead, saying, "That's good."

Evan's face instantly turned red with embarrassment

Evan took a long time to remember what he wanted to say.

"By the way, Mommy, I was going to my friend's house to play tomorrow."

He certainly didn't tell Anika that the friend was Patrick.

"It's great that you made friends so quickly, "Anika exclaimed sincerely. "Then you should rest early today.

"Uh-huh."

Evan finished his meal.

After Evan went to bed at night, Anika and Raina chatted together.

Raina took out two invitations and placed them in front of her.

"What is this?" Anika couldn't help but wonder.

"Tomorrow, the old Mr. Conan will celebrate his eightieth birthday. All the high-status people in Oasisville will be attending, "Raina lowered her voice. "Hasn't my dad always wanted me to get married? Thinking that there will definitely be many upper-class gentlemen at the Conan's place this time, my dad pulled some strings to get me an invitation. This one, I got it for you."

2/2

"Weren't you supposed to get close to Joshua? I think this was an opportunity."

Dear 79

Chapter 79

Anika couldn't help but feel touched, "Thank you, Raina."

"We don't say thank you to each other. Last time, I even asked you to help me with a blind date, and this time you can help me too. Raina dislikes these parties the most.

it

Before Raina went abroad, Jim would take her to various parties.

The purpose was to let Raina meet young men who were wealthy and influential, as her family was tired of

"Okay."

Raina cheered her on, "This time, you must make the cold-hearted Joshua fall for you and sleep with him!"

"Um."

Anika almost succeeded last time, but unfortunately...

Tomorrow, Anika

Tomorrow, Anika will plan carefully.

Suddenly, I thought of something and asked Raina, "Did you say Violet will also attend Jeffery's birthday banquet?

"Definitely. How could she possibly miss the opportunity to please the Conan family and marry into the Conan family?" Raina replied.

Anika's lips curled up.

"This time when we went, we could also give Violet a big gift."

The next day.

Evan got up early in the morning.

Jeffery's birthday party was scheduled for 10 o'clock in the morning.

out, and

The reason Evan arrived so early was twofold. Firstly, he was afraid that Anika would find out, and secondly, he was invited by Patrick.

Anika prepared a gift box for him to give to his friend.

Anika didn't know that Evan's friend was Patrick, the eldest grandson of the Conan family.

Evan also didn't dare to tell her. If Anika knew she definitely wouldn't agree to Evan going to the Conan's residence

So, Evan casually used the names of other classmates in the class. Evan and Patrick agreed to meet at the entrance of the kindergarten. The car Andu pedovedi a

"Well the men expansion can in your family was only a few million

Patrick pulled him to a beelde him and said You will follow me from now on When you grow up! will take you them"

Even howeveresid Wait until you can make the decision

Patrick immediately became unhappy

"What do you mean by not being able to make decisions?"

When you come to my house later, you will know my position"

In fact during these days in kindergarten Evan noticed how much Patrick was valued by the Conan family.

Every day different luxury cars were used for pick ups and drop-offs.acting as bodyguards, with a minimum of ten

There were also some elders from the Conan family who when they had time, would personally come to pick him up and take him home

Along the way.Evan listened to Patrick bragging about how wealthy he was having a private plane,a private amusement park, and so on.....

Evan didn't envy these things. He knew that when he grew up he would get everything he wanted.

Finally they arrived at the Conan's residence.

At that time,the guests had not arrived yet.

Conan's residence was very large, covering an area of over 20,000 square meters, which is equivalent to about three World Cup football fields.

At a glance, there is no end in sight. Even with a whole day it is impossible to explore it all.

Some buildings were classical and the building materials were expensive

Evan followed Patrick out of the car Soon, servants came to receive the two of them.

Evan looked at the luxurious Conan's residence

Evan still admired Joshua to some extent in his heart because according to Evan's research, the Conan family, although a prominent and influential family, was not as powerful as it is now in the beginning. It was all because Joshua took over the Conan Group and gradually expanded, establishing a business empire.

"le mu hauna hin and hasutiful?) et ma tall sau it all ha mina in the futurall

Chapter My

E

Eep to five years have passed, and Visit to conceive Joshua's child relat

Roger left respectfully

When finger walked to the douche happened to see from guys.

Hugerahouted

Patrick waved his hand at tum.

Roger left gracefully

Factuel over fud a good impression of Patrick Every time she faced him, she would just put on a show for othera

Froze

Patrick was not Rachels grandson har al hun

impatiently Rachel glanced over and was about to tell him to go play sewhere when her gaza suddenly place

one

Rachel stared at the handsome boy next to Patrick with just cow glance from afar,she was frozen in

Why does that child look so much like Josue when he was young?

Rachel stepped out of it and quickly called for a servant

Go and bring Patrice and the child to bu ned.

Chapter 80

Rachel set aside the flowers in her hand that she hadn't put into the vase yet.

Even came here without wearing a mask. He didn't expect that the first person he would see today would be his own grandmother

The person who used to bully Mommy

The servant called two people over

Patrick introduced to Evan, This is my uncle's mother, my great-aunt'

"Um."

Seeing two children approaching, Rachel's gaze never left Evan's body.

It was just too similar,

Joshua and I were like two peas in a pod when we were younger.

Evan was perceptive and noticed her gaze.

Evan was puzzled in his mind, could it be that she recognized him?

"Hello, Auntie," Patrick called obediently.

"Uh-huh," Rachel nodded indifferently.

Evan followed suit and politely said, "Mrs. Conan, hello

Evan's sweet voice instantly melted Rachel's cold heart.

She bent down, and all eyes were fixed on Evan. Evan was not just like Joshua.

There was a special sense of warmth about him.

"Child, what is your name? Where do you live and how old are you now?" Rachel's voice was particularly gentle.

It was completely different from the indifference towards Patrick just now.

Evan felt a hint of confusion in his heart towards Rachel, who was so kind and amiable.

According to Evan's investigation, his grandmother, when she was young, was rumored to be an Iron lady, cold-hearted and ruthless. However, is there some difference when they meet?

2/2

"My name is Evan, I live in Westriver, and I was almost 4 years old."

Evan didn't want to bother his mom, so he gave Rachel a rough address.

"Evan..." Rachel looked at him, feeling more awkward, and asked, "Is your father's last name Carey?"

Evan nodded, afraid of exposing his identity.

Rachel was clearly disappointed, but she still didn't give up. "So, who is your mother?"

A trace of peculiarity flickered in Evan's bright and clear eyes,

Chapter 1

Pairok

Toucher generally ignore Prince and actually even so much trick

patt

"Mrs Conan

Cenar) I

ook van toe do other you anymore"

Rachel couldn't stop them wither and sandkaight make fun if you need anything just come find ma

After the two children left Rachel was still unwilling

Rachel called her secretary

"Take some time to find out the identity of this child want to know who his parents are."

Rachel thought that this child really resembled Joshua when he was young

Rachel believed that if Joshua had children they would definitely look like Evan

By the way did Joshua come?"

The secretary glanced at the time and said, "There is still one hour until the banquet starts. Mr Conan should still be on his way"

Rachel nodded When Joshua arrived, Rachel would ask him to pay more attention to the young lady at the Banquet

Rachel hoped that Joutius could get mated soon and then have a child soon,

1/3

On the other side

Anka and Rama were choosing dresses to wear to the party

Chapter 51

The simpler and more ordinary the clothes were the more Anika appeared bright and charming

Raina was stunned and said, "Wow You look really handsome."

"Most people need clothes to adorn themselves, but you managed to wear this outfit with a unique flavor."

Anika smiled coyly, appearing even more attractive.

Actually, Raina was not bad either.

Raina was different from Anika. Although Raina didn't have the same stunning appearance as Anika, she gave people a very comfortable feeling.

Anika and Raina walked out together. The drivers who were driving thought they were beautiful.

Anika and Raina set off together to the Conan's residence

Anika remembered the last time she went to the Conan's residence was five years ago.

Time passed so quickly.

Outside the Conan's residence.

There were a lot of luxury cars.

Today was the birthday of the head of the Conan family. The important figures of Oasisville all came to attend, and they also brought their own children.

Raina's father had been waiting outside early in the morning.

This time, he was going to keep an eye on Raina. He hoped that Raina could find a wealthy boyfriend here.

Raina had a headache as soon as she saw her father.

"Anika, it seems like you will have to go find Joshua by yourself later."

"I needed to distract my dad for a while."

Anika nodded and said, "Okay."

Raina got off the car first and then walked towards her father.

"Dad."

"Why did you come so late? Do you know that many wealthy young ladies have already arrived? They even went to please Mrs. Conan..." Jim couldn't help but nag as soon as he saw Raina. Raina could only give perfunctory answers on the side.

Anika sat in the car. Watching Raina and her father's figures, Anika felt genuine envy.

Anika thought that if her father were still here, she could be walking arm in arm with him today.

Anika didn't stay sad for too long. She asked the driver to find a place with fewer people to park, and then she got off the car.