

Chapter 41 Starting The Plan

Hunter's P.O.V.

Ella, Emma and I walk out the backdoor of the Palace and I hear Pops whistle at us before he says. "Ladies, you look amazing." I hear my Brothers gasp as they look at me and I have to stifle a smile.

"Princess, I love your hair cut. It really suits you." Gabe states and I thank him with a smile on my face. "Gabe is right, Princess. You made a great decision with this new style." Dad says as he hugs me tightly.

I turn my head towards Brent and I know that my Brothers will get a good look at how much I actually cut off. Emma and Ella keep an eye on them as Ella films their reaction and we all hear them growl at the sight of my back.

"Princess, why did you cut it?" Jayce asks and I tell him I was tired of the length and the heaviness of all that hair. The look on their faces tells me that they don't like it at all and I let Micha know how to start up our conversation.

Mom tells me that it is almost time and my eyes look for Matt, who is standing near the bar. Emma and Ella watch him as well and the three of us really hope that he will find his Mate tonight, but it won't worry us too much if he doesn't.

His head snaps to my right and I follow his line of sight, to see Victor make his way over to Matt. Ella, Emma and I start cheering as we realize that they are Mates and I couldn't be happier for the both of them.

"I didn't see that one coming." Dad says and the girls and I laugh as we see the look on my Brothers' faces. Emma and Ella pull me with them as they head for the bar and we leave my Brothers behind.

After an hour we are back with my family and that is Micha's cue to make the first move in our plan. "Princess Hunter." He bows his head as he greets me and I turn my head towards him with a smile on my face.

"Hello Micha, no luck tonight?" I ask and he shakes his head. "I like what you did with your hair. It really suits you." He says and I thank him for the compliment, but we both have to stifle a smile as my Brothers growl again.

Peter, Chris and Adam join us and compliment me and the girls on our outfits. After a few minutes Adam asks if we want to join them at the bonfire. "Mom, can I go?" I ask her at the same time the girls ask their Mom the same question, sending us all into a fit of laughter.

"Boys, make sure the girls get safely back to the Palace and no later than at two o'clock. Am I making myself clear?" Dad says and the four of them nod their heads, before we walk away.

We have a blast at the bonfire and Micha and I get to know one another a little better. "I have waited almost half my life to find my Mate and I am willing to wait twice that long for her." He says and I ask him how old he is.

"I am thirty-five." He answers and I smile up at him, "Does this mean I have to call you Daddy?" I say with a smirk on my face and we all start laughing. They have us back at the Palace at one thirty and when Micha sees Justin on his balcony he pulls me into his arms.

"If looks could kill, you could bury me in the morning." He whispers in my ear and I softly laugh as I slide my arms around his neck. He puts his nose in my neck and slowly blows air out, making me giggle. I peck his cheek before I wish him Goodnight and walk inside with the girls.

Justin's P.O.V.

Slade went nuts in my head when he saw Hunter and I couldn't believe she cut off her hair. We told her we didn't want her to cut it and she had done it anyway. She looked stunning with the light make-up and her black dress.

As she started cheering I was looking around what the reason was and I felt relieved when I saw that Victor found his Mate. Damn, his Mate turned out to be Matt, Hunter's friend.

I kept my eye on Hunter as she walked around with the twins and when Jayce asked me their names I couldn't answer him, because I never talked to them. That's when it had hit me, Hunter had been right we never took the time to talk to her friends.

Slade felt a lot better when she was near us again, but he got agitated when Micha came over and complimented her on her hair cut. I wanted to object when she was invited to the bonfire, but Dad gave all of us a stern look and we didn't say a word.

I am on my balcony staring at the night sky and I know that I won't be able to sleep until she is back inside the Palace. A noise makes me step forward, but what I see makes me murderous.

Micha pulls Hunter into his arms and Slade is roaring in my head, I want to kill the fucking idiot for touching my Mate. She kisses him before they go into the Palace and I watch as Micha stares after Hunter.

I walk into my room and listen at the door until I hear the girls enter Hunter's room, finally able to breathe again. Slade is howling in my head and I am feeling lost right now. Our Mate seems to have an interest for another male and there is nothing we can do.

I lay on my bed with my eyes closed, hoping to calm myself and Slade down. We need to deal with this, but before I can find an answer sleep overcomes me and soon I am fast asleep.

I walk out of my bathroom to see the most beautiful sight in front of me, a female with my mark on her shoulder and I quickly close the gap between us. I slide my arms around her, pulling her into my chest as I kiss my mark.

One hand travels up her body, while the other travels down her body and the both reach their destination at the same time. I squeeze her breast with my right hand as my left hand slide through her wet slit and I groan as I let my finger push inside her.

She turns her head towards me, looking at me with lust filled eyes and I can't believe I am holding my Princess in my arms. Her hand glides around my neck and she pulls me closer to kiss her.

My cock grows harder as my tongue snakes its way into her mouth, her tongue wrapping itself around mine and I growl in pleasure. My finger is still slowly pumping in and out of her pussy and I add a second one as her hips start to move.

Her muscles start to squeeze my fingers and I know that I am close to pushing her over the edge, I can't wait to see her come undone on my fingers. A few more times of pushing my fingers in and out make her come, her juices gushing out and soaking my fingers and hand.

I barely give her time to come down from her high as I push her against the wall, still with her back towards me and I use my knee to spread her legs. "I want to come inside you, Princess." I whisper as I line my cock up with her entrance.

She moans as my cock plunges into her core and I gently bite down on my mark, making her moan even louder. Slowly I move in and out of her as I watch my cock disappear into her folds.

She pushes back on my cock, taking me inside as deep as she can take me and soon my grunts match the pace of her panting. I hammer my cock into her pussy with a possessive fury and I feel my balls tighten as I get closer to my release.

I feel her pussy muscles squeeze my shaft tightly inside her as I feel her body shake. She moans loudly as she reaches her climax, I push myself inside her as far as I can, before I stiffen to explode inside her.

I close my eyes as I steady my breathing, smiling as I think of the woman in my arms and that is when someone knocks loudly on my door. I groan as I open my eyes and find myself wrapped in my sheets, sweaty, covered in my own cum and alone.

"Fuck, Slade. What the hell! I really thought she was here, I saw our mark on her shoulder." I mumble as I untangle myself, before I put on sweats to open the door.

Jayce is standing in front of me and he looks pissed as hell, Jax and Jason are standing right behind him and they don't look any better. "What is going on?" I ask and Jayce tells me to get to his office.
