

Chapter 150 Deltas

Nero's p.o.v.

“What the fuck is she wearing?” I yell over the link with my Brothers and their heads snap towards the entrance of the dining room. Don't get me wrong she looks hot like hell, but my Brothers and I aren't the only males staring at her with lustful eyes and I know everyone can hear us growl. I can see that the moment she looks at Noah that she can see the disapproval in his eyes, but as she sits down I can tell that she will never listen to Noah when it comes to her outfits.

I see her looking at Anton and the moment his comment registers I hear Noah roar, but I doubt it is because Anton can tell us apart too. When Noah is this pissed off only our Alpha can get him to back down, but when Alayah places her hand on his arm I see an immediate change in my Brother and as he is holding her in his arms I sigh in relief. “Thank the Goddess that our Angel can calm you down, Noah.” I hear Nikolay say through our mind-link.

“Fuck, that is funny to watch.” Miku says as we both look at Anton arguing with his Lycan and now I understand why Dad would chuckle from time to time, he probably saw one of us arguing with our Lycan. I never thought anyone could tell if you were talking or arguing with your Wolf or Lycan, but apparently I had been mistaken about that and I vow to myself to try and remember that.

After breakfast we follow Marc to his office and I have to adjust myself as I watch Alayah's ass swaying in front of me, “Fuck, she is going to be the death of me.” I hear Nathan growl through our mind-link and I know my Brothers have the same problem I do, now more than ever I hope that Alayah is our Mate. If she is not our Mate I fear Noah might kill someone in the near future and if she is our Mate we will claim her as soon as she will allow us.

Nikolay is a bit faster than I am and he has his hand on her lower back as he guides her towards the sitting area in Marc's office. Noah beats me to the seat on her other side and it is that I know he isn't that childish or he would have said Nah, Nah, Nah, Nah, Nah through our mind-link. Once we all have our coffee Marc turns his attention towards my Brothers, “As you know we had to make a few changes with Crystal and me being Mates and our Packs bordering one another.

The biggest change will be combining our Packs, but I believe the smaller changes will cause the most headache and we are going to need all the help we can get. Being an Alpha Beta or Gamma to a large Pack is a busy and responsible position, but in our case it will be even worse. Crystal has asked Alayah to become her Beta and I am glad she accepted the position, mostly because Alayah doesn't seem to hate paperwork.” Marc says and we all chuckle.

“Nero, your job will be busier than what your Father is used to. You have to look after the safety of a combined Pack and keeping track of everything will be a stressful job, Erick will help you out where he can as our Delta but he can only do so much. Noah, Nathan and Nikolay, would you be willing to accept the position of Delta when Crystal and I take over from our Fathers?” Marc asks as he looks at my Brothers.

“Fuck, I hadn't seen that one coming.” Noah mumbles. “Well, at least it will mean we get to work together.” I reply and I decide to break the link, my Brothers need to decide for themselves and I don't want them to accept the positions because they think I want them to accept it. “You knew he was going to ask them.” I say as I look at Alayah and she nods her head, I shouldn't be surprised she was informed as Crystal's Beta.

I watch my Brothers as they are discussing the request and I chuckle as I see their facial expression change from time to time, it is similar to watching Anton argue with his Lycan. It takes them a little while before they look at Marc and accept the positions of Deltas. “Thank the Goddess, I would be dead in a year if I had to do it on my own.” Erick mumbles.

Erick's Father will train my Brothers for as far as it is necessary because they already hold the position of Head Warrior in Autumn Pack, but Noah knows there will be a few tasks added to their workload. After our meeting my Brothers and I head up to the Gamma floor, Noah wants to make a call home and after that we will join Erick and his Father. I like the idea of my Brothers staying in the Pack-house with me and the fact that we will be working as a team.

“Dad, is Mara there too?” I hear Noah ask and I can hear my Dad calling out to her. “What is it, Noah?” I hear her ask and I can tell that she is worried. “Mara, calm down. Alayah is fine. Noah has some news he wants to share with the two of you.” I say, I see a small smile on Noah's face and I know he heard the same thing in Mara's voice I did.

“We were offered the Delta position in Autumn Moon Pack.” Noah says without hesitating and for a moment it is completely quiet on the other end of the line. “What? Why?” Dad asks and Noah explains to him what their job will entail, once he is done explaining it is quiet again.

“Well, that makes sense. Autumn Moon Pack will need Deltas in their leadership to keep the Pack safe. Congratulations, Boys.” Dad says and we talk for a few more minutes, before Noah tells Dad and Mara we have to get going.
