

Chapter 186 A Lot Better

Nero's p.o.v.

“What are you going to do now, Angel?” Noah asks. “You left Crimson Moon Pack because you’re angry with your family for not telling you the truth. I know we are still trying to figure this out and if there is a true Mate-bond between the five of us we will protect you with our lives.” Alayah smiles at him before she says, “I am not sure how Pack-members here will react to our Mate-bond and I am not sure if I want to find out, but I also don’t want to return to Crimson Moon Pack.”

I ask her if it would be wise if we ask Alpha Gordon about his opinion, but before she can answer the door to our floor opens and I growl softly when I smell the scent of Lily. Well, I am not exactly smelling her scent but the perfume she always wears and Miku really hates the scent. “What the fuck is she doing here?” Lily yells as she points at Alayah and Noah gets up as he releases a mighty roar, Lily has no right to be so disrespectful to another Wolf or Lycan.

Lily looks at me as if I am going to help her, but she got herself into this mess and she can try to get herself out of it. “Alayah has more right to be here than you and she deserves to be shown respect as the Daughter of your Gamma female. Next to that Crystal has asked her to become Crystal’s Beta, because she is the Granddaughter of Crimson Moon Pack’s former Beta and if her Father hadn’t declined the position she would be the future Beta of Crimson Moon Pack anyway.” Noah growls.

Lily is cowering in front of Noah, but she keeps glancing my way every now and then. “Angel, I need you to calm Miku down. He is getting very agitated with Lily.” I tell her through the mind-link and a moment later I feel her arms wrap around my neck as she sits down on my lap, “Calm down, Miku. I am right here and I am not going anywhere.” She says as she presses her forehead against mine and I can feel Miku calm down fast, Alayah’s scent is pushing Lily’s scent to the back.

“Noah, can you come here?” Alayah asks as she stretches her hand towards him and Lily crashes to the floor when he pulls his aura back. He wraps his hands around her waist as he kneels down next to her and I hear Nikolay and Nathan chuckle when Lily screams, “No.” I can tell that others have walked in to the living room, but I refuse to take my eyes from Alayah’s eyes and I doubt whoever is standing in the living room is bothered by it.

“What is going on here?” I hear Alpha Gordon ask and I know Lily will make the best of this opportunity. I don’t know how Alpha Gordon will react to the four of us having a true Mate-bond with Alayah, but truth be told I don’t care and I know my Brothers don’t care either. “She is seducing her Stepbrothers. She wants to lure one of them into a false Mate-bond.” Lily yells and it surprises me when Alayah starts laughing her ass off.

“Xavier, care to explain this?” Alpha Gordon asks and Dad tells him that we all feel a connection to Alayah and that she feels a connection to all of us. “Of course she does, they are siblings.” Lily yells again and we all look towards the doorway when we hear the sound of a slap. “Lily, shut the fuck up. There is no sibling bond between them and there is no blood between them. MY daughter feels a bond with HIS Sons.” Mara says, pointing at herself when she said MY and pointing at Dad when she said HIS.

But I guess it would have been better if Mara had tried to knock some sense into a tree, “What the fuck, they are siblings. You can’t allow this to happen, Alpha Gordon.” Lily yells, but this time Alayah is the one that responds and as she gets up we can feel her Alpha aura seeping out of her. “Angel, calm down. If Alpha Gordon feels the same way as Lily does we will head to Crimson Moon Pack, at least there we know they will accept our Mate-bond.” Nikolay says as he steps in front of her.

He cups her face in his hands as he places his forehead against hers and I can feel that her aura gets pulled back, thank the Goddess for that. Alpha Gordon orders Lily to leave the Gamma floor and I am glad that is one thing she can’t go against, but it also means that she will tell everyone about what she saw here. “And not a word to anyone about what you saw here.” He orders her and I sigh in relief because it will give us some time to prepare ourselves for the gossip.

Dad explains everything to Alpha Gordon, except for her abilities and her heritage. Alpha Gordon doesn’t need to know there is another Alpha in his territory and I feel much better knowing that this will remain a secret a while longer, I am not sure how Marc took the news of Alayah being an Alpha. He didn’t want to talk about it after Grandfather dropped that bomb on us and even Crystal avoided the subject.

“I know the story your Mother is referring to, it has been put into our Pack rules the same way as it is in Crimson Moon Pack rules. Alpha Randell told me about it and I agree with him that as long as there is no blood between a couple they have my blessing. If anyone gives you trouble I want to know about it, after all I am still the Alpha and I won’t accept any disrespect.” Alpha Gordon says and I think we all feel a lot better.
