

Chapter 216 Privacy

Alayah's p.o.v.

Nathan doesn't give me time to respond to his action as he lifts me up until I am hovering over Noah's rock-hard shaft, I gasp the moment his cock touches my entrance and Nathan slowly lowers me over his cock. I place my hands on Noah's chest as I take in his cock and the moment he bottoms out Nathan releases my hips, forcing my body to take in his cock to the hilt.

Noah's hands replace Nathan's hands to help me glide up and down his cock and I feel Nathan's hand between my legs to coat his fingers with my juices, just before he slides them up to my ass.

Startled I look over my shoulder as I expect him to slowly insert one finger and it catches me off guard as he pushes two fingers in, I scream at the intrusion but it last just a second. I moan the moment Noah pulls his cock back, while Nathan's fingers are still buried deep in my ass.

Both of them pick up the pace as one slides his cock in and out of my pussy, while the other is pumping his fingers in my ass, I start moaning louder as they pick up the pace further.

When Nathan puts his hand on my shoulder to push me onto Noah's chest I don't object, Nathan starts pumping his fingers faster and with this new angle I am losing myself quickly in a bliss.

I feel Nathan moving behind me, just before I feel his cock nudging against my ass and his cock enters my ass after one hard push to open up my backdoor.

Nathan leans forward to easy himself further into my body as Noah pulls his cock out of my pussy, once Nathan has filled my back hole to the hilt, Noah only has the head of his cock still inside my pussy and as Noah starts pushing his cock back in Nathan slowly starts pulling out his cock.

I feel so full with both their cocks inside my body, they keep their movements slow and it is driving me insane. "Please, stop teasing me. Fuck me hard." I whisper when I can't take it anymore and I gasp as they stop alternating their ministrations.

My breathing is heavy and I feel how they push me closer to my orgasm as they lose control of their rhythm.

"Fuck, Princess. I am going to cum." I hear Noah growl, just before I feel Nathan slam into my ass to release his load and I come hard as Noah bottoms out to shoot his cum into my pussy. Nathan slowly pulls out of me before he collapses on the bed next to me, it takes the three of us a while before our breathing has leveled out.

Topaz has retreated to the back of my mind to get some rest and when I finally look at my Mates I see both of them smiling at me.

"Are you okay, Princess?" Noah asks, I nod my head in response. Nathan lifts me from Noah's body and takes me with him into the bathroom, he places me on the counter before he turns on the shower. A small smile appears on my face as he grabs everything I am going to need, after he checks the warmth of the water he lifts me off the counter and steps into the shower with me in his arms.

Noah walks into the bathroom to find me and his Brother in the shower, but I think a bomb could go off without us noticing. Nathan is sitting on a small seat built into the shower and I am riding his cock hard, he steps behind me in the shower to push a finger into my backdoor. It glides in easy with Nathan's cum still in there, he doesn't hesitate as he pulls his finger out to replace it with his cock and he starts pounding me hard and fast.

"Just like that." I mumble as my Mates slam into my body at the same time. Nathan looks up at me as I am mumbling incoherent and he has a huge grin on his face as I hear him say, "Looks like our Princess loves it hard and fast, I can't wait to sneak up on her and bent her over whatever surface is nearest." Noah growls out loud as I picture myself bent over a kitchen table or the back of a couch with one of my Mates pounding into me, showing those images to my Mates at the same time.

I feel their cocks grow even harder than they already were, Nathan whispers into my ear that each of them will enjoy to make those images I pictured in their heads to come true and I feel myself clenching around their cocks.

"She likes it when you talk dirty to her." Noah grumbles behind me. "I can't wait to have a place of our own, I will make sure there are enough surfaces for us to bent you over. Maybe we should put the rule in place that you have to wear dresses inside without underwear to accommodate us." He whispers in my ear.

I scream my release as they keep pounding into my body and I feel Noah's cock twitch as my ass clenches around his cock, it only takes Nathan and Noah a few more pumps before they shoot their cum into my body once again. Once we are all breathing normal again Nathan washes my hair and Noah quickly cleans himself before they switch places. Nathan lifts me out of the shower into Noah's waiting arms who is holding out a towel for me and I giggle as he starts drying me off.

The moment we walk out of the bathroom I lock eyes with Nero and when he beckons me with his finger I walk towards him, "On your knees." He orders, he holds my hands until I am on my knees in front of him. He places my hands on the waistband of his jeans, I open the button and slowly lower the zipper, never taking my eyes away from Nero's eyes as I pull his jeans down. His cock is right in front of my mouth and I slowly stick out my tongue to lick off a drop of pre-cum.

Nero growls as I lick his cock from base to top before I open my mouth and let it slide in to my mouth over my tongue, the moment I close my lips around his cock he groans loudly. One of my hands holds the base of his cock, moving up and down in rhythm with my head and my other hand is squeezing his balls gently. "Oh, Fuck.. Princess." Nero groans as I start sucking harder, grazing his flesh with my teeth from time to time.

I can feel Nero getting closer to releasing his load as I keep moving up and down his cock and the moment I gently nip the tip of his cock his hips buck forward into my mouth. I moans loudly around his cock and the vibration sends him over the edge, sending his cum in spurts down my throat. I keep sucking and licking until his balls are empty and his cock is clean. I slowly stand up straight and my eyes are locked with Nero's eyes, "Was this what you wanted?" I ask softly before our lips touch.

He wraps his arms around me as he deepens the kiss and I slide my arms around his neck to pull him closer to me, our tongues engaged into a slow, sensual dance. It isn't until we break the kiss that I realize it is just Nero and myself in the bedroom, looks like my Mates wanted to give us some privacy.
