

Chapter 225 Breakfast

Alayah's p.o.v.

I am enjoying the slow and steady pace Khal and Miku have found and I feel Topaz coming to the surface, she wants to join in the fun as well.

She flashes me an image I am not sure what to think of and for the time being I will store it somewhere at the back of my mind, but it seems that my Mates noticed it anyway.

"What has your Pussy clenching my cock so hard?" Khal growls and I hear them chuckle as I hide my face in Khal's chest.

The image Topaz showed me seems impossible to me, but then again I never have been with a male before. I am not sure if I can tell them what she showed me, that is until Miku threatens that they will stop fucking me if I don't tell them what happened and I think he has found just the way to get information from me. I hear all four of them growl as I describe the image Topaz showed me and I feel two cocks inside me twitch.

"We will get there, Princess. Don't worry about it, someday soon you will be ready." Eiji growls next to my ear and I feel myself clench around both cocks.

Khal and Miku start to move at the same time and I scream their names the moment they are balls deep inside me, filling me to the brim with their cocks. They pull back at the same time and push back into my body together, pushing me to another orgasm fast.

It doesn't take long before they pick up speed on their ministrations and the harder they pound in to me the more I want.

"Harder, please." I moan as they fill me to the brim once more and I am glad the Lycans of my Mates are in control, because they start pounding even harder into my ass and pussy. Making me come again, but they aren't finished with me yet and I hope my body can handle another orgasm.

I feel Miku leaning down my back, pushing his cock even deeper and I moan loudly at the sensation it sends through my body.

"I am close to coming, Princess. I am going to show you that you can handle us." He whispers next to my ear and the next moment I feel his cock slipping from my ass, making me whimper at the loss of feeling him inside me.

"Miku." I scream the moment I feel his cock pushing into my pussy, making me feel more full than ever before.

"Fuck, that looks hot." I hear Yuma growl and I know he will give me a repeat of this the moment he gets the change.

Topaz is enjoying this as much as I am, but she tells me that after breakfast she wants some time with our Mates and I know from stories that that will be a hell of a lot wilder than this.

It only takes Khal and Miku a few seconds to find their rhythm again and with every few thrusts into my body they pick up their speed.

The harder and faster they slam into my body the more I am enjoying this and I hope I can keep myself from coming for a little longer, because I don't want this feeling to stop.

"Princess, what are you doing?" I hear Yuma ask next to my ear and when I shake my head he grabs my chin, "Don't lie to me, Princess." He growls and I feel like I got caught with my hand in the cookie jar, but I shake my head again.

Eiji turns my face towards him and the look in his eyes has my pussy clenching, almost making me lose control of my restraint.

"Princess." Eiji growls as he looks at me and I start to whine when I realize that Khal and Miku stopped moving, "Answer the question, Princess." Eiji growls again and softly I tell him I didn't want the feeling to stop, that I love the feeling of Khal and Miku pounding my pussy at the same time.

Without another word Eiji releases my chin and Khal and Miku start moving again, but this time they don't build up their speed.

It only takes a few moments before the three of us climax together and as I come down from my orgasm I feel Miku and Khal pulling out of me, but I don't get a chance to feel disappointed.

I get lifted from Khal's chest and the next moment I am staring into Eiji's eyes, his rock hard shaft entering my pussy.

I want to tell him to start moving, but I stop myself when I feel Yuma moving behind me and I moan loudly as he pushes his cock into my pussy.

"You will always get what you want, Princess. Don't ever forget that." Miku says next to my ear and I scream in pleasure as Eiji and Yuma start pounding in and out of my pussy, another orgasm building fast.

I feel their cocks twitch just before Yuma leans down and whispers, "Princess, come." Making me shatter into a million pieces.

I place my head on Eiji's chest to catch my breath and I softly whimper when Yuma and Eiji pull their cocks from my pussy. Eiji's hand slowly moves up and down my back, my eyes slowly closing as I enjoy the feeling. "Princess, you need to wake up." I hear someone whisper next to my ear and I softly growl at whoever has the audacity to wake me from my peaceful sleep.

I squeal the moment a hand collides with my ass, but I moan when a hand collides with my ass a second time and I hear a soft groan coming from under me.

I lift my head up to look into Noah's eyes and I smile at him just before I slam my lips onto his, gently biting his bottom lip to get access to his mouth. "No, not happening. You need to get into the bathroom, I already prepared a bath for you." I hear Nero say and Noah sits up straight with me still in his arms.

He gets up from the bed as I wrap my arms around his neck and I quickly wrap my legs around his waist. Noah walks into the bathroom and I smile when I see that Nero did prepare a bath for me, I love that he is so thoughtful.

It isn't until Noah lowers me into the tub that I realize I needed it and I thank Nero for thinking about preparing my bath, "Anything for you, Princess. I just hope our Lycans weren't too rough last night." He says and I turn slightly red as I think of last night.

I tell them that Topaz would like some time with her Mates after breakfast and I see all four Lycans pushing forward, looks like Topaz isn't the only one that would like some time with her Mates.

Noah's eyes widen as he looks at me and I think it is safe to say that Eiji told him what we did last night. I want to ask him why he wasn't aware of what we did, but he already answer my question when he tells me that their Lycans had put up a block.

I get to soak in the tub while my Mates go through their morning routine and when they are ready Nero tells me to get out of the tub, that it is almost time for breakfast.
