

Chapter 233 Suited

Alayah's p.o.v.

I was impressed when I saw all the Lycans lined up next to the Pack-house, but now I am even more impressed. They managed to take up their position without alerting Crimson Moon Pack and Topaz is laughing her ass off when the Warriors at the gate look a bit stupefied at the flags on our SUV or maybe it is the fact that they recognized me.

Every Wolf and Lycan gets taught about the kind of Pack Blood Stone Pack once was, how a Pack could recognize a member of Blood Stone Pack and I plan to reinstate all of it.

I know I have the Law on my side and can enter the territory whenever I like, but I will wait for the Warriors to tell us to proceed or to wait for Alpha Randell and Marc. "The Alpha is waiting for you at the Pack-house, Alayah." One of the Warriors says.

Anton drives the SUV into the territory and every Wolf and Lycan we pass stops to look at the long convoy of SUVs that are driving towards the Pack-house. Most of the follow us when they have gotten over the initial shock and I am glad we will have a lot of witnesses to the task that lies ahead of me.

Alpha Randell, Gamma John and Marc are waiting for us on the front porch of the Pack-house, I was instructed to wait in the SUV until my Warriors were in place and Bastian slowly walks around the SUV to open the door for me. Noah gets out first before he reaches his hand in to help me out of the SUV, Nathan and Nero got out of the SUV on the other side and Nikolay is right behind me.

"Alpha Randell, may I introduce you to Alpha Alayah of Blood Stone Pack. The rightful Alpha of Blood Stone Pack and by accepting her title Blood Stone Pack will once again resume its function as Judge, Jury and Executioner." Anton says and if this was the first time I had heard it I would have rolled my eyes at him, but everyone needs to know that there will be someone to hunt them down if they break the Law.

Alpha Radell and Marc seem to be shocked to hear what Anton said, but Gamma John is a smart man and he quickly steps down from the porch. "Alpha Alayah, welcome to Crimson Moon Pack. I assume you are here to collect your belongings?." He says and as I look into his eyes I realize that he is trying to keep Alpha Randell and Marc from finding the real reason I am here, at least for now.

"John, as a matter of fact we are here to gather some of our belongings. Just the things we can take with us in the SUVs, but I would appreciate it if the rest can be transported to Blood Stone Pack by truck." Grandfather says and that seems to snap Alpha Randell out of his shock.

"That is fine, but Paul, Anton and Nero need to stay. We can't run this Pack with just the two of us." Alpha Randell says as he points at John and himself. "The rest of you can go to your room or house and pack up your belongings, mark the items we need to transport for you."

I can feel Nero getting angry and I step in front of him as I wrap my arms around his waist, "Calm down, by the time we are done there won't be an Alpha left." I say to him through the mind-link and I feel him relaxing into my arms as he buries his nose in my neck. I wait until I am absolutely that he won't attack Alpha Randell for what he just implied.

"I am sorry, Alpha Randell. I think you have miss understood our visit. I am here because of the Laws you and your family have broken, I am here to pass judgement and to execute the punishment." I say once Anton has assured me that most Pack-members are within hearing range. "I will start with the latest crime your family has committed, drugging a young female to make her feel a false Mate-bond."

It doesn't take a second for the first Pack-member to speak up, "Who did such a heinous thing?" Is asked and I allow the rest to voice their outrage about it. Marc is looking as if I have nothing on him, but he pales the moment Crystal steps next to me and he knows there is nothing he can say or do to escape justice.

"Every Wolf and Lycan knows why Blood Stone Pack was founded and we all know what happened to that Pack a little over a century ago. I took my rightful place as the Alpha of Blood Stone Pack and that means that any Pack-member that breaks the Law answers to me, no matter what their rank is. I have to pass judgement to Packs and it's members that got away with crimes for a hundred years.

Crimson Moon Pack is the first of many that can expect a visit from us. To make this process go a little quicker, you will receive a list of crimes that were committed and under which Law they fall. I will call out the names of the Wolves and Lycans that committed those crimes and some of them won't be able to get their punishment, because they are dead.

We will not punish a family member for a crime someone else committed and neither will any of you." I say before some of my Warriors start handing out the lists and people hurdle together to read the list or to listen to someone that is reading it out loud. Once the crowd has turned its attention back to me, Anton steps forward to start reading the names on his list.

The list starts with names of Wolves and Lycans that are no longer among the living, the names of those that are still alive isn't that long. Once Anton is reading every name on the list, there are only six males standing in front of me and each of them knows that their time here on this planet is up.

"I won't bore you with the details of every crime, but I do have a question for your Alpha. It is against the Law to stop a Mate-bond from forming between Stepsiblings, it is against the Law to banish Wolves or Lycans for that same reason. Why did you banish a couple from your Pack, knowing that you were breaking the Law and why did you tell your Pack that they chose to leave?" I ask as I use my Alpha aura to force Alpha Randell on his knees.

"They grew up together, they lived as Brother and Sister their entire life. I couldn't allow something that disgusting to exist in my Pack." Alpha Randell growls.

"Each of the males in front of you have committed crimes that have different punishments, but each of them committed at least one crime that is punishable by death. I, Alpha Alayah of Blood Stone Pack, sentence each of you to death. Elder Aimi and Elder Mathass, what is the verdict of the Elders?" I ask and for a moment deadly quiet around us.

"The Elders support the sentence Alpha Alayah has given." Elder Mathass replies and that is when all hell breaks loose. Each male tries to run, but my Warriors are quick to bring them down to their knees.

"John, I want you to guide the Doctor to the Alpha floor and both of you will stay up there, after Doc has sedated Luna Vicky." I say and John sighs in relief when he turns on his heel, Doc right behind him.

"What about our Pack, Alpha Alayah?" A Warrior asks and I turn to look at Alpha Gordon. He looks at me in confusion, I doubt he knows the full story on Autumn Pack.

"These two Packs were once known as Autumn Moon Pack, but after one of the twin Alphas killed my ancestors it got split in two. Alpha Gordon, I know you don't want to lead a huge Pack and I know you will be missing a Gamma soon. However, I am going to ask the question anyway. Would you be willing to continue with the plans Marc and Crystal made?" I ask.

Crystal turns towards her Father and I can see that they are linking one another, probably trying to figure out if they want the responsibility. I understand that this will be more then either one of them had bargained for, but it is also the best solution in this situation and I am praying to our Goddess that they will accept my request.

It takes a few minutes before Crystal turns my way, "We will combine both Packs as we had planned. Will you keep an eye out for a new Beta and Gamma for us?" Crystal asks and I know I will ask Uncle John if he knows a few Wolves or Lycans that would be suited for Crystal.
