

Chapter 491

Melanie Yu froze for a while, looked at Fade Chen with some doubt, and then approached closer towards him, almost clinging entirely on Fade Chen's body, her lips leaning against Fade Chen's ear, and whispered, "Mr. Chen, do you mean that there is something wrong with the Jade Sculpture, and that it isn't worth buying? "

Fade felt the touch of Melanie's soft and delicate body, her scent as she whispered into his ears. He could not help feeling a little hot and stuffy. He gently nodded and said: "That's right!"

Melanie was a little surprised. She turned her head towards the Jade Sculpture, and then looked at the several purveying specialists, which included Chief Qi.

In the end, Melanie chose to believe in Fade. After all, she knew about Fade's identity from Mr. Charles Wu. He was the big boss of Dragonville, the person who defeated Francesca Sun in martial arts.

Therefore, Melanie nodded at Fade in agreement. They said nothing and went straight to the stage together.

Seeing this shocked all the people who were originally scolding and berating Fade during the moment. Subsequently, several bosses could not help shouting.

"Director Yu, what's wrong? Aren't you going to bid?"

"Director Yu, I remember the Jade Sculpture being your favourite! What happened? Are you scared by Chief Wang's offer?!"

05:31

"Director Yu's Emerald Plum Jewels has a market value of 30 billion. How could Director Yu be scared by this little money. Could it be that Director Yu's purveying specialist said something to change her mind?"

As soon as the words came out, everyone was suddenly hushed, and their eyes gathered on Fade Chen.

After all, the news of Melanie's favor of the Jade Sculpture was clear to many bosses here. Moreover, right when they were about to make the final offer, Melanie stood up and explained her preference for the Jade Sculpture once more.

But just because Fade shook his head, Melanie gave up her bid on the precious Jade Sculpture instantly. Many people at the scene could hardly believe their eyes.

This moment, especially all the purveying specialists on the stage, were even more dissatisfied with Fade. After all, Fade shaking his head indicated that he disapproved of the Jade Sculpture, which was contrary to their judgment, indirectly shaming their expertise.

As a result, several purveying specialists couldn't help but start throwing insults.

"Director Yu, why are you in such a hurry to leave! What did your purveying specialist say to you, let us hear it too!"

"Right, Mr. Chen is the purveying specialist that Director Yu highly admires. Let us see what great opinion Mr. Chen has to offer."

Even Chief Qi was obviously displeased, and said, "Boy, it seems you and us have different views. Why don't you explain yourself, and we'll tell you what we think."

Fade pretended he did not hear anything, but gave them an innocent look, and ignored them.

Suddenly, the expressions of the group of purveying specialists and the boss darkened.

05:31

Seeing this, Melanie hurriedly explained, saying, "Don't think too much into it, we are just suddenly not interested anymore." After that, Melanie and Fade returned to their seats.

Such a move made by Melanie immediately caused suspicion from the bosses at the scene, spiking various thoughts and guesses.

After all, Melanie Yu was equivalent to the ultimate jurisdiction here. She was rich and qualified, and has invited many well-known purveying specialists to work for her. In the past, she bought a variety of treasures with a lot of money, and rarely makes the wrong move.

Although this time Melanie invited an unknown young man, this person could make Melanie value him, so he must be a little special.

Thinking this way, many bosses could not help but have their doubts about the Jade Sculpture at this moment.

Even the bosses on the stage couldn't help start to murmur with their purveying specialists, and constantly eyed the Jade Sculpture during discussion.

Among them, even Chief Wang, who gave the highest bid just now, looked a bit puzzled. At this moment, his face slightly changed, and his gaze was fixed at the Jade Sculpture.

Witnessing this, Chief Qin and the white bearded elder got infuriated. They glanced at each other, blinking.

Then, the white bearded elder came forth directly, and yelled, "Where did this ignorant boy come from, and why is he disrupting our business?"

As soon as he said this, everyone could not help but be shocked. They looked between the white bearded elder and

05:31

Fade. Obviously, the words of the elder with the white beard were referring to Fade.

Fade Chen was also annoyed. He answered coldly, asking, "What do you mean?"

"What do you mean?" The white bearded elder sneered in disdain. "Some people think they know everything, and even pretend to think that they understand the treasures of Chief Qin, which is beyond ridiculous."

Fade Chen frowned and said in the same tone, "I didn't say anything."

The white bearded elder got even more angrier, "Do you still dare to argue up till now? Everyone, including Chief Qi, just examined Chief Qin's Jade Sculpture and proved that the Jade Sculpture is genuine. and here you are, shaking your head and disapproving, what do you mean? "

"Are you questioning Chief Qin and me, or the eyes of the bosses and purveying specialists around here? You have to explain this right now." The white bearded elder shouted, and immediately brought the attention and anger of everyone on the stage towards Fade.

Fade could feel a dozen pair of confused, angry eyes starting at him like lasers.

Seeing this, Melanie got up, wanting to refute and explain.

Yet Fade shook his head lightly, staring back at the white-bearded elder without fear, retorting, "Your schemes have nothing to do with me, and I have no intention to interfere with your wrong doings. But don't try to come at me! "

The white bearded elder froze, his eyes flickering, and a dark tide rose in his heart. But then he pressed it down, glared at Fade, and shouted, "What nonsense are you talking about! Don't change the topic, I am asking you, where is your explanation?"

Fade snorted, his face rigid, "You have only brought death upon yourself."

"Since you're trying to get yourself in trouble, then don't blame me for being rude."

Then as he spoke, Fade got up directly, strode towards the stage with big steps, and Melanie quickly followed.

"What are you doing?" The white bearded elder faintly felt somewhat threatened, and asked Fade his motives.

"What?" Fade Chen scoffed, then came directly to the booth, his expression rigid, "Didn't you just ask me for my evaluation of this Jade Sculpture? I will show it to you now."

Immediately, he chillingly continued, "The reason why I told Director Yu to not start her bid, is because this Jade Sculpture is completely fake and worthless."

As soon as his words ended, the scene suddenly exploded with a buzz. Arguments and scoldings erupted aloud.

"Fake? How is that possible?"

"This kid is speaking nonsense! The Jade Sculpture, was brought here by Cheif Qin. Chief Qin is a veteran in our field."

"Yeah, and there are evaluations from the purveying specialists and other masters, how could we be wrong!"

Chapter 492

Chief Qin's face went blue and purple, he glared at Fade Chen with a murderous expression, and then said to Melanie Yu: "Director Yu, I can't believe the purveying specialist that you brought said such a ridiculous thing. I'm respecting you here, so I will let you choose what I should do with him!"

Melanie Yu didn't want to make things messy, so she just didn't want to buy it. But now the situation has escalated - the other party was upset, and was directly attacking her.

She was a woman who built up her career from zero, and had made Emerald Plum Jewels into the impressive scale of tens of billions today. Needless to say, it was clear she wasn't any ordinary woman. Moreover, she had huge faith in Fade.

Therefore, the moment Melanie heard the words of Chief Qin, her expression changed and darkened as well, and she Chief Qin directly in a reprimanding tone: "Mr. Chen is a noble guest I invited. Lesley Qin, you have no right to speak to him like that."

"Director Yu, are you going to cover up for him until the end?" Chief Qin was livid.

Melanie snorted, obviously with no intentions of giving in, and said, "Protect? What Mr. Chen said has not even been proven whether true or false. Yet you are making such a rash decision here. Perhaps it's out of guilt?"

Lesley heard her words, and immediately laughed, saying, "You actually believe what he says? That's ridiculous, Melanie, let me tell you. This Jade Sculpture is a treasure that Felipe Chang, better known as Master Chang, has personally verified. Are you saying that this young kid you invited is more authoritative than Master Chang? Besides, there is still the joint verification of Chief Qi and the other purveying specialists, are you saying that everyone is wrong, that only this young kid is right?" Melanie listened, frowning slightly. She looked at Fade..

Fade flashed back a smile, then glanced coldly at Chief Qin and Master Chang, "What you said is true. All of you are wrong, and I am the right one here."

As soon as this remark was made, many of the purveying specialist's faces contorted, throwing angry glares towards Fade. However, without waiting for them to speak, Fade nimbly stretched out his hand and grabbed at the Jade Sculpture on the booth. Chief Qin and Master Chang were horrified and rushed to stop him, screaming, "What are you doing?"

Master Chang's movements were considered fast, but compared to Fade, he was still slow. Fade placed the Jade Sculpture in the palm of his hand and gently clenched his fists, sucking the Jade Sculpture into thin air.

Then, a layer of red mist appeared in Fade's palm, and with a careful stroke of his fingers the Jade Sculpture appeared again entirely.

At this point, Master Chang and Chief Qin rushed to his side, yelling furiously.

"Let go of the Jade Sculpture!"

"Young boy, this is a precious treasure, , you can't afford it once it's broken."

"You madman, why aren't you letting go of it yet?"

...

Amongst their cries, Fade was done, and cupped the Jade Sculpture in his hand, showing it to everyone. "Take another look, what is this Jade Sculpture you speak of?"

05:31

The purveying specialists eyes widened in shock. Immediately, they found out that the lustrous and translucent luster of the surface of the Jade Sculpture completely disappeared, and the clean, fresh aroma was nowhere to be seen. The whole Jade Sculpture had become an ordinary piece of stone.

Some purveying specialists came over to examine the Jade Sculpture, gently touching and knocking, and their expressions shifted greatly.

"This, this is obviously just made of some common kava stone."

"Yeah, kava stone is similar to white jade in appearance. So it is often sold by illegal merchants as white jade, but its actual value is much lower."

"It can even be said that kava stones are only slightly more expensive than ordinary stones."

"If it is true that this sculpture is made of kava stone. There's no need to think any further, it must be fake!"

"Then Mr. Chen is right? We were all blinded by it before." The boss of the purveying specialists, Chief Qi also made expressed his judgement.

Upon hearing these words, the bosses behind the purveying specialists turned red with embarrassment, and then glared angrily at Chief Qin, questioning.

"Chief Qin, what do you mean by this?"

"Everyone is on the same boat, and we have been in this business together for more than ten years. Old Qin, are you planning to scam us?"

05:31

"Lesley, today you must give us an explanation!"

"Lesley, screw your elders and f*ck your grandmother, you dare try to cheat us old men." said Chief Wang, who gave the highest bid just now, was the angriest at the moment.

After all, just thinking of the fact that he was almost scammed a whole billion dollars made his blood boil. Who would not be furious?

Seeing this, Chief Qin knew his schemes were exposed, and he started to get a little nervous. However, when he saw Master Chang next to him, it calmed him down, and suddenly was full of self-confidence, saying: "This auction does not require the auction items to be authentic. Besides, it's not like there were no fakes in the past. I'm not the first to do so, what are all of you so mad about?"

Chief Wang lost his temper, his ears red. Immediately, he rushed over and yelled at him, "Lesley, do you have any shame? You dare compare the previous fakes to what you did? The previous sellers have also been deceived by the fakes. But this time is different. It is clear that you deliberately wanted to cheat us old friends with your dirty tricks!"

Chief Wang got more and more agitated, the blood rushing to his face. He grabbed Chief Qin by his collar, raising his fist and ready to strike.

Chief Qin started to tremble and quickly backed away, at the same time asking Master Chang for help: "Uncle Chang, help me."

Master Chang quickly stepped forward, and slapped Chief Wang in the chest with his palm.

One slap was already enough. Chief Wang staggered and lost his balance, his face turned white and blood spurted from his mouth, and he flew to the sky and fell down to the ground.

05:31

"Ah!" Everyone let out a gasp of aghast, and then became even more angry, glaring at Chief Qin and Master Chang fiercely.

"You attacked him!"

"Old Qin, that's too much."

"Someone call security, hurry up, call security!"

...

In the chaos, Master Chang directly shot another strong gust of howling wind, attacking the screaming bosses and purveying specialists.

Several people were attacked out of a sudden, and they felt immense chest pain, some looked pale, and others was stunned, but all fell to the ground.

They never expected them to be so bold as to attack them as well.

At this time, Chief Qin, who was wearing a bracelet, was smirking confidently. He looked at them, and said, "We have exposed ourselves by accident today, a small mistake on our part. We will be leaving now. If any of of you try to stop us, then you should prepare yourselves to be hurt."

Chief Wang clutched his blood-stained chest and screamed angrily, "Qin, you are a deceiver, a cheat, and you think you can leave just like that? forget it!"

Chief Qin's face darkened, showing a touch of anger, he looked at Chief Wang, barking: "Mr. Wang, I forgot to tell you. This Master Chang beside me is a master of martial arts, of the intermediate Black Level. Do you really think anyone can stop us? "

Chapter 493

As soon as this remark came out, everyone, including Chief Wang, turned white as a ghost.

They knew very well what it means to be a master. Once you reached the Black Level, you have the power to rule over an entire city.

These bosses may have hired bodyguards with knowledge in martial arts, but generally, it is hard enough to find one who is at the Yellow Level or late Yellow Level. Nonetheless, a beginner Black Level was already a rare find and cost a lot to do so.

As for masters of martial arts of intermediate Black Level, they were near impossible to hire as they have reached celebrity status in almost every field. After all, once one was at such a level, they could literally have whatever they wanted.

As a result, the crowd couldn't help but look terrified, and the expression of fear on their faces showed it well.

Some of the invited bosses immediately started to scramble out of their way, terrified.

"Thank you for making way, see you again in the future!" Seeing this, Chief Qin grinned smugly at everyone and walked away with Master Chang.

When everyone heard this, they gritted their teeth hard, but they could do nothing but to watch them walk down the stage towards the exit.

Just as they were about to step outside, behind him, a cold and bland voice spoke, "Did I agree to let you go?"

Hearing this, Chief Qin and Master Chang stopped in their tracks, and turned back. They saw Fade Chen and Melanie Yu coming to confront them.

When he saw this, Chief Qin's eyes narrowed, his tone was icy cold. "Director Yu, it seems that you are still going against me?"

Melanie snorted and said, "Lesley, I urge you to take this opportunity to apologize to Mr. Chen now. Admit your mistakes, otherwise, you won't even have a chance to kneel down later."

"Apologize to him? Hah! Melanie, I thought you were always a sharp person. What happened today? You're suddenly so obsessed with the puny kid." Chief Qin laughed, then with a touch of sleaziness on his face, he said to Melanie and Fade, "Did he spend many nights in bed with you, which made you trust him so much, Director Yu?"

Even a strong woman like Melanie was infuriated when she heard such a disgusting thought from Chief Qin. She then shouted at him in anger, "How disgusting! You're shameless!"

Chief Qin did not feel shame, but proudly continued with his crude comments, sniggering: "Haha, so what if I'm shameless, you can't do anything to me. Maybe in the future, I can even go to bed with you too and show you some of my skills! "

"You—" Melanie's expression darkened, too angry to speak.

At this time, Fade raised his right hand, which immediately summoned a strong wind, and hurled it swiftly with a flick of his wrists.

Suddenly, a loud smack shocked the room.

Then, everyone saw Chief Qin covered his cheeks, face full of surprise and anger. "How dare you hit me?" He gritted his teeth and stared at Fade.

"You stupid boy, I'm going to kill you!" roared Chief Qin, then shouted at Master Chang, "Uncle Chang, do it, kill him!" Suddenly, Master Chang adjusted his posture, and a strong wind surrounded his body, slamming into Fade.

Just the mere vitality caused by his actions, snuffed the air out of the entire room. The whole space seemed to have frozen, and everyone felt an oppressive aura approaching them.

"Is, is this the strength of an intermediate Black Level master?"

"No, there's a huge difference, we have no chance standing it!"

"Director Yu, why not let Mr. Chen come back here. As long as he is still alive, we will have a chance at getting back on that horrible Mr. Qin in the future." Some persuaded, afraid that Fade would be defeated.

Amongst the concerned and worried cries of everyone, Fade, who faced the attack of Master Chang, smirked slightly. He sneered, then summoned a red, glowing ball of energetic light on his right hand, and shot it directly towards Master Chang.

"That boy actually didn't hide, it seems he's got a little fight in him. But that's not enough." Master Chang's white beard fluttered in the wind, with a grin on his mouth, and the strong wind that he reigned out turned even fiercer.

"Go to hell!" With a loud bellow, Master Chang's energy almost reached his limits, and he attacked Fade with all his might.

Chief Qin was even prouder now, he said, "I tell you, against me, there is no end, ha--"

Just as Chief Qin burst out laughing, there was a deafening bang, and to everyone's surprise, Fade and Master Chang's attacks collided fiercely.

Then, the laughter from Chief Qin came to an abrupt end, and the smile on his face disappeared in an instant. Because, at this moment, the mighty Master Chang was sent flying by Fade with one hit, and his body pelted upwards into the sky, with blood spurting from his mouth as well as his loud scream.

As for Fade, he stood still and firm, as if he hadn't moved at all.

Master Chang managed to survive that hit. He touched the blood in the corner of his mouth, and looked at Fade Chen in complete shock, saying, "You, who are you exactly? You have the powers of a peak stage Black Level master."

As soon as Master Chang spoke, everyone's heads flicked to Fade and stared at him with great shock.

Fade's face was calm and he gave no response, but he slapped Master Chang with his palm once more.

This seemingly ordinary palm shot made Master Chang's complexion change instantly, and a terrified expression flashed on his face. He shouted hurriedly, "No, no, I yield, I yield."

Hearing that, Fade's movements still did not stop, and he still proceeded to hit Master Chang once again.

Seeing Fade's attack getting closer, Master Chang's face became more and more terrified. He turned away and began to flee. At the same time, he shouted, "Don't, I'm a disciple of the Lightning Clan. If you do anything to me, they won't let you off the hook. You—"

Too bad that there was no use threatening Fade Chen.

The attack from Fade had a direct hit at Master Chang's back. Its energy penetrated through his body, and he screamed, as if something within him cracked in half.

Afterward, Master Chang was pale, his whole body was paralyzed, and his face was sweating profusely. Trembling all over, he looked extremely weak.

When a few martial artists saw the situation, they were shocked, "He, his Dantian abdomen point has been crippled. He's finished, forever!"

Upon hearing this, the crowd was stupefied. Their gaze towards Fade had not only amazement, but also traces of fear. After all, when there's a person who could defeat an intermediate Black Level fighter, one should definitely not mess with him.

As for Chief Qin, who was so arrogant just now, he saw that his biggest protection had collapsed. His face was pale as paper as he dropped to the ground, waved his hands pathetically, murmuring, "No, don't- — "

Fade glanced at him and didn't say a single word. He lifted his palm directly, and shot two blasts, directly penetrating through Chief Qin's legs.

With a crucifying scream, Chief Qin's legs buckled, and he let out a loud, pitiful howl.

Chapter 494

After Master Chang and Chief Qin got what they deserved, to say that everyone was stunned was an understatement. They stared and gawked at the defeated Master Chang and Chief Qin, their bodies weak on the ground.

After a while, Chief Wang, who previously had the highest bid, returned to his senses first. He quickly walked to Fade Chen, respectfully thanking and apologizing to him, "Mr. Chen, I was ignorant and stupid before, and said inappropriate things, please forgive me, Mr. Chen."

"Thank you for your righteous action today Mr. Chen, otherwise, we are bound to be deceived by scammers. Mr. Chen, please receive my greatest gratitude ." During the conversation, Chief Wang bowed deeply and thanked him.

At this moment, seeing the actions of Chief Wang, some other bosses and the purveying specialists also scurried in front of Fade and began to apologize and thank him as well.

Fade nodded slightly, and said: "All of you had been scammed before as well, but the ignorant is innocent. Please be more careful in the future."

"We will remember Mr. Chen's wise words!" The crowd hollered.

Fade didn't say much else, he glanced at Melanie Yu, and the two went out together.

When they went outside, there was no one else to be seen. Melanie smiled sweetly at him, swaying left and right, and intentionally leaned on Fade 's arms now and again. Her eyebrows wiggled as she said, "Thank you Mr. Chen, for helping me today, if it weren't for Mr. Chen, I'm afraid I would be cheated already."

Fade suddenly was aware of the seductive aroma of Melanie's perfume, and the charming temperament from her smile, he couldn't help feeling a tiny tingle in his heart. However, Fade suppressed his feelings and looked at Melanie calmly: "You don't have to be polite with me. I promised President Wu, and I intend to keep my promise."

Melanie blinked, her eyelashes dropping slightly, and softened her voice. "Why are you being so modest, Mr.Chen? Today, no matter what, I would like to thank you for what you've done."

Fade, who just suppressed and controlled himself, feel his heart tingle and flutter again, shaking him internally. He felt a little warm, and suddenly coughed slightly, and said to Melanie, "Director Yu, you're too kind. What I did was no big deal, there's no need for that."

Melanie smiled and took Fade by his arm, clinging affectionately. "This is no trivial matter, it involves billions. Today, I must thank you well. Let's see, it's almost time for lunch. I'll treat you to lunch. " She smiled.

In this situation, how could Fade refuse? He nodded his head and said, "If Director Yu wishes so, then it is my wish as well."

Melanie immediately broke into a huge beam. She then pulled Fade and both of them went out together.

As there was still an exhibition in the afternoon, Melanie naturally couldn't go too far. So the two simply walked towards a nearby commercial street to find something to eat.

When they reached their destination, the lively atmosphere and the fragrance of food wafted over, which immediately made Melanie smile. She said to Fade, "Mr. Chen, since you are a local here, what do you recommend?"

In this case, Fade could not give an answer. After all, he had only come to Long City for a few months. It could be said that he did not understand much of Long City. As for its cuisines and snacks, he knew even less.

He coughed twice, and scanned his surroundings quickly to look for a modest restaurant with a good reputation. Suddenly, he caught his eye on a small diner in a low two-storey building in front of him, and then he quickly walked over.

Melanie hurried and followed him. Approaching it, she was a little surprised to see the appearance of this diner.

This small diner was located on the first floor of an old two-storey building. At first glance, the small building looked old and abandoned. The walls were dirty and had graffiti, and there were even cracks in some places.

The diner was not large inside as well. There was a kitchen in the back, with four tables in it, and then two small tables at the door.

The diner might not be big, but there were a lot of people at the entrance, there were over ten people who were queuing up, waiting for the food excitedly.

"Are we going to eat here?" Melanie asked, a little confused.

Fade pointed inside and said, "I see someone I know, let's say hello."

While they talked, Fade approached the store and said to a busy middle-aged man: "Big Brother Liu!"

As soon as the man heard his voice, he turned around and looked at Fade. When he saw him, he greeted Fade immediately, overjoyed, "Dr. Chen, it's you! Why are you here?"

Big Brother Liu was not a random guy. Rather, he was the son of the elder who was hit by Rowena Song's car. Fade had gone to

Enya Entertainment with him to find Rowena.

Fade laughed: "My friend and I came here to find a restaurant for lunch. I didn't expect to see you here, out of all places."

"Lunch!" Big Brother Liu said, "Dr. Chen, then why are you still waiting for, just eat here!"

"Is this your diner, Big Brother Liu?" Fade Chen was a little surprised.

Big Brother Liu nodded and said, "It's my family's business. It's been passed down by my elders for nearly a hundred years."

"So this is a century-old diner!" Fade Chen sighed in admiration.

At this moment, a table of guests stood up and left, emptying their seats. Big Brother Liu hurriedly greeted Fade to sit and said, "Dr. Chen, do sit down. Just this once. I assure you that my diner's food can be compared to those big restaurants."

Fade was not a particular person. Since Big Brother Liu was so polite and welcoming, he naturally would not turn him down. After he sat down. Fade then called to Melanie, "Director Yu, over here!"

Melanie heard him and came over.

Fade explained to her, "Director Yu, this diner is run by a friend of mine. It's a century-old store passed down their family generations. Big Brother Liu knows that I want to have lunch and invited me to eat here. Director Yu, I hope you don't mind!"

Melanie, who sat across Fade, smiled good-naturedly, "Mr. Chen, I'm not as dainty and posh as you think. I started my career from scratch. At first, I ate at any type of little stall, and even skipped lunch many times. A century-old diner is a rare sight for me!"

"That's good!" Fade Chen grinned back,

Big Brother Liu was fast, and after a few minutes he came serving two large bowls of steaming hot food. While apologizing to the guests waiting at the door, he delivered two bowls of soup to Fade and Melanie.

"Dr. Chen, and you, miss. Have a taste, what you are looking at is the special seafood soup from my family!" Big Brother Liu introduced his dishes warmly.

Fade and Melanie could see fresh ingredients such as meatballs, fish cakes, and crab sticks served with a few side dishes in the frothy, scrumptious seafood broth in the big bowl placed in front of them.

Although it's appearance may not be as delicate-looking as the food in a posh restaurant, the delicious aroma of the steaming soup made their mouths water at once, awakening Fade and Melanie's sudden huge appetite.

Chapter 495

Fade Chen casually took a bite of the food, chewing it a few times. Instantly, his eyes flashed and he gave a thumbs up to Big Brother Liu, praising, "It's delicious!"

Big Brother Liu immediately laughed heartily and said, "This is an old specialty from Dragonville. We use fish, pork, and chicken as the main ingredients, and chop them into pellets, cakes, and sticks, and then stewed together. They are eight kinds of side dishes and spices, which are delicious and nutritious. That's why we call it our Special Seafood Soup. " He explained with pride.

"Dr. Chen, you can try the others, the soup is delicious as well!" Big Brother Liu said.

Fade and Melanie Yu did what he said and carefully tasted each of the three ingredients, and their expressions grew more and more excited. When they took a sip of soup, they got even more astonished, licking their lips, "It's really fresh and delicious!"

Seeing this, Big Brother Liu was even happier, and started to introduce his dishes, "The Special Seafood Soup is a secret old craft from Dragonville, although quite a few people have the recipe. But, not many people are able to remake this authentic dish to perfection. Firstly, most businesses now are unwilling to spend that effort. Some places that require manual work are replaced by machines. Second, the standard of the choice of materials has also been lowered, so the very taste that made it special is affected. It's totally incomparable with the food in my little diner-- "

Big Brother Liu chatted animatedly. At this moment, they heard a fierce, loud yell at the door, "Who is the boss of this place? Show yourself!"

Big Brother Liu gave a glance and went to check the entrance, his expression sinking immediately.

At the door of the shop, was an angry, burly man with a gold chain and a group of young people standing there with a threatening aura, which scared away most of the customers.

"I'm the boss. Is there anything you need?" Big Brother Liu came out and answered equally as loud.

The burly man gave a low grunt, stretched out his fingers and put it on Big Brother Liu's chest, and said, "What's the matter? Can't you see? I brought my brothers here to eat."

"If you wish to eat, you have to queue!" Big Brother Liu pointed out at the line, where there were still around six people waiting.

The burly man sneered at Big Brother Liu and said, "Queue? Are you stupid? I've been hungry all morning, and I want to eat now, go and prepare for me right away. I want it within three minutes or I'll smash your diner. "

Big Brother Liu stood firm and replied the man coldly, "Sorry, you have to queue. Otherwise, we won't serve you."

"Oh, won't serve me?." Mr. Burly mocked, "Are you crazy? You dare deny me as your customer, do you know who I am?"

"I don't care who you are, either get in queue or leave." Big Brother Liu retorted.

"Damn, you're out of your mind!" The burly man was furious. In a flash, he rolled up his sleeves, and ordered, "Brothers, this guy needs to learn some respect. Come on, let's smash this diner."

While talking, the group of thugs pulled out several steel pipes at once.

Of course, the guests were frightened and immediately scattered, Big Brother Liu froze for a minute and yelled, rushing at them, "Don't you dare!"

The burly man saw this and scoffed, "You dare to fight back? Hit him, beat him hard!"

When the steel pipe was inches away from Big Brother Liu's face, Fade suddenly rushed out of the diner with speed as fast as light, appearing next to Big Brother Liu. For a few seconds, everything was a blur. Then, a few of the gangsters fell directly to the ground.

The burly man was taken aback and noticed Fade at once. He jeered, "Damn, you sure like to dig your nose in other people's business. I'll deal with you first."

During the conversation, the burly man raised his arms to smash his steel pipes at Fade.

Fade snorted and in reaction he gave a quick punch.

Seeing this, the burly man couldn't help but guffaw, "This boy is stupid, he's actually using his fists to punch my steel pipe, what an idiot!"

Fade didn't say anything but punched the steel pipe, his knuckles meeting the metal.

Out of no where, the burly man felt a strong force crashing at him. His big hands who were grasping the pipe trembled out of the pressure and started to bleed. The steel pipe, with the thickness of a person's arm, was actually bent solely by Fade's fist!

At this moment, the burly man was dumbfounded, clutching his bleeding hand and looked at Fade in utter shock, "You, how can you--"

Fade didn't say much. With his backhand, he slapped the face of the burly man hard, and shouted, "Kneel down!"

The burly man directly fell to his knees on the ground. The other men who just got up next to him were originally prepared to come again at Fade, but as soon as they saw the curved steel pipes, they were all frightened. Quickly, they all knelt beside their leader, the burly man, and looked at Fade with immense fear.

Fade scoffed and asked, "Why are you looking for trouble here?"

The burly man explained: "We, we heard that the food here is delicious, and we wanted to try it."

"Really?" Fade did not buy it.

At this moment, Big Brother Liu stood up and said coldly, "Are you sent here by the Red Earth Property?"

The burly man could not help but tremble, with a look of surprise in his eyes. He instinctively tried to deny it.

But at this time, Fade gave an angry shout, "Be honest!"

Being very intimidated by Fade's presence, the burly man caved and stuttered, "I, yes, it was the Red Earth Property company who paid us to do this."

"So it's true." Big Brother Liu immediately gritted his teeth, with hatred in his eyes.

Fade asked, "Big Brother Liu, what is going on? What does the Red Earth Property have to do with this?"

Big Brother Liu sighed, then pointed to the shop behind him, and said, "Dr. Chen, as you have noticed, this little building is a bit old. Red Earth Property wants to develop a commercial building here, and wants to demolish my small diner. They came to negotiate several times before, but we did not accept. "

"Finally, the people of the Red Earth Property used illegal means. Not long ago, someone came to my shop and threw dung all over, and they also quietly damaged the circuit and water pipes. For several times they tried without success to chase me away, and now they have sent someone to wreck my diner." Big Brother Liu resentfully said.

"That's too much!" Fade got angry. He treated Big Brother Liu as a friend. Spitting at the thugs kneeling on the ground, Fade gave his last warning, "Go back and tell the people of the Red Earth Property this message - Fade Chen says that if they dare to trouble Big Brother Liu ever again, their company is finished. Get out! "

"Yes!" The burly man agreed timidly and scampered.

With a sigh, Big Brother Liu turned around and managed a small smile, thanking Fade again.

Chapter 496

Afterwards, Big Brother Liu remade two of his Special Seafood Soups for them. Fade Chen and Melanie Yu ate happily, then bid goodbye to Big Brother Liu and went back to the exhibition center.

Fade and Charles Wu chatted for a while, and then they parted.

The next day was an important day. Fade was woken up by his wife Quin Lin early in the morning and was brought to a bustling press center.

When Fade arrived, Winnie Huo and Huang Wei were already waiting at the press center. There were many reporters and businessmen at the scene.

Seeing this, Fade suddenly remembered. It was the conference day for Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's new cosmetics series .

When Quin greeted the reporters and businessmen, a burst of cheer sounded suddenly at another release site next to them, and people from the surrounding area rushed over.

Some reporters who were originally at Fei Enterprise Holdings Inc could not help but trot towards the other side while holding their cameras.

Seeing this, Quin, Scott, Winnie and Fade were all surprised as well, and looked towards that direction.

In the midst of the crowd, a group of bodyguards with black suits approached.

Just by a glance, Fade immediately recognized the one surrounded by the bodyguards. One of them was a middle-aged woman dressed stylishly, President Xie of the Far Peace Corporation who they met for business some time ago.

Next to President Xie, there was a handsome young man with a briefcase in his hand. He looked like a secretary, but he was walking very closely to President Xie and they were almost stuck together like glue. This was her little secretary, Secretary Wang. Beside them, a good-looking woman beckoned the audience with a smile, nodding frequently. This was the superstar Rowena Song.

Today, apart from the new product launch conference for Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc, there was also the first new product launch of Far Peace Corporation to enter Long City's cosmetics market.

For both parties in the same industry with the same positioning to launch two new products on the same day, it could be said to be a head-to-head confrontation between the two sides. Plus, their respective spokespersons previously had a heated debate on the Internet, making things even more competitive.

Then, not only the audience and reporters at the scene were taking sides, but some netizens who followed the live conference the Internet started to argue.

"Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc and Far Peace Corporation are finally confronting face to face!"

"That's true, the Internet debate some time ago ended as a draw. Now, it is finally time to see who is better."

"What do you mean by nobody won? It's funny. Don't lie, Winnie Huo and the fans of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc were dumbfounded by us. It's too bad that you couldn't even tell,"

"So true. There is no need to compare. Winnie's popularity now is not even a fraction of our Rowena Song's, what could she possibly use to compete against us?"

"Rowena's popularity does not mean a complete victory! This conference is about the products, not the popularity of the stars. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc have wonderful products, and I support them."

"Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc is just a small company which has only risen up in the last year, what's there to talk about. Far Peace Corporation is an esteemed brand with decades of experience. They are far more experienced in what they do."

"Far Peace has a long history, but are you even aware of their past product quality? How can a lotion of ten yuan be compared with the great products of Fei Enterprises!"

"Why not? Far Peace has the technology, money, and platform, which all of it can destroy Fei Enterprises without lifting a finger,"

"A group of brain dead fans, I'm too lazy to argue with you."

...

While the Internet was full of gossip, the three members of Far Peace Corporation, surrounded by the crowd, deliberately slowed down their pace when they passed Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc.

Then, President Xie smiled at them and said in a pretentious tone, "Hey, isn't this President Lin? I didn't expect Fei Enterprises to have a conference today too. It's so unfortunate for you to clash with us."

Quin snorted coldly and did not respond.

There was a flash of menace in President Xie's eyes, and then she gestured to Secretary Wang and stepped away.

Rowena, who was walking behind them also glanced proudly, sneering at Winnie Huo and was ready to look away. But when her eyes fell on Fade, Rowena's expression could not help but change.

Just yesterday at the jewelry fair. She and Salazar Xu wanted to take revenge on Fade, but she didn't expect Fade to retaliate. Salazar directly lost the position as Enya Entertainment's director, and Rowena was also fired by Enya Entertainment.

At that time, Salazar seemed very frightened of Fade's identity and was extremely scared. Rowena originally wanted to ask him for more details, but Salazar passed out, and after they both left Enya Entertainment they no longer made contact.

Fortunately, since she was still a superstar, Rowena still had her popularity. Even if her contract is cancelled, her popularity will not be affected by much. Coupled with the endorsement of Far Peace Corporation this time, and with the support of President Xie of Far Peace, Rowena felt more at ease.

Therefore, the expression on her face quickly adjusted and she stopped looking at Fade. She accelerated her pace, walking forward, and muttering, "Fade Chen! Even if your identity is special in Long City, what can you do? I will leave Long City with President Xie later today. After that, you won't be able to do anything to me, ha!"

With this in mind, Rowena couldn't help showing a smug and confident smile on her face. Her countenance grew brighter, and fans and reporters snapped countless of photos.

Just like that, they lured the group of people away from Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's conference.

Anyone could see that the number of people at Fei Enterprises' launch decreased significantly.

Seeing this, Fade reassured his wife Quin quietly, "Darling, don't worry, they are not in our league."

Quin nodded. "I believe our products are far superior to theirs."

After speaking, Quin regained her composure, and went on to greet the merchants and reporters.

Fade could tell that although his wife spoke confidently, a touch of worry still showed in her eyebrows. Seeing this, Fade reached for his cell phone and made a quick phone call. "Second Uncle Sun, how are the matters I asked you to investigate?"

A voice from the phone answered, "Mr. Chen, we have investigated it thoroughly. Everything is in our hands. When will you need it?"

"Right now, please have someone send the things over." Fade said.

"Pronto!" The other party answered immediately, and then hung up.

Chapter 497

Upon hanging up the call, Fade Chen immediately made another call, "Big Brother Liu, about Old Mr Liu's accident, I have some new leads, are you free now?"

"What, about my dad? Dr. Chen, you already have the evidence? That's quick!" Big Brother Liu sounded a little surprised.

"That's right!" Fade answered, then said, "Big Brother Liu, come over now."

Big Brother Liu agreed immediately. "Okay, I'll be right there. Thank you, Dr. Chen."

"You're welcome Big Brother Liu." Fade hung up the phone with a smile, then put away the phone and walked towards Quin Lin to help her handle the scene.

Soon, at 9 am, the Fei Enterprises Holding Inc's press conference officially began.

At the same time, the new product launch of Far Peace Corporation right next to them also started.

Quin and President Xie came on to the stage to start their introduction.

At the same time, the two companies' press conference was also broadcasted live on the Internet, and many netizens were watching from their screens. For a moment, the Internet's heated arguments surged again.

"Wow, the boss of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc is so beautiful! I would have thought she was a celebrity if she hadn't introduced herself.

"That's so true, Far Peace Corporation is way out of their level."

"That lady over there not only looks old, but I can't stand how she talks too. It's too naggy and full of nonsense, there's nothing important in her speech, it's as if we're watching the parliament."

"Why do the fans of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc lack so much in manners? This is a cosmetic conference and not a beauty contest. What good is it to look good?"

"True, I don't think that President Lin is a boss at all. She must be a spokesperson hired by the real boss behind it. This is just a gimmick to make themselves look better."

"It must be that the celebrity endorsement is not as good as my dear Rowena Song's, so they can only think of other evil ways."

"Let's just wait until the product is released. Some merchants will place orders on the spot. When the order quantity is announced, it will be as clear as day who is the better one."

...

While the hot debate on the Internet went on, the press conferences on both sides was continuing as well.

The process was basically the same. The boss came to the stage and introduced themselves first, next was the focus of the conference. Spokespeople from both sides came to the stage to carry out on-site publicity and broadcast publicity advertisements.

When Rowena Song and Winnie Huo both stood on the stage, everyone went nuts .

First of all, the two sides introduced the background of their endorsement products, and then briefly introduced and boasted about their respective products, what their products' benefits were, as well as how good it was.

These things were pretty self-explanatory. Besides, the functions of cosmetic products were mostly the same: whitening, moisturizing, acne clearing and many more. Almost all of the above were mentioned, but what people didn't know was if they really did work or not.

After the introduction, the next step was the official airing of the advertisements.

The first to air was Far Peace Corporation's Rowena Song. The screen went dark, and then some European street scenes slowly appeared on the screen. Subsequently, a very fashionable Rowena appeared on camera, showing her face with various soft light and lens effects. The background was constantly changing, and almost all of them were well-known tourist attractions of Europe.

At the end of the advertisement, Rowena's face appeared on the screen with the name of Far Peace Corporation's new product, and the screen dimmed.

After the advertisement played, it was received warmly. Many reporters started to take pictures, and the confident smile on Rowena's face grew bigger.

At the same time, the Internet also exploded with different comments.

"It's amazing, Rowena Song is too beautiful."

"This commercial is so well shot. I must have the new product from Far Peace Corporation! Buy! Buy! Buy!"

"That's given, this advertisement was made by an international director, they went to Europe to complete the filming, of course it is of good quality!"

"I think it's just average. There's no denying that it's fashionable and grand. But is there any difference compared to other similar brands? I can't tell the characteristics of the new product in the advertisement."

"Yeah, if the final credits are replaced with products such as clothing and jewelry, I wouldn't even be surprised. This advertisement has no memorable characteristics."

"Oh, look at them jealous of how great is Rowena's advertisement. Isn't this a clear defeat for them?!"

"Yeah, they say our advertisement is bad, what about theirs? I heard that they looked for a local director to shoot it. I am afraid that it'll just be an ordinary poster with some low quality stickers and ads, haha!"

...

The arguments weren't just on the Internet, but also happening among the on-site reporters and businessmen. At this moment, after airing the commercial from Far Peace Corporation, they couldn't help fix their eyes towards Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's in anticipation.

Since they were at a 'boxing match', everyone wanted to see what kinds of commercial endorsements can they deliver.

Quin didn't say anything, and directly signaled to the staff to start the commercial.

The screen went dark first, then gradually brightened. The first shot was a rainy night. Winnie, wearing a coat and a hood, appeared on the streets of the rainy nights, looking pale. She looked hurried, as if she was running from something.

At first glance at this first scene, everyone was physically and virtually startled, and they frowned.

"What is this? A cosmetic ad with a rainy setting?"

"Yeah, what exactly is Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc trying to do? And Winnie's face is so pale that it covers her beauty!"

05:32

"Oh, as expected, it's the kind of crudely produced commercials in China. Stop comparing and just give up, we win."

...

While everyone was still in doubt, the commercial continued to play.

Then, people were really surprised, because after the scene changed, there was no close-up lens effects that were common in commercials. Instead, the scene continued to change into another dark rainy night scene. A group of people hurriedly rushed in the rainy night, as if they were chasing something.

Seeing this, the audience were even more confused.

"What is this, where is Winnie?"

"Is this even a commercial?"

"Haha, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc really messed up this time!"

"They were over a long time ago, alright? How can Winnie Huo even compare to Rowena Song."

Just as everyone was frowning and speculating, someone realized something. The person suddenly looked up, and said, "I don't think this is an advertisement, It's a short film!"

"In other words, this is actually a short film featuring Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's products!"

Chapter 498

While everyone was speculating, the commercial continued to play, and the scene changed again, and it was another rainy night scene, chasing and unfolding, accompanied by loud, rushing music, creating a tense and nervous atmosphere.

At this time, everyone was completely sure. This commercial was a short film.

As a result, many people could not help but restart their debate.

"It really is a short film. I've never seen cosmetic products being released in the way of a film., how interesting."

"Oh, is it really? In my opinion, it is clearly nonsense. The video has been playing for more than two minutes, and the face of the spokesperson has not even been shown. Who knows what kind of advertisement this is?"

"I like the atmosphere, and I'm a little curious about the plot."

"Even if it's not a commercial, this film looks pretty good."

This controversy instantly made Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's short film a big deal on the Internet.

As the commercial continued to play, many people at the scene and as well as those watching it live were now immersed in the plot of the short film. Finally, when the urgent chase came to an end in the rainy night, a huge searchlight beam hit the female protagonist, Winnie Huo's face.

As Winnie turned her head sharply, her delicate and beautiful face appeared in front of the big screen. Raindrops slipped across her cheek, which made Winnie Huo look extraordinarily beautiful, it also added a sense of surprise.

Everyone could not peel their eyes off their screen, watching the advertisement unfold attentively. After the plot of the film ended in its final minutes, everyone was shocked. Winnie's face suddenly appeared, and they could not help but be amazed by her beauty.

The short film then stopped abruptly. Subtitles for Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc and its products began to appear on the screen.

The scene was silent, and many people were holding their breath until this moment. After a few seconds, just as they came back to their senses, a person exclaimed, "This advertisement is awesome!"

The Internet burst into praise as well.

"Have you finished watching the advertisement of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc? Winnie Huo's last look was amazing."

"Yeah, I even took a screenshot on purpose. Look at this, her face is so beautiful, why didn't I pay attention to it in the past!"

"The advertising film of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc is good and impressive. I think it may even be better than Far Peace Corporation's."

"Yeah, although the advertising film of Rowena Song is fashionable, it is not innovative enough. Everyone has already seen this type of advertisement, and there is not much of a surprise element to it anymore."

...

Many praises surged on the Internet. Of course, among the praises, there was naturally criticism and even malicious slander.

05:33

"So many people said it's amazing, but I think it's just average!"

"Yeah, short film advertisements, have been used by foreigners for a long time now. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc still tries to make themselves look innovative, haha!"

"Actually, this film is okay. But I have a question, why is the filmography and plot similar to a foreign movie I have seen?!"

"Plagiarism of course! There have been too many cases of it in our country, and this is no exception!"

"I think it's not only plagiarism. They also hired fake audiences. Isn't it just a short film? Look at those people, all of them are applauding. How can there be such a thing?"

"They're all paid, you don't have to try so hard, we won't be fooled by this."

...

Huge arguments erupted all over the Internet. However, at the scene, the increasing amount of people who were amazed and surprised obviously had the upper hand. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's booth, which was lacking in audiences before, was seeing more and more people coming over.

Seeing this, on Far Peace Corporation's side, President Xie's face sank and she glanced at Secretary Wang.

Secretary Wang quickly looked at Rowena Song, and then let the host announce, "Now, Far Peace Corporation's new product is officially released. Next, I would like to invite Rowena Song to introduce the effectiveness of our new product. Of course, those who are interested can also come up in person and try it out yourselves. You can even take photos with Miss Song. "

This immediately attracted a lot of attention. The crowd that was originally gathering towards Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc, turned around and went back to Far Peace Corporation's side.

Seeing this, President Xie snickered: "We are not an entertainment company, we are a professional company, In the end, we still rely on products. They made so many fancy things, but if their products are not good, what can they do!"

At this time, Rowena was smiling and introducing the effect of Far Peace Corporation's new products in front of the cameras. Of course, in general, it's still the same as every other product. Functions such as whitening and moisturizing were exaggerated as she spoke.

After the introduction, Rowena tried it on the spot, and then the lens gave a close-up. Looking at the comparison, it seemed that the effect was really good.

Next, it was time for the audience to try it. Suddenly, many reporters and businessmen came onto the stage and wanted to try it out. Especially the merchants, who were very eager to get their hands on the products. After all, they are the ones who would order them on the spot, and they were willing to spend money to order it only if they experienced the effectiveness of the product first hand.

For a while, a lot of people rushed to try it.

At the same time, the camera was constantly giving close-ups, shooting testing scenes, getting feedback from some users, and some interviews as well.

Generally speaking, everyone's evaluation of this product was good, and the overall effect was still acceptable. Of course, with a little exaggeration in front of the camera, the effect of the product was also amplified, and it seemed that it could already stand up to international big brands.

As a result, the Internet also became very lively.

"This is indeed the true strength of Far Peace Corporation, an established brand, and their amazing product."

"Yeah, as a local company, it's even better than the international ones, and produced with a conscience. The price is much cheaper than other big foreign brands, but the quality is comparable to them. I'm getting one for sure."

"When will it go on sale? I can't wait."

"My Rowena Song endorsed it, of course, it's good, I have already booked it on the official website."

...

The discussions on the Internet went on, and the situation at the scene was also very active. Some reporters commented and broadcasted on the spot, and some businesses have begun to discuss orders.

Seeing this, President Xie and Rowena grinned smugly. At the same time, they deliberately shot naughty looks over to Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc.

Quin Lin looked at the situation on their side, corners of her mouth slightly raised, and a smile appeared. They might not be able to outperform Far Peace Corporation in other areas, but in terms of product effects, she had absolute certainty that she could beat them.

After all, the formula for her new products was made by Fade Chen. One must know, the Life Elixir Wine that Fade created had long been a hot-selling product, not only was it popular in China, but it also had a group of loyal fans overseas too.

Chapter 499

Therefore, Quin Lin, who was extremely confident, did not spend too much time on the introduction of the advertisement and did not use too much of exaggeration.

She briefly introduced the functions of the series of products, and then Quin and Winnie Huo looked at the reporters and businessmen below and smiled, "Instead of talking too much about the products, it's better for you experience it yourself. Now, please come up and try it, you will experience the effects yourself. "

Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's cosmetics were known to be very effective and already had a group of fans. At this point, as soon as Quin announced the trial, many fans rushed to the stage. Journalists and businessmen followed suit.

Quin and Winnie asked the staff to help out, and immediately, the reporters interviewed their experience and their thoughts on the products.

Soon, the first batch of testers let out an elated gasp.

"This, this effect is amazing."

"I'm watching my skin turn so fair and smooth!"

"This moisturizing serum works so well, I feel like I'm five years younger already!"

"Feel my skin, it feels so much finer."

The surprised response at the scene immediately attracted more people to watch, and also caused a lot of discussion on the Internet.

"Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc really do hold up to their reputation. Their products are good. The effect is more even more amazing than their previous products!"

"That's literally magical. I want to buy it!"

"Oh, a group of fools. Look at its effect, it's too exaggerated, so all of them say the same things, it must be fake!"

"Yeah, I used a lot of top international cosmetics myself. If there is any kind of cosmetic that can take effect immediately, it has to be a fake."

"Hey, isn't Winnie Huo an actress? Why didn't Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc let her perform by herself, but instead invited such a group of failed actors whose skills are so bad?"

"You all are just a group of foul-mouthed people. The quality of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's products are good, and I believe this is absolutely true."

"Me too, I believe in Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc, and I believe in Winnie Huo as well."

For a while, the debate on the Internet led to a huge argument. Some people marvelled at the effect of their products, and some questioned Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc that they were playing fraud.

During this heated debate, someone said, "What's the use of you guys fighting like this? I'll teach you a way to quickly distinguish between true and false."

As soon as this comment popped up, there were plenty of comments on the Internet.

"Alright mister, what is it?"

"Wise man, what do you mean by that, let us know now!"

"Yeah, I'm at a loss now, I don't know which to buy!"

...

After plenty of comments emerged, the person spoke again, saying: "To know if the product is good or not, don't just look at the reporters and fans, just look at the buyers. These are the merchants, they came to place orders. They are the ones spending huge money on the products. If the product does not work well, they won't waste their money on it. "

This hit everyone's senses, and they began to pay attention to the order volume of buyers.

At this time, someone noticed something and said, "Look, the order volume of Far Peace Corporation is already showing, it has reached 100,000 sets, this is a great start for them!"

"Is this order accurate?"

"People with industry associations and notaries are on the scene, it can't be fake!"

"Furthermore, aren't they both competing? They will definitely keep an eye on each other. Once either party falsifies, the other party will definitely point it out, so don't worry about the authenticity of the data."

"That makes sense!"

"It's gone up again, it's already reached 150,000 sets. Far Peace Corporation's order performance is very good!" Someone sighed.

"You see, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc has also begun to publish order data. The first number, ah, 200,000, it directly exceeds that of Far Peace Corporation's!"

"Wow, their first orders are already at 200,000 sets. What kind of rich company is this? They're so generous."

"Wow, could it be that Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's products are really that good?"

"I can't wait anymore. I want to buy it now!"

The order volume of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc rose sharply, and quickly rose to half a million, while Far Peace Corporation had only at 350,000 at this moment.

Suddenly, President Xie and Rowena Song's faces sank.

At the same time, there were voices of doubt on the Internet.

"I know. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's order is so fierce because of Galaxy Plaza."

"Quin Lin has a good relationship with Charles Wu. Galaxy Plaza will definitely help with their order volume. It is definitely a secret deal, that is why their order volume is so huge."

...

While doubts flew all over on the Internet, some large shopping malls and suppliers of various parties directly posted the photos of their orders online, and it was shown as well on the above-mentioned prominent data. Needless to say, it cooked up a storm.

"Red Flag Superstore, 300,000 sets!"

"Brilliance Shopping Complex, half a million sets, this is unbelievable!"

"Breezy Supermarket, 100,000 sets. If I recall correctly, it's not a really big store right? Even they ordered so many sets, can they finish selling them?"

"Haha, what about those who questioned that it's fraud just now? They are left speechless. Galaxy Plaza hasn't even placed their orders yet, and Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc has already exceeded one million orders."

"I can only imagine the embarrassment of the fans of Far Peace Corporation and Rowena Song. They were in denial just now, but it seems now they are dumbfounded by the order quantities."

"After all, in the end, it's all about their products! I believe in the product strength of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc."

...

The argument on the Internet made President Xie and Rowena Song angry. Especially when they saw fewer and fewer orders on their side and more and more orders on the other side, they became even more distressed.

Looking at the order volume, the gap between the two sides had been getting wider. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc exceeded 2 million sets, and Far Peace Corporation was still stuck at 800,000 sets at this moment.

Seeing President Xie's expression becoming gloomy, Secretary Wang hurried forward and reassured her, "President Xie, the 800,000 sets have already been regarded as an excellent result. If we don't compare ourselves with them, we have done quite well."

President Xie heard his words, and she looked slightly relieved, consoling herself: "With these 800,000 orders, at least I have something to tell the board of directors."

After all, the board of directors voiced their doubts about them barging forcefully into Long City and coming head to head with Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc.. However, President Xie insisted and stood her ground, and things went her way. If the performance here was unsatisfactory, President Xie might lose her post as general manager.

With a sigh of relief, President Xie looked at Rowena and urged, "Try to boost another wave and strive for over a million orders."

"Sure thing!" Rowena continued to promote the product, even calling on fans to collectively raise funds for purchase.

Just like that, although the rise was slow, the order volume of Far Peace Corporation's new product eventually surpassed the one million mark.

Chapter 500

At the same time, the Internet was buzzing. There were plenty of congratulatory posts on social media.

"Congratulations to Rowena Song for the endorsement of over 1 million orders for cosmetics!"

"One million sets, this number is already comparable to the results of international big names, Rowena Song has won the first battle!"

"With such a great start, their future is unstoppable!"

"Good luck to Rowena Song and Far Peace Corporation!"

...

All kinds of celebration and cheering topics were the hot posts for now, as if Far Peace Corporation and Rowena Song had won. Although at the same time, the order volume of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc was already approaching 3 million sets, but these people turned a blind eye and ignored it.

There were even fans who sent various congratulatory topics and photos dedicated to Rowena Song, which dominated the internet.

At the scene, President Xie saw that her order quantity on the scene coming to a halt. Winking at Secretary Wang, she indicated that they were ready to retreat. After all, instead of continuing to stand around while Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's order volumes kept rising, it would be wiser to leave since their own order volume was not that great.

Secretary Wang began to arrange and wrap up, with President Xie and Rowena together and were about to leave. At the same time, their minds had begun to calculate. In this match, they had lost. After that, what was their next step?

They were thinking of ways to use the Internet arguments to slander their opponents, as well as using psychological measures to get their customers to buy their products.

As they pondered, Fade Chen stepped forward and greeted Big Brother Liu who had arrived at the door.

Big Brother Liu looked at Fade and asked, "Dr. Chen, you have the evidence, right?"

"That's right!" Fade nodded to Big Brother Liu, then pointed to Rowena, and said, "Is that her over there?"

Big Brother Liu looked at Rowena, and suddenly got angry. He rushed over yelling, "Rowena Song, stand where you are!"

With such a loud yell, everyone at the scene was shocked, and then they looked at him.

To their surprise, they saw a middle-aged man plainly dressed, approaching Rowena aggressively.

When Rowena turned her head and saw the man, her expression suddenly turned dark.

Seeing this, President Xie hurriedly asked Rowena, "What's going on?"

Rowena whispered: "The commercial streetcar accident. Before this, Salazar promised that he will handle it. I'm not sure why, but there seems to be a problem again."

As President Xie heard this, her expression changed slightly, and then she said, "I know about it. They told me Salazar handled it very well, and nothing will happen. Just deny everything later, I will support you."

05:33

With President Xie's words, Rowena was more assured. She looked at Big Brother Liu and said coldly, "Sir, you called me, is there anything wrong?"

Big Brother Liu looked at Rowena, his expression furious and gritted his teeth, "Rowena, you hit my father with your car and you fled. Don't you have anything to say to my father?"

Upon this, the exploded at once.

The reporter's camera turned around and instantly aimed at Rowena and Big Brother Liu. The businessmen also behaved similarly and turned their heads.

As for the fans, they started talking about it as well. After all, there was a rumor of Rowena's hit and run, and a video was uploaded on the Internet for a short period of time, but was soon followed by no news.

Of course, netizens on the Internet had already argued upon hearing the news rise again.

"I have read the news about Rowena's hit and run. I didn't screenshot it then, and they were later deleted."

"I've also heard that it must be Rowena's public relations team who settled it for her. Now, the family of the victim is here, and I want to see how she's going quibble out of this."

"Oh, quibble? How could it be called quibbling? What Rowena has clarified a long time ago is that the hit and run were simply fake news."

"Yes, I know, it must be fake news."

Like the reaction on the Internet, the people at the scene were divided into two factions. One group believed in Big Brother Liu's statement, while the other insisted that Rowena was innocent. Many people were arguing intensely.

At this moment, Rowena said, "Sir, I don't understand what you are talking about! If you are talking about the fake news on the Internet some time ago, I have already clarified. Now, I will announce again, that I, Rowena Song, absolutely did not hit your father, nor did I flee the scene."

As soon as this remark came out, Rowena's fans at the scene cheered. Some screamed, some celebrated while others scolded Big Brother Liu.

At this moment, Big Brother Liu was so angry that his face turned red and pointed at Rowena, "You, you still won't admit it. Back then, when you hit my dad, you immediately ran away, and there were plenty of people who saw it."

Rowena replied coldly, "I did not hit anyone."

President Xie also sternly said, "Sir, you said that many people saw it, then please let the witnesses come on stage to testify. If you don't, you are just trying to frame her and will be held responsible for this."

Rowena had not even opened her mouth, and her crazy fans were already defending her.

"Hey, mister, don't slander my dear Rowena."

"Yeah, you damned villager, you're just trying to make a scene, get out of here!"

"Rowena, call the police on him."

"Dare to blame my dear Rowena? We'll beat him up!"

Some extreme fans even tried to fight Big Brother Liu on the spot, but fortunately, they were stopped by the security guards in time.

Big Brother Liu got more livid listening to the public accusations and Rowena's nonchalant expression. He was so angry that his lungs could explode "You, you are so shameless."

Rowena snorted coldly, "Sir, if you continue to cause us trouble, I will call the police."

President Xie also got the latest news from her men in time. She looked at Big Brother Liu and then looked at Fade Chen. Then she said, "To this gentleman who is trying to slander us, I have some doubts that need your explanation."

Everyone stared, and the reporters' cameras were aimed at them too.

While the camera focused on her, President Xie opened her tablet and displayed a photograph, which was taken when Big Brother Liu and Fade went to Enya Entertainment together.

She showed the photo in front of everyone, then looked at Fade and asked: "Sir, you are just trying to slander us. It turns out that Manager Chen of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc, is also here at the scene. What a coincidence!"

A single picture was enough to break the Internet.

"This is such a coincidence, someone is trying to deliberately cause trouble at such a crucial time. You must be hired by Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc!"

"Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc is so disgusting, using such tricks to frame my dear Rowena. Let's not buy the products of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc!"

"Boycott Fei Holdings Enterprises Inc!"

"Boycott Winnie Huo!"
