

Chapter 103

Nathan was shocked!

It costs tens of thousands a night!

The both of them could never be so wealthy!

However, last night, Nathan was tricked and had paid them a hundred thousand yuan!

"Well done!" he cursed.

"How dare he trick me for 100,000 yuan!" he scolded silently.

Not only did Nathan not enjoy the top-grade villa, but he spent the whole night waiting in a small room!

"He really is a son of a b*tch! He took my money."

"And spent the night comfortably in the Cavesky Villa!"

Thinking of it, Nathan already felt like hitting William.

How embarrassing!

Yet, Nathan couldn't express his grievance.

He looked at William with anger in his eyes!

At the same time, Director Zhao politely apologized to William, "Mr. Lu, I'm sorry for offending you. It's most likely that our front desk had made a mistake. Can you kindly move out of the Cavesky Villa tonight?"

William looked back at Nathan, who was about to explode, and said faintly, "Of course. I don't have the money to stay here for a second night."

Nathan immediately exploded. He rushed over and wanted to beat William up.

Luckily, Director Zhao stopped him in time and slapped Nathan hard on his face again. "You are the one causing trouble here! Whoever checked-in will be our guest. You can't treat my guest like that!"

Nathan was forced to hold back his temper. He was about to go crazy.

He knew that William had played him!

Not only did he lose money but he was also being blamed and defamed!

"Just you wait!" Nathan warned and glared at William, then turned around to leave.

Director Zhao and the other students also glanced at William then hurried over to Nathan.

Nathan stopped and shouted fiercely at his uncle, "Uncle, can't I vent my anger? Am I going to be humiliated by those b*stards?"

Director Zhao shook his head gloomily. "Although they took advantage of us, at least you had made them spend the money here. Take it that way, you should feel better."

Nathan was even more confused.

If he took it that way, he would explode!

They had spent his money!

"Well, I'll lock the Cavesky Villa up later. I think Flavia Li will come check-in soon. How lucky we are that she didn't arrive yesterday night! Otherwise, I'll be in trouble. Anyway, don't be angry, it's your showtime tonight. The resort won't take intervene in whatever happens during the alumni meeting. Do you know what I mean?" Director Zhao hinted at Nathan and patted his shoulder subtly.

Nathan nodded fiercely. "Yes, you're right! I'll wait for tonight."

When the classmates saw Nathan's ferocious face, they all shuddered.

"Something big would happen tonight!"

Nathan had donated hundreds of thousands for the alumni gathering. And with the signing ceremony after that, he was obviously the main character of the night. No one could compare to him.

Although William had some fun, that was only a temporary joy. He had caused himself big trouble in return. How silly!

After they left, Felicity breathed a sigh of relief. She pinched William's waist and said gloomily, "I don't want to stay in this villa anymore. We have gained much enmity from it!

William was sweating. "Why did you pinch me? We can simply move out!"

"Did you really spend that much money last night?" Felicity asked in distress.

Looking at her sharp eyes, William cowered.

He knew if he didn't say something satisfying, he could get killed.

He came up with an idea and told Felicity about what Nathan did the previous night.

Finally, he said faintly, "The money I spent was not our money."

Looking at William, Felicity suddenly burst into laughter. It was a bright and warm laugh.

"I knew it! You are so cunning! But it feels good seeing him defeated!" Felicity's behavior changed, her voice sounded a little sly.

William patted her head and thought, "Well, my wife has learnt well!"

That day, William and Felicity spent the afternoon having fun at the recreational area. It was indeed a joyous day for them.

At six o'clock in the evening, both of them arrived at the private room for the alumni gathering.

When they entered, they immediately attracted everyone's attention.

The news about them had spread through the entire crowd.

Seeing William and Felicity enter, everyone reacted with unkindness and dislike. People were afraid to get close to them, in fear of provoking Nathan.

There were ten tables arranged in the venue.

William and Felicity casually sat down at a table with a few people.

However, as soon as they stood by the tables, the people around them started gossiping about and mocking them.

"Hahaha, how interesting! They are like two Gods of misfortune, so everyone around them would leave. However, I really did not expect them to choose that table!"

"Interesting! Let's see who would share that table with them."

"Nathan hasn't done anything yet. Let's see what will happen. We should all stay away from them tonight."

William did not take it seriously and was about to sit down with Felicity.

But at this moment, a cold voice rang through the room,

"Get the h*ll out of here."

It was a very short sentence.

As if the person was too lazy to say more.
William turned to the direction of the voice.

A woman with heavy makeup sat next to them,
with an expression of disgust.

"Elizabeth Zhang?" Felicity exclaimed.

Elizabeth Zhang was also quite well-known in Qena City.

She was a well-known celebrity. She was pretty and had a good figure. She had signed with a media company in Qena City some time ago as a trainee and might become a superstar soon.

She was so bubbly and lovely on her live broadcasts, but in reality, she was a mean person.

Elizabeth pinched her nose when William didn't move. She said unhappily, "Are you deaf or blind?
You're so stinky. Are you even supposed to sit here? Don't let me repeat myself!"

Elizabeth had just arrived. She was very arrogant and conceited.

The media company that she signed for was Lunanica Media, a company owned by Harper
Wang, a tycoon in Qena City.

Moreover, she also had an affair with the company's vice president and would officially start her career as a trainee soon.

Of course, she would look down on everyone else.
Including William and Felicity.

Elizabeth had heard about William and Felicity... One was a useless man, a person whom Elizabeth would never even give a second glance.

Felicity, on the other hand, was making Elizabeth stressed out. Felicity was stealing Elizabeth's spotlight, and Elizabeth felt inferior next to her.

She wanted to scratch Felicity's charming face so badly.

William wanted to refute but Felicity pulled him back and said in a low voice, "We can sit somewhere else. I don't want to get ourselves in more trouble."

William had no choice but to follow Felicity and sit down at the table closest to the exit.

There were two people at the table. When seeing William, they said in disgust, "Can't you sit somewhere else? Are you trying to get us in trouble too?"
