The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3201

It was fortunate that the place was hidden within Pompeii Fairyland, surrounded by mountains and islands. Even without the formation, it would take quite a lot of effort to find it as well. Hence, it would be difficult to seek this place out immediately, even for the North Emperor. Alex had even used Cuneiform, which wasn't of this universe, to alter the formations accordingly so that the place could be hidden better.

Thus, Dusk decided to aim for...

Boom!

Shing..!

A thick beam of white light shot through the clouds, causing anything within a hundred-meter radius to shake vigorously.

Alex noticed that the cannon was aiming at the largest divine mountain within Pompeii, floating in the air at the time. Although there wasn't anyone living there, it used to be one of the famous divine sanctuaries in Pompeii Fairyland. Several auspicious beasts were roaming around, along with countless spiritual beasts too.

Just then, the large divine mountain was demolished by the bombs, as it was an extremely powerful law power cannon after all.

Everyone who witnessed this felt their heart stop from fear. It was simply too petrifying, as the divine mountain was nearly as big as Clarion Peak, yet it was destroyed in the blink of an eye.

The spiritual beasts had it the worst in this situation, losing their lives without realizing it. Yet this wasn't the end, far from it, in fact, due to the several other cannons on the airship, similar to the first one.

Suddenly, all those cannons started opening fire at another three mountains, shattering them to pieces. Unable to keep floating in the air, the pieces turned into irregularly shaped rocks and fell straight down. Some fell into the sea, leading to a large tsunami, while others fell onto the other islands and destroyed them.

“This can’t go on!”

“The fire will soon reach us!”

Alex spoke up. “Stay here, all of you. I’ll go up there and meet him.”

Luneth immediately stopped him. “Are you crazy? This isn’t the Underworld, and the North Emperor’s powers are really that powerful. Nothing about his strength is fake. You would be instantly killed with your current cultivation level if you go up there.”

Alex replied. “Don’t judge me based on the past. My current self is much stronger than when we were still in the Underworld. I could kill a Heavenly Emperor back there, and I can do the same to this North Emperor too!”

Whoosh!

Another Alex appeared. It was his mirror image. That mirror image then dashed in a certain direction, then appeared within the North Emperor’s vision.

“Hmph. Aren’t you supposed to be pretty strong, huh little pest? So you’ve finally decided to show yourself?”

The mirror image retorted, “You old pest, do you have dementia? Don’t you remember that I burnt your mirror image to the ground? I’m here to give you a reminder. This is America, not your little kennel. You can’t b*tch around when you’re here!”

At that moment, a large crowd witnessed this from a far distance, seemingly delighted and intrigued. Hearing Alex calling the North Emperor an old pest and a b*tch only made them stare in disbelief.

‘The audacity of this native!’

‘Does he really think that he’s invincible with the formations in Pompeii?’

At the time, the real Alex had already hidden underground. He had his eyes on that ship.

The North Emperor was so angry he felt his head was boiling up. Everyone in this universe had always treated him with utmost respect thanks to his status, achievements, and prestige. Even if he were to demolish an entire clan, the disciples of this clan would still greet him politely regardless. Yet this Wasteland native insulted him, calling him old pest and b*tch.

He wouldn't be the North Emperor if he were just to endure this.

"It's been so long since I've wanted to kill someone this badly."

"Congratulations, pest. You have succeeded in triggering my bloodthirst I won't let you die so swiftly. I'd make sure you watch as your friends and family die with disgrace, all because of you. They will bear hatred towards you, screaming and yelling every day as they rot in hell."

Alex's mirror image laughed. "You old pest, I don't understand animals, alright? Not everyone is a b*tch like you. Oh right, Julius Jackson is one of your dogs, isn't he? He's in hell waiting for you right now. If you refuse to go, I'll have to send you myself."

He was obviously trying to anger the old man. He could only go after the airship once these people were led away after all.

However, his words seemed like an absolute death wish to Luneth, Cecilia, and the others. It sounded like he was done with this life.

"Hey, you old fart, I have more important things to do, so playtime is over!"

"You won't be able to catch up to me with your slow a*s!"

"Earth... Escape Technique!"

It then dashed and disappeared into the ground, using an unbelievably quick speed as it shuttled through.

The mirror image was even quicker than Alex himself. This was only natural since it wasn't an actual entity. Without the burden of a fleshy body, it could travel at a faster speed. One other advantage of this mirror image was that it was compelling. Even as the North Emperor, Dusk didn't notice that it wasn't Alex himself.

At the time, another lotus flower started blooming within Alex's body.

'No way?'

'This is just too easy!'

It felt like these three thousand flowers were all waiting for a grand opportunity, no matter the size. As long as something were to trigger it in the slightest, it would bloom immediately.

'The Great Mirror Spell!'

'Holy sh*t, this really is... A reliable Forbidden Spell. I won't have to use the mirror to create mirror images from now on!'

More importantly, there was amazing merit within the Great Mirror Spell. The actual body could shuffle between the mirror images without limitations.

Just as Alex's consciousness was about to return, another lotus flower bloomed, making him run over again. This flower seemed rather weird, as the spell it gave was called 'The Great Rage Spell...'

'Huh? What the hell? Raging is a Forbidden Spell? This is kind of useless!'

However, after reading its introduction, Alex no longer disliked it. On the contrary, he was quite satisfied as it was a support type of mystic art. Using this spell would significantly increase one's speed, power, defense, and psyche. When the spell had achieved a certain level, it could even increase these stats by twofold within a certain timeframe.

'This is way too overpowering. It just doubles everything!'

Not just that, he would be able to use this spell on groups as well, hence granting such enhancements to people around him too.

"Great stuff!"

The North Emperor had locked onto Alex's mirror image at that moment, placing his divine consciousness on it. Hence, no matter where it ran off to, it wouldn't escape him.

“All of you stand by. I’ll go drag him back here,” Dusk ordered, prepared for the chase.

One of his subordinates spoke up. “Your Majesty, why don’t I go after him instead?”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3203

Dusk replied. “No, I have to capture him myself!”

Boom!

The emperor then stomped on the airship harshly, sending himself up into the air and turning into a ray of light. With that, the chase began. Dusk was now traveling quicker than the speed of light. People wouldn’t even be able to see him with the naked eye. Hence, the crowd started discussing amongst themselves.

“Say, how long would it take the emperor to catch Alex?”

“I’m more interested in knowing if the Little Divine Phoenix would come out to help him.”

“If the Immortal-slaying Sword Formation was actually used, the North Emperor could only grieve. But it’s very possible that this formation would be useless now.”

Both Alex and Dusk couldn’t care less about the crowd’s assumptions.

The mirror image’s speed was becoming quicker and quicker. It made the North Emperor even more doubtful, unable to understand how Alex could travel this quickly underground.

Within a minute, the mirror image had already left Pompeii and headed in another direction.

He decided to lead the emperor to a dungeon. It was the first dungeon that he had ever entered, the Spiritual Valley Dungeon located near Floral Valley.

“Argh!”

“Shadow Blood Art!”

The emperor yelled, his body glowing bright red, his speed seemingly increased as well. As he got near, Dusk flung his palm out, creating an enormous pit in the ground. Unfortunately, Alex’s mirror image was struck, causing it to blow up instantly.

“Huh? What happened?” The North Emperor was shocked to realize that it was just a mirror image.

‘There’s no way! If it really were a mirror image, how could I not notice that from the beginning?’

Dusk noticed that a figure was dashing underground at the very bottom of the pit, shuttling away to a far distance. It was another one of Alex’s mirror images. However, he thought that this was Alex’s real body escaping, as he had blasted the mirror image just now. He yelled out once more, chasing after the second mirror image.

At the same time, Alex was situated underground, protected by the Ancestral Bodhi Tree. No one knew that his actual body was still here.

‘There are too many people on that airship. This may be a little difficult!’

More importantly, it would be nearly impossible to bring such a large ship into the dungeon. It would seem that it was too hard to take over the airship. However, Shelly’s voice suddenly rang in Alex’s ears. “Do you want that ship up there? You know, it can actually shrink. You could even put it in your mind palace.”

Alex was shocked. “There’s no way, right?”

Ancestor Bodhi interrupted him. “How is it not possible? It can, in fact, shrink.”

“Have you guys seen this airship before?” Alex asked.

“It’s not just that,” Shelly said calmly. “This airship is called the Starship Shelly.”

“Uhm... Starship Shelly? It has your name... Did you come up with it? Okay then, I’ll name it after you once I get my hands on it,” Alex smiled.

Ancestor Bodhi huffed lightly. “Are you dumb? She means that the ship is originally hers!”

“Huh? So it was yours, to begin with? How did it end up with the North Emperor then?”

Shelly replied, “That’s not important right now. What’s important is that you have to think of a way to get into that ship, then head to the control room. I can help you take over the ship once we get there.”

‘What about those men in black?’

“Once we’re in control, we won’t have to fear them anymore.”

After that punch, Alex’s transformation had been broken off. His clothes were now torn into pieces as he turned back to his original appearance.

‘Damn it, is this guy the North Emperor’s boyfriend or something?’ Alex thought, only to see thousands of men in black running back here. All of them seemed rather bloodthirsty.

“Die!” Thousands of people shouted together.

Such loud noise struck fear in the crowd’s hearts. Despite watching from afar, they backed away even further, worried that they might get caught in the crossfire.

Whoosh!

Some were relatively quick, appearing before Alex within seconds. They took their weapons out, especially ready to kill.

“He who impersonates His Majesty must die!”

Right then, Frostine and the others froze up from worry and fear. Lena, on the other hand, was able to react promptly, ordering all the warriors within the Naga tribe. “The Lord Saint is in danger. Get into battle formation, and get ready for a fight!”

Shing!

Several Nagas started moving out. They were extremely calm and collected, ready for war. However, Alex's voice chimed in their ears. "Don't come out of there! Before I take over the airship, all Nagas must remain on standby!"

Alex was still somehow able to speak through telepathy at this time.

Dong!

Weapons clashed right into a large golden shield as the men in black attacked. That very shield originally belonged to Athena. Speaking of that, Alex felt like he hasn't physically fought someone in quite a long time. All his previous battles had relied on formations to win. Yet now, he couldn't use any formations. He could only rely on his own powers. After being slashed, the Medusa head appeared on the surface of Athena's shield. Its eyes started glowing as well.

"Huh? What's this?" The man froze, glancing at it out of curiosity.

However, he felt like his soul was solidifying just from this very glance. His entire body was turning stiff as well. Medusa's eyes could turn anything into stone when making eye contact after all.

'How is this...'

Just as this person was still wondering, Alex grabbed an exceedingly heavy Supreme Chi weapon, the Dao killing sword, slicing down swiftly.

"The Great Rage Spell!"

"True Martial Tyrant Sword!"

"Void Slasher!"

The Great Rage Spell increased Alex's fighting skills by twenty percent. It wasn't a two hundred percent increase due to this skill level. In reality, almost every single Forbidden Spell had levels to them. As they level up, their powers would naturally increase too.

Slash!

That man, partially turned into stone, was then sliced into tiny pieces. After that, tens of men in black came at him at the very same time.

“Forbidden Spell, the Great Mirror Spell!”

Whoosh whoosh whoosh!

Nine Alex appeared instantly, and they all looked the exact same. After that, they started running in different directions.

The men in black who chased after him were stunned for a brief second, then immediately turned into a few groups to kill off each one.

“The Great Icebound Spell! ”

“Die!”

One of the mirror images halted out of nowhere, then started attacking.

The man in black wasn't just anyone either. He wasn't completely frozen by the spell. Alex's True Martial Tyrant Sword was blocked off too. Only a wound was sliced into his arm.

“The real body is here!” He yelled.

With this, everyone who participated in this chase immediately gave up on their targets and headed for the true body. However...

“The Great Mirror Spell, swap!”

The actual body and mirror image switched places. One of the men in black was caught off guard when the sword came slashing down, as he thought the Alex in front of him was a mirror image.

Pfft...

An entire head was just chopped off from the neck like that

‘Double kill!’

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3206

It all happened in a matter of seconds. Alex's killing speed was unfathomably quick!

People who witnessed such a scene were shocked and under pressure... Alex once had someone send a message to the various gods and immortals who came from the universe, warning them not to arbitrarily kill the innocent on Earth. Otherwise, he would pursue and avenge those innocent people.

Everyone thought it was a joke at the time. How could the words of a Wasteland native be taken seriously?

The strength of the Earth's mainland was like that. The country had shrunk and dared not venture out. What qualifications did a slacker have to regulate them?

Everyone was preparing ahead of time, banding together to explore Pompeii Fairyland because there was no time to make waves on Earth. They killed whoever they wanted, as Alex was insignificant. However, they didn't think so.

There was some pressure.

All of the North Emperor's men, these black, clad men, possessed Heavenly Deity. That's right. These were all Heavenly Deities!

Honestly, many onlookers were stunned when the men in black demonstrated their strength. In the universe, the rules were not complete. Cultivation seemed to take a backseat, and even if one were the North Emperor, one of the eight emperors, he shouldn't be having so many Heavenly Deities under him.

However, the reality was as follows.

Alex killed two instantly as if chopping a melon or cutting vegetables.

"Oh, my God!" Luneth's mouth opened wide and she rubbed her eyes in disbelief, "How long has it only been and he already possesses such strength?"

However, it was Frostine who was the most shocked. Look at it this way, it was a heaven and earth difference. However, they were unaware that Alex had now received the Chi of the universe and was a true seeded player of the universe. It was not a strange encounter but a responsibility.

He must have grown so quickly. Otherwise, it would've been equivalent to the universe's Chi failing.

"It didn't fail me after all!"

A pair of eyes stared into that place in the endless void.

The pair of eyes belonged to Phoenix. Instead of focussing on Alex's battle, she had turned to the other side, where Lena, Sion, and the others were.

"They're..."

She sensed that these two people possessed a bloodline aura she was familiar with. It was from the Rockefeller family. They were the Rockefeller family's descendants.

Suddenly, deep within the Pompeii Fairyland, there was an obscure divine power fluctuation. It was discreet but distinct, and one of the soldiers' attributes scared her.

"Is there anything there?" Phoenix froze for a little while, then decided to see for herself.

Simultaneously, Alex discovered that the universe's lotus flowers within his body had bloomed once more. This time, three of them had bloomed. However, because he was being pursued by a slew of enemies, he simply lacked time to collect the golden pollen the flowers released.

"Can't you wait until I'm free to bloom again?"

"Won't it be a waste if I can't eat it now?"

What else could be done, though? The most important thing in life was life itself.

"Great Mirror Spell. Shift!"

Several hundred people were about to attack Alex when he finally managed to avoid them by using the forbidden art of the Great Mirror Spell. It was just that... The group also knew Alex could switch between mirror images and become much more cautious. So, although they knew it was a mirror image, they did not let it go. Instead, they split up and locked on to the mirror image to perform a targeted attack.

So, even if Alex could successfully move to another mirror image, he was hit precisely.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

At least six extremely powerful attacks landed on his body. Even with Athena's shield, it was a little overwhelming.

"Bluergh!" Alex coughed out a large amount of blood.

The attacks had pierced both of his legs and nearly broke them.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3207

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3207

"Earth Escape Technique!" On the ground, Alex dragged his injured self and vanished.

The Ultimate Book of Medicine, Ymir's Divine Bone, and the True Martial Marrow all functioned after many pills were ingested into his stomach. His injured legs healed in a short time, roughly the time it took for three breaths.

Ping, ping, ping...

Alex could sense that his own mirror spell had vanished, as had all of them.

The mirror spell, too, had a limit of tolerance. As the mirror spell's rankings rose, the attacks that might be tolerated got larger. But at that time, it was almost as if it was just getting started as if a blow from the Heavenly God was a little too much to endure.

"He's shattered his legs!"

“He’s got to be around somewhere. Locate him!” the man in white, perched atop the airship, exclaimed loudly.

Extremely nervous, Lena and the Naga tribe could not restrain themselves, and they rushed out. Then, the flaming lotus of Buddha’s wrath fell from the heavens.

The flaming lotus of Buddha’s wrath was enslaved by the Great Flame Spell, smacking the white-clothed man on the airship square in the face.

“Save the gentleman!” a few black-clad men yelled, then dashed towards the airship.

A swarm of men in black clothes rushed over. There were as many North Emperor’s troops on the ground as there were, and five men in black were still searching for Alex’s whereabouts in one of the island’s corners. As a result, they discovered snowflakes falling from the sky.

“How come it’s snowing?”

“It can’t be, right?”

“Look at this snowflake! It’s unusually huge and blue!”

Having never seen such beautiful snowflakes before, a man stretched out to pick one up.

“Don’t touch them!” someone growled sternly.

However, that person’s finger had already made contact with the icy blue snowflake.

Snort...

The snowflake transformed into a blue ripple and vanished in an instant. The man’s body froze over at a breakneck speed.

“Ah! Old Deng... Old Deng!”

Someone stepped up to the man and shoved him. As a result, the man immediately disintegrated into myriad fragments.

“Ah!”

“Be wary of the blue snowflakes! Don’t touch them, and get out of here!”

However, they quickly noticed something amiss as the soles of their feet became glued to the ground, and they were unable to move. Their feet had actually frozen and were attached to the earth.

Someone yanked firmly. Then, something miserable happened. The entire foot was completely ripped-off. There was no blood anywhere near the broken leg, only ice slag.

This scene, to put it mildly, was somewhat amusing. For them, however, it was unusually horrifying.

“Please, please!”

“That guy has arrived. He has arrived!”

The Heavenly Gods, like everyone else, were terrified of death. They discovered that no matter how they used their divine powers and the power of rules, there was no way to dissolve the ice seal on their bodies. Hence they turned to their companions for assistance.

A swarm of people rushed up. As a result, a dragon’s roar erupted from underground at that precise moment.

Boom!

There was a deafening eruption. It was a massive greenish-golden dragon that erupted from the ground.

It was Neela, of course.

Neela was several times stronger than before, and her body was larger. She had recovered most of her previous strength, and she had also absorbed her bestie’s dragon soul into her body, giving her the ability of an ice dragon.

Phew!

A mouthful of icy cold dragon breath sprayed out. The four frozen people immediately turned into ice sculptures.

“How did a dragon appear out of nowhere?”

“Can you tell me what kind of dragon this is?”

Whether it was the men of the Northern Emperor or onlookers, they were all perplexed at the same time. Those with a keen eye immediately recognized it, “Oh my God, this is Benares Dragons!”

“Didn’t they say the Benares Dragons were wiped out long ago?”

“How can such a dragon exist?”

At this point, the famous old man appeared to recognize the name and recalled a previous incident, saying, “I remember, rumor has it that the Benares Dragons, in the war with the undying clan, almost went extinct, due to a hundred deaths.”

However, the God of luck rushed over, where he discovered the dying Benares Dragons’ Neela. He sealed her in a pagoda, but where did it finally go?

No one was aware...

“It is, in fact, the last Benares Dragon!”

Some people are stunned, while others sigh. There are also those who were excited.

“Look, up there are people!”

“This... Is truly incredible.”

Alex was standing on Neela, holding a shield in one hand and a Dao killing sword in the other. He found it odd that Athena’s shield, which had withstood so many heavy blows from the celestial gods, was not even broken, rather, it had a strong self-repairing ability, and the shield's strength would follow the user's cultivation realm and change along with it.

This was incredible. Athena's golden lance was shattered. However, this shield was clearly much stronger than the lance.

"Neela, the most important thing for us now is to get to the search control room on the airship as soon as possible because the North Emperor is returning. He is one of the eight emperors, and he is very strong, and he despises me to the bone."

Alex explained to Neela.

Of course, Neela came out because she really wanted to. She was done with her retreat and was ready to go.

"What eight emperors? Never heard of them. They must be trash. What is there to be afraid of? Pluck all the hair on his body and tie him on a rope like a toy when the time comes."

A voice came from Neela's body that was out of time. This was not what Neela had said.

Alex was completely taken aback.

"It's Belindo!" Neela spoke hesitantly.

Belindo was the Ice Dragon Clan's princess. Back then, when Alex rescued his grandfather, Nolan, in the thousand year old icy pool, he had also rescued the nine ghost dragons. To his surprise, they were all related to Neela, particularly Belindo, her sister.

Neela was the sole survivor of the nine ghost dragons. The rest of the ghost dragons were transformed into energy and absorbed into Neela's dragon body!

It was why Neela's strength had recovered so quickly. Belindo had also temporarily entered Neela's dragon body. At the time, two sisters were sharing one body.

"Sister, don't be so rude in front of the prince," said Neela to Belindo.

Belindo stated, "The prince is one of ours. He won't mind, right? If my sister belongs to the prince, then I, Belindo, who is in her body, naturally belongs to the prince. We will serve the prince together in the future."

Alex made no denials. However, at this time, many people dressed in black were coming.

"Rush to the airship!" Alex exclaimed hurriedly.

"What are you afraid of? A bunch of trash? One breath of my dragon breath will send them to hell," Belindo said.

"Belindo, don't brag," Neela said flatly.

"I think I really can. Why won't you let me try?!" Belindo cried.

Neela ignored her and ran straight to the airship. She could feel a strong person approaching in the distance.

Roar!

The Benares Dragon's massive body pounced on the airship.

"She must be stopped!"

"Kill her!" On the ship, a man in white yelled.

"Prince, your Great Icebound Spell is powerful, give me some," Belindo said.

Alex was taken aback, "How am I going to give it to you? You don't mind being frozen by me?"

"Are you joking? Auntie is the ice dragon Clan's leading elder sister, how can she not withstand the energy of the ice attribute?" Only after Belindo had finished speaking did she realize she had been impolite and quickly apologized.

Alex grinned. Without hesitation, he transferred the Great Icebound Spell's energy to Neela. Alex didn't dare to put in too much at first.

"Oh... Prince..! It's so good... More... Bigger!" Belindo could be heard saying.

Neela was even embarrassed. Her sister, Belindo was extremely nervous and had no concept of shame.

Alex noticed that Neela's body was completely capable of withstanding the onslaught. He was no longer polite at the time. The Great Icebound Spell was surging into her body.

"Does it suffice?"

"Enough already. It's cool!"

Alex's mind was taken over by Belindo's alternate voice. At this time, Neela's body appeared streams of icicles, her scales visible through the thin blue ice.

"Take care, left side!" This was what the Ancestor Bodhi was warning about.

"As well as above and below!" This was said by Shelly.

So, Alex was not fighting alone; he had a team and companions.

The Northern Emperor Dust finally returned at this point.

"Alex, you cunning little beast, I will break you into pieces!" he roared from afar.

When the black-clad men heard the voice of the Northern Emperor, their spirits immediately rose.

"Kill!"

Hundreds of black-clad men quickly approached.

"Sister, now is the time!" exclaimed Belindo.

Neela's dragon body trembled violently, the ice on her body shook violently, and her mouth opened wide, spewing out a stream of extremely ice-cold dragon breath with a violent flick.

Swish...

The dragon's breath formed a circle in the air before dispersing. The two hundred or so black-clothed people who had gathered in all directions were all frozen into ice sculptures in one fell swoop. This ice seal's strength even surpassed Alex's Great Icebound Spell. This was because this was a mash-up of the Great Icebound Spell and the Ice Dragon Breath. That silver of sky was transformed into a world of ice and blue instantly. Even space itself stopped in its tracks.

The man in white on the airship wanted to rush over, but when he hesitated, he turned around and ran, he felt the power of Neela. To face her alone, he would almost certainly fail.

Alex had a bad feeling about this man in white. Standing atop Neela, he blasted out a volley of ice arrows.

"Go to the command center!"

Swish!

Alex had been told the search control room location by Shelly for quite some time. They rushed over like lightning at this moment.

The Northern Emperor arrived as well.

"Go to hell!"

The Northern Emperor slashed out ferociously at Neela. Heaven and Earth changed colors as a result of that slash, and the sun and moon lost their light.

It was as if the entire universe had been reduced to this slash.

"Stop it!"

Alex confronted him with Medusa's Shield. He had planned for this Medusa's Shield to be unwanted at best. He could only give up this shield in the face of the Northern Emperor's attack, hoping to block it. However, unexpectedly, the Medusa statue on top of the shield let out a scream, which, like a shock wave, petrified the knife that the Northern Emperor was about to chop down.

Ping!

The stone knife had shattered. The Medusa shield, on the other hand, was undamaged.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3210

“What?”

“How could... It be like this?” The Northern Emperor was taken aback.

If not ten percent, then eighty percent of his strike’s power, and the sword he used was far from ordinary. It would be too humiliating for him to use a large road item as one of the eight Emperors.

His sword, the Nine Star Tyrant Sword, was one step away from being a supreme weapon...

Despite having many supreme weapons, the Northern Emperor still preferred this Nine Stars Tyrant Sword because this weapon, which had followed him for the longest time, was also gradually upgraded and had great potential. In the future, it was expected to outperform the supreme weapons.

However, Unexpectedly. The shield was actually petrified and shattered in a scream.

Was this some kind of cosmic joke?

Belindo did not understand the key, but when she saw the Northern Emperor’s weapon petrified and shattered, she laughed, “What kind of emperor is this? Self-appointed, right? How could you take a broken stone weapon and use it as a weapon? Go away!”

Neela grasped and clawed at the Northern Emperor. It was as if space had been ripped apart at that moment. No, not as if, but in fact.

That swathe of space, which appeared as black flickering spatial cracks, had been torn. The Northern Emperor, on the other hand, was wild and arrogant. He let go of the sword’s hilt and swung his palm at the dragon claw that Neela had grabbed.

Boom...

It was as if space itself had exploded.

Neela's massive body was lifted by the energy explosion's shockwave, and her massive wings flapped to stabilize her figure as she sent a message to Alex, "Prince, you go quickly, I will block him!"

Alex presented the Medusa shield to her.

"This shield is magical, and its power far outweighs my expectations; take it just in case!"

Alex knew that now was not the time to be nagging, the gunfire on the airstrip was too powerful to allow the Northern Emperor to take control, or else something disastrous would occur! He left a mirror image, his real body moved instantly, and rushed to the airship control center at top speed.

"Very well, you little female dragon, I fancy you, I want you to be my pet and become my mount!" said the Northern Emperor.

Neela snorted coldly, "You're crazy!"

"Then we'll see what happens," the Northern Emperor said.

After a brief pause, a large flag was thrown out with a wave of the hand. The overall black flag is embroidered with an ancient evil blood red totem resembling a strange-looking cow. This flag grew in size after being flung out of hand into the wind. It grew to be a hundred meters tall in an instant, spreading the sky and fluttering in the wind. There was a burst of energy on it.

The following second...

Northern Emperor kingdom's black-clothed guards, who were previously scattered in various locations, appeared in an instant under the flag. This big flag could actually summon those people in an instant to the side. It was truly magical.

"Follow my order, and capture that dragon alive!"

"I want this dragon to be the emperor's only mount!"

The people in black reacted when they heard this.

“Sister, we appear to be in trouble,” Belindo said, her voice muffled by a toothache.

“Do you have a good idea?” asked Neela.

Belindo pondered and replied, “Do not stop until we have achieved our goal! I’m hoping that our little man will be able to fix this broken ship soon! Damn, this evilness in the universe, we’ve worked hard to protect them in the past, but in the end, they seize an opportunity to trap us when we are in danger. Human nature is really inferior to our dragon race.”

“Don’t simply yell. The prince is the prince. How could you call him a little man,” Neela said.

“We slept with him. Isn’t he our little man?” laughed Belindo.

“Huh..?” said Neela.
