The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3311

Neela's dragon body enlarged more than twofold. It covered the sky and earth.

Roar!

Neela roared...

She was currently displaying hostility. Among the group of experts in the universe who tried to kill Alex, a few people groveled on the ground and shivered in the roar. It was the suppression of the biological chain.

Neela was a Benares Dragon, so the other demon tribes naturally dared not be reckless in front of a Benares Dragon. Under the great coercion of the biological chain, they couldn't help but kneel and capitulate to her. The current Neela had already regained the strength of the ancient era, and it was much more than that.

She moved her dragon eyes, staring at that woman who was sowing discord. The next second, she activated the racial supernatural power, Time Stop!

That was right. It was a time-attributed supernatural power that could stop time to a great extent within an affected range. It was a relative concept of stopping time, and a complete stop was impossible. It was a relative concept of stopping time, and a complete stop was impossible.

It was a racial supernatural power that Neela had obtained from the retreat this time. She never possessed such supernatural power when she was in the strongest state in the ancient era.

Phew!

She rushed over. The flow of time in the affected range was ineffective to her.

In that instant, the group of people out of the Time Stop's range was stunned. It turned out that there was such an overpowering supernatural power. The Benares Dragons were really favored by Heaven. They helplessly watched Neela grabbing that woman.

Bleugh!

She vomited a mouthful of blood from the squeeze.

“You are... A member of the Peacock tribe?!” Neela immediately recognized her. “Could it be that the members of the Peacock tribe have also become the lapdogs of the Witch Cult?”

Esmeralda said, “This is really intriguing. Your ancestor, the Peacock Heavenly King, waits for Alex Rockefeller to find her. And, you, a woman from the Peacock tribe, are trying to take Alex Rockefeller’s life. If your ancestor were to find out about it, he would probably eat you alive.”

“Nonsense!” That woman was furious.

She was indeed a member of the Peacock tribe. Furthermore, she bore a grudge against Alex. She was Christine Orlando, the younger sister of the Peacock princess, Dolores Orlando. Dolores died at the hands of Alex, so she wanted to avenge her sister.

“The Peacock Heavenly King has long died. How could she be acquainted with this Rockefeller guy?”

“You unworthy descendant who cursed your ancestor for dying prematurely, aren’t you afraid of the Peacock Heavenly king to eat you up?”

After that, she took out an item. It was a feather coming from the Peacock Heavenly King.

Back then, the Peacock Heavenly King, controlled by a devil, battled with Agatha and the others and shot out many feathers. Although most of the feathers were retrieved, Esmeralda collected a dozen feathers.

They were good items.

“Look. What is this?”

Christine was dumbstruck upon looking at it. It turned out to be a peacock plume. It was very ancient, judging from its appearance and the bloodline aura emanating from it. It was the real peacock plume. Moreover, its level was extraordinarily high and lofty.

“Where did you get it from?!”

“The Peacock Heavenly King gave it to me, of course!”

The next second, Christine directly knelt down in front of Esmeralda.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3312

Christine certainly wouldn't kneel before Esmeralda but the Peacock Heavenly King's peacock plume.

“Hmph!”

Esmeralda cast a cold glance at Christine. “Do you think you will be fine after you kneel down? You sowed discord and tried to kill my man! You can't redeem yourself even after a hundred deaths! I'm going to kill you!”

Esmeralda's love and hatred were distinct. She would not allow a scourge like Christine to stay here. Esmeralda wanted to kill her on the spot.

Christine hurriedly shouted, “Wait a minute! I know the person who can dispel the Witch Curse!”

“Huh?”

Esmeralda's hand fell. Indeed, the Witch Curse was a weight on everyone's mind.

It was because Alex and several other important people were under the Witch Curse.

Hearing the voice, Martiny also rushed over. “What did you say? Do you really know someone who can dispel the Witch Curse? But, I heard that the Witch Curse is an undispellable curse.”

Her husband, Gilbert, and Metzli were under the Witch Curse. She had been trying to figure out a way, but she had not been able to dispel it.

Christine said, “It is dispellable, but only one person can dispel it in this world... I know you may not believe me, but you will probably know it if I say that person's name.”

“Who is it?”

“Leah Sullivan!”

Esmeralda was startled for a moment. She was the leader of the League of Cultivators, who had many information channels and knew a lot of information. She really knew about the name “Leah Sullivan”. That woman was number one in spellcraft in the ancient era and was born with a cursed physique. Her curses were powerful, but she was also the number one dispeller of curses.

However...

“Didn’t Leah Sullivan go missing a long time ago? Rumor has it that she cursed herself to death.”

Christine said, “I don’t know where Leah Sullivan has now gone either. However, Leah has a disciple who has inherited all her legacies. Moreover, she even surpasses her master. Her ability in curses has surpassed Leah’s. I know where this person lives.”

Martiny said, “Alright. I will guarantee your safety as long as you help us find that person.”

At the same time, Alex and the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens also reached the final phase in Tiffany’s consciousness.

Tiffany’s will was being trapped by Alex’s three thousand lotuses. Alex and the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens were equivalent to having entered a no man’s land. The remaining bit of Tiffany’s soul power could not withstand the two people’s torment and instantly vanished into thin air.

“Mystic Maiden, why don’t you stay in Tiffany Wallace’s body first? We can win by surprise at the right time!” Alex said to the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens, “I think the black-clothed person next to her is more dangerous.”

The Mystic Maiden agreed to it.

The people within the bloody force field were currently trapped and could not get out. She could collaborate with the people inside if she pretended to be Tiffany.

The next second, Alex returned to his physical body. He saw Tiffany, who was being trapped by the three thousand lotuses.

“Miss Wallace, how are living conditions here? Is it comparable to a five-star hotel? Look. What a blessing to have so many lotuses to accompany you!” Alex laughed heartily.

He was totally unprepared for the fact that the three thousand lotuses had managed to trap Tiffany. With the ax, he initially intended to hack this b*tch’s soul to death.

Tiffany was infuriated. Never did she expect that Alex would trap her here.

“Old witch, you still pretend to be young despite your old age. Come, tell me. What are your plans exactly? What are you planning to do? Tell me every last detail. Then, I will treat you according to your attitude.”

Tiffany sneered. “You only managed to trap me with the unique magical treasure of these three thousand lotuses in your body, but you can’t do anything about me with your ability. You can’t harm me at all.”

“Is that so? I’ll give it a try!”

Alex approached her and poked her body with a sword.

It was harmless, but it was extremely insulting.

Tiffany was furious. “Where are you poking?”

Alex said with a smile. “I’m poking you to find out which part is the tenderest.”

He gave up after poking dozens of times.

“You are really an old witch. It feels like poking old gluten wherever I prod. How boring.”

In fact, he failed to poke her. It was useless.

Tiffany sneered. "You will never understand the greatness of the Witch Cult. My soul has long since stepped into the level of a witch. This is an attribute belonging to the ancient era. You simply can't hurt me with your current means! Brat, I think you are decent. You can be my right-hand man. If you join the Witch Cult, I can teach you how to cultivate ancient spellcraft so that you can set foot on the path of an ancient powerhouse."

Alex said, "I want to try it one more time before I answer you."

"You still haven't given up? Fine. Try it. I will call you 'daddy' if you manage to harm me in the slightest."

Alex grabbed her arm. In fact, it was a soul's arm. Then, he took a bite.

"Psychopath, do you think this body of mine is solid? Can it even be gnawed?" Tiffany was disdainful, but the next second, she screamed.

Unexpectedly, Alex's bite inflicted pain on her. Alex's teeth really managed to hurt her soul, which was exaggerating.

"What... What have you done to me? Why am I feeling pain?!"

Alex laughed uncontrollably. "Great Swallow Spell from the three thousand forbidden spells!"

He activated it...

Tiffany was shocked and afraid. She realized that her will was weakening, and her soul power was being devoured and sucked away. This kind of feeling was unprecedented. She struggled desperately, but the three thousand lotuses were controlling her.

"Old witch, you didn't expect this situation, did you? Forget about calling me 'daddy'. I don't want such an old daughter like you..."

"Great Swallow Spell! Suck it!"

"Ah!"

Alex discovered a lot of information about the Witch Cult being sucked together while sucking away Tiffany's will and soul power. The content he came in contact with was terrifying, involving many secrets in the ancient Witch Kingdom.

Alex was instantly astonished. He stopped. "Is the great warlock you were talking about real? The ancient era's law of the great warlock could even annihilate the Undying Clan?"

It was the information he found out after devouring a portion of Tiffany's soul power.

Tiffany was terrified. "What is that sorcery of yours? It could even find out about my memories?"

Alex said, "Don't be surprised. I can even obtain all your memories, but I've changed my mind now. I can consider not killing you if you tell me how to break the current predicament."

"You wish!"

"I will suck it then!"

This time, Alex directly devoured her chest.

As soon as the devouring began, Tiffany screamed miserably. It was too humiliating. Hares may pull dead lions by the beard. She was the great dignified witch of the Witch Cult, a bigwig who had lived for countless, yet she was being sucked like that by a young man who was dozens of years old?

She lost her soul power rapidly. At this rate, her soul would dissipate within ten minutes.

"Wait! Wait! Wait a minute! I will tell you!"

"You should have done that long ago. You will have a bright future if you cooperate obediently. If you refuse to cooperate, I will eat you up. I will find out about it by then."

Tiffany compromised. After all, she did not want to die. She said, "Do you know what that person is? He is not someone from the diffracted universe but from the Chi universe. If you want to turn the tide, there is only one way now."

"What?"

"Let me go! I will deal with him!"

"Do you think I am a fool?"

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3315

Her body was not dead yet.

“I better do it myself! You people should feel honored for becoming the nourishment to awaken to a great warlock!”

The man in a black outfit and black hood roared abruptly. Clothes on his upper body were broken inch by inch, revealing his lean figure. However, there were countless bloody runes on the surface of his body.

“De-po, de-po...” The man uttered strange syllables that seemed to be some kind of mysterious incantation. Spooky and terrifying energy slowly emerged from the surrounding air, enveloping his body.

“Rise!”

The bloody force field began to emit light. Especially, the moon on that sign became increasingly brighter and bigger. A denser stench of blood even floated down.

Alex roared, “What are you waiting for? Let’s attack the snake’s left eye together!”

Alex took the lead and acted first.

He unleashed the Ten-Point Forbidden Spell, Great Flame Spell, and the Great Icebound Spell at the snake eye in one fell swoop.

Dorothy and Esmeralda also followed suit.

After that, the people from America and the members of the Flying Eagles also took action.

When Nora, Bunty, and the others saw that some fence-sitters among the universe's folk had no intention of moving, they immediately scolded loudly, "Are you guys dead? Why aren't you guys attacking? You will be considered accomplices of the Witch Cult and killed without mercy if you don't perform well within three seconds!"

Those people wanted to reserve their strength at first, but they could only strike after being told like that. However, the huge snake's left eye did indeed possess high defense.

It did not show any sign of damage at all.

Meanwhile, that black-clothed man began to exert his strength. That bloody moon that was getting larger and brighter emitted a blinding light, covering the entire platform with a dense, bloody layer of aura. At the same time, countless shadows suddenly flew down from the bloody moon.

They were carrying the whistling of wind at a breakneck speed.

"Ah! What are these things?!"

"They must be something terrible! Kill! Kill them!"

Countless attacks landed on those shadows. However, most of the attacks were ineffective.

On the other hand, those shadows were like living creatures that could identify their targets automatically. They flew down and rushed into the people's bodies.

"These are Witch Demons! They can plant the Witch's Seed, or brand, in a human body. The moment the Witch's Seed matures, the parasite will transform into the flesh and blood required by the great warlock."

At that moment, someone sent a telepathic message to Alex. It turned out it was Tiffany. “The Witch Demons aren’t afraid of normal attacks. Only light-attributed attacks and attacks with the law of Buddhism can be effective against them.”

Alex couldn’t care less about the reason Tiffany had said such things. He immediately switched and used the Great Mighty Divine Palm. The result proved that Tiffany did not lie.

“Guys, use the techniques of Buddhism or light-attributed attacks. Only these two types of attacks are effective against them.” Alex announced the answer.

However, everyone was dumbfounded. Not to mention that the light system had been extinct for many years, Buddhism was gone too!

How many people had learned the techniques of Buddhism?

At that moment, someone shouted, “I remembered it! I have learned Ksitigarbha’s Ten Wheels Earth Incantation before! I can use that!”

Alex smacked his head.

The teleportation portal of Kala Temple was with him. Countless cultivators who had learned Ksitigarbha’s Ten Wheels Earth Incantation and the monk, Pindola, were inside, but he did not know if he could open it here.

He gave it a try and found that it was successful. He was instantly overjoyed. He immediately rushed in!

Just as the crowd looked at each other in dismay and suspected that Alex had escaped, he rushed out with a dense crowd of people.

“Ksitigarbha’s Ten Wheels Earth Incantation! Seal of Noble Light!”

What was the sensation when a million people used Ksitigarbha’s Ten Wheels Earth Incantation simultaneously?

It could be described in one word-shocking!

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3316

On the stage of Mount Olympus, a bright holy light shone through, with millions of Seals of Noble Light blasting out together.

The entire area was lit up, driving away all the energy and several Witch Demon spirits. As the holy rays of light merged together in this space, the spirits let out a horrifying cry, then disappeared into thin air.

Juergen was shocked. The man in black, who came from the Chi universe, was petrified as well.

They had never seen such a large commotion. Even when the Siddhartha realm hadn't had such strong power during its best era, let alone the other eras. There had been many times that millions of people had to fight. Moreover, when the Stoermer sect led Supremes to fight the Undead, there were even more who had to participate in the war.

Despite that, those battles didn't have such extreme strengths.

Alex had altered the Ksitigarbha's Ten Wheels Earth Incantation, adding a special trait to it. It was now able to gather millions of people's mind power into one. Moreover, the amount of power didn't merely gather. It became even more powerful within itself, which pushed the incantation to a higher level.

Boom!

The incantation then attacked the Witch cult symbol and Blood Moon on the screen. After that, another million rays merged together, forming a bundle of rope. After a loud noise, the dark red color on the moon faded. It even seemed rather worn out.

"How is this possible?"

The man in black looked down, mouth still agape. He couldn't believe that there were this many high-level Buddhists in this area, nor did he know how the energy merged together. This was simply impossible to some extent.

Normally, having so many people attack at once would only disperse their energies, which led to the inability to merge. Yet this situation just didn't follow those rules.

"Attack the snake's left eye!" Alex roared, sending out a fire dragon to attack the snake's eye from above.

Just then, he yelled again...

“Ksitigarbha’s Ten Wheels Earth Incantation, Mahayana Righteous Seal!”

Everyone listened to Alex’s orders and formed a seal together, mustering all their energies.

Just as they sent the seal out, each had a ray of golden light behind their backs. It was the phantom of a golden Buddha. Following that, their spirits turned into a ten thousand meter Buddha statue, as if it could reach the skies.

“Let’s go!”

The man in black gave up on his previous plan and instantly leaped up into the air, flying to a further distance.

“Quickly!”

The man was already at his speed limit but managed to leave Mount Olympus, rushing into the dark and cold space. Even then, he continued to run at full speed. This was not what he had expected to happen at all.

The snake’s left eye was then shot right through as the blood boundary was blasted into a layer of red mist, falling apart.

The man in black was currently deep into space, spitting out a mouthful of black blood. He had been injured when the blood boundary shattered. There were serious consequences when setting that boundary, which only caused him to vomit blood over and over again.

“After them!” Alex said as he immediately started dashing.

Tiffany, who had previously fainted, got up out of nowhere. She then punched the defenseless Juergen with all her might.

Juergen had never expected Tiffany to suddenly get up, let alone attack him. Before he could react, the woman struck him on the forehead which was where his mind palace and consciousness were.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3317

Boom!

A non-existent voice exploded within Juergen's head.

He thought, 'Fuck, why hasn't this b*tch died?'

With his mind palace being destroyed, Juergen died right there and then. Moreover, this 'Tiffany' was now the Mystic Maiden. During that short time frame, she was able to take complete control of her body, using it as her own. Unexpectedly, she was able to see miraculous effects.

"Ah!"

The people within the universe were stunned. They couldn't understand how Tiffany would turn her back on Juergen. More importantly, Alex had mentioned how he trapped Tiffany's soul a while ago.

'Who is this then?'

However, Alex and the others didn't feel the need to explain and rushed off instantly.

Dorothy and Esmeralda were relatively quick to take action, dashing out of Mount Olympus and attacking the galaxy. One summoned a fire phoenix, while the other turned into a green snake, crossing voids.

"Hmph, you can't possibly catch up to me, so give up!"

"It's all because of that wretched woman Tiffany that our plan failed. I must not make the same mistake next time." The man in black muttered to himself.

Suddenly, a woman's voice chimed in his head. It was cold and hostile.

"You won't have a next time."

"What? Who is that?" The man in black was very shocked, as the voice sounded as if they were right next to him. Yet it was apparent that he fled to the depths of space and that there wasn't anyone near him.

'Who's talking to me?'

Just then, a sword was swung towards him, slicing him in half within a split second. Only then did someone slowly appear in front of the man.

The person was Agatha. She somehow managed to catch up to him.

She then frowned as she looked at Alex, speaking in her sweet cutesy voice, "What's happening? It's just a small battle, so why the large commotion? To the point the entire America is alerted?"

"I've fallen into someone's trap."

Agatha furrowed her eyebrows after hearing Esmeralda describe their entire situation. "The Witch Kingdom, the Witch cult... And the warlock. By restoring the ancient universal trait of the Witch, we'd be able to defeat the Undead? Where is this Tiffany Wallace? I'd like to speak to her personally."

Esmeralda asked, "Master, will you really believe such lies?"

Agatha said, "You guys may not know much about the Witch Kingdom, but I kind of do... My mother is part of them."

"Huh..?"

Everyone gasped, as the Witch Kingdom was quite ancient, and it had been millions of years since it had disappeared.

Alex asked a bold question, "Miss Agatha, how old are you now?"

Agatha replied, "Time passes rather quickly. Millions of years have gone by. Besides, I've been staying in different time realms for several years. How could I possibly remember my actual age?"

After a short pause, she got back on topic. "I think Tiffany's words are quite believable."

Alex pointed to his own mind palace. After that, Agatha astral projected into a ray of light, entering his head.

She then saw Tiffany in there, asking straightforwardly. "Where's the warlock you mentioned? If you can convince me, I can help you revive him."

Tiffany stared into Agatha's eyes for a minute, replying. "The Undead Territory, in the Pantheon Tomb of Pantheon Dusk..."

Alex's consciousness was there as well, exclaiming with joy. "I've been there! That's where the Mystic Maiden was buried."

“You’ve been there?” Tiffany gasped. “How did you even get in? The Pantheon Tomb is very mysterious, it doesn’t even have a fixed location, and it’s in the Undead Territory. Yet you were still able to get in?”

Alex said, “I went in by accident. Oh yeah, Miss Saria went in there too... Hmm, from what you said, you don’t seem to know where the tomb is. Then how would you know that the warlock is in there?”

Tiffany replied, “He told me.”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3318

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3318

“What?” Alex and Agatha both jumped slightly.

“The warlock himself told you that? Could he still be alive?”

“Who is he then?”

Since Agatha’s mother was a citizen of the Witch Kingdom, she was familiar with some matters within the place. Despite this, she honestly had no idea who the warlock was.

Tiffany responded. “That’s because I received his legacy. I got every single thing and information on the Witch cult from that.”

Alex spoke up. “I think you should give up on that legacy. Whatever that Witch Curse is, it’s quite literally had. It harms and kills people, and it is born from pure evil... Oh, by the way, may I ask something? What kind of person were you before receiving the legacy?”

Tiffany huffed. “The Witch cult’s goal had always been to save every living being and help the Witch Kingdom rise back up to its glory. We would be able to chase the Undead away from this universe too.”

“The bloodthirsty and evil methods of the Witch cult are actually just one of our flaws. It’s all because of the current law power Within the universe. It’s no longer just as abundant as the ancient times. When the kingdom was in its best era, the Witch trait was everywhere, and now there’s only 0.0001 percent of it left...”

“So if one wants to keep going down their journey as a witch, they would have to use other methods. The process is basically the same as long as they don’t stray too far from their path.”

Alex shook his head, he naturally disagreed with her views, but they had to get back to the main topic.

Tiffany meant that she could communicate with the warlock through her divine consciousness for a brief while when she was receiving the legacy. He told her that His current body was within the Pantheon Tomb and wanted her to find and revive Him.

Agatha frowned. “I think something is wrong with this warlock too. If we really were to revive him, the results might not be optimistic.”

After a brief pause, she continued. “But the Pantheon Tomb might be a viable way.”

Alex said, “I’ll go ask the Mystic Maiden.”

The two then proceeded to leave his mind palace. As Alex’s consciousness returned to his body, he immediately went to look for the Mystic Maiden. Agatha followed him as well.

Upon hearing all this, the Mystic Maiden was confused. “The warlock is in the Pantheon Tomb?”

Agatha said, “Alex mentioned that he brought you out of the Pantheon Tomb before. I’d like to ask... How did you end up inside the tomb? What happened there?”

The Mystic Maiden shook her head. “I have no recollection of this anymore. Everything’s a blur.”

Alex tried helping her remember. “I do. I saw your grave at the very corner of the Pantheon Tomb. Your grave was very different from the others. It was blank. It didn’t give out a single piece of information about you. And it was the smallest one. Everyone else’s grave had names, at the very least. Some even had their achievements carved in and were much bigger.”

The Mystic Maiden took a while to think to herself, but still, it was to no avail. In the end, she said, “I can’t remember anything at all, so it’s useless asking me now. It's probably because my soul had been heavily injured in the past. If I can find my body again, I might be able to remember something."

The Mystic Maiden's identity was rather mysterious in itself, after all.

Agatha nodded. "Looks like we have to make a trip to the Undead Territory."

Alex asked, "Should we look for Revealer Maha in the nether realm or to look for the Pantheon Tomb first?"

He figured it was best to plan ahead before they actually took action.

Agatha replied. "Let's go to the Undead Territory first."

If they went to the nether realm to look for the Revealer Maha, they'd be looking for the entrance to the Dairaiionji Temple. They'd be able to lend their power then and find the way to the Ancient Path. Such a mission would take years, even decades, to succeed. Moreover, if the secret to defeating the Undead was, in fact, hidden in the Pantheon Tomb, looking into that would be their greatest priority as of now.

Alex took another glance at his father in the Ancestral Bodhi Tree. The process was much smoother than he had expected. The soul planting mark on William had almost faded at this point, with Shelly and Ancestor Bodhi monitoring at the side.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3319

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3319

Alex then told them about the Pantheon Tomb and their current plans.

Shelly said, "In reality, the sudden disappearance of the ancient Witch Kingdom had always been an unsolved mystery within the universe. When you mentioned the Pantheon Tomb, it reminded me of something..."

"Back in the Siddhartha realm, there was a myth about a crazy monk going around. It was rumored that the monk had come from ancient times and had seen the destruction of the Witch Kingdom himself. That was why he ended up going crazy. Every time he sees someone, he would talk about divine punishments and the graves of the living dead...”

She advised him. “I naturally wouldn’t stop you from looking for the Pantheon Tomb. But I think you should wait for another two days. Your father is recovering very quickly, and I think he will wake up soon. And that divinity wouldn’t be arriving that fast anyway.”

A day later, Alex and the others finally returned to Yukon, and that was the day that there was an update on the news in the Divine Dreamcatcher...

[The Undead has shown up again!]

[They managed to conquer seven large Large Life Worlds in one go, leading to many casualties among the natives of the Diffracted universe. Not more than one-fifth of the natives could escape their attacks]

[The invasion is progressing quicker, as they surrounded cities and closed in until nothing was left, rapidly taking over the lands of the Diffracted universe]

[They are growing stronger.]

Moreover, they provided clearer videos on the device this time. It was astounding that videos within a Memory Crystal could be uploaded to the Divine Dreamcatcher. Although no one knew who put it up, they were currently able to clearly see how the Undead invaded the human world.

From the looks of it, everyone who read this news felt upset and enraged. The entire universe was drowned in endless fear once again.

Yet this was the day that William finally woke up from his coma. He had successfully counter-devoured Maguire’s soul, removing the soul planting mark on him. With this, he was able to walk out of the Ancestral Bodhi Tree all by himself...

It was only natural that he, as a living person, wouldn’t be able to exist within Alex’s mind palace. That was why the tree just transported him back to reality.

Thud!

The man sighed the moment he landed on the ground. When he devoured Maguire's soul, he received some information about their situation. He was extremely furious about the Rockefellers being wiped out, but it was easier to move on, especially after he swallowed his enemy's soul.

"W... William?!" Brittany gasped, trembling. She had already gotten the message a while ago and was waiting in a room.

William lifted his head. His eyes met with his wife's. Putting up a warm smile, he called out to her as well. "Brittany..!"

Brittany instantly started tearing up, crying involuntarily. The two then approached each other, embracing tightly.

She sobbed. "You've been hiding this from me for so long!"

William felt awkward all of a sudden. He did, in fact, hide a lot of information from her when they were still physically together back then, mainly to protect her and their son. Cultivation was a very dangerous path, as it would be going against the Gods...

He nearly ended up as someone's puppet after all, despite how careful he had been.

"It must have been hard for you, my darling!"

William felt like he was dreaming while caressing Brittany's face. She still seemed as if she was still twenty. After that, he gave her a loving and passionate kiss on the lips.

After ten or so minutes, Brittany pushed him off before they got too carried away. "Come on, we've been together for so long now. Let's head out, our in-laws are waiting outside, you know? We simply can't make them wait, it'd be so embarrassing."

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3320

"Is our in-law... Claire Assex?"

William took a good while to even remember that name.

Before leaving America, William knew that Alex and Dorothy were getting married, despite not attending the ceremony. That was when he and Brittany got into a car accident, after all. They were still on their way to the venue.

Since then, some enormous changes had occurred, which led him to fake his death and live as a completely different person. He didn't even get to see his son getting married.

Brittany nodded. "It's not just her, by the way."

William responded. "Mhm, the Assex's is quite a powerful family after all. I bet they became greater while I was away. With the money and status within Rockefeller Group, Alex must've helped them whenever they needed it."

This made Brittany reminisce about the past. She couldn't help but scoff herself. However, now was not the time to go into detail, so she said, "We'll talk about this later when we get the chance. We should meet the others now... Oh wait, your clothes are a little shabby. Let me get you some fresh new ones."

She then brought out a spatial ring right in front of William, rummaging through it.

"That's weird. It should be here."

"Could I have placed it in another ring? Hold on, give me some more time."

Brittany brought out another ten spatial rings and rummaged through them for quite some time. Only then did she find something that suited her tastes.

"When we last moved, I packed all your clothes and put them in a spatial ring. Then the number of things just kept increasing, leading to more rings. I forgot which is which at this point."

William stared at his wife, wide-eyed as if this was the first time he got to know her.

"How... How many spatial rings do you have..?"

William had been a cultivator for some while, but he only owned two spatial rings, one of them was merely a few square cubes. Yet his wife, who he thought knew nothing about cultivation, was able to use spatial rings, bringing out tens of them.

'Is this my wife?'

'Or have I been away for so long that I can't catch up with this new era?'

Brittany pondered for a while. "Spatial rings? I never really counted them. I probably have thousands by now."

"What..! That many?"

William was even more shocked now.

"Could our family have started selling spatial rings?"

'Why else would she have this many? The entire Rockefeller family would at most have tens of them!'

Brittany replied. "You'll have to ask your son. He was the one who gave all these to me. He would give me any resource that he didn't need just yet, and I'd tidy it up."

"Handling these rings is a pain. You know how big these rings are, right? Sometimes it'd be the size of a football field. How could I possibly handle all of that on my own? Fortunately, our family is big. Else I'd die from exhaustion."

"The size of a football field?" William's mouth was left agape.

It was natural for him to feel such sheer shock, as he had no idea what the world had become after the past few years, nor the drastic changes within his family.

After helping him change into his clothes, Brittany said, "Alright, alright, hold with the questions. You should dress up nicely and meet everyone first. The little ones would love to see their grandfather... Oh yeah, since this is your first time meeting them, you should give them a gift. Money is practically useless right now, but this is an old tradition, so just take it as a little blessing."

She then handed him six large red envelopes. Each of them had eight thousand eight hundred eighty-eight dollars in them.

"Why are there six of them?"

“We have... Well we have six kids in our family, that’s why... You know, we’d even end up with more of them by new year’s?”

“Six? Alex and Dorothy have six children now?!”

“Nope, Dorothy gave birth to quadruplets. The other two children were birthed by his other wives. ”

William froze. “Other daughter-in-laws?! Alex... That brat divorced Dorothy and married other women?!”
