The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3331

“Great... Space Folding Spell!”

Alex used the two types of three thousand forbidden spells that he had just learned at the critical moment, which eventually gave him hope. Under the blessing of these few forbidden spells, he quickly took Holly and teleported forward, a few dozen meters each time. He teleported over a hundred times. He was so tired that he became feeble.

Finally, he felt as though his body had been pulled out of a quagmire.

He had gotten out!

Thud!

Alex fell directly to the ground. He saw a familiar figure standing next to him. Who else could it be other than the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens?

“Mystic Maiden, luckily, you are here. I would’ve been miserable otherwise.”

Gasping for breath, he lay flat and refused to get up. The woman before his eyes was the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens, but in fact, she also wasn’t.

It was because the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens that Alex knew was still inside Tiffany’s body. The one before his eyes was the main body of the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens.

She was standing right before Alex, looking down at him.

She said in a pleasant voice. “So, you’re the thief! No wonder I felt a familiar scent on you. You’re the one who stole my Soul-guarding Bead! Hand over the Sou1-guarding Bead, or I will kill you!”

‘Uhm...’

Wasn’t that too exciting?

Alex thought he finally found a trustworthy ally, only to discover how large of a misconception it was. He hurriedly got up and looked warily at the woman before his eyes.

Compared with the previous appearance of the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens, both their facial appearance looked almost identical, but there were also some subtle changes. The Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens in front of him gave him a prehistoric sensation.

It was not easy to get along with her.

He hurriedly said, "Mystic Maiden, we are good friends... Oh, no! We have a family relationship! During this period, I got along well with your soul. We're a family that shares everything."

Having said that, the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens became even angrier.

"What did you say? In that case, you even deceived my younger sister?"

Confused, it was Alex's turn to be dumbfounded.

"Your younger sister? Aren't you the same person?"

"Hmph! You probably don't know, do you? My sister's soul and mine are inside one body. I am the elder sister, whereas she is the younger sister. We both are the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens, but you thief inexplicably came to our Pantheon Tomb, stole my Soul-guarding Bead, and took away my sister hidden inside. Hand it over immediately, or I will kill you!"

Alex was dumbstruck, but it was then that a huge figure descended from the sky and landed hard right in front of Alex.

He said to the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens, "Stop it! You stopped me when I was going to kill him just now. You have to ask for my permission if you want to kill him now! He swallowed my blood slave, so he should belong to me."

The comer was towering and dauntless.

He was more than three times taller than the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens. He was ten meters tall while standing there. He was the Primal Old Devil.

Unexpectedly, the guy who dearly wished for Alex's death wanted to rescue him now instead.

"This guy stole my younger sister and even deceived her feelings! He may have defiled my younger sister! Primal Old Devil, do you intend to go against me?"

As she spoke, another woman's voice carried over. "I'm siding with Primal! This man can't be killed! Only this man came and left our Pantheon Tomb. If you kill him, who will come and help us?"

"That's right. He is our only hope."

"I also agree with Seventh Sister's words. Mystic Maiden, this man can't be killed!"

The voices were heard one after another. Alex was shocked as he listened to the voices. After careful identification, he realized that all those voices came from the large tombstones around him.

It was really preposterous!

Did all the deceased in the Pantheon Tomb come to life?

Alex was astonished.

On the other hand, Holly was even more dumbfounded. Holding Alex's hand tightly, she asked in a low voice, "Bro, what is this place? Have you been here before? Why do these people look so strange?"

"Are they all tombstones inside? Could it be that the ones talking to us are dead people?"

Alex said, "Those are indeed tombstones, but they are probably not dead people. Instead, they are dead gods... This place is known as the Pantheon Tomb. The ones buried in this place are all gods who died in the dawn of time."

"Huh..? The dead gods from the dawn of time?"

It was Holly's first time hearing about those matters. She was going to be baffled at that time.

Consequently, the Primal Old Devil then said, "Wrong... We aren't gods that died in the dawn of time."

Alex was startled for a moment. "Wasn't it the dawn of time? Is it the Archaic period then?"

The Primal Old Devil said, "You are wrong again."

"What was that era?"

"The era is correct, but what you are wrong about is that we aren't dead gods. We are all living gods."

Noticing that the Primal Old Devil did not speak ferociously, Holly became slightly bolder and asked, "How can all of you not be dead when you are buried in this tomb? Only your souls are alive now, right?"

The Primal Old Devil laughed heartily as he said, "Human girl, do you want to touch my toes? You will find out whether I am a soul or possess a physical body."

As the Primal Old Devil spoke, he placed his huge foot in front of Holly.

Holly retreated while pinching her nose. "It stinks!"

A smell was present, indicating that he was not purely a soul

Alex asked, "You just said that you aren't dead yet. What does that mean? Did you bury yourselves in the tomb and find it was cool inside?"

A voice that sounded like a young man came from a tombstone. "We certainly wouldn't be foolish enough to bury ourselves in the tomb. Someone sealed all of us in this place to become someone else's sacrificial offerings."

“What?!”

Both Alex and Holly were stunned.

The Primal Old Devil and the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens had just made their moves, so they both knew their strength. And that was just two of them.

There were hundreds of tombstones in the entire Pantheon Tomb. Who could have such a great capability of sealing so many gods from the dawn of time in this tomb and sacrificing so many gods?

“Who sealed you here?”

After thinking about it, it did not feel right. Alex looked at the Primal Old Devil. “Your physical body even came out of your grave. Why do you still need someone else to rescue you? Can’t you just directly walk out?”

The Primal Old Devil snorted coldly, “Talk is cheap. The gate is just over there. You should walk there and take a look.”

Alex did not come to the Pantheon Tomb for the first time. He naturally knew where the gate was.

At that moment, an old voice said, “Primal, have you forgotten that he came in three years ago? He then went out again. So, you shouldn’t be disconcerted. Perhaps he can really walk out directly.”

‘Uh..?’

Alex looked in the direction of the gate. The Pantheon Tomb was enormous and very tall. The gate was also a towering existence. The width of the two frames reached several hundred meters, not to mention the height. Every building in this place reflected the concept of majesty.

Holly said, “I’ll walk out and take a look.”

She seemed shocked.

The gate was not closed at all. It seemed to be a desert outside, where she could clearly see the sand and desert with varying elevations in the distance. A sandstorm even existed. However, just as she was about to step out of the gate with one foot...

A mighty intangible force blocked her body. It seemed to be an extremely sturdy, invisible wall.

Holly shouted at Alex, "Bro, I really can't get out!"

As she said that, she slammed her fist down.

Countless exclamations were heard behind her. "Don't smash it!"

However, it was too late.

In return, an extremely violent force shocked Holly's body, sending her flying. She vomited a mouthful of blood in mid-air, and her body fell rapidly like a kite with a broken string.

Alex was astonished. He hurriedly dashed to the location where Holly landed before holding her in his arms. At the same time, layers of invisible sword aura emerged in the Pantheon Tomb and crisscrossed before they started to descend overhead at a breakneck speed. Then, they filled the entire tomb.

The Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens and the Primal Old Devil screamed. Some mysterious force seemed to be pulling the bodies of the two people, forcing them to fall into their own graves.

Meanwhile, that invisible sword aura in the air quickly reached Alex... Alex roared and protected himself and Holly with his strongest defense. Nonetheless, the sea of crisscrossing sword aura did not slash Alex's body.

The sword aura seemingly possessed spirituality and avoided him while it was about two meters away from him.

Hence, Alex was unscathed.

Holly was lucky that she did not receive any further damage. Even so, the injury she suffered from the shock earlier was very severe.

Alex hurriedly treated Holly with the Ultimate Book of Medicine. Fortunately, Alex's methods of curing diseases and rescuing people were profound. After a while, Holly woke up, but a lingering fear existed within her mind.

"What a terrifying power. I felt a recoil ten times the energy I lashed out. It almost killed me."

Eventually, the sword aura all over the sky vanished. Tranquility returned to the interior of Pantheon Tomb. Those graves and tombstones were not injured by the sword aura. They all looked intact

"How amazing!"

"It's simply unbelievable!"

"Who the heck is this guy?"

The tombstones spoke one after another. This scene was really uncomfortable.

At least Holly's entire body stiffened, and she felt as though she saw ghosts in broad daylight.

Alex asked, "Are you guys talking about the one who sealed you here? It is indeed awe-inspiring to be able to achieve this extent. However, do you not know the identity of the one who sealed you?"

A voice said, "We were talking about you. You are amazing."

"That's right Those sword auras were avoiding you on purpose and preventing you from getting injured."

"I strongly suspect that he is the son of that d*mn monk"

'Me? A monk's... Son?'

"What do you mean? A monk sealed you guys here?"

The Primal Old Devil said, "We aren't sure whether it's a monk, but it's a baldy."

Hearing his voice, Alex asked, "Why did you run back into the grave suddenly?"

The Primal Old Devil answered, “Do you think I was willing to do that? I couldn’t act of my own volition. A mysterious force in this tomb controlled me and dragged me into the grave... Under current circumstances, I have to accumulate power for another decade before I can leave the grave.”

The more Alex listened, the more shocked he became.

The situation here was more complicated than what he guessed. He initially thought the Pantheon Tomb was an actual cemetery, but now, he only found that it was a cage for gods.

He walked toward the gate. He also wanted to try and find out if he could walk out of the gate.

Swoosh!

He did not encounter the energy wall that Holly mentioned. He lifted his foot and walked out easily.

At that point, all the old geezers in the graves exclaimed.

“Is there a wall?”

“Why didn’t I sense anything?”

Alex turned around and looked at the Pantheon Tomb and heard consecutive exclamations from the inside. He felt as though he had not walked out of an open gate but a powerful prison.

The wind whistled outside. The view was different from when he came in for the first time. This place did not seem to be inside the Undead Territory.

He remembered the situation in the Undead Territory. Not a trace of spiritual energy existed in the surroundings, and it was entirely lifeless. A layer of unknown, cold gas blotted out the clouds in the sky and covered the sun. The sun could not be seen at all. Of course, it was unknown whether the sun existed in this place. However, spiritual energy existed in this place. Furthermore, the density of the spiritual energy exceeded Alex’s imagination.

Or rather, what was floating around here could not be described as spiritual energy at all, but it was a unique gas that was countless times more advanced than the spiritual energy. Once he inhaled a mouthful of it, the three thousand lotuses in his body seemed to have smelled the scent of a meat bun at once. Without waiting for Alex's activation, they automatically activated the devouring mode inside his body.

Buzz!

Endless unique gas was continuously sucked into Alex's body.

An energy vortex was slowly formed in the sky overhead. When the unique spiritual energy gathered together and formed a certain scale, the energy had turned into visible light, turning the entire vortex green. If one looked down from the sky, he would discover that this green vortex was like a huge bowl. And the bowl was still expanding in size.

The gods in the Pantheon Tomb were aware of it. Although they were sealed in the tomb, their perception abilities via divine sense still existed. Sure enough, everyone did not know what to say when they sensed the situation outside.

"This guy isn't a human, is he?"

"This is the Celestial Chi that can kill a god. He just treated it as spiritual energy and directly sucked it into his body?"

"Isn't he afraid that the Celestial Chi will rampage inside his body and smash all his internal organs?"

Holly was worried that Alex would be in danger after hearing the discussion of those gods. She hurriedly ran toward the gate to check on him. However, she saw that Alex's complexion was normal without a sign of discomfort.

Only then did she feel relieved.

Such a state lasted for an unknown period. Alex felt that the absorption rate of the three thousand lotuses slowed down, and a bizarre light glowed on each lotus.

At the same time, the Primal Old Devil suddenly said, “Do you guys sense it? The energy suppressing us in this annoying tomb has reduced quite a bit. I can catch my breath.”

“What’s going on?”

At that moment, the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens said, “I understand it. The Pantheon Tomb has existed for so many years, yet such powerful energy is still present to suppress us, a few hundred gods from the dawn of time, to become that monk’s sacrificial offerings... The Celestial Chi out there should be the main reason. Because of the presence of the Celestial Chi, the energy in the Pantheon Tomb will never be depleted. However, he devoured too much Celestial Chi just now and weakened the tomb’s energy instantly.”

Everyone suddenly became optimistic after hearing that.

“D*mn. After a half-day fuss, it turns out that this is key to our imprisonment here.”

“What a pity. So many of us have been trapped here for a million years, but we knew nothing.”

“What could we do if we knew it? That’s the Celestial Chi. Can you eat it as a snack just like him?”

The gods’ perception of Alex became even more confusing.

Nonetheless, they currently knew that devouring the Celestial Chi would weaken the energy in the Pantheon Tomb. They were eager for Alex to continue devouring it quickly. It would be best if he could suck away all the Celestial Chi here. However, it was clearly not something Alex could decide alone.

After the three thousand lotuses were full from consuming this energy, they immediately ceased the devouring action. The green vortex overhead also disappeared.

When Alex opened his eyes, the desert in front of him was already different.

It was unknown if the Lunar Chi had blown away the layers of desert earlier, revealing the scene beneath the desert. This place turned out to be a city.

That was right. A huge city lay beneath the desert.

Alex got up. Those gods in the Pantheon Tomb became quiet one after another.

It was until a certain moment that someone exclaimed, "D*mn. Isn't this the Sinless City of the Witch Kingdom?"

"What? This place is the Sinless City in the ancient legends?"

"During the heyday of the Witch Kingdom, the Sinless City suddenly disappeared. The most important sacrificial altar of gods in the Witch Kingdom also vanished at the same time."

"This place..."

"This place is the sacrificial altar of gods!"

"We are the offerings on the sacrificial altar!"

After figuring out something, the gods in the tomb seemed to have come to their senses. Even so, such a result devastated them even more.

Although those people were ancient gods, the Sinless City and the sacrificial altar of gods were existences used by the top-notch warlock to worship the god of creation. The place contained robust laws and various miracles, such that the top-notch warlock back then dared not mess with it.

Who the heck was that monk?

Why did he have to sacrifice them on the sacrificial altar of gods that had disappeared countless years from the Sinless City of the Witch Kingdom? Moreover, an entire century had passed.

Alex looked at it outside for a long time. He returned to the Pantheon Tomb. After learning the city's identity beneath that desert, he did not know what to do for a while. In fact, he came here to find a way to make the Undying Clan retreat.

“Guys, let’s not care about this whatsoever, Sinless City, for the time being. Can I ask you all a question?”

Alex had now become the only hope for this group of people. Since he wanted to ask a question, naturally, nobody would refuse him.

“An alien race called the Undying Clan is madly invading the universe. The number of undead creatures is too great, and their combat power isn’t weak. Regular attacks are ineffective against them. Buddhist and holy-attributed attacks can inflict permanent damage...”

“I would like to ask you all. What is the solution to this situation? After all, my homeland is currently suffering the calamity. Under such circumstances, I can’t stay here to help you guys for a long time. Most importantly, I may not be alive to come here next time...”

It was an undisguised threat from Alex.

“The Undying Clan?”

“What are those things?”

Alex described the characteristics of the Undying Clan.

The next second, a woman’s voice said, “Divine Monarch White Bone, could it be this so-called Undying Clan made by your White Bone Scepter?”

Another voice said, “Most likely.”

‘What the hell?’ Alex was slightly dumbfounded when he heard that.

Such a powerful Undying Clan was something made by a magical treasure of a god buried in this tomb?

“Where the heck is that White Bone Scepter of yours?”

“Is it inside your coffin?”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3336

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3336

Not to mention Alex, even Shelly and Ancestor Bodhi hiding inside his mind palace were slightly dumbfounded.

If the Undying Clan was really something caused by a magical treasure of Divine Monarch White Bone, then wouldn't he lift the catastrophe of the Undying Clan if he acquired the White Bone Scepter?

Divine Monarch White Bone in the grave said, "The white scepter has long been lost since a million years ago. I also don't know its whereabouts right now."

Alex and the others thought about it too.

If the White Bone Scepter was still with him, the threat of the Undying Clan would not have existed... With the premise that the Undying Clan was truly created by the White Bone Scepter. This was an extremely important point.

Alex asked, "The number of the Undying Clan is inexhaustible, and their great number is simply indescribable. Moreover, they can't survive in the normal worlds of the diffracted universe. They need to build something called the blood pool to transform the spiritual energy between heaven and earth into deadly Chi that they can absorb."

He explained the characteristics of the undying Clan in detail.

Eventually, Divine Monarch White Bone said, "You don't have to say it anymore. I'm 100% sure that White Bone Scepter of mine created this incident."

He then explained, "The White Bone Scepter came from an extraordinary origin. Even if it was during the heyday of the Witch Kingdom, this magical treasure was the supreme item in the mortal realm. It's not hard to do what you described! It can summon the deceased's souls and reorganize the shattered souls into different undead creatures, but there's a problem. It requires a huge amount of energy."

Holly asked, "Since your scepter created the Undying Clan, can you make those undead creatures die with your scepter? What I mean is complete death."

Divine Monarch White Bone said, "I can..."

Alex and the others were overjoyed after hearing that. If that was the case, the crisis of the Undying Clan would be resolved once they found the White Bone Scepter. It was completely beyond their imagination. It was an unthinkable truth, yet it was clearly displayed before them.

Alex asked eagerly, "How do we find your White Bone Scepter?"

"If I could leave the Pantheon Tomb, I would be able to sense the location of the White Bone Scepter. Unfortunately, I've been trapped here for a million years and couldn't go anywhere!" Divine Monarch White Bone sighed as he said, "This is the only way now. You have to get me out of here first. Then, I will go find the White Bone Scepter."

At that moment, the Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens said, "Divine Monarch White Bone, you better save your breath. Since this place is the sacrificial altar of gods in the Sinless City of the Witch Kingdom, the probability is almost zero now if you intend to use him to escape this place."

Divine Monarch White Bone was startled. "Why?"

The Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens said, "Once the sacrifice in the sacrificial altar of gods has begun, there is no way to stop it unless someone enters the Sinless City, finds the legendary Witch Crown, and forcibly aborts the sacrifice with the supreme Witch King's will contained in the Witch Crown."

Divine Monarch White Bone said, "Go find it then!"

The Mystic Maiden of the Nine Heavens snorted coldly, "You don't even look at this current cultivation. Primal Old Devil's Blood Clouds almost annihilated him. Once he enters the Sinless City, he will be instantly assimilated and become a puppet soldier of the Sinless City."

Alex did not understand much of what he had heard, but he understood one thing. The Sinless City beneath the desert was very dangerous, and his strength was insufficient.

"If you wish to enter the Sinless City, you have to take the Ancient Path first and achieve a Witch's body." Divine Monarch White Bone stopped talking upon hearing that.

Primal Old Devil was very dejected. "Taking the Ancient Path is easier said than done. That place is full of dangers. You will lose your life if you are not careful. And more importantly, how long will it take? We've become sacrificial offerings here for a million years. I think the time is almost up. We are about to be sacrificed. We may not be alive by the time he comes back after achieving the Witch's body."

Another man said, "I agree with the Mystic Maiden's words. If he takes the Ancient Path, there will be a lease of life. If he goes to the Sinless City, he will be dead."

The Primal Old Devil said, "But you guys saw it too. He is extraordinary. The powerful tricks in the Pantheon Tomb were ineffective against him. Perhaps the Sinless City will be friendly to him..."

"Do you dare to make a bet?"

"We've waited for a million years. With our assistance, it will take him a millennium to walk the Ancient Path."

"Alright. Let's wait for another millennium then..."

"He is our only hope."

Those gods spoke their minds as if no one else was around.

Alex smiled bitterly after hearing that. Those people were deciding his fate. However, he was not a fatalist.

"I won't go anywhere without destroying the Undying Clan." Alex directly said, "The Undying Clan will attack my home soon. I have to go back to defend my home, coexist, and perish with the people at home. If the Undying Clan retreats and I am lucky enough to survive, I will come back to you and think of a solution."

"No!"

A group of people immediately screamed.

If the Undying Clan killed Alex, who else could they look for?

The miracle that Alex had displayed here proved that he was the only hope... As for Saria, who also came in last time, they all believed that it was because Alex came in first. Even so, up to now, they were uncertain what was so special about Alex.

“I can teach you a way to sense the location of the White Bone Scepter.” At that moment, Divine Monarch White Bone said, “Moreover, you said the Undying Clan comes out constantly. Then, I can confirm that the White Bone Scepter must be in a place that constantly produces the Undying Clan.”

Divine Monarch White Bone allowed Alex to approach him. Shortly afterward, he directly passed an incantation and a method to Alex. He told Alex that he could sense the location of the White Bone Scepter with the incantation and the method.

At the same time, Divine Monarch White Bone also informed Alex that they could establish some kind of connection with him. Alex could communicate with them under a certain condition with such a connection. He could even borrow a portion of their power at the most critical moment.

Alex readily accepted it.

The tomb was full of bigwigs from a million years ago. It felt amazing for a few hundred bigwigs to serve him alone.

After a few hours, a passage returning to War Mountain was formed again.

The passage that the Primal Old Devil had built previously, but he was injured slightly just now, and the energy consumption was a little too great. This time, Divine Monarch White Bone opened the passage and successfully sent Alex and Holly back to War Mountain.

The Ancestral Bodhi Tree’s roots were disabled in the Pantheon Tomb. Otherwise, it would be more convenient.

Seeing the current situation of War Mountain, Holly couldn’t help but feel a little sad.

This place was where she lived during childhood, and it was filled with many memories, but now, the Mountain Warriors Sect had completely disappeared.

“Holly, we will come back and rebuild War Mountain after the Undying Clan is destroyed! Are you okay with it?”

Holly nodded. “Yeah!”

Shortly afterward, the two people rushed non-stop back to Yukon.

Consequently, they learned a piece of terrible news. The Undying Clan had returned to the great world of America once again. This time, the military strength of the Undying Clan was several times greater than before.

The great world of America was at stake. Meanwhile, the Wasteland would be affected soon.

“We’re running out of time!”

“We have to go to the Undying Clan immediately!”

The news reached the ears of Agatha, Saria, Phoenix, and the others. Those few women were elites who survived the ancient era. They were also the absolute main force for the expedition to the Undead Territory this time.

“Divine Monarch White Bone’s magical treasure?” Agatha was reminiscing about the past.

She seemed to have heard of the name Divine Monarch White Bone. Sure enough, her mother was a figure belonging to the era of the Witch Kingdom and had told her many things.

When Alex said that several hundred great deities were being trapped in Pantheon Tomb, Agatha’s expression suddenly became excited.

“Have you met someone named the Heavenly King Thousand Feathers?”

Startled for a moment, Alex asked, “What does this Heavenly King Thousand Feathers have to do with you?”

Agatha said, “He is my grandfather.”

“Huh? There were a good number of graves. I didn’t look at each of them in detail, but I’ll help you keep an eye on him next time. I’ll definitely inform you if he is over there.”

“Alright. I’ll leave it to you then.”

“We are on the same team. Why are you being polite?”

After that, Agatha directly called Esmeralda and notified a few experts from the League of Cultivators via a special method to come over and head to the Undead Territory together.

The waiting took three hours.

Meanwhile, William and Brittany couldn’t help feeling worried when they knew that their son would venture to the most dangerous place again. However, they had no reason to stop their son, given the current circumstances. Instead, William was open-minded. “Son, you have grown up and are shouldering the safety of the entire universe. As your father, I truly feel proud. Alright. Don’t waste your time on two old people like us before you leave. While there is still some time, go reunite with your few wives and talk to them.”

Talk? What was there to say?

How could it be more down-to-earth than doing the deed directly?

Neela had now comprehended the supernatural power, Time Stop. This supernatural power could modify time. Incidentally, it could also speed up time flow in a specific small area.

He still remembered that Saria once said that Grand Emperor Rowan had a villa with him. It was an extremely special bedchamber. A minute outside the villa was equivalent to a month inside. When Grand Emperor Rowan had nothing to do, he would enjoy conjugal time with his 108 beautiful wives in that special bedchamber.

He did not have 108 beautiful wives, but after a careful count, there were about a dozen of them. Since he had to do the deed, he could not favor one over the others!

Hence, he asked for Neela’s help to set up a time domain in a disciple room in Yukon Sanctuary. Neela had no way to create such a ridiculous difference in time flow, where one minute outside was equivalent to one month inside. Nonetheless, such a result as one minute outside equivalent to half an hour inside was still barely acceptable.

After setting up the force field, Neela asked Alex, “My lord, are you going into seclusion and cultivating inside? Do you need me to accompany you?”

Alex said righteously, “How can you accompany me to cultivate in seclusion? Won’t that affect me? Neela, you have to follow me to the Undead Territory soon. When we get there, no one will know the exact situation. We have to be mentally prepared. Think about what else you want to do but haven’t done. Hurry up and do it, or...”

“Ahem. I’m not boosting the enemy’s morale while undermining my own prestige, just saying.”

Neela blinked her beautiful eyes. “My lord, if you want to do something but never get to do it until you die, won’t you regret it?”

Alex said, “Of course!”

“If I do it, but the result is not very satisfactory, what should I do? For example, pissing someone off?”

“Neela, you are so pretty, gentle, and considerate. How can you piss someone off? Unless that person is your enemy. Whether the enemy hates you or not, does it matter? Just kill that person.”

Neela was overjoyed. “My lord, is what you said true?”

Alex said, “It’s true, of course. How can I lie to you?”

“That’s great!”

“Hehe! Go!”

“My lord, I’ll really do it then!”

“Hurry and do it! Do it quickly!”

The next second, Neela suddenly pushed Alex onto the bed in the room where the time domain had just been set up.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3339

Neela's pretty face blushed as she revealed her perfectly proportioned body. She stripped off all her clothes.

A woman's perfect figure was displayed before Alex's eyes. Each area was so beautiful it would suffocate him. Her fair, long, straight legs were exuding an ultimate beauty.

"My lord, I've been wanting to do this for a long time. I want to bear your child."

"Ah... Neela..."

Alex was shocked. Unexpectedly, the unfinished deed Neela had been wanting to do would be this.

However... However, all the latter words could not fall from Alex's lips.

Neela said, "My lord, I'm a little embarrassed. Therefore, I'll impose another domain of Time Stop on you. In that way, you'll feel nothing. I will be done with it after you open and close your eyes."

Before Alex could object, Neela unleashed Time Stop.

"Ah... Ah... I..."

Alex struggled hard, but he had not activated any forbidden spell that could act against the time domain. Hence, he had no way to resist it. The moment a word left his mouth, Neela had already stripped off his clothes. When he said the second word, Neela had directly lowered her head...

"Oh?!" Alex was totally dumbfounded. Never did he expect that Neela would know that!

However, his time stood still. In contrast, Neela's time flew fast. As a result, she was done before he could react.

The state of Time Stop was lifted. Neela helped Alex dress up again.

Flushed, Neela said, “My lord, I’m done. I’ll leave first. I’ll go out and take a look at the scenery. Proceed with your seclusion!”

As she spoke, she was about to leave.

“Stop right there,” Alex shouted, looking grievous and indignant.

“My lord, you don’t hate me, do you?”

Alex looked at her. After a while, he said, “Do you think you can get pregnant and bear a child in that way? I didn’t even do that.”

Neela said, “Yes. The secret spell of the dragon tribe can directly extract it.”

‘Holy moly!’

Alex wanted to faint at the fact that it could be done in that way. However, he did not feel anything. It was too much of a loss.

“This is wrong. I wonder if you have heard the principle of natural seclusion before. If you want to bear a child, you have to bear the healthiest one. There must be a problem with the extracted one. Hence, come here, and I’ll teach you how to do it so that they can compete better.”

Shortly afterward, the entire room vibrated slightly. Half an hour inside was equivalent to one minute outside.

Ten minutes later, Neela left. Alex also walked out. After a while, Maya was led in. After another few minutes, she was replaced by Waltz, Luna...

Beatrice just happened to see such a bizarre scene here. She was very curious. The people went in one by one, but what were they doing inside?

Eventually, she discovered that her elder sister, Dorothy, also went in.

She was simply curious. After a while, she mustered up the courage, pushed open the door, and walked in.

The people inside were probably too focused and did not know there was someone extra at the entrance.

Beatrice was curious at first. When she saw the two people were doing the deed inside, she immediately blushed and kept her legs shut. After spitting lightly, she intended to leave.

However, she had second thoughts. 'It's not right! I'm also a daughter-in-law who served Alex's father. I deserve a seat in this place.'

Most importantly, she was no longer young. The children of those people her age were already talking about love. Did she really want to be a spinster for the rest of her life if she did not work harder?

She was not a man. If she went overboard accidentally, something terrible would happen.

'Yeah! I helped my sister to take care of her children for several years. She deserves to help me, doesn't she? I've called you sister for so many years. Won't I, the younger sister, be at a loss if you don't help me?'

In the train of thought, Beatrice looked at her current outfit. She frowned. This outfit was not good. It was too plain.

She had secretly observed Alex and gone through his mobile phone. She knew that many photos of mature women wearing black were saved in the image gallery of his mobile phone. This fellow had leg fetishism...

She hurriedly took out a bunch of pantyhose and a few pieces of particularly revealing clothing before she quickly got changed in a corner.

To her surprise, Alex and Dorothy began to chat. And the subject of the chatter was her.

"Darling, your mother came to me earlier for your sister's matter."

"My sister? "What can possibly happen to her?"

“Ahem. It seemed that she said Beatrice likes children very much.”

“Oh, I can tell that too. Hence, I let her help me take care of Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter all the time.”

Alex said, “She seems to like younger children. Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter are a little old now. ”

Dorothy said, “In that case, let’s bear a few more children and let her take care of them after we return this time.”

“Do you really treat her as a nanny?”

“Didn’t you say she likes children?”

“That’s her children.”

In an instant, Dorothy stopped talking.

As soon as Beatrice heard that, she hurriedly lowered her body to keep the two people from discovering her existence. She also wanted to hear how her sister would answer that question.

Consequently, Dorothy said, “In fact, it’s true that I wanted her to replace me to take care of the children and you in the past, but now, Xienna’s influence on me has been minimal. I probably won’t leave again. After all, she is my sister. If that’s really the case, it will be very embarrassing, right?... Why don’t we wait a little longer?”

It was hard for Beatrice to suppress her rage after hearing that.

‘Dorothy Assex, you really are ill-intentioned. Why try to sway him through pillow talk?’

Instead of jumping out, she quietly left the room and waited outside for a few minutes. Once Dorothy left, she rushed in.

“Huh... Beatrice, did you hear everything?”

Beatrice was startled. “So, you already knew I was here just now, and you asked my sister on purpose?”

Alex asked, "Otherwise, could you conceal yourself from your sister's spiritual sense?"

Beatrice placed her long, black-stockinged leg on him. "Anyway, I don't want to be a spinster anymore. I'll give you two choices now. First, help me solve the actual problem. Second, I'll go find your son."

"Uh. What do you mean by finding my son?"

"To call you Dad."

"Holy crap!"

"Then, I better work harder and pick the first choice!" Alex placed his hand on Beatrice's black pantyhose. He somehow felt it was slightly familiar and saw it somewhere.

"Is this the one I washed before?"

"You still remember it. Look at this broken hole here. Tell me. Did you do it?"

"Nonsense. I'll check it."
