The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3441

The moment Alex waved his hand, the laws of Dairaionji Temple changed and formed a domain that enveloped the fake Buddha.

“The tide has turned. What are you struggling for? Do you have any last words?” Alex said indifferently, His voice sounded graceful.

The evil Buddha seemed to be suppressed on the ground and could not move a muscle under the limitation of Dairaionji Temple. He knew that he had really lost. He was a step too late. Everything was over.

“I don’t understand it. You are a woman, but how did you acquire the Buddha’s Life Wheel?”

Alex said, “Actually, I am a man.”

“Impossible! If someone like you is a man, are there still women in the world?”

“It is up to you to believe it or not!”

“Winner takes all! End me fast!” The fake Buddha was straightforward and did not beg him.

However, he finally said, “You can search control Dairaionji Temple, but it may not be a good thing. Perhaps a great disaster will lie ahead! Haha!”

Boom!

The evil Buddha soon perished. The demons surrounding Empress Ghast did not last long either. After Alex activated Dairaionji Temple’s boundless laws, a great number of them died.

Dairaionji Temple returned to normal at this point, Empress Ghast collapsed from exhaustion, lying on the ground with her legs and arms sprawled out. Looking at Alex, who was floating in the air with a golden glow, she was relaxed for some reason.

“Ancestor, Dairaionji Temple has returned to normal. Shouldn’t your Ancestral Bodhi Tree return to its original place?” Alex asked Ancestor Bodhi.

“No need for the time being.” The ancestor refused. “Didn’t you hear the evil Buddha’s last words? I believe the incident at Dairaionji Temple is not over. Dairaionji Temple is constantly swallowing other cosmic nodes right now. Obviously, it cannot be done with this fake’s ability alone.”

Alex nodded. The ancestor’s words were reasonable.

Bong! Bong! Bong!

Just then, the deafening ringing of a bell was heard in Dairaionji Temple. It was the authentic Buddhist bell.

Ancestor Bodhi said with a smile, “I finally get to hear this bell ringing. The bell-ringing disappeared when the evil Buddha controlled Dairaionji Temple.”

Alex smiled and descended to the ground.

“We can open up the passage to the nether realm with Dairaionji Temple. Now that we have completed our mission, we can go back to the nether realm first!”

“Empress, we can swap back our souls!”

Empress Ghast said, “Alright...”

However, Ancestor Bodhi shook his head directly and said, “It is definitely not possible now. The time limit for Harmonization of Yin and Yang is at least three months. In other words, it will take three months before you can swap back.”

“Holy crap! It actually takes three months? Why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

“Three months aren’t that long. It will be over in the blink of an eye.”

Alex asked, “Won’t I have to experience three menstrual periods and menstrual cramps then?” Having said that, he felt a pain in his stomach again.

Blood was gushing out again.

Choiceless, he could only beckon to Empress Ghast. “Come over quickly and help me change the diaper.”

Empress Ghast rolled her eyes. “It is sanitary pad, Sis!”

“Jeez. They are just the same.”

After that, Empress Ghast got rid of Ancestor Bodhi and helped Alex change the sanitary pad. This time, Alex could not help but bend down to take a look. That sight stunned him right away. It was hairless with pervasive Yin energy.

“Empress, so you are quite good-looking.”

Empress Ghast raised her head and almost bumped into his nose. Immediately, she stomped her foot in rage. “I will chop off your physical body if you look again!”

“You will feel the pain too!”

“I will endure it, and it will be over. ”

“Fine. Let’s go back to the nether realm to pick up our people first. After that, we can leave for the Ancient Path!”

Alex was controlling Dairaionji Temple. This time, he directly opened up a portal leading to the nether realm.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3442

Whoosh!

Alex took the lead and crossed the portal. Dairaionji Temple’s teleportation portal seemed to be slower than others.

It took a full minute. When Alex saw the scenery in front of him, he noticed that he was still inside the previous Hell Tower. The interior was the same as before, and the damage after the great battle was totally unchanged. Then, Empress Ghast appeared.

The empress flashed Alex a dirty look probably because he had just seen the secret of her body... However, Alex did not care about it. The physical body was his. Even if he did not look at it, he could still feel its presence. Moreover, it would take three months. Could she keep an eye on him every day?

“The Hell Tower is in such a broken state. Can it be repaired?”

“It has a self-repair function, but it will take a lot of time.” Empress Ghast said indifferently. It seemed that she was not particularly concerned about this.

“I had long known something was wrong with the previous monk, but I didn’t expect the evil Buddha of Dairaionji Temple would create so much trouble. More importantly, he was an impostor and didn’t even search control Dairaionji Temple. Why did he want to expand the territory so impatiently?”

“The fake Buddha and even the previous evil Bodhi seem to be someone else’s pawns.”

Half a day later, both Empress Ghast and Alex returned to Ghast City in the nether realm. They met with Shelly, Lucretia, Blaze, and the others here.

“Brother-in-law, you are back. How was it? Did you guys enter Dairaionji Temple through that golden passage?” Blaze asked Alex eagerly upon seeing him, but in fact, the person whose arm he was pulling was Empress Ghast.

“I am not your brother-in-law!” The empress shook his hand away and looked aloof.

“Huh...? Brother-in-law, what’s wrong with you? Did you fall out with my sister? But my sister is not here either.”

At the moment, Shelly said, “He is not Alex Rockefeller.”

There was a mysterious connection between her and Alex. She had been staying inside Alex’s mind palace, so she was naturally familiar with his mind palace. She could sense it as long as it was nearby, but now, the familiar mind palace she sensed was with Empress Ghast.

She looked at Alex’s physical body before looking at Empress Ghast’s. She said helplessly, “Alex, I betted previously that you would be able to pick up Empress Ghast for sure. The toad didn’t believe me. It has only been half a day, and this prophecy has been fulfilled in advance.”

Was swapping souls not equivalent to sharing bodies?

That was just great.

He did not have to beat his brains out to pick up girls. With just some tricks, he could obtain the other party's body and even sense her feelings clearly... Well, he would be able to search control it perfectly for sure after fumbling another few times.

'When you swap back your soul next time, you are equivalent to holding the key to the other party's body.'

"What? Brother-in-law, you have swapped your body with the empress and become a woman?"

"This... Seems pretty good. She has ample breasts and thick booty. You can touch them whenever you are idle!"

Right after saying that, Empress Ghast sent him flying with a kick

The fat peacock was concerned about Dairaionji Temple. She immediately asked about Dairaionji Temple's situation and whether they could open up a passage to the Ancient Path.

Alex gave an affirmative answer.

"I can open up a passage to the Ancient Path after three months."

"Why does it have to be after months?"

"Because I can only swap back to my body after three months."

The journey of the nether realm concluded successfully. Alex left the nether realm and returned to Mount Yukon in the world of America. However, he immediately caused a huge commotion on Mount Yukon because of the swapped body...

"Hahaha. Hubby, your hair is so long that it reaches your waist, and its quality is better than mine."

“Are these pecs real? Alex, let’s compare who has better elasticity.”

“Hubby, I love your long legs very much. I have a pair of black pantyhose imported from France. Love symbols passed down from antiquity are even printed on it. It will look pretty on you.”

“Dad... Oh, no. I should call you Mom now. I have a male classmate who said he wanted to have a relationship with you.”

Alex felt that they had played too many jokes on him. Shouldn’t these women be frustrated and irritated because they could not acquire a normal man and get rid of their emptiness?

Why did everyone seem to be full of beans?

Not only did they take out various women’s clothing for him to put on, they even wanted to introduce him to some boyfriend.

Fortunately, Empress Ghast was by Alex’s side. She protected him all the time. She was really afraid that these women would find Alex a boyfriend.

What should she do if he got pregnant accidentally? Could she still have this physical body?

Hence, Empress Ghast took a strict precaution and found a magical treasure before putting it on Alex... It was known as the strongest male chastity belt in the world. As long as the belt was not removed, there was no way to have intercourse. Moreover, she accompanied him day and night. She even slept next to him. She even had to grab his hand, fearing that he would become a whore in seconds at night.

It was because... He had a record. When this b*stard was showering, she saw him... It was too infuriating!

At the Ancient Path, there was a prominent building complex in the corner of the primeval valley, not far away from the closed junction. Dressed in animal skins, a tall man with a scruffy beard was standing at the entrance while holding a child in swaddling clothes.

“Hubby, you are thinking of home, aren’t you?”

A stunning beauty walked up next to the man and looked into the distance.

“It has been three millennia. We have been trapped here for three millennia, yet we could not do anything. I wonder what the situation of the three thousand worlds is. The defensive force field of the world of America will end in three millennia, and now, it has actually exceeded the time frame. Can they block the Undying Army if we are not around?”

“It is pointless to think about it now, so why bother crossing a bridge before you come to it?”

At that moment, the child in swaddling clothes cried. The woman said, “Is the child hungry? Hurry and go back to tell Miselia to feed him! I am not criticizing you, but how many kids have Miselia given birth to over the years? It is enough to form a volleyball team. Why does she like bearing children?”

“It is probably because this place is too boring!”

“There are a few days before the uprising of the Witch Beasts. Seize the opportunity and make some preparations now. We will catch more Witch Beasts this time, or else the rations will be insufficient for so many people! I will be able to break through the Dominant Realm soon. When the time comes, I will go deeper to take a look.”

“Don’t ever flaunt yourself... Jeez. Unfortunately, I found only the second half of the Heavenly Witch Scripture last time. I couldn’t figure it out in the end!”

“There is no way unless your body contains the demon tribe’s bloodline. Human bodies are shackled by heaven and earth. This is probably the principle in the Heavenly Witch Scripture, where humans are not allowed to cultivate it! However, the Witch Ore can raise one’s affinity. It just takes a little longer.”

The man and the woman were planning to return. It was then that a great surge of energy suddenly appeared on the side.

“What is going on?”

“This place has been peaceful for three millennia. The Witch Beasts couldn’t have come out from here...”

Both of them were surprised. The man immediately acted and manifested a mirror image before rushing toward the building complex with the child in his arms.

“Be careful! The energy is very strong!”

“The comers are no joke!”

The next second, they saw a woman tearing open the energy vortex and coming out of it. It was a barefoot woman in a bright yellow dress. An anklet was tied on her left ankle. As she walked, a clear and pleasant ringing was heard.

Seeing the overly young woman who appeared suddenly, the man holding the child was stunned, his mouth agape for a long while.

The woman also saw them, but her eyes were cold and emotionless. Then, she lifted his foot and took a step forward. She brushed past the man and, in an instant, was ten miles away.

“Ah! Wait!”

The man came to his senses instantly. He followed after her in a flash, dashing at a breakneck speed via Instant Teleportation. He appeared in front of that woman.

The woman looked at him. “Is something wrong?”

The man pondered for a while and said, “Great fairy, please stay!”

The bright-eyed woman smiled, revealing her white teeth. “I am not the great fairy.”

“Bodhisattva, please help!” The man quietly pinched the child, who was just a hundred days old. The child immediately cried in pain. “Bodhisattva, our family has been trapped in the Ancient Path for three millennia. Material is scarce, and nothing edible in this place, My child’s mother doesn’t even have a sufficient supply of breast milk. Bodhisattva, can you do me a favor and send our family out?”

The woman looked at the child. “The child is quite chubby and cute. He is well-nourished!”

“He has a huge appetite!”

“Alright!”

“Many thanks, Bodhisattva. I will never forget your great benevolence.” The man did not fake his excitement.

Anyone who’d been trapped in that place for three millennia would have a nervous breakdown.

The woman said, “I don’t believe in Buddhism. I am not a Bodhisattva either. My last name is Hanson.”

“So, you are Fairy Hanson,” replied the man immediately. “I am Rowan. This is my wife. Her name is Phoenix.”

The woman surnamed Hanson nodded and glanced at the back. “The passage I opened just now has not been closed completely. It shouldn’t be a problem sending the three of you over. Get ready then... The other side of the passage is the abyssal plane of the diffracted universe. Just let me know if you wish to go there.”

Rowan was overjoyed. “Go, go, go. Anywhere is fine as long as we can leave this place.”

However, just as Fairy Hanson was about to make her move, he shouted abruptly again, “Wait a minute!”

“Anything else?”

“Well... I still have some family members over there. Fairy, please wait a moment. I have informed my mirror image. They are packing up and rushing over.”

“Be quick about it then!” Fairy Hanson said.

Shortly afterward, a dense crowd rushed out of that building complex. He estimated that there were at least a few hundred people. There were a bunch of kids alone.

Fairy Hanson paled. "There are... So many of them. Are they your family members?"

Rowan said coyly, "I just have slightly more people in my family."

"Aren't there too many of them?"

Fairy Hanson shook her head. "Sorry. There are too many of you guys. That passage of mine can't take in so many people. The limit is five people at most! Give me an answer within ten seconds. Which five of you will leave?"

Surprisingly, only five people could leave. The crowd was dumbfounded. Then, time slipped away second by second.

Eventually, the passage was completely closed, and no one was sent away.

The danger of the foreign land was unknown. Sending the weak ones away would certainly not work, but what would happen to the rest if the strong ones were sent away?

"The chance is gone!"

"It took me a lot of effort to open up this passage. Currently, I don't have the ability to open it for the second time. However, all of you don't have to be discouraged. The Ancient Path will be reopened shortly, and the destined one will come to this place. How about I come back next time and take all of you away?!"

The woman smiled lightly. The bell on her ankle emitted a series of light ringing before she disappeared instantly

The rest of the crowd looked at each other in dismay.

"The destined one will come and open the passage. Who will it be?"

“It is good news no matter what.”

“The hunting day is around the corner, so don’t think about it for the time being. Let’s prepare for the large-scale spell formation.”

One of the women looked like a teen, but had an ample bosom, said to Rowan, “Why is Sieg crying so hard? Hurry up and hand him over to me. I’ll feed him something.”

If Alex was there, he would have recognized the woman with the surname Hanson. She was his childhood sweetheart and female classmate in high school, Hayley Hanson.

Hayley had managed to tear open the passage of the Ancient Path barehandedly without the help of Dairaionji Temple. It was simply unbelievable.

To what extent had this strength reached?

The current situation of Rowan and the others was definitely something he could never have dreamed of. It had been three millennia. This group of people had gone together to solve the crisis of the Undying Clan, but unexpectedly, they were trapped at the junction after entering the Ancient Path.

They had failed to find the solution in the past three millennia, and instead, a bunch of children was born. Their ability to continue the bloodline was absolutely unrivaled. However, Alex also had his own trouble at this time. The fact that he had become a woman was spread. Michelle even secretly did a live stream of his daily life.

Alex’s current popularity on Earth was unprecedented and matchless. As long as it was news about him, it would definitely appear in trending searches within a few hours. He was a dauntless man, yet his soul was contained in the hot and voluptuous body of a beauty with long legs in black pantyhose, a sight that would undoubtedly arouse the interest of countless people.

“May I ask if Heavenly Emperor Rockefeller still showers every day? What if his period accidentally came while he takes a shower?”

“What is the deal with taking a shower? Women always have such a few days every month!”

“Heavenly Emperor Rockefeller, I want to have children with you...”

‘This is a man. You aren’t trying to have children with him, but you are trying to have a relationship with me,’ After that, Empress Ghast was angered.

She flew into a rage at Mount Yukon, smashing mobile phones and computers as soon as she saw them. She even hung the instigator, Michelle, to a stone pillar for a day and a night. When the poor girl was put down, she was shuddering all over and was tongue-tied.

A month later, a piece of good news came out...

Jade had woken up. She just woke up without any signs. Of course, she was not the real Jade Benmore, but the only princess of the Titan Tribe.

Xerxes, who received the news, came over hurriedly... He was now still the principal of the Flying Eagles Academy. Unlike Gilbert who did not care much about official affairs, Xerxes was an official staff... Therefore, Xerxes Lawlor did not go with Gilbert when he led the team into the Undead Territory last time. Instead, he stayed to protect America.

Sure enough, Xerxes came over to ask about the whereabouts of the real Jade.

It took Jade a long while before she accepted that Alex had now become a woman.

“If you wish to see her, come with me then!” Jade from the Titan Tribe looked at Alex. “You should come with me too.”

Having no other option, Alex nodded.

He had now become a woman. He was the daily dose of comedy for someone at Mount Yukon, and there was nothing he could do. He would rather find the real Jade, but if he left, he certainly could not leave behind the burden, Empress Ghast, not to mention how bored Dorothy and the others were at Mount Yukon. After a discussion, several women went with him.

Now that the world was at peace, even the troublemaker, England, was gone. They only had the Sword of Damocles hanging over their heads due to that indistinct extraterrestrial devil, but it could not disrupt everyone’s daily life.

Jade led the way.

After passing through the original ancient force field, they arrived at a zone containing a force field. After breaking the force field, they saw a dark castle.

“Oh my! I think we’ve been here before!”

Luna was also present in the group. Looking at the dark castle ahead that seemed shrouded by eternal twilight, she said, “However, this place was just a flash in the pan back then. We only saw the tip of the iceberg, and then it disappeared. After that, we couldn’t find it no matter how we searched.”

The former Luna was a beauty that was proficient in almost everything she did. She often secretly studied new positions with Alex and had tried almost all the positions that a human could possibly come up with. Now, she was a proper young woman. She had become mature and enchanting like a fairy. She was in her prime, looking her prettiest and most attractive... Of course, she could stay at such an age for many years if she wanted to.

“When was that?” Dorothy asked.

“Many years ago. Well, I was about eighteen at that time.”

This young woman was currently of great age. If she was eighteen years old, it would have been forty or fifty years ago.

Xerxes said, “It was ten years after the meteorite smashed the ancient force field.”

He was still very clear about this memory node because he and Jade were an enviable couple then. A match made in heaven, they were envied by everyone in the entire American upper-class society, but no one could have predicted the many unforeseen events had occurred that year.

The relationship between him and Jade Benmore came to an end. However, nobody could have expected that Jade had long been replaced by someone else at that time. She was no longer the Jade Benmore he was madly in love with back then.

“It happened a very long time ago! It’s not important!” said Alex.

Luna said, “Come to think of it, Commander Benmore was also present at that time. Therefore, she may have found this dark castle alone, but she ended up with an accident inside!”

Having said that, she looked at Jade, who was currently a member of the Titan tribe. Both of them looked really alike, and they couldn’t be differentiated at a casual glance.

Hence, Alex asked the Titan Princess, “Do you know about this place?”

The princess said, “Previously, I didn’t remember where this place was, but I knew it once my bloodline completely awakened! This is the Dark Cemetery of the Titan Tribe.”

“What? This is a cemetery?!”

The crowd was stunned.

Empress Ghastr said, “I have heard of the Titan Tribe. They are a powerful race in the Chi universe, almost at the top of the biological chain there. Only existences like Ancestor Phoenix and the Five-clawed Golden Dragon are a match for them... But why does the cemetery of the Titan Tribe appear here?”

The Titan Princess looked at the Dark Cemetery for a long while before saying, “Rumor has it that I am the only surviving Titan Tribe member in all the cosmic realms. ”

“No way. The race has been annihilated?!”

“What exactly happened?”

The Titan Princess said, “I don’t know either. I don’t even know why I woke up.”

Xerxes asked, “Can we enter it directly?”

If it was just a secret realm, he could not wait to get in. However, if this was the cemetery of the Titan Tribe, then it was of a different nature. He’d have to require the owner’s consent before entering.

The princess glanced at Xerxes. “I am very sorry for turning into your wife’s appearance, but I am not your real wife, after all. Hence, I couldn’t be with you because that would only get you killed... However, I was pleased to witness your love, which gave me a new understanding of love. Then, I found a man that made my heart flutter.”

She looked at Alex’s... physical body.

Empress Ghast felt a chill. “Don’t look at me. I am not your man. I am a woman!”

The princess said, “Your female body is about to be broken, isn’t it?”

Empress Ghast was speechless.

At that moment, a golden glow erupted from the princess’s body. It was so blinding that everyone could not open their eyes. After a brief while, the golden light faded away.

The Titan Princess’s appearance had changed drastically. She was no longer Jade, whom everyone was familiar with, but...

“D*mn it!”

“Undead... Undead Queen, Juvia?!”

Everyone was stunned. This queen had once caused an indelible psychological trauma to everyone.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3447

The next second, everyone, including Alex and Empress Ghast, distanced themselves and took a combat stance.

Putting on a serious expression, Alex asked, “Who are you?”

The woman looked at Alex resentfully. “You said you liked me when you were all mushy with me, but now you’re asking me who I am?”

“Then... Why did you change into the Undead Queen’s appearance?”

“I don’t know either. I just didn’t want to use Jade Benmore’s face anymore, but I wanted to use my original face. Unexpectedly, I became the Undead Queen, Juvia?”

Phoenix sent a telepathic message to Alex. “We are in deep trouble. The Undead Queen abandoned her broken physical body and wanted to possess her Titan Tribe body at that time. Although you stopped her successfully, we didn’t know the extent of her physical body and soul merging...”

Alex asked, “Do you think she is the princess or the queen?”

“Perhaps both,” Phoenix replied.

This case was the most troublesome one.

Just then, the Titan Princess suddenly made a move against Alex.

Tremendous energy erupted from her golden fist like a cosmic explosion.

“Be careful!” the crowd shouted.

Alex was now in Empress Ghast’s physical body, and his resistance to blows was weaker by several levels. In addition, he was unfamiliar with this body, making him completely unable to withstand the blow.

Bam!

A loud noise could be heard.

She hit Alex in the chest, punching a bloody hole through his entire heart location. Even Alex’s soul was punched out.

Empress Ghast screamed. It was her physical body.

There was no need for them to guess now. The one who could deal such a ruthless blow was definitely not the Titan Princess. It was really the Undead Queen, Juvia.

When Juvia saw that Alex’s soul was out of the body, she sneered. “Serves you right, Rockefeller! I will destroy your soul now!”

After merging with the Titan Tribe, her strength seemed to have greatly increased. She wanted to land a killer blow directly at that moment.

The women protected Alex frantically. However, it was then another problem occurred in Juvia's body. A stern shout was heard. "Stop it!"

Juvia's next movement crumbled instantly. This time, the Titan Princess regained search control of the body.

"Alex..?"

She seemed to be suffering from some dissociative identity disorder. She was still the Undead Queen who wanted to kill Alex just now, but she became the Titan Princess in the next instant. She wanted to go up to him as her eyes were filled with worry, but how could Alex's women allow her to approach him?

The next second, she changed again. She tried to launch a powerful blow on Alex with a hideous smile on her face.

Just then, Empress Ghast rushed forward and blocked Juvia's golden fist.

Bam!

The bodies collided against each other with an explosion of energy. Both of them refused to give way, but that bracelet on Alex's physical body was broken!

A young woman rushed out of the bracelet in a flash. It was Hayley Hanson!

The young woman looked furious. "You broke my bracelet! You deserve to die!"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3448

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3448

"What?!"

When Alex saw Hayley popping out of nowhere, he was a little dumbfounded. Never did he expect that Hayley had tampered with that bracelet so that she could project herself in front of him through it.

When Juvia glanced at Hayley, she sneered. "Can a projection make waves?"

“Just die!”

Juvia’s body turned golden yellow hard as she lashed out a punch with tremendous strength at Hayley. The world’s space was also frozen under the effect of this punch. Surprisingly, she had also turned the laws to her advantage.

“Hayley, be careful!” Alex’s soul reminded her loudly.

Hayley turned around and rolled her eyes at him.

Whoosh!

She stretched out a finger and pointed at Juvia’s golden fist with a clink.

An unbelievable scene occurred...

She had blocked Juvia’s domineering punch with just a finger. Even that fist, which looked absolutely harder than a diamond, emitted a series of cracking sounds. Unexpectedly, it began to break apart, inch by inch. Horrified, Juvia retreated a kilometer away.

The Titan Tribe’s body had an extremely powerful recovery ability and the shattered palm returned to its original state before anything could happen.

Her expression changed drastically. “A powerhouse of the Eternal realm?!”

When Juvia saw Hayley, a powerhouse of this realm, by Alex’s side, all she wanted was to doubt herself. ‘D*mn you! Back then, if you had come out straight away, the Undying Clan would have been long gone!’

‘Escape!’

She turned around and rushed toward the Dark Cemetery.

“You are trying to run away after breaking my love token? What were you thinking?”

The moment Hayley waved her hand, everything in the world was at her disposal.

A star in the infinite sky fell and turned into a ray of light. It turned into a white silk thread after landing in Hayley’s hand.

“Go!”

Juvia, who had run away and disappeared without a trace, was tied up and dragged back.

Tied up like a fish, Juvia was completely unable to walk. That silk thread pressed on her body, so it was evident that it seemed as heavy as a star. Even a Supreme God could not stop it.

Empress Ghast looked on at the scene, dumbfounded.

This method was simply unbelievable. Furthermore, the Undead Queen said the Eternal realm just now... The Eternal realm, what realm was it?

She had never heard of it before, but she knew that it had to be very powerful.

“Hayley, wait a minute! Don’t kill her first!”

Alex’s soul rushed over and stopped Hayley from landing a killer blow on Juvia. “She was originally a friend of mine, but the Undead Queen has possessed her, and now, both their souls coexist with each other...”

Hayley turned around with a swing of her ponytail and looked at him. “Why did you become a woman?”

“It’s a long story. There have been many unforeseen events.”

“I don’t like it!”

Such an omnipotent powerhouse scared the crowd present to the core after saying that she disliked it. If she flicked her fingers, all of them might disappear in a puff of smoke.

Under such circumstances, even the first wife, Dorothy, dared not speak up. She felt as though she had become a homewrecker all of a sudden. When she was like that, the more the other women couldn’t muster their courage. Such was the influence of a powerhouse.

When the opponent was powerful to such an extent, even thinking about resistance was out of the question, just like Juvia who was currently lying on the ground in despair

Without warning, Hayley suddenly grabbed Alex's body and extracted Empress Ghast before throwing her into her own body. Meanwhile, Empress Ghast's body was recovering astoundingly.

One minute later, Alex returned to his body. He picked up the bracelet beads on the ground...

Hayley just stood there and watched him pick them up. After that, she glanced indifferently at the women around her. Grievances of her age appeared on the young woman's face as if the young man she fancied had been snatched by someone else.

After Alex had strung all the beads, Hayley grabbed him. The next moment, she turned into a ray of light and rushed toward... Somewhere of unknown distance in the vast universe.

The women on Earth looked at each other in dismay.

"How can that young woman be so strong?"

"Who on earth is she?"

"What is the relationship... Between her and Alex?"

"Huh? Have you guys forgotten? The footage featured a young woman crushing a planet with a stomp in the Divine Dreamcatcher last time. I think it looks like her..."

At that moment, Alex and Hayley were standing in the void. Hayley cast her gaze into the deep, distant space. She pointed in a direction with her delicate finger. "Do you know where that is?"

Alex shook his head as he said, " Hayley, where is your real body now?"

"It is very far away from you! It has jumped out of this universe!" Hayley said. "That place is called Interstellar Hive, the birthplace of all universes... In fact, there aren't just two universes as normal people think, nor are they mutually inaccessible. The diffracted universe and Chi universe are the only mutually accessible universes in this multiverse... Alex, the world out there is huge. Do you wish to come with me? I can turn back and take you with me if you are willing.”

“I regret looking at those women!”

Alex shook his head. “If you take the current me with you, I will only become a burden to you, won’t I?”

Hayley sighed. “I knew you would be unwilling to do so.”

After a pause, she continued, “Before I left, I only stored a projection in the bracelet, which is the limit of what this bracelet can hold. This projection of mine can only last for an hour.”

“At first, I wanted to stay by your side like this. Now, I really have to bid farewell to you. I have a reason for my compulsory leave... After this... I might...”

She did not continue, but from the little she said, Alex knew they might not see each other again.

She gently put her fair forehead against Alex’s chin. “Will you miss me?”

Alex wrapped his arms around her waist. Their last parting without a word of goodbye was unbearable enough. Unexpectedly, they had to experience it once again. This time, he lowered his head and caught her soft lips without hesitation.

Although it was a projection, it felt exactly like a real person. Hayley’s body trembled lightly by this kiss. Embarrassment surged in side the young woman’s heart.

Hayley, who had now rushed into the Chi universe, was in the sky above an immortal mountain. She felt something was wrong as her body trembled all over violently.

“This blockhead!”

Next to Hayley was a floating man. Seeing Hayley’s sudden abnormal state, he frowned. “Hayley, what’s wrong with you?”

Hayley came to her senses instantly and concealed the fluttering feeling. "It's nothing! Let's go! We will destroy the Skyloft Mountain completely today!"

On the other end, Hayley blushed and grabbed the sky after their lips parted. Thirteen stars were summoned instantly and turned into a belt of light, wrapping around Alex.

"This is my last gift for you. When you manage to decipher the secrets within it one day, it will bring you to me!"

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3450

"This is..."

Shocked, Alex looked at the thirteen stars surrounding him. He felt his blood freeze because he had never heard of such a method, nor did he dare to imagine it.

There were thirteen planets! They were not thirteen ping-pong balls!

He stared carefully at one of them with his eyes shining with divine light.

As a result, what did he see?

He saw living creatures, many signs of life, and even a community architecture on that planet. In other words, it was a living planet with surviving beings, a large world... If that were the case, there would be thirteen large worlds for thirteen planets.

Had it become his own belt, just like that?

"Hayley, what will happen to the lives on these thirteen planets?"

Hayley replied, "Everything will be as it is! No one will take care of you and protect you when I am not by your side. I will let the strength of these thirteen planets do it in my place, but your current strength is still too weak. Even if you go to the Ancient Path, don't you ever think of jumping into the Chi universe."

The two people talked for a while longer in the void.

Hayley's projection became illusory gradually.

"Give me another hug!"

"Kiss me!"

Originally, both Hayley and her junior went on a killing spree at the immortal mountain far away in the Chi universe, to the point heads rolled and blood stained the sky.

The entire mountain range trembled violently. All sorts of laws began falling like rain. The die was cast.

"Hayley, Chaos Mountain will no longer exist in the Chi universe after today..."

"Hayley. Hayley, what's wrong with you?"

The man was astonished when he saw the previous strange expression on his senior's face. His senior was a famous bachelorette in the Chi universe, and no men could catch her eye. She even gave him the shoulder as her junior. If it were not for the tie being her junior, he would not have been able to approach her.

She was a woman who was even more arrogant than a cold beauty!

However, now...

Why did she seem to be a woman in love? It was... Too strange.

Hayley said, "You will take care of the rest!"

She sidestepped abruptly and disappeared in front of that man.

Diffraction universe.

Hayley's figure gradually got fainter until it was no longer visible. The woman passionately kissing Alex disappeared just like that, in his arms, with some tear stains on his collar. The body temperature was still present, but the beauty was gone far away.

Alex pinched his fingers and murmured, “Girl, you sure are well-developed...”

As an old hand, how could he rest his hands during kissing?

He certainly had to caress her. Alex did not know that Hayley was well aware of these senses even from a distant place. She reached out and placed her hand on the chest as she blushed.

‘Blockhead! You were extremely impolite with your pinching hands! It hurts!’

If the powerhouses from the non-Chi universe had seen the scene, many of their jaws would have dropped.

However, Alex was miserable the next moment. Floating in the deep black cosmic space, he had absolutely no idea where he was. Even if he looked afar, he did not find out the location of Earth.

‘Holy crap! D*mn woman! You took me into the lost space with a jump. How am I supposed to go back?’

He carefully reviewed the trajectory when he just came out.

‘It seems... I came all the way up here. Then, I shouldn’t be wrong if I go straight down, right?’

With his current cultivation, Alex was an existence that could slay God-King. He could even fight against a Supreme God. Empress Ghasht’s cultivation should be at God-King level, but Alex was confident that he could take her down within five minutes.
