The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3451

Whoosh!

He turned into a cosmic aurora ray and went straight down. The dark cosmic deep space was along the way. He encountered meteoroids occasionally, but he did not pay attention to them. Instead, he kept moving forward. As time passed, he felt something wrong.

How far did Hayley run while taking him?

It just felt like a momentary event. He had been running for at least an hour, but why could he not see Earth?

Faster...

Alex continued to accelerate.

Twenty minutes later, he finally saw a planet. However, it did not look like a planet.

When he teleported there, he noticed how hot it actually was. It was absolutely not an environment for the survival of human beings. Even he, a powerhouse with such a physical body and cultivation, could not stand the overwhelming heat wave. If ordinary people were to reach here, they would have turned into ashes right away.

Even so, he sensed a powerful and majestic aura of divine energy.

'What's in there?'

Just as Alex thought about that, a small airship approached him rapidly from the back. The airship was dilapidated and fuming smoke. It probably failed to endure the heat of this planet and caught fire.

Alex was overjoyed as soon as he saw that. He was worried that he could not find a way back. Since someone was around, he could ask for directions. Alex immediately chased after it.

Just then, that entire airship burned and exploded with a boom.

Someone rushed out screaming, his clothes ablaze. It was a young man.

Alex saw him slapping at the flame on his body while swearing, “B*stard! What kind of crappy airship is this? Claude must be selling fakes. How dare he charge me three hundred Originiums for something like this? When I get back, I will definitely burn down your crappy store and your butt... You’re going to have a stinky roasted butt...”

Alex heard his swearing. Although his accent was bizarre, Alex discovered that he could understand it. He spoke in an ancient, common language universally used in the three thousand worlds.

He knew it too.

At that moment, Alex approached him slowly.

When the young man noticed Alex, he immediately tensed up and put on a fighting stance. He cast his round eyes warily at this man who came out of nowhere as he asked, “Who are you? What are you trying to do? I tell you what, I am very poor and I don’t have a single Originium on me. Look, I spent my Originiums on buying this crappy thing... If you want to rob me, you won’t get anything other than a fight with me where you may get killed.”

Alex smiled and tried to appear as gentle as possible. “Dude, I am not a robber. I just want to ask for directions.”

“Ask for directions..?”

The young man looked around in bewilderment and did not see any airship. “Bro, why did you come to this place to ask for directions? Could it be that... Your airship exploded halfway, just like mine?”

Without denial, Alex said, “Yes. My airship also exploded halfway... May I ask if you know how to get to Earth?”

“What kind of planet is Earth?”

“Oh, my apologies. Do you know the world of America?”

The young man’s eyes gleamed. “I know about this, of course. It is the cosmic center of the three thousand worlds where the cosmic monument is erected. Rumor has it that the spiritual energy has now recovered, and many people went there to seek opportunities, but... I heard they are all dead. Bro, do you want to go to the world of America? I advise you not to go there. Rumor has it that a great devil named Alex Rockefeller roams the grounds. He is especially atrocious and has occupied all the resources in the world of America. He annihilates whoever goes there. Even Supreme Gods will be killed.”

Alex was helpless!

‘Since when did I become so atrocious? No. Who spread this kind of news? Isn’t this ruining my reputation?’

“I have decided to give it a try. Do you know how to go to the world of America?”

“I don’t know! However, Claude’s grocery store may have a Heaven’s Diagram.”

“Can you take me there?”

“I can’t do it now. I managed to come here with great difficulty. I’ll lose a lot if I don’t dig some Originiums before heading back.”

Having said that, another airship came over and stopped right next to the two people. A woman poked her head out. “Do you need help?”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3452

Alex noticed that this airship was of no better quality. It was similar to the dilapidated airship. Fortunately, it didn’t catch fire, nor did it explode.

The woman with her head sticking out had blue hair. Based on Alex’s aesthetic standard, her facial appearance was average and passable at best.

The young man rushed over right away. “Hey, Sis, you’ve come just in time. We sorely need help.”

“You guys are also going to the Northern Wolf Star to search for Originiums, aren’t you?” the woman asked. “We happen to be short-handed. How about we form a team?”

The young man said, “No problem. I have no problem with it, but I don’t know about him.”

The woman looked at Alex. “Aren’t you guys together?”

The young man shook his head. “No. He got lost here and wanted to go to the great world of America. I was dissuading him!”

Alex approached her slowly and asked, “Do you happen to have the Heaven’s Diagram to the world of America?”

The woman shook her head. “This place is very far away from the great world of America. You can’t get there without traveling for eight to ten years. The Cosmic Corridor simply doesn’t exist in this starry domain, and no one here will go to the great world of America... Moreover, according to the news from the cosmic monument, the world of America is in chaos. A great devil called Rockefeller has snatched away the luck of the three thousand worlds and is now massacring outsiders. You’d better not go there. Come with us to dig Originium.”

Alex was shocked beyond words. It felt like a few seconds when Hayley took him for the jump, but to his surprise, this woman said it would take eight to ten years to go back.

‘You are scaring me, aren’t you? However, what is an Originium?’ Alex really hadn’t heard of it.

Standing here, he could feel that the energy of the so-called Northern Wolf Star was indeed a bit different and had a distinctive impact on the mental aspect.

“What is an Originium?” Alex asked shamelessly.

“Huh? You don’t even know what an Originium is? You can’t be a foreigner, right? Are you not from our starry domain?” the woman asked curiously.

As she spoke, the young man had arrived at the airship.

Alex also stood on it. “That’s right. I got lost here accidentally. If you can provide me with the Heaven’s Diagram to the world of America, I can buy it from you.”

“You don’t even know what an Originium is. What are you going to buy it with?”

After saying that, the woman took out an Originium and threw it at Alex. “Look, this is an Originium.”

Alex was instantly astonished when he received it in his hand. This Originium turned out to contain witch power...

How could this be an Originium? It was a Witch Ore!

Surprisingly, Witch Ores were used as the currency for trading in this starry domain...

Wasn’t it a little too extravagant?

Alex suddenly understood that not everyone could sense witch power. They could not even sense the witch’s origin without taking its path. These people treated Witch Ores as currency, just like the spiritual stones in the cultivation world. They clearly knew not how to utilize the witch power, but the Witch Ores still contained spiritual energy. Hence, they used them as spiritual stones.

Holding it in his hand, Alex sensed the concentration of witch power. It was not much, but it was helpful to him. Judging from the way that woman threw it out casually, it was probably worthless in her eyes.

Alex returned it to the woman, but she waved her hand and said, “It is a gift for you. It’s just a scrap of Originium. The spiritual energy on it has been sucked out.”

Alex just intended to shout, “Holy crap!”

He immediately asked, “How do you deal with this Originium that has been drained of spiritual energy?”

The woman replied, “Why are you asking about it? Isn’t it just a stone scrap? However, the officials will take back all the scrap Originiums and destroy them in order to prevent people from creating counterfeits with the scrap Originiums.”

Alex was so puzzled that he almost cursed.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3453

Wasn't that a waste of treasure?

Everyone here was a fool, minding over trifles while neglecting the valuable ones. No. He could not miss such a great opportunity.

Hayley had bound the Undead Queen. It appeared Dorothy, Empress Ghast, and the others certainly had a way to subdue her. Everyone knew that Jade had been to the Dark Cemetery once and fell for the trick. In addition, their strength was not what it used to be. He would spend one or two days collecting some Witch Ores first because they were very helpful in his journey to the Ancient Path.

Thus, he made up his mind. He decided to visit the so-called Northern Wolf Star.

"Alright! I will come with you guys!" Alex said calmly.

He wanted to understand the situation first. He had really nothing to comment about the strength of these few people. Being low-ranking immortals, the young man was just an Intermediate-Earthly Immortal, whereas the woman was an Advanced-Earthly Immortal. In addition, the man and the woman on the airship also were of a similar level.

'Oh... Since when did I look down upon immortals? I am still a Nascent Soul, alright?'

Alex felt that it was his limit after reaching Nascent Soul. The three thousand lotuses bloomed, but he did not notice any changes.

"I am Sheldon Hanson!" The young man, a sociable chatterer, introduced his name. "Bro, how do I address you?"

"Blaze Rowan!" Alex said casually. The name "Alex Rockefeller" had become the name of a great devil and it could no longer be used.

"Just call me Noire!" The blue-haired woman flying the airship said with a smile. The remaining man and woman also introduced themselves. The man was Shale, Noire's younger brother, while the woman was Shalem's fiancée, Aisha.

Thus, this team turned out to be a family.

Sheldon broke the ice as he sat together with Alex. In addition, he even reminded Alex via telepathy. "The three of them are a family. We both are loners, but be careful not to be tricked. Rumor has it that it is very chaotic in the Northern Wolf Star. It is our first time coming here, so we have to take care of each other a bit."

Alex smiled as he said via telepathy, "So, you are also here for the first time."

Sheldon said, "It is hard to earn money. I managed to save up three hundred Originiums, but I bought a fake airship. What a scam! I have to go back and settle accounts with Claude later."

The closer the airship was to the Northern Wolf Star, the hotter it became.

Sheldon was sweating profusely. He wrapped himself with the spiritual energy to ward off the heat assailing him. Once he turned around, he noticed that Alex did not seem to feel anything. "Blaze, aren't you afraid of heat?" he couldn't help but exclaim.

"Oh. I have been a fire-attributed cultivator since the beginning, so I am relatively heat-resistant."

"I see."

At that moment, Alex saw a port-like place in mid-air of Northern Wolf Star, and many airships docked there. Alex asked, "What is that place over there?"

Noire in front of him in the airship said, "That is the territory belonging to the Northern Wolf Guild. It is the safest to enter the Northern Wolf Star through the passage they have developed, but it is expensive to go through their passage. Each person has to pay fifty Originiums, and a 10% tax will be imposed on you when you come out. They are really money-grubbers."

"The Northern Wolf Guild? Is it of an official nature?"

"Official, my *ss! They are merely bandits. As for the officials... Haha! They are just laughing stocks and not worth mentioning."

Alex asked, “What is the difference between going through their passage and without going through their passage?”

Noire said, “It will be much safer to go through the Northern Wolf Guild’s passage. You will encounter Origin Beasts at any time in other undeveloped locations. Besides, you will also encounter robbery halfway... However, Aisha can discover the locations of the Origin Beasts in advance, so our chances of survival are high without the need for the pointless expense.

The airship plunged headlong.

Aisha closed her eyes, detected the locations of the Origin Beasts, and directed Noire about the landing direction. However, a group of people rushed out and surrounded them the moment the airship landed.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3454

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3454

‘Uh... What is going on?’ Alex saw a few dozen people coming, and their cultivation was beyond Earthly Immortal.

Noire frowned and whispered, “We can’t be that unlucky, right?”

Sheldon replied, “A robbery? But we haven’t dug any Originiums. Isn’t it too early for them to rob us? What can they get from robbing a bunch of paupers?”

“I am afraid it is not as simple as robbery,” Noire said.

Instantly, the group of people surrounded the leader. “Come with us!” they snapped.

Sheldon asked, “To do what?”

“To do what? To dig up Originiums, of course. Do you think we are inviting you guys for tea?”

“Digging up Originiums...” Sheldon grimaced.

He remembered something. In the Northern Wolf Star, there were a group of people who were more domineering and inhumane than the Northern Wolf

Guild. They did not rob others of their Originiums, but they snatched them away so they'd help them dig up Originiums day and night. Nonetheless, the Originiums that were dug up had nothing to do with them.

“What? You are unwilling? If you are unwilling, die!”

“Come out!”

After Alex and the others got off the airship, the leader's eyes gleamed. Looking at Aisha, he smiled and said, “What a beautiful lady. Haha. I have long been tired of fooling around with those few women on this barren mountain. It is rare to encounter beauty!”

“Y-you, come over! You don't have to dig up Originium! Follow me from now on!”

Shalem was instantly infuriated. Aisha was his fiancée, so how could he allow another man to take her away and ruin her?

“Dream on, b*stard!”

Bam!

However, Shalem vomited blood from the beating in the next second.

That man laughed heartily. “What right does a powerless person have to resist us? If it were not for your slight usefulness, you would have died just now.”

Witnessing this scene, Alex knew that he had to make a move.

This group of people happened to have many Originium, didn't they?

He helped Shalem up and channeled a wave of restorative Chi, and his injury instantly healed. Just as Shalem was reeling in from the shock, Alex asked that leader, “Do you guys have many diggers?”

That man sneered. “Why are you asking so many questions? You will find out when you reach.”

Alex asked, “Then, how many Originium do you guys have right now?”

The leader snorted. “You are a powerless person. Who the heck are you to ask me?”

“Alright. I won’t ask anymore.” Alex smiled. After that, he slapped him across the face.

Smack!

Half of the leader’s face immediately swelled from the slap. Everyone was dumbfounded. Sheldon, Noire, and the others were terrified as they looked at Alex.

Did he have a death wish, provoking this group of people?

“D*mn it! You are courting death!”

“It is fine to have one less head! I shall kill you now!”

The furious leader took out his weapon right away. Consequently, Alex slapped him across the face again. This time, the leader’s head exploded.

“Ah!”

“What... What’s going on?!”

Meanwhile, Alex leisurely found a storage magical treasure on the leader’s body. He instilled divine sense into it and took a look, only to find more than two thousand Witch Ores were neatly stacked inside. He was very satisfied. He kindly accepted them before glancing at the crowd. “Take out all the Originiums in your hands! Hey! Hurry up! Don’t ever think of running away! No one can escape!”

The gang of bandits looked at each other in dismay. However, they were certainly unwilling to take out all their Originiums. After discussing among themselves, they decided to strike simultaneously at Alex.

The result was obvious. The bodies of the few rushing ahead burst into pieces, for no reason.

Shocked by such a bizarre outcome, everyone retreated.

“Originiums! I am not going to repeat it!” Alex’s cold voice sounded.

Sure enough, their lives were more important than Originiums. Shortly afterward, everyone took out their Originiums. Alex took a look. There were not many of them.

“Sheldon, help me put them away. Check the storage rings on those corpses as well.”

Sheldon agreed readily.

“Blaze, I will help you too,” Shalem volunteered.

Meanwhile, Shalem’s fiancée was looking at Alex, her eyes filled with adulation for the strength she had just witnessed.

Noire leaned over and said with a smile, “I didn’t expect to carry you accidentally, sir! Thank you for your help. The few of us would have been miserable, otherwise.”

“Fate brought us together,” Alex said. “This type of Originium is very useful to me, but for you, it is actually nowhere as handy as spiritual stones and divine stones.”

Having said that, he quickly took out a ring and threw it at Noire. It was a storage ring without spiritual binding. Noire was instantly stunned after taking a casual look at it. She saw mountains of spiritual stones and divine stones piled up inside.

“There... There are so many spiritual stones... Sir, who... Who on earth are you?”

Alex smiled. “The items inside are no longer useful to me. I will give all of them to you as a reward, and you can help me collect Originium later. How does that sound?”

At that, Noire was fired up. She knew that she had just stumbled upon the greatest opportunity in her life. Her legs trembled and she almost fell to the ground.

“Sir, I am willing to endure flames and water as long as you don’t mind it!”

Alex nodded. “Let’s take a trip to the den of these people then.”

Noire smiled excitedly. "Great!"

Sheldon and Shalem happened to be done collecting the Originium. They handed all of them over to Alex.

Alex smiled and threw out another few rings, each for Sheldon, Shalem and Aisha, their contents basically the same as Noire's. At that moment, everyone was shocked beyond words.

"Let's go!"

"Raid the bandits' hideout!"

Fifteen minutes later, Alex and the others followed a gang of bandits and arrived at a valley.

"Go! Call your leader over here!"

Three minutes later, however, the leader did not come. He chose to escape right after receiving the news.

Whoosh!

Alex's mirror image rushed out. In the blink of an eye, he slew the leader in one move.

Ten minutes later, they occupied the entire valley. After knowing what these bandits had done, Alex went on a killing spree right away. Not a single bandit was spared. Alex left the task of collecting Originiums to Sheldon, Noire and the others. He then called out all the diggers.

There were a thousand people whose bodies were under restrictions, some of them even had long turned into skin and bones, and were bound to die if they kept digging.

He entered the mine alone to investigate the situation inside.

Meanwhile, Noire and the others had long engaged in a discussion.

"What is this Sir Rowan's identity?"

"He didn't even need divine stones, so I guess he must be some high-ranking deity!"

“Oh gosh! Could he be a Divine Monarch or Divine Emperor?”

“This is terrifying.”

“I didn’t expect we would befriend such a big shot!” Aisha gushed. “It would be great if we could follow him around!”

Noire shook her head. “Our gap is too wide. He doesn’t have eyes for us.”

Just then, Alex walked out of the mine, looking excited.

“Sir...”

The few came over and handed in their Originium. Looking at the thousand people, Alex asked, “Can you guys leave the Northern Wolf Star on your own?”

Evidently, many people had lost their airships.

“Alright!”

The next second, Alex summoned Shelly’s ship, a city-sized starship floated in the void.

“Everyone, get on! I will take you all home soon!”

After everyone had gotten on board, Alex stomped the ground of the Northern Wolf Star with his foot.

Boom! Boom!

The star trembled in its entirety and a loud voice reverberated throughout the entire Northern Wolf Star.

“Everyone in the Northern Wolf Star, leave within fifteen minutes or face the consequences at your own risk!

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3456

“What? What?”

“Someone is telling all of us to leave? Who is it? How is he so arrogant?”

“Does he think we, the Northern Wolf Guild, are nobodies?”

The members of the Northern Wolf Guild spoke up one after another.

The people on the starship looked at Alex in shock. He ordered all the people on the planet to evacuate within fifteen minutes, but those people would not listen to him. They would probably regard him as a fool.

Time passed minute by minute. Shortly afterward, fifteen minutes were up.

It was Alex’s kind reminder just now. Now that time was up. He was not going to be polite. First, he flew the starship farther and landed on the Northern Wolf Star. His body grew rapidly, instantly reaching a thousand feet like a titan.

It wasn’t like he had Hayley’s strength, who could stamp her tiny foot and shatter a planet. Moreover, it was not easy to stomp on a planet full of Witch Ore.

Boom!

Under everyone’s dumbfounded gaze, Alex stamped his foot and made the entire planet tremble violently. A vast expanse of the ground split open with his foot as the point source, spreading to the entire planet. In that instant, all the people still in the Northern Wolf Star knew they were in deep trouble.

An omnipotent Supreme had come! They scrambled to escape.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The crust cracked, and mountains shook. The people still in the Northern Wolf Star were sent flying by the shock

After that, Alex lashed out a flower of flame... It was the flaming lotus of Buddha’s wrath that instantly enlarged itself. It spread all over the place like the sky. It seemed slow, but in fact, it wrapped around the Northern Wolf Star at a breakneck speed...

Alex was going to directly refine all the Witch Ores in the Northern Wolf Star with flame. This stare was barren land devoid of vegetation, not to mention it was unsuitable for human habitation.

Even if immortals came to excavate ores, they would find it unbearable.

Noire and the others in the starship witnessed the scene dumbfoundedly. They looked up to Alex greatly. However, he refined a planet bare-handedly. Only the superb powerhouse in ancient legends had done such a brutal deed.

Was this man before their eyes an existence that had surpassed a Divine Emperor?

Aisha said, "I heard rumors that that great devil in America is the future Buddha! Sis Noire, look at that flaming lotus of his. Doesn't it look like the flaming lotus of Buddha's wrath in Buddhism?"

Shalem was astonished. "Are you saying he is that great devil in America who has annihilated the Undying Clan?"

"It's just my guess," Aisha said.

"But the great devil is known as Alex Rockefeller! He is not!" Shalem said.

Aisha said, "Who doesn't have a few aliases when they travel abroad?"

The scene in front of them, with a sea of people present, was breathtaking.

In a mere fifteen minutes, the entire Northern Wolf Star became smaller and smaller. Eventually, it became a huge pillar that penetrated the sky and earth. The entire pillar contained Witch Ores.

Finally, Alex put it into a small world.

And just like that, the Northern Wolf Star was gone. Alex glanced at those suspended in the void and could not leave without airships. His faint voice resounded. "Those who do not have airships to go back, come here now. I will take you all back."

Some people began to become hesitant, but after they saw someone boarding the starship, they all followed suit.

Many people would be lost in space without airships, especially since they were of Earthly Immortal cultivation and lacked the capital to travel in space for extended periods. It would be perilous if they could not replenish their depleted immortal energy.

On the way back, Sheldon mustered his courage and asked Alex, “Sir, is there anything special about these Originiums?”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3457

Alex did not conceal the information either. “In fact, this thing is not an Originium, but Witch Ore. It is a very rare resource. Unfortunately, few people recognize and utilize it nowadays. Nonetheless, survivors from the ancient Witch Kingdom may know about it.”

“The ancient Witch Kingdom? Are you talking about the Witch Kingdom that has been destroyed for a million years?”

Alex said with a smile, “Looks like you are well-informed and know many things. You even know about this. I wouldn’t have heard of it if I hadn’t entered the Tomb of Gods.”

“Tomb of Gods? Sir... Sir, are you... Alex Rockefeller?” Aisha asked.

Alex looked at Aisha strangely. He then smiled. “You are on the mark. That’s right. I am Alex Rockefeller.”

Aisha was so excited that she did not know where to put herself. “It turns out that you are really Sir Rockefeller! I... I am too excited! I really met Sir Rockefeller! I... M-my legs are a little shaky! Sir Rockefeller, please accept my worship!”

Alex subsided into helpless laughter. He hurriedly helped her up. “What are you worshipping me for?”

Shalem also knelt down with a thud and said excitedly, “Sir, our world once suffered great persecution by the Undying Clan. In addition, we had less contact with other worlds because of the distant journey. Back then, not many from the alliance army came here. Only a squad came, but later, that squad was almost wiped out. Even the commander died here.”

“Huh? Who was the commander back then?” Alex asked.

Shalem replied, "I don't know either. I heard it was someone surnamed Rowan."

Alex pondered, 'Could it be one of the Grand Emperor Rowan's children?'

If that was really the case, he should take the corpse back.

As they spoke, the remaining people also knelt in unison, "We hereby pay respect to Heavenly Emperor Rockefeller!"

Alex raised his hand lightly, and everyone got to their feet.

Aisha asked, "Sir Rockefeller, why did you come here and get lost?"

Alex said awkwardly, "Someone took me to the void. I never thought that I would get lost once she left. I couldn't find a way back after a long while."

Aisha chuckled.

It turned out that the prestigious great devil had gotten lost. No one would believe it if the news was spread. Shortly afterward, the starship approached a great world. This place was known as the Beast King Star.

The beast kind was the strongest race there ever was. However, everyone maintained a certain equilibrium after the invasion of the Undying Clan. There were few wars, but with scarce resources, the planet generally fell behind the times.

Upon their arrival, Alex was not in a hurry to find the abandoned Originium. In fact, he was no longer eager after obtaining such a huge pillar of Originium. It was enough for him.

"Was the corpse of that fallen commander left behind?" Alex asked Shalem.

"Well... I don't know!"

"I know!" Aisha answered, "Back then, my ancestors buried the corpse of Commander Rowan. I know where it is."

"Take me there!"

"Alright!"

Aisha led the way, followed by several people. After about one hour, they came to a huge cemetery.

“This place is the memorial site for the heroes who died during the invasion of the Undying Clan. The commander’s tomb is at the forefront.”

After a brief moment, they finally arrived in front of the tomb. Alex looked at the tombstone, but he did not know the specific name of that commander.

“If I am not wrong, he and I have a little connection! Since I met him, I will take his corpse back to the homeland for burial in passing!”

He stretched his hand and opened up the tomb. A crystal coffin was placed inside.

However, the moment the coffin was opened, everyone found no corpse inside the coffin, but a ring with a nine-colored gemstone was lying quietly in it.

“Why is there only a ring?”

“Where did the corpse go?”

Alex took out the ring, and that was when the nine colors on that ring glowed brilliantly, and misty fairy energy enveloped Alex. He saw a woman in it.

It was a gorgeous woman, standing there like a lifelike statue. Wearing a tall, voluptuous body and long legs, her exquisite facial features were a masterpiece only God himself could make. But she did not seem to be naked... Therefore, she summoned an outfit in a brief moment. Next to that woman was a man lying quietly on the ground.

“Who are you?” Alex asked, slightly puzzled by this duo.

Could it be that the man on the ground was the commander? He somehow looked familiar.

The woman was motionless just now, but now she rolled her eyes and looked at Alex eagerly. "I sense some familiar aura on you. Do you not recognize him?"

The woman pointed at the man on the ground.

Alex shook his head. "I don't recognize him. Who is he?"

The woman said, "He is Grand Emperor Rowan."

"What?!" Alex was astonished. "He is Grand Emperor Rowan?! The leader of the ancient alliance, the sect master of the Stoermer Sect?!"

The woman nodded. "That's right. Looks like you do know about him."

Alex couldn't believe his ears. "He's dead? No! I heard Grand Emperor Rowan went to the Abyss, and accidentally entered the Ancient Path. How could he have died here? By the way, who are you?"

The woman replied, "I am Yolanda Mason."

After a pause, she continued, "It turns out he's trapped in the Ancient Path. I was wondering why he hasn't appeared... What is the relationship between you and Grand Emperor Rowan? I can sense that your body contains some similarity to his bloodline."

"Uh... You can even sense that I had slept with his daughter?" Alex answered truthfully.

"You slept with his daughter? In that case, you are the son-in-law of the Rowans, aren't you?"

"You can put it that way, but... I don't understand this person. What kind of existence is he?"

"An avatar," Yolanda replied.

Alex was startled for a bit. Finally, he understood the connection behind it.

Yolanda went on, "In fact, he is not dead yet, but he needs the help of the main body to be resurrected! Therefore, I took him into the Nine-colored Petite Ring and waited for his main body, but he has not shown up even after a few millennia. I knew something must've happened to him."

Alex asked, “Madam, what is... Your relationship with him?”

Yolanda said with a smile, “Destined lovers in the past life! Since you are the son-in-law of the Rowans, you are considered my junior. I would like to ask you a favor now. Take the Nine-colored Petite Ring and find Grand Emperor Rowan.”

“Indeed, I need to take a trip to the Ancient Path,” Alex said. “In that case, I will take it with me! However, ma’am, your current look... You aren’t a real person, are you? Are you a soul body?”

Yolanda nodded. “It’s good enough that I could recover my soul.”

Alex smiled as he said, “I have a way. I wonder if you’ll be interested if I offer to rebuild your body?”

“How are you going to rebuild it?”

“I can rebuild the Witch’s body with Witch Ore coupled with some other materials... However, you will have a long way to go if you want it to turn into a human body completely in the future.”

Currently, Alex had quite a bit of Witch Ore. In addition, Yolanda’s soul was relatively unique. She was not normal but possessed an immortal will.

“In that case, I leave it to you!”

Alex nodded. He immediately began to work with the interior of the Nine-Colored Petite Ring. He cut a two-person tall Witch Ore before taking various materials out of his inventory to mold the Witch’s body. There was a rather awkward aspect in this process because it was one-to-one molding.

He naturally had to be meticulous about the facial features and proportions of the Witch’s body.

“Ma’am, do you have any special requirements for the body measurements?”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3459

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3459

Feeling rather generous, Yolanda asked with a smile, “What are the options?”

“There are a ton. Flat-chested, mild, masculine chest, and all kinds of shapes...” Right after Alex said that he noticed Yolanda’s strange expression and hurriedly dropped the subject. “Well, I will just mold it randomly!”

“You can’t do it randomly, of course! This will be my appearance in the future, and you will mold it according to my requirements!”

Under Yolanda’s step-by- step instructions, Alex finally molded an almost perfect body. He pinched it, touched it, and checked it from head to toe before handing it over to Yolanda once he ensured nothing was missing.

“It’s done!”

Yolanda looked a little embarrassed. Although it was a ready-made molded body, it looked almost identical to her current appearance. Alex even examined it meticulously, as if he was staring down her bare body.

“Turn your head!”

Alex smiled as he asked, “I molded the entire body. Which area have I not touched? What’s the point of turning my head now?”

“It was fake earlier. It will be real after I get into it.”

“Alright!”

Whoosh!

Yolanda’s soul entered the witch’s body. After ten minutes, that body finally moved. It was slightly stiff initially, but it quickly got used to the movement. It was nimble, and it looked stunning regardless of smiling and frowning.

Alex turned his head unconsciously. As he looked at her, he seemed to look at his daughter. He had molded it personally.

“Hey! Why are you peeking?”

“Oh. I was going to hand you some clothes. I have them here.”

Alex took the initiative and took out a set of undergarments. Even he did not know who it belonged to. It was probably Daya’s, but it was well-matched on Yolanda’s current body frame.

Yolanda glared at him. "You have really chosen the right parent-in-law. Your virtue is 90% identical to that of your parent-in-law."

Alex smiled and left with the Nine-colored Petite Ring.

Noire and the others were astonished outside.

Just now, Alex disappeared suddenly. Even that ring was gone. They had waited for a few hours before they saw Alex reappear, but soon, Yolanda also walked out of the Nine-colored Petite Ring.

"Heavenly Emperor Rockefeller, this woman is..." The crowd was flabbergasted.

Why did a stunning beauty pop out of nowhere?

"I am his mother!" Yolanda said directly.

"What?!"

Frowning, Alex said, "Don't simply mistake me for your son. Your current identity has yet to be confirmed. Let's talk about it after we meet Grand Emperor Rowan! Alright. I still have important affairs to attend to in the great world of America, so I can't dawdle here."

Aisha suddenly knelt and said, "Sir, can I follow you around and serve you?"

"Huh?" Shalem was startled. Never did he expect that Aisha would make such a decision.

After that, Sheldon also said, "Sir, can you take us to the world of America?"

This place was indeed underdeveloped. There was no future prospect to cultivate here due to the scarce resources.

Alex looked at them and nodded. "I can take you if you wish to go there... But I can help you build a huge teleportation portal here when I have time."

After that, the few people went to visit the officials. The officials had long heard that Alex would be here, so they welcomed him warmly.

Alex only had a goal, to collect the abandoned Originium.

After setting a coordinate here and obtaining the Heaven's Diagram, he boarded the starship, flew into the void and headed toward America.

The starship flew at a breakneck speed, way faster than Alex's long-range Instant Teleportation, and it could even ignore obstacles along the way.

Standing at the bow of the starship, Yolanda touched the rail and asked, "Is this starship yours?"

A whim struck Alex when he noticed her different expression. "Do you know this starship?" he asked back.

Yolanda smiled and said nothing.

Noire once said that it would take eight to ten years to reach the world of America from the Northern Wolf Star. However, upon boarding the starship, it only took three Earth days to get there. Sure enough, it took much longer than Hayley's leap along with him.

Sheldon, Noire, and the others were astonished. As soon as the starship entered Earth's vicinity. The density of Earth's spiritual energy surpassed their imagination, denser than that of their world by countless times.

"Alright! We have reached the great world of America!"

Alex said to Sheldon and the others, "There are both opportunities and dangers in this world, but it is generally peaceful now. You can go by yourselves! Remember, be good! Good souls will be blessed!"

Alex put away the starship and bade farewell to the few people.

"Sir Rockefeller..." Aisha seemingly wanted to say something.

Alex gave her no chance to speak further. He could tell this young woman's frame of mind at a glance, knowing that she just wanted to ride on his coattails and seize the opportunities. But one had to rely on oneself and fight hard for opportunities. One could not obtain opportunities easily, like Alex, who had to claw his way to his achievement.

“Mother-in-law, let’s go! I will take you to meet a few people! You probably know them!”

Alex took Yolanda and disappeared on the spot.

After a brief moment, he finally returned to the entrance of the Dark Cemetery of the Titan Tribe. He noticed the crowd was present.

Meanwhile, the Titan Princess was still bound by the starlight. She fell to the ground and did not get up... It wasn’t that she did not want to, but she couldn’t. Fortunately, she had the Titan Tribe bloodline. If it were someone else, they would have been crushed to death.

“Hubby! You’re back!” Daya immediately rushed to Alex the moment she saw him.

“Where is... Miss Hanson?”

The crowd cast their gazes, searching for a glimpse of Hayley. One could imagine the pressure that such a powerful woman had exerted on them. They had never heard of a term as extraordinary as the Eternal realm.

“It was just a projection of hers! She is gone now!”

As Alex said that, everyone’s gaze naturally landed on Yolanda. They did not recognize her. The women were slightly startled. They did know where Alex had kidnapped a new beauty. This guy really had an obsession with beautiful women!

“Hey, Alex. Why don’t you introduce her?” Waltz interjected.

Yolanda looked at the group of women and whispered, “You have a lot of mother-in-laws!”

Alex brought Phoenix over. “You know her, don’t you?”

Phoenix took a few glances. “I don’t!”

“Huh?”

However, Yolanda shouted, “Phoenix Rowan, the only daughter of Grand Emperor Rowan and the Phoenix Empress. When you were just born, I even witnessed the visions of nature. You are a woman who inherits the luck of heaven and earth.”

Phoenix looked puzzled. “Do you really know me?”

“She said she is Yolanda Mason!” Alex said.

Phoenix’s eyes widened instantly. “Yolanda Mason? You... You are Yolanda Mason?” You were the one who perished with Phanes back then... Father said you shed a tear in the Nine-colored Petite Ring and your soul could be reborn over time with that drop of tear. Did you really manage to do it?”

Yolanda nodded with a smile.
