The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3461

“But, you even have a physical body now.”

“This is a masterpiece of a man.”

Yolanda meant that Phoenix’s man molded her body bit by bit. Sure enough, Phoenix did not think much about it. All she knew was that Alex had helped Yolanda.

Yolanda took Phoenix’s hand and went to the side for a talk.

Xerxes rushed forward. He pointed at the Titan Princess lying on the ground. “She is paralyzed and unable to move. She will become Undead Queen and then become your Titan Princess the next moment. We couldn’t do anything about her.”

Alex squatted down and touched that starlight band. It was extremely heavy. More importantly, he didn’t know how to untie her!

His current cultivation was worlds apart from an Eternal powerhouse. He simply couldn’t reach that level... Yeah, Hayley had given him thirteen planets. These things seemed to be usable.

After that, Alex sat down patiently with his legs crossed. He felt the changes of the thirteen planets with his heart.

At that moment, a woman’s voice sounded in his sea of consciousness. It was none other than Hayley’s voice. It was a verse of profound yet obscure incantation and the like. More importantly, Alex could only hear the syllables now. He could not even understand what was being recited. However, a state of mind arose spontaneously.

It seemed to be the voice of a certain great Dao. The great Dao turned into simplicity. Thus, Alex achieved faint and gradual enlightenment. It was just a glimpse of it. Then, Alex knew the mystery behind the starlight band binding the Titan Princess by relying on this glimpse of enlightenment.

“This mystery of nature is that kind that can be understood but not spoken!”

Whoosh!

It was then that the starlight band binding the Titan Princess flew up.

The Titan Princess, whose appearance actually belonged to Juvia, was lying at first... She jumped up abruptly and fled into the Dark Cemetery like lightning.

“It is futile!” Alex groaned indifferently.

The starlight band was still in his hand, while the other end was still on Juvia’s body. Unlike a real band, it was actually a restraint of laws that ignored the rules of distance. After Juvia had fled over a good distance, she was still captured.

“Alex, you are undeniably a kept man! If you had not relied on women, what abilities do you even possess that can win against me?!”

Alex wasn’t bothered to deal with her nonsense. “In fact, Undead Queen, you are not very powerful either. You were just lucky and picked up the White Bone Scepter that Divine Monarch White Bone had thrown outside the Tomb of Gods. This thing happened to be related to the secrets of Witch Kingdom’s destruction back then. It allowed you to create many Undying Clan, but apart from that, you have accomplished nothing.”

“No matter what, you deserve to die ten thousand times for all the crimes you have committed! Your soul has fused with the Titan Princess’s, but don’t you think I can’t do anything about you. From now on, you will become a nobody next to the princess forever.”

Alex bound Juvia’s soul little by little with the starlight band.

Although she had merged with the princess, she was sealed separately, nor did she have the strength to take dominant search control of the physical body. When she woke up again, she became the Titan Princess. However, her face was a problem. It could not be changed back.

The Titan Princess walked up to Alex and touched his face before she showed a smile.

The others were envious as they looked at this smile.

“Let’s go! To the Dark Cemetery!”

The Titan Princess looked at Xerxes. “You must’ve been waiting impatiently.”

The Dark Cemetery was the sanctuary of the Titan Tribe. Now, with the princess leading the way personally and the group being the strongest in the three thousand worlds, they quickly found that coffin containing the real Jade Benmore.

“She’s in there! Open it up yourself!”

The princess said to Xerxes, “This is your right. I think she will be willing.”

Xerxes was shaken to the core. He touched the coffin lid slowly, then pushed it open forcefully. Consequently, the image that came into his sight shocked his soul.

Jade, whom he had missed day and night, did not appear. What came out turned out to be a pure white rabbit.

“A rabbit? What’s going on?” Xerxes was stunned.

Greater expectations led to greater disappointments. Jade, whom he had missed day and night, did not appear, but a white rabbit showed up instead.

“Could this rabbit be Jade Benmore?” Xerxes looked the Titan Princess, dumbfounded.

The Titan Princess said, “You probably still don’t know her identity, do you? Your wife has the bloodline of the Kojin Rabbit. It is a good thing that you are seeing a rabbit right now. It means that the bloodline in her body has been stimulated and she is not dead yet. She can transform into a human form over time.”

Xerxes was stunned for a long while.

The rest too were dazed. Thinking of how a peerless and amazing woman like Jade had transformed into a rabbit, they simply felt miserable.

Xerxes picked up that rabbit gently as if he was picking up a delicate art piece.

The rabbit was motionless, seemingly a deep slumber, but when Xerxes saw a diamond ring tied to the end of red thread on its foot, his long-suppressed emotions finally erupted. He hugged the snow-white rabbit and cried out in a cracked voice... Drops of tears landed on the rabbit's body.

Alex did not know much about the love story between Xerxes and Jade. On the other hand, Luna was clear about the affair between them.

Luna secretly spoke to Alex via telepathy. "Back when Uncle Xerxes and Commander Benmore got married, I was a ring-bearer. Now that time has changed, I didn't expect it would come to this point."

Having said that, it was unknown whether Xerxes' tears had triggered a mysterious event at that moment. White light flashed on that white rabbit's body.

Jade's phantom surged.

"Commander Benmore?!"

"Jade..!" Xerxes screamed excitedly.

"Xerxes, you are finally here..."

Noticing that Jade could still talk, Xerxes cried like a child even more.

Dorothy said, "Let's give them space so the couple can get a room."

After saying that, the group of people left silently. The princess led the crowd through the Dark Cemetery and introduced its origin, but she also did not understand why the Titan Tribe would come to this place when they were far away in the center of the Chi universe.

Was there some inevitable reason for this?

Just then, an anomaly occurred. The three thousand lotuses inside Alex's body were triggered by something unknown. Surprisingly, all of them moved rhythmically and some unbloomed lotuses even bloomed at this time.

Clouds of pollen scattered around them.

After obtaining these pollen, Alex's mental strength skyrocketed. The three thousand great Dao that corresponded to the three thousand lotuses reached completion, mapping out the terms...

The Great Multiplication Spell!

The Great Intimidation Spell!

The Great Detoxification Spell!

The Great Rejoicing Spell!

Some terms were understandable, as their name implied, but some sounded completely bizarre. Even so, it wasn't the situation that Alex was facing now. As the three thousand lotuses bloomed completely, that final evil demonic lotus emerged in his body.

This lotus once appeared back when he fought against the Undying Clan. It was also what Alex feared the most, like a time bomb that would explode at anytime. Nonetheless, it was obvious that it could no longer be suppressed.

"Hubby, what's wrong?" Dorothy screamed.

"It's the Demonic Lotus of Genesis!" Shelly recognized it immediately. She even went to the demon realm and helped Alex pluck it. To her surprise, it had become Alex's biggest problem.

On the other hand, Alex was utterly incapable of controlling the lotus. It flew out and tried to search for something in the Dark Cemetery. It seemed to have found something. Then, it abruptly rushed forward. The dark lotus seemed to have planted itself in the soil, absorbing the energy inside.

Boom! Boom!

A tremendous vibration occurred in the Titan Tribe's Dark Cemetery. The airflow in the entire cemetery surged violently, laws changed, and vitality was lost.

"This is bad!" The Titan Princess immediately sensed something was wrong, the Dark Cemetery was about to collapse.

What was the origin of this lotus? How could it be so powerful?

Shelly exclaimed, "This is bad. This demonic lotus has awakened the memories of the past life. This is a great potential threat. If we don't suppress and deal with the demonic lotus, it will turn the entire world space into a demon realm full of negative energy like before. Even the three thousand worlds won't be spared by then."

Exasperated, Alex said, "So, you plucked a bomb for me, and it might even blow up the three thousand worlds?"

The Titan Princess asked, "What should we do now?"

Looking at that increasingly large, terrifying dark demonic lotus, Alex replied, "There is only one way now! Enter the Ancient Path right away! However, we still don't know what is inside the Ancient Path. Once the dark demonic lotus explodes completely, the consequences will be unimaginable... In that case, I will enter the Ancient Path first. Once I leave, the demonic lotus will definitely follow me and leave as well."

"To Ancient Path... How can you leave me behind?" said Yolanda.

Sure enough, she went there for the sake of Grand Emperor Rowan. Then, Phoenix came forward. "I'm going too! If I meet my parents, there may be a way to suppress it!"

Shelly said, "I plucked this demonic lotus, so I am responsible for it."

"We... We don't want to be separated either!" Alex's women were anxious.

"You left for twenty years. If you are gone for three millennia on the journey to the Ancient Path like Grand Emperor Rowan and the others, what are we going to do? Should we remarry, or should we pleasure ourselves every day?"

Obviously, the women were unwilling to part. If Alex wanted to leave, then they had to leave together!

Shelly said directly, "Let's go together then! Nothing in the three thousand worlds can threaten your family anymore. Several experts are watching over there, and they are enough! Hurry up! Open up passage of Dairaionji Temple and leave right away!"

Just then, Xerxes hurried over with the white rabbit in his arms. He still did not know what had happened.

Luna said, "Uncle Xerxes, you came just in time. There is a bit of an emergency now. We have to head to the Ancient Path immediately. You and Commander Benmore better leave this place quickly. Go back and tell my parents that I will care for myself and they don't have to worry about me."

Dorothy and the others recorded their most important messages in the Memory Crystal and entrusted Xerxes with the task of forwarding them.

Xerxes was puzzled. "What's the urgent matter?"

Luna pointed at the dark demonic lotus. "Look, this thing can completely turn the three thousand worlds into hell!"

Having said that, Alex opened up the passage of Dairaionji Temple without hesitation. Shelly took the lead and rushed in. Then, it was the Titan Princess...

Alex glanced at the demonic lotus and said, "Hurry up and go!"

The Ancient Path.

Grand Emperor Rowan and the others were well-prepared as the hunting season was around the corner. There were many experts and men in their group, and all his sons were grown-ups, after all... His only regret was that they did not have suitable spouses, so it was fated that they were unable to enjoy the pleasure of intercourse.

At that moment, a young man was jerking off.

A loud bang was heard behind him all of a sudden. The passage that had been closed for many years began to loosen and open up.

A young woman walked in curiously. She happened to witness that young man's action.

"Oh. Sorry for interrupting you!"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3464

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3464

"Ahh!" The shocked man screamed.

It took him a long while before he thought of putting on his clothes, but most shockingly... The entrance to the Ancient Path was opened at this time. It had not been opened for more than three millennia.

The next second, someone else came in. It was a man this time.

After that, a group of people... A large group of people came in.

The man was called Tidus Rowan. He was one of the sons of Grand Emperor Rowan and Miselia. He jumped up abruptly and ran to the back "Come back!"

Shelly waved her hand and tried to capture that man. Surprisingly, Tidus's ability was not weak at all. He countered her by sending a Chi slash, which turned into an overwhelming sea of wrath. Not only did it block Shelly's impromptu attack, but it sent her petite body flying with shock.

"Oh, my goodness!"

"How can this perverted guy have such an ability?" Shelly had been too careless!

Alex, who was in the back, held Shelly in his arms. He grabbed the void in the face of that wave of attacks.

Boom!

A loud bang rang out.

The man's attack was disintegrated, but Alex felt the energy within it, witch power. This man had cultivated the Witch's path, but he was still no match for Alex's body of Ancestor Witches.

"What happened?" The women who had just rushed through the passage were confused at first.

Why did a battle break out right after they came in?

Was the Ancient Path really that dangerous?

"There is a strong... Energy here, which is suitable for my cultivation. As expected, the energy of the Ancient Path is a rank higher than that of the three thousand worlds," the Titan Princess said as she smiled at Alex.

She had a crush on Alex. However, Alex was surrounded by women, and it was a little inappropriate to say something flirtatious.

Just then, that man's eyes widened. "Beauties! There are so many beauties!"

"Hahaha... Finally, women unrelated to the bloodline appeared. Oh Lord, did you hear my prayer?"

That man screamed, then ran to the back at a breakneck speed.

"Uh... Could this guy be a descendant of the Rowans?" Alex asked with uncertainty.

When Phoenix learned about what Tidus was doing, her face darkened as she said, "Of course not!"

Right after she said that a dense crowd of people rushed over, headed by a flaming phoenix. The powerhouses of the three thousand worlds were no match for their lightning speed. Majestic aura surged as soon as they appeared, but a mighty force in the world was suppressing its aura.

Nonetheless, Phoenix was restless and soared to the sky abruptly when she saw this overbearing flaming phoenix.

Whoosh!

She spread her limitless flaming wings. They were so much bigger than the ones who came, and this world's law coercion that was against her became weaker. The encounter between two flaming phoenixes foreshadowed something.

“Mom!” Phoenix was extremely excited.

The comer was none other than her mother, the Phoenix Empress!

Never did she expect that she would meet her right after coming in!

On the ground, Dorothy said to Alex, “Hubby, this sister, Phoenix, is also your lover, right? What happened when you went to the Sinless City? You didn’t even make it clear after you came back, but it is evident, considering her initial haughtiness to her current gentle desire for nothing.”

Alex said, “Honey, actually, at that time...”

“You don’t have to explain! I don’t want to hear about your love stories because you have so many women I can’t differentiate any of them!”

The Rowans have been trapped at the entrance of this passage, and they have not gone deep into it. The laws differ completely from those of the three thousand worlds. One is not allowed to get into the entrance without corresponding cultivation techniques.

“Hence, this place is still very dangerous.”

“Otherwise, they wouldn’t have been here all the time!”

It was then that Luna Flores came over. “Guys, look at that man with the scruffy beard,” she whispered. “He keeps looking at us. He isn’t the legendary Grand Emperor Rowan, is he? He’s completely different from the man I remember, holding a child...”

“Wow! That’s a lot of kids. Is he running a nursery?”

The crowd engaged themselves in a heated discussion.

Eventually, the two phoenixes in the sky descended. One became the stunning beauty, Phoenix, whereas the other became the peerless beauty, the Phoenix Empress. The Phoenix Empress looked slightly similar to Phoenix, but she was more mature and enchanting. She, who had become a mother, experienced a reunion with her flesh and blood after three millennia. That joy was beyond words, such that she was reluctant to avert her beautiful eyes from her daughter.

At that moment, the bearded man, Grand Emperor Rowan, suddenly saw the face of the Undead Queen, Juvia, in the crowd. In that instant, he was shocked and shouted hurriedly, "The Undead Queen is here! Phoenix, come back quickly!"

"She is not the Undead Queen! The Undying Clan of the three thousand worlds has been annihilated!"

The Phoenix Empress said to her husband, Grand Emperor Rowan, as she smiled. However, she took Phoenix's hand and walked up to Alex before sizing him up eagerly.

The more the mother-in-law looked at her son-in-law, the happier she became.

"As expected, talented men show up, and young heroes are born at every age!"

Slightly embarrassed, Alex smiled. "Are you the founder of the Phoenix Sect back then, the Phoenix Empress?"

The Phoenix Empress nodded. "That's nothing compared to your current achievements! We confronted the Undying Clan with great effort for seven millennia, yet we failed to drive them out of the three thousand worlds. Eventually, we were trapped in the passage entrance of the Ancient Path for three millennia instead. We couldn't make any progress and barely managed to survive. Speaking of which, only the word 'helpless' could describe our situation."

On the other hand, Yolanda walked up to Grand Emperor Rowan and took out the avatar inside the Nine-colored Petite Ring.

"You are... Yolanda Mason?"

“Did you really come to life again?”

Three millennia later, two groups of peerless powerhouses encountered each other in this place. Naturally, the two parties got along harmoniously with the native bond of Phoenix, Agatha, and Saria.

Only Tidus in the crowd was upset. He thought a group of beauties whom he could flirt with had come. Unexpectedly, all of them belong to his brother-in-law.

‘Oh, God. How can this brother-in-law be that capable? He has his hands full. I’m willing to help him!’

The brat was a bit wild and hard to tame. He had been living in this place since childhood, alone. There was no else, no demon beasts, and neither the likes of them. To him, his greatest danger was the laws of the Ancient Path. He fancied someone among the many women of his brother-in-law, Waltz in a traditional dress.

The sheer gorgeousness of her looks charmed him greatly.

On that night, this brat seized the opportunity to knock out Waltz and take her away while they were resting and dining together in the temporary shelter developed by Grand Emperor Rowan and the others. However, little did he expect that Alex had long marked Waltz’s body.

When that brat tried to take off Waltz’s traditional dress, Alex appeared right next to him.

“I will give you a choice! How do you wish to die?” Alex’s cold voice pierced Tidus deeply, to the point he was scared witless.

“Bro... Brother-in-law, I... I was joking with her!”

“Those four words, joking with my women, are not in my vocabulary.”

“Please, I am your brother-in-law!”

“Which is why you deserve to die even more!”

Alex slowly took out the Immortal Butcher, once Grand Emperor Rowan's weapon.

Whoosh!

A group of people rushed over suddenly. They were all Rockefellers and Rowans who noticed the commotion.

A woman was standing in front of Tidus. It was his mother, Miselia.

"He is my son! If you want to kill him, you'll have to kill me first!"

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3466

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3466

Tidus had almost defiled Waltz, so how could Alex let him off the hook?

"A man must bear the consequences of his own acts! I hope you will get out of the way! It will be very unsightly, otherwise!"

Miselia loved her son very much, so she definitely could not allow Alex to kill Tidus. On the other hand, she condemned her son. How could he do such a deed?

At that moment, Tidus still did not understand the severity of the event and said, "I was polite to call you brother-in-law. You have so many women, so what's wrong with sharing a few of them with me? This is the territory of the Rowans. You have just come from the three thousand worlds and know nothing. You won't even know how you die by then! That woman is just a pretty face anyway! I will offer you three Witch Ores if you give her to me!"

Dorothy helped Waltz up and said to Alex, "Hubby, I disagree with such an in-law."

"I don't agree either!" Daya came forward.

After that, Maya and the others expressed their disapproval firmly.

If a scourge without a moral baseline like Tidus stayed by their side, they would not be able to sleep peacefully at night.

Waltz woke up at this time. After learning that Tidus had knocked her out, taken her here, and almost defiled her, she bit her lips in rage until they bled.

Alex looked at Grand Emperor Rowan and the Phoenix Empress. “How are you going to deal with him?”

Devastated, Grand Emperor Rowan grabbed Tidus. “It is a father’s fault for failing to educate his son. As your father, I will send you to reincarnation now to become a good man in the next life.”

“No...” Miselia defended him strongly. “Tidus is still young! There are no social relations here, and he is immature! Honey, please spare him this time!”

Boom!

The Phoenix Empress made her move directly. She landed a smack on Tidus’ forehead, killing him right away.

The Phoenix Empress grimaced as she said to Miselia, “A child is better unborn than untaught! Why do you have so many children? Do you consider yourself a pig? How dare a dignified descendant of the Rowans is of such poor quality? If I don’t kill him, do I spare him so he can harm others?”

Miselia pounced on Tidus and cried out in pain. “Sis, he is not your son. Of course, you aren’t heartbroken, but he is my son!”

Another pretty and coquettish woman came forward. She pulled Miselia’s hand and said, “Miselia, knock it off. There is indeed a great problem with Tidus’ character. I told you last time.”

“Cousin...”

Grand Emperor Rowan had a long face as he asked, “Molly, you have long discovered something was wrong with Tidus? What the hell is going on?”

That woman was also Grand Emperor Rowan’s wife, Molly Bloom.

Looking at Miselia, she said, “Tidus is dead now! Let’s not talk about it!”

Grand Emperor Rowan said, “You have to talk about it! If we discover the problem early, it is not too late to correct it in time! The passage of the Ancient Path is reopened now. If these guys have bad characters and are let out, won’t they ruin the reputation of the Rowans? How am I, Grand Emperor Rowan, supposed to face my fellow countrymen in the three thousand worlds?”

Helpless, Molly said, “Tidus peeked at me taking a bath and...”

“What? And what?”

“He stole my underwear...”

“B*st*rd! What is the point of letting such an abomination live?”

Grand Emperor Rowan used the subject and taught his children a harsh lesson.

Dorothy whispered to Alex, “Hubby, I am afraid we can’t stay long in this place. Look at those brothers and sisters of Tidus Rowan. Their gazes are abnormal when they are looking at us! Anyhow, that abomination was their siblings. What are we? We are just outsiders...”

Daya said, “In my opinion, we should close the passage of the Ancient Path again. The Rowans can stay here as long as they wish to. What should we do if they return to the three thousand worlds and seek revenge in Yukon while we are not around? These people have been staying on the Ancient Path with advanced laws. They are not weak.”

Alex thought that it made sense.

In that instant, he controlled Dairaionji Temple silently and severed its connection with the Ancient Path.

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3467

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3467

The passage was soon closed.

“Oh gosh. Why is the passage of Ancient Path closed?” The children of the Rowans exclaimed.

Alex said indifferently, “This one-way passage opens temporarily, and it is impossible to get back through it. It closes once its energy gets depleted.”

“What? It’s actually a one-way passage?”

“I thought we could get out. Does it mean we are trapped here?”

At that moment, Grand Emperor Rowan took Alex’s hand and apologized sincerely for the previous incident.

Tidus was dead, and Waltz did not receive considerable damage. Alex could say nothing else to his father-in-law for Phoenix’s sake. Most importantly, his mother-in-law sided with him. Not only had she killed Tidus with her own hands, but she even scolded Miselia.

Based on the analysis of the various situations, the Phoenix Empress must’ve held a lofty status in the Rowan family. Even Grand Emperor Rowan feared this woman.

Eventually, Phoenix told Alex that her father was just a young street vendor who knew nothing. Later, he inadvertently obtained a stone and began to embark on the turnaround path. A soul remnant of her mother, the Phoenix Empress, was sealed in that stone.

In private, Alex and his allies discussed what they should do.

Waltz said, “Anyway, I don’t dare to act alone now. There are so many sons of the Rowans. All of them are like wolves, and our strength doesn’t seem to be enough! If we are going to engage in a group fight, we probably can’t win.”

“Why don’t we leave in the middle of the night?” Dorothy asked.

Shelly asked Alex, “How is that dark demonic lotus of yours?”

Alex replied, “It stopped... The energy in the Titan Cemetery stimulated it somehow.”

“What about yourself? Can you still search control it?”

Alex smiled, “No problem.”

It was because Hayley had given him thirteen planets as gifts. Perhaps she had long discovered the condition inside Alex, so she summoned thirteen planets with a wave of her hand and connected them into a magical thread to help him restrain the evil lotus in his body.

“I have a large number of Witch Ores right now! The Ancient Path happens to be an excellent place to cultivate the ancient Witch’s path! Let’s go!”

“We are polite enough to leave a note here!”

Unfortunately, Alex had given away the Cleansing Vase in his possession to the Goddess of Compassion, but she hadn’t followed him. If she had, the group of people could have waited in the Cleansing Vase when Alex fled far away.

That night.

Noticing the opportune moment had arrived, Alex led his women and silently left the safe residence the Rowans had developed with great difficulty in the Ancient Path. However, Phoenix returned to the Phoenix Empress’s side.

At the break of dawn, the Rowans quickly realized that Alex and others had left after leaving a note.

Grand Emperor Rowan rushed over upon hearing the news. When he saw the content of Alex’s note, he thumped his chest and stomped his foot. “How reckless! How reckless! The uprising of the beast tide in the Ancient Path is about to begin, and things will become perilous! There are no safe places once you leave here!”

After he said that, a loud rumble shook the ground.

Grand Emperor Rowan paled. “The beast tide is here!”

Phoenix’s expression changed, and she inhaled sharply. “I have to find Alex!”

Grand Emperor Rowan stopped her. “Where are you going to find him? How are you going to find him? The beast tide in the Ancient Path doesn’t contain normal beasts; it contains Witch Beasts. You can’t deal with them alone.”

“I’ll go find him. Maybe it’s still not too late,” the Phoenix Emperor insisted

Boom! Boom!

The ground shook, as if the crust was about to be split open.

Alex and the others left the Rowan family compound and moved dashed through the Ancient Path into the night. Just as they were about to find a resting place, the sky trembled and the ground shook until they could not stand steadily.

“Vast numbers of of creatures are moving ahead!” the Titan Princess exclaimed upon laying on the ground and listening to the sounds.

Alex immediately looked around for a place they could hide themselves.

“Over there! Over there!”

A stone forest with clusters of strange rocks and overgrown weeds was on Alex’s left, so he chose that place. He rushed over and set up a spell formation at once. Once the crowd arrived, he activated the spell formation and concealed that area.

Shortly afterward, the rumbling approached them. There were infinite Witch Beasts, but there were human-like species were also among them.

“Huh? Why are there humans?”

“They are beastmen, aren’t they?”

“The Witch Beasts look very weird. Why do they all have horns like taurens?”

However, everyone was here for the first time. Even Shelly was in the dark, having completely no idea what these species were. Having heard Grand Emperor Rowan and the others talking about the existence of Witch Beasts, she assumed they all were Witch Beasts. Just then, two phoenixes in the sky flew over.

They were Phoenix and her mother who came over searching for Alex.

“Moo..!” The bull-headed Witch Beasts screamed upon noticing the two people in the sky.

A humanoid creature among them even opened its mouth. “Someone from the Phoenix Tribe actually exists on the Ancient Path. They can’t be the members of the Immortal Phoenix Tribe, right?”

“Boss, what should we do?”

“The second elder of the Immortal Phoenix Tribe is ruthless...”

“Look at these two people. They aren’t that strong, probably strays from the Immortal Phoenix Tribe. Guys, act quickly and kill them. Kocis, go! Don’t let them have the chance to activate the bloodline imprint! The Ancient Path must be in our hands!”

Alex and the others were hiding in the spell formation. They were astonished upon hearing what these people said.

In the sky, Phoenix was looking down as she asked, “Mom, are those Witch Beasts? Why do they look like this? Are Witch Beasts bull demons? Are they also shapeshifting experts?”

The Phoenix Empress frowned and said, “That’s not right. They are not Witch Beasts.”

“Huh? Then what are they?”

Right after she said that, a human among the taurens rushed into the sky with a swish and landed a vicious killing blow on the Phoenix Empress.

“Mom, be careful!”

Boom!

The Phoenix Empress, also a peerless figure of her era, immediately spat out a breath of orange flame more terrifying than the true fire of Samadhi, containing supreme great Dao. The flame rushed toward the attacker and surrounded him in all directions. Air blast even exploded in the air, setting the entire sky on fire.

“Half-stepped Dominant Realm! Unfortunately, you aren’t even close!”

The man named Kocis sneered. In the face of the endless flame, he did not dodge and continue slashing. The flame passed through his body, but surprisingly, it only paused his body for a moment. Despite the inferno, he was still striking at a breakneck speed.

'This is bad!' The Phoenix Empress was shocked.

It was that first time in her life encountering such an expert. She immediately manifested her human body and slashed down violently with a half-longsword that she grabbed at some point.

Clank!

A massive tremor shook everyone with a Chi explosion. If it was in the three thousand worlds, the battle between powerhouses of such a level would have shaken the entire planet. However, it did little to rock the Ancient Path.

The Phoenix Empress's body flew backward, spitting a spray of blood mid-air.

"Phoenix, run quickly!"

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3469

The Phoenix Empress shouted at the woman.

Kocis snorted coldly. "Do you think you can run away? Since we encountered each other, go to hell!"

Alex, in the spell formation, certainly could not stand around. So, after explaining himself, he rushed out from the other side.

"There is another one?"

Someone among the tauren was shocked and immediately blocked Alex before punching him right in the face. The blow of the first burst and the environment changed.

Alex snorted coldly, at the same time, he lashed out a punch.

The seven Ancestor Witches had entered Alex's body, so its strength reached an unbelievable extent. He was not afraid to resist the opponent. The thirteen stars that Hayley gave him were a great cheat. After he used it to seal Juvia, the Undead Queen, certain attributes of the thirteen stars seemed to have been activated and merged with Alex's body. This punch contained the star force.

Boom!

It was the power of a punch.

The guy who rushed out of the tauren was full of confidence and looked disdainful at first, but his expression immediately showed a drastic change as he faced Alex's incoming punch. He felt as though he had encountered a powerhouse of the Supreme Realm.

'This is bad! Retreat!'

However, Alex was lightning fast, so how could he allow him to run away?

Under that punch, the man's arm shattered inch by inch and his internal organs were affected directly.

Boom!

That man turned into slag.

Alex killed the opponent in one blow, shocking the remaining people instantly.

Alex really had no way to catch up Kocis's attack on Phoenix due to the delay, but the current Phoenix was not what she used to be. Alex had long cultivated her into Witch's body... Although she failed to dodge Kocis's attack, a huge phantom of Ancestor Witch appeared behind her and withstood it steadily.

"Die!"

Wielding the Immortal Butcher, Alex's slash arrived in front of him.

The tauren below him shouted, "Kocis, be careful!"

Kocis turned around and unleashed his magical sword.

Clank!

The Immortal Butcher struck on the magical sword. The opponent's magical sword looked ordinary, but it was on par with the Immortal Butcher, and there was not even a single nick on it. After all, the Immortal Butcher was the final form of the ultra divine artifact after experiencing thorough refinements. It showed that the tauren's magical sword was also absolutely rare.

Kocis's eyes gleamed as he stared at Alex's Immortal Butcher. "This weapon is nice! I'm going to have it!"

Alex sneered before looking at Phoenix. "How are you?"

Phoenix said, "I'm fine. He is still unable to kill me."

After that, Alex rushed toward Kocis.

"Supreme magical sword, sever the entire world!" roared Kocis.

"You don't deserve to use this magical sword! Hand it over!" Alex roared.

The Chaos Tree roots swept vigorously, and a storm raged, sweeping the magical sword.

Kocis was astonished. "You want to snatch my magical sword? Dream on! Let go!"

Alex snorted coldly and tapped his forehead. An eyeball suddenly split open in the center of his forehead.

The three thousand colossal spell, The Great Primordial Eye Spell!

Black-and-white Chi intertwined and turned into two rays of sword light before rushing straight at Kocis.

"What?! Black-and-white Chi? You really have a lot of good stuff! I want that too!" Not only was Kocis fearless, but he even burst into laughter.

However, another stream of Yellow Obsidian Chi came out in the next second after the black-and-white Chi, cutting his head like a pair of scissors. An intact head was cut off directly.

Whoosh!

Kocis's magical sword landed in Alex's hand.

The Phoenix Empress flew over again with her lips stained with blood. She then said to Alex, “Good son-in-law, I was right about you! You are stronger than Phoenix’s father!”

Alex asked, “What on earth are these tauren?”

The Phoenix Empress said, “It’s also my first time seeing them. They are definitely not Witch Beasts.”

Alex said, “I’m afraid it’s a scourge from the Chi universe. I’m going to catch one for interrogation.”

Not to be outdone, the tauren boss shouted, “You killed my search brother! Die, all of you!”

Originally human, he had now manifested bull horns.

“Bull Demon King? I’m the Monkey King then!”

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3470

The tauren leaped up and traversed a thousand feet in the air. A large golden stick appeared in his hand, and he swung it fiercely at Alex with a destructive momentum, trying to kill him.

“Good heavens! The Bull Demon King with Gold-Banded Cudgel!”

Alex grabbed the magical sword he had just snatched from the other person and intercepted the large stick with a sharp blade aura.

Clank!

A loud noise rang out. Chi exploded as the sword and stick clashed.

Surprisingly, the magical sword in Alex’s hand could not resist the stick’s hardness, and the blade even rolled over. This stick was really a good item!

“I’m going to have this Gold-Banded Cudgel!”

Alex dropped the broken magical sword. Once his body moved, witch power surged wildly before he grabbed the stick.

“You are trying to snatch my stick? Dream on!”

The tauren roared. Ferocious aura burst from his body, and a stream of blood-red Chi rushed into the stick. Mysterious and complicated runes appeared, revealing several huge ancient words, As-You-Will Gold-Banded Cudgel!

“That can’t be right.” Alex rubbed his eyes and suspected that he had seen it wrongly.

It was really the As-You-Will Gold-Banded Cudgel. Its surface was scorching and contained the power of laws of different heat, burning Alex’s palm until a singed odor could be detected.

“Holy crap!” Alex swiftly withdrew his hand.

Not many things could burn his hand right now.

At the same time, Phoenix and the Phoenix Empress attacked the tauren boss from the back. Although they did not cause much damage, they could interfere with his actions. At that time, Alex’s women hiding in the spell formation could not allow their husbands to fight alone.

Thus, Daya crawled out quietly and cast a spell. A large plant sneaked underground and burrowed out abruptly to wrap around the tauren’s feet.

“Great Icebound!”

“Great Enfeeble!”

“Great Voodoo!”

“Great Bewitchment!”

After a pause, Alex unleashed three thousand colossal spells continuously. Each spell landed on the tauren and stunned him instantly. The others in the spell formation also rushed out. Of course, these were all powerhouses.

A pretty face like Waltz was only suitable for use at night.

Countless beast-like existences were present among the tauren, but they did not seem to have an intelligence of their own. When they saw the tauren boss fighting, they just stared with wide eyes, and nodded, but didn't step up to help him. Nonetheless, those with weaker cultivation would be of no help in a battle at this level.

“Step aside! Let me do it!”

The Titan Princess with the Undead Queen's face was wielding a huge hammer. It was the supreme weapon of their race. She viciously smashed the heads of the tauren that were disturbed by various negative statuses.

Crack!

A clear sound rang out. The bull horn of the tauren boss was broken. A cloud of bloody Chi rushed out of it.

It turned into the phantom of a huge bull in mid-air. He was enormous, imposing, and dauntless, looking like an eternal master at the Ancient Path. His eyes were bloodshot as he looked down upon Alex and the others with an infuriated look

“Who are you people? How dare you hurt my grandson? How brazen and unforgivable! Die, all of you!”

The negative influences on the tauren boss dissipated with the appearance of the phantom of this bloody bull.

When the tauren saw his horn was broken, his nose was put out of joint as he stamped with fury. “How dare you break my bull horn and ruin my cultivation foundation? Grandpa, I want them dead!”
