The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3481

The massive soul pressure was undoubtedly a fatal disaster for the prisoners who had been weakened into normal people. In an instant, countless Witch Beast Kingdom citizens fell to the ground and vomited blood.

Princess Bea and the White Flayer slumped to the ground in pain.

On the other hand, the thirteen planets inside Alex's body formed some kind of miraculous orbit, resisting such severe damage. Furthermore, he felt that his body's suppressive force was weakening.

He was recovering his strength, but at that moment, he had to pretend he was powerless, falling to the ground like Bea and the others.

"So what if you are the princess of the Witch Beast Kingdom?! So what if you are royalty?! Since you are in this dungeon, don't ever think about getting out! Hmph!"

The warden threw both Alex and the princess into a cell. As for the White Flayer, that man sneered. "It just so happens that my wife's sister wants a coat made of a White Flayer. You came at the right time!"

The strange snow-white beast was astonished. It wanted to escape directly, but it was impossible. Its strength had been suppressed completely, so it was no different from a domestic pet. That man smacked its head...

"Y-you guys... Have crossed the line! " Princess Bea screamed.

Although she was not well acquainted with this White Flayer, they were captured along the way. Surprisingly, those experts patrolling the Golden City did not do anything to it, but an insignificant warden killed it after it entered this cell.

The man peeled off the White Flayer's fur in front of Alex and Bea.

That man turned his head and looked at Bea as she cursed, "Princess? It will be your turn soon!"

Murderous vibes filled that man's eyes. Then, he casually threw the skinned White Player's corpse aside and walked out carrying the fur.

The eyes of the beasts in the cage flamed with rage, but they dared not mount any resistance.

Princess Bea sat on the ground and was slightly absent-minded. "They are going to kill me. They will definitely kill me because this incident will be exposed if they let me go. They can only conceal this incident by killing me. No, I am of Xeraphim royalty. Not only will they kill me, but they will certainly mingle with my flesh and soul..."

Puzzled, Alex asked, "Mingle with your flesh and soul? What's so special about your Xeraphim clan?"

Princess Bea glanced at him. "Foolish human! You know nothing!"

Golden City.

Inquisition Hall...

The leader who had just captured Alex and the others had come to meet a man with long white hair. He wore a resplendent official uniform and lay on a couch made of White Flayer fur. Next to him were two young, beautiful, sexy, and coquettish women, massaging his burly muscles.

"Sir, we caught a pure human without Golden City markings."

"Huh? A pure human... Why do you come and ask me? Drag him to perform the Soul Illumination, and his identity will be clear."

"Yes, sir! And one more thing."

"Say it quickly. Don't interrupt my rest!"

"We caught the princess of the Witch Beast Kingdom by accident..."

"What?!" The inquisitor stood up abruptly. "Fool! We will get into deep trouble if you bring in Witch Beast royalty!"

The man said, “Sir, it is the youngest princess of the Witch Beast Kingdom. Perhaps she has not undergone the coming-of-age ceremony. She still cannot activate the racial skill, so Witch Beast Kingdom probably doesn’t know about it! I didn’t capture her. Someone from Bloodlust Shrine wanted to borrow the Xeraphim Bloodline...”

“Wait... You just said she is still a young princess who has not undergone the coming-of-age ceremony, didn’t you?”

“Yes...”

“Well... We can’t make this matter public. We have no way to release her either. How about this? You should go over and bring that princess secretly... Hmm... Forget it! I’ll go there myself.”

Locked in the same cell, Alex and Princess Bea looked at each other helplessly.

“Hey. Why are you glaring at me?”

“I just wanted to! So what?! You are stupid, after all. If you hadn’t tried to enter the force field and ran away quickly instead, we wouldn’t have been locked up here! I will glare at you! I will glare at you to death!” The princess glared at Alex with fierce eyes.

“Try glaring at me again.”

“I will glare at you, so what?!”

Bam!

Alex punched the princess... In the ear.

Bea jumped and had a bizarre expression as if he had touched her most sensitive spot on her body. Shame, rage, and something else surged inside her. “B*stard! Idiot! Trash! I was glaring at you! Why did you hit my ear?!”

Alex replied, "I see your ears moving all the time. They are annoying. Are you sick in the ears?!"

"You are sick in the ears!"

"I am a doctor. I may be able to help..."

"My ears are fine! Don't you talk to me, you b*stard! Don't even talk to me if anything happens!" Princess Bea screamed, distressed.

Alex shrugged, expressing his agreement. The thirteen stars inside his body were now forming some kind of weird formation. It was bizarre and coincided with some mysterious world laws.

When Hayley gave him these thirteen stars, she once said that he could go and help her after he could fully comprehend their mystery... Under the special force field of Golden City, the thirteen stars changed bizarrely, making now the best time to study it.

He sat in the corner, his mind immersed in watching and comprehending the trajectory of the thirteen stars. He felt they were mysterious and unpredictable with a certain will in the obscurity. Such will wouldn't be possessed by normal humans, deities or an individual powerhouse, but it represented some kind of supreme path of God, the Aeon of the universe, and more advanced fundamental laws. However, it was always obscure and out of reach, like looking at flowers in the fog or watching a moon in the water.

'They run passively now... They actually are self-conscious... This is also the protection Hayley has made for me. More importantly, how will I maneuver among them?'

The thirteen stars were just like the nine planets in the solar system. Each star was independent, but there was some kind of correlation among themselves. The laws changed as the orientation of the rotation changed. Moreover, everything on the star was also changing.

'Wait... Why do they look like some kind of...'

Alex was comprehending and deciphering the changes in the thirteen stars.

Princess Bea was unwilling to talk to Alex again at first, but she was extremely bored after a short while. There was little she could do while trapped in a cell devoid of food and drink

“Hey!”

She took the initiative to talk to Alex. However, Alex was motionless.

“Hmph! What’s the big deal?! If you don’t talk, you might as well stop talking for the rest of your life!”

She really did not know what to do. She wanted to lie down and rest, but the dirty cell was worlds apart from the soft palace bed she usually slept on. How could she sleep?

It was then that the door to the dungeon was opened again. It was not the previous warden this time but a man covered in a black robe. As soon as he came in, a layer of ferocious mental power swept through the entire dungeon.

“Oh! D*mn! I feel so sleepy all of a sudden!”

“What’s going on? Something’s wrong. The black-robed guy is strange. Is this mental interference..?”

Whoosh!

The white-haired inquisitor shattered into pieces, but at this time, a soft golden light rushed out of his soul fragment. It drifted and was about to rush out.

Alex was startled as he thought, ‘Is this the identity imprint planted on everyone in the Golden City?’

He hurriedly lashed out a wave of holy light, trying to capture its golden identity imprinted on it. The result was unexpected. The seal of the holy light was completely unresponsive to the imprint, as it was out of reach. When Alex saw that the golden imprint was about to float out of the prison, a whim struck him. He then blocked the golden imprint with his body.

The formation blueprint of the thirteen stars was inside his body. This thing could resist the power of the force field outside Golden City. Hence, he believed that it shouldn't be a problem to use this to capture this imprint. As he expected, that imprint stopped after he blocked it with his body.

Alex covered it with both his hands.

He looked at the disheveled... In fact, the half-naked Princess Bea on the ground. The white-hair inquisitor had completely unclothed Princess Bea at the last moment, revealing her impressive figure that did not match her age...

Alex approached Princess Bea while holding the golden imprint before pressing it hard into Princess Bea's chest. After inspection, he confirmed that the imprint had entered her body. However, he overlooked one thing.

The moment the imprint entered Bea's body, Golden City's suppression on her body seemed to have disappeared. Her cultivation was subsequently restored. After that, she opened her eyes and woke up. As soon as she opened her eyes, she saw Alex at close quarters. Afterward, she even saw both Alex's hands pressing on her chest.

The sense of touch was so vivid it was as if she was unclothed.

The next second, Princess Bea screamed. "Ahhh!"

She raised her hand and slapped Alex's face hard.

Alex jumped backward quickly and dodged the woman's full-powered blow.

Princess Bea failed to hit Alex, so she immediately covered her body and cursed loudly, "Human, you vile, shameless, filthy villain! What have you done to me?! You disgust me so much. How dare you remove my clothes and defile my pure, untainted body with your horny hands While I sleep? I'm going to kill you!" Princess Bea screamed, but now she was unclothed.

How was she going to kill him?

"Throw my clothes over!" Princess Bea shouted.

Alex picked up her dress and threw it at her head before he said, "It's not what you imagine. I didn't take off your clothes. He did. He wanted to mingle with your flesh and soul, and I saved you."

The corpse of the white-haired inquisitor was the best evidence. Furthermore, this inquisitor had already taken off his clothes with a self-evident purpose.

After thinking for a while, Princess Bea said, “Even if he removed his clothes and wanted to mingle with my flesh and soul, he is dead now. Why did you put your hands on my chest? You also wanted to take advantage of me, just like him. And you did it!”

Alex waved his hand. “Can’t you think of anything else other than this? Everyone in the prison is hypnotized, but why are you awake? Besides, didn’t you notice something different when you slapped me just now?”

Bea asked angrily, “What’s the difference? My slap... Huh? That’s right. How did I recover my cultivation? Why didn’t you pass out? Did you kill this guy?”

Bea finally came to her senses and asked a barrage of questions.

“You better put on your clothes first. I am not interested in kids!” said Alex. However, this figure definitely did not belong to a kid. It could be said that she was precocious.

Bea grunted. When she wanted to put on her clothes, she noticed they were all torn.

The clothes could no longer be worn.

“Don’t you have some clothes in your storage ring? I was captured. I don’t even have the magical treasure storage with me.”

“Alright!”

Helpless, Alex could not help but take out a set of outfits from his storage magical treasure and give it to her.

“Huh? Black pantyhose? Cutout panties? A low-cut slit dress? You... You! You are a man. How dare you carry around these strange clothes that women are ashamed to wear? You are really a perverted human!”

Alex snatched back the clothes. “These are my wife’s clothes! They are the most common clothes in our world! Well, you are from the beastkind. It’s normal that you don’t wear human clothes, so you can just wear your original clothes.”

“What beastkind? You b*stard! I have the noble bloodline of the Xeraphim clan!”

“Witch Beasts are also beastkind.”

“You... Give me the clothes! Although they are a bit strange, I’ll just wear them!”

Alex threw the clothes to her again.

Bea took the clothes and walked to a corner before putting them on. She did not forget to remind him. “Don’t you dare peek!”

“I’ve seen everything I needed to see. There’s nothing to see.”

“D*mn human... You have no sense of aesthetics!” Bea gritted her teeth secretly.

On the other hand, Alex saw the storage ring on the inquisitor and took it off. When he saw the property inside the ring, there was everything he needed, and the abundant supply made his heart skip a beat. Many of them were good items he did not have a chance to see in the diffracted universe.

As expected, killing someone for his property was the fastest way to get rich in this world. He found a token for passing through the force field inside the magical treasure storage.

He threw it to Bea right away.

After Bea took it in her hand, she asked, “How did you get my strength back?”

“Everyone here has a kind of golden identity imprint. I just put the imprint in the corpse’s soul into your body! It looks like I guessed it correctly. With this imprint, the mysterious power in the Golden City won’t be able to seal your cultivation.”

“You placed it in my chest?”

“That’s right!”

“You could have placed it in my arm, shoulder, or something like that, but you ended up choosing my chest. And you said you didn’t take advantage of me on purpose?”

It was because that spot was the most eye-catching!

As she spoke, another voice could be heard from the prison. Alex and Bea were shocked.

The people in Golden City had high cultivation. The fact that the patrolling captain could capture Alex when his strength was not sealed spoke for itself. Surprisingly, he was able to catch the inquisitor off guard and kill him...

“It seems to be the previous warden. What should we do?” Bea asked via telepathy.

“Pretend to be unconscious and catch him off guard just like before...”

Bea lay on the ground immediately. Alex tampered with the inquisitor’s corpse before quickly laying it on the ground.

Shortly afterward, the warden walked over directly and saw Bea’s dress scattered. The inquisitor was naked as he sat cross-legged on the ground, whereas Bea’s body was covered with the inquisitor’s clothes.

He did not even bother to look at Alex.

“Lord Inquisitor?” The warden said, “Lord Inquisitor, the Nine Yin Heavenly Ruin has been opened in advance.”

The next second, Alex launched an attack and instantly stabbed him in the head with the Immortal Butcher. To his surprise, however, that man had been vigilant, and he tilted his head abruptly and dodged the thrusting sword. After that, he grabbed Alex’s wrist with one hand. “There’s really something wrong! You actually regained your strength! D*mn it!”

The warden was not weak either. After dodging Alex's sneak attack, Chi surged all over his body. He activated at least a dozen layers of defensive barriers containing various colors to protect him.

"D*mn it! This guy is tortoise-type!"

Alex was no longer hesitant and condensed a golden-bodied Buddha behind him. He bombarded him wave after wave with the Immortal Butcher in his right hand and the Three Thousand Forbidden Spells in his left hand.

'The Three Thousand Forbidden Spells are the Chi universe's forbidden spells. I don't believe I can't break your tortoise shell.'

Princess Bea also jumped at that moment. Her method was bizarre. It was something like an illusion.

She released a sexy, enchanting, and underdressed woman. The woman burrowed into the warden's forehead directly and did something unknown. Immediately afterward, the warden's mental state fell into a brief daze.

"Great Enfeeble!"

"Great Slow!"

"Great Severance!"

Alex cast all kinds of rare and strange forbidden spells on the warden. Although they were supportive types, they worked very well. The barriers began to disintegrate from his interior body.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The defensive barriers were cut open layer by layer. Some even became weakened on their own.

"Kill!"

The Immortal Butcher pierced the warden's heart with supreme Chi. Meanwhile, Princess Bea tied a red rope around his head and jerked it with great force. The warden's head wasn't severed, but his soul was tied out.

"This method is a bit evil!" Alex was slightly surprised.

“You skinned the white-furred beast, so I’ll use your soul to pay off the debt!” Princess Bea opened her mouth and sucked vigorously, eating the warden’s soul right away...

“Uhm...”

The women of the Xeraphim clan turned out to be so terrifying that they ate human souls directly?

Alex took two steps back and felt the danger instinctively. None of the existences on the Ancient Path were simple. Even if Princess Bea had eaten the warden’s soul, a soft golden light floated out, indicating that Bea was unable to eat the identity imprint of the Golden City with the soul-eating method, nor could she replicate Alex’s previous action.

Alex immediately stretched his hand and captured that golden light.

Bea exclaimed, “You can actually capture the golden light of identity in Golden City?”

Alex said, “That’s why you could regain your strength! By the way, who was that woman that burrowed into his head?”

Bea replied, “Why should I tell you?”

Alex asked her casually. After thinking for a while, he pressed the golden light into his body. He could feel that his body relaxing with the presence of the imprint as if all the restrictions in Golden City had been lifted.

It did not matter even if the formation of the thirteen stars in his body changed.

Alex searched the warden’s corpse and took away his storage ring before he said, “Two people died. The previous guy was some Lord Inquisitor. We will definitely attract the attention of the citizens of Golden City. That guy who captured us may come too. Hurry up and leave!”

Bea looked at other citizens of the Witch Beast Kingdom in the prison. “I want to save them.”

“How are you going to save them? Their cultivation is sealed without the golden light of identity. They can’t even walk quickly!”

“Then, how did you get the golden light of identity into my body?”

“Why should I tell you?” Alex mirrored her words. Then, he walked out of the cell directly and headed toward the door.

“Hey! Wait for me!” Bea chased after him.

She wanted to save the people, but she couldn't, as the conditions forbade her. Getting out alive was another issue. However, it was then that the people outside the prison knew something had happened in the dungeon through some unknown means. The door was opened, and a group of prison guards came in.

They saw Alex and Bea running out at that time.

“Ah! Something really happened!”

“Someone escaped from the prison!”

“Arrest them!”

“Where's Lord Inquisitor? This is bad! Lord Inquisitor and the prison warden have been killed!”

When Alex noticed the situation wasn't right, he immediately launched a preemptive strike.

“Great Nightmare!”

Buzz!

A ravaging sea of mental dreams enveloped the group of people who rushed in.

Poof!

These people had high cultivation levels. However, the Great Nightmare Spell that Alex had cast with his mental strength alone could envelop all of these people. He consumed so much of his mental strength at once that he vomited a mouthful of blood at once.

“Go!”

Alex grabbed Bea, who was following him. “Don’t touch them!”

Princess was astonished. Never did she expect that Alex’s method would be so amazing.

They passed through the crowd cautiously and walked out of the dungeon door. However, the actual duration of the Great Nightmare Spell was short for those with high cultivation. One of those who rushed in had a divine artifact that boosted his mental strength. He woke up quickly from the nightmare. Then, he let out an earth-shattering rear and woke everyone from the nightmare.

“Where are they?”

“They are outside! They have run away! Chase them, quick!”

“Two people will stay behind and deal with the Lord Inquisitor and the prison warden! Inform the Patrol Division and set off the emergency flare!”

Whoosh! Crackle!

A flare exploded in the air like a firework.

At that moment, Alex and Bea came out of the dungeon and entered the main street of Golden City at lightning speed. When they saw the flare exploding in the air, Bea said, “This is a flare for the Patrol Division. The Patrol Division will rush over soon! Hurry up and run!”

“Wait a minute!”

Alex grabbed her. “Look! Aren’t those people ahead from the Patrol Division? Don’t panic. We have the identity imprints. We will attract attention instead if we move now.”

Bea certainly understood this principle. They both slowed down like the people around them. They looked at the sky and their surroundings before showing a surprised and puzzled expression. After the team of the Patrol Division looked around, they immediately ran toward the prison.

Alex and Bea heaved a sigh of relief.

“What should we do now? Leave Golden City?” Bea asked.

“You should go. I have to look for someone,” said Alex.

“You are looking for someone? No wonder you wanted to enter the city. Alright. Goodbye then!”

Bea was straightforward as she waved her hand and bade Alex farewell, but he suddenly heard someone’s frantic screaming. It sounded like an air raid siren in a modern city. After that, an image was projected in mid-air.

That was an image of Alex and Bea. They both were wanted. Almost everyone in the Golden City could see this wanted notice. Furthermore, there was an audio announcement saying they had killed the chief inquisitor and prison warden and demanded all the citizens arrest the wanted criminals.

“D*mn it! They are so fast!”

Bea turned back again because they both had been targeted.

“Why did you come back?” Alex asked.

Bea said, “We will have a high probability of getting caught if we act separately. We have to join forces in order to have more chances to escape.”

“No need. You are a burden to me.”

Bea gritted her teeth. “Do you look down on me, you b*stard?! You will know how powerful I really am once I go through my coming-of-age ceremony!”

Just then, a group of people rushed over.

“The wanted criminals are here! Come quickly!”

“D*mn! Go!”

Alex grabbed Bea and teleported away. When he reappeared, he had disguised himself as a middle-aged man. Even so, it was futile.

Two beams of light appeared directly in the sky, shining down on them, just like a massive navigation point.

“Holy sh*t!”

“How can there be such a thing in Golden City? Someone who has an identity imprint hasn’t been recognized? Artificial intelligence?”

Alex kept complaining while teleporting continuously with Bea. He wanted to teleport outside first and think of a way to get into the city next time, but he found that teleportation was forbidden in the space between Golden City and the force field outside. He was unable to do it as the suppression was too harsh. It felt similar to the atmosphere of Earth, where spatial teleportation was forbidden within the range of the atmosphere.

Countless people were catching up with them from behind. The number of pursuers kept increasing.

‘What should I do?’ Alex sighed.

The Witch Beast princess next to Alex was dwelling on his words. She asked, “What is holy sh*t?”

Alex fell silent for a moment before he said, “It is a home-cooked dish. I’ll make one for you when I have the chance!”

Bea nodded. “You humans just like enjoying yourselves and spend countless hours on meaningless cooking, but I love your dishes. It’s settled then. Let me eat your holy sh*t next time.”

Alex glanced behind him. “We can’t get past, or else we will be dead! Let’s turn back and enter the Golden City!”

“Great Enfeeble!”

“Great Nightmare!”

“Illumination of Buddhist Light!”

Alex discovered the benefits of the three thousand great Dao. It seemed they complemented each other.

Gulp!

After consuming a handful of pills, Alex continued to escape with Bea and headed toward Golden City's core area. He would be able to teleport as long as they left the range of the force field.

Whoosh!

The teleportation and the navigation beam moved in parallel.

“Abomination, where are you going to escape?!”

A voice suddenly rang above the two of them.

Alex cursed at a glance. It turned out to be the patrolman of the Golden City who had arrested them before, the one with the terrifyingly high cultivation. His cultivation was unequivocally higher than that of the chief inquisitor, and Alex and Bea were shocked in the face of such a big shot. Then, they unleashed their strongest attacks without hesitation.

Bea threw out a handful of red threads. Each red thread was like a murderous laser.

On the other hand, Alex scattered a handful of paper dolls. He had not used the Paper Doll Curse of Three Realms for a long time. It was a relatively mysterious curse. The power of the Paper Doll Curse of Three Realms would increase, corresponding to Alex's cultivation level. Most importantly, it could distort reality.

Roar!

The paper dolls landed on the ground and turned into humans, including Bea and Alex. Immediately afterward, he created countless mirror images. The scene turned into a mess.

The patrol chief and the squad of Golden City patrolman were wide-eyed, not knowing what to do as they faced hundreds of paper dolls, mirror images, and real people that were hard to tell apart.

Meanwhile, the real Alex took Bea and escaped via Earth Escape Technique.

“Hmph! A child's play. How dare you display your skills in front of an expert?!”

The patrol chief made a horizontal sweep with his lance. Thousands of lance shadows were formed by an expanse of laws and passed through hundreds of illusions ahead. What made people's blood freeze was that the illusions killed by the lance shadows of laws fell on the ground realistically and died vividly with blood, broken limbs, and corpses.

"This is..."

"This trick is really overpowering, isn't it?"

"Sir, which one here is the real one?"

There was also a problem with the navigating golden light. It became disordered and was unable to distinguish the dummies created by the Paper Doll Curse of Three Realms.

This scene would probably surprise Alex.

The patrol chief walked up to two murdered bodies and poked them with the tip of his lance. They felt completely like real people in terms of tactile sensation or visual effects. However, it was absolutely impossible because at least a dozen of such corpses remained on the ground.

"This human trick is really astonishing!"

The patrol chief was named Ruca, at that moment, he looked in the direction of the Golden City. Although the golden light did not track down the real Alex and Bea, he had a hunch that those two people certainly had to be alive!

“What?”

“What is this thing?”

Ruca, that young woman, as well as the group of people who had surrounded Alex, were stunned. The threat of the dark demonic lotus was too great. Not only did they experience a potential trauma that they were unable to resist, but the layers of Golden City’s laws were also suppressed.

In addition...

Why did the Nine Yin Heavenly Ruins turn into the Eye of Nine Yin in her mouth?

What was the Eye of Nine Yin?

“Lady Black Lotus, we are in the same boat after all. I believe you won’t end up well if I die. If you don’t save me in the current situation, we both will be done for,” Alex warned the woman who had just erected on the demonic lotus.

Lady Black Lotus cackled. "You are really weak as always. Alright! I will save you once for the sake of bringing me to the Eye of Nine Yin."

The self-consciousness of the dark demonic lotus was very independent. Therefore, it was almost certain that this fellow was the reincarnation of the Demonic Lotus of Genesis. The next second, the black lady pointed out a finger and a black chain passed through the body of the young female teacher earlier.

Whoosh!

The young woman disappeared completely almost in the blink of an eye, leaving only the clothes on her body. They fell rapidly to the ground and clumped together without any substantial support.

"Huh?!"

"Madam Maya! Where did Madam Maya go?"

"Why did she disappear all of a sudden?!"

The patrol expert, Ruca, had his brows twitching wildly. This result made his heart throb explicitly as he had never seen anything like this. He did not expect this young man would have such a terrifying thing with him. Moreover, it looked like he was unable to search control it fully either.

"Run!" Ruca roared.

Those students of a certain school in Golden City surrounding Alex and Bea shouted as they fled. The crowd scattered in panic, but in the eyes of Lady Black Lotus, they were not as quick as her, no matter how fast they fled.

Whoosh!

She shot out countless dark chains that passed through those people's bodies.

Those people who had initially planned to enter the Nine Yin Heavenly Ruin disappeared one after another. Only their clothes were left all over the place.

It was terrifying! It was simply horrifying!

Princess Bea was quite excited at first.

This human, Alex, actually possessed such a great killing weapon, but when she witnessed the lopsided massacre...

'No...' after the unreasonable destruction of living beings, Bea felt fear from the depth of her heart.

What would happen if those black chains passed through her body?

Ruca also felt extreme fear. 'What should I do?'

At that moment, the black lady already had her eyes on him.

Whoosh!

The next second, the black chains struck again and penetrated Ruca's body. Nonetheless, his clothes did not fall on the ground. Instead, what remained in place was a piece of wood.

A substitution puppet!

Ruca was heartbroken. The substitution puppet was very precious and equivalent to a second life. It took him tens of thousands of years to raise it to the current state, and its material did not exist in the diffracted universe, not to mention the Ancient Path. It was something he obtained from the Nine Yin Heavenly Ruin.

"Huh? This substitution puppet is quite advanced, isn't it? How dare it deceive my eyes?!"

Lady Black Lotus shook the chains, and the piece of wood fell into her hand. "The Wood of Nine Yin Eye? Heh! It is really good stuff. It seems there is no mistake. What is inside the Void Gate is definitely the Eye of Nine Yin."
