The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3501

Everyone had run away. And at this moment, Bea noticed that the two large pieces of Witch Ore on the ground had begun to dissolve bit by bit.

Witch Ores that could dissolve on its own? That was incredible!

Bea exclaimed, "Look! Why are those Witch Ores dissolving? That's so strange!"

Meanwhile, the dark demonic lotus was transmitting to Alex, "Watch out! The Witch Essence is on the move!"

Alex used his x-ray vision to observe the movement inside the stone wall. At the same time, because of the Witch Ore, a gas form of witch energy was generated in the air.

Bea immediately took a deep breath. "This is Spiritual Witch Extract! And it's so pure!"

Empress Ghast also began to suck up mouthfuls of air.

Alex didn't do the same. It was only a tiny amount of Spiritual Witch Extract, which did nothing for him. Then he noticed the dissolved Witch Ore had quickly penetrated through the ground, causing cracks to appear. However, the amount that seeped into the ground was less and slower than the speed of the ore dissolving.

Empress Ghast also noticed it and said, "Rockefeller, there's too much dissolved Witch Ore. It'll flood this place if this continues. What should we do?"

"Don't worry," Alex said. "Just think of it like a hot spring."

"Are you crazy? If it suddenly solidifies, we'll be trapped inside!"

"Wait, that female corpse from before... Perhaps this was the reason she was trapped inside?"

“You guessed it right!” Alex said. “There is a possibility of that, but if you guys stay close to me, you won’t be trapped. It’s enough if you stay close to me, but you can also pull my arm or even hug me. That works too.”

Empress Ghast walked over to Alex and hugged him from one side, while Bea hugged him from the other. Alex felt their breasts press against him tightly, as though not even air could squeeze in between them. He suddenly thought that if they got trapped in the Witch Ore and when someone dug them up in the future as fossils, the story of how they got stuck here would be so beautiful!

Soon, the rocks on the ground started to change. The Witch Essence appeared dissatisfied with the speed of penetration.

Swoosh!

A big hole appeared in the ground. The dissolved Witch Ore rushed down the big hole in one fell swoop.

“That’s the eye of the cave! Hurry up and get in!” the dark demonic lotus told Alex telepathically.

The big hole had a diameter of a full three meters. This was also Alex’s hard-earned capital. He had to be a huge risk-taker to push such a big Witch Ore into the hole.

Otherwise, how could he have induced the Witch Essence’s greediness to open such a big hole?

“Let’s go!” Alex pulled the women and rushed into the large cave. They followed the liquified Witch Ore and slid down the cave.

“Ah!”

“What’s going on? Why are we falling?”

The two women couldn’t open their eyes but could feel themselves falling.

Boom!

Finally, they landed on solid ground. The two big pieces of ore had all liquified and fell into the hole which closed behind them. It was impossible to tell that there was once a cave entrance.

“Hah! How can there be such pure Spiritual Witch Extract here?” Bea said when she noticed the difference.

“We’re inside the Witch Essence’s body!” Alex said.

“What? Inside the essence?”

The two women were stunned. That was too magical to believe!

“Could the Witch Essence have a life of its own? How did you do that? I’ve never heard of such a thing. You’re really a god!”

Alex laughed at her words. “The Witch Essence here is humongous! Well, okay, no more nonsense. You both also contributed to its creation. Since this is a rare chance, hurry up and use the Witch Essence to cultivate!”

With that said, Alex opened his mouth and breathed in deeply and repeatedly, sucking countless amounts of Witch Essence into his body.

Whoosh!

Colossal amounts of Witch Essence rushed into his body. Naturally, Alex wasn’t the only one sucking in the Witch Essence. His cultivation realm was not good enough to support such a large amount, and the dark demonic lotus was also absorbing it.

Empress Ghast and Bea, who were standing to the side, were stunned.

Did Alex have a black hole in his stomach? How could he suck in so much?

He was absorbing Witch Essence, not air. Wasn’t he afraid to die?!

Generally, people would only suck in a small amount, perhaps enough for one deep breath, before they had to stop and digest the essence to transform it into their own energy before continuing. But Alex was breathing in more than ten deep breaths each time of Witch Essence, an amount that couldn’t compare to Witch Ore!

Even saying one to ten thousand was not enough to describe the difference between them because they weren't the same and were fundamentally different.

"Is this guy a bottomless pit?!" Bea said in shock.

Empress Ghast replied, "He's always been good at creating miracles. Saying he has extreme luck is probably the best description of him! Let's stop wasting time. We've already entered the Witch Essence's body, so it should be safe. We should hurry up and cultivate. I feel like I'm about to make a breakthrough in my bottleneck. Perhaps I'm going to reach the Dominant Realm!"

"Seriously? That's fast! How can you people from the Diffracted universe be more powerful than us?!"

Empress Ghast ignored her, so Bea could only start cultivating too.

Outside Devil's Hill.

Madame Rouge and the others entered the pit again. After a short discussion, the group finally found a suitable location and started digging.

Clang! Clang!

The miners dug desperately, putting all their effort into it. Madame Rouge's men, too, were helping out on the side.

"Look! There's some Witch Ore debris here!" a miner exclaimed when he saw a few crumbs. "Even though it's just a small corner of one, you can see the aura of Witch Ore on it!"

Madame Rouge came forward excitedly and picked up the crumbs.

"Yes! It does have the Witch Ore's aura! It's also very pure, which means we're not far from the Witch Essence."

The group couldn't possibly know that it was actually Alex who had brought out the Witch Ore. After it was dissolved, the impurities left were trash that the Witch Essence didn't want, so it left it all outside, and that was what the group had found.

“Here! If we continue to dig here, we can definitely find the Witch Essence!” an old miner said, pointing to a spot under his feet.

It was exactly where the Witch Essence had previously opened a hole.

The old miner was right, but he didn’t know that since it was a hole that the Witch Essence could open and close at will, it would also be the most difficult place to dig. No matter how much one dug, the Witch Essence could simply fill the site back up.

Then, a mind-boggling thing happened to them.

They dug with all their might for a good while before finally reaching a two-meter deep hole. Then, as soon as they turned around, they suddenly found themselves leaving the mine.

“Huh? Hey! Why am I at the cave entrance?”

“What?! Where’s the hole we were digging? It disappeared!”

“What the hell is going on?!”

They started digging again, and a long time went by as they painstakingly dug out another two-meter deep hole. In the blink of an eye... What the hell? The hole was filled up again!

“Just what the hell is this?!”

“Something’s weird! Seriously weird!”

“This hole actually filled up on its own! Is it alive?!”

Everyone was dumbfounded.

At this time, an old miner suddenly came to a realization. “I remember our ancestors once had a book left by a mining master. There was a record that said Witch Essence has a consciousness and is a kind of spirit. Not only can it manipulate the mountain and tucks, but it’s also capable of escaping when it’s in danger! So the hole we dug that has been filled twice... I’m sure it’s the Witch Essence’s doing!”

“Uncle, in that case, is the Witch Essence below?”

“I’m certain of it!”

“Dig! Everyone, all together!”

Even Madame Rouge, who was a noble, joined the team in digging.

At the same time, Alex was absorbing the Witch Essence at a terrifying speed. The surrounding Witch Essence in the air was reduced at a speed visible to the naked eye. The three thousand lotus inside his body evolved after obtaining tons of Witch Essence!

What kind of evolution was it?

Simple. It got bigger. Each flower expanded out and grew in size like a balloon blowing up. Unlike a balloon, however, there was no limit to how big it got.

Alex was dumbfounded when he sent his consciousness into the three thousand lotus. If the lotus flowers were to be compared to the size of a regular physical body, each flower should be about half a person’s height, roughly one meter.

But how big was it now?

Alex stood at the bottom, looking up and squinting before finally seeing the top of the lotus petals. Roughly making a visual estimation, it was probably about... Ten thousand meters tall?

Ordinary people would never see such a big and tall lotus flower in their lives. Even the lotus pond that came with the three thousand lotus Alex was nurturing in his body had risen, breaking its ten-thousand-meter limit.

One flower, one world?

Alex shocked, “Oh my god, that saying is actually true! A lotus flower and a Nascent Soul. Once the Nascent Soul is shattered, it becomes a tiny, separated world on its own. With the massive amount of Witch Essence, these small worlds began evolving and growing into real worlds... Isn’t that too much?! That means my body has three thousand worlds in it! And every lotus flower gives me special energy. This energy is the same that I obtain by swallowing a corpse worm back then, which is cosmic power...!”

He knew that he had broken through again. He had made great progress. His body strength became stronger as the worlds were constructed.

At the same time, the thirteen stars that were given to him suddenly started to move differently after sensing the changes in Alex’s body.

Swoosh! Swoosh!

The thirteen stars turned into thirteen streams of light and shot out, entering thirteen random worlds in the three thousand lotus.

‘Sh*t? What the hell happened?’

The thirteen lotus world that received the stars began to undergo significant changes after a few seconds, evolving rapidly. There were mountains, water, forests, lakes, and life. The world’s ecology came into being and was alive and well. With that, the absorption rate of the Witch Essence increased again. As for the Witch Essence that was alive, it began to shift restlessly as it knew it was close to death. It was being devoured mercilessly, and it instinctively tried to stop it from happening.

Its body began to churn continuously.

As a result, Madame Rouge and the others digging outside were in for a miserable time. The entire mine collapsed accidentally, burying everyone inside, and all the paths were sealed tightly.

Boom!

Just then, a huge ancient coffin suddenly fell out where Alex and the two women were.

“What...?!”

The coffin almost fell on Bea’s foot, and she jumped back in fright. Simultaneously, the coffin lid slowly opened on its own.

“What... What is it? What’s inside the coffin?” Bea felt a little creeped out

To her surprise, a huge ancient coffin appeared in the body of Witch Essence. The coffin lid even lifted itself on its own.

What was lying inside?

Empress Ghast had also woken up from cultivation. Similarly, she was looking at that coffin with a wary face.

“Could it be that ancient corpse?” Empress Ghast recalled what Madame Rouge and others said because its appearance had once brought a curse, killing everyone in the mining area.

‘It can’t be that ancient corpse, right?’ Alex puzzled.

The women looked at Alex almost simultaneously, but now, Alex was sitting cross-legged, motionless, and some kind of strange formation was being formed on his body. He kept devouring Witch Essence, paying no attention to the events around him as if he had transcended to an amazing state.

“Alex should have entered the critical moment of cultivation. Let’s not disturb him,” Empress Ghast said.

“But this coffin...”

“Let’s take a look first. It may not be that ancient corpse.”

The two women moved forward cautiously, trying to find out what was inside the coffin. Just then, a dull yet loud sound came from the coffin all of a sudden...

Boom!

‘What was that?’

The two women were astonished and felt extreme discomfort in their hearts to the point that they wanted to vomit blood as if they had been struck by a heavy hammer. After taking another two steps forward, both women finally saw clearly the scene in the coffin...

There was nobody inside!

It wasn't a person but a mass of flesh in the coffin. No, it was a heart. A huge heart. The boom just now was caused by the beating of this heart.

Immediately afterward, it beat again.

The sound was louder, and the commotion was greater this time. Both the women's minds went blank from the shock, and they could not move their bodies!

Meanwhile, the noise also reached the ears of Madame Rouge and others.

The group of people was still trapped inside the mining area, and it was difficult for them to try to move. When those few people heard the sound, they were slightly dumbfounded.

"What is that sound?"

"Why does it sound like... Like a heartbeat?"

Madame Rouge was wide-eyed at once. "Heartbeat... Such a loud heartbeat. Could it be... No way?! Are we so lucky?"

Another person's expression also changed drastically. He was excited, shocked, and frenzied at the same time.

"Madame Rouge, are you talking about the Fiend Lord's Peerless Heart? Oh my God! Experts from the great Eternal Dominion, North, South, East, and West, have rushed into the Eye of Nine Yin this time for the sake of the Fiend Lord's heart... The Fiend Lord's heart is not in the hive. Has it been in the periphery? This is... Too ridiculous! We'll be very fortunate if we manage to loot it!"

Madame Rouge's eyes were bloodshot, and her breathing became rapid. It was something that many dignitaries had their eyes on!

To their surprise, it just appeared in front of them. It was simply a godsend.

As time passed, the heartbeat became increasingly louder.

Boom! Boom!

Even the entire mountain was shaking, and their eardrums were uncomfortable from the shock. The rhythm was also accelerating, indicating that the heart was beating faster.

Trapped in the mining area, Madame Rouge and others dug desperately and tried to get out to find the Fiend Lord's heart. They also felt extreme discomfort in their violently palpitating hearts, as though they had been hammered again and again and they were going to die at any time.

At that moment, the group became immobilized, while the heartbeat only got louder. The mine and Devil's Hill shook, and the surrounding waters trembled. The vast boundless ocean became turbulent as the heartbeats churned up the waves. The sound then spread to distant areas.

"What is that?"

"A heartbeat! It is the Fiend Lord's heart! The Fiend Lord's heart is appearing!"

"Oh my God! The Fiend Lord's heart is actually here?!"

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3505

A young, white-haired man on a large ship that had just come in from the Chi universe had a change of expression. "The Fiend Lord's heart turns out to be located at the periphery of the Eye of Nine Yin! Haha! I'm late because of the delay, but I didn't expect to get to loot it! Those guys from the Eternal Dominion are probably killing each other in the hive, but they don't know the Fiend Lord's heart will appear here. Hahaha..."

The white-haired man detested the ship for sailing too slowly, so he took a step, rushed out of it, and charged toward Devil's Hill. Although he was in the sea, he was able to break through the space and teleport forward.

Meanwhile, inside the body of Witch Essence, Alex finally woke up from the shock. After he opened his eyes, he first saw Empress Ghast and Bea, who were grimacing in pain. Both the women were bleeding from the orifices on their faces, their bodies unable to withstand the shockwaves of the beating heart, and they looked very miserable now.

Stunned, Alex rushed over immediately and saw a huge heart beating continuously. This kind of intense vibration made him very uncomfortable. Fortunately, he had made great progress in cultivation.

After pioneering the three thousand worlds, there were no longer any words to describe the strength of his body. The foundation and stability upon which the world was built became support pillars for his body.

“Beautiful lady...” Alex summoned the dark demonic lotus.

However, the black lady seemed immersed in upgrading herself and could not wake up temporarily after absorbing a significant amount of Witch Essence.

‘D*mn it! She is unreliable at the critical moment!’ Alex complained.

When he saw Empress Ghast and Bea were about to die from shock, he took out the Immortal Butcher without another word and thrust the sword into that huge heart.

‘Holy crap! If those old geezers from the Eternal Dominion see this, they’ll probably blow their tops off.’

Suddenly, a roar cried out, “How dare you try to kill a supreme divine object with your sword? Are you a complete fool?!”

Boom!

The Fiend Lord’s heart emitted an even greater vibration at the critical moment.

Suddenly, Alex’s sword seemed to be frozen halfway. He could not pierce it no matter how he tried. At the same time, he vomited a mouthful of blood as his heart received a huge impact.

“D*mn! What the hell is this heart? I refuse to be taken in by this fallacy! Three thousand worlds, grant me strength!”

“Great Enfeeble!”

“Great Curse!”

“Great Plague!”

“Great Bewitchment!”

“Great Fate!”

Alex bombarded the huge heart with dozens of mystic arts from the Three Thousand Great Dao. Then, he activated the Immortal Butcher again. This time, the three thousand lotuses vibrated, and the three thousand worlds roared. Particularly, endless power even gushed out of the worlds that had acquired the thirteen stars.

Poof!

Alex succeeded this time. He stabbed the sword into the heart, causing a great amount of blood to splash all over his body. At that moment, Alex seemed to hear a supreme roar.

When that voice reached his ear, he felt a great shock in his soul, as if he was about to kneel down and surrender.

“B*stard! Who the hell do you think you are?! You’re trying to make me yield? Dream on!”

Alex exerted strength once again. The next second, the heart was broken entirely. Endless streams of blood spurted out.

The stone coffin was filled to the brim with blood. Astonishingly, a small golden heart was present in the huge heart. This small heart rushed out and pierced Alex’s heart with a puff and engulfed it.

“Holy moly! What the heck?” Alex was stunned.

To his surprise, there was another small heart inside the huge heart. Moreover, it had covered his heart.

'What is this b*stard trying to do? It engulfed my heart and turned it into his heart. Then, am I still the original the great Alex Rockefeller?!'

An extreme sense of crisis surged inside Alex's chest. However, when such a thought crossed his mind, his heart merged with that golden heart that belonged to some unidentified species...

That's right, as flesh and blood fused, the two hearts fused into one.

Alex activated his internal vision immediately, but he failed to see anything. The heart seemed to be the same... His heart.

But where did the heart in the coffin go?

After this unforeseen event, the heartbeats disappeared completely.

"Ah!"

"Huff!"

Empress Ghast and Bea regained mobility almost at the same time, but they gasped when they saw each other's faces.

"There is a lot of blood on your face!"

"You too!"

"Where is... That heart in the coffin? Where did it go?"

Neither woman had witnessed the perilous incident of Alex getting stabbed in the heart just now. Completely shaken from the shock of Fiend Lord's heartbeat, they were recovering gradually, though their neck still throbbed. They saw a lot of blood in the coffin as well as the shell of the huge heart.

"Alex, did you cut open this strange heart?" asked Empress Ghast.

"Yes," Alex nodded but declined to comment.

He still did not know what the heart would do to him, though it seemed there was nothing different for now.

That white-haired powerhouse that had suddenly rushed in could not sense the Fiend Lord's heart, so he stopped and frowned. 'The heartbeat stopped? No. Once the Fiend Lord's heart shows up, it has to find a suitable host. Before that, it shouldn't stop beating, but it should get more intense. Could someone have acquired it so fast?'

'Impossible! Who could have obtained the Fiend Lord's heart on the periphery?'

The white-haired man was named Bredon Chase, a superb powerhouse at the ninetieth level of the Eonian Realm. There was the Eternal Realm and Everlasting Realm above the Eonian Realm, but one was already an absolute powerhouse at the ninetieth level of the Eonian Realm. It was because the powerhouses of the Eternal Realm were as rare as hens' teeth. There were nine of them in the entire Chi universe. As for the Everlasting Realm, it had long been an ancient legend.

The Everlasting Door had not been opened for several epochs. No one knew where those in the Everlasting would go once they crossed the Everlasting Door. After that, there had not been another everlasting being for several epochs, up to ten billion years.

It was all because the Everlasting Path was too difficult...

Where could one find everlasting life in loneliness and emptiness?

Hence, only the nine Eternals from the Eternal Dominion in the Chi universe were locked in constant strife... Because the Eternal Path was getting narrower, and the heavenly law would kill them if they were somewhat careless. It seemed God was unwilling to let these overpowering powerhouses continue to exist. If the powerhouses in the Eternal Realm wished to continue moving forward or stay in place, they had to keep looking for overpowering objects.

The Fiend Lord's heart, for instance, was an overpowering existence.

After acquiring the Fiend Lord's heart, a powerhouse of the Eternal Realm would make a giant leap forward and may even peek into the secrets of the Everlasting Realm. The last everlasting being from ten billion years ago was probably the master of the Fiend Lord.

The prophecy about the emergence of the Fiend Lord's heart in the Eye of Nine Yin was spread from the Heavenly Fate Pavilion of the Chi universe, and the powerhouses in the Eternal Realm had come looking for it. Other than the Eternal powerhouses, great experts of the Advanced-Eonian Realm like Bredon also searched for it after they got wind of it.

Once the powerhouse of the Advanced-Eonian Realm acquired the Fiend Lord's heart, they would be able to transcend to the Eternal Realm completely!

Which powerhouse was not moved?

Bredon thought he would be able to loot it, but the Fiend Lord's heart stopped beating the moment he rejoiced.

'Someone beat me to it? Who was it?' The rage inside Bredon's heart was evident, so violent it could destroy the world.

Buzz!

Bredon's powerful divine sense spread over a million miles instantly, radiating all the way to Devil's Hill. He saw the endless sea, ferocious giant demons under the sea, dilapidated and sunken ancient cities, as well as the undersea mountain range that spread endlessly.

Finally, he saw something...

It was an ancient coffin with a huge heart inside, but the heart had been broken and filled the coffin with blood.

'The Fiend Lord's heart!' Bredon was excited instantly.

After all, a powerhouse who had existed for countless years like Bredon was well-informed. He knew some wonderful uses of the Fiend Lord's heart. The huge heart outside was just a shell, whereas the one inside was the real heart of the Fiend Lord. However, the shell had now been broken, and the heart inside was missing.

'D*mn! I'm too late!'

The annoyance inside Bredon's heart was overwhelming.

'No... No! There are no powerhouses here. They are all a bunch of weaklings. Where did the Fiend Lord's heart go?'

He continued searching with divine sense and saw Bea, Empress Ghast, and Alex next to the coffin and even Madame Rouge and others not far away. After scanning for a while, he eventually focused on Alex because his body was bizarre and filled with the shell blood of the Fiend Lord's heart.

'It's... That brat! What is this guy's cultivation level? His cultivation system is bizarre. He looks like a weakling, but I never expected he'd possess the energy of the true essence of the universe!'

Just then, Bredon sensed another massive divine sense brushing past him and heading toward Devil's Hill.

'Sh*t! There is actually a powerhouse in the Advanced-Eonian Realm here. He must have discovered the whereabouts of the Fiend Lord's heart! I must get one step ahead of the brat and force the Fiend Lord's heart out of him!'

Bredon instantly made a move. He swiftly traversed the sea like a flying sword, speeding toward Alex's location.

At the same time, a Black Dragon was swimming wildly on the other side. Its speed was on par with Bredon. It was then that the dark demonic lotus inside Alex's body was finally alerted.

"What's going on? A superb powerhouse's divine sense swept through... No, Rockefeller, you have been targeted. What's more, there is at least one more great powerhouse in the Intermediate-Eonian Realm. What are they trying to do?"

Alex told her about the ancient coffin and the heart inside.

The dark demonic lotus was startled. "Oh gosh! You actually obtained the Fiend Lord's heart? Are you kidding me? You were really born under a lucky star! Those two guys are already very close! It will be too late if we don't leave! Run!"

Alex wanted to take Empress Ghast and Bea.

“Are you an idiot? How are you going to run by carrying two burdens like them? Besides, you are their target! They are just weaklings in their eyes! They are not interested in them at all!”

Alex complained inwardly, “I’m targeted by great powerhouses for no reason. Can’t you let me grow stronger for a bit?”

He quickly said telepathically to the two women hurriedly. Then, he got out of the Witch Essence with the help of the dark demonic lotus and headed deeper into the sea before fleeing frantically!

“Hah! You have come out! Where are you going to run?”

Having long locked onto him, Bredon and that Black Dragon found Alex when he rushed out of Devil’s Hill. Then, two shadows rushed out of the sea.

Alex was not slow either.

If it was in the past, he would not have been that fast. However, the prototype of three thousand worlds in his body appeared after he devoured a great amount of Witch Essence. Hayley’s thirteen stars were integrated into the world, and something top secret grew quietly in his mind. That obscure thing was what Hayley wanted to teach Alex.

Shortly afterward, Alex began to be enlightened. Hayley would probably be astonished if she knew the result.

“Remote Teleportation!”

“Great Void!”

“Overlapped Space!”

Alex teleported consecutively, trying to get rid of the two pursuers.

One might have great ideals, but unfortunately, reality was harsh.

After escaping for fifteen minutes, Alex realized something was wrong. His pursuers had increased. There weren't only two, but another two unknown pursuers had flanked him. In fact, the two pursuers were actually the Black Dragon and Bredon's battle pets. One would certainly have a battle pet after reaching their level. Moreover, it was normal to have a bunch of battle pets.

"Mirror image!" Alex summoned a mirror image and fled separately, but it ended in vain.

A minor illusion spell like the mirror image was equivalent to a child's play in the face of a powerhouse in the Advanced-Eonian Realm. He could not deal with that commander when he was in the Golden City. Currently, he was even more useless in the face of someone who was a hundred to a thousand times stronger.

'D*mn. I used up all my paper dolls for the Paper Doll Curse. They might've been useful!'

At that moment, the dark demonic lotus said to Alex, "I will risk myself and give it a try now if there is one opponent. You can also deal with him by relying on the Fiend Lord's heart you have obtained, but there are two... We are really short on time. What's more, I even feel sorry that the Fiend Lord's heart is wasted like this."

Just then, a ship appeared ahead. Alex was dismayed after glancing at the logo on the ship.

"What a mortal enemy!"

The logo on this ship turned out to be the logo of the Golden City. The people of the Golden City entered this place through the Void Gate.

He then took a closer look. 'Isn't the person standing on the ship bow Ruca, the patrol commander who has gone to great lengths to pursue me and almost kill me?'

Unfortunately, Alex had no time to pay attention to this man. Otherwise, Alex thought he could give him a few slaps with his current strength.

Alex wanted to ignore that man, but he saw Alex.

Alex had turned the Golden City upside down and even massacred a large number of teachers and students who were ready to come to the Eye of Nine Yin.

Ruca was holding back his anger. When he came here this time, he acquired a great killing weapon. He was prepared to slaughter Alex and the dark demonic lotus in the Eye of Nine Yin when he encountered them.

“It’s that b*stard! Go after him!” Ruca ordered immediately, and at the same time, he took out a mirror and sent out a thick blast of lightning at Alex.

Although it was under the sea, the lightning from the mirror was not affected. After it shot out, it meandered like an enormous white dragon at a breakneck speed.

Alex jumped in shock. This mirror turned out to be amazing. Alex, however, was afraid of the thunderous might the most. In the face of the lightning strike, his body froze, and all the acupoints were activated. After that, he opened his mouth vigorously...

Gulp!

Surprisingly, he swallowed the lightning in one gulp. Ruca was dumbfounded.

‘How is that possible? This is an attack from the Ancestral Dragon Mirror that can even shatter a sacred mountain, but he ended up swallowing it in one gulp. What is the extent of his body strength? But before this, his cultivation level was just...’

‘Huh? This guy has actually achieved transcendence in his cultivation right now. I can’t see through it. How is this possible?’

“Hmph! I don’t believe you can swallow all the lightning!”

Read Novel The Pinnacle Of Life Chapter 3509

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3509

Annoyed, Ruca harbored overwhelming hatred for Alex, probably because the female teacher that the dark demonic lotus had killed was the object of his unrequited love. He was going to confess to her this year, but the dark demonic lotus took her life instantly without leaving a corpse. Hence, he had to avenge her.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

He fired the Ancestral Dragon Lightning with no respite. Such a powerful attack made shook everyone, while massive shockwaves violently shook the ship. Even so, they saw that man swallowing every bolt of lightning.

Was he a human? He was simply a monster!

However, this was not good for Alex because another two bosses were chasing after him!

Alex saw them getting closer, and he knew he could not delay any longer, so he just charged right at Ruca's ship.

Ruca fired the lightning again. After firing a dozen simultaneous bolts, he saw that Alex was unscathed. Realizing this treasure was ineffective on Alex, he threw the mirror away and took out a long lance...

Just then, he sensed a terrifying aura.

Two superb powerhouses of the Advanced-Eonian Realm were rushing over.

"D*mn it! What's going on? Why are such powerful experts in this place?"

Since Alex charged at his ship, those two powerful figures hurried over as a matter of course.

"Holy crap! They... They aren't coming after this b*stard, are they?"

Ruca knew the situation was terrible. In the face of experts of that level, he would be affected and meet his demise right away from a random smack.

"Jump off this ship! Run!" Ruca shouted decisively.

Then, all the people on the ship rushed out of it and jumped into the sea. Just then, Alex dashed onto the ship and sneered at Ruca before smacking him directly.

The power of the universe combined with the Chi within his body and three thousand great Dao, forming a huge translucent palm. It greeted Ruca with a bang. Ruca felt the danger instantly, but he did not expect Alex to have progressed so greatly. It hadn't been long since Alex entered the Eye of Nine Eye, yet he had undergone such a huge change.

Boom!

Ruca lifted his lance and fought back. He swished his lance around like a galaxy hanging upside down. It contained a destructive intent of a surging torrential river.

“Suppress!” Alex roared.

Densely packed runes were under the palm. A brand-new life seemed to have been born as these runes fused with cosmic energy. The might of Ruca's lance was suppressed at once.

Alex slapped Ruca hard across the face. It was a solid smack on his face, instantly enraging him. The damage was minor, but it was a very insulting incident. At the same time, Alex created a puppet avatar with the Great Puppet Spell and stayed on the ship. He then delivered an ultimate blow to the two experts chasing after him.

“D*mn! What a vile and shameless thing!”

Ruca was infuriated, but he dared not stay on the ship at that moment. He, too, jumped off the ship quickly and ran for his life.

Boom!

No one attacked the ship.

Both figures merely passed over the ship, not touching it at all. However, that ship, affected by the current, instantly crumbled into millions of pieces. Some pieces even evaporated directly.

“Where are you trying to go? The Fiend Lord's heart is mine!”

“Bredon Chase, do you think you are qualified to snatch it from me? Get lost if you are smart!”

“Hmph! Black Dragon Chief. Do you think I, Bredon Chase, am easy? Whoever snatches it claims it!”

“Go to hell!”

Both great powerhouses attacked each other while chasing after Alex.

During Alex’s desperate escape, a huge hand suddenly appeared, grabbing and pulling him into a certain force field.

The Pinnacle of Life Chapter 3510

“D*mn! Who is this?”

Shocked, Alex was completely unaware of the ambushes in this place. He was totally caught off guard. He believed that it must’ve been Bredon, the Black Dragon Chief’s puppet or pet. In an instant, he condensed the power all over his body into his punch and was about to lash it out, but in the next moment, a familiar voice rang in his ears. “Don’t hit me. Don’t hit me. It’s me, your ally.”

Alex was immediately dazed. “Old geezer?”

The one who grabbed him turned out to be Grand Emperor Rowan. He never expected Grand Emperor Rowan to have appeared here.

Grand Emperor Rowan showed a long face. “What old geezer? Am I that old?”

“This... Now is not the time to talk about this. Those two guys behind me are superb powerhouses. They are at least Advanced-Eonian Realm experts. We...” Alex was overwrought.

He had seen Grand Emperor Rowan’s cultivation before and being inferior to the Phoenix Empress, so how could Alex hide from those two bosses?

Furthermore, he had been marked. However, he was astonished in the next second.

Bredon and the Black Dragon were attacking each other just now and were near him. After that, they stopped as if they were unable to find any trace of him.

“Where is he? Where did that brat go?”

“A huge hand appeared just now. Then, that guy disappeared.”

“Who could it be?”

“I’m afraid that the one who can be the target right under our noses has to be in the Eternal Realm.”

“D*mn. What is an Eternal powerhouse doing here instead of going to the Hive?”

They still hadn’t reconciled, so they searched around on the spot.

Alex made a shocking discovery, they were clearly so close to him that he could even touch the opponents’ hem. Both the powerhouses, however, could not see them. Bredon even summoned a long sword and slashed randomly, but he just saw millions of sword shadows swishing through his body. Even so, he was unscathed.

“Hah! Marvelous! Father-in-law, this force field of yours is so amazing. How did you do it? Those two guys are ferocious.”

Grand Emperor Rowan sat on the ground as he smacked his lips. “A man’s power is limited sometimes. No matter his cultivation, he can’t see through this place of mine.”

After saying that, he took out a gourd and started gulping.

“Brat, why are they chasing after you?”

Exhausted, Alex slumped to the ground. “I somehow encountered a huge heart that lives inside my body as its host. These two guys are here to snatch it. It seems to be of a great origin, but it has fused with my heart. I can’t possibly gouge my heart out, right?”

Grand Emperor Rowan stared at the location of his heart again and again.

Alex covered his heart with his hand quickly. “What are you doing? You aren’t trying to steal my heart, too?”

“Tch!” Grand Emperor Rowan grunted. “I am an old man. Why do I have to steal a young brat’s heart? However, there is indeed a great problem with your heart.”

“D*mn. You can see it?”

“I use X-ray vision. I can see it, of course.”

“D*mn. You can use X-ray vision. Alright! I can use X-ray vision too! I even have the divine eye!”

“The divine eye is useless!” Grand Emperor Rowan rolled his eyes. “I can tell you are the present Buddha, but you attained Buddhahood halfway through with an impure mind. It’s really strange. A man like you who’s not short of women can actually become a Buddha? Has the principle of Buddhism changed? No more abstinence?”

Alex was dejected. “The divine eye is useless. What’s even useful around here?”

Grand Emperor Rowan said with a smile, “What is the strongest eye in Buddhism?”

“The divine eye. Isn’t it the Buddha’s eye?”
