

Chapter: 1071

But because it was Qian Xueqiu who said these words, Chen Feng had to consider Qian Xueqiu's ability.

He is delicate and can always find things that others can't. Even looking at other people's expressions, he can read something.

This is a very powerful skill, Chen Feng doesn't have it, and most people don't.

So if there is, then he must not be ordinary, just like Qian Xueqiu sitting in the position of the Patriarch of the Thousand Family, and may even reach a higher height.

Unlike the other two in the Thousand Family, they have loyal family rules, so Chen Feng can only decide whether to support him or not until he thinks about it seriously.

Although having said that, even if he doesn't support it, nothing can change, but he is not yet a vassal of Qian Xueqiu, he has his own ideas.

After thinking about it seriously, he can only nod his head and implement those trusts to the end.

Qian Xueqiu laughed. He also trusts Chen Feng, so he can get Chen Feng's trust. It's like a friend can help you when you are in trouble. That would be an extremely precious thing.

Seeing Qian Xueqiu's smile, Chen Feng also laughed. They knew each other's feelings and knew that this trust was very important.

After understanding each other, without much words, they began to search.

Just as Qing Yao said, there is nothing here except the house full of gold. There are seven or eight stone chambers in the square place, but they are all empty.

Chen Feng and the others have looked for the walls, the ground and the roof, but they were just neatly cut pieces of granite.

Finally, helplessly everyone returned to the center of the stone room.

"Maybe it's the same as the woman said, things are hidden in gold." Chen Feng said discouragedly.

Qian Xueqiu was still very calm and didn't seem to be hit by nothing.

He said: "It's just that we haven't found it yet. I think he must have some special mark."

Chen Feng said: "But we have already found all the places, not to mention the signs, we can see even a painting from left to right."

Then, he seemed to have thought of something, and added: "Is it possible that the sign you mentioned is actually in the room of gold, just covered by gold?"

When Chen Feng said so, even Qian Xueqiu seemed to have no idea. He said, "Maybe it is possible."

Seeing that he didn't believe it, Chen Feng said unhappily, "Hey, don't lose confidence in this way. You are the smartest here. If you don't have an idea, we will definitely find a way out."

Hearing Chen Feng's compliment, Qian Xueqiu also laughed, and seemed to be more energetic. He said, "Then go and have a look."

A few people returned to the room just now because of a word.

When entering, Qing Yao was looking for it alone.

Although she had agreed to Qian Xueqiu's request, it did not prevent her from having her own ideas, and if Qian Xueqiu really found something, they would still tell her in the end.

But now when she heard the sound, she turned her head and looked at a few people walking in. She stopped her movements and stood up from there.

She said, "Did you find anything?"

Qian Xueqiu honestly said, "I didn't find it."

Qing Yao asked suspiciously, "Then you come back to admit that the thing exists in the gold of this mountain."

Qian Xueqiu still shook his head. He said, "We have searched all the places, but we haven't looked for clues inside."

Qing Yao said, "You think the clue is here."

Qian Xueqiu nodded.

Since Qing Yao had already agreed to them, she didn't say anything more, just nodded, indicating that they could search here at will.

Now that it went so well, a few people began to look for it, but because there was too much gold accumulated, they just went to find places that could be seen, and under the gold, they only waited until there was no other way before they went for a little bit. Search it.

But it still looks like there are few places to find.

A few of them started to touch the door slowly from the door, and Qingyao was standing there watching. She didn't try to find anything in the gold, just wondering if Chen Feng could find them. what.

But as soon as they reached the golden seat, they still didn't find anything.

But Qian Xueqiu stopped suddenly, instead looking at the golden seat in the field.

At that time, when Qing Yao was sitting on it, Qian Xueqiu only regarded him as something Taihao had specially made to enjoy his wealth.

But now when I look at it again, he thinks one thing wrong. Since Taihao doesn't even value these golds, how could he deliberately make a golden chair? He probably wouldn't think. It is necessary to enjoy these things.

In that case, this golden seat placed in the middle of the opposite position seems not so simple.

He looked at it and it was just very ordinary, but thinking about it, he walked over and touched it carefully. It was a bit rough, but it was not as bright as the polished gold products now, but in terms of the craftsmanship of that era, it should be a rare thing.

But just from the appearance, it doesn't seem to be special.

"Why, do you think there is a problem with this thing?"

Qing Yao, who was standing not far away, asked.

Qian Xueqiu took it seriously and didn't pay any attention. Qing Yao was boring herself, with some resentment. She was a stingy person, so she was not optimistic about Qian Xueqiu's perception.

But Qian Xueqiu looked at the four legs of the seat one by one, only to find that this thing was fixed to death, he was a bit strange, but thinking about it, he sat on it.

Even if it is a chair, then his function is used to sit, but it is a pity that Qian Xueqiu didn't think of it at first.

But it is not too late. He sits there, the whole chair is wide, and there is no discomfort in sitting, it is just a product of gold, and some metal is cold.

He shook it again, very stable, without a trace of tremor, it should be because it was directly burned on the ground stone.

After experiencing these feelings, he officially sat there and looked forward.

There was a door in the stone room, but it was open now, and Chen Feng, who was watching Qian Xueqiu's movements, immediately noticed, and he ran over to close the door.

However, there was nothing behind the door, and they looked at it specially when they checked, but this did not affect the closing of the door.

Chapter: 1072

When Chen Feng closed the door, Qian Xueqiu looked at it earnestly. Everything seemed ordinary, just a closed stone door.

But looking at it, he seemed to see something different. The lines on the stone gate and the wall did not seem to be so smooth. Although there was no difference in the whole, as long as you look carefully, the rough parts of the gaps are actually a combination of fonts.

With this discovery, Qian Xueqiu immediately rushed over.

Chen Feng looked at him strangely, naturally it was not easy for him to see those writings when he stood in that position.

He ran to Qian Xueqiu's side, watching what he was reading attentively there, and only after a moment did he stop.

Qing Yao was also attracted by Qian Xueqiu's strange actions. She had been watching with curiosity, knowing that Qian Xueqiu must have discovered something.

Qian Xueqiu pondered it for himself, then smiled slightly, he should understand.

Qing Yao immediately asked, "Do you already know where the thing is?"

Qian Xueqiu looked at Qing Yao with a faint smile, and said, "I see."

But there are only these three words. No matter how many words there are, Qingwan is naturally impatient. She continued: "Tell me, where is it?"

Qian Xueqiu stared at her, and then slowly said, "Before I say it, you have to tell us how to get out."

Qing Yao was stunned for a moment. She was a little surprised. She specially gifted Huang Taihao to put it away. She also wanted to mislead these people, but looking at Qian Xueqiu's expression, he didn't seem to mean to give Huang Taihao when he asked. Qing Yao still said, "Don't you know?"

Qian Xueqiu shook his head and said: "We don't know, we only know what the person told us, but if he is true or false, we don't know, but I think you must know it, and it's not He Ci Huangtai. Hao related."

When Qing Yao heard this, she was surprised. As expected, Qian Xueqiu had guessed something, and these things were the secret things recorded in the secret file of the sea lion building, and she had always been careful not to disclose it, but she also I don't know how Qian Xueqiu saw it.

But since Qian Xueqiu already knew it, and looking at his expression, he should indeed know the real treasure.

She hesitated whether she should use the secrets she went out to exchange for the treasure place in the other's hands.

But she immediately rejected it. This was the only guarantee she could rely on. If she said it easily, she would be completely at a disadvantage.

She said to Qian Xueqiu earnestly: "If I can't see the real secret treasure, I won't say anything."

Qian Xueqiu looked at Qing Yao with a little surprise. In his thoughts, this woman could not wait to get the secret in his hands.

Because no matter how you look at it, she is a woman crazy for this secret.

But now, she still had the reason to let herself speak out impulsively. With this, Qian Xueqiu somewhat underestimated her.

Qian Xueqiu also shook his head, but he just wanted to give it a try.

Chen Feng was also curiously listening to the conversation between the two. In fact, he was not much different from Qing Yao's heart, but now he is only restraining.

However, unlike Qing Yao, Qian Xueqiu leaned in Chen Feng's ear and whispered a few words.

Chen Feng suddenly, he really didn't expect such a secret existence, no wonder he didn't find a clue no matter how he looked for it.

When Qian Xueqiu finished speaking, Chen Feng opened the door.

Then he said to Qing Yao, "Things are just outside, so let's go take a look, otherwise you will definitely not believe it."

Qing Yao was silent, but still walked out of the pile of gold and followed Chen Feng and others to the outside hall.

Among the halls, there is a very spacious place.

And Chen Feng was standing there, and now based on what Qian Xueqiu told him just now, he saw that the entire hall was just a giant star map.

The position of the twenty-eight constellations is also clearly defined on the square slabs of the ground.

He then followed the steps Qian Xueqiu told him and started walking from the first order.

But in the eyes of others, Chen Feng seems to be a boring lunatic, walking a bit on the left and a bit on the right.

However, Qing Yao didn't think so. She immediately saw that Chen Feng was walking on the constellation map, and these positions were so familiar. She had seen it in the secret files, but unfortunately it was not recorded as being with Tibetans. She ignored it because of Bao.

It took only a few minutes before Chen Feng finally reached the last stone slab, but the stone slab that was supposed to be flat on the way up suddenly fell into it.

The reaction showed that Chen Feng's steps were correct. He stood there with a happy smile on his face.

Chen Feng is not the only one who is happy. Several people, including Qing Yao, are all happy.

And as the floor sank down, several floors around Chen Feng also began to sink downwards. He just stood there, and the sinking trend stopped after a while, and Chen Feng was standing on the road leading to the bottom. Up the ladder.

Except for Chen Feng, several other people stood up, and they were also watching this path.

Chen Feng took a step first and pushed open the stone gate at the bottom of the stairs.

What he saw was a room of the same size as the stone room above, with only a few tables in it, and some boxes and other ancient things on it.

Qing Yao wanted to rush in, but when she left, Qianxun Qian had already stopped her under Qian Xueqiu's arrangement.

Qian Xueqiu said, "Now that the place has been found, I think you should be able to tell us how to get out."

Qing Yao looked at Qian Hunqian in front of her. She knew that she couldn't deal with this guy with her own strength, and the treasure was close at hand, and she couldn't help breaking in.

After thinking about it, she said, "The way to get out is very simple, but you need to go back to the previous square. There is a passage under the throne that connects to the underground river. As long as you go in from there, you can dive along the underground river. Nearby lake."

Qian Xueqiu continued to ask: "Then I think that channel should also need something to open, for example, it is to emperor Taihao."

Qing Yao nodded, and she did not conceal: "You really need the key, and the key is given to Emperor Taihao."

Qian Xueqiu said, "So where are you hiding things?"

Qing Yao shook her head and said, "I can't tell you this yet. Only after I leave with my things, can I tell you where I put my things?"

Chapter: 1073

Qian Xueqiu laughed, and the look of Qing Yao struggling to live is really a lot different from her cruel, cold-blooded look.

But now she can't help her anymore.

He said, "Do you think that no one can notice if you hide the gift emperor Taihao in the pile of gold?"

After he finished speaking, Qing Yao's eyes widened in surprise.

Qian Xueqiu smiled and said, "But you don't have to be afraid. Before going out, we won't do anything to you. It's just that after going out, the people in the building want anything to do with you, so it doesn't matter to us."

Qing Yao would be suspicious, but she didn't dare to act rashly at this time. Next to him was Chihiro Qian, the master, and even the idea of rushing to the ground could only be suppressed by her helplessly.

At this time, Chen Feng stood at the door and shouted, "There seems to be nothing valuable in it."

All of them were curious, and Qian Xueqiu said, "Then this lady, let's go down and take a look."

Qing Yao was helpless. Under Qianxunqian's supervision, she had no choice but to walk down. Although her behavior was restricted, she was still looking forward to being able to walk down below.

Passing by Chen Feng, she was glanced at by Chen Feng, but Chen Feng did not respond, and seemed to have known that the current situation would happen a long time ago.

Chen Feng said, "I think what you want doesn't seem to be here."

This is only Chen Feng's guess, but he doesn't know what the so-called secret should be stored in. It may be a book or a gem containing power, but whatever it is, he should be very important, just it is also separated.

But here, only three boxes are placed on the table in the center of the stone room.

With Qing Yao, several people also came to the box.

And because Qianxunqian wanted to watch Qing Yao, the person who opened the box was handed over to Chen Feng. He walked to the first box, and then slowly opened the box. He was very careful and afraid of what is the danger when opening the box.

The box is not big, it is just the size that a square person can hold, holding the lid, you can see the contents inside.

Looking into the box, they were some book slips, which were placed on a tray, probably counting as many as seven or eight stacks.

Chen Feng looked carefully, and he could see that there seemed to be two seal characters engraved on the outside of the top layer.

Based on his guess, he felt that it should be the "Return to the Sea" that both Qingzhi and Qianxunjian were looking for.

But this is just a secret. He didn't preach it, but said indifferently: "It's an ancient booklet, and it looks like it's well stored, but I don't know what it is for."

Qian Xueqiu just saw Chen Feng's eyes and guessed something, but he didn't ask, just waiting for Chen Feng to open the second box.

Chen Feng glanced at all of them. Although he didn't quite understand what Qian Xueqiu's clear expression meant, he could still see the loss in the eyes of the others.

It is indeed disappointing, such an ancient book that seems useless is no longer what they expected.

So they can only put hope in the other two boxes.

Chen Feng did not make any ink marks, and closed the lid of the first box. He also moved two steps and stood in front of the middle box.

"Will it be here?" Chen Feng seemed to ask others, and then he said something to himself.

But no one answered him, and the scene felt a little solemn for a while.

He was also nervous, took a breath, still maintained a cautious attitude, and began to touch the lid of the second box.

But it was still safe and sound, but in the second box, it was empty and there was nothing.

Chen Feng couldn't believe it either. He even deliberately reached out and touched the bottom of the box. Unfortunately, there was nothing there, just a layer of dust.

"What's the situation? It's impossible that Taihao would specially put an empty box here."

Naturally, no one can answer Chen Feng's question. They are not people of that era. It is impossible to know what the monarch thinks. Maybe he is just happy to put an empty box.

However, it made people happy.

After opening an empty box, all hope is only on the last box.

Qing Yao looked at it, and had the urge to flee directly with it, because she believed that there must be a secret in it, which could allow people to break through to the master without restriction.

But Qianhiro Qian next to him seemed to notice her subtle changes, and his eyes became tighter. Qing Yao had no choice but to give up the idea.

Chen Feng has already touched the lid of the third box, and he is also a little expectant. If it is really that secret, it would be a very good thing for him.

But whether from Qing Zhi or other information, he knew that this restriction was not that simple, and it would never be possible to solve it with a method in a box, and from the beginning, he had not believed in the so-called legend. .

So this expectation is far inferior to others.

He lifted the lid slowly, everything was safe.

And the box in the box was really not a special method, it was just a wooden hairpin, like a woman's hairpin, but Taihao placed it among the three things he thought was the most important.

Maybe this wooden hairpin has a special meaning for Taihao.

But even so, some people can't accept it.

Qing Yao shouted like a madman: "How is this possible, how is this possible....."

A thing that I had been looking forward to was torn apart by an ordinary wooden hairpin, which is unacceptable to anyone.

What's more, it was Qing Yao who paid a great price for this goal. She saw that the wooden hairpin did not go crazy because her ability to bear it was already strong.

But now she is not far from madness.

Qianhiro Ken really couldn't see it, and patted her directly on the back door of the head, stunned her, and the whole stone room immediately became quiet.

Chen Feng said: "This woman is pitiful enough to know this result."

Qian Xueqiu smiled and said: "This is what she herself has been looking for, and now she just let her know the answer, but it was wrong from the beginning."

Chen Feng also laughed: "This may be called self-inflicted crime."

The two people on the side also laughed. They have never encountered such a thing. If a person is unlucky, maybe this woman is the ultimate.

But they are smiling, but they are still underground here, and only when they go back can they really relax.

Chapter: 1074

Afterwards, according to Qian Xueqiu's words, among the pile of gold, they found the Emperor Taihao.

Maybe there was a way back to the previous platform somewhere, but they didn't find it, and finally returned from the original path of the slide with three boxes.

As for why there were three boxes, one of the empty boxes made people think that the box itself might be a treasure, so they decided to take them out together.

Returning along the slide to the top, the entrance of the hole was naturally closed. They waited until noon the next day before they were ready to jump out.

Several people knew in their hearts that there was only one chance, and if they failed, they could only wait for another day, so Chen Feng, who was at the forefront, also kept his concentration at all times.

The time in the heart is slowly moving around, which is no less than the waiting time before a big exam, and the tension is diffused in each of them.

The noon sun was strong and dazzling, the riverbed in the distance was steaming with water vapor, and there was no breeze in the woods beside it, standing there quietly, like soldiers standing guard.

When the sun finally shone on the dry bone, Chen Feng's eyes suddenly lit up.

Like the starting gun of a track and field competition, the light was Chen Feng rushing out of the signal device. His body was light, and with the power of the walls on both sides, he drove past like a loach.

He jumped to the high platform and looked at it quiet and spacious. It seemed that no one came in to bother them after they left, and they were getting closer and closer when they left. The corners of his mouth rose unconsciously.

But he naturally did not forget that there were still people left below.

I found the stone slab I used when I entered the cave, repeated the previous action again, and put the four people up together.

Like Chen Feng, several people relaxed a lot.

According to what Qing Yao said before, they soon found the outline of Emperor Gift Emperor Taihao on the platform.

Taking out something and swirling it slowly, a secret passage opened.

October is the harvest season, and it has been a week since Chen Feng and the others came out of Taihao's secret storage.

Standing in front of a floor-to-ceiling window on a certain floor of an office building, Chen Feng gently shook the wine glass in his hand. The red wine inside was like the blood of a coquettish virgin.

He was in a good mood, looking at the scenery in front of him, the busy traffic, and the constant noisy crowd, and this gave him a human breath.

Someone knocked gently on the door, and Chen Feng turned his head back. He said to come in, and then the office door was opened.

A woman in a black uniform with golden eyes walked in.

“Mr Chen! You call me!” After the woman came in, she asked respectfully.

Chen Feng nodded.

The company here is a branch of Xia Mengyao in the magic city. After he came back, he wanted to find Xia Mengyao, but he did not expect that she happened to be on a business trip abroad again, which made Chen Feng a little disappointed.

Although a little disappointed, the main purpose of Chen Feng’s return was not just to see Xia Mengyao.

Qian Xueqiu had already said to him about the three gold mines in North Africa, but he naturally needed to personally interrogate how to deal with the matter. Compared with the benefits of those companies, gold mines are like stealing money.

He looked at the professional woman in front of him, and Xia Mengyao told him on the phone that there was something that could be left to this woman named Lin Lu.

Xia Mengyao said that she was very confident, and even told Chen Feng directly that there would never be a problem.

Chen Feng was naturally interested in this woman named Lin Lu. He looked at it curiously, and it seemed that she was only thirty, but the specific age is indeed not easy to distinguish under makeup, but it should never exceed thirty. five.

He thought for a while, drank the red wine in his hand, and then walked to the big desk in the office.

While Chen Feng was looking at Lin Lu, Lin Lu was also thinking about how to deal with this sudden appearance of President Chen.

Lin Lu herself is the vice president of this jewelry company. She can sit in this position at a young age. In the eyes of others, she may be someone with money and power, but only she knows her. How much has been paid for this position.

Yesterday, she suddenly received a call from Xia Mengyao, saying that a manager Chen asked her to receive her, but she didn’t say anything about it. As a mature staff member, she knew what to ask and what not to ask.

But she didn’t expect that President Chen in front of her would be so young. When she saw Chen Feng, her first impression was naturally that she was another rich brother, but the headache was also the whole identity.

If the content of the reception is about the lavish things, although she can also do it, she is still reluctant to some extent, but helpless, since she is in this position, she must make concessions, otherwise, the people who fancy her position are not. In a few.

At this time, Chen Feng asked, “Your name is Lin Lu? Is the company’s vice president?”

Lin Lu nodded very constrainedly and said, “Yes.”

Chen Feng looked at her very generous and natural, and could imagine her ability to sit in this position, by no means relying on the ascetic and cold look on her face.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "You don't need to be nervous, I just want to come over and hand over something, I think Mengyao should have told you!"

Lin Lu was a little surprised. She was surprised that Chen Feng called Xia Mengyao so kindly, and she was also thinking about the relationship between Chen Feng and Xia Mengyao.

However, she quickly answered Chen Feng's words: "Mr. Xia hopes that you can make it clear to me in person. If it's just relaying on the phone, you might have missed something."

Chen Feng said, "So, Mengyao is indeed more thoughtful than I thought."

He didn't think much about it. He was about to tell the story about the gold mine, but the office door was pushed open.

This is a very bad thing. Looking at the man who suddenly opened the door, Lin Lu's face immediately became gloomy. In the company under her jurisdiction, when such undisciplined things happen, her deputy is always burdened. Very responsible.

And the man didn't seem to expect that there would be another person in the office, even sitting in the office chair, he seemed to know that he was taller than Lin Lu, the vice president.

He was panicked for a while, and even forgot what he wanted to report.

Chen Feng didn't think there was anything, he just looked at it with a smile, he wanted to see how this President Lin would handle this matter.

Lin Lu was not angry. Since the incident had happened, the final solution was to ask as much as possible.

Chapter: 1075

Her face was not too good, but not too bad. She asked the man who broke in: "If there is nothing important, can I ask you out first? There are important meetings here."

Hearing Lin Lu's words, the man seemed to wake up and hurriedly said, "Ah, yes, it's President Lin. It's that guy who came to the company to make trouble again."

He was a little hesitant to speak, but he could still hear the meaning in his words.

Chen Feng is curious, but knows that making trouble is not a good thing, no wonder this person will be anxious to come to Lin Lu.

Lin Lu frowned and looked very uncomfortable, but she still said to the man, "You go out and hold that person steady, I'll be here in a while."

The man replied repeatedly, closing the door as if fleeing, and ran away.

When there were two people left in the room, Lin Lu naturally apologized quickly, and Chen Feng waved his hand and said: "This kind of thing is not for you to decide, no wonder you, but let's go out and see the troublemaker. I think this should be It's more important."

Lin Lu hesitated: "Then President Chen, what's your matter?"

Chen Feng smiled and said, "It's not too late to wait until the trouble is dealt with. Anyway, it's just some follow-up work."

A hanging heart in Lin Lu's heart fell slightly, and the trouble was not to be discussed for the time being, but looking at Chen Feng's appearance, it should not be a reception flower, but a real important job, which may be in her heart. , Doing things like a pimp made her more worried than making trouble.

But when she was thinking about it, Chen Feng had already stood up.

He walked up to Lin Lu and said, "Let's go, the people outside are still waiting!"

So Lin Lu followed Chen Feng out.

As soon as I walked out of the office, I could see that the employees of the company were no longer in the mood for work. They all surrounded them. Looking at such an undisciplined scene, Lin Lu felt a little unnatural.

Chen Feng knew what she was thinking, and directly comforted and comforted: "Everyone is human, and some curiosity is normal. If they still sit here and work seriously at this time, I want to talk to Mengyao about you. This deputy can never do it anymore."

Lin Lu's heart trembled. She knew that what Chen Feng said really made sense, but she didn't know if Chen Feng deliberately exaggerated in front of her, or could really influence Xia Mengyao's appointment and dismissal of the company's vice president.

But no matter what, as long as she is so careful about Chen Feng, she can't make any big mistakes, so she also said: "What Mr. Chen said is. I just think this kind of noise is too messy."

Chen Feng smiled and did not speak.

While they were talking, the two had already arrived near those crowds, and seeing Lin Lu coming over, those individuals calmed down a bit, but they did not disperse.

The young man who came in to report just now leaned in immediately and said, "The man stopped at the door and pulled a banner below. A lot of people were already onlookers. The security of the building also hopes that we can solve it in the past."

Lin Lu nodded and said, "I know, I will take people down to deal with it. Work in the company will continue, so don't watch here."

She was still very polite, and did not get angry at everyone, let alone put on the air of leadership.

However, a group of people were quite cooperative, and one by one they returned to their workstations, but Chen Feng, who was standing on the side, heard someone looking towards him and seemed to be discussing him.

This is not surprising. After all, a person who suddenly came here with a higher position than the vice president of the company should be curious.

But Chen Feng still heard some words about being handsome, and he couldn't help being satisfied, and smiled softly.

When everyone dispersed, Lin Lu said to Chen Feng again: "Mr. Chen, if you don't wait in the office first, I will come up immediately after I go down to deal with it. Those are all gangsters nearby. You may go down. dangerous."

Naturally, it is impossible for Chen Feng to let a woman go down and deal with it. He hid in the office. He said, "I'll go down with you. Although you are a woman, you are a vice president, but in the eyes of those people, it won't be true. Take you seriously, I'll go down with you, and the words will at least have some weight, but if there is anything that needs to be pointed out, just tell me."

Lin Lu still wanted to refuse, even though Chen Feng said so now, but he was afraid that something really happened, Chen Feng might not remember this.

But Chen Feng said directly: "Well, if you really can't agree, I have to directly ask Mengyao."

Lin Lu had no choice but to agree, but worried: "Mr. Chen, you'd better stand in the back. Those people treat entering the bureau as a writer."

Chen Feng just smiled.

The man who went down with him just now, listening to Lin Lu calling him Zhou Chen, was the manager of the company's personnel department, and he was generally more familiar with personnel matters than other employees.

When the three of them got out of the elevator, the security of the office building immediately recognized Lin Lu, and immediately ran over and said, "Mr. Lin, you can be considered as coming down, but these people have been making trouble here for a long time. Why are we? It's useless to tell them. You have to deal with it. Companies with so many office buildings can't make trouble for commuting because of this."

Lin Lu naturally agreed again and again, and promised to deal with it.

When he was in the elevator just now, Lin Lu had already briefed Chen Feng on the matter, but it was because there was a problem with the purchase price of a piece of jewelry.

According to the contract, if there was a delay in the jewelry procurement process and the material quality was not up to standard, a part of the purchase price would need to be deducted, but the other party insisted on asking for the original price and even used this method to block the door.

Chen Feng guessed that the other party was just a group of gangsters. They thought that such a big company would never dare to argue with them. They didn't go through legal procedures, but relied on rogue means to convince Lin Lu and the others.

Although the idea is very simple, sometimes when you encounter people who are unwilling to cause trouble, they will naturally choose to save money and avoid disasters, and to calm down.

But it was a pity that I met Lin Lu, her stubbornness made her never succumb to the past, and it was still the company's interest, and there was no reason to send it out.

I think that every boss will like such employees, and Chen Feng is no exception, but now it is not the time to think about these, it is better to solve the external affairs first.

With the addition of a security guard, the four of them walked outside together, but the exit was really blocked and it was very difficult to get in and out.

Chapter: 1076

They didn't know that the wood and barbed wire they got from there completely blocked the door, and they could only get in and out from an entrance on the side.

The security guard said: "They are stopped here. If it is an employee of another company, they can still get in and out with the employee badge, but the impact of this is really bad."

Chen Feng smiled and looked at the seven, eight, five, and three-thin men standing outside. Unexpectedly, this group of people was quite clever, knowing that it was only aimed at Lin Lu's company, so that it would not arouse public outrage and leave them completely passive. It's the situation.

Although the employees of other companies that can enter and exit have an extra layer of programming, as long as it doesn't matter to them, they don't bother to cause trouble, and there is really no one for a while.

Lin Lu asked, "Have you called the police?"

The security guard said: "What's the use of the police? These guys came quickly and went quickly. When they saw those people coming, they went out and disappeared immediately, and they did not commit any serious crimes, at most they disturbed public order. , Those people can't just arrest these gangsters just for this matter."

Rogues and gangsters have always been difficult to control. They don't have the law in their hearts, and they don't rely on credit to eat. They rely on being familiar with the rules to keep themselves wandering, but sometimes they are used by those who are rich. Make some extra money.

Chen Feng thought, he said, "Let's go over and ask."

Lin Lu had to agree. In fact, the solution in her mind was to wait until the police came. As for whether the other party would come next time, she had no idea, but she really couldn't find anything besides money to deal with this kind of person. A particularly good method, violence is not an option for them.

Chen Feng walked to the entrance for people to enter and exit. There stood a fat man in thin clothes with a big belly, just like a pregnant woman.

Chen Feng asked, "I am from Lisa Jewelry. You should be waiting for us."

Big belly looked at and looked aside. There was a middle-aged man with a hideous face and potholes on his face. He had fluffy hair and a fierce look in his eyes. It must be someone who will avoid it.

He noticed that his big belly was watching him, so he walked over and asked, "What's the situation?"

Big belly said, "They said they were from Lisa Jewelry."

The fierce man sternly said: "Didn't I tell you, as long as it is from Lisa Jewelry, all of them will stay here for me and are not allowed to go out?"

Big belly said aggrieved: "He seems to have come to us."

The fierce man turned his face away, looked at Chen Feng, and naturally saw Lin Lu. This woman he had dealt with several times but persisted, he even thought about giving her to her on the way back. Tied up, or mail something disgusting to her home.

But this kind of thing is even worse in nature, so he has no plans for it for the time being, but it doesn't mean that he won't do it. If the thing continues, he will definitely find a way to retaliate against this woman.

So after taking a vicious look at Lin Lu, he still talked to the person in front of him who seemed to be the first person in charge, that is, Chen Feng and said, "Why, are you ready for compensation?"

Chen Feng just smiled and said, "You'd better leave immediately. If I get angry, none of you can provoke me."

The fierce man was startled, and then he laughed. He seemed to have heard a terrible joke, and smiled: "Just you, a little white-faced guy who still said such big things, I don't think you know yourself. What kind of depth is it?"

Chen Feng followed and smiled the same, even when Lin Lu looked at it, he felt that Chen Feng, who was originally very gentle and gentle, would say such strange things.

Chen Feng didn't say much, just smiled and stretched out his hand and said, "When we first met, my name is Chen Feng. I am the owner of this Lisa jewelry design. How can I make friends?"

And looking at Chen Feng's outstretched hand, the fierce man wanted to teach him a lesson, and said with a sneer: "Thoughtful, brothers look on your face and call me, if you want to make friends with me, you might as well call it the same. ."

This is taking advantage of Chen Feng verbally. Chen Feng is naturally not a fool and will suffer this loss.

And Zhou Dao also stretched out his hand, preparing to pinch Chen Feng's white and tender palm into a ball.

But unfortunately, it was Chen Feng that he met.

Chen Feng smiled and knew why the other party would stretch out his hand, but Chen Feng also had the same idea. When the two palms touched, Zhou Dao began to exert force.

He was still an understatement at first, and the smile on his face looked no better than crying.

Chen Feng didn't use any force, just waited for the moment when he was most confident, and then completely conquered him.

Gradually, Zhou Dao noticed some differences. When he first tried to exert himself, he thought that his strength was weak and the other party did not respond. However, after he increased a few points, looking at Chen Feng, he still did that. It's a little strange.

Even now, when he felt that his strength could at least squeeze a person's hand, Chen Feng still did not respond, he himself somewhat doubted whether his strength had disappeared.

But I can't back down now, otherwise it would just make Chen Feng read a joke, and make all the people who clearly saw the two men fighting at each other sneer.

He can only continue to exert his strength, almost using the strength of milking, even if it is his gray face, the blue veins can be clearly seen.

But Zhou Dao opened his eyes, but Chen Feng still smiled indifferently.

If he doesn't understand that he has encountered a lot of characters at this time, he shouldn't mix in this area, he wants to take his hand.

On one side he said, "Brother, it's really amazing. I'm sure you are a friend."

Chen Feng listened to such words as begging for mercy, but he didn't pay much attention to it. He knew it was time for him to exert his strength.

And then, there was a scream.

The screams continued, and the pain made Zhou Dao's face distorted, as ugly as the black roots of an old tree.

The people around listened and watched, and they felt sympathy for Zhou Dao. This was really horrible.

Seeing Zhou Dao's powerlessness anymore, Chen Feng let go and said, "Let's go, I'm not angry yet. If I get angry, you won't be able to leave."

It was almost the same as what he said at the beginning, but in Zhou Dao's ears, he didn't dare to laugh anymore. He knew that Chen Feng had this strength.

The accomplices next to him watched his boss get injured, and a few people immediately surrounded him, and there were even those who wanted to avenge Zhou Dao.

But when Zhou Dao stopped him, he said, "Take things and go."

Chapter: 1077

This farce was solved by a handshake.

Some people began to talk about Chen Feng. Although they couldn't see any way, they were able to make Zhou Dao retreat just by relying on strength, at least not a simple ordinary person.

Naturally, it is not just passers-by who are curious, but also Lin Lu.

Lin Lu has always been curious about Chen Feng since she saw Chen Feng, but it was only the first time they met, and the two were not familiar with each other. She was not easy to ask anything, she just learned about Chen Feng through observation.

I thought Chen Shengeng was a rich young man, but he seemed to be gentle with others, and did not have the arrogant and lustful temperament of a young man, so she suspected that Chen Feng was just an ordinary young man who was struggling like her.

But now seeing him so easily push that Zhou Dao back, it seems that the mysterious halo on Chen Feng's body has deepened again.

But out of reservedness, she still didn't ask anything.

Seeing Zhou Dao taking people, carrying things, and leaving in a small truck, Chen Feng smiled and said to Lin Lu: "Okay, now the matter is resolved, and we can go back and talk about our own affairs."

Lin Lu nodded. She was a little grateful to Chen Feng, and said, "Thank you, Mr. Chen. If it weren't for you, today's matter might not be easy to resolve."

Chen Feng shook his head and said, "This kind of thing is not your fault, it's just that those guys are too rascal, but this time they refunded, but if they don't return the money, they might still come to make trouble."

Lin Lu also knows that this is not just one time. If this time is not there, there will naturally be another time. They can always meet when Chen Feng is not here, so what should they do then?

Chen Feng also thought about this issue. He thought about it and said, "If it doesn't work, you can save money and avoid disasters. Just don't provoke these people next time."

When encountering this kind of chaos, it is easier to spend some money, after all, the time wasted now is also a cost.

Chen Feng thought that this kind of financial benefit should be easy for Lin Lu to understand, but he did not expect that Lin Lu said firmly: "This kind of thing is originally their fault. I don't think we can use the company's interests to pay for it. If I have to hand over the extra money, I am more willing to use it to motivate employees."

That's the case, even the same amount of money has different effects in different places, but Chen Feng doesn't agree with this kind of killing time.

He said: "If you keep thinking like this, you have to face the constant harassment of these gangsters. Compared to you, they have time. If you are on a business trip that day, there is no director here, you should the employees face it themselves?"

Lin Lu rarely argued with Chen Feng: "If it is true that I am not there, they can also call the police. This is the function of the call. We are on the side of justice and there is no need to make unreasonable sacrifices. ."

If it is really argued, it will only be the gap between justice and reality. Chen Feng also knows that Lin Lu's method is not bad, but it will take a long time, and it will even take as long as one year or two years.

But he thought about it, after all, the management is still left to professionals, and he also respects Lin Lu's decision as vice president.

"Well, I reserve my opinion. After all, this company is entrusted to you to manage. I also believe that you will be able to solve it smoothly."

Chen Feng was still smiling at Lin Lu, as if the brief dispute just now hadn't happened at all.

And Lin Lu was also stunned. She even thought of Chen Summit moving out of Xia Mengyao to deter her, but Chen Feng didn't, so she just exposed it lightly, making her somewhat unacceptable.

But this is not an important matter. Chen Feng has already taken the lead in walking towards the elevator.

The personnel manager Zhou Chen also noticed that Chen Feng was unusual. He sneaked up to Lin Lu and asked, "Mr. Lin, who is this person! Why does it look so unusual?"

Lin Lu was still in a daze, Zhou Chen asked, and he said directly: "It was President Chen assigned by President Xia, but I don't know who it is."

Zhou Chen murmured, "It turned out to be the person sent by the big boss. No wonder it looks so different."

Although he couldn't tell what kind of difference he looked at, it might just be that his temperament was much worse.

But Lin Lu suddenly remembered, why did she tell him this, and said angrily: "I haven't looked for you for what happened just now. Did you get into the office in such a hurry?"

Zhou Chen froze immediately, and he also knew that he was a little anxious, but if it was just Lin Lu, it might not be okay, but this time he happened to ran into Chen Feng who was also inside.

He asked carefully, "That President Chen is not angry, right?"

Lin Lu said, "The President Chen has a good temper, and I haven't mentioned it until now, but that doesn't mean that you are doing it right. If you meet a leader next time, if he gives you small shoes, don't blame me for not reminding me. you."

When Zhou Chen heard that Chen Feng was not angry, he didn't have so many worries. Lin Lu is also approachable. He didn't worry about it. He just smiled and said, "I see, President Lin, there will never be another time. ."

Lin Lu looked at him laughing and was helpless, but they are a company with an innovative culture and do not need that kind of high-intensity management, so they usually get along very well, but now they can't show their face to teach him harshly. NS.

Lin Lu had to say, "Just remember it yourself."

At this time, Chen Feng was about to walk to the elevator, but it was strange to see the two people still talking there, so he glanced at them, and the two people rushed over as if in a hurry.

Back in the office, Chen Feng and Lin Lu went into the office to discuss gold matters. After all, Chen Feng wanted to use reprocessing to double the profit. That's why he contacted Xia Mengyao and asked her to prepare a jewelry design. The company gave it to him.

But Chen Feng would not intervene in the management of specific affairs. He just told Lin Lu his own ideas. If he were to use the gold to create wealth, it would be Lin Lu's business.

When Chen Feng discussed with Lin Lu, the discussion outside the office also started.

Zhou Chen and a few familiar employees stood there to discuss.

"If the matter just now wasn't for Mr. Chen, it might not be so easy to solve." He said in admiration.

And although I didn't see what happened, but only listening to Zhou Chen's narration, I can imagine how handsome Chen Feng was. A sweet-looking girl said, "Is this tall, rich and handsome!"

Chapter: 1078

A colder girl next to her pushed her directly, and said, "Don't be a nymphomaniac here. Even if you are tall, rich and handsome, you won't have your share."

Zhou Chen also shook his head and said, "I advise you not to think too much. Mr. Lin said, this Mr. Chen is sent by the big boss, and seeing him so young, maybe he has a terrible relationship with the big boss."

The sweet girl didn't understand, she asked, "What's the matter? Why are you so unclear?"

But I understand that all of them just smile, and no one talks.

However, I probably believed this in my heart. After all, Chen Feng looked too young, and although Xia Mengyao was also very young, her family was very rich. If she had a little white face, it seemed entirely possible.

Thinking about it, if Chen Feng knew that he was just a little white face in the eyes of this group of people, he didn't know how to think about it, and he might still be triumphant. After all, this was not entirely a mockery, at least it was a boast of his good looks.

At this time, the sweet girl figured it out. She frowned in disgust, and said, "You people are really bad-minded. How can such a handsome man be the little white face of the big boss?"

Zhou Chen and several people immediately told her not to speak.

"If you are heard by that person, you can be careful about your work."

The sweet girl immediately knew that she was indeed speaking loudly, and she also stuck her tongue out, looking at a few people embarrassedly.

Speaking of Chen Feng, he only explained the general things, but Lin Lu discussed with him very deeply. Whether it is the requirements, the actual income of the gold, and the amount that the market can accommodate, she and Chen are one by one. Feng is discussing.

Originally, Chen Feng just wanted to make a little bit of money, but when it comes to the amount of money he can earn, he is attracted to it. After all, it is not a bad thing to make more money.

And because of this, the discussion is over and it's almost lunch time.

Chen Feng looked at the empty glass on the table and the red wine on the side, and said, "This is the company's red bar. The taste is pretty good."

Lin Lu saw the glass in Chen Feng's hand when he came in in the morning. At that time, the impression was a little bad. After all, no one would start drinking early in the morning, except for those who were drunk and dreaming.

But now that I continue to talk with him, I feel different, and I don't feel that Chen Feng's drinking is a terrible mistake.

She said: "It was the partner who sent it to the company as a gift, but I brought it back without drinking it during the company dinner last time. I brought it back today."

Chen Feng was stunned. He didn't expect that he just got up and drank the wine to make them prepare for dinner tonight. He was a little embarrassed and said, "Sorry, I don't know. I just opened it and tasted it."

Lin Lu saw that Chen Feng would actually apologize for this incident. She smiled and said, "It's just a bottle of wine, not a valuable thing."

Chen Feng laughed, and felt that he might have made a fuss.

He said, "If that's the case, I won't bother you to go."

Lin Lu thought for a while, and then asked, "Will President Chen come together? Anyway, it's just some people in the company, everyone is familiar with it."

Chen Feng waved his hand and said, "I am not familiar with everyone. How to go. If you see me as a strange leader, maybe the good atmosphere will be destroyed by me, so I won't be a petitioner A boring role."

Lin Lu is not easy to insist, because it is indeed as Chen Feng said. Although she has a good impression of Chen Feng, she doesn't know what other people think.

Chen Feng said, "Then wait until the next time I come, I will bring someone to discuss the shipment with you, and you can arrange for someone to accept it."

Lin Lu nodded.

When Chen Feng left, Lin Lu still couldn't react, as if things were like a dream this morning. She wanted to find something to do for Chen Feng, but in the end, Chen Feng went straight away like this, even for lunch. did not eat.

She thought for a while, shook her head, and told herself not to think about it anymore, but to do the work honestly.

Chen Feng was walking on the road and called Xia Mengyao.

"You are still there in the morning, right?"

Xia Mengyao, who went to Europe, seemed to have just woke up, and asked: "Call me at this time, don't you know that I am going to have a beauty sleep in the morning? After a break, you have to call me."

Chen Feng just asked a word, and he was scolded.

He apologized: "I just called to thank you."

Xia Mengyao said angrily, "You did it for this? Then I'll hang up."

It seems that Xia Mengyao doesn't feel that she needs to be thanked by Chen Feng, and she doesn't ask what it is, she subconsciously feels that there is no thanks to Chen Feng.

Chen Feng said anxiously: "Don't hang up in a hurry, I want to say that the Lin Lu you recommended to me is not bad..."

But before Chen Feng finished speaking, Xia Mengyao seemed to wake up all at once. She said, "I can tell you, you better not pay attention to Lin Lu. She is a good subordinate to me. I cheated away, but you are the only one who asks."

Chen Feng was stunned for a moment, and then he realized why Xia Mengyao reacted so strongly. He said: "You misunderstood, I am not going to treat her, I just think she has a good level of business and is a rare talent."

Xia Mengyao was relieved when she heard that Chen Feng didn't mean it. She said, "You didn't say it earlier, it made me worry. Okay, I know, I'm going to sleep."

Chen Feng wanted to say something, but the call there had ended, and he could only look at the phone and shook his head helplessly.

Chen Feng didn't care either. The two of them were in a good relationship. Naturally, this kind of details was a lot more casual, but when he returned to the magic city, he seemed to be fine for the time being except for the gold. In the afternoon, he casually wandered in the magic city.

A child on the side of the road came over with a few roses and asked if he wanted to buy flowers.

When Chen Feng looked at it, he chose a bunch from the flower basket and handed the child a ten yuan. The child wanted to find money, but Chen Feng refused.

And the child left happily with the money.

Chen Feng sat on the bench, holding a magazine, and placed a rose beside him.

At this moment, someone came over, a girl.

The girl asked Chen Feng, "Are you the one who met me? How come it looks different from the picture.

Chapter: 1079

Chen Feng raised his head and looked at a girl who was only seventeen or eighteen years old, looking at him shyly.

Chen Feng knew that she might have admitted the wrong person and was about to tell the truth, but when she felt bored, she nodded like a prank and said, "Maybe the photo was taken too young, so it looks different."

The girl said, "But you told me that you are only twenty years old, and that age in the picture."

Chen Feng continued to compose a lie and said: "You know, photos, always use some beautification, I'm afraid you will look down on me."

The girl didn't seem to care about Chen Feng's tricks on the photo. She said, "But even if you don't change the photo, it looks good now."

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Really? I thought you wouldn't like it?"

The girl shook her head quickly and said, "No, I like it."

As she said, she herself felt a bit too straightforward, and immediately her face was ashamed, red like an apple.

Chen Feng was thinking how to tease the girl again. At this moment, a handsome boy came over with a bouquet of roses. She asked the girl, "Xiao Le?"

The girl named Xiao Le turned her head and saw the boy. Naturally, this boy was the one who met him. Xiao Le also saw it at a glance, but she looked at Chen Feng in surprise.

If the person in front of him is the one he agreed, then who is Chen Feng?

Chen Feng smiled at this time: "I just made a joke with you."

The girl was a little annoyed, with an unhappy expression on her face, but it didn't happen.

The boy asked, "Who is he?"

Xiao Le said: "Just a stranger asking for directions."

The tone was naturally cold, Chen Feng just smiled, it was a joke to kill time, he didn't take it seriously.

After the men and women left, he continued to look at his magazine quietly.

But I don't know how long it took, he heard a low cry, like a girl, he stood up curiously, trying to find the person crying beside him.

After looking at it, I didn't expect it to be just across the back of the flowerbed.

He walked over, and what he didn't expect was the girl who had left with the boy just now.

Chen Feng took out the tissue from his pocket, leaned in front of the girl, handed the tissue to her, and asked, "What's the matter, you didn't think you were okay just now, what about the boy?"

Xiao Le raised her head and saw Chen Feng. She seemed to be even more sad. She cried and said, "Don't worry about it, none of your men are good."

Chen Feng smiled bitterly. It was just a joke, but it was indeed that he was wrong. He apologized: "I apologize to you. I did something wrong just now. How about I ask you to eat ice cream."

The girl was still crying.

Chen Feng guessed that it was the boy who caused her to cry, but he didn't know what happened.

But Chen Feng didn't ask much, just said: "You don't have to run around here, I'll buy you something."

With that, he glanced at the girl, although she didn't answer, but it seemed that he would not run away.

Chen Feng hurried to the opposite street and bought two cones.

When he ran back again, the girl's cries gradually became smaller.

Chen Feng looked at her happily and said, "I bought you something to eat. Sweet things will make people feel happy."

Xiao Le grumbled and looked at Chen Feng unwillingly. She seemed to be annoyed by Chen Feng's previous behavior, but she did not refuse the cone that Chen Feng stretched out, and she took it directly.

Seeing that she did not refuse, Chen Feng knew that Xiao Le had basically forgiven himself, so he accompanied him to the side of the flower bed.

After taking a bite, he said to Xiao Le, "It's very sweet."

Xiao Le was still sobbing, sniffing and sniffing her nose, but couldn't bear the seductiveness of the cone. She bit on the top of the cone and ate the whole layer directly.

Chen Feng looked a little surprised.

Xiao Le turned his head and stared at Chen Feng dissatisfiedly, and said vaguely, "Nothing from Han."

Chen Feng was amused by her. He was still so sad just now, but now he is back in that arrogant posture.

Chen Feng shook his head, just eating his own things.

After a while, Xiao Le had finished eating, and Chen Feng had a lot left.

Xiao Le said: "Why do you want to be nice to me?"

Chen Feng stopped the food in his mouth and said, "It's just the concern of a stranger, just to let you know that the world is not that bad, but that good people are not seen by others."

Xiao Le said unhappily, "But the man told me that he was just playing with me and he already has a girlfriend."

Chen Feng said, "This is the second point I want to tell you. The world is actually not as good as I imagined, and it is full of bad people everywhere."

Xiao Le looked at Chen Feng suspiciously, and asked, "How do you say it is so strange, you say good for a while, and bad for a while?"

Chen Feng smiled.

Xiao Le looked at him dissatisfied and asked, "Then why did I meet that bad guy, and no one else has encountered it?"

Chen Feng has also eaten all the cones in his hand. He wiped his mouth with a tissue, and then said: "They will definitely meet bad people before they meet good people, or after they meet good people, but they must also I will encounter it, but the time is different."

Xiao Le didn't understand what Chen Feng was talking about, she didn't want to pay attention to Chen Feng, but the cone just now made her feel much better.

She said to Chen Feng, "Thank you, weird fellow, but I'm leaving, while it's still dark, I'm going home."

Chen Feng said goodbye to her.

When Xiao Le left, Chen Feng also felt that he could almost meet his friend.

Demons are economically developed cities, the economic center of the world, so rich here has become all the norms.

As long as you have money, you can buy any service you want.

At the same time, here is also to make money, in order to make your money away, the magic city will also find ways to do it.

For example, the high-altitude restaurant is full of gimmicks, and you can enjoy the experience like a fairyland.

Chen Feng just thought it was funny. He couldn't understand why someone would spend tens of thousands on a meal for this gimmick.

But today, he was invited to such a place too. On the tallest building in the magic city, you can enjoy the night view of the entire magic city at night.

The waiter at the door was very polite, and would not drive Chen Feng out because he didn't dress up carefully, but asked carefully.

Chen Feng told him that he was here for the appointment and gave a name, and the waiter took Chen Feng to the inside.

Chapter: 1080

The place is huge, but not all places have tables. Everyone here enjoys the same service without classification.

There is only a place near the window, and only here can you see the whole picture of the magic capital.

There are not many. If the seats are full, you can only wait for others to finish eating, but Chen Feng doesn't need to consider this issue, because the people waiting for him have already chosen a place.

Followed the waiter to the place, he pointed to the seat and said to Chen Feng, then backed away.

Chen Feng walked over by himself, and the man sitting there looking bored at the scene outside the window did not notice Chen Feng.

Chen Feng stood by the table, knocked on the table, and said, "What are you thinking about?"

The man turned his head and saw that it was Chen Feng. He was also a little excited, and said, "It's been a long time since I saw you."

Chen Feng also sat down and said, "It's really been a long time since I saw you, how about it, do you miss me very much?"

The man said, "Indeed!"

The man in front of Chen Feng is called Xu Fu. He is the young master of the local Xu family. The reason why he is the young master, not the son, is that he is in control of the entire Xu family, so if you say it, he is worthy of the name. The owner.

But this is different from Chen Feng. Although he is rich, he is still much weaker than the entire Chen family, not to mention the guy in front of him who has mastered the entire family.

Chen Feng also laughed and said, "I talked to you on the phone as soon as I got back to the magic city. If you don't invite me to dinner, I will even go directly to Yanjing at night."

Xu Fu said, "I know, if you didn't call me, I wouldn't even recognize you as a friend."

Chen Feng also smiled.

The two had a good relationship. They had been playing together since they were young, but after Xu's family went to the magic city, Chen Feng also left him, but there were still communications with him, and they even met often afterwards.

When friends meet, they will always ask about the latest situation, but no one will vomit bitterness at this time, just perfunctory.

The food was served soon after eating, and the drinks were also ready.

Xu Fu can drink very well, but he can drink it, and it can't compare to Chen Feng's martial arts. When the two exchanged cups, Xu Fu became a little drunk.

"Sure enough, you can still drink this way," he said drunkly.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "It's okay."

Xu Fu said again: "You have to take a few more days in the magic city these days, I will accompany you to have fun."

Chen Feng said, "I don't dare to disturb you, a busy man. The entire Xu family is relying on you. If I abduct their boss, wouldn't those people kill me?"

Xu Fu smiled and said, "I will tell you what happened there. If I say to play with you, I will play with you. I think that dare to speak."

Although he spoke boldly, Chen Feng didn't take it seriously. He just drank a few more drinks with him, but in the end he was finally drunk.

Chen Feng thought that it was time to end, so he called the waiter.

I wanted to check out, but Xu Fu had already paid for it. Chen Feng had to give up and was about to send Xu Fu back, but the waiter said, "Chen Shao, Mr. Xu doesn't need you to send it. He told us, , If he is drunk, just open a room directly below, and someone will take care of him."

Chen Feng was stunned for a moment, how could someone know that he would be drunk, even these things were ready.

But since Xu Fu made the arrangements himself, Chen Feng nodded to the waiter and asked: "Is the visit here also bought by the Xu family?"

The waiter nodded and said, "It was two years ago."

Chen Feng admired this guy a little bit. Since Xu Fu took over the Xu family, the increase in wealth has been higher than before. As long as it is a profitable business, he will hardly be missing.

But after all, he is also a friend. Chen Feng is not jealous yet. He just nodded to the waiter and said: "When he wakes up, you tell him so that he doesn't have to worry about me. I can arrange myself."

After speaking, he was ready to leave.

But when he just walked to the door, someone was shouting, "Sir, please wait a moment."

Chen Feng turned his head curiously. Although he thought it might not have called him, he still looked at it subconsciously, but he didn't expect that the person was indeed going towards him.

Chen Feng was a little strange. He didn't know this person, but the person had already walked in front of him, and then he took out his business card and handed it to Chen Feng.

"Yiran Law Firm, Liu Yiran."

Looking at the words written on the famous firm, the other party should be a lawyer, but Chen Feng does not need a lawyer. He said, "Did you make a mistake?"

Liu Yiran looked at Chen Feng's expression also strange, and asked, "Didn't you have dinner with Xu Fu just now?"

Chen Feng was curious, and he asked, "Did you see? Are you following me, or are you following Xu Fu?"

Liu Yiran said, "I'm not following my husband. I don't even know what his husband is called. I'm just following Xu Fu."

Chen Feng was still curious, even if he only followed Xu Fu.

He asked, "Don't you just count as a crime?"

Liu Yiran said, "I didn't violate his rights of sex, so it does not constitute a crime."

Naturally, Chen Feng didn't know this better than a lawyer, so he didn't follow up and just said: "Then you followed him, and now you handed me the business card, what's the matter?"

Liu Yiran looked at it and said, "Sir, if we have time, we can go to drink and talk down here." "

Chen Feng didn't have any opinion, and it was Xu Fu's matter. Chen Feng was still quite worried.

He said, "If that's the case, let's go down and talk."

I made the elevator to the bottom and entered a dessert shop on the side. Although Chen Feng declined, Liu Yiran ordered a cup of coffee for Chen Feng.

After the two sat down, Liu Yiran said, "I haven't asked the name of my husband yet."

"Chen Feng."

"Mr. Chen, right?"

Chen Feng nodded and said, "If you have something to say, I don't want to spend time with someone I don't know."

Regarding Chen Feng's impatient attitude, Liu Yiran just smiled, and said, "If this is the case, then I have something to say straight. Since Mr. Chen had eaten with Xu Fu, don't you hate him?"

Chen Feng is curious, why does he need to hate Xu Fu after eating, isn't this a good thing?

He asked, "What does this mean, it's just a meal between friends, why should I hate him?"

Liu Yiran looked at Chen Feng in amazement, as if a little scared and said, "Are you Xu Fu's friend?"
