Chapter 181: You'd Better Stay With Her

0 5 minutes read

Sean Smith didn't want to talk to the old Mr. Zhang. He picked up the phone and called Gu Jinyan.

No one answered the phone call for the first time, but Sean Smith kept calling.

When it was the third time, Gu Jinyan answered the phone. He had a bad temper and said, "Who's that?"

Sean Smith looked back at Amber White, and said, "It's me, Sean Smith. Do me a favor..."

"Sean? When you tricked me last night, did you ever think you would need my help today?"

Gu Jinyan laughed, and his voice was tinged with the unique feeling when he talked to Sean Smith.

"Stop talking nonsense, send a helicopter here to the rescue station on the back mountain of my house. Amber White is injured, she must go to the hospital now."

"Sister-in-law?" Gu Jinyan raised his eyebrows, and said with interest: "Are you still together? No, what kind of injury did she get? It makes you nervous! You even want a helicopter!"

"Are you serious? It's just a medical treatment, it's too much!"

Gu Jinyan refuted, and then said suspiciously for a while: "When will there be a mountain behind your home, why don't I know?"

The blue veins on Sean Smith's forehead jumped. He bit his back tooth socket and said, "It's in the back of the mountain behind the old house of the Sean family !"

Gu Jinyan was stunned.

"What are you doing on that mountain? I just watched the news, and the top of that mountain is crumbling. The stone forest area has begun to collapse. What are you doing?!"

Sean Smith's voice was a little dry, and his words were extremely hoarse: "Today is the anniversary of my third brother's death. We went up the mountain to worship him together. It's another story. Amber White and I did not go down the mountain."

"She was hit by falling rocks on the mountain, her wound was infected and she developed a high fever, she must go to the hospital immediately!"

Sean Smith licked his lips, and then said: "The entrance to the mountain should be blocked. It is not easy for the car to enter the mountain. You can help me call a helicopter!"

The situation was serious, and Gu Jinyan didn't have time to tease Sean Smith. He moved his hand and opened the window in the office.

The wind was strong outside, the rain was extremely heavy, and what the most important thing was that there were thunders from time to time.

In this kind of weather, international flights would also be delayed, and the mountain mentioned by Sean Smith was in danger of a second collapse.

Let alone the weather, even if they were rich, no one could risk their lives and went into the mountains!

Gu Jinyan frowned and said in a low voice: "In this kind of weather, even it's you, you can't call the helicopter. The air currents in thunderstorms will cause difficulties!"

"Sean, we know that I can't find one for you in a short time!"

"Even if I call it out, no one dares to enter the mountain at this time!"

"Then spend the money!"

Sean Smith replied: "if ten million won't work, then 20 million! If twenty million won't work, then 100 million!"

He didn't lack this little money. It only took a few minutes to come from the city center. Sean Smith did not believe that no one would come under such a big amount of money!

If their conversation happened at another time, and Sean Smith said such words for Amber White, Gu Jinyan must mock him.

But now, Gu Jinyan only thought it tricky.

"It's not a question of money, but the inability to tune it out!"

Gu Jinyan repeated, he slowed down his tone and asked, "How is sister-in-law now? I just read the message released by the Meteorological Observatory. Within 24 hours, there is no possibility of entering the mountain!"

Mr. Zhang hear the content of the communication between Gu Jinyan and Sean Smith. Hearing this, before Sean Smith spoke, Mr. Zhang shook his head regretfully, "She has a fever of 40 degrees, she absolutely can't insist twenty-four hours, even if it is a fluke, like she escaped the fate of death from wound infection, her head will burn stupidly!"

Sean Smith's face, because of the words of Mr. Zhang and Gu Jinyan, completely lost its temperature.

For the first time in so many years, Sean Smith was so powerless!

He squeezed the big palm of the phone and slammed it to the ground angrily.

The performance of the old phone was good. Even so, the screen was full of blue light. Mr. Zhang bent over to pick up the phone, cut off the phone, and glanced at Sean Smith.

"You can rest in this room, I'll go to another room."

"Don't blame yourself, after all, you did your best! I have studied before. The rescue station is still safe. You'd better stay with her inside."

"Whether you have feelings or not, she is your wife anyway."

In just a few words, Sean Smith made a huge wave in his heart.

In this way, the life and death of Amber White was determined?

Sean Smith turned around and walked to the bed a few steps. The clothes on Amber White were not good-looking, but she was good-looking, with her small pale face and her smart eyes tightly closed.

A lot of sweat leaked out of her forehead, her cheeks were flushed, and it was the first time for Sean Smith to look at Amber White's face so seriously.

It was also the first time that a strange thought arose in his heart.

Amber White was fragile, her toughness was just her disguise, she also needed protection!

This absurd feeling had been spreading in Sean Smith's body, and he was vaguely self-blamed.

If Amber White asked him to help her, and he stretched out his hand to her, she would avoid the falling rocks on the mountain, maybe they had reached the old house by now.

Before she fainted, she was still thinking about Cindy White. When she mentioned that she was afraid of accidents, he could see that the fear in her eyes was not fake.

Amber White didn't want to have an accident.

Yes, Cindy White was not a child of the Smith family after all, even if he promised her that Cindy White would follow him, Amber White may not be relieved!

She always knew that he hated her, probably in her heart, and worried that he would abuse her daughter!

Sean Smith's consciousness drifted away, and the guilt in his heart overflowed. When his eyes touched Amber White's lips, his dark eyes paused.

There was another voice in his heart.

Would Amber White be so fragile, the old man said she would be silly because of the fever?

It's ridiculous, what Amber White wanted from him hadn't gotten yet, was she willing to be stupid or die?

If she was fragile, where did her courage come from? She could under the danger of landslides, and stay there to find Cindy White. How could she dare to jump into the reservoir!

She dared to climb to the position of the Smith Group's marketing department director, and she was entangled with other men, and can still sit firmly in the position of Mrs. Smith!

Was Amber White vulnerable? Were there any vulnerable people in the world?

Sean Smith irritably stretched out his short black hair. The messy hair ends broke the coldness on his face. The lights of the rescue station were dim, and the smudged Sean Smith face was soft and delicate.

He stretched out his hand and held Amber White from the bed.

No way.

No matter what kind of woman Amber White was, she had been so badly injured, she had a relationship with him.

For watching Amber White die, he couldn't do it at all!

Sean Smith stood up straight, embraced Amber White's soft body, and walked out of the room.

Chapter 182: Don't Wanna Amber Die

0 5 minutes read

Sean Smith quietly told himself in his heart that he did not feel sorry for Amber White, nor did he worry about Amber White.

He was just afraid, afraid that Amber White was dead, and someone would blame him for Amber White's death.

He cannot bear a life on him!

He would not help Amber White raise her daughter!

Besides, if Amber White didn't die, but became an idiot, wouldn't he have to take care of another mental retardation at that time! ?

Then he wouldn't be able to get rid of Amber White all his life!

As soon as he left the small room of the rescue station, the howling wind blew over, Sean Smith unconsciously pressed Amber White's body into his arms and turned around to help Amber White keep out most of the wind and rain.

After the action was completed, Sean Smith stiffed. This subconscious care of Amber White made him feel familiar!

Sean Smith licked his lips, thinking of Lin Man.

His lips tightened tightly.

Mr. Zhang heard the movement and turned his head.

Seeing Sean Smith coming out and holding Amber White, his expression changed.

"You stinky boy, what are you doing? You can't wait to see her die? Hurry up and get in!"

Sean Smith not only didn't move, but took another two steps in his direction.

"Uncle, I thought about it and decided to take her to the hospital."

Mr. Zhang's eyes widened in shock. He looked at Sean Smith, then looked at Amber White he was holding, he asked, "Now?"

Sean Smith nodded, affirming: "Now!"

"Are you crazy? Look, that mountain is about to collapse. I've calculated it. At this time, the rescue station is safer. If you go out, you may die if you don't stop!"

Mr. Zhang was very thin, with old and thin fingers, pointing to the shaky mountain, his expression was solemn, seeming to prove that what he said was true.

Sean Smith followed his fingers and his eyesight was careless, not even the emotion on his face fluctuated.

“Uncle, when I came in, I saw a mountain bike parked at the door. I want it.”

“You... there is danger outside. I advise you to wait here. There are people in your family. When they know that you are trapped here, they will call the rescue team to rescue you?!”

“If you go out now, both of you will die!”

Rescue Team?

When he was looking for Cindy White, Amber White called the police. At that time, it was only raining, but the rescue team said.

The mountain was blocked, they can't get in!

If he didn't want Amber White to die, he can only save her himself!

Sean Smith's long narrow eyes locked Mr. Zhang, and asked, “Your car...”

“You said you don't like her, remember? Why do you have to take this risk, are you stupid?”

Mr. Zhang was so angry, he held the tobacco rod and pointed in the direction where the mountain bike was parked. He said angrily: “The car is there, since you want to die, just go, I won't stop you!”

Sean Smith thanked him.

He hugged Amber White and walked over.

His movements were so small, fixing Amber White in place.

Because the space of the car was limited, the mountain off-road vehicle was old-fashioned, the space was limited, and there was only one position. He can only stretch out a pair of powerful arms to circle Amber White and held her in his arms. In the next second, he started the car and went into the rain.

Mr. Zhang stopped Sean Smith.

He was holding two raincoats in his hands and hurriedly covering him.

The wind was strong and the rain was heavy, and the voice of Mr. Zhang was also loud: “Wear this raincoat. This girl has a fever, so she can't get any more rain!”

Sean Smith didn't know what to say, so he could only thank him.

Mr. Zhang looked at him pushing the car and stepping into the rain curtain. He sighed for a long!

“Boy, you're still too young.”

The rain was too heavy, and the trees on the mountain swayed with the wind, lifting the raincoats covering the two of them.

Sean Smith was unprepared for a while, the raincoat was raised by the wind, reflexively, he freed a hand, pressed the raincoat, and buttoned it on Amber White.

After a pause, Sean Smith stretched out his hand to untie his raincoat, put a knot on Amber, and made sure that the wind could not blow her raincoat again.

He circled Amber White and continued.

The practice of Sean Smith caused all the rainwater on Amber White's raincoat to pour into him.

Although it was summer, after being in the rain for a long time, Sean Smith's body still couldn't restrain himself from freezing.

Sean Smith's face turned pale, he reached out his hand to wipe the rain that blocked his vision, and squinted at the crumbling mountain.

Based on observation alone, Sean Smith could not be sure which part of the mountain would be safe, but when he called Gu Jinyan before, according to what he meant, the most dangerous place was nothing but the stone area.

The road they had taken before was the fastest down the mountain, but after Amber White was fainted by the falling rock, the mountain road there was also blocked by the falling rock.

If they wanted to go down the mountain quickly, they can only bypass the stone area and go to the maple area.

Sean Smith squinted his eyelashes, his lips tightened.

The maple area was a relatively compromised road. If it was safe, the downhill road would be short.

Sean Smith circled Amber White's waist, and drove the old mountain bike in the direction of the maple area.

There were also falling rocks in the Maple Forest area. In comparison, the Maple Forest area had not been developed. A large area of maple trees had been planted. No one had been here and cleaned this place all year-round. The ground was covered with a thick layer of maple leaves.

The road was also exceptionally rugged.

Sean Smith didn't dare to drive too fast because he couldn't see the real road.

Just like Mr. Zhang said, this mountain was too dangerous now. If they were not careful, they would die.

Sean Smith felt anxious, and he licked his lips. By this time, he became more sensible.

He felt that he and Amber White can't stay together. From the beginning of the relationship between the two, it was either her Amber White had the accident, or he was unlucky!

If he can take Amber White down the mountain safely, he must keep away from her!

Sean Smith frowned and drove to the Maple Forest area.

The car got stuck under the wheel and the car was forced to stop.

Sean Smith's brow furrowed deeper, he cursed and stepped on the accelerator harder.

Mr. Zhang's mountain cross-country vehicle was old-fashioned, and Sean Smith can't tell how old it was. Even if it's not performing well, it's not stable.

Step on the accelerator and there was a faint tendency to overturn the car.

Sean Smith did not dare to continue, he stopped the car, stabilized Amber White and got out of the car to see the situation below.

A small stone was blocked under the wheel, but it's enough to stop the car from moving forward.

If he wanted to remove the stone, he had to bend over and reach out to touch it.

And he stepped too much on the accelerator just now, and a stone was also stuck behind that wheel.

He can only choose to be troublesome!

Or to be dirty!

Chapter 183 : Amber White Had a Foul Mouth

0 4 minutes read

Sean Smith frowned and hesitated.

The white shirt wetted by the rain fitted right on the curve of his body.

The raindrops fell on his eyelids. His breath sank.

He was standing on the barren hill, couldn't help hesitating. Was that woman who ruined his previous relationship worth it?

He manned down and signed a billion of Yuan of contract for her. Was he digging his own grave?

If she happened to wake up, he wondered how she was going to pay him back.

He budged and saw the woman who was lying inside the car from the corner of his eye.

Her eyes were tightly closed. Although Mr. Zhang had warned him not to let Amber White soaked in the rain, but the bad weather was inevitable.

Even his clothes wouldn't protect her from the rain. Her porcelain white face became even more translucent by the rain and her previously red as rose lips were now pale and bloodless.

There were a few strands of hair covering her face, but he bet she was fine with it. She looked like a withered flower.

Sean Smith shuddered.

If they stayed here longer, Amber White wouldn't make it out alive.

He leaned down and with great strength, he buckled and lifted the wheel with one hand. He managed to gouge the stones out.

His white and slender fingers were covered with mud and leaves. The view sent chill down his spine. He got goosebumps.

It was so dirty!

He never touched anything dirty before!

Sean Smith was angry. He looked ahead to the mountains. Luckily, he had a good sense of direction.

He was still clear with the direction even if he was standing in the middle of a forest. He needed to go straight and turned right to get out of the mountainous area.

But, he had no time enjoying his good sense of direction when his eyes landed on the road blocked by tall maple trees and rocks.

Then, a loud noise filled his ear.

The mountain shook. So did his body. He saw the rocks falling off in front of him. It was not safe here. He couldn't stay any longer.

Sean Smith frowned. He lifted his eyes and looked at the rocks falling off the hill. If it went on, Amber White wouldn't be safe, he might as well die here.

He stopped hesitating and strode toward the rocks blocking the way down.

He didn't do this for Amber White. He did this because there was no way back.

He needed to get out here alive and save Amber White.

The rocks were heavy. When he tried to lift them aside, he instinctively felt that the wound on his back cracked open.

With raindrops covering his back, he could only frowned in pain.

He narrowed his eyes and looked back at Amber White's direction. She was still in position. He continued moving the rocks away.

Because he brought Amber White with him, he dared not waste his energy. He accurately measured the width of the road so that a vehicle could pass.

He stood up and smiled proudly.

He walked back to the car with dirty hands, but his smile froze as soon as he noticed that the car was almost buried with the falling rocks.

Out of reflex, he ran toward the car without hesitation.

He was one step behind.

As he watched, another chunk of rock fell right on the car. Amber White tumbled out of the opened door and her body hit the maple tree on the roadside.

His pupil shrank with a jerk.

The rocks were burying the car. He lifted the woman in raincoat from the ground.

She obviously hit her forehead and scratched her skin. She was bleeding. Her pale was beyond shocking.

His heart sank. He wanted to wipe the blood for her but he found out that his hand was stained with dirt.

He froze. After a little while, he pulled her raincoat, lifted her up and sat her next to the tree. He turned back to check the vehicle.

The car was hit by falling rocks, but it could still work. The only problem was that the car was trapped in the rocks.

His eyebrows jumped when he noticed the rocks around.

The situation here was too dangerous. If they stayed, he didn't know how dangerous it would be.

He was fine with it, but Amber White wasn't.

She needed to go to the hospital and get a treatment as soon as possible.

He was running out strength from moving the rocks before. He needed to take her to a safe place first.

When he was about to turn around, another shaking followed.

A huge rock tumbled down the mountain. His eyes shrank when he noticed the huge rock broke into small pieces. This way, he couldn't rush over to the hospital.

Or else, the rocks would kill them alive.

Because of what happened earlier, he dared not stay too far from her. He put her under the nearest tree.

Between crackles, he quickly moved her aside to hide.

There were too many falling rocks around. He tried his best to avoid the big chunks, but he couldn't escape from the small pieces.

Unfortunately, his body was hit by the falling rock. He stopped walking and hugged her body. His sight went black and they fell to the ground.

He fell on top of her and his eyes were blurred.

The wind and the rain faded taking his consciousness away.

He moved a little thinking that he probably broke a bone. The pain in his limbs swarmed up.

He vaguely remembered what happened before they went down the mountain. Amber White hurt herself saving him.

There was no denying that she really suffered.

That time, he thought that she was going to use her life-saving grace to blackmail him.

He narrowed his eyes. Did this happen because he wrong Amber White?

He licked his lips wet by the rain.

It's all settled now. He also saved her life. He paid her back and hurt himself just like she did. Amber White got what she always wanted.

The dark clouds were coming down. He realized that he might not be able to take her to the hospital.

However, Amber White saved him once and he did too. He didn't owe her anything now.

Perhaps, this way, he didn't have to bother helping Cindy White.

It turned out that Amber White's foul mouth worked too well.

She casually remarked that they were going to die in the mountain and now, it seemed...

He might probably die with Amber White, the woman he despised and hated the most.

What a pity.

Chapter 184: Sean, Don't Blame Me

0 5 minutes read

As soon as Lu Yi entered the mountain, he knew why police wanted to seal the mountain.

The fastest way down from the mountain was blocked by rock fall, piling up into a high layer of rocks. People inside the mountain couldn't even come down, let alone the one who wants to climb up.

Fortunately, Lu Yi came prepared. He took a climbing rope from his backpack and turned it over.

The route at the back became bumpy as it was hit by the rock fall. In other place, the mountain looked like it would collapse soon.

Lu Yi frowned his brows, he jumped off the rocks. He took a step and continued walking inside.

He already checked before, the area of stone forest had already collapsed. It could be ruled out!

If Amber and Sean are really there, it's also useless to go there now. Moreover, they won't be able to escape either!

And yet, this route was blocked by the rock fall. Since Amber and Sean came to the mountain to pay their respect to Johnson, they didn't prepare for anything. So, they wouldn't be able to go over it.

With such a deduction, only the area of maple forest is left. There's still a chance for Amber and Sean!

After finishing his deduction, Lu Yi started to pick up his pace.

Reaching halfway through the mountain, Lu Yi ran into old man Zhang, who was sitting outside the rescue station and smoked.

There might still be people in the mountain, Lu Yi frowned and asked casually, "Uncle, have you seen a man and woman about the same age as me?"

Old man Zhang paused, holding the dry tobacco pipe, and he raised his eyelids, looked at Lu Yi before asking, "The woman is very beautiful and although the man is good looking but his temper is bad, are they?"

Lu Yi's eyes brightened and nodded, "You've seen them. Do you know where are they now? Have they hiked downhill?"

Old man Zhang held the dry tobacco pipe, pointed towards the area of maple forest, and said with a low voice, "They went that direction. The woman has an infected wound, she won't last more than 24 hours."

"If it hadn't been for accidents and dangers, they would've reached downhill by now!"

"Young man, I advise you not to go there. The stone forest and maple forest are relatively close. That area might've collapsed soon!"

Lu Yi's eyebrows twitched, as if warning him. There were muffled noise coming from the direction that old man Zhang was pointing at.

Even when he stood in a distance, Lu Yi could feel the tremor!

He frowned his brows and picked up two piece of information from old man Zhang's remarks.

Amber was injured. Amber didn't have much time left and must go to hospital!

After all these years, Sean and Amber never get along. Lu Yi didn't even believe that he would protect Amber.

Without any hesitation, Lu Yi ignored old man Zhang's warning and with big strides, he dashed towards the area of maple forest.

Both their tracks were not difficult to find. The ATV that was drove by Sean left track marks on the muddy mountain road. Lu Yi who just rushed over saw Sean and Amber who was stupor and unconscious.

Sean was covering Amber. Although he had lost his consciousness, Lu Yi could see that Sean's gesture was hugging Amber. It was a subconscious protective gesture.

The wound on Sean's back was split open. The blood was gushing out, turning his snowy white shirt into bloody pink.

The rain was stained with the blood and it flowed ferociously from his body.

Lu Yi stopped his pace.

He was shocked by his insight in his heart.

For the past three years, Sean was doing all he can to hurt Amber!

But he knew clearly, Amber loves Sean for so many years, and it's not easy for a woman to give up. But Sean willingly give up his life for her. He could even guess without a doubt, when Amber woke up, maybe she could rekindle her old feeling!

After all, a hero saving a beauty had always been the most romantic love story in this world...

Lu Yi clenched his fingers tightly.

The ground was shaking again. Lu Yi finally got back to his senses.

He took a step forward and took Sean away from Amber. The woman's face was exposed, her face was still in color. It was very obvious that she's well protected by Sean.

It's obvious that she was trapped in a dangerous situation, but Amber still looked as clean as ever.

Lu Yi remembered what old man Zhang said previously, about Amber's wound infection.

He didn't expect, he would find both Sean and Amber in an unconscious state, so he came up alone.

Even if there's an ATV, he could only carry one person away.

Lu Yi squinted his eyes, hesitated for a moment. Then he suddenly stood up, moving Sean's big and tall body, and get him to sit behind a thick maple tree.

"Sean, don't blame me. Amber needs to go to the hospital. I'll carry her down first..."

After that, Lu Yi took a big step towards Amber, lifted her from the ground, and took a glance at Sean, who was fairly safe,

If Sean really died in this disaster, then he could only blame himself for having such a bad luck!

Lu Yi carried Amber on his back, stepped on the ATV, and drove down from the mountain.

Amber was in a critical situation. Lu Yi didn't dare to hesitate, the ground behind him was shaking, and had the tendency to collapse anytime soon.

Without looking back, Lu Yi stepped on the accelerator, and drove towards the base of the mountain while avoiding the rock fall.

"Lu Yi?"

The people of Smith family was still guarding at the base of the mountain. Lu Yi's startled a bit, his lips pressed tightly.

"Aunty!"

Mother Smith had seen Amber huddled in the ATV from faraway. She then saw Lu Yi, ignoring the vehicle, she ran onto it.

Fortunately, Lu Yi slammed on the brakes, as soon as she saw Mother Smith, and didn't hurt her.

"Lu Yi, where's Sean? Why there's only Amber?"

"Huh? Did you see Sean?"

Through the car door, Mother Smith reached out, and grabbed on Lu Yi's sleeves. Her eyes filled with tears, her long black skirt was soaked, and she was on the verge of despair.

Lu Yi struggled for a bit but he couldn't get away from Mother Smith.

“Aunty, I.. There’s still a road up the hill. I have basically travelled everywhere, but I didn’t see Sean.”

After the landslide, Sean didn’t came out from the mountain. Mother Smith’s was already tensed since the beginning. After hearing Lu Yi’s words, Mother Smith’s pupil shrank, and she fell onto Tomas’ arms.

“Aunty!”

“ Ah Ru!”

Mother Smith fainted causing the member of Smith family caught off guard. Shen Ruyun saw Amber being carried down by Lu Yi, her eyes brightened.

Seeing Mother Smith fainted, Shen Ruyun stepped forward, “Father, looking at mother’s condition, it won’t be a big deal to stay here, but let’s take mother to the hospital first!”

Lu Yi nodded his head and said with a weak voice, “Uncle, Amber was smashed by the rock fall. She is seriously injured and has a high fever. She must go to the hospital!”

Tomas nodded his head, holding Mother Smith’s body, and instructed, “Sister Zhang, call the manor, and prepare a car to send Madam and Amber to the hospital!”

The manor located closely to the base of mountain. Just a few minutes after Tomas instructed, there’s a car heading towards them. Lu Yi carried Amber and Mother Smith into the car, saw Tomas standing at the base of mountain, walking back and forth while frowning.

Chapter 185: My Son Hasn’t Come Down From the Mountain Yet!

0 5 minutes read

“Uncle!”

“Lu Yi, I have to trouble you to send your aunty and Amber to the hospital.”

Lu Yi’s eyebrow twitched for a while, he understood what Tomas meant. As much as his hatred towards Sean, he is still his son. Even if he didn’t say anything, but he’s still as anxious as Mother Smith.

After seeing Tomas’s gaze, Lu Yi subconsciously got started.

He slightly nodded, when the police at the mountain pass answered the call, his expression suddenly changed.

“The area of maple forest has collapsed, affecting several areas. Right now, the base of mountain is also not safe, it could be engulfed by the rock fall anytime. Everyone must evacuate!”

Tomas was taken aback, “But my son hasn’t come down yet!”

“Come down?” The policeman sneered and said, “Right now more than half of the mountain has collapsed, the remaining areas are also collapsing. Your son is made of flesh and blood, can he survive natural disaster?”

Tomas Smith is a member of Smith Family after all. He probably realized that his words were too harsh, the policeman paused for a while and amended his words.

“However, anything is possible! There’s a possibility that he took another route to come down. It’s not safe anymore here. We have to evacuate. Mr. Smith, please don’t put us, officers, in an awkward position!”

A nasty smell rushed straight through Tomas’ throat. His eyes were dark and it took a while to gain the control of his own body.

“Uncle, the policeman was right. It’s not safe here anymore. Let’s send aunty and Amber to hospital first!”

Shen Ruyun and the others, didn’t even want to stay at this shabby place since the beginning. Upon hearing that, she gave Jiang Xue a look. Both of them came to support Tomas on his left and right, and whispered, “That’s right, Father. Fourth brother understands knows the mountain very well, he might’ve come down from the mountain since long ago! Don’t you worry about mother?”

“It’s not safe here anymore. If you insist to stay here, on one hand, you’ll interfere the official duties, while on the other hand, worst come to worst, if something happens, is it worth the loss?”

All the three sister in laws, chimed in together to coax Tomas into the car.

.....

On the mountain

The rainstorm was raging and ruthlessly pouring down on Sean’s face. The mountain ground was shaking again, and the unconscious Sean woke up in a daze.

The cold rain splashed into Sean’s eyes, he opened his eyelids, and suddenly came back to his senses.

Sean moved his body. In order to save Amber, his body was hit by the rock fall. With this movement, the pain in his muscles and bones, crept along his nerves into his limbs.

Sean was in pain, only to realize that, he didn’t know when he leaned over and sat under a tree,

His consciousness was hazy, then he faintly remembered. When he was about to fall unconscious, he protected Amber and fell into the ground....

That’s right, Amber!

Sean abruptly stood up, looked around, but he couldn’t find Amber.

Forget it, even the ATV was no longer there!

He was shaken for a bit, he subconsciously felt that Amber woke up halfway, drove the ATV, and went on her own!

As soon as this idea emerged, was also subconsciously overruled by Sean.

It’s not right!

Amber's wound was infected, old man Zhang said so himself. She's running out of time. If she didn't get to the hospital soon, she couldn't even survive less than 24 hours. How can she woke up halfway and left him here all alone?

Sean's face turned dreadfully pale by the rain.

He seemed to have gathering the control all over his body. There wasn't a part of body that didn't hurt, especially his back. The pain turned his back numb.

"Amber?!"

He raised his voice and shouted. His voice was echoing in the valley and there's no other voice except his.

Sean was panicked.

He didn't even know how he got behind this tree.

Dragging his painful body, Sean took a few steps, following the direction to reach the original place.

There was a heap of rock fall and the rainfall was too heavy, burying the previous traces of him and Amber.

He squinted his long and narrow eyelids and swept the ground in a circle. Just as the mountain was shaking, a rock fell into a huge puddle in front of him.

His pupils were shaking violently.

He felt that the place was weird since the beginning, the location of the pit...

It was where he parked the ATV before.

At that time, Sean removed the rocks that blocked the road with his bare hands in order to carry Amber away quickly. And he even removed the rocks around the ATV.

But now, there were no rocks around...

They must've fell into the pit.

There was no sound when the rocks fell into the pit, which showed that the pit was bottomless!

Sean's body grew colder, his eyes fell on the sight of red raincoat, that was floating in the pit. Panic was spreading in his heart that Sean couldn't even ignore.

He was afraid that Amber would die.

Sean clenched his fingers tightly. He licked his thin lips. He was worried that if Amber was dead, he really had to raise her daughter.

He was even more afraid, if Cindy asked him for her mother, he wouldn't know where to find one!

Right, that's it! That's the only way!

Sean took a big stride and dived directly into the bottomless pit.

The pit was too big. A lot of rainfall was accumulated inside the pit. It was yellow and muddy that caused Sean's sight became obstructed. Even when Sean squinted his eyes, he couldn't see clearly in the water.

For some reasons, Sean suddenly thought of old man Zhang's remarks, that Amber's wound may not touched by water!

Sean held his breath and looked around in the water, but he still couldn't reach the bottom of the pit.

His breath was becoming weaker and Sean swam up. After taking two breaths, he dived again.

At the first round, Sean looked for Amber in the water but didn't find her. At the second round, Sean dived to the bottom but couldn't see the situation clearly. Sean circled around a few rocks touching it one by one to find Amber.

He swam up again after his breath was almost cut off.

Sean's eyes were at loss, since he couldn't find Amber. He couldn't help but feel if he had made a wrong decision. Was Amber not here at the first place?

Sean took a detour again. The area of maple forest was full of trees. There's no place to hide. Amber had no ability to leave. The only explanation left would be Amber fell into this deep pit that can swallow human.

Sean hesitated and dived once again.

Excluding the part of the road where he woke up, he held his breath for several times and still couldn't find Amber. If she really fell into this pit, it would be really ominous.

But Sean still wanted to seek again.

Even since they got married, that old man had always felt that, he had an ulterior motive towards Amber. If he went down mountain alone, that old man might've thought that she murdered and threw away her body!

Sean frowned, up to this moment, he had omitted the possibility of Amber being dead subconsciously.

After trying for several breaths, Sean still couldn't find Amber.

Chapter 186: The Stupid Woman

0 5 minutes read

The water load was greater than that on the land, and Sean Smith took a deep breath; he felt that he had a heartache!

The thoughts in his mind became clearer and clearer. Although the pit was big, Sean Smith had dived many times and had already searched it four or five times; he can't find Amber at all!

There was the worst situation.

Amber White was hit by falling rocks and crushed to the bottom of the pit.

Thinking of this, Sean Smith suddenly squeezed his fist, regretting.

He's regretting going up the mountain to scare Amber White and play peekaboo with Cindy White; although he did hate Amber White, he never thought about killing her!

Also, to save him, Amber White didn't avoid falling rocks after being injured.

When changing clothes for Amber, her nice body was full of scars, and all of them made Sean Smith's face pale.

The mountains shook for a while on the shore, and Sean Smith's tall figure shook. He stretched out his hand to help the maple tree around to stabilize his body.

He could feel that the Maple District was collapsing, and if he didn't go down the mountain, he would most likely be buried in this damn place.

Sean Smith blinked and squeezed his fingers together; he turned and walked a few steps subconsciously!

Amber White's life had nothing to do with him, right?

Now that she was gone and he had tried for her, was he going to let him pay his life to Amber White?

His mother would be heartbreaking if he died.

Amber White was not worthy of two lives of the Smith family!

Sean Smith stopped abruptly. If he left, what about Amber White?

If he went down the mountain, the old man and the little kid asked him for Amber White. How could he answer their question?

The tall body paused in place. Sean Smith suddenly turned around and jumped into the pit again.

But he can't go and leave Amber alone here!

He must see her, even if it's her body!

Not to feel sorry for Amber White, but to give the old man and the little kid an explanation!

Sean Smith dived without hesitation. He arrived at the bottom of the pit, looking for the traces of Amber stone by stone, sensing the critical point of holding his breath, he suddenly rose.

As soon as he could arrive on the surface, Sean Smith's foot twisted. Damn it! His whole leg convulsed along the hamstring.

When the limited time to hold his breath came, Sean Smith choked on water, his tall body slowly sinking in the pit.

Sean Smith's eyes grew darker and darker, and finally closed his eyes slowly.

Stupid woman!

Even if she died, she would not let him go!

...

Two hours later, the SVIP ward of the Central Hospital.

Mrs. Smith suddenly sat up from the hospital bed, which startled Tomas Smith.

“Are you awake?”

As soon as he approached, Mrs. Smith suddenly reached out and clasped Tomas Smith’s large cocooned palm: “Where is Lu Yi?”

“He.....”

Tomas Smith was interrupted before he could say anything.

“Take me to find him, I have something want to ask him!”

Then Mrs. Smith supported the bed, put on her shoes, and stumbled outside.

Tomas Smith had no choice but to follow her closely.

As soon as she left the ward door, Mrs. Smith saw Lu Yi standing in the hospital corridor, smoking a cigarette from a distance.

He grew up very quickly. His temperament became more mature and stable. Standing in the corridor with a few people, he was incredibly dazzling.

Mrs. Smith’s eyesight lit up, and she strode over, “Yi, where is Sean? Have you seen him on the mountain?”

Lu Yi was thinking about that thing on the mountain. When he heard Mrs. Smith’s voice, his eyebrows suddenly jerked.

“Auntie, why don’t you pay attention to rest when you wake up...”

“Tell me if you have seen Sean?!” Mrs. Smith raised her tone: “Amber White and Sean stayed together. They separated without reason! Where did you find Amber White?”

“Maple... Maple District.”

Lu Yi answered hesitantly.

Mrs. Smith stared at Lu Yi intently: “The stone area collapsed. Amber White knew that she should go to the maple area; Sean must be smarter than her, right?!”

Besides, Lu Yi descended too quickly, right?

Lu Yi licked the corners of his lips and said vaguely: “When I went up the mountain, passing by the rescue station, I saw an old man, he told me that Sean was not injured...”

“Aunt, Amber White’s wound is infected. The old man said that she won’t last for twenty-four hours... Sean should be fine. Maybe he has gone down safely now?”

Mrs. Smith’s body was shocked again.

Was he not injured?

A cloud of mist rose in front of her eyes, and the day before yesterday, Tomas Smith slapped him all of his body, he was injured badly, right?

Amber White might be infected with her wounds, wouldn't Sean?

Mrs. Smith became angry, causing her liver and gallbladder to suffer severe pain. It was Amber White who wanted to stay to find her daughter!

Amber White was now lying in the hospital unharmed, but her son, her Sean, was missing now!

Sean was her only son!

"Auntie, don't worry, Sean may be fine, isn't there a rescue team on the mountain? Maybe Sean has already joined them!"

Mrs. Smith was dizzy again.

No matter what Lu Yi said, no one dared to jump to a conclusion before seeing Sean Smith!

Especially Mrs. Smith, separated from him for just a few hours, her heart seemed to have been fried in a frying pan. It was painful, and unable to extricate herself!

She managed to control her emotions, her tone getting deeper and deeper: "What's the matter with that mountain buggy?"

"I remember clearly when you went up the mountain, you walked up on foot!"

When Mrs. Smith said this, Tomas Smith was called by the nurse on the SVIP floor and signed Amber White's medical list.

Seeing Mrs. Smith and Lu Yi talking, Tomas Smith didn't think much and went directly with the nurse. Naturally, he didn't hear the conversation between the two.

Mrs. Smith's emotions seemed to break with her mentality, tearing her sanity bit by bit. Even in the face of her nephew, she couldn't calm down and even took an aggressive step forward.

"You told me that Amber White had a wound infection and had a high fever; she is in a coma for a while! Yi'er, in her situation, driving a mountain bike by herself is not realistic, right?"

Lu Yi didn't know how to answer this question, then Mrs. Smith continued: "So, Amber White cannot be alone. Tell me...Did you see Sean?"

"Is he in any danger?"

Mrs. Smith never thought that Lu Yi would use another set of rhetoric to erase the traces of Sean Smith, who had been with Amber White!

In the next sentence, every word he said seemed to be cut into her heart, and her breathing was messed up by the pain.

The lights in the corridor were so white that Mrs. Smith couldn't open her eyes; she even can't see the expression on Lu Yi's face clearly!

Chapter 187: Sean Deliberately Left Amber There

0 5 minutes read

Lu Yi was a little distracted.

The maple forest was huge. When the falling rock came down, Lu Yi saw Sean getting hit in order to save Amber!

The rock was too big, and by the time he reached them, Sean had already passed out.

His situation didn't seem to be any better than Amber's!

"Yi'er?"

Mrs. Smith called Lu Yi. He suddenly came out of his trance, and frowned deeply.

"Aunty, when I was on the scene, I really only saw Amber and this car. I don't know what happened. I'm afraid we won't know the truth until Amber wakes up."

Lu Yi answered casually, deliberately hiding the story that Sean risked his life to save Amber!

Even if he said it, no one would believe him!

Everyone knew how Sean treated Amber after she married to him in all these years.

In that case, Lu Yi didn't want to get Amber into trouble!

Seeing how his aunt reacted, he was afraid that after he told her the truth, she would cut Amber into pieces before Amber woke up.

Mrs. Smith still had doubts about Lu Yi's explanation. Lu Yi stretched out his hand to clasp Mrs. Smith's arm and said in a low voice, "Aunty, don't worry about Sean anymore. He will be okay!"

"Now you should get some rest! Everyone is very anxious at the moment. Don't make us worry about you, okay?"

Mrs. Smith was dragged by Lu Yi to the ward, and he directly pushed her to the bed.

"Aunty, I'm going to check on Amber's condition."

"Lu Yi!"

Mrs. Smith called Lu Yi.

For so many years, Mrs. Smith had always been amiable to Lu Yi. This was the first time she called Lu Yi's full name like this.

His footsteps paused, and he stopped where he was.

“I’ll ask you the last time. Did you see Sean on the mountain!”

“Aunt. I don’t have to lie to you.” Lu Yi whispered: “Please take a rest in the ward. I will go to see if Amber is awake, and ask how is Sean for you!”

As soon as Lu Yi finished speaking, Mrs. Smith suddenly sobbed.

She sobbed, and Lu Yi quickened his pace and left the ward.

Tomas had already walked over. As soon as he got to the door, he heard Mrs. Smith’s weeping voice. Facing Lu Yi’s expressionless face, he spoke subconsciously:

“Did that guy do something shady again, so you have to hide it for him?”

Lu Yi turned his head and glanced at Mrs. Smith.

He wanted to speak but stopped on a second thought, and looked up at Tomas.

Tomas was a little anxious: “Just say what you want to say!”

“Uncle, remember I said that before I went to the maple forest, I passed the rescue station halfway through the mountainside?”

Tomas lifted his eyelids and glanced at Lu Yi.

He had a bit of an impression of the rescue station, mainly because he remembered that old man Zhang was stubborn and unwilling to evacuate whenever there was any danger on the mountain!

“The old man I met told me that, Sean and Amber went down the mountain together!”

When Tomas heard this, a bad premonition emerged in his heart: “Didn’t you tell me that you didn’t see Sean in the maple forest?”

“.....No.” Lu Yi licked his lips, looking a little nervous: “I only saw an off-road vehicle and Amber in the maple forest. I didn’t see Sean!”

“By the time I got there, the maple forest was starting to cave in. It was dangerous there, so I’m suspecting...”

Lu Yi paused, raised his eyebrow and carefully glanced at Tomas.

Before Lu Yi finished speaking, the anger in Tomas’s heart had been stirred up. Seeing him stop, Tomas squinted his eyes and glanced at Lu Yi.

“What are you suspecting?”

Lu Yi faltered.

The premonition in Tomas’s heart was getting stronger and stronger. Since Lu Yi became the director of the public relations department of the Smith Group, he had never spoken so nervously.

After a while, Lu Yi bit his teeth and whispered, “I’m suspecting that Sean deliberately drove Amber to the maple forest , and then left her there...”

As soon as he said this, Tomas's face darkened instantly, like a piece of black coal.

"That bastard!"

His voice was high, and Lu Yi subconsciously looked into the ward, where Mrs. Smith was still immersed in her sobs and hadn't noticed what was going on here.

He licked the corner of his lips and said, "We haven't found Sean yet, and Amber hasn't woken up. Everything is still inconclusive. Uncle, don't get angry!"

How could Tomas not be angry. Although Lu Yi spoke for Sean, he still couldn't help being scared!

When Lu Yi went there, the maple forest had already begun to collapse. In other words, if he didn't go there, Amber might have been killed by that bastard!

"It's possible that Sean just wanted to take Amber down the mountain and save her..."

Tomas's face was bleak. Lu Yi finished speaking, and turned around, looking like he was going to Amber's ward.

His voice was very low, and he said to himself: "But why did he abandon the car and leave Amber in the end..."

"Bastard!"

A cluster of flames were stirred up in Tomas's eyes and then spread.

"I will call now and let all the policemen get back! Leave him fend for himself in the mountains!"

He fumbled the phone from his trouser pocket with trembling hand. Before, in the old house, Tomas smashed his phone in anger, and the screen of the phone was full of cracks.

However, it still could be used.

Seeing this, Lu Yi curved the corners of his lips.

His eyes were hidden in the lights of the promenade. At that moment, it seemed that all the gentleness in his eyes receded, and a rare bleakness appeared in them.

Lu Yi strode towards Amber's ward. Outside the transparent window, he restrained the mood in his eyes.

It was twilight outside, and the rain had stopped. Lu Yi frowned. Tomas had only Sean, one son. How could he say something like that!

He guessed that the situation in the mountains was probably brought under control!

However, he didn't lie. When he left, the area of the maple forest vibrated violently, and the rocks kept falling. If Sean didn't wake up, who knew if he could get down from the mountain?

...

Amber was dreaming again.

In her dream, she was in a daze. Looking at the surroundings, she seemed to be back eleven years ago.

Many things were surprisingly familiar.

Especially the teenager standing beside her and holding her hand. She could even clearly feel the temperature in the palm of his hand.

It was so warm.

Everything that belonged to her seemed to come back in an instant, and Amber was moved almost to tears.

A light smile appeared on her lips. She was immersed in it, and was unwilling to wake up.

The teenager in the white shirt suddenly opened his mouth: "Amber."

His voice was clear and melodious. Hearing him, Amber glanced in his direction.

Chapter 188: Amber, Sean Was Going to Kill You!

0 5 minutes read

A kiss that was soft to the extreme landed on her lips, and his thin breath spread between her lips and teeth. They were too close. Amber could even feel the taste of the sunlight that was present on Sean.

Amber hadn't come out of the sweetness before the surrounding scene was torn apart and condensed into another scene.

The teenager stood on the twenty-floor high building. The look in his eyes was warm, and there were sparse love and smile in his narrowed eyes.

"Sean..."

The next second, he jumped off the top of the building.

He was obviously so far away, yet Amber could still see his bloody look. The scene was bizarrely the same as the scene eleven years ago!

"No!"

"Sean!"

Suddenly, Amber sat up from the hospital bed.

The air just after the rain was a little stuffy, but Amber was cold. The fear of weightlessness permeated her heart, occupying all of her senses.

She inhaled heavily and her face was pale.

Lu Yi was sitting beside Amber. When Amber woke up, his eyes warmed, "Amber, you finally woke up!"

He cautiously grabbed Amber's arm and whispered, "Don't move, you have an infusion needle on the back of your hand."

“Be careful, your blood vessels are thin. The nurse tried several times to put the needle into it!”

Amber trembled violently. Hearing Lu Yi’s voice, she seemed to have caught a life-saving straw, “Lu Yi, where is Sean?”

She asked eagerly, looking at Lu Yi eagerly. There was a hint of expectation in her eyes.

Lu Yi lowered his eyes slightly and did not answer Amber.

Amber’s body and consciousness were still immersed in the nightmare just now, and her whole body was cold.

She looked around. The snow-white ceiling, the infusion bottle above the top of her head, and the faint smell of disinfectant water, all of which were telling Amber where she was.

When Amber came out of her trance, she suddenly remembered something and said to herself, “Obviously, I was supposed to be in the mountains with Sean...”

Amber remembered before she fainted, she heard Sean blurt out be careful!

But at that time, her leg was injured and she couldn’t escape...

“I was hit by a falling rock.”

“Why am I here...”

Amber didn’t have any impression of what happened after that. She tried hard to recall it, but had a splitting headache.

“Amber!”

“Stop recalling it. You have a high fever and your wound is infected!” Lu Yi’s tone unconsciously sounded a little distressed, “I can tell you what you want to know!”

“The reason why you are here is that I went up the mountain and saved you!”

Amber was stunned.

When she and Sean went down the mountain, the mountain was already shaking!

The situation was so dangerous that Lu Yi was still willing to go up the mountain to rescue her. She was touched.

Amber licked the corner of her lips. She knew that Lu Yi was willing to go up the mountain because of the Smith family, and because of...

She blinked her eyes uneasily, and stretched out her hand to grab the hem of her clothes.

She touched the fabric and found that it was no longer the dress she wore when she went up the mountain, but the uniform hospital gown.

“Lu Yi, thank you!” Amber’s voice was deep, “The mountain is so dangerous. Thank you for being willing to go up there to save me!”

Lu Yi saw Amber's small movements and sensed her evasion.

He smiled, and didn't speak. Two minutes later, Amber couldn't help asking, "Where is Sean?"

"Lu Yi, you went up the mountain to rescue me. Did you see Sean? Where is he? Did he get off the mountain safely as well?"

Amber spoke very fast, and was obviously worried about Sean. Lu Yi's eyes suddenly darkened.

He frowned and whispered, "I didn't see him."

For some reason, Amber suddenly remembered the nightmare she just had, and she became more and more anxious.

"Why didn't you see him? Where did you find me?"

"The maple forests!"

Amber's eyes lit up, "But I was hit by a falling rock on the road, and then I lost my consciousness. I couldn't go to the maple forest by myself."

"It must be Sean who brought me there!"

"Didn't you look for Sean around me? Or was he in some kind of danger?"

Amber was agitated. Lu Yi's eyes darkened. Whenever it came to things related to Sean, Amber acted like a different person.

He couldn't bear being asked and whispered, "Amber, I didn't want to tell you. Sean treated you like that, but you still care about him..."

Hearing Lu Yi's words, Amber's heart raced.

"Amber, I found you in the maple forest, and there was an off-road vehicle beside you. I guess it was Sean who drove you there and left you there..."

"Amber, ten minutes later, after I took you away, the maple forest collapsed completely."

Amber's pupils contracted suddenly, and she said in a low voice,

"It's impossible..."

It seemed that she had heard something impossible. The shock and horror in her eyes were so heavy that Lu Yi even had a headache for a moment.

But his headache lasted for less than a second. He squinted and whispered, "Amber, Sean was going to kill you!"

As soon as Lu Yi finished speaking, Amber's face changed suddenly.

She subconsciously wanted to refute Lu Yi. Sean was not someone who would fold his arms and see her die.

"Amber, you guys have been married all these years. You should know best how Sean treated you!"

Lu Yi's words pressed hard on Amber's heart, and the string in Amber's mind broke instantly. Amber subconsciously reached out and put her arms around her legs, burying her head between her knees.

Her shoulders trembled violently.

The warm tears ran down her face and dripped to her legs.

Amber once again felt the pain from her heart and the emotion that was on the edge of collapse.

Yes, if she were a stranger to Sean, he wouldn't do that!

However, for her, who drove away his beloved Manman, Sean had already hated her guts...

All the sweetness was a dream after all, and the boy who kissed her in the dream had already abandoned her.

Amber cried depressingly and painfully. She seemed to have fallen into despair little by little, and it was hard to get out.

She felt that she was really a good for nothing. After eleven years, she couldn't forget a man who didn't love her anymore.

She only cried for a few minutes. Then she regained her usual calmness.

Amber wiped her tears and raised her head.

Her eyes were red, and there were still unwiped tears on her face. In the hospital gown, she was like a flower swaying in the storm.

Lu Yi's heart just softened, and Amber's voice suddenly sounded in his ears,

"Lu Yi, have you received any news from Sean?"

Chapter 189: Cindy Is Waiting for You in the Old House

0 5 minutes read

Lu Yi's tall body suddenly stiffened, and even the gentle expression on his face was stiff for a while.

He glanced at Amber in disbelief, "He was going to kill you, and you still care about his life and death?!"

An embarrassed look flashed across Amber's face. Lu Yi kept staring at her, and naturally noticed the difference in her emotions. His lips were pressed tightly. He lowered his voice and said in a disappointed tone.

"Amber, are a fool?"

"Lu Yi." Amber ran her hand through her hair, "No matter what, Sean stayed on the mountain because of me!"

"If anything happens to him, I'm at least half to blame!"

What this meant was that she didn't care about Sean's life and death?

Lu Yi sneered in his heart. Didn't Amber think her explanation was too conscious?

He licked the corner of his lips, and the look in his eyes became bleak, "Amber, you don't have to blame yourself. No matter what he stayed on the mountain for, Sean was healthy, and was even able to drive and throw you into the dangerous the maple forest in the stormy weather. He will definitely be fine!"

"Besides, if something did happen to him, he deserved it. It won't have anything to do with you!"

Lu Yi's words undoubtedly stabbed Amber's heart once again, and caused her great pain. Amber's lips grew paler.

In recent years, her image had always been an able marketing director. Except for the time when Cindy who was born unexpectedly three years ago, it had been a long time since Lu Yi saw Amber being so weak.

It was because of Sean again.

Lu Yi's eyes were overcast. He didn't give Amber any chance to speak again, stood up straight and reached out to press Amber, forcing her to lie down on the hospital bed.

"Lu Yi, I want to make inquiries about Sean's whereabouts!"

Lu Yi sneered, "With such a health condition? Forget it!"

"Amber, when I took you to the hospital, you had a fever of forty degrees and your wound was seriously infected! You almost died! All of this was because of Sean. Why do you still want to look for him?"

"You'd better spend your time on recovering!"

Lu Yi paused. A stream of light flashed across his always warm eyes.

"Amber, don't forget that Cindy is still waiting for you in the old house!"

"You don't want Cindy to see you all bruised up, do you?"

Amber gradually stopped struggling. Lu Yi curved the corners of his lips, and then said, "There is a rescue team on the mountain. If Sean hasn't gone down the mountain, the rescue team will rescue him!"

"He is the only child of the Smith family. No one will let anything happen to him!"

Amber's heart was pounding. She was wondering if it was because of that dream, she was extraordinarily worried about Sean on this day!

She always felt like Sean would leap down from a twenty-storey building, just like in her dream... and completely lose contact with her!

The feeling was too strong. She had to see him, and she had to make sure he was safe!

But Lu Yi was right!

She knew her own health condition. If she didn't take good care of her own illness, she would just be a burden!

She lowered her eyes. Her heart seemed to be soaked in the salt water tank, and it was so painful.

Sean didn't want her anymore. She only had Cindy. The Smith family would naturally make sure he was safe....

Lu Yi saw that Amber began to be convinced, and his eyebrows became less knitted. He smiled, forced Amber to lie in the bed, and then took a thin blanket to cover her.

Outside the ward, a ruthless look flashed across Shen Ruyun's eyes quickly!

She heard what Amber and Lu Yi said!

Shen Ruyun glanced up and down at Amber.

Aside from being a little pale, Amber didn't look like she was seriously injured!

At this time, everyone was hiding the news that Cindy was kidnapped from Amber!

If she kept stalling like this, Mr. Qian would be more impatient. Wouldn't he take it out on her by then?

Shen Ruyun couldn't help feeling anxious.

She thought that Lu Yi and Amber were so close, and he would be a little more affectionate towards that little bastard!

It seemed that Lu Yi was not a good guy either!

He liked Amber. That little bastard was not his child. Maybe he was wishing Cindy to die. Then he could spend the rest of his life with Amber that bitch!

Shen Ruyun's expression was terribly bleak, and she was thinking about what to do anxiously.

Sure enough, in less than ten minutes, Shen Ruyun's cell phone rang, and she fumbled out the phone and glanced at the phone screen!

After seeing the caller ID, she almost threw her phone out!

But Shen Ruyun didn't dare to ignore Mr. Qian's call!

After hesitating for a moment, she glanced at Amber and Lu Yi who were in a harmonious atmosphere in the ward with sinister eyes, held the phone tightly, and walked to the bench in the SVIP corridor. She sat down and answered the phone.

Mr. Qian's voice was sharp, "Shen Ruyun, are you fucking messing with me?"

"I have called the Smith family's old house so many times. They hung up every time! Damn, what does they mean?"

"Is this girl's life valuable or not? It's only 50 million dollars. The Smith family must have more than such a small sum, right? !"

Shen Ruyun was almost scared to death.

At the time, Sean was still in the mountain, and Amber had been injured. The people of the Smith family's old house were all in the hospital. The ones picking up the phone were probably aunt Zhang and the other old maids who didn't have the final say!

That was why Mr. Qian called but was hung up!

This was the way the maids stalling for time?

But no matter how Shen Ruyun guessed, she didn't dare to tell Mr. Qian!

"Mr. Qian, don't worry, you've probably read the news. The Smith family's back mountain has all collapsed. They didn't answer your phone because my fourth brother is still in the mountain!"

"Damn it!"

Mr. Qian cursed, "Sean is still in the mountain? Are you asking me to risk my life? By then, the Smith family will put the blame for that bastard's accident on me..."

"Mr. Qian, please hear me out!"

Shen Ruyun glanced around, making sure no one was there. She licked her dry lips, "If Sean dies, then this girl will be the only offspring of the Smith family!"

"Will you still think her life is worthless!"

The other end of the phone kept silent for a while.

Shen Ruyun was a little nervous. She originally wanted to use Mr. Qian to get rid of an eyesore. However, it never occurred to her that Mr. Qian was so difficult to fool!

Besides, she was talking nonsense. No one knew if something had happened to Sean!

"Mrs. Smith, I advise you not to play tricks. The last woman who played tricks in front of me was thrown into the deep sea in the eastern suburbs to feed fish!"

He seemed to be smoking, and his voice was especially husky, sounding extraordinarily ruthless. Shen Ruyun's heart raced.

Mr. Qian was famous among gangs and in casinos. She produced a forced smile and responded, "Mr. Qian, how do I dare to do that! Please wait for some time. Amber may want to use that girl to seize the Smith family's fortune. How can she leave her alone?"

Chapter 190: Dad Let The Rescue Team Back

0 5 minutes read

"Money is coming soon!"

Mr. Qian sneered and said: "This is your last chance!"

After speaking, Mr. Qian hung on the phone directly.

Shen Ruyun was so anxious. She walked to the window and saw a woman lying on a hospital bed, sleeping quietly.

Like silk and satin, her long black hair was spread on the pillow, making her little fair white face even more beautiful.

Shen Ruyun was upset.

Why was she so anxious as a ghost because Amber's daughter was missing, but Amber can lie on the hospital bed with peace of mind?

Shen Ruyun gritted her teeth and suddenly turned around.

No way!

She can't just wait; Lu Yi can't be trusted; she needed to save herself!

Shen Ruyun walked slowly, her eyesight was a little hollow, and the countermeasures had not been figured out yet, there's a man walked over.

He was handsome, with gold-rimmed glasses on his face. He had a gentle temperament, which was somewhat similar to the temperament of Lu Yi!

Shen Ruyun felt that this person was a bit familiar. She hesitated for a moment and remembered in a daze that she seemed to have met this man in the Smith Group.

It seemed to be the secretary of Sean Smith, Xu Lin?

He didn't go to the mountain to search Sean Smith, why did he come here?

Thinking like this, Shen Ruyun stretched out to stop the man, and asked in a low voice: "Secretary Xu, why don't you go to the police station and wait for the news from Sean? What are you doing here?"

Xu Lin was worried about the safety of Sean Smith, and when someone suddenly stopped him, he raised his head and glanced in the direction of Shen Ruyun.

"Mrs."

Xu Lin knew the most of the Smith family's interpersonal relationships, not to mention that Shen Ruyun also had shares of the company.

When Xu Lin greeted her, Shen Ruyun licked her lips, with a sneer in her eyes: "What's wrong? Sean is not dead yet, Secretary Xu, do you want to join in Amber White's party?"

Xu Lin was taken aback.

He thought that his boss was the only one who had a bad impression of President White in the Smith family!

Unexpectedly, Mrs was the same!

Thinking about this, Xu Lin explained: "Mrs., the old master called the police station, and the people who had searched and rescued on the mountain were removed."

"The old master also said that no one is allowed to go up and save the boss."

Shen Ruyun frowned.

She didn't believe Xu Lin would use this kind of thing to deceive her. She was surprised that Sean Smith was already the last son of the old man!

Needless to think, she also knew that Tomas Smith would give this order, it must be related to Amber White!

He's really cruel!

Xu Lin's expression was anxious; Tomas Smith was old; he can't manage the company intensively. If Sean Smith died, what should the company do? ?

"The old master has a tough attitude; I think only Director White can convince him!"

"Even if the boss is wrong, he is still the son of the old master!"

Shen Ruyun frowned when she heard the words. She reached out and pinched a strand of long hair on her shoulder and asked thoughtfully: "Do you know why Dad withdrew the search and rescue team?"

Xu Lin shook his head.

If he knew, it would be fine, and he wouldn't be anxious here!

It was just going up the mountain to pay homage to the Third Young Master. He really couldn't guess what the boss could do and made the old master angry and made him cruel to make this decision!

He was all thinking about saving Sean Smith, but he didn't notice that Shen Ruyun's eyesight lit up.

Her lips were pressed together tightly; there's a plan in her heart.

"Mrs, I have to go to see Director White..."

"Wait!"

Shen Ruyun stopped Xu Lin again; her gaze was very deep, "Secretary Xu, what about that? I will tell Amber about this matter. You can think about other ways first. Save Sean is the most important thing now!"

"This....."

"Amber just woke up; you should know that she just came down from the mountain; she is scared. If you told her that, she must not accept it! I am a woman; I know women better than you! I will know how to let her accept reality!"

Xu Lin thought about it and felt her words were right.

Although President White was very good at the company, she was still a woman, and she would be afraid of such a big thing!

Besides, they were all a family; Xu Lin felt that Shen Ruyun had no reason to lie.

"Thank you!" Xu Lin replied, "I will talk to the rescue team on the mountain!"

Shen Ruyun nodded.

Xu Lin came quickly and left quickly.

Shen Ruyun licked her lips and watched Xu Lin leave, her lips provoked a venomous smile.

She looked back at the ward where Amber White was located. Through the window, she could still see Amber White's exposed black hair.

She sneered, tidied up her little skirt, twisted her waist, and walked towards the ward where Mrs. Smith was.

There were only two people in the ward, Mrs. Smith and Jiang Xue.

Fang Weiwei and Tomas Smith were not there. Shen Ruyun didn't rush into the ward. She stood at the door and looked around. She was sure that Tomas Smith would not appear suddenly, then she hurried into the ward!

"Mom, mom, something happened!"

Mrs. Smith was worried about the safety of Sean Smith, she gave Shen Ruyun a vicious look, and said, "What are you doing in a hurry?! Is there any dignity?"

After being reprimanded, Shen Ruyun was not in a hurry. She frowned and said aggrieved: "Mom, don't you know? Dad called the police station and asked the rescue team back from the mountain!"

As soon as she said this, Mrs. Smith's pupils shrank suddenly; she suddenly sat up from the hospital bed and grabbed Shen Ruyun's hand.

Her strength was so strong that her nails got stuck in the flesh of Shen Ruyun's hands: "How did they withdraw? Did they find Sean?"

Shen Ruyun was in pain for a while, but she didn't dare to shout. She hesitated for a while before licking her lips and cautiously said: "No! Amber White woke up just now! I don't know what she said to Dad? Dad got angry, he..."

"Just what?"

"Tell us!"

Jiang Xue, who was sitting by the side, suddenly widened her eyes.

Shen Ruyun said, "Dad asked the rescue team back from the mountain, and also said that no one is allowed to go up the mountain to rescue Sean!"

"Mom, Dad's attitude is tough; no one can persuade him!"

As soon as Mrs. Smith heard it, her breathing was tight, her face was as white as paper, and the heart in her chest was beating.

Shen Ruyun gave Jiang Xue a look while Mrs. Smith was angry.

Jiang Xue understood, and continued: "What? Did she do this?"

“I also watched the news just now, Mom, several districts on the mountain collapsed. At this time, the rescue team is withdrawn, isn't Amber White killing Sean?”

“Mom, did Amber White know that little bitch was kidnapped? She is maliciously revenging on Sean?”

Mrs. Smith's hand, which clasped Shen Ruyun's hand, tried harder and harder, and her other hand, twisting the bedsheet tightly, her breath seemed to be stopped, painful!
