Chapter 121: Why Should He Feel Guilty?

0 5 minutes read

Early morning.

The sun penetrated through the interior window and landed on a corner of the big bed. Sean's lips moved and his eyes opened.

The curtain of the room opened, the light was strong. His eyes narrowed again, opened and closed several times, then he just adapted to the strong light reflected in from the outside.

There was a pain in his forehead. Sean reached out and pinched it. It pulled the wound. He took a breath of cold air and froze.

He pinched his eyebrow, and his eyes fell on the white cloth on his wrist. His pupils suddenly shrank, and he sat up from the bed.

Sean remembered that before going to bed he changed into a dark nightgown!

Sean scrutinized the white shirt on his body, which was extremely fitting with the right size and elegant design style. It was made by his favorite fashion designer.

There was a dark flash in his eyes.

The master bedroom on the third floor was only for him and Amber. Sean knew who changed his clothes.

Sean raised his hand and touched it. It was not buttoned up fully.

A picture suddenly flashed into his mind. Last night, he seemed to dream of Manman...

Sean's face darkened in a flash, and his back tightened, the wounds on his back seemed to have gone. In his eyes, his emotions were as heavy as his pressed lips.

Last night's dream, Sean still had a deep memory. He could even clearly feel the softness of the woman's body and the warmth of her lips and teeth.

His heart fell down slowly, and his body was covered with a layer of cold sweat.

The temperature of the woman remained on his fingertips. Sean's thin lips were tight. The dream couldn't be so real, and Manman couldn't run out of the dream and do something with him.

Last night, he should have taken Amber as Manman and done something...

There was a sound of flowing water in his ear. Sean's eyebrows moved. He took a look at the direction of the toilet. For the first time, he felt guilty.

After all, last night, it was he who taunted Amber for wanting to climb into his bed, but she didn't do anything. Instead, he was the one who pressed her under his body and touched her.

Sean took a deep breath and looked down on some messy sheets for a moment.

Even they might have done the last step.

As soon as the sound of the water stopped, Sean's long legs moved. He had put on his slippers, and he made a slight and disorderly movement. He stopped abruptly and his eyes deepened.

Why should he feel guilty?

Why couldn't he face Amber?

Didn't she dream of climbing into his bed?!

He achieved her wish, so she should be grateful!

Besides, if he didn't sleep in a daze last night, how could he do something to someone like Amber?!

Amber should know how disgusted he felt about her. He didn't even want to touch a hair of her!

Besides, she had hands and feet. Couldn't she get out of it?!

His handsome face was dark, Amber should be overjoyed after she slept with him!

Sean reached out uneasily and pulled out his cell phone. The action of unlocking was paused. There were two scratches on his right wrist, which were covered with red blood.

The picture on last night flashed into his mind with this scratch. He dreamt Manman. When the feelings came to him, his behaviors would have been a little tough.

If he remembered correctly, the women under him was really struggling at that time.

The thought leaped into his mind, and Sean's ears thundered. The veins on his forehead leaped, and in his pupils there flashed a deep gloom.

The depth of the scratch showed that she was really resisting at that time.

Sean really thought he crazily bothered about what happened last night.

Amber tried her best to marry him. He didn't believe that when he was in a vague consciousness and wanted to do something to her, she would hide!

She was playing hard to get, and everything was just a fake she deliberately created!

The purpose was to make him feel guilty and compromise!

In any case, Sean couldn't be relieved. He had a high fever last night and after the sleep he didn't recover completely. His mind was confused and was as muddied as the wind passing through. At this time, the bathroom door was pushed open from inside.

Amber came out of it.

She changed into a suit. A nude pink knee length dress. Long black seaweed-like hair covered her small white face. Her slim figure was outlined by the dress. The slender legs were white and flawless.

Sean was stunned.

Amber seldom worn this kind of dress in the company. Every day she worn a formal dress. It was the first time he saw her wear this.

When he saw her, Amber didn't seem to expect that he would wake up. There was an unnatural emotion on her face and a thin layer of red on her cheek.

"Sean, you're awake."

She didn't try to avoid his sight. Her eyes were sincere.

Sean pressed his lips tightly, without saying a word.

At the thought of what happened between him and Amber, he didn't know what attitude to take towards her.

Amber's eyes were fixed on Sean. His face was black and his thin lips moved. He said "Um".

That was what Sean was like, either sneering at her or being cold and careless to her.

Amber has been used to it for a long time, so she didn't notice Sean's difference.

Last night, he had a bad fever. He was at least conscious at present. Amber thought. Her suspended heart landed, and she subconsciously blurted out a sentence "That's good."

That's good?

What did Amber mean?

Alluding to what happened last night, she planned to settle all the grudges with him?

Sean's body moved, and he subconsciously ridiculed, "That's good? That's it?"

No any conditions?

Would she be so kind?

Sean pulled his mouth corner with a kind of refreshing coolness. Amber reached out to put aside her hair, which blocked her vision. She looked at Sean and asked in a low voice.

"Sean, what do you mean?"

Seeing Amber's indifferent attitude, Sean narrowed his eyelids slightly. The sun fell on his clear and handsome cheek through his long and thick eyelashes, without melting a trace of coldness on his face.

"I thought Director White is waiting for me to get up early in the morning. You wanted to help me remember last night and make a promise, didn't you?"

As soon as Sean finished, Amber's face became more unnatural.

With a sneer, his uncertain mind suddenly became clear.

He thought that all the expressions on Amber's face were just made by her on purpose to show him.

She was a woman who had plans, thoughts and was not satisfied with the status quo. She would not let go of this opportunity that she got difficultly!

Amber blinked and whispered, "You had a fever last night."

Chapter 122: Who Let You Call Aunt Zhang in

0 5 minutes read

What she said was just half. Sean didn't wait for the follow-up, and didn't bother to wait. He took a step closer to Amber's direction. Because of his action, the huge bedroom suddenly seemed to be cramped.

Amber was shocked. Sean blocked her body between the wall and his chest. She could even feel the coolness of Sean's body: "So, you take advantage of me?"

Take advantage of him?

Amber couldn't help but sneer in her heart. Suddenly, she remembered that last night, when Sean held her and called Lin Man's name.

He had a high fever. She took care of him painstakingly. However, he took her as a stand in for Lin Man and held her in his arms, touched and kissed. He took advantage of her totally.

In this way, did she really take advantage of him?

Amber closed her eyes and pushed Sean away. "I don't get what you mean."

Her action was very big, which pulled the wound of Sean. The man gave a stuffy hum, and his facial expression went white instantly.

Shit! Amber, this damn woman, knew that he was hurt, and she was so mean to him!

Wasn't she being guilty?

Or Amber felt that they slept with each other, and things would be different!

Did she want him to kneel at her feet and beg her?!

To bear any hit, any scolding, to offer whatever she wanted with both hands?!

Sean steadied his figure. His big hands suddenly clasped Amber's wrist, and put strength on his fingertips. It seemed that he wanted to crush the woman's bones.

Amber's eyes were red. For so many years, there was no one but Sean who was easy to make her cry..

She clenched the back of her teeth and pressed her lips. She held out another hand that was still free, reached out and flicked Sean's clothes, saying, "Are you angry about the change of clothes?"

"I didn't change your clothes for you. It was Aunt Zhang."

Sean's disgust and anger at the bottom of his eyes instantly broke apart because of Amber's words, and even the cold expression on his face disappeared.

As soon as Amber finished, the wrinkled face of Aunt Zhang flashed across his mind. He thought that the person he kissed last night might have changed from Amber to Aunt Zhang...

The feeling of nausea surged up. Sean was really sweating cold.

He didn't believe it! His eyes fixed tightly on Amber's face and Amber met his sharp eyes, then she turned up the corner of her mouth.

Sean's blue veins on his forehead were springing up. He'd like to strangle Amber to death!

Fuck!

Did he lose his brain or become blind yesterday? He took Aunt Zhang as Manman he yearned day and night!

Sean thought that last night he was holding Amber, which was disgusting enough. Unexpectedly, there was even more disgusting thing!

He took a heavy breath, and there was a buzz in his ear. A burst of sour water in his stomach emerged. Many emotions turned up and squeezed his chest.

Sean's eyes were bloodshot. He suddenly reached out, grabbed Amber's chin, and forced her to look at him.

In his tone, with a kind of enduring anger: "Who let you call Aunt Zhang in?! Who allowed you to make your own decisions? Why should I have Aunt Zhang to change my clothes?"

Amber's jaw tingled and her face was a little pale,

She gave up her struggle for fear that she would suffer more here.

"Sean, you had a fever last night. You were wet all over. The wound would be inflamed with sweat. You have to change clothes."

She explained in a low voice, which seemed to be crumpled in her throat, with some rare fragility.

Sean pulled Amber to the only big bed in the room. Although the bed was soft, Amber's head was still knocked on it dizzily and her lips were pale.

The hair she combed in the bathroom was messy again because of Sean's move. She took care of him late last night, and her headache because of staying up was even more worse.

There seemed to be some organ dislocation.

She took a deep breath, heard Sean's voice cross the scene, and it came into her ears.

"That can't be Aunt Zhang either!"

Amber swallowed. That can't be Aunt Zhang?

She knew that Sean didn't like her. But did he need to use such an excuse to find her fault?

There was a saying that a person who was already wrong in your eyes was wrong no matter what he did?

Amber didn't understand before. But looking at Sean, she seemed to understand.

After sitting up from the bed, Amber reached out and straightened her hair. "I thought you wouldn't let me touch you."

Sean was stuck.

That's right!

He really didn't want her to touch him!

In his heart, even Aunt Zhang, who was over fifty years old, was thousands of times better than Amber!

There was a bloodthirsty smile on the corner of his mouth. Amber, this woman, wanted him to admit that he wanted her to change his clothes?

Sean gave a cold snort. He squeezed a word out of his teeth with a mellow voice, like a blunt knife, straight cut into Amber's heart:

"Yes, you are right! For me, the most disgusting person is you, Amber! It was much better to have Aunt Zhang to help me change clothes than you! "

Amber's lips were white imperceptibly.

Seeing Amber's expression on her face, Sean's mouth curled up, and he felt a little happy at last.

He buttoned the metal button on the shirt to the top one, and returned to the normal appearance. After entering the bathroom to wash, the man stepped out of the room.

Sean saw Aunt Zhang coming up, his steps stopped suddenly, and his eyes were suddenly deep and hard to distinguish.

When Aunt Zhang saw Sean, her face turned red.

The disgusting feeling came back, and his beautiful face was covered with dark clouds.

"Young master, I come up to clean up the room."

Sean's eyebrows were wrinkled. He suddenly thought of the bed sheet that was messed up last night. His face was black again, and his voice was cold to the extreme:

"It's enough to have Amber in the bedroom. There's nothing you need to do here."

Aunt Zhang knew it, but her face was redder.

Sean licked his thin lips, and his eyes fell on Aunt Zhang's face with several wrinkles. His face was dark.

A woman over half a hundred years old was not like Manman at all. He must have been confused because of fever yesterday!

And Amber, that mean woman. He didn't know what she had in mind. She even watched him take liberties with Aunt Zhang!

Was it because she loved him and couldn't get him, so she used this kind of means to deliberately disgust him?

Fuck!

Sean's face was more chilly.

The charming face seemed to be submerged by glaciers!

Seeing Aunt Zhang was going downstairs, Sean stopped her with a black face and a bit of threatening tone: "Don't say anything about last night."

Aunt Zhang nodded without hesitation and answered, "OK!"

Chapter123: Disgusting

0 5 minutes read

After ensuring no one would know that he regarded Aunt Zhang as Man Man, his face became better when he left the house although it was still gloomy.

However, Sean was still uncomfortable and he felt disgusting..

He walked away, and Aunt Zhang saw the departure of Sean disappearing in the stairway, and then she had a happy smile on her face.

Sean said he would not let Aunt Zhang go upstairs. She did not force and then went to the children's room to help Aunt Li.

Seeing her coming in, Aunt Li frowned and said, "you've gone to the third floor, haven't you? Why are you here?"

Aunt Zhang said, beaming with joy "Li, I'll tell you that I think Mrs. Smith has worried too much about if she could have her grandson."

As she said, she turned her head carefully looked at the door. After confirming that no one was there, she pressed her lips, and whispered to Aunt Li "they two seemed not to get along well on the surface. In fact, they have hot night."

"Last night, because it was too intense, the wounds on Sean's back were all cracked, and his coat was all wet with sweat and blood. Amber asked me to find the clothes in the middle of the night."

Aunt Li was surprised. As she made the bed sheets, she said: "you talk nonsense here. They have been married for three years, and the marriage relationship is not worthy of the name as we all know! It's an indisputable fact that the young master is a playboy. Besides, if what you say is true, the young master has already got the beauty like young Mistress, and he would go out and play so common? "

Aunt Li felt that Aunt Zhang had been with Mrs. Smith for too long. Like Mrs. Smith, she was expecting too much. It was a self-delusion. So Aunt Li didn't take it seriously.

Seeing that she didn't believe it, Aunt Zhang stepped forward and said, "Hey, you poor old lady, why did I cheat you? Just now, the young master threatened me not to tell anyone what happened last night."

Aunt Zhang compressed her lips. The wrinkles on her face seemed to be dancing, with all kinds of pompous expressions.

“Besides, why do you think I’m here? When I went upstairs, I was chased back by the young master.”

“When I went to deliver the clothes last night, I saw that the sheet was wet! Just now, the young master said that it’s enough to have young Mistress in the upstairs bedroom. It’s to cover up, isn’t it? “

As Aunt Zhang said, she helped Aunt Li pull the sheets in the children’s room.

Sean didn’t know that Aunt Zhang was not threatened by him. She told Aunt Li what happened last night, but it was different from the version he thought.

When he went downstairs, he saw Mother Smith and Cindy watching TV. At the position of the sofa, Tomas had a cup of coffee near him and a newspaper in his hand. The atmosphere seemed surprisingly good.

Sean sat in the dining room. The servants in the old house began to serve dishes on the table.

Tomas frowned and asked, “what about Amber? Why did you come down to dinner alone? “

Sean sniffed and sneered. He reached out and took a sip of fresh orange juice and said, “Dad, what are you talking about? Amber has legs and feet. If she was hungry, she would come down to eat.”

Tomas just wanted to open his mouth. There was a sound of footsteps coming from the stairs. Amber came down the stairs.

As soon as she went downstairs, she greeted to Father Smith and Mother Smith. The three were waiting for them. When they arrived, they all went to the table and began to eat

Rice.

In the absence of Shen Ruyun, Jiang Xue and Fang Weiwei, the three sisters-in-law, the people on the dining table were all keeping the principle of “eating without words”. Apart from the occasional communication between Amber and Cindy, there was no sound on the dining table.

Sean had a high fever last night. Even if he had been better, he had a poor appetite.

The breakfast in the old house was Western-style. Sean ate a little casually, but drank more than half of a glass of orange juice.

Just as he put down the tableware, he suddenly had eye contact with Aunt Zhang. She stood behind Tomas, saw him look over, and smiled at Sean.

The wrinkles on Aunt Zhang’s face were twisted together, and she beamed.

When Sean went back to the old house before, Aunt Zhang and Aunt Li smiled all the time. But when she smiled at him this time, Sean only felt sick!

Unable to resist, he suddenly stooped down and vomited all the food he had just eaten into his stomach.

Mother Smith was shocked by Sean. She was not in the mood to eat. She stood up at once, walked to her son's side, and wanted to reach out to pat Sean's back. But she was afraid of his injury. Her hand hung in the air and was put down.

"Why did you vomit at dinner? Is the temperature of the air conditioner set too low at night so you catch cold? "

After Sean vomiting, the stomach was empty, but the desire for vomit was still there. He retched to the garbage can, and the smell spread. Sean was a neat freak. Now, he felt more and more disgusting.

Mother Smith looked distressed.

Her son got a whip because of Amber. He can't see a doctor and even got cold at night. Even if he had iron body, he couldn't stand!

"Amber, what's the matter? He's injured. Why didn't you take good care of him last night? "

Amber was feeding Cindy a meal. Mother Smith's voice was still sounding:

"If you had made it clear yesterday, would Sean have been whipped? You make him feel terrible on purpose, don't you? "

Mother Smith's eyes suddenly red, while the hand Amber holding the bowl tightened.

She took care of Sean for most of the night yesterday. When she got up in the morning, Sean was fine, but her awareness wasn't very nice. When she saw things, she even can't see them clearly.

Being in trouble by Sean, she also had to deal with Mother Smith.

Amber took a deep breath, showing a little tired.

"Even if you are dissatisfied with Sean, you should not make fun of his body at this juncture!"

"Enough! A Ru, there is nothing to do with Amber. "

Tomas scolded Mrs. Smith, "the weather is not so cold. As for the air conditioning temperature, it is also set in advance by Aunt Zhang them. How can he catch cold?"

Because of the maintenance of Tomas, the atmosphere on the dining table suddenly changed sharply, and Mother Smith's face went black: "what do you mean? My son deserves it, right? "

"In this family, I have no right to ask questions..."

Amber reached out her hand to hold Mother Smith subconsciously. She didn't know the reason why Sean vomited.

She didn't want Mother Smith and Tomas to quarrel. Amber had to admit that. She said: "Mom, Dad, I'm sorry. I didn't take good care of Sean."

Sean felt that his ears were buzzing, and his disgusting feeling was not relieved. Instead, his ears were buzzing.

He suddenly stood up, pushed aside Mother Smith standing in front of him, and went straight to the main bedroom on the third floor.

Sean was a serious neat freak. Even if he had close contact with Amber, he would feel uncomfortable, let alone a person like Aunt Zhang!

Chapter 124: I Will Destroy Your Love Token With Lin Man!

0 5 minutes read

He went into the bathroom as quickly as wind blew, squeezed toothpaste on his toothbrush and repeatedly brushed his teeth inside and outside for more than 20 minutes. When the blood came out of his gums and the pain was unbearable, the feeling of nausea was weakened a little.

After Sean left, the atmosphere in the restaurant stagnated for a moment.

Since Sean went to vomit, all the people that were having happy dinner now had no mood to eat any more.

Several people sat down in the living room and waited for 20 minutes. When they found that Sean still hadn't returned, Sean's mother was anxious and paced back and forth in the stairway.

She understood Sean's character and did not dare to disturb him. She could do nothing but worry about it.

Since Amber had Cindy, she began to understand the character as a mother. She got up from the sofa, walked to the stairway and held Sean's mother's shoulder, "Mom, I'll go upstairs and have a look. Don't worry. You can just go to the sofa and sit with dad for a while."

Actually Sean's mother had something to complain about Amber in her heart, but sometimes she admired her very much. Knowing the situation of Sean, Amber still dared to go upstairs, which might provoke Sean.

She let Amber go, "OK, go ahead. And if the situation is not right, just come down!"

Amber nodded.

When she came to the bedroom, Sean was changing clothes. His upper body was bare with his strong chest wrapped with gauze and his beautiful mermaid thread was hidden in the seam of the trousers.

Sean's face somehow looked particularly pale. His temperament was a bit confused.

The characteristics that were sexy, flirtatious, weak, pale, cold and arrogant made him handsome and look like a God from the sky.

Sean reached for a white shirt on his bed and buttoned it and squinted at Amber.

A row of buttons buttoned up, he casually rolled the shirt sleeve and walked out towards the bedroom door.

Amber responded quickly and moved sideways in front of Sean to stop him .

Sean stopped moving, sneered slightly and reached out to straighten a shirt collar. Then he slowly said, "Is there anything else you wanna chat with me, Mrs. Smith?"

Mrs. Smith.

Amber unconsciously repeated these two words and all she could feel was the irony attitude when Sean said so.

She took a deep breath, without beating around the bush, and explained her intention directly to Sean.

"Sean, the market will open at 9:30. Smith's stock can't fall any more. Yesterday's scandal must be clarified before 9:30..."

His face was hidden in the dark light and his chin looked sharp and thin, which made his expression look cold.

With a sneer, he said, "Since Mrs. Smith is so capable, I am sure that you can clarify it yourself, right? Don't forget that it was you who promised in order to please my father last night."

Sean reached out to slightly push Amber's arm forward. Amber followed him closely and said, "I will clarify!"

"Mrs. Smith, you have such a good genius and can make promises everywhere. I guess you can deal with such a little affair without my help and cooperation."

Each step Sean took was quite big. It was hard for Amber who was wearing a high-heeled shoe to catch up with Sean. She reached out and tried to grab him. Hardly had her fingertips touched his shoulder when he pushed her aside with great strength.

"Don't touch me!" He shouted.

She stumbled, with a little embarrassment stabilized her figure and bit her lower lip, "I'll deal with this myself."

After Sean had taken care of Sean for most of the evening, her face was a little haggard, which even could not be hidden by her makeup.

Sean's eyebrows twisted.

Since she could deal with it by herself, why did she come upstairs to talk with him?

In order to say such crabs?

Impossible!

After preparing for such a long time, what exactly did she want to do?

Sean was just calm and took it leisurely and unoppressively. His sight fell on Amber. It seemed that he couldn't see her vulnerability, or, he could see, but he didn't care.

Amber moved her toes, reached for the wall and held out the tip of her pink tongue to lick her lip, "Sean, I may not be able to send Cindy to school this morning. Can you help me?"

Sean suddenly remembered what Amber said last night when she was threatening him in the study on the first floor.

His eyebrows, which were originally shallow and wrinkled, were suddenly tightened together. It looked like that there was a deep ocean between his eyebrows.

“Amber, are you asking me to help you take care of your children?”

Amber’s idea was so good. She wanted him to send Cindy to the school so that he could explain for her to teachers that Cindy was not her illegitimate daughter.

Now he understood why Amber agreed with Cindy to come here since she had been very opposed to do so.

All was in her plan.

She just needed to come back here once and her daughter would have a father and could go to school. Her identity of Mrs. Smith would thus be more stable.

Without paying anything, she could earn so much!

Splendid! Very impressive!

Sean was even ready to clap for her!

“Sean, don’t forget that you promised me to apologize to Mrs. Yue and help Cindy to go to school.”

Amber was still doing in the way that though she was speaking softly, what she said was full of threats.

Was it true that she was also doing like this when she used some tricks to marry him? Maybe that time she also took the baby as a valuable chip to threaten Smith Family.

Thinking of this, Sean had a strong antipathy. He was born to be a proud son of nature and had been never upset by others. Even his parents rarely threatened him!

He never thought he would fall into her hands and be always threatened by her!

Restraining the anger in heart, he stared at Amber and didn’t say a word.

But Amber moved. She took out a watch from the only pocket on her skirt.

The indifferent on Sean’s face suddenly disappeared, and the breath was also tightly stopped. In his pupil like black jades, only the outline of the watch was clearly reflected.

When Amber was not careful, he quickly moved forward. Subconsciously he stretched out his hand to catch it, but Amber also moved away. She raised her hand and leaned the watch against the edge of the wall. The starlight at the bottom of her eyes was extinguished, with some imperceptible gloom:

“Sean, if you do it again, I will smash it!”

Her body line was tight and her eyes were firm and fierce. Obviously, she was not joking, which made Sean forget what to do. He just stood there as if he was frozen.

“What do you want to do?”

Amber smiled and said, "I will still say that, Sean, if you can't do what you promised, I will destroy your love token with Lin Man."

Sean's pupil contracted violently. Amber's words were like a pair of big hands that were tightly holding his heart, which even made his breath become particularly difficult.

Amber had thought that Sean would be greatly angry, and might even smash everything he could touch.

But he didn't. After a long silence, Sean suddenly smiled. His eyes were scarlet, "OK! Amber! You are so good!"

Chapter 125: Mom, I Don't Want to Go to School Today

0 4 minutes read

Sean had really grown up a lot and got mature. He began to become less emotional and more stable.

But the causes of all these changes had nothing to do with her!

Amber's heart was hurt a little, and she said with a light smile, "So Sean, do you promise me?"

As soon as she uttered this sentence, Sean's eyebrows twisted. He sneered and walked downstairs with his hands off.

In the corridor on the third floor, Amber's eyes followed the shadow of Sean, and it took her a long time to keep up with the pace of him.

She knew that he would compromise as long as she threatened him with this watch, but at this moment, Amber was still sad.

Sean went downstairs with a gloomy face. He didn't go out directly. His parents couldn't help but look at each other. They just felt surprised.

Sean was standing beside the noble green plants in the room, and his face was hidden in the dim light, thus his expression was hard to be seen clearly.

Amber then walked down. She put down her hand holding the skirt, said hello to Sean's parents and led Cindy out of the villa.

Seeing her action, Sean walked out in advance.

Cindy's mood looked very low. When they went to the open space outside the villa, Amber squatted down and asked her, "What's wrong with you? You look very unhappy."

"Mom, I don't want to go to school today." Cindy said timidly. She clasped her fleshy hands on the shoulder straps of her schoolbag and looked depressed.

Cindy had been only living with her mother since she was young. She was sensitive. Thinking about what had happened yesterday, she was still afraid.

Amber put her hand on Cindy and said, "Cindy, you always have wanted dad to send you to school, haven't you?"

Cindy's eyes brightened. She licked the tip of her pink tongue and looked at Amber hopefully.

At bottom, Amber was too weak to give Cindy what she wanted!

Amber's heart trembled, and her smile faded. She reached out to Cindy and straightened her collar, saying, "I have something to do today, so I can't take you to school. Just let dad take you, OK?"

Cindy hesitated a little. Looking at the smile on mother's face, she also smiled happily and nodded heavily.

There was the sound of the car whistle behind them. Amber looked back. Sean's face was in the window which was refracted into many colors by the scattered sunlight, but the coldness of his face was still not softened.

Amber leaned down and carried Cindy to Sean's car.

She leaned over, buckled Cindy's seat belt and whispered, "Cindy, be obedient today and listen to your father, ok?"

Cindy nodded. She looked up and showed a bright smile, "I know, mom!"

Hearing the talk between them, Sean turned back and looked in the direction of Amber.

She leaned half of her body into the car and buckled Cindy's seat belt. Her pink skirt had a large neckline. His eyes suddenly were fixed on the white skin.

His pupils suddenly shrank and opened at once.

His eyebrow flashed a little disgust, and his lips tightened into a straight line.

How could such a cheap woman wear so fancy clothes today?!

Was she going to work in the company or the bar?!

As Mrs. Smith, what she did was always something that disgrace Smith Family!

Sean felt greatly displeased. Some blue veins stood out on his hands that were holding the steering wheel, which were hidden in his cuffs.

When in a bad mood, even the whisper of Amber would irritate him .

Are you OK?!"

He was a little impatient in his tone. Amber lifted her long hair and turned to look at him.

She didn't care about the unhappiness showed by Sean, but put said in a very soft voice, "Sean, I don't want to make a big thing out of the affair about Cindy's study."

"I know you don't care to apologize to Mrs. Yue. There are ten thousand ways for you to get rid of Mrs. Yue, but this time, I request you to keep a low profile."

Hearing this, Sean only wanted to laugh.

Now she was acting like a good person. But it was she who wanted to destroy the love token between Sean and Lin Man.

How could she still say that it was a request since she had made such a shameless threat.

Moreover, why did he have to listen to her? Yue couple didn't even have the qualification to lift shoes for him. Did they deserve his apology?!

Sean looked down, with a slight warmth.

"Director White now is teaching me how to deal with it, right? Shall I give you the position of president?"

It was too hard for Amber to bend over. She stood up straight after she had buckled Cindy's seat belt.

The sun outside was very big. When it shone on Amber's face, she looked very beautiful with her skirt on, which also weakened her usual sharp and cold.

There seemed to be a deep sea in her eyes. She was so emotional that Sean couldn't understand.

Amber twisted her brow and said in a low voice, "Sean, you don't need to satirize me. I'm still saying that if things get serious, I'll smash that watch!"

Hearing this word, Sean's eyes were as cool as frost and snow. His hands holding the steering wheel were using more strength.

"Amber White, you'd better have the good on me all the time!"

After saying so, regardless of whether the copilot's door was closed or not, he suddenly stepped on the accelerator.

When Amber found something wrong with Sean and wanted to avoid it, it was too late!

Her skirt was scratched by the rich car of Sean. With a clear and melodious sound, the skirt was torn up and had a huge opening. Summer breeze poured in along this gap, which made Amber's heart cool for some reason.

The skirt that was originally knee length now was torn off a piece of cloth, which could only cover the private parts of her body.

She looked up in the direction of the car. Suddenly the excellent Maserati made a loud and sharp brake sound.

Sean that had a tall, big and strong figure opened the door to get out of the car, walked to the front passenger's position and shut the open door.

He returned to the driver's seat. It seemed that there were heavy waves on his face.

He was angry at that Amber threatened him again!

But he was so cheap that he still got out of the car to help her daughter close the door.

Restarting the car, Sean turned a livid face with rage. He cursed in his heart!

He turned his head to look at the lovely girl Cindy. He told himself that he didn't love Amber's daughter and he only loved his car.

What he was thinking was that if he sold Cindy, whether the money he received could afford his car.

Chapter 126: Fighting Is Because of Affection And Scolding Is Because of Love

0 5 minutes read

Sean just looked better. Cindy took a look at Amber through the rear-view mirror, then tilted her head, looked at Sean, and asked, "Dad, were you fighting with mom just now?"

Sean looked at the road attentively, heard what she said and snorted, as if he was answering Cindy.

Cindy pressed her lips, reached out her little hand and rubbed her eyes. Suddenly, a smile appeared on her face:

"Dad, I heard Xiaopang say that fighting is because of affection and scolding is because of love. Don't be angry with your mom. She is expressing her love for you!"

Sean was extremely speechless.

What the hell was Cindy talking about?!

If he had a little position in Amber's heart, he would not be threatened by her so often!

Besides, there were countless famous debutantes in Tongcheng who loved him. Which one didn't surpass Amber a lot?

Sean felt wronged and his eyes gazing at the road were gloomy.

Early in the morning, Amber almost angered him to death. There was a lot of depression accumulated in his heart. Even if Cindy asked him a lot of questions, he didn't have any meaning to respond.

Since they met, Cindy has been used to Sean's coldness, and she didn't mind.

At this time, it was not rush hour. Sean soon drove to the gate of Golden Sunshine Kindergarten.

There were so many cars at the gate. Sean chose a place randomly and parked his car, then took Cindy out.

Then he reached out and took out the little backpack she left in the back seat.

Cindy and Sean has been walking one behind the other one. Sean's hand suddenly warmed. He subconsciously looked down and saw Cindy holding his hand.

Sensing Sean's vision, Cindy put a big smile on her face.

Sean's fingertips warmed, and the fingertips held by Cindy seemed to be stiff and turn into stones.

"Dad, mom always takes my hand when she sends me to school!"

When it came to Amber, Sean's face was covered with a layer of coolness. He squinted his narrow eyes. His vision was submerged in the crowds,

He subconsciously wanted to take out his fingers. He was not really Cindy's father. It was already his benevolence to send her to school and solve her school problem!

When Sean drawn his fingers out half, he suddenly felt that the grip on his hand tightened.

Sean was angry. When he looked down at Cindy, his eyes bumped into a pair of clear and joyful eyes.

He paused, turned his head away and stopped his action.

There were many people around. In case Cindy was lost, it would be a great problem that whether the love token belonged to Manman and him could be taken back. Maybe Amber would put up a desperate fight with him.

The man's eyelashes pressed down, covering the emotion in his eyes and then he led Cindy towards the school.

"Daddy! I see Xiaopang. "

Cindy shook Sean's arm, and Sean looked in the direction she pointed.

It was the Yues who were walking to the school gate with Xiaopang in their arms. The child in their arms had a plaster cast on his leg and they were walking towards them.

Sean's eyebrows were bulging.

He suddenly remembered what Amber said before he went out.

She asked him to apologize and not to turn the matter into a big one!

Sean really looked down on the Yues' moral quality. Apologizing to such a couple was a shame to him.

But if this problem couldn't be solved, Amber that crazy woman may smash his watch that sent by Manman. Even if he could strangle Amber, would it make up for his loss?

Sean only felt that his heart seemed to be drowning in the water. He was forced by Amber to give up what he wanted to do, and to do what he didn't want to do.

He put his five fingers together, then looked up at the almost pale sky. His feet were like rooting in situ, motionless.

Over the years, Sean has been used to being begged, apologized, thanked and begged for mercy. He once was sick of these, but if he was really asked to say these to others. His proud dignity would really not allow him to do this!

Sean didn't move, but the Yues didn't stop at the same place. Originally, Mrs. Yue didn't pay attention to the two of them, but Sean's face was too dazzling.

He was a natural luminescent man. Even if he didn't speak, his sense of existence may not be able to weaken.

As soon as she got closer, Mrs. Yue stopped and glanced up and down at Sean with contempt.

“Well, Amber, that damn woman, really brought you here. Are you here to apologize today?”

The blue tendons on Sean’s forehead jumped abruptly. Thinking about the soft spot that Amber was holding, His eyes were dark and he defaulted.

Mrs. Yue reached up, reached out her thick arm, and tried to touch Sean’s face. Her mouth corner raised, and she said, “This toy boy is really similar to Sean.”

Sean took Cindy back a step and avoided Mrs. Yue’s action. The disgust in his eyes didn’t hide at all and it poured out of his narrow eyes.

Mrs. Yue’s face was suddenly cloudy, and she gave a cold smile, pointed at Mr. Yue with her fingers with nail polish.

“My son’s leg was broken by this little wild bitch. It’s easy to end this matter. You take her with you and kneel at the gate of this kindergarten all morning.”

When she spoke, her face was glowing and her eyebrows were dancing.

She thought, what was Sean’s identity? Could he really come here and apologize to them?

In the police station, the man was so tough and said he would sue her!

Sure enough, Mrs. Yue wouldn’t let go of the humiliating opportunity at the time.

As soon as she said that, Sean’s face darkened, and and the anger he bore the whole day burst out!

“Kneel? I’m afraid you can’t take it!”

Sean’s words were simple and light, without any appearance of fierceness. But when they were pressed on the Yues, they had the power of thunder.

“I can’t take it? Do you know who I am? Isn’t Amber that bitch just trying to keep this little bastard studying in Golden Sunshine? I tell you, if you don’t kneel today, I will let this little bastard not have a chance to study in Tongcheng!”

With that, Mrs. Yue spat on the ground, and then said, “What is you? You think you look like Sean, then you are Sean? You think I can’t find out your trick? You are just an extras hired by that bitch for hundreds of dollars.”

Mrs. Yue’s words were very unpleasant to hear. Sean’s eyes lowered and his movements were getting slow. Obviously, he has been angered by Mrs. Yue!

But that woman didn’t feel it, she even screamed: “Who gives you the courage to threaten to sue me in the police station? Bah! A fake gigolo dares to argue with me!”

Chapter 127: Yes! I Am An Extra

0 5 minutes read

The expression on Sean's face was instantly torn apart, and there was a strong danger in his eyes!

He smiled suddenly and weirdly, his gaze was like a poisoned sharp knife, and made the couple of the Yue family scared and they felt that they were captured by a wild beast.

"You are not allowed to scold my parents!"

Although Cindy was a little scared, she stretched out her hands and blocked them in front of Sean.

Her small body stood in front of the couple of the Yue family, liked a chick that just being hatched.

Mrs. Yue was originally startled by Sean's eyes, but Cindy's words made her instantly return to herself.

Realizing that she was almost frightened by a small actor, Mrs. Yue was angry and vented all these angers on Cindy.

If it's not for Cindy this little bitch, how could her son have a fracture?

Thinking about it this way, Mrs. Yue showed a long face, her voice shattered and her voice was sharp.

"If you didn't speak, I almost forgot you." Mrs. Yue reached out to take over Xiao Pang, and said to Mr. Yue: "Dear, since they are not willing to apologize, then we should let them realize their mistake. You should make her have a fracture too, then we can see it as she returned to my son! "

"Okay!"

Obviously, Mr. Yue was also very angry, and he answered with a sullen expression on his face, holding Cindy's little arm, and holding her up from the ground, he was about to smash her into the ground.

There were people watching them around, Sean did not expect that the Yue couple would be so arrogant. Almost as soon as Mr. Yue moved, Sean reached out subconsciously to pick her up.

Mr. Yue's strength was strong, and Sean's movement was fast enough. Cindy was smashed into his arms, and a pain from his back was caused by the wound.

Sean took a deep breath, and pain caused a layer of cold sweat on his forehead.

He hugged Cindy tightly and looked down at the child in his arms, she was seeming to be scared. Her face was pale, her tears would almost fall, and there was a strong feeling on her face.

Sean had a momentary surprise. If someone else's child experienced this, they must be afraid and cried, but Cindy just gritted her teeth without saying a word.

She didn't make any trouble for Sean at all.

He put Cindy down, and his gaze toward Mrs. Yue seemed to be frozen in ice, there's chill in his eyes.

He stood up, moved his back which because of bleeding, and became a little sticky, his lips were tight.

She was a little flustered by him. Mrs. Yue stepped back two steps, holding her fatty, and said to Sean, "Oh, where did Amber White invite such a professional extras, so what? You do not let my husband do it. Are you going to kneel for mercy? "

Sean had never been so aggrieved. He can always get what he wants. If he didn't care about the watch, Mrs. Yue had no opportunity to speak.

He could bear them until now, and even Sean himself felt incredible.

After Mrs. Yue's words finished, he sneered, and pulled out the thin cell phone from his trousers pocket. He called and sneered, "Yes, I'm an extra, a hundred dollars a day!"

Today, he would teach them how to be courtesy, let them know and experience the feeling when they were looked down!

As soon as the words were finished, the phone was connected and he tilted his head and glanced at Mrs. Yue who was about to speak. The thin lips were lifted and spit out a few words, "Give you half an hour to buy the HG construction, and fire all members of the Yue family!"

As soon as Sean's instructions were reached, he hang up the phone, and his handsome face was gloomy.

He raised his hand and stared at Mrs. Yue's family with a dark look: "I want you to disappear in Tongcheng forever!"

Mrs. Yue sneered, she just felt that Sean was acting, and he wanted to scare them away!

Since fatty's legs had been broken, Mrs. Yue did not intend to let him suffer in vain!

"Although your acting skills are very good! I won't be frightened!"

Mrs. Yue was not afraid of him and refuted. She didn't know much, but Jin Yangguang had a good geographical location, and many children from rich family also went to school here.

Many of them knew Sean.

"He's not an extra The shirt on his body is from Eileen, Italy's top clothing designer! A general extra can't afford it."

"So, if you are not well-educated, you must read more, even if it is a magazine, you should read more, so that you can avoid this kind of mistakes!"

"Can Sean's identity and face be duplicated? The reason is originally on their side, you don't talk well, just kept asking for compensation, you can't blame others!"

"You are really brave!"

The surrounding discussions were one after another, and many people looked at the couple of the Yue family with pity.

Mrs. Yue was afraid now. Even Mr. Yue started shaking when he heard the sound of discussion.

If only one or two people said that Sean was true, Mrs. Yue may not believe it, but a group of people looked at her with pity, it's enough for her to realize the truth for a while!

And for Sean, after condemning the sin of Mrs. Yue's family, he led Cindy into the gate of the kindergarten.

“Dad, you have bleeding on your back and you should go to the hospital.”

Sean’s face was covered with a fine wave.

He had just asked Xu Lin to resolve the Yue family, and the anger was still there, but Cindy was not afraid at all.

Seeing that he did not respond, Cindy said it again.

As soon as she reminded, Sean felt that the injury on his back was even more painful.

Amber’s daughter was more sweet than Amber.

Sean had just finished praising Cindy in his heart, and then he thought that if Cindy did this because she was learning from Amber?

No one would know if she asked Cindy to do this to deliberately confuse him?

He loosened his hand which was holding Cindy, found out the cigarette case from his trousers pocket, took one into his mouth, and continued to move forward.

“After solving your school problem, I still have to report to Amber!”

The implication was that he didn’t have time to go to the hospital for his injury, but Cindy was a three-year-old child. She couldn’t understand these words, and she had a way of understanding in her heart.

Her eyes were very bright and she asked, “Dad, you listen to Mom so much, do you care about Mom very much?”

Sean sneered and curved his lips. His handsome face became the only bright color in Cindy’s eyes.

Sean said something meaningfully:

“Yes!”

He only cared about the watch which was given by Manman before!

Otherwise, he had time with a little stupid girl, and wasted his time with a group of fools?

The Smith Building.

As soon as Lu Yi entered the company, his colleague who met him greeted him with a smile.

He stopped a man and asked, “Did Director White come to the company?”

Chapter 128: Just For Abusing His Wife, He Would Be Without All His Assets

0 5 minutes read

The pulled woman blushed slightly: “Here, she’s in the public relations department.”

“Thank you.”

Lu Yi thanked her and went straight to the public relations department.

Amber was indeed in his office. When he entered the door, she was looking down at Twitter, and the news of Sean abusing his wife was still topped on Twitter in the middle of the night.

After a day, there’s no signs of cooling down, it seemed to be getting worse.

Many people were convinced that Sean abused his wife, thinking that he was a well-dressed scum!

Hearing footsteps, Amber raised her head and glanced at Lu Yi.

Facing her sight, Lu Yi handed the recording pen in his hand to Amber, and said, “I went to the police station. This is the testimony of the taxi driver. Listen to it.”

Amber took it and played it.

The taxi driver confessed to beating Amber, admitting that he wanted to rape her when he saw her and seeing that Amber was not cooperating, he punched and kicked her.

Although the order of the words in the recording pen was not very clear, it was enough to show that Amber was not abused by Sean.

Putting the recording pen on the table, Lu Yi poured himself a glass of water, and whispered, “Do you want to publish this confession information? To clarify the news that Sean abused his wife?”

Amber nodded, and tapped her fingertips on the table.

“Not news, it’s a fake scandal.”

She clearly wore a skirt with a feminine temperament, and she was sitting in the office with a bit more obvious sharpness and her unique ability.

Lu Yi stood for a while, he felt funny: “Scandal? Sean did not abuse you, but what is the difference between the pain and torture he gave you?”

“In fact, you can take this opportunity to divorce Sean. If he abuses his wife, he will have to leave the house without all his assets.”

Amber compressed the corners of her lips. The people around her had already said more than once that she should be divorced from Sean. If she wanted to talk about it, now was indeed a good time.

Seeing Amber’s silence, Lu Yi’s eyes darkened, then he said:

“Amber, you have suffered so much with him. Now Cindy is already not very young, and she will soon understand the truth. Your fictional happy family will be destroyed, and you don’t need to aggravate yourself.”

“Amber, divorce him!”

An excellent person like Amber will definitely have a colorful life after leaving Sean. On Sean, she had wasted too much youth and was not worth it.

If Amber willing to take this step, Lu Yi believed that not only him, many people will be happy to see it happen.

Amber held the recording pen and clicked on the table. A light smile was on her face. Her expression was too complex and Lu Yi can't figure it out the true meaning of her actions and expressions.

She was always incomprehensible, and only in front of Sean, she will occasionally show affection and love!

According to this point, Lu Yi felt that Sean did not deserve Amber's unconditional payment!

"Lu Yi, I can't do such a conscientious thing. Even if I really want to divorce, I can't do this at this time."

The smile on Amber's lips was faint, and the words spoken were even more ambiguous. It seemed like there was a divorce intention, but it was not the same thing.

Lu Yi's eyebrows tightened, he knew Amber, and knew this life, there was only such a thing that will make Amber hesitate.

Amber's mobile phone rang, and she took a glance at the phone, and a deeper smile appeared between her lips.

Lu Yi's eyebrows tightened, and he looked in the direction of Amber, and Amber pushed the mobile phone in his direction and said, "Only the taxi driver's confession is not enough. Please ask someone to spread this video out. "

"Video?"

Lu Yi was a little surprised, glanced down at the phone screen.

The person who sent the message was Lu Xiangxiang. He took Amber's mobile phone and opened it for a look.

In the video, the man who was holding the child and pointing at the couple of the Yue family was Sean!

"This is.....?"

Lu Yi's eyebrows tightened even more, he pointed to the screen of the mobile phone, and whispered, "Such people, Sean would definitely not contact with them, what's the matter?"

Amber stood up from Lu Yi's position, and said the matter again in a calm tone.

In recent years, Lu Yi knew clearly about Sean's attitude towards Amber. He was even more surprised to hear that Sean was going to handle Cindy's schooling matter.

"It's really surprised me. Can he do such a trivial matter?"

Amber felt hurt at this moment.

Sean's compromise was, of course, conditional.

But this condition was only known to her.

Amber's expression clearly revealed the unspeakable concealment. After Lu Yi asked it, he regretted, he could guess that Sean had made trouble with Amber, and he could guess that Amber had suffered some unknown grievances ...

Lu Yi licked the corner of his lips and shifted the topic: "Since we want to zoom in, we will choose an eye-catching gimmick. Let me think ..."

"No, at this time, it's really best to return to normal." Amber paused, lifted her lips, and spit out the long-awaited title: "Sean Smith throws a lot of money to cheer his wife!"

Lu Yi paused, and Amber said, "The scandal has a great impact on the Smith group. As soon as the video and confession materials are released, I will recover all these losses!"

"You really....."

"Lu Yi, I have decided." Amber blocked his words.

Lu Yi nodded, accepted the video, and then hesitated: "This video ..."

How did it get here? Did Sean know that?

Lu Yi asked two words, and the rest of his words paused in his mouth.

He didn't finish, and Amber didn't answer.

But according to Amber's reaction, Lu Yi guessed the whole thing in an instant.

In his life, he rarely saw a woman who could be as clever as Amber. All the troubles in front of her would always be solved.

Just being able to play the entire network and confuse everyone had convinced him!

But such a clever and unparalleled woman, she was conscientious and devoted to planning for a man who did not love her.

Lu Yi really didn't know whether he should sigh for Sean's stupid, or for Amber's contribution worthless.

She paid so much, and Sean ignored those at all. Amber asked him to send his daughter to school for a while, and she still needed to work hard!

Lu Yi put away many ideas in his heart, sat down in front of the computer, and began to organize manuscripts.

"Amber, I mean step by step, we can upload separately the two documents.

The confession information directly to the newspaper, do not post the video with the confession. "

"Will that credibility be a little clearer?"

The Smith group was a business kingdom, and the public relations department was the facade of this empire. Lu Yi can sit in this position and handle things with the inertia thinking that maximizes profitability.

The questions he mentioned were also straightforward!

Amber was slightly surprised, and then nodded: "As long as Sean's reputation can be preserved, everything can be done."

Chapter 129: Uh? Do You Adore Amber So Much?

0 5 minutes read

Sean didn't go to the hospital after dealing with Cindy's matter, but went straight back to the company, it was eleven o'clock in the morning when he arrived at the Smith Group.

Because the scandal that he maltreated his wife was still spreading, the atmosphere of the Smith Group was particularly dignified, even in the Secretary's Office.

After returning to the office, Sean gave a call by the internal phone system and asked Lin to come in.

Lin thought Sean was going to ask about the acquisition of HG, when he came in, he still had a report in his hand, handing him the documents and reporting the progress to him.

"President, HG has changed its name. I've got their inside information, the whole system collapsed and few employees could work diligently. It is....."

It was simply a hopeless empty shell.....

"Get me a copy of today's entertainment newspaper."

Sean interrupted his report with indifference, the young assistant was stunned by what Sean said.

Sean sneered.

Did it matter to him whether HG was dead or alive?

He had long since known that the HG's evaluation in the industry was not very good. And he asked Lin to buy it not to expect it to make money, but to fix some people!

And now, what Sean cared most about was how omnipotent Director White stopped the spread of his scandal!

She promised the old man that she would take care of it, it was irrational that there was no change now.

Although Lin didn't know what Sean wanted to do, he obediently went to the Secretary's Office to ask for an entertainment newspaper and gave it to Sean.

The first page of the newspaper was news that clarifying the news that Sean maltreated his wife. When Yi came out of the police station, he not only got the recordings of that the taxi driver admitted that Sean maltreated Amber, but also a copy of the confession notes from the police station.

It was stamped with the official seal of the police station.

The irrefutable proof was very persuasive, it was at least 70% likely to turn this matter around.

What was published in the newspaper at present was just this.

Sean took a deep breath and lighted a cigarette by the way.

Since he was mingling with Amber, nothing had made him feel comfortable.

Lin who was next to him saw the clarifying announcement in the newspaper and instantly understood Sean's intentions.

He tossed about so long just for wanting to see Director White's ability to handle affairs.

"President, as soon as Director White arrived at the company today, she was dealing with this news. The Marketing Department just called to say that the Smith Group's stock price is no longer in a state of continuous decline, but is gradually rising."

An ingratiating smile on Lin's face, "Thanks to Director White."

Sean hesitated for a moment and looked at Lin with cold eyes, "Uh? Do you adore Amber so much? Shall I transfer you to work with her?"

Lin fell silent instantly.

He glanced at Sean. Just now, he praised Director White so smoothly that he forgot that the president hated that someone praised Director White in front of him.

Sean looked peaceful, it didn't know if Amber handled the matter to his liking.

His mood finally got better after a lot of bad things.

He raised his lips, he was even in leisurely and carefree mood so that he browsed the other pages of the newspaper.

It was Amber who made this matter happen, but he was inexplicably wronged. It was not excessive of him to let Amber deal with the matter.

Lin praised Amber in front of him because of this matter, did he still want him to thank her?

Ridiculous!

Sean was sitting in a soft office chair, the sunlight seeping into the room made the coldness on his face disappear, which showed the rare softness.

Once again, Lin felt that Director White had the means.

Sean didn't know what Lin was thinking, he frowned when he looked up and saw that he was still there, "Why are you still here? Do you have too little work to do? Or are you waiting for me to transfer you to the Marketing Department?"

Lin smiled awkwardly, ".....I'm going to work now."

After that, he turned around and walked out of Sean's office quickly.

The office was quiet again, Sean moved his body. The wound on his back split and seemed to bleed, which made him particularly uncomfortable.

The scandal that he maltreated his wife was being stopped. Sean considered that if he went to the hospital now, he might intensify the conflict. So he directly leaned back against the chair and closed his eyes.

With his eyes closed, Sean thought of Amber again. She had long since known how to deal with it, but she didn't do it until now, which made him get whipped and clean up the mess for her!

What was the use of the Public Relations Officer having the means? No femininity at all!

She couldn't match anything of Manman.

When he was thinking about whether to call a doctor to change dressing for him, Jinyan called him.

Sean was thinking that he and Jiayan were both bosses, why were they so different? How could Jinyan be so free?! How could he squeeze time out of his busy schedule to call him?

Probably because there was no trouble maker like Amber around him!

As soon as the call was answered, Sean teased him in a rare good mood,

“What's up?”

“Smith, you're really having fun now! You have just been transferred to the Smith Group for a few days, but every page of the newspaper is about you. I'm tired of watching it. Fortunately, something new happened today!”

His voice as usual, did not care. What he said made people want to hit him.

Sean had read the newspaper, so he thought he was going to talk about the matter that the scandal that he maltreated his wife was clarified. So he pressed his lips tightly and didn't answer.

“Spend money on your beloved wife like water? Uh? Only a month after you came back, did you find that my sister-in-law was your favorite?”

Jinyan's laughters came from the phone, Sean was stunned by what he said.

The beloved wife?

There must be something wrong with Jinyan's eyes. The atmosphere between him and Amber had long since become mutually exclusive, the beloved wife?

Bullshit!

He loved Amber was less believable than he loved a pig!

Sean whispered in his heart for a moment and then sneered, “Your head kicked by a donkey? The sister-in-law? You called her the sister-in-law so smoothly, have I acknowledged Amber's status in the Smith family?”

Jinyan raised the eyebrows. In Tongcheng, Jinyan was probably the one who was not afraid of Sean.

“Don't recognize her status? Even if you don't recognize her status, you still buy the HG because of her!”

“When I asked you to buy the GR with me, you didn’t like it! How potential the GR is! Instead, what about the HG?”

“Smith, how can I never know that you are such a silly person? You can even buy garbage like the HG.”

“How interesting.....If you are not in love with Amber, it can only show that your head was kicked by the donkey.”

Jinyan kept talking.

Sean stunned in an instant.

Chapter 130: She Did Hang Up His Call?!

0 5 minutes read

The acquisition of HG construction was a temporary intent after Sean’s dispute with Mrs. Yue’s family at Golden Sunshine Kindergarten.

The actual acquisition had been successful for less than half an hour and had not been announced.

Even within Smith group, those who really knew about it were the few who had started to do it.

How did Gu Jinyan know this?

He was amazed and frowned deeply, “How do you know it?”

“How else can I know? I just saw it on TV!”

Gu Jinyan sneered: “Why, you don’t watch Smith group’s own press conference?”

Gu Jinyan understood the seriousness in Sean’s tone, and he had labeled him a silly label!

GR Construction was well-known in all construction companies in Tongcheng. There was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to be placed in front of him, but he didn’t catch it.

Were he going to buy a shell company!

It’s so interesting!

Sean stunned after hearing Gu Jinyan’s words.

Smith group’s conference?

He didn’t tell Xu Lin to announce this matter, that was, he was worried that someone would talk about it. Why did Gu Jinyan mean that everyone knew it now?

Bo Yun twisted his eyebrows deeply, stretched out the drawer at hand, touched the TV remote control, and turned on the TV.

He rarely watched TV on average, and why he would install one in the office was t keep it for occasional needs.

After all, most of industries in Smith group were films and television series. If occasionally there were important press conferences, he had no time to participate, but he still had to watch.

As soon as the TV turned on, Sean followed the instructions of Gu Jinyan and found the financial channel.

Upon finding that channel, Sean first saw Lu Yi's face. Under the light, Lu Yi's body was outlined longer, with a felling of a modest gentleman.

He stood alone on the podium, very humble, then he played a video as usual.

Sean squinted his eyes, and his face was a little angry.

The video was the part where Sean was at the gate of Jinyanguang Kindergarten and he had a dispute with Mrs. Yue. Sean said a few words throughout the whole process and was deliberately drawn out to make the man's temperament look a bit domineering.

He really had the sense of feeling that he would do everything to support his wife!

Sean was upset, and called Xu Lin again. Standing in front of the large LCD TV screen, he pointed to the video being played and asked, "What's going on? Announcing the acquisition of HG, you don't need to ask me anymore." ? "

"Smith group's name changed to Lu group?"

Xu Lin looked at Lu Yi on the screen with a grim expression. He just printed the notice of the acquisition of HG. He just printed it out and the documents were still on his desk. He waited for matter of the wife abusement in the afternoon to be eased before he asked the president to sign.

Why would Director Lu be so fast?

Sean was burning a fire in his heart!

He didn't need to think about it, he could guess that it must be Amber's tricks!

Even if Lu Yi had any ideas, he would come to discuss it with him first, or report it. Now he's better. Qin Yan and Lu Yi were so powerful that they intended to make his power empty!!

It's amazing!

Alright!

Sean's face was gloomy, and Xu Lin didn't dare to hesitate.

He investigated the ins and outs of the matter.

It turned out that Xu Lin was unexpected. He reached out and wiped the cold sweat on his forehead, his voice trembled: "The video was given to Director Lu by Director White, and also ... she asked him to announce it."

"Who approved?"

Sean's words were with anger.

Who approved?

The acquisition of such a small company usually did not let the company approve, and even the announcement was a waste of time, but now the president asked it, Xu Lin knew via his toes' thoughts, Sean must have had something unpleasant with Director White.

As long as he had something to do with Director White, the president liked to play with questions and make endless troubles to her!

"No one."

Xu Lin didn't dare to say a word. Although he knew Sean's thoughts, he answered weakly.

"Get out!"

Xu Lin felt that he survived, turned around and left the low-pressure presidential office.

Only Sean was left in the office. He lifted his eyelids and threw the two words coldly. Amber White, the damn woman, wanted to be the queen after being Mrs. Smith!

Not only did she dare to trap him, now even dared to send someone to follow him!

He really didn't know who gave her the courage!

He turned off the TV unpleasantly, strode to the desk, sat down on the office chair, and then called up Amber's mobile phone number and dialed in.

When Amber looked at the call from Sean, she knew what was going on.

Sean had always disliked people's involvement in his affairs and disliked others for teaching him how to do the things, but Amber did all the things he hated and shouldn't do.

Calling now, apart from questioning, Amber could not think of Sean's other intentions.

She licked her lips and did not answer it, then she cut off the phone directly.

Sean, who had been waiting for the call, heard a busy tone on the phone and thought he had heard it wrong!

He took the cellphone in front of him and glanced it again, and the call would work.

Sean's body froze, and his face became colder. He dropped the mobile phone on the carpeted floor and made a dull noise.

"Damn!"

Amber was very capable, she even dared to hang up his phone!

She must know that he called to find her, so she would hang up!

Sean snorted in disdain, could she hide forever? !!

On the table was also the newspaper that Xu Lin had brought in, and Sean's mouth was raised, pulling a smirk of a skinny smile.

Although Amber's ability to handle official business was very well, she was stupid again when she admit her mistakes!

As soon as this idea rose, Sean's phone rang.

He dropped his eyes on the phone on the ground, stretched out his hand and unnaturally smoothed his hair. He calmed himself down and bent down to pick up the phone on the ground.

It's from Amber.

Sean's mouth was curved, and his face was a cunning smile.

Planning to apologize?

After watching the video, Amber should know that he was troubled by Mrs. Yue and asked him to apologize on his knees!

He wanted to have to see what reason can she find to apologize for himself.

Sean unlocked it, and opened the text message sent by Amber, with five characters lying quietly on it.

[Wait, I'm having a meeting.]

Sean pinched his mobile phone with five fingers tightly. Amber was really great enough. He, the president of Smith group, was still waiting for Amber's reply!

Was he waiting for Amber?

Last night, when he was beaten by the old man, he was also waiting for Amber!

Did she feel that she has dealt with this matter and learned to show off to him?
