

Mr Smith 281

Chapter 281: If I Stayed Here Any Longer, I Can't Hold on

0 5 minutes read

Sean Smith suddenly felt his throat itched.

If Cindy White was really Lu Yi's daughter, it was understandable that she called Lu Yi as her father!

He could guess some reason why Amber White kept begging that he should marry him. He was the only legal heir left in the Smith family!

The incidence of blood cancer in his body was very high. Lu Yi wanted to win Smith Group with Amber White, and they just needed a child.

In this case, Lu Yi couldn't inherit the group, but Smith Group was actually his!

Sean Smith clasped his fingers together, and then he laughed.

Amber White's plan was really well planned!

Standing among so many reporters, even he couldn't help but want to applaud Amber White's plan!

However, Amber White, who stood opposite him, seemed to have stopped her breath, and her chest became heavier and heavier, even her consciousness began to blur gradually.

Amber White's breath became heavier and heavier. She pulled Lu Yi's clothes and whispered, "Lu Yi, I feel dizzy. If I continue to stay here, I will not hold on..."

If she fainted, there might be some rumors circulating on the Internet.

Amber White was feeling anxious when her arm was suddenly grabbed, and then there was a great force. Amber White's body fell into a warm embrace.

There were many people here, the air was not very circulating. It was summer, and many people were sweating, so the air would become very heavy.

Amber White had low blood pressure. Without fresh air, her head would become more dizzy.

After her body was caught by a man, a clean breath was felt between her nose.

It was light and smelled of detergent. Amber White felt a little relieved, and then she knew who was coming.

She involuntarily leaned toward Sean Smith's arms.

Sean Smith's appearance caused a great uproar among reporters.

He grabbed Amber White by the waist with a fake smile on his face. "You are stuck at the gate of Smith Group, which seriously interferes with the enthusiasm, quality and efficiency of Smith Group's employees!"

“Before I came down, I had called the police. You are doing illegal gathering, which has seriously damaged the reputation of Smith Group and Mrs. Smith and has caused us great losses! “

“I advise you to leave now, otherwise when the police arrive, you will only be in prison, and then you will not be able to explore the follow-up results between our husband and wife!”

The reporter was shocked.

Sean Smith was tough man. At the entrance of Jin Yang Guang Kindergarten, the reporter suffered losses from Sean Smith.

He also managed HK and Smith Group well. Besides, the victim of this incident was, in a sense, him. Now, since he was so protective of Amber White, they had nothing to say.

“President Smith, does it mean that you will not get divorced if you openly protect Mrs Smith who has cheated?!”

Sean Smith smirked and sarcastically said, “Divorce? Where can I find such a beautiful Mrs. Smith? “

Divorce?

To give Amber White half of Smith Group’s assets and then allow her and Lu Yi to live a happy life, he’s afraid there was no such wonderful dream in the world!

With this, Sean Smith took a meaningful look at Lu Yi, and then took Amber White into Smith group.

There was a live broadcast on the scene, and a series of Sean Smith’s actions aroused people’s discussion on the Internet.

[After this happened, Sean Smith came out to hug Amber White again. If the relationship between them was really so good, then why did he go to an secret institution for paternity test? He has long suspected that Amber White has cheated!] [Sean Smith, what is this unimaginable practice? As for the child mentioned by the reporter who asked Amber White belongs to Director Lu, can this be confirmed? Does someone say before that Sean Smith and Lu Yi are cousins?] [Be cuckolded by his wife and cousin, and he has to help them with crisis public relations! Sean Smith will be the worst man of the year!] [...]

Sean Smith’s fingers holding his mobile phone gradually turned pale, and he sat in a large office with a straight face.

Amber White followed Sean Smith to the top floor, and Lu Yi helped her to sit down beside Cindy White. He touched Cindy White’s head with his hand and whispered to Amber White.

“You have hypoglycemia. I ordered you breakfast. We can’t deal with this matter in a hurry. After the delivery, you can eat first ... “

Sean Smith watched Lu Yi’s movements, especially when he reached out to touch Cindy White’s head. He seemed to have done it hundreds of times.

After he went downstairs, the reporter’s question was still in his ear ...

Was Amber White going to have a showdown with him since it had been revealed?

Sean Smith's eyes shone with cold light.

"Director White and cousin are really loving. But if you want to talk about love, you should also figure out the occasion first! "

"This is the president's office, not Xingyue Bay!"

Amber White frowned. With her eyes half closed, she didn't intend to pay attention to Sean Smith.

Cindy White reached out and tugged at Amber White's sleeve. "Mom, what does Dad mean by saying this?"

"What is the director?"

Amber White felt a little shaky.

She licked her lips.

"Lu Yi, President Smith and I have something to talk about. Can you take Cindy away first?"

Lu Yi paused and said in a low voice.

"Amber White, after this happened, Sean Smith is very angry, you are not suitable to be alone with him!"

"Amber White, didn't you forget what happened the day you went to worship Yun Ci?"

"Sean Smith wants to kill you!"

Amber White blinked. "He won't be so irrational. You take Cindy out first!"

"After such a important thing happened, the public relations department should be very busy. You ask Shen to take Cindy out first. After I talk to Sean Smith, I will send the child to Xiangxiang! "

Lu Yi couldn't convince Amber White, so he had to walk out the door with Cindy White.

At this time, Sean Smith, who had been paying close attention to the online news, saw the third episode of paternity test.

#Sean Smith took his daughter to the amusement park for a show, and the couple never lived together after marriage!#

This new content on microblog was rich and seemed to have strong evidence, even posting the life rules of Sean Smith and Amber White.

They were married for three years and separated for three years!

Sean Smith seemed to know from the beginning that Cindy White was not his own daughter!

Sean Smith's mouth was quivered, and the news broke this time had more weight than the news announced before!

He raised his hand to throw the phone out. This mobile phone with good performance was instantly torn apart by Sean Smith.

Amber White was unprepared for this, and his cell phone exploded under her feet. The screen broke and the glass slag were splashed everywhere. Her body was trembled and her eyes were darkened.

“Sean Smith, why are you going to have a paternity test?”

Amber White lifted her head, and her face looked serious and earnest. She looked slim in her white formal dress, which added a lot of brightness to the boring office.

“Why? You just hooked up with my cousin, and now you remember that you are Mrs. Smith? “

“Do you dare to ask me why I do something now?”

Amber White was shocked, took a step forward at Sean Smith’s direction. She looked at him with sharp eyes and then said in an aggressive tone.

“If you want to do a paternity test, you should tell me in advance!”

Sean Smith narrowed his eyes. “Tell you? Even if I don’t tell you, you have the ability to change the appraisal results. “

Chapter 282: Wouldn’t the Outcome Be More unpredictable?

“Wouldn’t the outcome be more unpredictable if I told you?”

Sean’s tone was so cold with unfriendliness.

At this point, Sean suddenly remembered last night, when he got the paternity test, he was anxiously looking for the child, and even called Amber.

Amber must feel so triumphant, right?

Maybe in her heart, she had already thought of him as a fool.

Thinking about it, Sean’s face became so gloomy, and his eyes were fixed at Amber.

Amber White was also very angry. For three years, she had always held her anger and divided herself and Sean into two worlds, hoping that Cindy could have a peaceful life.

Now, Cindy was three years old, but has been in the police, been in the paper, been in a bar, and even has been kidnapped!

The paternity test was out but then it was screwed up, which made Cindy cursed all over the internet!

Reporters never could keep any secret, and soon the kid might learn that she’s not her parents’ biological child!

Amber was so sad in her heart.

“I’m Cindy’s mother, so don’t I have the right to know about this matter?”

“Didn’t you always deem her as a bastard, why did you suddenly think of doing a paternity test?”

Sean was dumbfounded by the question.

Why did you suddenly think of taking a paternity test? How to answer? Was he going to tell Amber that he suspected because many people had said that Cindy looked like him?

Wouldn't that further fuel Amber White's ambitions?

A vein popped out of Sean's forehead. He stood up and strode over to Amber and suddenly cupped her jaw.

Amber felt great pain and subconsciously looked at Sean's dark, deep eyes, and although he smiled faintly, he looked even more horrible.

"Why did I think of going for a paternity test? Didn't you say that she is my child? So I need to confirm it."

"I'm going to smash you in the face with the results and see if you'll be ashamed of yourself and leave Smith's house voluntarily."

Sean sneered and continuing, "It's just that I seem to have overestimated Miss White's sense of shame!"

Amber felt her heart in great pain.

She pursed her lips, her jaw getting more and more painful, as if it would be removed from her face by Sean at any moment.

From Amber's eyes, some tears fell.

She reached out and clasped Sean's palm, pushing the man away.

She is beautiful, but her face had a scar made by glass scraps, and her skin is tender, and but she had two distinctive finger marks on her chin.

Her hair was a bit messy from arguing with Sean.

She took a half step back and looked at Sean, pursing her lips.

"Now that the results of the paternity test are in, and you can give up your unrealistic dreams."

Amber's heart was numb. When facing such a piece of big news, except for the care for Cindy at first, she did not even know what she really felt.

She raised her head, looked into Sean's eyes, and asked this question.

Sean's pupils were contracted sharply, "So, you admitted that you changed the results?"

Amber sneered as she looked sideways at Sean, showing some sarcasms, "Mr. Smith should know about this matter in your heart!"

After finishing her speech, Amber threw away Sean's hand and left the office directly.

In the office, only Sean was left alone. Standing in the huge office alone, Sean actually still felt that the air here is so scarce.

In less than half a minute, there was a knock on the door of the president's office.

The expression on Sean's face was stunned at the moment.

Amber?

She's back? She realized that she was talking to him in the wrong tone?

Back to apologize?

Sean licked his thin lips. She wanted his forgiveness? It wouldn't be that easy unless Amber was honest about who the father of the child is!

Sean turned around and strode behind the desk, his face so calm. He spoke calmly, "Come in!"

The office door was pushed open and Xu Lin walked in with a bag.

Sean's eyes started to be much colder.

The air around him suddenly turned cold, Xu Lin shivered, gathered his shirt and walked over to Sean's desk.

"Mr... Mr. Smith, this takeaway, the address is the top floor president's office, so the front desk did not dare to stop... "

The coolness in Sean's eyes was too heavy, and Xu Lin stumbled over his words.

"Mr. Smith, you... You can eat it now because it's still hot!"

Xu Lin said and turned to leave, but was stopped by Sean: "When have you ever seen me eat breakfast and order take-out in the office?"

Xu Lin's body stiffened.

Sean hardly ordered takeaway, and Xu Lin also had suspected it, but who was so bored that he or she wrote down the address of this office to have fun?

Just like those little stars and young models who were related to Sean, they wanted to see him once a day, but it's not like they would order takeaway for him.

That's why Xu Lin took it in...

"Mr. Smith, didn't you order this? Miss White just got back, and she should not have had breakfast yet..."

Xu Lin hadn't finished his words, and was shocked by the glimpse of Sean, so he had to stop and shut up.

Sean lowered his head to take a look at the package.

A meal of Xiangyun Street's long-established nutritious porridge, which would take four to five hours to cook, was sold in limited quantities every day and was worth a lot of money.

Sean weighed it with his hand and felt that it was not light, so there must be a few dishes!

From the moment he entered the office, he had heard Lu Yi and Amber's every word.

Without asking Amber what she wanted to eat, and he just ordered it for her, so generous and proficient.

Sean sneered.

“You think I’m bored? Order takeout for Amber? I might as well feed the pigs!”

He slapped his palms on the table with a bang, scaring Xu Lin, who shrunk his shoulders.

Sean, as if unaware, continued to say in a deep voice.

“Change the front desk!”

“They can let everything in easily! It’s the breakfast today, but what if it’s a bomb tomorrow?”

“You, as the president’s special assistant, don’t learn to manage each department and even took it in in person. So is it the next time, when our company’s building is razed to the ground, you’ll be happy? “

A layer of cold sweat appeared on Xu Lin’s body.

Sean turned his head sideways, looked at the takeaway box on the table with a shady gaze, and said to Xu Lin, “Get out!”

Xu Lin didn’t dare to say a word, turned around, twisted his head and hurriedly ran out.

Sean stared at the takeaway box for half a minute, then he suddenly took action, picked up the box and smashed it out.

The porridge and small dishes instantly mixed together, and the smell was a mess.

Sean’s eyes became much gloomier.

Didn’t Amber just now still have the strength to question him? In that way, the weakness was all pretend before, and since her energy was unlimited, what’s wrong with eating less?

If Amber was really hungry, she wouldn’t need others to buy the meal for her.

Chapter283: Amber Felt Heartache Slightly

0 5 minutes read

Amber came out of the president’s office and went straight back to the PR department.

The PR department was having a meeting, discussing how to clarify the scandal, and there were so many people in the PR department, but none of them could give any useful suggestions.

Amber pushed open the door and walked right up to the front.

“Catch some guys on the internet and hand over lawyer’s letters to them! And we also need to sue the paternity agency, too!”

“Mr. Smith should have had someone go and find the owner of that paternity agency...”

The people from the PR department looked at each other.

“Miss White, the people on the internet have even found what brand of underwear you and Mr. Smith were wearing!”

“If you’re separated, the online opinions will be even worse, and the priority is that you should live together!”

Amber became silent.

“Miss White, there is no man who doesn’t cheat on his wife. No matter Mr. Smith hooked up with many girls, people will only think that he is so cool, but women are different. If a woman hooked up with men, she will be cursed and called slut or bitch!”

“You and Mr. Smith had such a big quarrel and you just need to give a random order, but we’re the ones who have to get busy!”

Amber took a deep breath.

For half a month continuously, something big kept happening and the PR department really couldn’t handle it!

Amber’s appearance was shallow, and even if those people’s words were not pleasant to hear, her face was always faint.

Amber then said, “I am going to deal with some personal matters first, and when I return, I’ll discuss with you the clarification options available.

The company was in a mess, and Amber was busy and so was Little Shen, so no one could take care of Cindy.

After leaving the PR department, Amber returned to the marketing department.

Cindy was a good girl and didn’t cause much trouble for Little Shen, and she didn’t even have the snacks that Little Shen prepared for her.

As soon as Amber appeared, Cindy’s eyes were full of happiness.

“Mummy!”

Amber nodded, once the atmosphere quieted down, the feeling of almost suffocating came immediately. Amber sat down and filled a glass of water before taking out her phone from her pocket.

Before she came back to the company, her phone batteries had been wearing out. After charging the battery, Lu Xiangxiang’s phone call came in first.

Amber answered the phone and Lu Xiangxiang was relieved, “Amber, what’s going on online? Sean went to have a paternity test done on Cindy? “

Amber nodded, “Think about it, I think that after what happened, Cindy can’t go to school for the time being, she can’t stay in the company either, and I’m afraid she will hear something she shouldn’t ...”

Lu Xiangxiang paused for a moment and said, "Amber, I've already mentioned to our boss, and she can stay with me in the company!"

"Amber, Fengchen only has one secretary, me, and the secretary's office is very empty and large, so you can send Cindy over directly."

Amber licked her lips and said, "Okay, I'll be right over!"

There was candy in the office, and Amber picked one of it and stuffed it in her mouth.

She couldn't be bothered to eat anything, so she could only eat a little something to boost her energy.

Amber stood up straight and walked over to Cindy, "Cindy, mommy is a little busy today. Can you just stay with your aunt? "

Cindy raised her head, her eyes seemed to be filled with tears, and she looked at Amber and sobbed.

"Mom, is it because of me?"

Amber was stunned, her voice so gentle, "Why do you ask so?"

"When Daddy took me out of school today, some aunts and uncles asked Daddy if he already knew that I wasn't Daddy's child."

Cindy's eyes flashed with tears.

"Mama, why does everyone say that I'm not daddy's child?"

"Last time a boy also said that Dad wasn't my dad and that Mom was the one who lied to the public. "

Cindy's tears were falling down from her face, and her voice was so low that she seemed to have a ball of cotton in her throat.

"Mom, didn't you... Didn't you say that you wouldn't lie to me?"

Amber suddenly felt so distressed with her daughter.

That kind of pain seemed to split her heart, and the next second it could tear her whole body in half.

Amber's eyes turned suddenly red, she reached out and rubbed Cindy's head, whispering reassuringly, "Cindy, don't cry, mommy won't lie to you."

"Wait a few days, I'll ask you dad to spend time with you when he is not that busy, okay?"

Cindy nodded, "Can we go to the amusement park again?"

Amber promised, "Of course, you can go to the amusement park and McDonald's."

Saying that, Amber reached out to give Cindy a pull on her somewhat messy skirt, "And now, just stay with Miss Lu, okay?"

Cindy nodded her head, and Amber reached out and picked her up.

She reached out her small hand and touched Amber's wounded face.

“Mom, did those aunts and uncles outside hurt your face?”

When Amber was stunned, Cindy said again, “They’re so mean, and I don’t like them!”

Amber had no idea what to say.

Now each reporter was only looking forward to find latest and breaking news and they wouldn’t care a child’s feelings.

Amber let Lu Xiangxiang to take care of Cindy for the time being. Then she’s went out of the building and the parking lot. Her car, which was borrowed from her colleague, was parked outside the Feng’s building.

She walked over to the car on her heels and was stopped by a reporter halfway through.

Amber felt it so bad and the reporter’s question came again, “Miss White, may I ask who your daughter’s real father is?”

“Whoever her husband is, she is just a bitch, a slut!”

A scream suddenly came from the crowd, and Amber felt a shadow coming, and then she subconsciously dodged it.

A layer of cold sweat suddenly appeared on Amber’s body.

...

In Smith’s Company.

After receiving a call from the police station, Xu Lin ran straight over to the president’s office, he was in such a hurry that he didn’t even knock on the door.

Inside the office was a mess, Sean’s tall figure was hidden in the back of the chair, the expression on his face was unclear, inexplicably gloomy.

Sean did not go out of the office all morning, he has always been liking clean environments, but when the office was such a mess, he did not say anything...

Xu Lin took a deep breath and couldn’t care about anything else, leaned forward a bit and said, “Mr. Smith, Miss White was splashed with concentrated sulfuric acid downstairs at...”

Sean’s eyes suddenly got wide open, “What did you say?”

Xu Lin pursed his lips and then said, “Mr. Smith, Miss White is now at the police station, she is considered a victim, and the police station let her relatives go over to pick her up... “

Relatives?

Now, what kind of relatives could Amber have?

Aside from Sean, only one other person is her family member, Cindy.

Sean directly went out of the office, left in a hurry, and soon came back again to pick up the phone on the floor that had been seriously broken and one almost could not see its original appearance.

Immediately, the man's tall figure disappeared in the doorway.

Chapter 284: Concentrated Sulfuric Acid?

Sean held the phone, one hand clenched in his pocket, and he was a bit confused, concentrated sulfuric acid?

Amber's luck was really too bad!

This time, her seductive face might be ruined.

Sean's eyes slightly moved. When the elevator door was opened, his pace became fast. After getting into the car, Sean showed a cool smile.

He was not worried about Amber, but such a big thing had happened to Amber, so certainly he must be the first to see her and mock her!

There were a lot of cracks in the windshield, but Sean had an unobstructed ride, driving towards the police station so quickly...

Not too far away, as soon as Sean had just parked his car, his phone rang.

Amber was still in the police station. He was about to hang up directly, and he took a look at the greatly shattered screen.

Sean was not in the habit of saving other people's numbers, but he knew these numbers.

Lin Man's phone number.

Sean immediately stopped hanging up. He moved his fingertips away, and quickly clicked on the screen to answer.

"Manman? What's going on?"

Lin Man's voice was full of frighten and fear.

"Sean, Sean... Reporters are here and they're all blocking the door of my room... "

"Sean, I'm scared, those reporters are very agitated... They're breaking down the door."

Sean, who had just turned off the car, reached out and started the engine again, whispering.

"Manman, don't worry, I'll be right over!"

"Don't open the door for anyone until I get there."

Lin Man's voice trembled, "Okay."

"Sean, I'm scared, can you please don't hang up the phone? Just let me hear your voice. "

Lin Man had always been weak, so Sean did not hesitate, nodded and said, "OK."

He turned the front end of the car, and before leaving, Sean looked back at the police station.

In his eyes there was something so complicated.

Amber had always had a lot of means, so he believed that she would not let herself get hurt, besides, she had already been in the police station, so no one could hurt her here.

But Manman was different.

Manman needed him badly.

The Ritz-Carlton is not far from the police station, and Sean surfed on the internet to see the comments online when he was in the elevator.

Last night, the photo of Sean with Lin Man appearing at the Hai Wan Xiang Xie was taken secretly by someone, and the reporters found that at that time, the paternity test sheet in his was still the one he got from the hospital.

He is Cindy's father!

The reporters then came to the hotel, knocked on Lin Man's door, just to ask such questions.

For example, after he got the paternity test, he invited Lin Man to Hai Wan Xiang Xie because he wanted to start a new family with her?

Sean strode forward and reached out to grab a microphone, his face so gloomy, making the reporter involuntarily take a half step back.

Sean said immediately, "I have no intention of starting a family with Manman, we are just ordinary friends!"

Even if he had, he couldn't admit it!

"This time, it's a personal matter of mine, so please leave my friend alone!"

As soon as Sean finished speaking, the elevator door got opened and a group of bodyguards in black suits politely asked all the reporters to leave.

When Lin Man heard Sean's voice, she opened the door of the room. When she saw him, Lin Man took a step forward and threw herself into Sean's embrace.

Sean's body stiffened, and then he reached out his hand, embraced Lin Man, and patted her back gently.

Sensing the gentleness of Sean, Lin Man's eyes seemed to have some tears, "Sean, I was really scared just now..."

"I know you're likely to be busy at this time of year, but I can't help myself, I'm sorry I've caused you so much trouble..."

Sean sighed, after spending so much time with Amber, he actually became a bit not used to women's tears.

"Manman, it's fine, I haven't been very busy!"

“Why don’t you go back to the hotel and get some rest? You’re grieving a little today, so don’t go out yet!”

Sean let her in his embrace out, and he looked Lin Man in the eyes, “I’ll leave two bodyguards for you at the entrance, don’t be afraid!”

“I have an urgent matter to attend to right now, and I can’t stay here with you!”

Lin Man nodded her head after hearing Sean’s words.

Her character was always soft, unlike Amber, rigid and hard like a piece of iron.

Sean showed a shallow smile at Lin Man, then turned around and left the hotel.

...

In the police station.

Amber was leaning on a stool in front of her desk, taking a statement with a policewoman.

“Why did that man throw concentrated acid at you? Is there a feud between you two?”

Amber shook her head and whispered, “I don’t know him, and when he did it, he was screaming things like I’m a slut and a bitch...”

The policewoman raised her head after hearing such words.

In these years, she had interrogated quite a few prisoners in the police station, but Amber is the first to answer questions calmly as if nothing had happened after experiencing a big storm.

Considering the mood of Amber, after the policewoman understood the antecedents and consequences, she didn’t ask Amber the follow-up matters.

“Wait here, we’ve already informed your husband, and he’ll be here soon to pick you up!”

Amber nodded and the policewoman handed her a glass of white water, then turned on the only TV in the office.

She casually tuned it to a channel that was playing entertainment news and whispered, “Relax, this is the channel you girls love Just watch TV here, and when your husband arrives later and signs the papers, you can go!”

Amber nodded, “Thank you so much.”

The policewoman had other work to do, and after a while, she turned around and went into the office.

Amber moved her fingers and there was a burning pain in her arm.

She licked the corner of her mouth and put her arm behind her back, her face as usual, and then she turned her attention to the television.

The first entertainment news was finished, and then the second one began to play.

As the picture on the TV turned, the host spoke in fluent Mandarin, "According to our reporter, Smith Company's CEO, Mr. Smith, Smith Sean and his company's marketing director, Amber's marriage is about to break up... And it's said by one of their friends that they each have had new lovers already. "

"Ten minutes ago, Mr. Smith was the first to arrive at the hotel to evict reporters for the sake of his new lover... In gratitude to him, the beauty gave him a sweet hug..."

"Between the two, the love is almost overflowing... It was also reported that they went back to Hai Wan Xiang Xie together last night..."

Amber looked at the TV screen, the two people intimately embracing each other, which made her body so cold.

She lifted her wrist and took a glance at the time, the police station should have informed Sean at the first time.

Smith's Company isn't too far from the police station, so even if he came on foot, he should have arrived by this time.

That sad feeling once again came at her, taking over almost all of Amber's senses.

'I'm going to hit you in the face with the results and see if you'll be ashamed of yourself and leave Smith's house voluntarily. '

'It's just that I seem to have overestimated Miss White's sense of shame! '

Sean's words resounded in her mind once again, and some tears filled the bottom of her eyes.

Chapter 285: I Really Don't Know What His Wife Is Thinking About

When saying such high-sounding words, Sean didn't really think that much...

Lin Man was back, and Sean had already been tired of such a marriage that ceased to exist except in name and wanted her to leave so that he could marry Lin Man.

He loved her so much... So how could he be willing to let Lin Man follow him in the name of a mistress?

Amber's feelings now were so complicated, and she had thought that she hadn't expected so much from Sean...

But up to this moment, she was still so heartbroken.

Eleven years, more than a third of her past life, had been spent on Sean, so how could she give it up and forget it so easily?

Amber raised her head slightly, forcing back the tears in her eyes, next to the police officer who was processing work glanced sideways at the screen.

Seeing that she was so depressed, the policeman smiled faintly, "This man is young and good-looking, and I wonder what his wife thinks. Why did she choose to cheat on him?"

"No wonder he also had a kept woman!"

Amber lowered her head, showed a shallow smile.

When Sean arrived, he signed directly and stood in front of Amber, wrinkling his eyebrows, "Miss White, let's go."

His tall figure, covering her body, blocking all the light in front of her eyes. Amber looked up, right in front of the man looking her up and down.

When Amber didn't move, Sean raised his eyebrows and sneered, "What are you waiting for? Do you like the atmosphere of the police station and want to stay here?"

Amber regained consciousness, stood up, patted the folds on her body, and walked over to the police station.

Sean had a cigarette in his mouth, as if unintentionally, he mocked her in a low voice, "After such an incident, Miss Amber, are you still in the mood to go to the company? Is it because you don't think that it is serious enough?"

Amber did not answer Sean's question, she left the police station, standing on the side of the road, reaching out to stop a taxi.

Sean pulled her back, the force he used in his hands was so strong that Amber's body even trembled a little, tears flashed through her eyes.

He didn't realize it and his force of the clasp on Amber's arm increased, "Amber, at this time if you call a taxi, you want others to know that we are getting a divorce? "

Amber took a deep breath, "Isn't that exactly what Mr. Smith wants?"

When she spoke, her voice shivered and she seemed to be holding back the pain. Though she had tears in her eyes, her look was still tough...

His hand that was holding Amber's arm trembled from time to time.

Sean frowned and let go of his hand, while Amber drew back her hand quickly and shook her arm, pretending to be natural.

In the meantime, he finally noticed that something was wrong with Amber.

She was wearing a white skirt and a small thin jacket over her upper body. Now it was summer, and if a normal person wore such clothes, he or she should roll up the sleeves.

Sean suddenly thought of something, reached out and clutched Amber's hand, then lifted the clothes on her arm.

On Amber's left arm, there was a distinctive burn wound, red and black.

Sean's pupils were contracted. Amber was injured, and why did she not say it?

“Karma is real. it’s time for Miss White to learn a lesson from this, right? “

As soon as Sean had finished speaking, he pursed his lips. He has been used to saying something to mock, and he was just say it subconsciously.

Amber was stunned for a while.

She didn’t retort a single word, withdrawing her arm from Sean’s large palm, her face so shallow.

“Mr. Smith, I don’t have the time to stand in front of the police station and quarrel with you. Since you won’t let me take a taxi, then please take me back to the company!”

Her words were polite, both in title and tone, and it sounded like he was just her boss!

Sean was angry. At first, only a few people knew that he was cuckolded by Amber, and now the whole world knew about it.

Sean stepped back, pulled open the Maserati’s passenger door and said coldly, “Go to the company? Such an appearance of Miss Amber will only shake the enthusiasm of the staff at work when you to the company now!”

“Get in the car and go to the hospital!”

Hearing this, Amber stopped getting into the car, “I’m not going to the hospital, I’m going back to the office to dispel the rumors!”

Sean’s eyes were as deep as the sea, with a bitterly cold light, falling directly on Amber, “Dispel the rumors? What’s the rumor?”

“The reporter seems to be right, the baby is not mine. We were married for three years, but we never lived together, and you, Amber White, paid off the owner of the paternity agency to screw up the results!”

“The man I love is Lin Man!”

The expression on Amber’s face changed and she involuntarily clenched her fist.

No!

The child is his, and she did not change the results. Sean once... Sean once loved her.

In the things the reporter had said, in addition to the fact that they had always been separated in three years of marriage, there was not a single item that fit the truth...

Amber took a deep breath and Sean suddenly smiled.

“What’s there to clarify? It’s that Miss White goes to the hospital, so as to save the reporters from gossipping that our family are abusing the young madam! “

Amber lowered her head and pushed away the figure of Sean blocking in front of her.

“Mr. Smith, you should know whether it’s true or not, the news can’t continue to be spread!”

"I don't care, at most I'll go out and get acid thrown at me again, but Smith Family can't afford to waste any time!"

"Also, I never paid anyone to change the results of a paternity test!"

"Regardless of whether Cindy is your child or not, I never let you spend any money on her during these years!"

A vein suddenly throbbed on Sean's forehead.

Not spending any money?

Amusement parks, KFC, including that glass of milk in Ye Se and dinner in Hai Wan Xiang Xie, what are they?

Sean took a deep breath and sneered, "I never wronged anyone!"

"As for the owner of the paternity test, I've had him come back, and he insisted that you paid him $100,000!"

A cold light flashed through Sean's eyes, "Miss Amber has done a really good job with this deal!"

Amber frowned, suddenly turned towards the road and Sean stopped her, "Where are you going?"

"Go and meet who took my hundred thousand dollars!"

Amber sneered, "Unlike Mr. Smith, I'm not a rich guy, so how can I feel safe putting $100,000 with someone else?"

Sean's pupils were constricted and he stared at her with incredulity.

"Amber, why are you so shameless? You're going to ask for your principal back even after it's been revealed?"

Amber raised her hand to shake off Sean, "Mr. SMith, this is none of your business!"

Amber reached out and took a taxi, going back to Smith's Company directly. Having no way, Sean could only drive his car and followed her.

As soon as she arrived at the company, Amber received a call from Sean's mother before she even entered company's front door.

She hesitated for a while, and then she decided to answer the phone. It's rare that Sean's mother's tone was full of satire, "Amber, what's wrong with today's news? Do you think that I and my husband could live so long that you want to make it shorter by angering us? "

Chapter 286: What Do You Think Our Smith Family Is?

0 6 minutes read

Amber White pursed her lips and whispered, "Mom, you have asked the wrong person. I didn't cause this."

“What do you mean by that? Do you dare to spend money to buy people to do fake paternity tests, and now you are not willing to admit it? “

“What do you think my Smith family is? Can anyone come in?”

Smith’s mother gasped and kept a straight face.

Her words were like a sharp knife suddenly penetrating Amber White’s heart.

She choked back the desire to hang up the phone, revealing a gloomy expression. “Mom, you think too much. Even if I want Cindy to enter the Smith family, I will not choose such a stupid way! “

“Cindy and I have not asked Smith family to do anything for us since we were married for three years. This time, Sean did a paternity test without consulting me! “

Amber White blinked, relieved her sour and tired eyes, and said calmly, “I don’t think Cindy and I are sorry for Smith family. So mom, when you talk, I hope you will give us enough respect! “

Amber White spoke politely, but her voice was cold, and Sean’s mother was choked by Amber White’s words.

Sean’s mother hadn’t figured out the truth of the matter yet. She had been with Tomas Smith for a long time, so she naturally knew that online things couldn’t be easily believed.

After a pause, she said, “Smith Group was founded by Tomas Smith alone, and it is not easy to have its present status. He has just had coronary bypass operation, so he can’t stand the blow ... “

“You and Sean think of ways to quickly suppress the news and then make up for the loss of Smith Group!”

Amber White nodded.

Although Smith Group suffered great losses, Sean Smith played the role of victim in this scandal.

When the news just came out, their losses were the biggest, and now such losses should not be aggravated.

After hanging up the phone, Amber White just saw Sean Smith coming out of the parking lot. Instead of taking the president’s elevator, he followed Amber White into the employee elevator.

Amber White pressed the floor, but Sean Smith did not move.

She glanced at Sean Smith sideways and found that he looked light. Then she reached out and pressed the button on the top floor.

The marketing department and the public relations department were adjacent, both on the 18th floor. Amber White came out of the elevator, and Sean Smith followed Amber White.

Amber White looked in his direction and just saw Sean Smith’s dark eyes.

“President Smith, shouldn’t you get out of the elevator at this time?”

Sean Smith tugged at his lip and whispered, "What's the matter? Can't I come and listen to the meeting of the public relations department?"

Amber White kept silent.

The scandal reduced the market value of Smith Group by nearly 8 billion yuan. Therefore, Sean Smith could also attend the meeting!

Amber White turned aside, and then they went to the public relations department together.

The boss of the paternity testing agency was there, and Lu Yi was asking him some questions.

"You said Amber White gave you 100,000 yuan. Do you have any evidence?"

"No! She gave me cash, and I spent more than half of it. There are nearly 40,000 to 50,000 in my store..."

The boss blinked and looked a little flustered, "I told you the truth. You have to let me go!"

Shen turned red with anger, "Director White is good at judging people. For a scum like you, even if she is blind, she can't trust you!"

"If you don't tell the truth again, I will call the police immediately!"

"You are suspected of fraud and caused Smith Group to lose nearly 8 billion yuan. Do you know how many years you are going to jail?"

Amber White pushed open the door and came in.

Shen looked back and saw Amber White, but his eyes brightened and he was about to speak, but Amber White stopped him with a gesture.

The boss looked in Amber White's direction, slightly narrowed his pupils, and immediately said to Amber White, "Mrs White, I won't do your business, please tell them clearly ..."

"This matter couldn't simply be concealed. You tell the truth. I can return the money to you!"

Amber White frowned. Did this boss actually know her?

Amber White had a smile on her face.

She was good-looking, and her face was cut by the window. Although her face was untreated, the blood stains made her face a little gorgeous.

Seeing her laughing, the boss's face wore a nervous look.

Amber White took a step forward.

"Yes. Give me back the money, and I'll let you go!"

Everyone in the room was shocked. Amber White went to the boss and slapped him on the back of the chair behind him.

The boss instantly felt a little stunned, and Amber White's reaction was too abnormal. Before coming, he thought about 10,000 possible reactions of Amber White, among which he denounced and screamed. But he didn't expect that she would admit it and ask him for 100,000 yuan.

The boss felt that there must be some intrigue.

Amber White asked again, "How are you going to give it to me? Do you want to transfer money or via WeChat? I don't support cash!"

The boss swallowed his saliva, touched the mobile phone, and stammered, "I ... I will transfer it to you on WeChat!"

"President Smith is here ..."

Someone in the room was whispering, Amber White didn't look back, then she touched her mobile phone and whispered, "Okay, transfer to me!"

Sean Smith narrowed his eyes and looked in the direction of Amber White. At this point, she turned her back on him and pulled a stool to sit in the conference room of the public relations department.

His eyelids were constantly moving up and down. Was this damn woman really not afraid to embarrass Smith family?

She actually asked this man for 100,000 yuan?

Sean Smith was so angry that he subconsciously stepped forward and tried to take Amber White away. However, his hand stopped when he was about to touch Amber White's arm.

Amber White's arm seemed to have been hurt by concentrated sulfuric acid before. Was her injured arm the right arm or the left arm?

She never liked to suffer losses. If Amber White really blamed him for this, what would he do?

After Sean Smith paused, he heard the sound of successful transfer.

Amber White put away her cell phone lightly, but the smile on her face became more brilliant.

She patted the folds of her clothes with her hand, pointed to the door of the conference room, and whispered, "You can go!"

The boss was stunned and said a little incredulously, "Mrs White, don't you ... Sue me?"

Amber White raised her mouth. "Why should I sue you? You gave me 100,000 yuan for no reason, and I haven't had time to thank you! "

The meeting room became silent.

Amber White admitted in public that she had paid off his boss, and all the people present were shocked by this kind of thing.

They simply didn't have time to think about the conversation between Amber White and the boss, but they just thought about how to clarify it when facing such a dead end?

However, Amber White's shameless answer made the atmosphere in the conference room instantly quieter, and even the sound of a needle falling to the ground could be heard.

Shen and Xu Lin looked at each other and saw Sean Smith's extremely gloomy face.

The crux of the matter was that Amber White was not only unaware of this, but also had a more pleasant smile on her face,

"I remember that Xu Lin seems to have done paternity tests not only in your institution, but also in other institutions!"

"Sean got three paternity test results in his hand. I have to call them constantly, and then I want to get back the 100,000 yuan! "

Amber White smiled at the boss. "Go quickly, I don't have time to entertain you!"

The boss kept a straight face, while Amber White turned around and held out his hand toward Shen. "What about the contact information of the bosses of the other two paternity testing agencies I asked you to investigate?"

Chapter 287: Facing Smith Group's Assets Worth Hundreds of Billions, How Could She not Be Tempted?

After seeing Amber White's eyes, Shen immediately understood. He quickly held the mobile phone and said, "Director White, wait a moment, I will send it to your mobile phone right away!"

The boss felt a little stunned. He looked in the direction of Xu Lin and Sean Smith.

Although the expressions on their faces were rich, neither of them meant to interrupt Amber White.

Especially Sean Smith, although he suppressed his anger at his eyes, he seemed to be angry from embarrassment!

If Sean Smith did find three paternity testing agencies, wouldn't the play he played today be useless?

The market value of Smith Group had shrunk by 8 billion yuan, and he would never pay off this debt in his life ...

The boss swallowed his saliva, and Amber White had already made a phone call from the landline in the office.

"Impossible ..."

The boss took a step back. He looked at Amber White and said, "I investigated Sean Smith's secretary before and they just went to my place for paternity test!"

"Moreover, how can a person do three paternity tests?"

The people in the meeting room became silent, and the boss subconsciously covered his mouth with his hand.

These were just what he thought, but he couldn't help saying it because he was too nervous.

Everyone in the public relations department looked in the direction of the boss.

Amber White hung up before the call was dialed. She touched her mobile phone, pressed stop recording on the screen, and then handed it to Shen.

"Send him to the police station, and then take this tape. This is evidence."

The smile on Amber White's face disappeared, revealing cold expression, adding, "You go to the legal department to find someone and then think carefully about what charges should be charged against him!"

The boss was shocked, and Shen cheered and clapped his hands.

Sean Smith became complicated. Before he came here, he always thought that Amber White had paid off the boss and was fighting for the Smith family's fortune.

He didn't expect Amber White to turn things around so quickly!

No!

There was nothing wrong with his suspicion. Since Amber White could value 100,000 yuan, how could she be indifferent to Smith Group's assets worth 100 billion yuan?

This was because Amber White had this sign before. How could he be blamed for misunderstanding her?

Sean Smith wore a straight face.

That's right!

Amber White was a vain and thoughtful woman. He was better at judging someone than Lu Yi!

Now that it's a foregone conclusion, the boss knew that he was taken in by Amber White, and he didn't know what to say at this time.

When the two security guards arrived, they took the boss to go out. Amber White called Shen.

"Go and return his money to him!"

Since eight billion yuan had been lost, Shen didn't feel bad about the hundred thousand yuan. He nodded and said, "Okay, Director White, I'll transfer it to him!"

The way Sean Smith sat in the chair was stopped. The security guard and the boss walked beside him. Sean Smith lifted his head and glanced in the direction of the boss.

"Xu Lin, you go to the police station with Secretary Shen."

"Smith Group has suffered heavy losses. Go and say hello to the police station and let them interrogate the incident well!"

Xu Lin was named by her, stepped forward, answered immediately and then followed him out of the conference room.

He glanced at Xu Lin, and his eyes stayed on Shen in an instant.

They were also secretaries, and Amber White's standard as marketing director were even higher than his president!

After Amber White entered the conference room of the public relations department, all the people in the public relations department stopped talking, so her prestige was even higher than that of his president.

It seemed that Amber White had always been arrogant in the company in the past three years.

Amber White and Sean Smith sat down after the boss was taken away. Lu Yi whispered, "Amber White, we just discussed several clarification plans!"

"Do you want to have a look?"

Amber White didn't receive the file, and Sean Smith looked at the folder.

The distance between them was very close, and Lu Yi touched Amber White's arm.

From his point of view, this position was somewhat ambiguous.

Sean Smith's eyes grew gloomy.

His body leaned back, while his back rested on the hard chair back. He reached out his tongue and licked his dry lip.

Sean Smith was very sexy for such an ordinary action!

"No. I have already thought about how to clarify, but it needs President Smith to cooperate! "

"Lu Yi, you are very busy at work now. I will deal with this matter, and you should do other work first! "

With this, Lu Yi nodded. He closed the folder directly and spoke to the people in the public relations department, "declare the meeting over!"

They got along very well and gave each other 100% trust!

Sean Smith looked at this scene and suddenly remembered the scene when Cindy White was kidnapped.

When he arrived at the hospital, Amber White asked him why he kidnapped the child.

He and Amber White had been married for three years, and they couldn't even give each other a trace of trust except quarreling and hating!

Not to mention any tacit understanding between them!

Amber White turned into Lu Yi's arms because she couldn't get what she wanted from him?

Sean Smith sneered and watched the people in the public relations department step out of the conference room one after another.

"Tell me what you think, how can I cooperate with you?"

Sean Smith lowered his eyes, then got the cigarette case out of his trousers pocket and lit a cigarette.

The expression on his face instantly became difficult to fathom, and only his black eyes were faint with smoke, which made his eyes look deeper.

Amber White glanced at the watch on her wrist and whispered, "You asked Cindy and I to move to Hai Wan Xiang Xie. In these two days, you have to suspend your work first and stay with Cindy and me all the time. "

"You don't need to prove to reporters that you love me, you just need to let reporters know that you won't divorce me!"

Sean Smith wore a straight face!

His heart was shaken again. Amber White invited the boss to act for him, right?

No matter from which angle, Amber White's behavior seemed to be like fishing in troubled waters!

Her purpose was bigger than competing for the Smith family's property. She obviously wanted to enter their family!

Sean Smith took a deep breath of smoke, and then dusted his the ashes with his fingertips. He stared at Amber White with burning eyes,

"No way. First, Hai Wan Xiang Xie is not somewhere you can go in! "

"Second, Smith group has such a big problem that there is a lot of work to be dealt with at present. I can't stay away from work! "

"Third, do you think journalists and netizens are fools?"

Amber White smiled. She sat there, as if she were like a beautiful flower, looking very moving!

"Sean, you did a paternity test without passing me in advance!"

"The problem is caused by you! You must promise! "

Her voice became gentle. "Besides, your mother called me just now and said that your father didn't know about it!"

"You know Smith Group's position in your dad's heart better than me! Therefore, you must promise! "

Sean Smith was shocked.

Was Amber White threatening him?

He was so stupid to do paternity test!

This choice really brought endless harm to him without any gain!

Sean Smith felt very angry and took a heavy breath. Amber White knew him, and she moved her lips and said,

"Sean, you cooperate with me to clarify the scandal. I will return Lin Man and your token of love to you!

“But if you don’t listen to me, I will send my watch to Ritz-Carlton!”

“How dare you!”

Chapter 288: Amber White, Don’t Think I Won’t Hurt You!

0 6 minutes read

Sean Smith’s eyes suddenly turned gloomy. He got up from his chair and reached out and grabbed Amber White’s lower jaw.

“Amber White, don’t think I won’t hurt you!”

Amber White suddenly felt suffocated. Since she didn’t eat in the morning, at this time, she felt suffocated, which made her feel heavy eyelids and coughed twice.

Amber White’s face turned deep purple in an instant.

Sean Smith suddenly threw off his hand, and Amber White fell directly on the conference table, and then hit the wound on her arm, which made Amber White gasp.

She felt a burning pain in her throat, and her chest was seriously deprived of oxygen, and her eyelids were heavy. She felt the darkness before her and couldn’t see anything clearly.

Amber White held on, and her head seemed to be about to crack.

There were only Sean Smith and Amber White left in the conference room.

She leaned against the conference table, motionless, while Sean Smith smiled.

At this time, did Amber White still intend to find fault with him?

Did she want to force him to meet her demands? Why didn’t she consider her own value?

He held out his hand, grabbed Amber White’s shoulder, and then pulled her back. Her body rolled limply in his direction.

Her face turned pale and her lip was black and purple. The cold sweat on her forehead came out, which made her look very weak, as if she would die in the next second!

Sean Smith subconsciously reached for Amber White, and her soft body collided with him, while her body had a faint fragrance.

Was Amber White really weak?

Sean Smith paused and reached out to grab Amber White’s body.

Was this Amber White’s trick to gain an end by enduring bodily suffering?

The pain on Amber White’s face seemed to be real. After Sean Smith hesitated, he picked her up and walked out of the meeting room quickly.

He seemed to be very flustered!

Amber White was a damn woman. Even she could give him a hard lesson, he couldn't watch her have any problems in front of him!

Even if Amber White died, she couldn't die in Smith Group building!

"President Smith ? What happened to Director White? "

Sean Smith ignored those people's words and went straight downstairs.

Twenty minutes later.

Amber White was lying in a hospital bed with a needle in her hand. While writing the prescription, the doctor said to Sean Smith,

"Mrs. Smith's blood glucose is very low, and she didn't eat breakfast in the morning, which caused her transient syncope."

"Her problem is not big. After injecting this bottle of glucose and eating something, she will be fine! "

"You pay attention on it at weekdays and let her prepare some sugar!"

Coming out of the doctor's office, the expression on Sean Smith's face was unpredictable.

Hypoglycemia?

Amber White looked as if she was going to die!

Was she just hypoglycemic?

Sean Smith pinched his lips and held out his hand to pull the sleeve on his shirt. There was a lazy look on his elegant and extraordinary face.

If he had known that she was hypoglycemic, he wouldn't have to waste time with Amber White in the hospital.

And buy breakfast?

He served Cindy White for Amber White all night last night, and he had to stay to serve Amber White!

Sean Smith grunted and stepped downstairs.

Sean Smith saw the porridge shop opposite the hospital at a glance when he walked to the shop next to his Maserati.

There were many people in the porridge shop, and everyone seemed to be in a hurry. Sean Smith hesitated and then walked across the street.

Since Amber White had removed his public relations department, Amber White must keep healthy before dealing with this scandal, even if it was only for his benefit!

In addition, if Amber White had some problems at this time, it was estimated that those entertainment reporters could write many ridiculous articles!

They made a rumor that he killed Amber White because of emotional problems!

How could his lifetime reputation be destroyed in Amber White's hands?

...

In the ward.

Amber White woke up long before Sean Smith sent her to the hospital. However, she was thinking about something. When she came to her senses, Sean Smith had already carried her to this ward.

Amber White licked her dry lip, touched her cell phone and then called An Ran.

"Director White?"

Amber White replied, "An Ran, go to the news department and ask them to send a senior reporter to Tongcheng Central Hospital, and then give me an exclusive interview!"

An Ran was in a daze, and the fact that Amber White was held out of the company by Sean Smith had already spread in the company. She knew Amber White was in the hospital.

"Director White, since you are not feeling well, do you still have to work?"

"Yes."

An Ran hesitated and said, "Director White, those netizens on the Internet cursed you. At this time, if you do an exclusive interview, netizens may not trust it!"

"Since you are not feeling well, you should rest first. There should be no need to be in such a hurry to solve this scandal!"

Amber White smiled and said, "Don't worry, I will be measured!"

"By the way, after hanging up the phone, you put the conversation between me and my boss in the conference room online!"

"Yes, Director White."

Amber White wasn't the only one in the ward when Sean Smith returned from buying food for Amber White!

Sean Smith knew the person sitting in front of the ward. This person was Shen Qian, the head of the news department of Smith Group.

Seeing him enter the door, he made a gesture to the photographer, who took a close-up of Sean Smith.

Sean Smith had a slender figure and a handsome face. He was wearing a hand-sewn high-cut shirt with straight trousers wrapped around his legs. Behind him was the hospital corridor, which was very gloomy and it would set off his sparkle.

The only thing that didn't fit in with him was the takeout in Sean Smith's hand.

He lowered his head and looked calmly at Amber White. The woman who was injected with the needle in bed suddenly showed a sweet smile to Sean Smith.

Amber White looked extraordinary. In this smile, some part of it was shy and sad, and more of it was sweet.

Her smile was like a beautiful flower, which was constantly shaking, blooming on the branches, giving off a burning brilliance.

Sean Smith suddenly felt stunned, and then immediately recovered. Amber White's illness was very serious, and she smiled at him so sweetly.

She should never think that he would forget how Amber White threatened him with Lin Man and his father in the conference room!

She was really shameless. When there were people in the ward, she dared to seduce him so blatantly!

Sean Smith walked to the hospital bed with a straight face, and then reached out to open the takeaway bag.

Shen Qian held the pen and then looked at Amber White and asked,

"Mrs White, you said before that Mr. Smith knew that the child was his daughter."

"Yes!"

Sean Smith suddenly stopped lifting the lid. What the hell was Amber White talking about?

If he knew Cindy White was his child, what paternity test would he do?

He suddenly looked back and looked at Shen Qian, who did not look at him at all, but then asked, "Mrs White, Mr. Smith, is it convenient for you to disclose the reasons for your paternity test this time?"

Amber White took a deep breath, but the smile on her face was far-fetched.

Sean Smith narrowed his eyes slightly. did Amber White have nothing to say?

When he came in, he saw the photographer driving the camera, so the recording was live.

If Amber White couldn't give any reason at this time, Smith Group was really going to die!

Sean Smith held his fingers tightly and sat on the single-person sofa in the ward. He took out his mobile phone, muted his phone, and then turned on the live broadcast.

Amber White's voice rang in the ward. "Before explaining this problem to you, let me show you a short video."

Chapter 289: This Is the Original Intention of Sean's Paternity Test!

0 5 minutes read

She took out her mobile phone and handed it to the photographer.

Sean Smith's mobile phone didn't make any sound, and the background on the screen suddenly changed. He knew this place and it was Jin Yang Guang Kindergarten.

Amber White went on to say, but her voice became hoarse and choked, “This is the surveillance video of our daughter’s kindergarten.

The screen turned into a pantomime, while Cindy White was crowded in a corner by a group of children, and no one knew what they were talking about.

But people could see that Cindy White was the only one being targeted!

On the mobile phone screen, bullet screen’s words become fierce.

[This bitch is going to play suffering play at this time!] [She is a bitch. With a mother like her, the child will certainly not be very good! She deserved it!] [I heard that this damn woman was splashed with sulfuric acid. Why didn’t she ruin this ugly face?]

Sean Smith’s hand holding the phone was suddenly tightened.

He looked in the direction of Amber White, and her eyes were full of tears, while her watery eyes were full of sadness.

Amber White pursed her lips and whispered, “Today, the kindergarten director called me.”

“Cindy was scolded by her teachers and classmates at school for being a bastard and a bitch, and she has no father ...”

She suddenly looked up, looked at the main screen and some tears came out of her eyes. “This is Sean’s original intention for paternity test!”

“Cindy’s father is Sean. Before this, Sean worked in HK, so he only transferred back more than a month ago! “

“Hai Wan Xiang Xie is close to HK, while Xingyue Bay is close to Smith Group and kindergarten. We have been separated for three years, but we definitely have no idea of divorce! “

With this, Shen Qian asked, “Don’t you have the idea of divorce?”

Amber White nodded and whispered, “If we want a divorce, the court can sentence us to be divorced within two years of separation.”

What she said was very reasonable. Shen Qian asked again, “Since this is for your children, why don’t you go through formal channels?”

“We are worried that it will be used by some people with ulterior motives, which will cause the Smith Group to be turbulent!”

Amber White paused and went on to say, “But even this time, Sean has already ordered to do this secretly, and it has been used by some people.”

“Mrs White, this is just your side of the story. What evidence do you have? “

Amber White shook her head and whispered, “I have no evidence, this is all I can take out!”

Shen Qian nodded, while the photographer behind him stopped recording.

The businesslike expression on Shen Qian's face disappeared. He took a step in the direction of Amber White and whispered, "Director White, next ..."

Amber White's face was a little tired. She easily leaned against the hospital bed, her eyes were slightly closed and her lips were slightly pressed. She then took out her mobile phone from her pocket. "Give me your mobile phone number and I will send you a recording."

Shen Qian reported his mobile phone number, Amber White lowered her head, and then forwarded the recording.

"When the online discussion is the most intense, you buy a famous Weibo account and send it out, thus guiding the netizens' discussion trend!"

Shen Qian nodded his head. He lowered his head, clicked in without hesitation, and then played the audio.

The audio was very clear in the quiet room.

[President Lin, I'll only say it once!] [Cindy is my daughter. If I hear someone in your kindergarten call her a bastard again, whether it's a child, a teacher, or a rumor ...] [I'll tear down Jin Yang Guang, and then contribute a public toilet to the downtown!]

Shen Qian's eyes became brightened. At the beginning, the headmaster replied, followed by Sean Smith's voice, which was a real evidence. With these two sentences, it was easy for Smith Group to turn the tide!

"President Smith, is it convenient for you to ask the specific time of the call?"

Sean Smith lowered his head, and his short black hair pressed against his face, making him look gloomy.

Shen Qian didn't find anything strange and wore a joyful look on his face.

Sean Smith, "About 8: 40 this morning!"

Shen Qian's smile on his face became more brilliant. He was in a hurry to find the kindergarten principal to get the specific time of the call record.

He left happily with the photographer. When he walked to the door of the ward, he looked back admiringly and said to the silent ward, "Director White, President Smith, the feelings between you are really good!"

Sean Smith kept a straight face and almost turned livid. Amber White sipped her lip and smiled.

At this point, there was no one else in the ward. Sean Smith finally couldn't help laughing. With a sigh, he whispered,

"Director White is really good. You can know the content of this call so clearly! "

"Is there anything else in this world that you don't know?"

Sean Smith took a deep breath. His mobile phone page still stayed on the live broadcast page. At this point, the live broadcast had stopped, and the screen became dark.

And just now, he felt that Cindy White was being bullied in kindergarten.

Now it seemed that Amber White knew all this for a long time and was waiting for such a day!

Sean Smith really wanted to strangle Amber White. How dared she use her daughter so much? Was Amber White still a human?

Amber White looked up and looked at Sean Smith and said, "Sean, President Lin called me!"

"He wants me to intercede for him. He doesn't know much about Cindy!"

If it wasn't for President Lin's phone call, Amber White didn't know Cindy White had been bullied in school!

She didn't want Cindy White to be exposed to the world of netizens, but the most important thing now was to solve the crisis of Smith Group first!

Sean Smith was very angry.

He raised his hand and threw his mobile phone out. Amber White blinked and her eyelashes were trembled. "President Smith, are you very angry about this?"

Sean Smith sneered!

He really couldn't believe Amber White didn't know how he felt.

The main reason why she asked was that she was worried that he would not feel sick enough?

Sean Smith stared at Amber White with a straight face. But her voice suddenly stopped and whispered, "President Smith, you should know that if these news are allowed to ferment, the loss of Smith Group will be even more serious. When I do this, I also stop the loss in time!"

Sean Smith suddenly stood up, walked to Amber White and said seriously, "According to your statement, should I thank you?"

"Amber White, don't say that you don't have any idea about it!"

"I was cuckolded by you, and then you married into our Smith family with a child!"

"Are you still going to bring this bastard into our home? Your conspiracy is really very good!"

Amber White's face turned pale.

Sean Smith and Cindy White often got along with each other these days. Amber White originally thought that they already had feelings. But she didn't expect that the he could say the word bastard so easily!

She bit her lip and looked at Sean Smith.

He took a deep breath and suddenly approached, pressing Amber White on the hospital bed, while his dark jade eyes were full of coldness.

"I can cooperate with everything you said before."

Amber White was stunned.

Sean Smith was losing his temper, but how did he suddenly become so approachable?

Chapter 290: Shall We Go to Fengshi Kindergarten to Meet Cindy?

0 5 minutes read

Amber White felt shortness of breath. They were close, and her red lips were between Sean Smith's breath. She could kiss him with a slight bow.

After leaning over, Sean Smith found out that Amber White's face was very smooth and clean, which seemed to be covered with a thin layer of white velvet, and it stimulated his heart.

Sean Smith thought that he seemed to be crazy and wanted to kiss Amber White ...

"President Smith?"

Amber White suddenly spoke, Sean Smith instantly came to his senses, and his pupil contracted with a cold light.

Amber White licked her lips and whispered, "I have finished the needles. Let's go to Fengshi kindergarten to meet Cindy, shall we?"

Sean Smith stared at Amber White's lips carefully, and she showed some redness of the skin. When the tip of her tongue stretched out, it seemed very tempting. Sean Smith thought that his throat was still a little dry ...

"After receiving Cindy, we will buy some clothes and daily necessities. I will move to Hai Wan Xiang Xie today."

Sean Smith's lustful eyes disappeared in an instant.

He leaned back slightly and said with a sneer, "I haven't finished yet!"

Amber White looked over and found that Sean Smith was approaching her again. He leaned against Amber White's ear and said, "For Smith Group, I am willing to make concessions and cooperate with you ..."

"But, Amber White, you are absolutely not allowed to go to Hai Wan Xiang Xie!"

Amber White paused and looked at Sean Smith in disbelief. He said coldly, "Don't Director White remember? Hai Wan Xiang Xie is the wedding room I am going to use to marry Lin Man! "

Amber White's eyelashes suddenly jumped and her face turned pale.

Yes, she suddenly remembered a little thing that happened three years ago!

On the wedding day, after they came out of the hotel, Tomas Smith originally wanted to send her to Hai Wan Xiang Xie.

However, Hai Wan Xiang Xie was empty, but Hai Wan Xiang Xie was replaced by a fingerprint lock. Sean Smith was very dissatisfied with this and Tomas Smith felt helpless. Finally, she was welcomed to the Smith family's old house!

Tomas Smith once called Sean Smith, and she stood aside, so she heard very clearly!

Sean Smith said that Hai Wan Xiang Xie was his wedding room with Lin Man. No one could live in except Lin Man!

When she was pregnant, she felt as if she was in the ice and snow, full of despair!

After recalling the past, Amber White still felt breathless. She had loved him for so many years, but he took good care of others and was full of feelings ...

Amber White felt bored, but suddenly she smiled, "Sean, I just want Hai Wan Xiang Xie. I advise you to stop thinking about Lin Man. If I don't give the position of Mrs. Smith to others, she will never have a chance! "

Sean Smith's pupils contracted. "Amber White, don't be greedy!"

"If you agree, I will take you and Cindy to live in the old house!"

"This effect is the same!"

Amber White wouldn't give in, "I just want Hai Wan Xiang Xie. If you think that you and Lin Man still have a chance, then you can help her prepare the wedding room at the other places! "

"In addition, on the night when Tang Tian was locked in Ye Se Bar, I had already lived in Hai Wan Xiang Xie!"

"Sean, don't you have the sopophobia, don't you think it is creepy if you give it to Lin Man?"

Sean Smith suddenly showed a cold face. He tilted his head and stared at Amber White with deep and remote eyes. After a while, he suddenly sneered and said, "Okay!"

"Good!"

"Amber White, you are so good!"

He suddenly stood up and was about to leave when Amber White suddenly reached out and grabbed Sean Smith's wrist.

"Sean, you can't go!"

Amber White whispered, "There must be reporters outside the hospital. If you leave now, then our previous efforts will fall short! "

"For Smith Group and your dad, you must be patient!"

Sean Smith took a deep breath. He looked very gloomy with a straight face. "Can't I go out and smoke?"

Amber White licked her lips and let go.

After walking out of the ward, Sean Smith was instantly enveloped in the sultry air outside. Sean Smith lit a cigarette and took a heavy breath.

Amber White was really having too many intrigues and she was simply a modern schemer!

Her heart is not pure. He was really worried that one day in the future, if he neglected something, he would be set up by Amber White!

Sean Smith lit a cigarette and saw an incoming call.

Sean Smith took out his mobile phone and glanced at the caller ID. This was Xu Lin.

Sean Smith suddenly remembered that the owner of the paternity test agency had been sent to the police station, and Sean Smith asked Xu Lin to know about the follow-up...

He suddenly understood, and immediately connected the phone.

“What is it?”

“President Smith, the police have accepted the case. I signed a confidentiality agreement with this boss before... “

“If he go through the operation of the our ministry of law, this person is expected to be severely punished!”

Sean Smith didn't hear a word he wanted to hear. His veins stood out on his forehead, and he seemed to have an impulse to remove Xu Lin!

He didn't have any insight except his ability to handle affairs!

“I ask you, did he explain why he wanted to disclose the paternity test?”

Xu Lin replied, “He did. He said he knew me, so he knew you were going to have a paternity test. Finally, he wants to blackmail some money ... “

“He originally wanted to blackmail your money, but I signed a confidentiality agreement with him. So he deliberately sold it to reporters! “

Sean Smith spat out the smoke with a straight face.

“According to you, the paternity test I got before is true?”

The other end of the phone became silent, and Sean Smith also paused.

After that, Xu Lin said, “He said that the paternity test that came out on the Internet is true!”

That was to say, Cindy White was not his daughter.

Sean Smith licked his lips, and Xu Lin immediately said, “President Smith, you can rest assured. The relationship at the police station has been cleared, and I can guarantee that there will be no gossip! “

Sean Smith kept silent, and Xu Lin came to his senses.

What Sean Smith wanted to hear was definitely not this!

“President Smith, I think that boss can do anything for money, so his words are not credible!”

“We might as well take this opportunity to urgently go to a formal institution to do it again.”

Xu Lin became cautious when talking, while Sean Smith sneered and said, “What if the baby really isn’t mine?!”

“Will you bear the losses of Smith Group?”

Xu Lin shrank his neck. “So ... I’ll go to other places and continue to do it again?”

Sean Smith shook his head. “No!”

It’s enough that this happened once. No matter how unreliable the boss was, he was better than Amber White!

Sean Smith had thought that if Cindy White was really a child for Smith family, Amber White must have many ways to send her to Smith family’s genealogy.

She was a thoughtful person, so she wouldn’t endure humiliation for so many years!

With this, Sean Smith hung up the phone directly.

The sunlight outside was dazzling. There was a huge poplar tree outside the window of the corridor. Its leaves were delicate and charming, but it blocked half of the light.

This made the environment look a little narrow.

Sean Smith stood for a while and finally came to his senses from his daze, then turned around.
