

Mr Smith 371

Chapter 371: Did I Disturb You

0 4 minutes read

“You...”

Sean was also a little surprised when he saw Lin Man, as if he didn't expect that she would reach the ward so quickly.

“Lin Man?”

Lin Man looked pale, “Did I disturb you guys?”

Cindy hadn't woken up. The middle of the bed where Amber and Sean laid earlier was messy.

Lin Man looked paler.

A weird feeling of being caught adultery in the act came to Amber.

She shook her head and went straight into the bathroom.

Lin Man put her handbag and the small snacks she bought for Cindy on the cabinet, “Sean, I'm glad to see you and Amber get along...”

Sean kept silent, and he glanced in the direction of the bathroom.

Amber didn't even say hello to Lin Man. She wanted Lin Man to misunderstand them badly.

“Lin Man, you came so early.”

Sean changed the subject. Lin Man laughed, “I'm worried about Cindy. I didn't even sleep much last night!”

She was worried about Amber's child?

Lin Man was really kind. She truly regarded Amber as a good friend for so many years.

But Amber had never been nice to Lin Man.

Three years ago, she even took him away from Lin Man.

After they talked for a while, Amber washed up and walked out of the bathroom.

Her face was porcelain-fair. A bar of sunlight came in and fell on her, which gave people a strong peaceful feeling.

Sean's adam's apple moved.

Lin Man suddenly asked, “Amber, I heard that Cindy's condition is so serious that she might go blind?”

“Really?”

Amber, who was wiping her face, froze, turned her head and looked at Lin Man, “Who said that?”

Lin Man was at a loss, "That's not true?"

"Miss Lin, are you wishing to see Cindy go blind?"

Lin Man suddenly stood up from the stool, "Amber, I didn't mean that. When Sean answered the phone yesterday, he mentioned it!"

"Of course I hope Cindy will be okay, otherwise I wouldn't have come to see her!"

Amber froze.

Amber thought of Lu Yi. When he left, he knew Cindy's condition.

The doctor said, Cindy's eyes could recover because she was sent to the hospital early.

She frowned, thinking about it seriously.

Sean thought that Amber was feeling guilty.

Mrs. Smith's words resounded in his ear again.

Just because of that phone call, his father was almost in danger!

Amber exaggerated Cindy's condition.

Moreover, she even insinuated Lin Man at this time?

Sean's eyelid twitched, and suddenly he let out a low laugh, "After I came yesterday, I fetched Cindy's medical record!"

"The doctor said she would unlikely go blind."

The corner of Lin Man's mouth curved almost inconspicuously.

Sean got out of bed and walked to Amber, "Director White, don't you just want me to stay with you in the hospital?"

"Next time, just tell me directly. If you don't lie or play tricks, I may come more willingly."

After that, Sean went directly into the bathroom.

Amber's expression remained unchanged. She walked to the bed and asked Lin Man with a natural expression, "Have you had breakfast?"

"Huh?"

"I'm going to buy breakfast. Do you want one?"

When Amber asked this, she made Lin Man feel like there was no grudge between them.

"Yes, a seafood porridge."

Amber nodded and walked out carrying the handbag.

Amber went to the opposite street, and it took her less than fifteen minutes to buy breakfast.

When she returned to the ward, she happened to see Lin Man lying in Sean's arms.

Hearing Amber's movement, Lin Man suddenly pushed Sean and stood up straight. She arranged her hair, looked at Amber and said, "Amber, don't misunderstand..."

Before Lin Man finished explaining, Amber nodded.

Sean was a mature man. It was normal for him to have desires for the woman she liked.

Amber took out the small table, set it up, put the breakfast on it, and whispered, "Come for the breakfast. I'll go wake Cindy up."

Sean's eyes darkened.

Lin Man wanted to explain, but Sean grabbed her wrist and took her to the table, "Lin Man, let's eat."

"But..."

His eyes were cold, "But what? Three years ago, if it weren't for her, you would be my wife!"

"Maybe we would have had several children."

Sean was straightforward. Lin Man smiled, "Sean, Cindy is also very cute. She looks like you and will be a pretty girl in the future."

Did she?

Amber had wakened Cindy up. Cindy was sitting on the bed with messy hair.

The child was not his. How could she look like him?

Even if she did, she still had nothing to do with him!

Besides, Cindy was Amber's daughter. One day, Amber would teach her to be someone he hated most!

Cindy went to Sean when she woke up.

"Mom, where's dad?"

Her vision was blurry, but she was not completely blind. Sean and Lin Man were sitting in the small living room of the ward. Although they were not far away, Cindy could not see them at all.

"Mom, is dad gone again?"

Amber glanced at Sean subconsciously, meeting his dark gaze.

She immediately looked away, "No, he is eating breakfast there!"

"Let me take you to wash and eat with him later, okay?"

Amber slowed her tone, and said in a gentle voice.

"Okay."

After helping Cindy wash up, Amber walked to Sean with Cindy in her arms. Sean pulled a stool to the table.

Sean frowned slightly.

Why did he do that for Amber? She was not disabled.

No, he must have been confused by Amber.

Sean, who was holding the chopsticks, paused, while his eyes fell on Cindy who was in Amber's arms.

What a poor child!

"Dad?"

Hearing the sound of pulling the stool, Cindy looked in Sean's direction.

Amber sat down.

Sean remembered Cindy's big clear eyes when she looked at him before.

No wonder Amber would be worried.

Sean responded, and then looked at Amber, "You should go to the attending doctor and ask when he will treat her eyes!"

Hearing this, Amber was a little nervous, "I ran into the doctor when I went to buy breakfast."

"He said that Cindy may need an operation."

Chapter 372: I Am a Little Worried

0 4 minutes read

Cindy needed an operation?

Sean didn't think this was a good idea.

The parasites had already gone into her eyes. What if there were any more in her body?

What if there were residual parasites in her after her eyes recovered?

Amber bit the corner of her lips and whispered, "I'll ask the doctor to give Cindy another general check-up after breakfast!"

"I'm a little worried..."

"Amber, each of the doctors in the hospital is very professional. Don't worry."

Lin Man interjected.

Amber paused and looked at Sean. Sean was Cindy's father. At this time, she naturally wanted to hear Sean's opinion.

“Give her a check-up first, and if there are no potential parasites and the doctor insists on giving her an operation, then do it.”

Cindy asked with a puzzled look, “Operation? Is the doctor going to cut open my eyes?”

“Mom, I’m scared!”

Amber held Cindy tightly, “Don’t be scared. Mom and dad are here! It won’t hurt. After the operation, you will be able to see again.”

Cindy took it with a grain of salt.

Amber rubbed Cindy’s head, then looked at Sean, and whispered, “Sean, Lu Yi told me last night that he knows a famous ophthalmologist...”

Before she finished speaking, Sean suddenly put down his chopsticks heavily.

Amber stopped abruptly, wondering why Sean was angry.

Lu Yi?

Hearing this name, Sean lost his appetite.

He put forward such advice, which meant that he would be solely responsible for Cindy’s treatment.

Lu Yi knew a famous ophthalmologist?

So, did Amber look down on him?

Did she think that he was inferior to Lu Yi and cannot find a good doctor who could treat Cindy!

Or she only trusted Lu Yi?

Just because he was not Cindy’s biological father?

Sean licked the corner of her lips, “Since that’s the case, with Director Lu accompanying Cindy, I’m sure Cindy will be fine!”

“After all, Father Lu is also a father, right?”

Between Sean’s lips and teeth, the word ‘father’ was grinded. He stressed it, and there were crackling sparks in his eyes!

Amber was speechless, and her expression was a little dazed, “You...”

“What? I am very busy! Do I have to be with you in the hospital?!”

His voice suddenly raised.

Cindy was startled and shrank into Amber’s arms. She couldn’t see Sean’s expression clearly, so she felt more insecure.

“Sean, keep your voice down. You scared Cindy.”

Lin Man glanced at Sean sullenly, then stretched out her hand and rubbed Cindy's head. Cindy didn't like it, and shrank into Amber's arms again, "Aunt Lin, my mother said that I have worms in me and they are contagious. Don't come near me!"

"If you are infected, I have no money to treat you!"

Lin Man's smile suddenly froze.

Amber didn't notice Lin Man's reaction, holding Cindy and fixedly looking at Sean with her clear eyes.

"I was going to ask you, since you and Lu Yi are cousins, maybe you know the person he knows!"

"Since you are busy, I will call Lu Yi and ask him if he has time to take me to that ophthalmologist."

Sean, "..."

"That's it?"

Amber blinked and said, "I don't want to delay Cindy's treatment. I want her to recover soon."

The corner of Sean's lips curved.

He felt inexplicable relieved.

He bent his finger, tapped on the table a few times, and then said in a low voice, "Well, after the breakfast, ask the hospital to give Cindy a check-up."

Sean looked at Amber suspiciously.

"The ophthalmologist Lu Yi mentioned is from Tong City Central Hospital?"

Amber nodded, "But he was away to participate in an academic exchange meeting in another place. He will be back today!"

"I see."

"The dean will come over later!"

"You know medicine. Cindy probably requires more than just an ophthalmologist!"

"Let's eat first!"

His tone was flat, as if the weather was good.

Amber didn't expect that Sean would be willing to help. A small smile appeared on her face.

She was stunningly beautiful, and her smile was dreamlike and ethereal.

Sean was in a trance for a moment.

Cindy reached out in Sean's direction, "Dad, hug!"

He put down the chopsticks he had just picked up and took the child over.

He held Cindy in his arms, and Cindy said sweetly, "Dad, can you feed me?"

“I can smell the seafood porridge...”

She acted cute. Sean went soft-hearted but saw only one seafood porridge in front of Lin Man.

He frowned and looked at Amber, “You bought only one seafood porridge?”

“Yeah.”

Amber felt a little embarrassed. Cindy was scared last night and kept talking to her. She said she wanted to have oatmeal.

Amber bought oatmeal for her in the morning.

However, the smell of seafood porridge was strong. She smelled it and wanted it.

Lin Man pushed the seafood porridge to Cindy and whispered, “Amber, I only took a bite of it. The spoon is clean. If you don’t mind...”

“Don’t bother!”

Sean spoke suddenly.

Lin Man looked at him. He was against the light. His facial features became more distinct and refined, as if he was from comics.

Cindy was sitting on his sturdy thigh. The two of them looked similar, and there was a hint of gentleness that appeared infrequently in the man’s eyes.

He coaxed Cindy in a low voice.

“The seafood porridge is aunt Lin’s. The red bean osmanthus porridge is mine. Would you like to have a try?”

“Yes!”

Sean fed Cindy spoon by spoon. Lin Man opened her mouth but said nothing.

“Dad, you eat it.”

Sean used Cindy’s spoon without hesitation.

Lin Man held her chopsticks tightly.

She almost couldn’t hold back questioning Sean, didn’t you have a morbid fear of getting dirty?

Even when they were in love, Sean would not even touch anything she had eaten!

Why was Cindy an exception?

Amber had seen this before, so she was not surprised.

She only occasionally took some vegetables and fed them to Cindy.

The three of them looked harmonious. Lin Man was like a complete outsider. No matter what she said or did, she could not fit into them.

Her eyes turned red in an instant.

“Sean... Sean, I can’t help much here. I’m leaving.”

Hearing Lin Man’s words, Sean raised his head and suddenly met her red eyes.

Chapter 373: I Wish Cindy a Speedy Recover

0 4 minutes read

Sean slightly loosened his grip on Cindy, and it took a long while for him to respond.

“Lin Man, you know, Cindy is sick.”

“I know a Cantonese restaurant. After her eye surgery is done, we will eat there together, okay?”

Lin Man wiped the tears that didn’t come out and said okay.

“Sean, Amber, I wish Cindy a speedy recovery!”

Amber nodded, “Thank you.”

After she finished speaking, she took Cindy from Sean’s arms and said in a low voice, “You walk Miss Lin out. I will take Cindy to the attending doctor for a checkup!”

Sean pressed the corner of his lips, and looked up at Lin Man.

She was looking at him, and Sean could even see the expectation in her eyes.

Sean nodded deeply, stood up, and walked out with Lin Man.

Amber stayed in the ward, put Cindy on the bed, simply cleaned the leftover on the table, and then took out her phone.

Xiaoshen had sent Marcus’s phone number to her.

She dialed directly.

Marcus had Amber’s phone number. Seeing it was Amber, he was a little excited, “Sister, what’s the matter?”

Amber blinked.

There was dust floating in the air, falling on her slender eyelashes.

“Mr. White, where did you buy that dog?”

“Why?”

Marcus’s voice had a momentary blur.

Amber’s expression remained unchanged and she whispered, “Mr. White, I may need to see you.”

“It’s about Cindy. We need to talk face to face!”

...

When Sean came back, Cindy was undergoing an examination. Most likely because of Sean, the results came out quickly.

Cindy's condition was neither serious nor light.

After a discussion, the experts still thought Cindy needed a surgery.

Amber had the same idea.

She was a mother. She couldn't watch her child being in danger.

Infesting parasites was like giving Amber a preventive injection.

She called Lu Xiangxiang and asked her to take time off to stay with Cindy in the hospital.

Lu Xiangxiang came out of the company, with black cropped trousers and a white shirt. As soon as she appeared, she was like bringing the lifeless hospital back to life.

There was only Amber in the ward, and Cindy was taken downstairs by Sean to buy ice cream.

The child's medical record was on the table. Lu Xiangxiang did not say anything, but glanced at the medical record.

"Why didn't you tell me that Cindy is infected with parasites?"

Lu Xiangxiang looked a little sullen.

"Amber, you are not a person who likes pets. Why did you suddenly allow Cindy to have a dog!?"

Amber told the story to Lu Xiangxiang briefly.

Lu Xiangxiang frowned and said sarcastically, "Sherman? He still had the nerve to see you?"

"Three years ago, if it weren't for him, you wouldn't have been notorious in Tong City!"

"What a shameless bastard! Knowing that he couldn't convince you, so he asked Marcus to see you?"

Lu Xiangxiang was holding the medical record tightly. The corner of the paper was crumpled by her.

The corner of her eyes was raised slightly. She said coldly, "Did Marcus harm Cindy deliberately? Because he was worried that you would take the White Group from him?"

Amber shook her head, "He wouldn't be so stupid!"

"If he did, he would be discovered easily! Intentionally hurting children is against law. He would be put in jail!"

"Besides, even though Cindy takes my last name, everyone in Tong City knew she is the young lady of the Smith family!"

Amber sighed and whispered, "The White Group don't have the guts to offend the Smith family!"

Lu Xiangxiang didn't continue to ask, "You asked me to come over to investigate this?"

Amber nodded.

She had to find the culprit!

This person made Cindy be infected with parasites unconsciously, which indicated that he had a lot of contact with Cindy.

She doubted Marcus before!

However, he appeared half a month ago. Half a month was not enough for the toxocariae to spread to eyes.

“Although Cindy didn’t say anything, I know she is very scared!”

“Now that Cindy is in hospital, the person who harmed her would never know that we would investigate this at this time.”

Amber pressed the corner of her lips, and then said, “Xiangxiang, please help me look after Cindy. I will find out the culprit as soon as possible and then buy you dinner!”

Lu Xiangthuan nodded.

According to what Amber said, Cindy would probably be fine.

She breathed a sigh of relief, “I’ll choose something expensive then!”

“Well, you can do what you want now!”

Amber nodded and walked out with the handbag on the bedside.

She was going to see Marcus at Interstellar Cafe. It was not far from the hospital. When Amber arrived, Marcus had been waiting for a while.

Seeing her, Marcus stood up awkwardly.

“Sister.”

Amber nodded in a lukewarm attitude. Marcus pressed the corner of his lips.

She whispered, “I thought you were not coming.”

Marcus, “Sister, whenever you want to see me, I will definitely come.”

“You know that the Smith Group can’t cooperate with your company. Why are you still willing to see me during work hours?”

The sunlight outside was bright. Amber took a sip of water, and her pupils were smudged into maroon, which was inconceivably beautiful.

Marcus scratched his head shyly, and whispered, “Because you are my sister.”

His reason was very simple.

Amber fixedly looked at him, and only saw pureness from his eyes. Suddenly, she had a feeling that she was very dirty compared with him.

“Sister, what are you going to talk about with me?”

Marcus mentioned it. Amber put down the teacup in her hand and whispered, "Go back with me first."

After they returned to Xingyue Bay, Amber took the dog and got into Marcus's car.

The White family was actually very rich.

However, his car was a Mercedes.

Amber's eyebrows were knitted slightly.

"Sherman didn't want to buy you a good car?"

Marcus froze for a moment, and whispered, "I bought this myself."

"I didn't use his money."

Amber was a little surprised, but did not continue to ask. Marcus glanced at the Pomeranian in the back seat, and felt more and more curious, "Sister, why did you bring the dog out? Is something wrong with it?"

Amber did not answer, but asked in a low voice, "Did you meet anyone when you bought the dog?"

Chapter 374: What Is That

0 4 minutes read

Marcus glanced at her who was in the co-driver's seat.

She was wearing the seat belt and sitting on the sun-filled car seat with a calm face, but Marcus just felt that the atmosphere was solemn.

"Sister..."

"Pull over."

Amber asked Marcus to pull over. Marcus was so absorbed in talking to Amber that he almost couldn't brake immediately.

As soon as he stopped, he saw the building by the road.

It was a pet hospital.

Marcus was nervous, and his voice trembled.

"Sister... Why did you bring me here?"

Amber opened the rear door and let the dog out. She didn't enter the hospital at once but held the dog and stood at the gate of the pet hospital in high heels.

"Cindy was infected with toxoplasma and almost blinded. She is now in the hospital."

The expression on Amber's face was calm. Her fair jaw made a nice curve in the air.

Marcus was a little scared, "What is toxoplasma? It's..."

He continued with difficulty, "It's the dog I sent her that made her infect?"

"Let's go in and give the dog a check-up."

Marcus had no choice but went in with her.

There were many categories of pet examination. As soon as they entered, the Pomeranian they brought was taken away by the veterinarian in the pet hospital.

The two of them stayed in the hall.

Marcus fidgeted.

The report came out soon. Amber quickly scanned the content on it, and then handed it to Marcus.

Before he could read it, the veterinarian spoke.

"This dog is unhealthy."

"There are more than two kinds of parasites in it, among which mites and toxoplasma are harmful to people.

Marcus stiffened and his ears buzzed.

"Sister!"

"It's not me. I didn't know the dog has parasites!"

A touch of anxiety covered his eyes, "..."

Amber was not surprised.

She gave a low laugh, patted Marcus on the shoulder, and whispered, "I believe you are not the one who harmed Cindy."

Marcus was looking at Amber whose eyes were full of sincerity.

What he wanted to say was stuck in his throat instantly.

Amber took the test result from the veterinarian, and then walked out of the veterinary hospital with Marcus.

"Mr. White, do you know what dangers mites and toxoplasma cause to human's health?"

"Toxoplasma can cause mild anterior uveitis, posterior iris adhesion, vitreous inflammation and retinal detachment. It can damage children's vision in severe cases."

"The mites can cause skin diseases, various inflammations of the respiratory tract, and asthma in severe cases."

Marcus was too shocked to speak.

"Sorry, I was too hasty. I changed the dog when I was in the pet shop."

“I saw that they had complete certificates, so I let my guard down.”

“Sister, I’ll take care of Cindy’s all medical expenses.”

He held his fingers tightly, and Amber was surprised.

Marcus was young. It hadn’t been long since he came back from studying abroad.

Sherman always shirked responsibility, however, Marcus was man enough to admit his mistake, which really surprised Amber.

“It has nothing to do with you.”

Amber whispered, “I knew medicine. People would have ocular toxocariasis only after eating food contaminated by cats and dogs.”

“Moreover, you sent the dog to Cindy half a month ago.”

“Although the larvae of toxoplasma can move in children, half a month is not enough for Cindy to be sick.”

Marcus opened his mouth and looked shocked.

Amber licked the corner of her slightly dry mouth.

“But, there are toxoplasma and mites in the dog.”

It dawned on Marcus, “You mean, someone wanted to frame me?”

Amber whispered, “So, who knew about your dog purchase, or who did you meet when you bought the dog?”

...

In Tong City’s Central Hospital.

Sean bought ice cream for Cindy. When he returned to the ward, he only saw a slender figure beside the single sofa.

Cindy couldn’t see, so Sean kept holding her.

Cindy was holding an ice-cream cone in her hand. Sean turned his head and saw a woman sitting in the ward.

He frowned, “Why are you here? Where is Amber?”

The corner of Lu Xiangxiang’s mouth curved, and she said in a low voice, “Mr. Smith, why are you in such a hurry to look for Amber? You can’t live without her?”

She had always been sharp-tongued. Sean was speechless.

To be honest, he didn’t like Lu Xiangxiang.

He always felt that she was as bad as Amber.

“Where is Amber?”

Sean gritted his teeth. His tone sounded casual, but the atmosphere was solemn to the extreme.

Lu Xiangxiang walked straight to the bed, picked up Cindy with one hand, then looked up at Sean and asked.

“Don’t you hate Amber? As far as I know, you never meddled in each other’s things. So Amber doesn’t need to tell you where she is, does she?”

Her daughter was in the hospital, and was still in danger!

Amber was not in the hospital to take care of her but went out?

Was she going to seduce other men?

Or was she up to something big?

Was there anything in Amber’s heart that was more important than her daughter’s eyes?

What she showed in front of him, the pampering and caring for the child, was indeed fake!

Sean snorted coldly.

Did she deliberately arranged for Lu Xiangxiang to upset him?

Sean took a deep breath, and his eyelid twitched.

He sneered, his eyes staying for a moment on Lu Xiangxiang.

“Cindy, do you miss me?”

“Yes!”

Cindy answered loudly.

Her vision was blurred. Even if Lu Xiangxiang was right in front of her, she couldn’t see her face clearly.

Instead, Cindy could see the colorful ice-cream cone in front of her clearly.

“Auntie, where’s my mom?”

Her big black-and-white eyes were empty. Lu Xiangxiang was a little distressed, rubbed Cindy’s head and said in a low voice, “Your mom has something to deal with. She will be back later.”

“Why, you only like your mother and don’t want me to stay with you?”

Sean sneered.

Amber had something to deal with?

Cindy was about to have the surgery. What could be more important than Cindy’s surgery?

It was okay she was irresponsible in her work, but how could she make the Feng Group’s employee be like her?

If he ran into Feng Chen at banquets, how was he supposed to explain this to him?

Chapter 375: Are You Hired to Watch Me

0 4 minutes read

Good for you, Amber!

Sean took a cigarette out of his trouser pocket and held it in his mouth.

Cindy was still here, so he didn't plan to lit it.

The faint smell of tobacco lingered around his nose, giving Sean a kind of comfort.

He took out his cell phone, and directly found Amber's phone number. Without thinking, he dialed it directly.

But Amber didn't answer it.

Sean looked a little sullen, frowned, grabbed the car key from the table, and walked directly out of the ward.

"Mr. Smith, where are you going?"

Sean glanced at Lu Xiangxiang, then asked with a sneer, "Just because you are my wife's best friend, so I have to tell you where I'm going to?"

"Are you hired by my wife to watch me?"

Lu Xiangxiang smiled, "No, I'm just curious."

"Mr. Smith, are you going to look for Amber? You really can't live without her?"

Sean smiled, "You and Director White are indeed good friends. You are both good at flattering yourselves!"

Why would he look for Amber? Wasn't the bar a better choice?

Besides, since Amber didn't care about her daughter's illness, why should he care?

Cindy was not his kid anyway.

Sean was out of the ward with the cigarette in his mouth.

The lighter was left in the ward. Sean rummaged around in the car to see if he could find another one.

When the hidden drawer under the co-driver's seat was opened, a box rolled out of it.

Sean paused and then reached for it.

The sender was Gu Jinyan. Sean suddenly remembered what was inside.

Amber's purse and cell phone were in it.

Sean risked his life to save Amber in Paramount.

After waking up from the hospital, he didn't return the purse to Amber.

Sean opened the purse.

The purse was not big. There were a lipstick, a small makeup mirror, and a pink Card Protector in it.

Sean was surprised.

This was the first time he saw pink in Amber's world.

Amber had always been capable and able in the company, and her outfit was always neat and tidy.

Moreover, Amber was treacherous and decisive. Unexpectedly, she had such a girlish side.

Sean grabbed the purse and poured out all the things in it.

The Card Protector was turned to the middle page. It was Amber's ID card.

Amber was wearing a white T-shirt with a childish-looking face, and her smile was clear and clean.

Sean rubbed the photo with his rough thumb.

Well...

Was this a photo of Amber in high school?

She looked young and pretty immature.

At that time, Amber was already so good at pretending. No one could tell there was such an evil heart under her youthful and clean appearance!

The corner of Sean's mouth curved coldly. When he was about to look other photos, the car window was knocked from the outside.

He raised his head at once and missed the photo under his thumb.

Lin Man was outside the car. Sean closed the Card Protector, then pulled off the coat on the seat and threw it on these things.

He then opened the window.

"Sean, why are you here?"

"Are... are you going out?"

Her tone was a little hesitant. Sean smiled and nodded, and said in a low voice, "Yes, I have something to do. Cindy is upstairs. Do you want to go up?"

Lin Man shook her head, and she naturally reached out to open the car door, "I will go with you."

The car door was locked, and Lin Man couldn't open it. She looked at Sean in astonishment, and pressed her pink lips tightly.

Sean reached out and touched his nose, then whispered, "Lin Man, I'm going out for official business. It's not very convenient to take you."

"I'll be back soon. You wait for me in the hospital."

Lin Man's hand slowly retracted.

"Then, be safe on the way."

Sean nodded and drove the car out of the underground garage.

The cell phone Amber was using was the one he had Xu Lin buy for her.

At that time, he was in the hospital and couldn't reach Amber. Her mobile phone disappeared in Paramount, but she didn't seem to be anxious to buy a new one.

Therefore, Sean asked Xu Lin to buy a mobile phone for her.

But Amber didn't know there was a tracker in her new phone.

Sean unlocked his phone directly and found Amber's location.

It was not because he couldn't do without Amber and he wanted to find her!

Amber might have gone to see Cindy's biological father.

He was going to see who the man was!

His Maserati left a beautiful afterimage on the road.

Twenty minutes later, he arrived at the pet hospital. Amber and Marcus happened to walk out of it at this time.

Amber was expressionless, and Marcus's face covered with righteous indignation.

"Sister, I'm going to that pet shop. I'll ask the owner if Lin Man instructed him!"

"How could they harm a child like that!"

"Lin Man is so vicious!"

Hearing this, Amber looked calm.

"If the owner of that pet shop doesn't admit it, I will beat him until he does!"

The corner of Amber's mouth curved, "Don't be so impulsive. There will be a better solution. You can't solve this with violence!"

When Sean heard this, he suddenly poked his head out of the car window. He asked, "What is the better solution?"

Amber froze.

She didn't expect Sean to show up here. A shallow smile appeared on her face.

"Sean, aren't you in the hospital with Cindy?"

"You want me, her non-biological father, to take care of her? Director White, aren't you afraid that I will abuse her?"

Sean opened the car door and strode to Amber.

"Director White, you haven't told me what the better solution is."

Amber raised her head and looked at Sean.

Chapter 376: Are You Two Going to Question Lin Man

0 4 minutes read

He was one step lower than her. His eyes reflected dim light, which was smouldering.

"If the owner of the pet shop doesn't admit that Lin Man instructed him to harm Cindy, will Director White and Mr. White question Lin Man?"

"Or, will you force her to admit it?"

Marcus was speechless.

Amber whispered, "You've heard it all?"

Sean sneered.

Yes, he had heard it all.

Fortunately, he was here, otherwise, he wouldn't know that Amber was going to blame Lin Man for Cindy's illness!

She would never make things easy for Lin Man, would she? She took him away from Lin Man, and tried to absolve her brother by putting the blame on Lin Man!

Sean's eyes were cold. He stared at Amber firmly, and his deep eyes were full of coldness.

"Is Cindy's infection a trick of you?"

"Amber, I am already your husband. Why did you do that!"

"Do you hate Lin Man to this extent?"

Amber's pupils contracted slightly. She looked at Sean fixedly and asked, "You think I'm such a person?"

"You're not?"

On the steps, there were only three of them. The summer sun was shining, stretching their shadows. Especially those of Amber and Sean, they were like two parallel lines that would never intertwine.

“Am I wrong?”

“Didn’t Mr. White buy the dog? How come the blame is on Lin Man?”

This simply made no sense.

Did Amber think that all the villains in the world were fools and would be scapegoats easily?

Amber’s eyelashes trembled and she laughed suddenly.

“The dog is indeed a gift from Marcus, but, Mr. Smith!”

“Did you read Cindy’s medical records carefully?!”

Sean chuckled.

Was Amber going to resort to sophistry?

“What does it have to do with medical records?”

“Toxoplasma infection is a process! Toxoplasma has spread to Cindy’s eyes, which meant it has been dormant in Cindy for a while!”

“But how long has it been since Mr. White gave the dog to Cindy?”

Amber took a deep breath, took out the Pomeranian examination report, and stuffed it to Sean.

“There are also mites on the Pomeranian! If Cindy is really infected with parasites on this dog, she would be infected with mites first!”

“Sean, are you a fool?”

Sean was speechless.

He read the report, and what threats the dog would pose to human health was listed clearly.

Amber was not telling lies.

She knew that Cindy’s infection was not that simple, so she came out to investigate this matter!

She suspected Lin Man?

Sean tore the report to pieces and threw it in the trash can.

Amber raised her eyebrow, and Marcus whispered, “Sean... it doesn’t make much difference even if you tore it apart.”

“My sister has three copies...”

Sean sneered.

He believed that Lin Man was not the kind of person Amber said.

“A pet examination report can’t be used as evidence to convict Lin Man. Instead, Mr. White is the major suspect.”

“Amber has married into our Smith family, so Cindy is the young lady of our Smith family. Mr. White, how dare you harm her?”

Amber was silent.

In this world, no one knew Lin Man better than Amber.

The dog Marcus sent to Cindy must have been another plan of Lin Man.

On the one hand, she could frame Marcus. On the other, if the Toxoplasma thing was a failure, she could absolve her from guilt through it.

Only Sean believed in Lin Man so desperately!

But Amber didn't let the matter go at that. It was the first time that she had such a strong desire to expose Lin Man's true face in front of Sean.

“Sean, people would be infected with toxoplasma after eating food contaminated by cats and dogs!”

“These days, you stayed with me. You know that Cindy never touched Shelly's food!”

“You also know who she has touched!”

Sean thought for a moment, then sneered, “You mean Lu Yi?”

Amber was speechless.

“Yes, you and I, Lin Man, even Lu Yi, are all suspected!”

Amber nodded. Since Sean forced Cindy to call Lu Yi dad, Lu Yi kept a certain distance from Cindy.

To avoid suspicion, he rarely fed Cindy.

Therefore, Lu Yi was not involved in this matter at all!

Sean just didn't want to admit that this matter had something to do with Lin Man.

Amber was sad.

She was sad that she knew Sean's thoughts so clearly.

She was so disheartened that she answered in a low voice the question that Sean asked at the beginning, “Yes, I hate Lin Man!”

“Are you satisfied now!”

Amber pushed Sean away and strode down the steps.

She walked quickly in high heels.

Sean's pupil contracted. He grabbed Amber and pulled her back.

Amber slammed her head on Sean's hard chest, and her nose hurt. The grievance and anger in the three years spurted out, Amber slammed Sean's hand away and said with hatred, “What are you doing?”

“Mr. Smith, I still have something to do. If there is nothing else, I’ll take my leave!”

Amber gasped, with anger in her eyes, “I hate Lin Man. Mr. Smith, please figure out whether your Lin Man is guilty or not. If I get something on her, I will send her to jail!”

“I won’t mind forcing her to go abroad again. Mr. Smith, you should be clear about my temper! I don’t think you have forgotten the first lesson that I taught you and Lin Man three years ago, have you?”

Amber spoke very fast, but she made her point clearly. Even the punctuation marks hit Sean’s chest fiercely.

Sean clenched his fists tightly, and his sanity was swallowed by Amber’s words. He suddenly seized Amber by the neck, and his eyes were scarlet.

“Amber, say it again!”

As soon as he finished speaking, a fist came to him from his left side. Sean was staggered after being hit and let go of Amber subconsciously.

Amber’s face was red, and she squatted on the ground, gasping violently.

Marcus helped Amber up and supported her with one hand. The worries in his eyes were real, “Sister, are you okay?”

Amber felt pain in her throat. Sean didn’t seize her for too long, so her discomfort disappeared soon.

Chapter 377: How Dare You Ask Your Brother to Hit Me

0 4 minutes read

Amber nodded with tears in her eyes, “I’m okay.”

“You shouldn’t have done that.”

“You can’t afford to offend him.”

Sean pressed his lips and stood up from the ground. Marcus pulled Amber behind him. He was tall, but not particularly strong. At this moment, he was like a high mountain that shielded wind and rain for Amber.

“Sister, don’t be afraid. I won’t let him hurt you again!”

The corner of Sean’s mouth turned red at a speed visible to the naked eye.

He stretched out his hand and touched the corner of his mouth, and glanced at Amber, “Director White, how dare you ask your brother to hit me?”

Amber sneered, “Mr. Smith, there are surveillance cameras at the entrance of the pet hospital. You hurt me first!”

“Marcus helped me for a just cause!”

What a sharp tongue!

Sean sighed. His gaze crossed Marcus and fell on the five distinct red fingerprints on Amber's neck.

He took a step forward, pushed Marcus away, and grabbed Amber. Marcus wanted to stop him, but Sean grabbed his wrist with one hand.

Coldness filled his eyes, "I won't condone one more punch!"

"Let go of my sister!"

Sean did not let go of Amber, but pulled her into his arms and held her tightly.

"She is my wife. I can do whatever I want to her, but you haven't been recognized by her. You are just an outsider!"

Marcus's eyes were filled with anger. Looking at Sean, he really wanted to smash his handsome face.

Amber stopped him with a look. She stared at Sean and asked, "Mr. Smith, what exactly do you want?"

"Take you back to take care of your daughter!"

"I have things to do!"

Amber was sullen. Sean encircled her waist tightly, so she couldn't break free.

"What are you going to do? Ask Mr. White to beat the owner of that pet shop?"

Amber's eyelashes trembled.

Marcus was aggressive and immediately said, "Sean, I'm just saying. This is a society with rule of law. How can I really beat him?"

"Do you really think Lin Man is a good person?"

"She asked me to please my sister, and insinuated that my sister took her man away!"

Sean's eyes deepened. He glanced at the woman in his arms meaningfully, and chuckled, "What Lin Man said was true."

Marcus was surprised, but quickly reacted, "But you are married. It has been three years. Why did she come between you!"

"If you don't love my sister, you would have put forward divorce in the past three years!"

"If you did, my sister wouldn't pester you."

Marcus blocked the way and refused to let Sean go. His black eyes were shining, and stopped being respectful to Sean, "If Lin Man is kind and aloof, would she make her return known to everyone?"

Sean's eyes darkened.

Before, he thought that although Marcus and Amber were siblings, Marcus was far less shrewd than Amber.

It appeared that he was wrong!

Marcus was good at confusing people as Amber did!

Sean grabbed Amber's waist tightly, "Get out of my way!"

Marcus, who was bold and foolish, stood in situ motionlessly.

Sean's face grew gloomy.

Amber frowned and watched Marcus while saying, "Marcus, step aside. It's getting late. It's not safe for Cindy to be alone in the hospital."

"I'll see the pet shop owner another day. Don't act rashly and alert him."

Marcus stepped aside, "I guess Mr. Smith will tell Lin Man about this before I can alert him!"

Sean sneered.

He looked at Amber and said in a low voice, "Amber, if you show evidence that it was Lin Man who harmed Cindy, I will never defend her!"

Amber glanced at Sean and met his dark pupils.

Coldness scattered in his eyes, and there was a bit of seriousness that was hard to ignore.

Sean had always been faithful in keeping his word.

But it might be because she had been waiting for this sentence for too long, she was not delighted at all.

She looked at Sean in a neither humble nor pushy way and whispered, "If Lin Man really harmed my daughter, I will never let her go."

"Even if you plead for her, I won't spare her!"

After Amber and Sean left, Marcus was left at the door of the pet hospital.

He took two steps in the direction of his car. From childhood to adulthood, he was calculated for the first time. He was so angry.

Amber's words that told him not to act rashly were left behind him.

Marcus got in the car and sprinted to that pet shop.

As soon as the owner saw him, the guilt in his eyes flickered.

"You..."

Marcus walked to the counter step by step, and then took off his sunglasses.

"Did you know the dog you sold to me was unhealthy?"

...

In Tong City's Central Hospital.

Lin Man sat on the sofa and glanced at the bed.

Lu Xiangxiang was sitting at the bedside, holding her mobile phone, and telling a story to Cindy.

When her phone rang, Lu Xiangxiang and Cindy turned to look at her at the same time.

With a bit of shyness on her face, Lin Man stood up from the sofa, "I'm sorry, did I disturb you?"

A sarcastic smile suddenly appeared on Lu Xiangxiang's cold face, "Miss Lin, your phone is ringing."

Lin Man was calm, "Oh, I will go out and answer it."

"Okay."

Lin Man arranged her dress and went out of the ward. She glanced at the screen of the phone, stood straight at the gate of the ward, and answered the phone directly.

The voice on the phone sounded very young. As soon as the person spoke, Lin Man knew who he was.

"Miss Lin, Marcus already knows that there is a problem with my dog, and he smashed my shop!"

"He said he would send me to jail! Miss Lin, please help me..."

Lin Man paused. She stood in the corridor of the hospital, facing the red flowers and green leaves. Sean and Amber were walking towards the ward.

She clenched her fist tightly, but a gentle smile suddenly appeared on her face.

"Then let's teach him a good lesson."

"Send him to jail and experience life there for a few days."

Chapter 378: Let's Go In

0 4 minutes read

The pet shop owner suddenly stopped crying.

When Amber and Sean came upstairs, Lin Man was still talking on the phone. She was beautiful, with a delicate and smooth face.

Seeing Amber and Sean, she raised her mobile phone slightly, and chuckled, "Sean, Amber, you are back."

Amber greeted Lin Man with a smile, and then stepped into the ward.

Lin Man was as gentle as a wind. Sean stopped. Lin Man hurriedly said something on the phone and then hung up.

"Sean, have you finished your work?"

Seeing Lin Man being so serious, Sean pressed his thin lips and then nodded.

Lin Man smiled.

“Lin Man, let’s go in.”

Lin Man nodded and followed Sean into the ward. Cindy was asking Amber about Sean’s whereabouts.

“Mom, where’s dad? I haven’t seen him for a long time. Can you call him and ask him to see me?”

Sean laughed, “Don’t bother, I’m here!”

Hearing Sean’s voice, Cindy was stunned for a moment, and then a trace of joy flashed across her face.

“Oh, I get it.”

“Dad, was you away to find mom?”

Lu Xiangxiang wanted to sneer.

Sean touched his nose, hiding the embarrassment on his face.

Amber patted Cindy and whispered, “Don’t talk nonsense.”

“Mom, are you shy?”

Sean thought Cindy was wrong. Would Amber be shy?

It was even less likely than the sun rose from the west.

She was the most cheeky.

Sure enough, Amber rubbed Cindy’s head with an unchanged face, and changed the subject in a low voice, “What do you want for dinner? I can take you out to eat.”

Cindy thought for a while and whispered, “Auntie Xiangxiang, what do you want for dinner?”

Lu Xiangxiang carried her handbag, and said with a smile, “Sorry, I have to work overtime at night and can’t eat dinner with you.”

“Amber, I’m leaving.”

Amber nodded and said in a low voice, “Xiangxiang, thank you.”

“No worries.” Lu Xiangxiang stretched out her hand, rubbed Cindy’s head, and strode out.

When Lu Xiangxiang walked to Lin Man’s side, she stopped, raised her eyes carelessly, and looked at Lin Man, “Miss Lin, can I buy you a cup of coffee?”

“Sure.”

Lu Xiangxiang took Lin Man away, leaving only Amber, Cindy and Sean in the ward.

She helped Cindy put on sunscreen clothes, then looked at Sean and said in a low voice, “ Sean, I’ll go to the doctor to inquire about Cindy’s condition. Please wait for me with Cindy.”

The corner of Sean's mouth twitched, and he picked up Cindy, "Why don't we go together? Or are there secrets between you and Cindy's attending doctor?"

That was too much.

Amber made way for Sean. The attending doctor had not yet left work.

Amber asked when he planned to schedule surgery for Cindy.

"Tomorrow."

"There are not many cases of toxoplasma. If it stays in the patient for too long, it is very harmful to her eyes. Early treatment, early recovery."

Amber agreed.

The operation was arranged in the morning. They came out of the attending doctor's office. Sean asked in a low voice, "I've asked the attending doctor that infection with toxoplasma is not a serious disease. Surgical treatment is supplementary. Does Cindy have to have the operation?"

Amber was stunned for a moment. She looked at Sean suspiciously, "I didn't know you care about these things."

Sean reacted and immediately denied, "I'm just worried that you are up to something!"

"Who knows if the operation is a show for my dad?"

Amber's eyelashes trembled. She smiled and said in a low voice, "You are right. Glucocorticoid treatment is the main thing and it works fast."

Sean looked at her deeply.

Did she admit it? She admitted that the operation was a deliberate show?

Sean's mood was a little complicated.

Suddenly, Amber changed her tone and said with a smile, "Didn't you ask the doctor about this?"

What did Amber mean?

"You want to know whether my answer is the same as that of the attending doctor?"

Sean was a little stunned.

This damn woman!

He forgot to ask about this when he consulted the attending doctor about Cindy's condition.

He took a deep breath and looked at Amber coldly, "Director White, why do you have so many questions!"

"Cindy is allergic to glucocorticoids."

Amber suddenly replied in a low voice.

Sean gave an unnoticeable pause. He reacted so quickly that Amber didn't notice that at all.

"Really?"

What a coincidence. He was also allergic to glucocorticoids.

Because of the hidden disease, blood cancer, his health was not very good.

He used glucocorticoids once when he was a child. That night, he almost died in the Smiths' mansion.

The Smith family had many enemies. His parents kept concealing this matter. Even his three sisters-in-law did not know it.

Amber was not supposed to know it.

But Amber said that straightforward. Sean was suspicious that this was Amber's trick again!

Because of his condition, many medicines would do him harm, and glucocorticoids could directly kill him.

He looked at Amber suspiciously. His thin lips moved, but he said nothing.

He would know the truth if he asked the doctor about it. Amber didn't need to lie to him!

Sean lowered his head and glanced at Cindy's small round face.

Although he felt ridiculous, Cindy's features were too similar to his. Outsiders would not believe that she was not his daughter.

Moreover, when Cindy was injured, she used the ointment he used, and she was also allergic to glucocorticoids.

Sean felt restless.

His thoughts drifted further.

No.

Before getting married, he was sure that he didn't know Amber.

Amber was dazzlingly beautiful. If he met Amber back then, he would definitely not forget her.

So what happened between Amber and him?

He only had sex with Lin Man in his entire life!

At that time, he and Lin Man were in love. Was Cindy Lin Man's child?

Chapter 379: Can't You Afford to Eat in a Decent Restaurant

0 4 minutes read

Sean shook his head, thinking all this was just a coincidence.

In order to suit Cindy's palate, Amber went to a small restaurant.

Sean was in a straight suit, which was incompatible with the dirty environment. His eyebrows had never been smooth since he stepped into the box.

He couldn't help ridiculing, "Director White, did the Smith Group deduct your salary every month or something?"

"You can't even afford to eat in a decent restaurant?"

Amber didn't even raise her eyes. She held the tissue, wiped the table, and then helped Cindy take off the sunscreen clothes. She said in a flat tone.

"Mr. Smith, if you don't like here, you can eat at other places."

There were many tall buildings and high-end restaurants around. Sean didn't need to eat with her and Cindy.

He was sure that Cindy was not his child, so he didn't need to take the responsibility as her father.

Sean was speechless.

She stopped Amber from framing Lin Man, so Amber became so angry that she didn't even want to eat with him?

Sean sneered.

She thought he liked to eat with them?

He would eat with them because her daughter wanted him to.

"Dad, don't you want small wontons?"

"What do you want to eat? There are other food here. Please don't go to other places, okay?"

Sean smiled provocatively at Amber.

He reached out and took the menu from Amber with an unlit cigarette between his thin lips.

He ordered casually, "One Small Wontons, and one Bean Jelly."

After that, he threw the menu to Amber.

Amber frowned slightly, and said, "You have a stomach problem. The Bean Jelly is not good for you..."

Amber stopped. Sean didn't like others to tell him what to do. No matter how she was considerate of him, he wouldn't appreciate it.

"I want a Small Wontons."

There were not many people in the noodle restaurant.

Amber and Sean were both good-looking. Sitting in the small noodle restaurant, they were very eye-catching.

“Dad, can I eat your Bean Jelly?”

The Bean Jelly was the first to be served. It had a layer of red oil. The corner of his lips curved, he poked the Bean Jelly with his chopsticks, and fed it directly to Cindy.

It was so peppery that Cindy’s face was flushed and her eyes quickly filled with tears.

Amber couldn’t stop Sean in time. She reached out to grab her shoulders, and said, “Spit it out!”

After spitting out the jelly, Cindy took a sip of water and rinsed her mouth. Sean smiled, “Is it delicious?”

Cindy usually ate mild food. She had never heard of the Bean Jelly. She tasted it out of her curiosity, but she didn’t expect it to be so spicy.

Amber ordered a glass of watermelon juice for Cindy. After drinking more than half of it, Cindy felt better.

After doing this, Sean was in a good mood. He ate up the Small Wontons and the Bean Jelly.

On the way back, Amber’s eyebrows were knitted. She said, “Sean, Cindy will have the operation tomorrow, so she should avoid certain food, otherwise her wound may become infected...”

“I hope this would never happen again.”

Sean’s hand, which was holding the cigarette, froze.

Did Amber have to enjoin him like this?

Sean glanced in Amber’s direction, and said nothing.

The street lights were turned on. Neither Sean nor Amber had any intention of going back.

There seemed to be no estrangement between them. They took a walk side by side in the hospital.

Sean was holding Cindy, and his phone was in Amber’s hands.

After a while, Sean’s phone rang.

Amber glanced at the caller. It was a call from the nurse’s station.

She turned her head to look at Sean. Sean nodded and motioned for her to answer it.

As soon as it was connected, the head nurse spoke, “Mr. Smith, where are you and Mrs. Smith? There is a woman in the ward. She is crazy... Please come back quickly.”

Amber was stunned.

She lowered her eyes and hung up.

Amber was on speakerphone, so Sean heard what the head nurse said.

His face was particularly calm, and a chill filled his voice, “I’ll see who is so audacious to make a scene in my place.”

“Let’s go back.”

Sean took a step forward but was stopped by Amber.

“Mr. Smith, you and Cindy stay here. I will solve it.”

Did he look like the kind of man who would hide behind women?

When Sean was about to refuse, Cindy moved in his arms. He suddenly reacted.

Oh, he forgot it.

Cindy still didn't know the true face of Amber.

In front of Cindy, Amber was a good mom. In fact, she was vicious and probably didn't want to ruin her beautiful image in Cindy's heart.

The main reason she asked him to stay was this.

Sean pressed his thin lips, and fixedly looked at Amber with his blade-like eyes.

“Fine, I'll stay.”

He agreed. But after Amber left, he followed her.

The troublemaker might not know that he was in the hospital, so she was here for Amber.

The days in the hospital were boring and dull. It was not bad to watch something fun.

Sean held Cindy and walked slowly back to the ward.

There were not many patients on the SVIP floor, but when Sean reached their ward, it was already surrounded by people.

Sean heard a woman scolding.

“Amber, you shameless bitch. Marcus is your brother. How can you harm him?”

Marcus? The woman sounded like more than 40 years old, and Sean immediately knew who she was.

Sherman's wife, Yolanda Jiang.

“What did you do to my son? Did you seduce him? He has been arrested by the police, are you satisfied now!”

“You think you can inherit the White Group after you get rid of Marcus? Three years ago, Sherman disowned you. Now, you are still nothing in his eyes!”

“Who do you think you are?”

Saying this, Yolanda reached out to scratch Amber's face. She had long nails. If Amber couldn't dodge, she would be disfigured.

Sean's heart contracted, and he took a step forward subconsciously. However, he couldn't help Amber. He was a little far away, let alone Cindy was still in his arms.

Chapter 380: Dad, I Heard Mom's Voice

0 4 minutes read

Fortunately, Amber dodged Yolanda's attack. She stepped back and pushed Yolanda away, standing in the light with an indifferent expression.

The ward was a mess. What could be smashed was almost smashed by Yolanda. Standing in a mess, Amber was still imposing.

"Mrs. White, I have nothing to do with the White Group. How can I inherit it?"

"Furthermore, in Tong City, everyone knows I'm Sean's wife. Why would I covet the White Group? That's ridiculous!"

With a trace of contempt in her eyes, Amber glanced up and down at Yolanda, and her tone was cold.

Her words were convincing.

Sean was often talked about in various newspapers in Tong City. People who could live in the SVIP ward were either rich or influential, so they all knew Sean.

Amber and Sean ate and lived together, appeared in the doctor's office together, and Cindy was always in their arms.

The news about Sean and Amber being at odds had long been scotched.

Many people admired Yolanda's courage.

After Marcus was taken away by the police, Yolanda lost her sense. With tears in her eyes, she stared at Amber bitterly.

"You did it on purpose. You got back at me. You made Marcus go to that pet shop and make a scene there! You wanted to put him in jail and ruin his reputation."

"Amber, I don't mind being hated by you, but Marcus is your brother. I admit that it was unconscionable for me to marry your father not long after your mother died, but it has nothing to do with Marcus!"

Amber's attention was suddenly caught by the two words "pet shop". She suddenly turned her head to look at Yolanda.

Sean, who was standing behind the crowd, blinked.

Yolanda's words reminded Sean.

He almost forgot the grievances between Amber and the White family.

Toxoplasma infection was caused by eating food contaminated by pets. The person who was most likely to succeed in harming Cindy without being suspected was definitely Amber.

Marcus was in jail, Lin Man was framed, and Amber got enough pity from him.

Kill three birds with one stone!

Sean held Cindy, shaking with anger.

Cindy's voice rang in his ears, "Dad, I heard mom's voice..."

"Is she arguing with someone?"

Cindy's voice was stained with anxiety, and her pupils couldn't focus.

Sean's heart contracted. Cindy was the biggest victim in this matter. Having such a mother who would do anything to achieve her goal was her misfortune.

Sean's eyebrows were like being soaked in frost and snow, "Yes, your mother is arguing with someone. Don't worry. She will win. If there are quarrels that she can't win, it can only prove that she wants to lose!"

Saying that, he stared straight at the slender figure in the ward.

Amber took a step forward and suddenly grabbed Yolanda, "What did you say?"

"I said Marcus was put in jail because of you!"

"Drop the act!" Yolanda took a deep breath with tears in her eyes. Her lips were pressed tightly, and she said bitterly, "You harmed Marcus for what happened three years ago..."

Yolanda's tears were falling, but Amber was not in the mood to listen to her, "You said Marcus went to that pet shop and made trouble there?"

"I told him not to act rashly if I was not around!"

Yolanda opened her mouth in shock for a while before she could make a sound, "He smashed that pet shop, and the owner called the police."

Amber, "..."

Amber pushed aside the crowd and rushed out of the ward.

Yolanda obviously wouldn't let the matter go at that. She cursed behind, "Amber, you shameless bitch. If you can't find a way to get my son out there, I will kill your daughter!"

"Soon or later, your daughter will be a bitch like you! She'd better be killed before she harms others..."

Amber turned her head suddenly. Yolanda was too scared by her expression to speak.

She fixedly looked into Amber's dark eyes. In her bottomless pupils, there was no trace of emotion. Amber was looking at her like looking at a corpse.

"You..."

Amber approached her step by step, "If I hear another dirty word from you, I will go to the police station to help the pet shop owner convict your son."

"And I'll say the dog he bought for Cindy is healthy!"

"If you want Marcus to be in jail, continue to curse! I will never shrink in the lawsuit!"

Yolanda's lips moved but couldn't say a word.

Amber then left. Sean's car key was on her. She drove to the police station.

Marcus and the owner of the pet shop each stuck to his own version. Marcus had not been proved guilty yet, so he was detained at the police station.

This kind of small case could be solved by money.

However, the owner of that pet shop insisted that he reminded Marcus many times that the dog had parasites, and that Marcus didn't listen to him but insisted on buying it!

Then something went wrong. Marcus got back and smashed his shop.

After the police officers were off work, only Marcus was left in the interrogation room.

When Amber arrived, Marcus lowered his head slightly in frustration.

Standing outside the interrogation room, Amber sighed after knowing the whole story.

After such a thing, that dog would be the cause why Cindy was infected even if Cindy was not infected by it.

Otherwise, Marcus would stay at the police station and be punished.

No matter how many days he was detained, his reputation would be ruined.

When he came out, he would be ostracized by the upper class.

Amber pinched the palm of her hand and glanced at Marcus.

Lin Man just wanted to scapegoat Marcus. When Amber got him out of the police station, it was late at night.

Marcus didn't want to go. His eyes were red, "Sister, I won't go."

"Lin Man used me again and again. If I get out, she would get away with it."

"I'm sorry. I was impulsive. When the police close the case, Sean would misunderstand you!"

"I want Lin Man to pay the price even if I have to go to jail."

The summer wind lifted the hem of Amber's dress. Her expression was calm and mild, like a breeze.

"At least I know whom I should guard against."