

Mr Smith 441

Chapter 441: What Are You Guys Doing

0 4 minutes read

“What are you guys doing?”

Sean’s voice trembled.

In fact, he already knew what they were doing, but he couldn’t believe it.

Like Xu Lin said, Amber must be angry, so she deliberately made a false impression of moving out to frighten him.

“Huh?”

The man in the suit looked at Sean unexpectedly. Obviously, this man knew him.

“Mr. Smith? We are changing the lock.”

“Where is Amber?”

The man froze for a moment, and whispered, “Miss White didn’t tell you? She is going abroad. We have just signed the sale contract of the house.”

“How did you know each other?”

“Um...” The man thought for a while, and whispered, “On an APP. Miss White was going to sell the house, but we didn’t agree with each other on the price.”

She was going abroad?

Amber wanted to give Cindy a good life.

“But this morning, Miss White asked me to come with the contract.”

Sean’s heart contracted.

There were so many scammers on the Internet, and women were easy to be hurt. Amber actually asked the man to come straight to her home and sign the contract.

Sean laughed. He didn’t know if he should sigh for Amber’s eagerness of getting rid of him or her high efficiency of dealing with things.

He would never allow Amber to go abroad.

He turned around directly, took out his phone and called Xu Lin.

“Find out Amber’s flight!”

Sean pressed the corners of his lips tightly.

He drove to the airport. In a minute or two, he had already left the road in Xingyue Bay.

Xu Lin quickly found out Amber's flight. He called back soon.

"Mr. Smith, Director White didn't order any flights."

Sean slammed on the brake.

Amber hasn't left?

Cindy was discharged and her house was sold. Cindy was so badly injured. Amber wouldn't stay in the city for long.

But she didn't order any flights...

Sean thought for a while, and Xu Lin on the phone suddenly said, "We got the news. Mr. White prepared a private jet and bought a flight path... They'll take off in fifteen minutes."

Just after Xu Lin finished speaking, Sean hung up.

Xingyue Bay was not close to the airport. He couldn't get there in fifteen minutes. His heart ached.

He drove very quickly. Amber was leaving Tong City, leaving the country. If she went abroad, the chances of finding her were low.

Sean pressed his lips tightly, and he was going to ask Amber about what happened to them eleven years ago.

If he mistook her for Lin Man, why didn't she tell him?

Sean drove quickly, ignoring the traffic lights above his head. The car rushed forward like an off-string arrow and ran into a truck that was about to turn left.

As soon as the Maserati hit the truck, the airbags popped out, but Sean's head still hit the windshield. He opened his mouth and his eyes were blurred.

...

At the airport.

Amber and Marcus were in the terminal, and the wound on Cindy's leg slightly ruptured.

The accompanying family doctor was bandaging her wound. Cindy was curling up in Amber's arms silently.

Marcus hung up the phone blankly, walked up to Amber, and asked in a low voice, "Sister, do you have to leave?"

Amber didn't look up.

"Sean's people kept calling me. Why don't you give him another chance?"

He even investigated the past of Sean and Amber, but he found out nothing.

"Sister, I don't want you to go. It will be difficult to see you again."

There was a huge screen in the terminal. Just after Marcus finished speaking, the picture on the big screen turned into a press conference.

Amber heard a familiar voice.

She raised her head and saw Mrs. Smith sitting on the podium, graceful and dignified. Beside her, it was...

“Lin Man?”

No matter how surprised Marcus was, the press conference was still going on. Mrs. Smith said, “Sean and Amber indeed got divorced. In the three years of marriage, Sean and Amber looked very close but they never loved each other. As we all know, Sean did not even show up at his wedding with Amber!”

“Excuse me, Mrs. Smith, can you tell us why your son did not show up at his wedding?”

“Because he loves someone else.” Mrs. Smith whispered, “The person he loves has always been Lin Man. Sean has been in love with Lin Man for eight years.”

“Three years ago, Amber was notorious. Why did the Smith family accept her?”

The reporter has been curious about this for three years, but Tomas had always taken good care of Amber’s reputation and controlled the abusive comments about Amber.

Since Sean and Amber were already divorced, the reporters asked this question without scruples.

Mrs. Smith paused for a while and whispered, “Because before they got married, she was already pregnant with Sean’s child.”

Amber’s eyelashes quivered.

The cracks in her heart grew bigger, and blood flowed out. The scene before her seemed like mocking her efforts of trying to spend her whole life with a ruthless man.

Amber’s eyes were hazy.

“Sister... don’t be sad. The people of the Smith family are so ungrateful... It’s good that you can find out their true colors.”

Amber held back her tears and closed her eyes.

Time seemed to go back three years at once.

When she was pregnant for more than seven months, she was still living in a rented apartment in Tong City. She had sex with Sean and was pregnant with his child. She resigned and was nourishing the fetus at home.

But that day, an unexpected guest came.

Amber knew Sean’s mother.

She looked young in a cheongsam. Amber saw that cheongsam in the newspaper. Its price was her salary of five years.

She hurriedly poured a glass of water for Mrs. Smith, but Mrs. Smith didn't even sit down.

"You are Amber?"

Amber nodded, holding the water glass tightly in her hand.

"I heard from Lin Man that your bone marrow can match Sean's?"

Amber froze.

Yes.

When they were together, Amber checked it.

However, Sean left without saying goodbye. It didn't take long before she knew that her bone marrow could match Sean's.

She was both sad and happy at the time.

She was sad because Sean disappeared. She couldn't find him. She was happy because she could save Sean if he got blood cancer.

Chapter 442: I Checked It Eight Years Ago

Amber hesitated and then nodded.

Mrs. Smith had lost three sons. She was terribly afraid, so she wanted to take her to the hospital for examination immediately.

But Amber was pregnant.

"Mrs. Smith, I had checked my bone marrow eight years ago."

"I was obsessed with TV dramas at the time. I thought I was destined to be with Sean and would bring him good luck, so I checked it."

"Sean knew that. I am pregnant and cannot check it again. You can go to the second hospital and retrieve the files eight years ago."

Mrs. Smith was dubious. She stood in Amber's rental house for half an hour, and then she did get the report of Amber's bone marrow.

Amber couldn't forget the expression on Mrs. Smith who was almost crying with joy.

Amber was also very happy.

She felt very relieved to be able to help Sean.

Mrs. Smith asked her what she wanted, and Amber said she wanted nothing.

Mrs. Smith left contentedly. Not long after she left, Amber received a call from Lin Man.

“Amber, have an abortion.”

“I won’t accept your child. Sean and I truly love each other. After we get married, I will give him a boy and a girl.”

“Amber, you don’t want your kid to have no father, do you?”

Amber was like being in an ice cell. She suddenly remembered that Mrs. Smith said that it was Lin Man who told her that her bone marrow could match Sean’s.

It suddenly dawned on her.

“You checked Sean’s bone marrow?”

Lin Man hesitated, but did not deny, “Yes.”

But seven months ago, Lin Man said that she did not want to give Sean a child.

Amber didn’t know how Lin Man found her. Sean just got a chance of being saved, but Lin Man wanted to kill her baby?

Amber hung up without hesitation.

She must give birth to this child.

“Sister!”

Marcus suddenly leaned over and showed Amber a picture with his phone, “Is this Mr. Smiths’ car?”

Amber looked at it. She knew Sean’s license plate number. In the photo, the Maserati was knocked out of shape. Its windows were broken, and there was blood on the windshield.

Amber’s eyelid twitched.

When Cindy heard Marcus say ‘Mr. Smith’, she tilted her head to look. Amber was startled, held her tightly, shook her head and said, “No, I don’t know this car.”

But Amber’s face was too pale, and what she said was not convincing at all.

Marcus glanced at Cindy and opened his mouth without saying a word.

Marcus didn’t care if Sean was dead or alive. He was afraid that Amber could not get Sean off her mind.

He hoped that Amber could draw a demarcation line with Sean, but he didn’t want Amber to leave with regret.

Amber looked frustrated.

Seeing this, Cindy asked in a low voice, “Mom, where’s Dad? Where are we going? Will dad go with us?”

“Cindy, mom and dad are already divorced.”

For the first time, Amber said such cruel words to Cindy, “Didn’t you see what was played on the TV? Your dad is going to marry Lin Man. If you want dad, you have to live with Lin Man.”

“Mom is going abroad. You have to call Lin Man mom. If you want, I will send you to grandma’s house.”

Amber’s eyes were wide-opened in fright.

“No! I want mom. Dad is a liar. I don’t want him...” Cindy burst into tears, “Mom, dad said you wouldn’t get divorced...”

How could he lie to children?

Cindy didn’t ask this. Her tears came out instantly. She tightly covered her mouth with her small fleshy hands.

“Mom, Lin Man is a bad woman...”

“Can you stop dad from marrying her?”

Amber blinked. No one knew Lin Man better than her.

But...

Amber thought of Sean’s car, and her heart contracted. She didn’t know if Sean still had a chance to marry Lin Man.

It was time to board the plane. Amber stood up holding Cindy.

Her phone rang suddenly. Marcus took it out of her handbag, and took Cindy over, and motioned for her to answer the phone.

She glanced at the screen. It was Xu Lin.

After hesitating, she answered it.

“Director White... Director White, Mr. Smith had a car accident on the way to chase you...” Xu Lin’s voice was a little choked, “He is now seriously injured and unconscious, and keeps calling your name. Director White, can you come and see him in the hospital?”

On the way to chase her?

Amber found it ridiculous. She chased him for eleven years, and he didn’t even give her a look. When she was leaving as he wanted, he chased her?

“I’m going to board the plane.”

Amber’s voice was dry. In Tong City, all she had was heartache. She didn’t want to be hesitant.

“Wait, wait, Director White, it was only a coincidence that Mr. Smith saved Miss Lin last night. It was your high school classmate who told Mr. Smith that you were dragged into the room by Mr. Shen. You were the one whom Mr. Smith wanted to save...”

“Director White, there is a misunderstanding between you and Mr. Smith. Can you stay? In these days, Mr. Smith never ate well, and he took stomach medicine at the company in the morning...”

Xu Lin tried to keep Amber for Sean.

Amber's hesitation disappeared, "Secretary Xu, I was locked in the utility room of Ritz-Carlton yesterday."

"Sean could have found me if he really wanted to."

Xu Lin was speechless.

"Mr. Smith just thought that your classmate mistook Miss Lin for you?"

She was not as ugly as Lin Man!

Amber sneered, "When I was in the utility room, every second was like a year. After I woke up, I saw Sean and Lin Man hit the headlines."

"I am Sean's ex-wife. Whether he's dead or alive is none of my business. You should call his fiancée, not me!"

With that, Amber hung up.

Instead of continuing in the direction of the plane entrance, she turned around. Marcus grabbed her and said in a low voice, "Sister, where are you going? The plane is about to take off!"

When Amber was about to speak, Sean's car accident was reported on the big screen at the airport.

She lifted her eyes slightly and looked at it. Marcus followed her gaze.

On the screen, Lin Man hurried into the hospital corridor in a red dress. Her eyes were red and swollen, and she looked haggard and pale.

A look of disgust flashed in Marcus's eyes, and he whispered, "Sister, you are not going to see Sean, are you?"

"Sean's fiancée is by his side. If you go, you would only upset them. Sean's mother looks graceful but she is not reasonable at all. She would probably blame you for Sean's car accident!"

"Sister, the flight path to foreign countries is seldom available. The White Group can't contend with the Smith Group. If you don't seize the chance to leave, my dad will definitely watch out for me, then I won't be allowed to use the helicopter anymore."

In Tong City, except for Marcus, no one would have the guts to help Amber leave the country with her daughter. He was the only one who dared to offend Sean.

Amber lowered her head, sent a text message to Sean, then turned off her phone and followed Marcus onto the plane.

After sitting down, Amber directly pulled out the SIM card in the phone and threw it in the trash can.

...

In the Central hospital.

Sean was covered in blood and looked seriously injured.

Scarlet blood ran to the ground along his chiseled hand.

“Sean!”

Lin Man suddenly rushed over, “Sean? Sean, open your eyes!”

Xu Lin was just hung up on by Amber. Seeing Lin Man, he was still in a daze. The stretcher bed was stopped by Lin Man. The doctor scolded her, “Get out of the way. Don’t hinder us from saving him!”

Xu Lin rudely grabbed Lin Man’s arm and pulled her away, “Miss Lin, are you trying to get my boss killed?”

Lin Man’s tears burst out suddenly. She fixedly looked in Sean’s direction, and said in a husky voice, “Sean.”

Xu Lin frowned.

Lin Man had done all the bad things, but she stuck to one thing, that was, loving Mr. Smith deeply.

She was blinded by love.

Tomas and Mrs. Smith arrived at the same time. Mrs. Smith rushed over to Sean, “Sean? Sean?”

Sean was in a bad condition. His lips were dry, even a little chapped. He was extremely pale, and his breathing was weak.

Even Tomas, who was always calm, couldn’t help looking away.

“Amber...”

He breathed weakly and only uttered this word. Mrs. Smith leaned closest and heard it clearly. The next second, her pupils contracted, and she slumped to the ground.

Sean was sent into the operating room, and Mrs. Smith was frustrated, “I just heard him call Amber?”

Xu Lin was stunned.

Mrs. Smith asked him, “Where is Amber? Get her here!”

“Madam, I have already called Director White, but she refused to come. She said that she was just Mr. Smith’s ex-wife. The person who should be by his side was his fiancée.”

Xu Lin explained to Mrs. Smith.

When Director White was around, she treated them nicely, but the Smith family didn’t appreciate it at all. When Mr. Smith had the accident, they were anxious to find her and use her.

Director White was not a pushover.

Xu Lin walked to Tomas in two steps, and said in a low voice, “Mr. Smith, please call Director White for your son. He kept calling Director White’s name in the ambulance.”

“He is your son.”

Tomas trembled and stroked his crutches with his thumb.

“Amber is a stubborn child. No one can change her mind except for herself.”

Besides, he had helped Sean many times, but Sean didn’t know how to grab the chances. It was inevitable that he cannot keep Amber.

Xu Lin took a deep breath and whispered, “Mr. Smith, I found out that Mr. White mobilize a private jet and bought a flight path. Director White sold the house in Xingyue Bay and was going abroad with Mr. White. Your son had the accident on the way he chased Director White!”

“Please call Director White. Otherwise, your son and Director White will miss each other...”

Lin Man’s ears were buzzing. She pressed her lips tightly.

The conversation between the two was like a sharp knife piercing her chest.

Amber, Amber!

Even if Sean had lost his memory, he was always thinking about Amber.

What about her?

She resisted public opinions and stayed by his side for eight years. In Sean’s eyes, was she only a joke?

Lin Man wanted to laugh, but her tears fell drop by drop.

At the door of the operating room, a nurse was looking around. Xu Lin was talking to Tomas. Mrs. Smith was still lying on the ground. Only Lin Man looked relatively calm.

Although there were tears in her eyes, she was standing upright.

The nurse hesitated, and walked in Lin Man’s direction.

“Hello, are you Sean’s fiancée?”

Lin Man glanced at her suspiciously, and the nurse handed the blood-stained cell phone and Sean’s wallet to her.

“These are Mr. Smith’s stuff.”

Lin Man hesitated and took them.

She lowered her head with tears in her eyes.

“Don’t be sad. Mr. Smith will be okay.”

“Thank you.”

Lin Man responded in a low voice.

After the nurse left, Lin Man walked to the plastic bench in the corridor and sat down.

Sean's phone buzzed. Lin Man lowered her head. It was a WeChat message.

Lin Man knew that ID.

She unlocked Sean's phone.

Sean's mobile phone password never changed. She easily unlocked it.

Amber transferred 11,111 dollars to him, and there was a long passage below.

[Mr. Smith, before leaving, I wish you wake up as soon as possible, and here is my cash gift for you and Miss Lin's wedding. I hope you two will have a long and happy marriage.]

This passage, like a loud slap, slapped Lin Man across the face fiercely. Lin Man felt bad.

Three years ago, when she knew that Amber's bone marrow could match Sean's, she immediately asked Amber to have an abortion.

Amber loved Sean deeply. She was certain that Amber would save Sean if he was in any danger.

She knew that Amber was soft-tempered and would definitely agree to save Sean.

But Amber married Sean with the help of Mrs. Smith.

Lin Man took a deep breath. She looked down on Amber. For marrying Sean, Amber even used Sean's mother.

However, she never thought that she would do the same after three years.

hapter 444: Was That All She Was Worth

As she wished, Sean and Amber divorced, but in the same way, she took advantage of Sean's mother to get the chance of marrying Sean.

Three years ago, Mrs. Smith helped Amber marry into the Smith family because Amber was pregnant with Sean's child and Amber's bone marrow could save Sean.

At this time, Mrs. Smith helped her marry into the Smith family just because she wanted to get revenge on Amber!

Was that all she was worth?

Lin Man almost felt like crying.

She was really sad. It was hard to accept the fact.

What you stole will one day be returned in a way that you cannot accept!

She knew the truth but couldn't accept it.

She wiped away her tears, bit the corner of her lips, stared straight at the door of the operating room, and sat there silently for several hours.

Sean was saved, but fell into a severe coma and was transferred to the intensive care unit, where the nurse was taking care of him for 24 hours every day.

The two Prince Charmings of Tong City, Mr. Feng and Mr. Smith both hurt badly in car accidents, and netizens suspected that it was a conspiracy.

Even the love triangle of Sean, Lin Man, and Amber was less talked about.

Many people speculated that Sean's car accident was probably conspired by Amber.

Some netizens even found out Amber had sold the house and pictures of her carrying Cindy onto a private jet.

Everyone was scolding Amber online.

[That bitch took away Sean's money, used his money to hire killers to kill him and took a private jet to leave?] [Could it be that the abuse thing is true?] [Amber came between Sean and Lin Man! According to Mrs. Smith, Amber was pregnant before she married Sean. At that time, Sean and Lin Man were still together. Who knows if the child is Sean's?]

Staying outside the intensive care unit, Lin Man saw some remarks. She lowered her head silently.

Sean was in a coma for three days before waking up.

He opened his eyes and saw a woman sleeping prone on the bedside. This scene was very familiar.

His fingertips moved. Lin Man sat up quickly. She was a little dazed, and then her gaze fell on Sean's face, "Sean, you are awake."

Sean's pupils contracted, and the severe pain hit him violently. He took a deep breath, and there seemed to be a needle in his chest.

Lin Man poured a glass of water for Sean and fed it to him.

"Sean, are you hungry?"

"Where is Amber?"

Lin Man's relieved and glad look suddenly froze.

But Sean acted like he didn't see it. He lifted the quilt, trying to get out of bed.

Lin Man was startled by his actions, "Sean! What are you doing?"

"Sean, your three ribs were broken and one of them stuck in your chest, almost killing you! And you have a severe concussion. You can't move or get out of bed. You will die!"

Sean took another breath, and a thin layer of cold sweat spread out on his forehead.

Lin Man's tears fell instantly. Sean said, "I'll see Amber."

“Amber, Amber! Is she the only one in your heart?”

Sean tilted his head, and the smile on his face was ironic, “You tell me?”

Lin Manzhen froze in situ.

Lin Man thought that she had forgotten this expression long ago, but when she saw it again, she found it so familiar.

Her heart trembled.

“You...”

Sean’s eyelashes were covered with sunlight, making his chiseled face more perfect.

Lin Man seemed to be in an ice storage room. The question was in her throat, and she couldn’t let it out.

Fear blocked her heart, wrapping her all over.

“Sean... Amber has gone abroad!”

Sean’s eyes became deep. Lin Man thought he didn’t believe it, so she hurriedly took his mobile phone and clicked into WeChat to show him Amber’s message.

“Sean, I didn’t lie. See, this is Amber’s message. She wished us a long and happy marriage... and gave us a cash gift.”

Sean’s expression changed.

“Sean, Xu Lin and your father both called Amber. They said that you had a car accident when you chased her. They said you wanted to see her, but she ignored them.”

“Her only reaction is this message...”

Lin Man licked her lip. Sean fixedly looked at the phone screen without reaction. Lin Man didn’t disturb him, leaving him in a daze.

Amber was gone.

Even if she received their calls before boarding the plane, she still left?

Amber must be very happy for leaving him.

Sean just woke up. His eyes were stinging from the light. He lowered his eyes and suddenly opened his mouth, “Four years ago, the person in the Ritz-Carlton hotel suite was not you, but Amber.”

Lin Man’s heart beat wildly.

She thought Sean would ask her about what happened eleven years ago, and she even had figured out what to say. However, he mentioned the thing that happened four years ago?

Lin Man took a deep breath. Did he figure out anything?

“That night?”

Lin Man asked cautiously and tentatively.

Although Sean had drunk water, his lips were cracked badly. He was lying on the bed lifelessly. In Lin Man's eyes, he was no longer the charming young man she deeply loved but an old man in his late years.

"Sean, I don't know what you are talking about."

Sean looked at Lin Man fixedly with dark eyes, "I've investigated Cindy's age before. Three years ago, Lu Yi sent her to Tong City Central Hospital. There were her medical records. She was born prematurely that night. You can tell me the truth now."

Lin Man's pupils contracted.

She sat down on the chair in front of the bed desperately. Sean had found it out. She couldn't hide it from him anymore.

"Anything else?"

Sean fixedly looked at Lin Man, and his eyes were completely indifferent.

Lin Man's tears fell drop by drop.

The resentment almost burst out from the depths of her soul, occupying her heart little by little.

She couldn't stand Sean's eyes!

"Sean, you were with Amber for three years."

"But I was with you for eight years, including the three years you were married. Even if I was abroad, I was living like a nun for you. I've been dreaming of you coming to marry me! But now the only person you are thinking about is Amber?"

Chapter 445: Lin Man, Don't You Think You Know Too Much

0 4 minutes read

Sean's eyes flashed. He lowered his eyes and did not respond. Lin Man wiped her tears.

"When you were with me, what did you do for me?" Her voice was a bit sharp.

"Eleven years ago, for Amber, you forced the Shen family to send their only daughter abroad!" Lin Man cuddled her arms, "I thought you would keep away from Amber for the past three years, but do you know what you did?"

"In order to save Amber, you had a car accident, almost drowned, almost burned to death! You think you are an invincible superman? You think you are a hero?"

Lin Man suddenly laughed, "But Amber didn't appreciate all this at all!"

Sean's eyebrows moved. He licked the corners of his lips and said in a low voice, "If I remember correctly, you hadn't returned home on the day I prayed at the tomb of my third brother. Lin Man, don't you think you know too much?"

Lin Man turned her head and looked at him.

“The mountain behind the Smiths’ mansion landslided, but Gu Jinyan took a private jet there.”

“Who else but you could make Gu Jinyan do that?”

“Amber was carried out by Lu Yi. You stayed inside for so long. If you weren’t looking for Amber, why didn’t you go down the mountain? In my eyes, you are not a coward!”

“Only your dad would believe in Lu Yi’s nonsense.”

Lin Man became sadder and sadder. Her tears kept falling like a stream. She stood up and pointed at her face with smeared makeup and said in a trembled voice, “I was with you for eight years. It was Amber who broke us up. You love me. But why didn’t you object to your wedding with Amber three years ago?”

“You accepted Amber and Cindy with peace of mind. Your family of three was reunited. How nice it was! But what about me?”

For the first time, Sean saw Lin Man look so hysterical.

He always thought that he knew Lin Man enough.

But he doubted that his memories with Lin Man were likely to be fake!

Sean found it ridiculous.

“Lin Man, you are changing the subject!”

Lin Man looked at Sean, and she felt like her heart was almost broken in half by him.

Sean suddenly laughed, “Since you’ve asked, I will tell you what I did for you!”

“Three years ago, for you, I locked Amber in the bedroom. You’re so well-informed. You know it, don’t you?”

“She almost died in the bedroom to give birth to Cindy, and even Cindy almost drowned in the bathroom.”

“You think I accepted Amber with peace of mind. In the past three years, I never lived with Amber!” Sean’s eyebrows were knitted, “I was waiting for you. But what did you bring me after you came back?”

Lin Man pressed her lips.

Cindy was his biological daughter. He felt scared at the thought that he almost got his daughter killed for Lin Man.

“Lin Man, if it weren’t for your eight years with me, you think I would divorce Amber?”

Lin Man raised her eyes at Sean.

“What do you mean?”

Did it matter?

Sean closed his eyes and said, “Get out.”

Lin Man was prepared to be driven out by Sean. She sat firmly and motionlessly in the chair.

“We were together for eight years. Sean, forgot Amber.”

Sean did not respond.

“Amber made such great efforts to divorce you, which meant she would never be with you again.”

With that, Lin Man took out Sean’s phone and handed it to him, “Look, this is the message Amber sent to you before she left.”

Sean’s eyelashes trembled, but he didn’t open his eyes at all. Lin Man sneered, “She transferred 11111 dollars to you and wished us a long and happy marriage!”

“You hurt her so thoroughly. She will never forgive you!”

Sean opened his eyes abruptly, and in his dark eyes, the coldness froze Lin Man’s heart, but she smiled.

“Even if you tell Amber you have restored your memory and you do not love me but her, she will not believe it! I will never stop you from chasing her.”

Sean’s voice was husky, “You know I lost my memory?”

“Of course. Before your incident, I thought amnesia caused by car accidents would only happen in the TV series.”

“Sean, don’t you think it’s too late to restore your memory? God is bringing us together.”

Sean didn’t answer but closed his eyes directly.

Lin Man said so much. Except for some things he knew, she didn’t tell him anything useful.

His attitude was cold but Lin Man was not angry. She picked up her handbag and said in a low voice, “Sean, have a good rest. I will see you in the afternoon.”

As soon as Lin Man’s footsteps disappeared, Sean picked up his phone. He glanced at it and saw Amber’s message.

His throat was dry. He bit his lips tightly, unable to say a word.

He rubbed the screen with his fingertips, clicked into the phone book and called Xu Lin.

“Mr. Smith... you are awake?”

Xu Lin was very excited. Sean said in a low voice, “I want to see Shen Chun. Arrange it for me.”

Xu Lin was confused.

Why did he want to see Shen Chun?

“Mr. Smith, you have a few broken ribs and can’t leave the hospital... And Mr. Shen is detained in the police station.”

Shen Chun had a failed attempt to rape Lin Man. Sean sent him to the police station in person. Even if the Shen family wanted to get Shen Chun out of there, they did not dare to do it blatantly.

“You figure out a way. I’ll see him in an hour!”

After speaking, Sean hung up the phone directly.

He was lying on the bed, closing his eyes and sleeping. His stomach was empty, and the familiar pain invaded his limbs little by little. He gasped heavily, like a dehydrated fish.

A scene suddenly flashed across his mind.

It was his previous memory.

The memory of him pursuing Amber.

Chapter 446: I Only Help My Girlfriend

0 5 minutes read

In high school, Amber had excellent grades, and always wore black, white and gray clothes.

Sean couldn’t remember when he started pursuing Amber. He always did whatever he wanted. When he was in school, he was in the limelight. Most girls like him. Shen Rouran was one of them.

Sean knew what Shen Rouran did when she bullied Amber for the first time.

The female dormitory was locked at 10:30 in the evening. Shen Rouran tricked Amber into the office to wait for the class teacher. Amber waited until the lights in the teaching building area were turned off, but no one came. The class teacher had gone back after the self-study.

It rained heavily that night. Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled. Amber stood on the first floor of the teaching building, and her trousers were wet by the rain.

When Sean arrived, she was sitting on the step, crying.

He held a large umbrella to shield her from the wind and rain, chewing gum and teasing her, “You’re crying like a child. Aren’t you ashamed?”

Amber was taken aback.

She tilted her head to look at him. Her beautiful eyes seemed to have been washed with water, clean and pure. Even in the dark, they were incomparably pretty.

“Sean?”

“Yes.”

“You tell Shen Rouran not to play tricks on me anymore. Tell her we are not in a relationship.”

At that time, Amber was timid and insecure. She spoke very softly. Sean whispered, “I only help my girlfriend.”

The scene came to an abrupt end. That was all Sean remembered.

An hour later, Xu Lin brought Shen Chun to the ward, and brought Sean a portion of porridge.

Lying on the hospital bed, Sean lifted his eyelids and glanced at the policeman behind Shen Chun.

"I would like to ask Mr. Shen a few questions."

The police glanced at Sean and walked out.

Although Xu Lin was surprised, he followed out. Shen Chun sat down directly on the sofa in front of the hospital bed.

"Mr. Smith, why do you want to see me?"

Sean glanced at him and asked in a low voice, "The night three days ago, Amber was locked in Ritz-Carlton's utility room. Was it you?"

"Are you serious?"

Shen Chun smiled sarcastically, "Mr. Smith, don't you know the nature of dandies like us? I never forced anyone to sleep with me. Even if I want Amber, I must spend money to chase her first. No one would want to commit a crime!"

"I would never want to spend the rest of my life or a few years in prison."

Sean frowned, "Then why did you do that to Lin Man?"

Shen Chun sneered, pressed the corner of his lips slightly and said in a low voice, "After you asked me to apologize to Amber, I did as you say. Amber was having a candlelight dinner with Fu He at the time. I interrupted them."

"You know, I was happy that night and I was a little bit drunk. After I came out of the bathroom, I met Lin Man. She told me Amber was looking for me, I dared not refuse to see her. Then Lin Man led me upstairs. Not long after entering the elevator, she approached me and took the initiative to flirt with me!"

"I didn't refuse her."

"Then we went to the hotel suite, and the door was locked by her. I didn't think much. As soon as I walked in, Lin Man offered to drink. So we drank a lot... I didn't know what happened later. When I woke up sober, I was in the police station, and got bruises like this."

Sean's eyebrow twitched.

The policeman knocked on the door and walked in. Sean looked at him, and the policeman said, "Mr. Smith, Mr. Shen didn't plot any attempt to rape Miss Lin."

Sean kept silent.

"In fact, Mr. Shen was not sober at that time. He will be acquitted."

Sean frowned and said, "That is your business."

"It's also about your fiancée."

Fiancée? Who said Lin Man was his fiancée?

Sean smiled sarcastically.

“Thank you for taking Mr. Shen here. See you.”

After the two were gone, Xu Lin walked in slowly.

“Mr. Smith...”

Sean closed his eyes, “Find out Amber’s whereabouts, the end of her route. I need her exact location.”

“Okay.”

Xu Lin answered, “Mr. Smith, please eat the porridge...”

“Give me the results of your investigation in the evening. I’ll discharge and look for her.”

Xu Lin was shocked, “Mr. Smith, you can’t be discharged. You are still suffering from a concussion. If you leave hospital, your father will fire me!”

Sean gave Xu Lin a cold look. The latter trembled, “Mr. Smith, it’s been three days. If Director White doesn’t want you to find her, you can’t find her! We’ll be restrained in taking actions abroad...”

“Moreover, your wedding with Miss Lin will be held soon. I don’t think it’s a good idea to look for Director White at this time.”

Sean glanced at him with cold eyes, and Xu Lin fell silent.

Xu Lin was in a pickle. When Director White was Mr. Smith’s wife, Mr. Smith didn’t cherish her, but he started to regret it after divorcing her. Didn’t he think it was late?

And...

“Mr. Smith, I called Director White the day you had the car accident.”

Sean’s pupils contracted. Xu Lin continued, “At that time, you were unconscious and covered with blood. I thought you might not be able to survive. But you called Director White’s name at that time...”

“I called Director White and asked her to come back and see you. She said... Whether you were dead or alive, it had nothing to do with her.”

Sean’s breath paused.

He knew that Amber hated him!

His memory had not been fully recovered yet. Maybe he hurt Amber eleven years ago!

She hated him. Even if he died in front of her, she would never take a look at him.

Sean looked pale. Xu Lin didn’t go on and whispered, “Mr. Smith, you don’t like Director White, do you? Why don’t you let her go and stop looking for her...”

Sean took a deep breath.

Yes, he never liked Amber, and the one he loved was Lin Man. Should he stop looking for Amber and just marry Lin Man?

Lin Man loved him and waited for him unconditionally for eight years.

She was simple and kind. Although he didn't know if it was her pretense, he liked that kind of her.

He should choose Lin Man.

Sean paused, and then whispered, "Just do as I said!"

Xu Lin was stunned.

Sean's expression obviously softened. He thought he had convinced him. It turned out that he didn't?

Chapter 447: That's Ridiculous

"What?"

Xu Lin thought he misheard. As soon as he finished speaking, Sean's cold eyes fell on him. His heartbeat raced, and he summoned up courage, "Mr. Smith, why don't you look for Director White after you are discharged? You don't need to rush into pursuing her!"

Sean sneered, "Pursuing Amber? That's ridiculous!"

Xu Lin kept silent. If his boss was not going to pursue Director White, why was he in a such hurry to find her?

"Cindy is my daughter. She is suffering with Amber."

Xu Lin, "..."

"Give me Amber's specific location tonight, otherwise submit your resignation to me!"

What a ruthless boss!

Xu Lin sighed in silence.

Sean had a high risk of getting blood cancer. He knew about this.

Xu Lin felt that before Sean got blood cancer, he might have got himself killed!

When he got out of the ward, he still complained silently. If his boss was really doing this for Cindy, why would he explain?

Mr. Smith was a man who never explained anything!

Xu Lin went out with worries.

After hesitating, he called Tomas.

After Tomas answered it, Xu Lin told him what happened just now, "Mr. Smith, your son asked me to find out the position of Director White. He is going to leave hospital and look for her..."

“Sean came to his senses?”

Xu Lin was dumbfounded, “You didn’t know?”

His boss didn’t tell his parents that he woke up and planned to find Amber in a foreign country without telling them?

“Mr. Smith, you know his condition. He can’t move around, let alone flying. I can’t talk him out of that.”

There was silence on the phone. Tomas whispered, “Keep an eye on him. I will come to the hospital right away.”

Xu Lin hung up the phone with contentment.

He finally figured out the only unreasonable person in the Smith family was his boss!

...

When Tomas arrived at the hospital, Sean was asleep.

Noticing someone appeared beside him, Sean asked vaguely, “Have you found it out?”

“Found what?”

Tomas asked in a deep voice. Sean suddenly opened his eyes. Seeing him, he narrowed his eyes and reacted, “Xu Lin called you?”

Tomas didn’t answer, and said, “You’re trying to find out Amber’s whereabouts?”

Sean kept silent.

The agreement still stuck in Sean’s heart. He didn’t know whether it was Amber’s or his father’s idea.

She didn’t want him to disturb her?

They used to love each other. Amber should know his temper!

He always liked to go against others, so he was going to do what Amber didn’t want him to.

She was probably waiting for him abroad.

Sean found out Xu Lin’s phone number, and was about to dial it. Tomas snatched his phone over.

“What are you doing?”

“Dad, do you know the taboo of being a secretary?”

Xu Lin didn’t follow his order but told his father about his plan.

Even if Xu Lin was doing this for his good, he couldn’t accept it.

“Since Xu Lin likes you so much, his job will be accompanying you to enjoy the flowers and birds.”

Tomas laughed, “You are blaming him for asking me to stop you from looking for Amber?”

“Sean, you know what. The way you vent your anger is like that of a moron.”

A thin layer of anger stained the bottom of Sean's eyes.

Sean pressed his lips tightly, glanced at Tomas suspiciously, and asked calmly, "Dad, I've been thinking about a question for a long time."

"What is it?"

Tomas whispered, and then said, "I'm curious. Tell me."

Sean moved. The pain deep in the bone bit the nerves of his whole body.

"When Amber married me, she was pregnant. I repeatedly denied the child in her belly was mine. Mom agreed to accept Amber because Amber's bone marrow can save me. What is your reason?"

It would be a breeze if Tomas wanted the bone marrow of a young girl, but he made all those efforts and even sacrificed Sean's happiness?

Unless...

"You know what happened between me and Amber eleven years ago?"

Sean was surprised for a moment and then continued, "So, you helped Amber to have sex with me four years ago?"

How did Amber contact Tomas and persuade him to help her, drug him, and have sex with him?

Why would Tomas help her?

Sean felt a little sullen. Why would he fall in love with Amber who wanted to marry into wealthy families by all means?

Hearing this, Tomas looked at Sean.

He knew his son.

Men and women had different thinking. Men longed for war and were easy to be suspicious.

"I helped Amber?" Tomas repeated, "No, but I investigated her."

"She said that her child was yours. I didn't believe it at first, but what she said made sense. Therefore, I investigated her."

Before marrying into the Smith family, Amber was infamous and notorious, but Tomas had no hesitation in letting Sean marry Amber because he knew that her child was Sean's.

"I told you before Cindy is your daughter!"

"Sean, Amber didn't trust you three years ago. I investigated her. The news about her back then was actually not true. She was clean and totally a good girl."

"As for her pregnancy, the surveillance footage in the corridor of Ritz-Carlton proved that the only person who had sex with you was her."

Tomas's face was dark.

Sean was shocked.

Was he thinking too much?

Amber didn't play any tricks in getting pregnant with Cindy?

Sean pressed the corner of his lips. It happened a long time ago, and he had forgotten many details.

His eyes flickered.

Tomas continued, "Don't bother Amber anymore. Even if you find her, she won't follow you back!"

Chapter 448: Why Didn't You Tell Me the Truth Three Years Ago

0 4 minutes read

Sean pressed his lips.

In fact, Sean knew Amber was stubborn and wouldn't come back with him.

"Why didn't you tell me those things three years ago?"

"Dad, you know I would definitely not ignore Cindy if I knew Cindy was my daughter! To tell you the truth, I never planned to have any children in my whole life!"

Amber was even more out of his plan.

He actually felt aggrieved.

Four years ago, he was still in a relationship with Lin Man. He was the only one who did not know the truth. And everyone blamed him for not admitting Cindy was his daughter?

Why?

"I can tell you the truth but can I live your life for you? I change my name to Sean and see the world with wide eyes for you, so you can know everything?"

"In the past three years, I told you repeatedly that Amber and Cindy were your wife and daughter, but what did you do? In addition to speculating whether Amber and I were plotting against you, what did you do?"

Sean kept silent.

"Fine!"

He lowered his voice and asked, "You should know what happened eleven years ago. Dad, tell me."

"Why did Amber and I break up, and how did I fall in love with Lin Man?"

Tomas was a little surprised. He didn't know why Sean suddenly mentioned this.

"Why would you ask these?"

“Is there any point in figuring these things out?”

“You remembered something?”

No.

In other words, he only thought of something useless.

“I’m just curious. Is Amber taking revenge on me? My life has been a mess for the past three years. It was because of Amber. I want to know what I did 11 years ago. What makes her resent me so deeply?”

Tomas frowned.

“You seldom told me about your love life.” Tomas said in a flat tone, “You just mentioned that you had a girlfriend, and I never heard you say that you broke up with her!”

“Sean, maybe you left her without saying goodbye. Don’t think you were the victim. Amber was the one who was hurt the most.”

Not long after, Tomas left.

Before leaving, he hired a caregiver for Sean.

Sean had a complicated physique and was allergic to many medicines. His main wounds were covered by gauze and he had some abrasions that required to apply medicine.

After lunch, the caregiver took out an ointment. Sean frowned and looked at it.

He was very familiar with this ointment, because every time he got injured, he would use it.

But for some reason, he was very familiar with it, and even felt that the caregiver’s movements of applying the ointment were also very familiar.

He thought for a while. After the car accident eleven years ago, he actually didn’t lose many memories.

But he was sure that he did not have this memory.

Not long after, Lin Man came.

Sean was taking a nap, but Lin Man woke him up by accident.

She was wearing a black dress. In Sean’s opinion, this dress looked more like Amber’s style.

“You are awake?”

Sean narrowed his eyes and did not answer.

His eyes were hollow, falling on her, as if looking at another person through her.

“Sean?”

“What are you doing here?”

They had fallen out, but Lin Man still had the courage to come to him?

“I’m here to tell you your mother would let us get married as soon as you were discharged.”

Sean’s face changed. He wanted to get up from the hospital bed, but he failed. His internal organs seemed to have been displaced. He gasped and stared at Lin Man with scorching eyes.

Her expression remained unchanged. She pressed Sean’s shoulders, and whispered, “Don’t get excited.”

“When you recover, let’s take wedding photos first. The wedding photos of you and Amber were taken in the Muse Studio. We’ll go there too. You should smile more when you take pictures. You look handsome when you smile.”

Sean’s eyes deepened, and Lin Man didn’t seem to see this. She continued, “Sean, we were together for eight years and had many sweet memories. You will be happier with me than with Amber!”

Lin Man got closer and closer, and Sean stretched out his hand to stop her.

He lowered his eyes and what he said was extremely cold, “Lin Man, save it, I won’t marry you!”

“Sean, the invitations have all been sent out. The Smith Group has gone through so many scandals. Aren’t you worried that the position of the Smith family will be affected?” Lin Man paused, “How can you treat marriage as a trifling matter?”

Sean sneered.

“I will take Cindy back. She is my daughter!”

“And... I will never marry a woman who once hurt my daughter!”

Lin Man’s eyes changed. Sean whispered, “I don’t want to be the last of my family line!!”

After that, Sean called Xu Lin in and asked him to see Lin Man off.

After Lin Man left, Sean said, “If she comes again, stop her outside. I don’t want to see her while I am recovering.”

Xu Lin was almost fired by Sean, so he didn’t dare to refute.

He nodded and responded in a low voice.

He knew that Sean didn’t want to see him, so he turned around and was about to get out. Sean stopped him.

“Has Feng Chen been discharged?”

Xu Lin froze and said, “Not yet. The doctor said that Mr. Feng’s condition was a bit serious, so he was still in hospital.”

“In which ward?”

Xu Lin pointed to the next door.

Once when Xu Lin went downstairs to buy lunch, he saw Lu Xiangxiang holding a stack of papers and went to the next door.

“Get the wheelchair over. I’ll go next door and talk to Mr. Feng.”

Xu Lin was confused. The Feng Group and the Smith Group were not on very good terms. What was his boss going to talk to Mr. Feng? The experience of having car accidents?

Xu Lin didn’t dare to ask. He took the wheelchair over and helped Sean sit on it with the caregiver.

Chapter 449: This Your Retribution

0 4 minutes read

He wheeled Sean to the next door.

Feng Chen was reading files.

He was known as a workaholic in the upper class. He concentrated on the files and didn’t even know that Sean was here.

Xu Lin greeted Feng Chen before he looked up at him.

He said, “Mr. Smith, what happened to you?”

“Is this your retribution after you connived at your lover hurting your child?”

Sean kept silent for a moment.

Sort of.

In a sense, he tore his own family apart.

Before he could speak, Lu Xiangxiang walked out of the bathroom. Seeing him, she frowned, poured a glass of water and handed it to Feng Chen.

Sean’s eyes darkened.

Amber and Lu Xiangxiang were best friends.

Birds of a feather flocked together. Why did he think Amber and Lu Xiangxiang were completely different kinds of people?

He got into a car accident in order to chase Amber, but Amber went abroad without hesitation!

On the contrary, Lu Xiangxiang stayed in the hospital and took care of Feng Chen meticulously.

In comparison, Amber was malicious and heartless!

Sean clenched his fist subconsciously, and his face turned a little pale. The familiar suffocation in his left chest once again came up to him. He fixedly looked at the water glass in Feng Chen’s hand.

Being stared at by Sean, Feng Chen held the water glass and hesitated.

He smiled, handed the water glass to Lu Xiangxiang, looked at Sean, and asked, “Mr. Smith, why are you here?”

Sean narrowed his eyes and said, "To have a chat with you."

Feng Chen was shocked, "Are you serious?"

"Can't I?"

Feng Chen kept silent for a while, turned his head, glanced at Lu Xiangxiang, and said in a low voice, "I still have some documents to process. Maybe you can talk to Secretary Lu?"

Sean said in a flat tone, "In that case, I'd like to talk to Miss Lu in my ward. Shall we?"

Lu Xiangxiang nodded and followed Sean to the next door.

Arriving next door, Lu Xiangxiang directly sat down on the sofa, and gave Sean a confused look, "What do you want to talk about?"

Sean whispered, "Do you know about Amber going abroad?"

"No!"

Lu Xiangxiang answered quickly and firmly, but Sean knew that she was lying!

"Xu Lin found out that Amber got off the plane in Los Angeles. Can you tell me her specific location?"

Lu Xiangxiang raised her eyebrow and whispered, "Mr. Smith, you investigated Amber?"

The corner of Sean's mouth was curved.

It looked like an admission as well as a denial.

Lu Xiangxiang was not in a hurry. She changed a comfortable position and asked in a low voice, "Why would you ask this? You regret it, and want to get Amber's forgiveness?"

How was it possible?

Sean retorted without hesitation in his heart.

There were eleven years, Lin Man, and other complicated factors between him and Amber!

Even if he loved Amber eleven years ago, he didn't think he would fall in love with her again.

Moreover...

"Amber took my daughter." Sean turned the wheelchair, and his expression was sullen, "Miss Lu, you are a smart person. You should know Cindy can get a better life if she lives with me."

Lu Xiangxiang was amused and laughed.

She looked at Sean and said in an irony tone, "Don't you think you are ridiculous?"

"Obviously only Amber can give Cindy a better life. You think money is almighty in this world?"

"Lin Man is around you. Even if she is not around, there will be other women. If Cindy lives with you, she will always be in danger."

Sean's eyes were deep.

"If you want to find Amber and want me to help you, you have to settle your marriage thing with Lin Man first."

"Sean, do not think of women too simply. The hatred between women may come inexplicably but is absolutely irreconcilable!"

Lu Xiangxiang's words were very absolute and even a bit alarmist.

She knew that Amber and Lin Man were already utterly incompatible.

If Amber got any solid evidence of Lin Man's evil deeds, she would have sued Lin Man.

Men didn't understand women, and they were not sensitive enough in relationships.

After speaking, Lu Xiangxiang stood up, went straight out of the ward, and returned to Feng Chen's ward.

She thought that Feng Chen must be reading the documents, but when she opened the door, she met Feng Chen's deep eyes.

Lu Xiangxiang was taken aback, and frowned immediately, "Mr. Feng, you've finished with the documents?"

Feng Chen pointed to the chair beside the bed and whispered, "Sit down."

Lu Xiangxiang sat down. Feng Chen narrowed his eyes, and whispered, "What did you talk about with Sean?"

"Mr. Feng, you were the one whom Mr. Smith wanted to talk to."

Lu Xiangxiang smiled. Feng Chen didn't get angry.

He was simply a pervert in work. If it weren't for the high salary, Lu Xiangxiang would have quit.

Feng Chen could put up with her. After all, she could meet all his work requirements.

Therefore, when Lu Xiangxiang said that, he was not angry, but tilted his head and stared at Xiangxiang thoughtfully.

"You and Mrs. Smith are best friends. Sean was probably going to talk to me about Mrs. Smith."

"They are divorced. Amber is not Mrs. Smith anymore!"

Feng Chen was surprised.

"They are divorced?"

Lu Xiangxiang nodded, scanned Feng Chen up and down, and said in a teasing tone, "I was planning to arrange a blind date for you and Amber, but Amber went abroad in a hurry. What a pity!"

Feng Chen's eyes deepened a lot in an instant. He glanced at Lu Xiangxiang and smiled gloomily.

Chapter 450: He Asked You About Mrs. Smith's Whereabouts

0 4 minutes read

Lu Xiangxiang didn't notice it. Feng Chen asked, "So, Sean asked you about the whereabouts of Mrs. Smith?"

"Yes." Lu Xiangxiang nodded slightly and said, "But I didn't tell him. I didn't tell it to everyone."

Feng Chen nodded, and grabbed Lu Xiangxiang's hand that stretched out for an Apple. His smile deepened and he whispered, "Do you see the pile of files on the desk?"

Lu Xiangxiang turned her head, and saw the documents, "Yes?"

"Did the company send all the documents here? I can't believe it."

Feng Chen patted Lu Xiangxiang on the shoulder, "Deal with those documents."

Lu Xiangxiang looked at Feng Chen incredulously and asked, "Are you serious?"

Feng Chen nodded.

"You want to eat hot pot, don't you? You can eat it after finishing them."

...

In the evening.

Sean remembered something related to Amber again at dinner.

He saw the ointment placed on the bedside table before the caregiver left.

In a flash, a strange and familiar memory suddenly rushed into his mind.

He was in a hospital.

After being injured, he couldn't use other medicine at all. He used the medicine Amber bought for him and was sent into the intensive care unit.

Not long after, Amber arrived.

She was standing outside the ICU, crying sadly.

Sean never thought he cared about Amber very much. When he saw Amber's tears, his heart ached.

Even at this moment, he felt the same way.

Amber never came to the hospital again. After he was discharged, he went to see her.

But he couldn't find her and even thought that she wanted a breakup.

Later, he ran into Lin Man.

He remembered her who was Amber's roommate. He asked her, "Where is Amber? Have you seen her lately?"

Lin Man was in a red dress and whispered, "I'll tell you if you buy me dinner."

Sean hesitated, "When I find Amber, I will take you to dinner with her."

"You don't want to find her?"

Sean took Lin Man to the most expensive restaurant near the school. There were three-star Michelin chefs in the restaurant, and Sean was a VIP there.

When they arrived, the waiter of the restaurant asked him if he wanted to watch the violin performance. When he was about to refuse, Lin Man smiled and said, "I have never watched a violin performance before. Can I?"

He nodded.

Halfway through the meal, Amber came.

Sean was shocked. At this time, the waiter of the restaurant walked over with a bunch of roses.

"Mr. Smith, these are flowers are for your girlfriend."

Amber glanced at Lin Man, then looked at him, and asked, "Your girlfriend? Lin Man?"

Lin Man stood up, "Amber, there's nothing going on between me and Sean. He asked me about your whereabouts, so I asked him to buy me dinner."

"You..."

"It's okay. Continue your dinner. I'll wait for you in the dormitory."

Sean was not in the mood to eat anymore, and quickly stood up and chased her out.

Amber was not the kind of unreasonable person. He explained, and she smiled, "You should have come directly to me and asked me what I was doing!"

Sean asked her, "What were you doing? I called you but you didn't answer."

"I was doing my part-time job."

Amber whispered, took out a salve from her handbag and handed it to Sean.

"I bought you the ointment."

The ointment suddenly turned into the ointment in front of him. The ointment packaging had been changed many times, but Sean had a deep impression of its brand.

His breathing instantly paused, and a strong sense of powerlessness came out from the depths of his soul.

At that time, he was not short of money, and even the meal he bought for Lin Man was several times expensive than the ointment Amber bought.

But that ointment cost Amber's one month salary.

She and Sherman were on bad terms, and she never accepted his money.

Sean's hand, holding the chopsticks, paused. He lost his appetite and put down the chopsticks.

Xu Lin froze, "Mr. Smith, is the food not to your liking? What do you want to eat? I will buy it."

"Don't bother."

Sean whispered.

He moved, and the pain in his limbs suddenly came up to him. He couldn't even get out of bed.

Sean squinted and told Xu Lin to take away the dining table. He then lay on the bed with his eyes closed.

Xu Lin glanced at Sean and felt that he looked lonely.

After hesitating, Xu Lin walked out of the ward, and closed the door.

When Sean was about to fall asleep, Xu Lin walked in. Sean heard the movement and saw Lu Yi behind him at a glance.

He was in a white shirt, black straight-leg trousers, with cuffs rolled up and a pair of gold-framed glasses on his face. He looked gentle and clean.

Sean's eyes deepened. Lu Yi smiled at him.

"Cousin, what brought you here?"

Lu Yi smiled, and whispered to Xu Lin, "Secretary Xu, I want to talk to Sean alone."

"Ok."

Xu Lin turned around and went out. The gloominess in Sean's eyes became stronger. He fiddled with the quilt on him and said in a low voice, "Mr. Lu, you are quite good at telling my men what to do."

"Sean, you don't need to be sarcastic."

Lu Yi spoke calmly. He smiled and said in a low voice, "I am here to resign."

Sean's pupils contracted.

After Amber left, Lu Yi was also leaving?

This could never be a coincidence! Could it be that Amber was waiting for Lu Yi abroad?

He fixedly looked at Lu Yi without speaking.

Lu Yi smiled and said, "I won't have much chance to tell Xu Lin what to do, do I?"

Sean licked his slightly dry lips, and said in a low voice, "You have long decided to resign? Have you found a new job?"

"Lu Yi, you are my mother's nephew. You should know that you will make a better career in the Smith Group! My mother always treats you as her own son. If you work for a few more years, you will own a part of the Smith Group."

Lu Yi laughed.

Sean had such a high risk of getting blood cancer. If he was unlucky and died of it, Mrs. Smith was likely to persuade Tomas to give the Smith group to Lu Yi.
