

Mr Smith 481

Chapter 481: This Smile Seemed Like a Flash in the Pan

0 5 minutes read

-

Amber said, smiling at him.

This smile seemed like a flash in the pan.

She took a step back, ran her hand through her hair, and turned away.

Sean stood in situ with a wall of dense rose behind him. The hem of Amber's black dress was lifted up by the hot wind. Her figure was right in front of him. He could catch her as long as he reached out.

He stretched out, but Amber was already beyond his reach.

Sean only felt his heart was blocked. He looked fixedly in the direction of Amber.

She said.

One day, you would find that your love was worthwhile.

Sean wanted to catch up and asked her.

Was that what she thought in the past three years?

She insisted on getting a divorce because she couldn't prove that her love was worthwhile? So she gave up?

Sean found it suffocating.

Did she think she couldn't warm his stone-like heart and he didn't deserve her to persevere?

Looking at the view of Amber's back, Sean seemed to have got the answer.

Suddenly, he dared not ask those questions.

Amber went back to the villa alone. She looked calm. Xu Lin thought that Amber and Sean had reconciled. He walked up to Amber with a smile and asked her, "Mrs. Smith, my boss..."

Amber turned to look at Xu Lin, "Secretary Xu, I've already divorced Sean. Please don't call me Mrs. Smith or Director White anymore."

Xu Lin stiffened and understood.

If Amber and Sean made up, Amber would not say such words.

She was like telling him that she and Sean would have a forever estrangement.

Xu Lin sighed, apologized, and then hurried out to find Sean.

Cindy tilted her head and looked at Amber.

Her eyes were clear and clean. She was sitting and Amber was standing. They looked at each other. Somehow, Cindy wanted to cry. She looked at Amber with a smile and asked, "Mom, does Lin Man really have dad's child?"

"Will she give me a brother?"

Cindy asked, and tears filled her eyes.

Amber knew Cindy was really sad.

She paused and told her, "No."

"Lin Man lied to you."

Before Cindy could feel relieved, Amber added, "But in the future, you dad will have children with her. He is an ordinary person. He will have other children. No matter who gives him children, it has nothing to do with us."

Cindy's eyes widened.

"Lin Man hates you because she hates me!" Amber said, "I hope you don't believe everything she says! You have to learn to distinguish right from wrong, and figure out whom you can trust and whom you can't."

"Don't hurt the people you care about, and don't be hurt as those shameless bitches wish!"

For the first time, Amber cursed in front of Cindy.

Cindy looked Amber in the eye and nodded seriously.

"Mom, I see." She hesitated, and asked, "Mom, what about you? Will you marry someone else?"

Amber kept silent.

After a while, she said, "I'm not sure, but I promise you that I won't remarry in recent years. Even if I want to, I'll get your approval first."

Only when you agree will I be willing to remarry."

"Mom, I like Uncle Shi."

Cindy looked a little aggrieved. Amber paused and then suddenly smiled.

As soon as Xu Lin went out, he found Sean.

He was standing among the flowers, tall and strong, but if you looked at him closer, you would find he was a little weak from his serious wounds. Even Xu Lin could not tell what caused his paleness. Maybe it was because Amber's words hurt him. Maybe it was simply because he was wounded.

"Mr. Smith."

Sean suddenly came out of his trance and glanced at Xu Lin.

Xu Lin looked at him anxiously. Sean cleared his throat and said in a low voice, "Let's go."

“Cindy...”

“We’ll talk that later.”

Xu Lin said okay and hurried to take the car.

After getting in the car, Sean sat in the back seat, resting with his eyes closed.

When they almost reached the hospital, Sean received a call from his mother.

He narrowed his eyes slightly and paused for a while before answering the phone.

“Mom.”

Mrs. Smith asked Sean carefully, “Sean, is Lin Man in Los Angeles?”

When Lin Man arrived yesterday, Xu Lin had already told Sean that it was him who told Mrs. Smith his address.

Xu Lin knew Mrs. Smith wanted to help Lin Man.

All of Sean’s affection for Lin Man was exhausted when Cindy told him that Lin Man threatened to leave her in the mountains and feed her to wolves. He didn’t fall out with Lin Man for the sake of her companionship of the previous eight years.

Sean paused.

“Well, yes.”

Mrs. Smith hesitated for a moment and whispered, “Sean, I shouldn’t have rushed to arrange your wedding with Lin Man. If you don’t want to marry her, tell me. I will find a way to cancel your wedding.”

“You have printed all the invitations, haven’t you?”

There was silence on the phone. Sean was expressionless. The two sentences Amber said resounded in his mind.

[Sean, I’m tired. I don’t want to keep doing this with you. When we were married, you were thinking about Lin Man. Now, you are going to marry Lin Man, you regretted divorcing me!] [I don’t want to get back together with you. Only you know your real thoughts! What if you get involved with Lin Man again after I remarry you?]

Sean pressed the corner of his mouth and said in a low voice, “Send the invitations out. I will return to Tong City with Lin Man tomorrow. You’ll fix the wedding day with her.”

Mrs. Smith was shocked. When she was about to speak, Sean hung up.

She was stunned and looked at Tomas who was sitting in the study.

“What did Sean say?”

“Has he made up with Amber?”

Mrs. Smith was mute. After a long while, she answered, "Sean... Sean asked me to send the invitations out."

Tomas froze for a moment, "What invitations? He got Amber's forgiveness so soon? They are going to get remarried?"

With that, a slight smile bloomed on his serious face.

Mrs. Smith shrank her neck subconsciously and said in a low voice, "He asked me to send out the wedding invitations of him and Lin Man..."

The study suddenly fell silent.

Five minutes later, Tomas patted the table and whispered, "Fine!"

"Do as he said!"

Mrs. Smith's heart trembled. If Tomas hadn't told her Sean could get back together with Amber and Amber might be willing to donate bone marrow to him again, she would probably only take a delight in getting back at Amber!

But she only felt heartache at this time.

"Tomas!"

"He will marry whoever he wants. No one will stop him!"

Chapter 482: Sean Is Back

0 5 minutes read

-

Sean returned home and was transferred to the SVIP ward of Tong City Central Hospital that night.

His trauma was almost healed, but his broken ribs hadn't.

It was the same ward. When Sean arrived, Xiangxiang Lu was going through the discharge formalities for Feng Chen. Gu Jinyan picked Sean up at the airport and went to the hospital to go through the hospitalization procedures.

Gu Jinyan was lining up behind Lu Xiangxiang, but Lu Xiangxiang was on her phone and not aware of it.

After she paid the bill, she turned around and saw Gu Jinyan.

She didn't know how long he had stood behind her, but when she turned around, she was really taken aback.

She frowned and cursed, "Gu Jinyan, what's wrong with you!"

Gu Jinyan was a little confused.

"What do you mean?"

"Drop the act. Why were you standing behind me?"

The smile on Gu Jinyan's face was a little mocking, "I'm going through the hospitalization procedures for Sean. Why? Is this hospital yours? I can't even queue up here?"

Lu Xiangxiang kept silent.

After they quarreled last time, they ignored each other. Gu Jinyan was the CEO of a company. How could he take the initiative to speak to her?

Lu Xiangxiang pressed the corner of her lips and was a little embarrassed. Then she stepped aside and asked in a low voice, "Sean has come back?"

Gu Jinyan nodded lukewarmly, and asked, "Mr. Feng is going to leave hospital?"

"Yes."

Lu Xiangxiang smoothed her hair and said in a low voice, "Sorry for beating you in the hospital last time."

"It's okay."

Normally, after the misunderstanding was resolved and people apologized, they would be reconciled.

But after talking for so long, Gu Jinyan hadn't even taken a look at her.

The atmosphere became more stiff and awkward. Lu Xiangxiang narrowed her eyes slightly, said goodbye to Gu Jinyan, and turned to leave.

As soon as she left, Gu Jinyan turned to look at her. She was in a mint-green midi dress, which was refreshing and beautiful. The emotions in Gu Jinyan's eyes became thicker. He took the receipt from the window and went upstairs.

Seeing him, Sean frowned, "Why did you have to go downstairs for hospitalization procedures?"

Gu Jinyan didn't speak.

Sean held the shares of Tong City Central Hospital. If he needed to be hospitalized, the dean would naturally arrange it!

Besides, even if he really had to queue up to go through the formalities, Xu Lin would do that for him.

"Mr. Gu personally went downstairs to go through the formalities. If people think that the Gu Group is bankrupt, I would blame myself."

Gu Jinyan knew Sean was joking. When Sean went upstairs, he probably saw Lu Xiangxiang go downstairs.

With a calm face, he ignored Sean, laughed low, and said, "Are you really going to marry Lin Man?"

"You tell me?"

"Sean, Lin Man hurt Cindy before."

Sean didn't think so and said, "She said that she didn't mean to hurt her. The car accident was just an accident."

“You...”

Sean waved his hand, unwilling to continue the subject.

No matter whom he was going to marry, that person couldn't be Amber.

He knew Lin Man was not a good person.

Amber was snubbed by him for three years. Lin Man knew that but she still used it to provoke Amber.

It took him eleven years to realize that Lin Man was actually no different from Tang Tian.

However, in those eight years, she was the only woman by his side. She got everything she wanted, so she put away her sharp claws and made him think that she was really innocent and kind.

As a result, he always felt that Lin Man was kind, so when he married Amber, he hated Amber for taking him away from Lin Man.

Sean didn't want to discuss Lin Man, and closed his eyes.

He was like showing Gu Jinyan the door. Gu Jinyan was judicious and went straight out of the ward.

Xu Lin also left. In the ward, Sean sat on the bed alone.

It might be because the ward was empty. For the first time, Sean felt his heart was empty.

He closed his eyes, and fell asleep.

He had a dream again. It was eleven years ago.

Amber was very low-key in school, but she was beautiful and attractive. After agreeing to be his girlfriend, Amber asked him to keep it secret.

They were in high school after all.

Sean didn't want to. He pulled Amber into his arms with a sullen face and asked her, “Is it shameful to be my girlfriend?”

He liked her and got her. He wanted everyone in the school to know that.

Amber curled up in his arms, smiled softly, and said to him, “No, it would get too much attention on us. If you tell others about it, I will have a hard time before graduating from high school.”

Sean snorted coldly. He had made up his mind to make their relationship known to everyone, so he pretended not to hear what Amber said.

“No...”

He lowered his head, and Amber encircled his waist with a smile, “Promise me, okay?”

“Okay...”

Sean compromised and agreed.

After agreeing, he regretted it.

He was a popular figure on campus, and his desk was full of pink letters during his school days.

He was sitting in the back row. During the break, when he was taking a nap, he was awakened by Shen Rouran. She blushed and handed a love letter to him.

Sean took a look at Amber who ignored what was happening over here.

His face darkened instantly.

Even if she didn't want others to know he was her boyfriend, she didn't need to be so unconcerned, did she?

The people around were watching the fun, but she was the only one who showed no interest. Sean squinted his eyes and glanced at Amber's high ponytail with fixed eyes.

Maybe Amber didn't like him at all. She agreed to be his girlfriend just because she had had enough of his pestering.

In a fit of anger, Sean reached for Shen Rouran's love letter.

Shen Rouran's face was even redder. When she was about to grin, Sean tore the love letter to pieces. He looked at her coldly and said, "I don't like you. Just stay away from me!"

Shen Rouran's smile suddenly stiffened.

Sean was pursuing Amber. Everyone knew that.

Shen Rouran took it out on Amber. In the beginning, she just asked Shen Chun to harass Amber.

Shen Chun was a dandy who pursued Amber in a different way.

Sean remembered what Amber said. He forbore from teaching Shen Chun a lesson. Shen Chun discovered that Sean didn't seem to like Amber that much.

Chapter 483: I Didn't Know Amber Was Your Chick

0 4 minutes read

-

He gradually became more audacious. At noon that day, he suddenly molested Amber in the class.

"Amber, are you free after school? How about having dinner with me in Ritz-Carlton. If you like it, we can spend the night there."

The smile on Shen Chun's face was a bit obscene.

Sean was lying prone on the desk, taking a nap. Hearing these words, he stood up suddenly and overturned the desk. He strode to Shen Chun, clutched his collar and spoke coldly, "Say it again!"

Shen Chun turned pale with fright.

"Sean!"

Sean raised his fist at Shen Chun. Amber grabbed his hand immediately.

He almost vomited blood out of anger.

Sean looked down on dandies who relied on his family power, but Amber even defended this kind of scum in order to prevent others from knowing that they were together. Sean was angry.

He squinted and looked at Amber, "Am I such a disgrace to you that you would rather be bullied by such scum than let others know that we are together?"

When Shen Chun heard this, he was terrified.

"Sean... I didn't know Amber was your chick..."

Sean couldn't stand anyone saying anything frivolous to Amber, so he shook off Amber's hands.

"Don't hit him!"

Amber snapped at him.

Sean looked back at her in disbelief. There was obvious tension on her face.

She was worried about a scum?

Sean's face turned livid in anger.

Was it because Amber didn't like him but just liked scums like Shen Chun?

He clenched his fists, and his chest was heaving. Amber grabbed Sean's hand tightly and whispered, "You will be given a demerit!"

"He just said a few offensive words casually, but if you hit him, it will become your fault. If your father knows it, you would suffer again."

The anger in Sean's heart suddenly disappeared.

The dream ended here. Sean suddenly sat up from the bed. The dream brought him out in a cold sweat.

Amber.

Since they got divorced, it seemed to be the only word left in his world.

When Xu Lin arrived the next day, Sean said he wanted to visit his alma mater.

The college entrance examination was over, and high schools were closed.

Xu Lin arranged the trip effortlessly.

After eating breakfast, Xu Lin drove Sean to Tong City First High School.

There was a small lotus pond in the center of the campus. Sean stood beside it and asked Xu Lin to get Lin Man here.

Xu Lin stepped aside to call Lin Man.

Sean was in situ alone.

He didn't take the wheelchair, standing there silently.

He thought of Lin Man.

When they were in school, Lin Man and Amber were good friends. After Sean and Amber were together, Lin Man asked Sean to eat with her to celebrate it.

Sean was no short of money, but Amber chose an inexpensive restaurant.

Afterwards, Sean couldn't find Amber. Lin Man asked him to treat her to a delicious meal on the pretext of telling him where Amber was.

At that time, he discovered that Lin Man was coveting him.

He did not like Lin Man, and even hated her a little.

Gradually, Lin Man didn't hide her amorous glances at him in front of Amber.

Sean thought it was a trick of Amber. Maybe she thought he was not faithful enough, so she asked Lin Man to test him.

Although Lin Man was not as good-looking as Amber, she was well-known for her temperament and taste in dressing.

Even if he didn't like Lin Man, he agreed on Amber taking her when the two of them hung out.

Sean clenched his fists, lowering his eyes in heartache.

He suddenly turned around. Xu Lin was talking on the phone, "Miss Lin, Mr. Smith is now at your high school alma mater. Can you come here... Mr. Smith?"

Sean passed by Xu Lin. He walked very fast.

Xu Lin hung up the phone in a hurry and wanted to keep up with him. Just after two steps, Sean staggered and collapsed on the ground!

Lin Man got the news and hurried to the hospital.

Tomas and Mrs. Smith were both there.

They were talking to Xu Lin, "How is he?"

"He was sent to the emergency room a moment ago, and the doctor hasn't come out yet."

Mrs. Smith pressed the corner of her mouth and asked in a low voice, "Xu Lin, why did Sean faint suddenly? He hasn't recovered. How could you take him to his high school?"

Xu Lin was aggrieved.

"Madam, Mr. Smith demanded to go there. I tried to stop him, but he didn't listen to me!"

Tomas was shocked, "Sean fainted?"

It was Mrs. Smith who answered Xu Lin's call. Tomas didn't know what happened.

“Yes.”

Lin Man, who was walking towards the emergency room, stopped and looked at Xu Lin’s back with fixed eyes.

Mrs. Smith seemed to have thought of something, and subconsciously looked at Tomas, “No, don’t overthink. Sean had regular physical examinations. It’s impossible!”

Tomas frowned.

All of his other three sons had regular physical examinations.

But blood cancer couldn’t be prevented at all.

Tomas took a deep breath and fell silent. Everyone in the corridor was waiting for the doctor to come out.

As soon as the door of the emergency room opened, Mrs. Smith didn’t rush to it and asked about Sean’s situation eagerly as usual. Tomas didn’t move, either, as if Sean wasn’t their child.

Xu Lin paused and asked in a low voice, “How is Mr. Smith’s condition?”

The doctor removed his medical mask, took out the medical record from his pocket, and said, “The patient’s broken ribs are healing well, but he still needs to recuperate in bed.”

“And... When I checked the patient to find out the cause of his faint.” The doctor frowned and whispered, “Cancer cells were found in his body.”

Mrs. Smith was like being hit by a thunderbolt.

She turned pale in an instant. Even Xu Lin froze in situ.

“You...”

“Is the test result reliable?”

Doctors cared about medical ethics, but the doctor didn’t feel offended by Xu Lin’s suspicion. No one could accept the result. After all, Sean was still so young.

The doctor was accustomed to seeing such reactions of patient’s families. His expression remained unchanged.

“Mr. Smith and Mrs. Smith should know the patient’s illness.”

The doctor whispered, “Mr. Smith’s other three sons were also treated here. The patient is not life-threatening. But you guys need to find the right bone marrow...”

Chapter 484: Lin Man Wouldn’t Give Up

0 4 minutes read

-

The doctor did not finish his words, but both Tomas and Mrs. Smith knew what he was going to say!

After hearing this, Lin Man turned around and left the hospital.

Their invitations had been sent out.

Standing at the gate of the hospital, Lin Man looked sullen.

Sean had agreed to marry her. He nodded. She tried her best to take him back from Amber and had been longing to marry him for more than ten years. She couldn't let his illness ruin it.

Lin Man took out her phone, found Amber's number, and called her.

She found her number on Sean's cell phone.

When Lin Man called, Amber just got up. She had a good memory and knew Lin Man's number.

A trace of disgust flashed in her eyes, and she clicked on the 'No' button without hesitation.

Lin Man called her again.

Amber ignored her directly.

...

When Sean woke up, it was already dark. The ward was silent. He was having a drip.

Mrs. Smith, Tomas, Xu Lin and Gu Jinyan were all here. None of them spoke, and the atmosphere was heavy. Sean pressed the corner of his mouth.

Xu Lin found that Sean woke up.

"Mr. Smith."

Sean glanced at the time. It was almost midnight.

"Sean, you're awake. I'll make some porridge for you..."

"No, I'm not hungry." Sean whispered, "It's late, what are you guys doing in the hospital? I won't recover immediately even if you all stay by my side. Go back and rest."

Gu Jinyan nodded and said, "Mr. Smith, Mrs. Smith, you should go back and rest. I'll look after Sean."

Mrs. Smith's eyes reddened. She held back her tears, looked at Sean carefully, and asked in a low voice, "Sean, when you had treatment in Los Angeles, did you... see Amber?"

When Sean heard the word Amber, his expression changed slightly, but he restored calm quickly.

"Where is Lin Man?"

Sean changed the topic.

Mrs. Smith paused. Only then did she realize that Lin Man hadn't appeared since Sean fainted.

She took a deep breath and suddenly thought of Amber.

In the past, when Sean was sick, Amber was always the first to appear beside him, and Amber was very good at taking care of him.

She knew what medicine Sean could use and what medicine he couldn't. She almost made no mistake when taking care of Sean.

Mrs. Smith's heart ached.

She regretted offending Amber so thoroughly.

Tomas looked at his son on the bed and said blankly, "The doctor said cancer cells were found in your body."

Sean was mentally prepared. He was not surprised at all but only sneered.

"Anything else?"

Tomas frowned. Mrs. Smith said, "The doctor said, you had no signs of... getting blood cancer. He suspected that you were exposed to drugs that induce cancer..."

Mrs. Smith sobbed too much to continue.

Sean pressed the corner of his lips.

His food in Los Angeles was arranged by Xu Lin.

The medicine he used was prescribed by the doctor according to his physical condition. He took no wrong medicine or food...

Sean suddenly thought of Cindy.

When he met Amber at Mrs. Joseph's house, he took Cindy away.

He ate the candy Cindy gave him.

But Cindy was three years old. How could she harm him?

Sean thought of Amber.

Amber hated him.

She hated him for leaving her without saying goodbye back then. So she got back at him in this way?

Sean didn't want to assume the worst of Amber in this way, but the few memories he restored told him that Amber probably really did not mean to be with him back then.

Sean's eyes deepened.

He was suffering from blood cancer. If Amber didn't donate bone marrow to him, basically, he had no chance of survival.

Sean took a deep breath. Mrs. Smith cried, "Sean, I won't watch you die. I will go to the airport now. I will go to Los Angeles and find Amber. No matter what method I use, I will get her to donate bone marrow to you."

Saying this, Mrs. Smith suddenly got up.

Sean stretched his hand to grab Mrs. Smith's arm.

Mrs. Smith turned her head and looked at him.

"Sean?"

"No."

Mrs. Smith paused and heard Sean say, "I hate Amber. You heard what I said to her on the wedding day three years ago. I said I would rather die than accept her bone marrow."

Mrs. Smith's mouth opened wide in shock. She turned around suddenly and slapped Sean across the face.

Five fingerprints quickly appeared on Sean's cheek.

Mrs. Smith looked at his red and swollen face, as if being stabbed in the heart.

"Have you ever thought of me and your dad? We only have you. If you die, who will nourish us in our old age and bury our dead bodies?"

"I..."

Mrs. Smith choked, "Your dad and I had watched your brothers die! We don't want to go through that again!"

Sean's expression remained unchanged, and he whispered, "Mom, I don't believe that only Amber's bone marrow can save me. Sherman and Marcus might also be able to save me."

Mrs. Smith's expression eased a little. As long as Sean was not resisting the treatment, she was relieved.

"If their bone marrows can match mine successfully. I can grant them whatever they want. Amber can't be convinced to save me. I don't like to owe things to others, let alone a life."

"Mom, because of bone marrow, I was taken advantage of three years ago. I don't want that to happen again!"

There was no expression on Sean's face, and Mrs. Smith didn't doubt what he said.

She cried for a while, took a deep breath, and said, "Okay, I will contact the White family to see if the bone marrow of Sherman and Marcus can match yours. Sean, you have to promise me. If they can't save you, I'll go to Amber. You can't stop me."

"Mom, the doctor said that I am not life-threatening, remember? It's too early to cry."

Mrs. Smith wiped her tears. The death of her other three sons was a thorn in her heart. She was extremely afraid of losing her last son.

Chapter 485: I Want to See Lin Man

0 5 minutes read

-
“Alright, I’m not crying.”

After Mrs. Smith finished speaking, she left the ward with what she was holding. She was probably going to the White family.

Gu Jinyan and Tomas were still in the ward.

They were not easy to be convinced, especially Tomas, who was sitting on the sofa and looking at Sean.

“You refused to get divorced, and even chased Amber to Los Angeles. Now you finally decided to let her go?”

Sean closed his eyes powerlessly.

“Amber said she would never donate bone marrow to me. I don’t want to beg her.”

Sean felt ashamed.

Three years ago, he nearly killed their daughter. He hit Amber with his car and called Cindy bastard. He did too many things to wrong her.

Amber’s contour profile gradually became clear in his mind.

Sean suddenly “missed” Lin Man very much.

“Dad, I miss Lin Man. Can you ask her to take care of me in the hospital? With her by my side, I will definitely recover sooner.”

He said in a slimy tone, which made Tomas feel sick.

Seeing that his son didn’t cherish Amber but thought of Lin Man, he looked sullen, “Do as you like. I don’t care.”

Tomas stood up and left the ward.

“Sean, drop the act. You know it’s not easy to fool me.”

“Fine.”

Sean responded and said in a low voice, “I want to see Lin Man.”

“Lin Man has already reached Los Angeles. When you mentioned Lin Man just now, I asked my assistant to find out her whereabouts. She is getting off the plane.”

Gu Jinyan smiled, “Sean, you don’t need me to tell you why Lin Man went to Los Angeles, do you?”

Sean’s expression changed suddenly, “You knew the reason already?”

Yes.

Gu Jinyan laughed again.

When Lin Man came to the hospital, he happened to see her. He even saw her standing in the corridor and listening to Tomas's conversation with the doctor and then leaving.

Within ten minutes, his assistant told him Lin Man bought a ticket to Los Angeles and went to the airport.

"Why didn't you stop her?"

Gu Jinyan said with a mocking expression, "Why would I do that? Lin Man is very scheming. She tricked you for eleven years. If she talks to Amber, maybe Amber will return home tomorrow and donate bone marrow to you."

"I don't want to lose you. You are a good buddy."

Sean's eyes deepened.

"By the way, Sean, you are going to marry Lin Man, aren't you? In the past three years, you snubbed Amber and ignored her. Now, you are going to do that to Lin Man."

"I can't wait to see it. If you do that, you are like getting rid of an evil for the people!"

The smile on Gu Jinyan's face was gloating.

Sean pointed to the door and whispered, "You can leave now!"

Gu Jinyan was not angry, throwing his jacket over his shoulder, and went straight out.

The ward became quiet. Sean took out his phone and called Lin Man. A mechanical female voice came from the phone.

He raised his hand and slammed the phone out.

Hearing the big noise, Xu Lin entered the door. The phone on the ground had been smashed apart by Sean.

His hair stood on end.

"Mr. Smith... the board of directors knew that you have returned to Tong City, so they sent the documents over."

Sean looked at him silently. His eyes were as silent as a pool of stagnant water.

He did not respond. Xu Lin silently placed the files on the bed, then picked up the phone on the floor, and put it on the files before walking out.

...

Los Angeles.

Lin Man knew where Amber lived. After she got off the plane, she stopped a taxi, said Amber's address, and went straight there.

It was daytime in Los Angeles.

When Lin Man arrived at Wonderful Manor, she only saw Marcus who was playing games with Cindy in the living room.

Selena was in the kitchen. The door was open, and Lin Man invited herself in.

Seeing Lin Man, Marcus frowned, licked his lip, and smiled, "Oh, we got a rare visitor!"

Lin Man looked solemn and said directly, "I need to see Amber."

"Yeah, I need to see the President of the United States. Come on, who do you think you are? Get out!"

Marcus mocked with a cold face.

Lin Man did not leave but walked towards Cindy.

Cindy suddenly turned pale with fright. She was deeply afraid of Lin Man who wanted to feed her to wolves and sharks.

"Uncle."

Cindy leaned into Marcus's arms and said with a sobbing tone, "I'm scared."

Marcus threw the game console away, took Cindy into his arms, and looked at Lin Man coldly.

Lin Man smiled. She looked at Cindy and said, "Cindy, I am here because of your father. He is sick. He will die. Only your mother can save him."

She raised her cell phone and continued, "I'll stay in Los Angeles, waiting for your mother's call."

Cindy didn't believe it.

Amber told her Lin Man was not a good person. Cindy didn't believe any words she said, but she was smart and nodded.

Lin Man was very satisfied. She was not worried that Cindy would not tell Amber what she said. Marcus was here. Even if she wouldn't, Marcus would do that.

Moreover, she would come here again.

"I told you to get out!"

Marcus spoke coldly, and Lin Man stared at him quietly.

Marcus was not afraid at all. He snorted and said viciously, "What disease did Sean get? Sean seems to have three brothers who have died long ago. They have a family history of diseases? Now, he is sick. Was it him who asked you to be here? After all the things he's done to my sister, he wants her to save him?"

"Tell Sean my sister wishes he were dead. She can't wait to attend his funeral."

Lin Man's expression changed. During the years when she was with Sean, almost no one would speak insolently to her.

No, except for one person!

Amber.

Amber and Marcus seemed to be her nemesis.

Marcus held Cindy and whispered, "Lin Man, my house is off limits to dogs and bitches!"

"If you come uninvited again, I will toss you out like a dog."

Lin Man clenched her fists and glanced at Marcus, knowing that he hated her for slandering him in the Pomeranian thing.

She never saw such a stupid man. Suddenly, her anger was gone.

She smiled disdainfully and walked straight out of the villa.

Cindy watched Lin Man leaving, encircled Marcus's neck, and asked in a low voice, "Uncle, is what Lin Man said true? Is my dad really sick?"

Chapter 486: Lin Man Was Exaggerating

0 4 minutes read

-

The corner of Marcus's mouth twitched.

Sean's three brothers were indeed dead. It was rumored that the Smith family had a family history of genetic diseases and the men of the Smith family had a high risk of getting blood cancer.

What Lin Man said was probably true.

But it had nothing to do with him. He wouldn't tell Amber about this to bother her.

"Of course not."

Cindy looked at Marcus with a puzzled look.

"Your father is not an ordinary person. If he is seriously ill, we'll know. Lin Man was exaggerating!"

"But he's probably caught some kind of lurgy."

Fu He went downstairs and heard the conversation between Lin Man and Marcus. He poured water for himself, and said with a smile, "Cindy, have you forgotten what your mother said? Don't believe other people's nonsense."

"Your dad loves you so much. If he is really sick, he would tell you himself, wouldn't he? Lin Man lied to you."

Cindy felt what he said made sense, and the only bit of doubt in her heart was dispersed.

"I see."

Lin Man didn't know Cindy and Marcus were not going to tell Amber Sean's illness. She came out of Wonderful Manor and booked a room. Not long after she entered the room, the door was knocked. Lin Man thought it was a waiter and opened the door.

Two men in black suits stood outside the door. Immediately, Lin Man tried to close the door, but one of them put his hand against the door.

“Miss Lin, we are Mr. Smith’s subordinates.”

Lin Man’s expression remained unchanged. The man whispered, “Mr. Smith said he missed you very much and wanted to see you. We were asked to send you to the airport.”

Lin Man pressed her lips, “If Sean missed me, why didn’t he call me directly? I don’t believe it. If you don’t leave, I will call the police!”

The man smiled and said, “Miss Lin, you know whether Mr. Smith called you or not.”

“Mr. Smith said if you refuse to go back, he will find a way to take Miss White back to look after him.”

Lin Man frowned.

She wanted Amber to donate bone marrow to Sean, but she didn’t want them to make up.

Sean’s memory was restoring. If Amber went back to take care of him, Sean would recall everything. By then, he would get angry with her.

She was afraid that Sean’s remained affection for her would disappear after he knew what she did all the years.

Lin Man thought Marcus and Cindy would tell Amber about Sean’s illness. Even if they wouldn’t, the Smith family would manage to reach Amber to get her help.

She hesitated for a few seconds. Then she took her luggage out and whispered, “Fine, I’ll go back.”

Lin Man didn’t even have a rest. She boarded the plane returning to Tong City directly.

Amber didn’t even know Lin Man tried to talk to her about Sean’s illness and had no idea what happened in Tong City.

Amber knew Sean’s illness a few days later than Lin Man expected.

Mrs. Smith was anxious to get Sean out of danger sooner. Even though Sean was not at all life-threatening, she was still extremely anxious.

That night, she went to the Whites’ mansion to see Sherman.

When Mrs. Smith arrived, Yolanda was at home alone.

She knew Mrs. Smith.

“Mrs... Mrs. Smith?”

Mrs. Smith nodded and said, “I want to see Sherman.”

Mrs. Smith’s expression was so grave that Yolanda thought that Amber had done something to offend the Smith family again. A gloating smile quickly appeared on her face.

Mrs. Smith glared at her. Then Yolanda put away her smile. She cleared her throat and asked with a smile, "Mrs. Smith, did Amber do something wrong again?"

"Sherman has broken all relations with her three years ago. What she did has nothing to do with us. You can't blame us for what she did!"

Mrs. Smith frowned.

Not long after Sherman's wife died, Yolanda, the home wrecker, married him. It had always been a laughing stock in the upper class. Treating her stepdaughter harshly was even more contemptible.

But she was proud of it?

"Oh, really?"

Mrs. Smith smiled meaningfully, "Sean was in Los Angeles to receive treatment the other day. He mentioned to me that your son was very close to Amber."

"I thought you guys were going to accept Amber again."

Yolanda was wordless.

Sherman always listened to her, but Marcus didn't.

Marcus was her precious son who was independent and never asked her for suggestions. He admired Amber whom he never met since he was a child.

Yolanda's expression changed. Mrs. Smith was not in the mood to mock her. She lowered her head and said to Yolanda, "Please call Sherman and tell him to come back immediately."

"Okay..."

Yolanda couldn't afford to offend Mrs. Smith, so she obediently called Sherman.

Sherman came back soon. He had a heavy smell of alcohol. Mrs. Smith frowned.

Although they were relatives by marriage in the past three years, Mrs. Smith only met Sherman a few times.

Sherman was in a suit and looked very elegant and gentle.

"Mrs. Smith."

Mrs. Smith nodded, pressed the corner of her lips, and said in a low voice, "Mr. White, I need you to do me a favor."

A flash of surprise flashed across Sherman's face. The White family was about to go bankrupt. Unexpectedly, the Smith family asked for his help at this time.

"Is it about Amber?"

Sherman asked with a smile.

“It doesn’t have much to do with Amber. Mr. White, I hope you can spare some time tomorrow and go to the hospital with me.”

Sherman nodded, and Mrs. Smith spoke continued, “And please get your son back. Don’t worry, whether the thing goes as expected or not, I won’t let you guys make a trip for nothing.”

“I heard that your White Group is developing a new project, but it has some cash-flow problems. I am very interested and plan to invest some money in it.”

Chapter 487: Come Back to Tong City Immediately

0 4 minutes read

-

Sherman looked tempted.

The White Group was indeed facing an unprecedented crisis. Since Mrs. Smith had offered to help...

“Mrs. Smith, please rest assured. I will be there tomorrow, and I will get my son back from Los Angeles.”

After they made the deal, Mrs. Smith left.

After Sherman walked her out, Yolanda was about to call Marcus.

Yolanda knew a little bit about the situation of the White Group. She was so happy to hear that Mrs. Smith would allocate a sum of money to help them start the new project. She went to get her mobile phone happily.

Sherman stopped Yolanda and said in a low voice, “I’ll call Marcus.”

It was Amber who answered the phone.

Sherman suddenly remembered a thing three years ago. At that time, the White Group was about to close down. Lin Man came to him and said that as long as he openly disowned Amber, she would persuade Sean to help the White Group tide over the difficulties.

Sherman sighed. He actually felt guilty.

But if he was given another chance, he would still do the same.

Marcus was right. He couldn’t pay the huge debts, and neither could Yolanda and him.

“Where is Marcus?”

Sherman asked in a low voice. Amber only realized that it was Sherman who was calling. She frowned and got Marcus on the phone.

“What?”

“You’re wanted on the phone.”

Marcus glanced at the screen, reached for the phone, and answered in the living room, “Dad, what’s the matter?”

“You book a flight back home now. I need you to deal with something!”

“No!”

Marcus refused without thinking, “Our subsidiary in Los Angeles is undergoing a major rectification. The employees in the company don’t listen to my sister at all. I need to stay and help her.”

“I have no time to go back. If you really want me to help you with something, come to Los Angeles to find me.”

Sherman’s eyes widened angrily.

“Listen, you have to come back. I’ll convince the people in the subsidiary to follow Amber’s orders.”

Marcus was a little suspicious. Sherman didn’t want Amber to manage the company for them at all. Would he do that?

“Fine, I’ll go back, but you should tell me what you want me to deal with.”

Sherman told him the whole story.

The Smith Group offered to help the White Group, which was like manna from heaven. Sherman thought Marcus would agree readily. However, Marcus kept silent for a while and said without hesitation, “I’m not going back.”

Sherman was enraged, “Don’t be a moron! Buy a ticket and get your ass home!”

“With the Smith Group’s help, our White Group will go through the difficulties, otherwise I will declare bankruptcy tomorrow!”

Marcus was stubborn, “You think I want their help? Just declare bankruptcy. I don’t care. I know Mrs. Smith wants me to go back for a bone marrow matching test. Lin Man told me Sean was suffering from blood cancer.”

“He deserves it!”

Sherman’s pupils contracted.

Mrs. Smith wanted them to go to the hospital to save Sean?

If they saved Sean, the White Group might have a chance to thrive.

“You have to come back!” Sherman’s heartbeat raced and he whispered, “Marcus, I’m telling you the truth. Our White Group is about to close down. Let’s have the bone marrow matching test. If we can save him, our company will survive. Otherwise we have to bear hundreds of millions of dollars of debt. How can we repay it?”

“That’s your business!”

Marcus hung up the phone directly.

He stuffed his phone into his pocket and met Amber when he was about to get out of the bathroom.

“What?”

Amber was expressionless.

She must have heard what he said on the phone.

Marcus and Fu He reached a tacit understanding to keep what Lin Man said a secret.

Since Sean might hurt Amber again, Marcus didn't want him to continue to disrupt Amber's peaceful life.

Amber pressed the corner of her lips, and nodded.

She entered the bathroom, washed her hands, and asked Marcus in a low voice, "When did that happen?"

Marcus knew Amber was asking about Sean's illness.

He wanted to lie, but Amber was smart. He knew he couldn't hide it from her.

"I don't know, but Lin Man was here this afternoon."

Marcus followed Amber, whispering, "Sister, Sean's illness has nothing to do with you. He is going to marry Lin Man. Don't do stupid things."

Amber didn't seem to hear Marcus. Marcus looked up at the ceiling and said, "Sean already knows this place. He will definitely come to you shamelessly. Sister, we should move out."

Amber laughed, "What about the company? Are you going to move it away?"

"Don't worry, I have cut all ties with Sean, and I told his father that if he really got blood cancer, I would not donate bone marrow to him."

Marcus kept silent.

Amber continued, "If Sean really wants me to donate bone marrow to him, he wouldn't ask you and Sherman to do the matching test. Since they offered to help the White Group out, why don't you grasp the chance?"

"The Smith family is not stingy. Maybe you can bring the White Group back to life with a bit of bone marrow."

Marcus's mouth was wide-opened in surprise.

He really didn't expect that Amber was such a decisive and ruthless person.

But... that was really impressive!

"Okay, I'll book a ticket and go back in the evening."

Amber smiled.

In Sean's ward, the air seemed to be suffocating.

Xu Lin pressed his lips, and looked at the man on the bed. Sean closed his eyes and looked asleep, but his slightly trembling eyelashes told Xu Lin that he was not asleep.

“Mr. Smith.”

Sean opened his eyes.

Being stared at by him, Xu Lin licked his lip to push aside the feelings of fear.

Chapter 488: Get Them Back

0 5 minutes read

-

“I got news from our men in Los Angeles. Miss Lin’s plane will land soon.”

Sean sneered.

It had been almost a day since he woke up. If Lin Man didn’t come back, he didn’t know if he had the patience to keep waiting like this.

“Good.”

“Tell them to come back as well.”

Xu Lin paused.

When Sean returned home, he left his two men in LA and asked them to keep an eye on Amber. If Amber was in trouble, they could offer help.

“You asked them to stay to help...”

Sean took a cold look at Xu Lin. Xu Lin fell silent at once.

Cold sweat ran down his spine, and he shivered in fear.

“What can they do for Amber? Marcus and Fu He are living with Amber. Shi Muzhou and Lu Yi could also help her. She won’t need our help. Get our men back!”

“Okay!”

Xu Lin hurriedly responded, and the ward fell silent again.

After Sean woke up from the coma, he became more and more terrifying and silent. Xu Lin raised his head to peek at him. His gaze was lax. He was staring at one place, as if he was lost in thought.

A kind of utter loneliness and faintness enveloped him. For a moment, Xu Lin felt that Sean looked pitiful.

“Mr. Smith?”

Xu Lin called him, but he didn’t respond. He hesitated for a while and called him again.

Sean looked at him with no emotion in his eyes, and asked coldly, “You should get going.”

“Should we send someone to pick Miss Lin up?”

Sean paused, nodded, and said, "Bring her here directly."

"You pick her up in person."

Xu Lin answered okay.

He turned around and left the ward.

Sean fell silent again, thinking of a thing eleven years ago.

Amber didn't like people staring at her.

When they were in school, Amber would work part-time. At that time, he would feel distressed for her. When she sold things, he would have someone to buy them quietly.

Later she found out and lost her temper with him for the first time.

She said she didn't like people spying on her and investigating her.

Hearing her say that, Sean apologized and listened to her.

Sean suddenly laughed with sorrow oozing out of his dark and deep eyes.

How devoted he once was to her, and later how ruthless he was to her.

Sean felt a tearing pain in his heart, and gradually it became numb.

He sat up by himself, and reached out to call Tomas.

The phone was quickly answered. He lowered his eyes and kept silent.

Tomas was a little impatient, "What is it?"

"I have a question."

"Go ahead!"

Sean paused and said, "On the day of the landslide, why did you suddenly withdraw the search and rescue team?"

Tomas looked sullen, "Well, you've got some nerve asking this!"

"You left Amber who had a high fever in the most dangerous maple forest. Did Amber do anything to hurt you in the past few years? I should have killed you..."

"I left her in the maple forest? Who told you that?"

Sean interrupted Tomas and asked in reply.

He remembered this incident very clearly. Amber was almost hit by a stone. He fell unconscious in the maple forest in order to save her.

When he woke up, he was the only one left there.

Amber had long been out of his sight.

At that time he thought that Amber was in that big pit. To find her, he almost drowned in it...

Sean suddenly laughed.

Tomas thought that Sean was laughing about leaving Amber in the maple forest. His eyes turned red in anger, "Who told me that? I won't tell you. After all this time, are you going to get back at him?"

Sean pressed the corner of his lips and hung up directly.

At the time, Old Man Zhang said that Amber's wound was infected and was having a high fever. She couldn't wake up.

Only Lu Yi who rescued Amber from the mountain would tell his father that.

Cindy was kidnapped, and Amber hated him so much that she admitted to what Lu Yi said. She even told him directly that it was her who asked his father to withdraw the search and rescue team.

Sean looked at the files on the desk with fixed eyes and figured out the truth that he didn't want to admit but had to.

In Amber's heart, Lu Yi was much more important than him.

He deserved it, didn't he?

He closed his eyes and didn't open them even when Lin Man arrived. Lin Man thought that he hadn't woken up yet, so she put her handbag on the table and asked Xu Lin, "What did the doctor say?"

Lin Man's tone was so natural which made Xu Lin feel like she was already married to Sean and could call the shots.

He paused and said, "The doctor said that cancer cells were found in Mr. Smith's body, which should be caused by drugs."

Lin Man understood.

Someone harmed Sean. He shouldn't have gotten blood cancer so early.

She thought of Lu Yi.

She shook her head quickly and directly ruled out this idea.

Lu Yi was Sean's cousin. Even if Sean was his love rival, he wouldn't harm Sean like this.

Lin Man nodded and said in a low voice, "Go buy something Sean can eat, in case he would be hungry after waking up."

Xu Lin nodded.

Sean heard their conversation. Lin Man was sitting on the edge of the hospital bed, waiting for him to wake up.

When Xu Lin came back with the congee, she called him in a low voice, and Sean opened his eyes.

"Oh, good, you wake up. Eat this..."

Sean nodded.

Lin Man pressed the corner of her lips and watched him eating. She said in a low voice, "Sean, I... I've known what happened to you."

Sean was not surprised. After all, she had already been to Los Angeles. And he knew what Lin Man wanted to say was not this.

"I've talked to Amber. You will be fine."

The vortex in Sean's eyes was so deep that it almost sucked Lin Man in.

"Lin Man, how did you know that Amber's bone marrow can match mine?"

The smile on Lin Man's face suddenly stiffened.

Sean never told her about this.

"Your mom told me that."

Sean looked at Lin Man with a more bizarre gaze, "Really? What else did she tell you?"

Lin Man was a little nervous. Mrs. Smith didn't like her. Why would she tell her that?

The other day, before she boarded the plane, Mrs. Smith called her. She wanted to cancel the wedding of her and Sean and wanted her to persuade Sean to give up marrying her. Moreover, Mrs. Smith offered to compensate her.

Chapter 489: You Don't Want to Marry Me, Do You

0 4 minutes read

-

Lin Man's eyes were tingling.

She was indignant.

Did the Smith family think that the earth was revolving around them? What made them think they could do whatever they wanted?

Lin Man suddenly felt that she was no different from Amber. Both of them were so pitiful.

"Nothing more."

Lin Man took a deep breath and looked at Sean with fixed eyes, "Your mother wanted me to talk you out of marrying me."

"Sean, you don't want to marry me, do you?"

Sean took a sip of the porridge and his voice was almost inaudible.

"Lin Man, as long as you are willing to marry me, I will marry you."

"But I don't think you will marry a short-lived man."

Lin Man's eyebrows jerked. She said the same words to Amber three years ago.

Back then, she went to Amber by stealth. Sean shouldn't know about it.

"Don't... don't be ridiculous."

Sean looked at Lin Man with a smile and said in a low voice, "You are probably tired after such a long flight. You should go back and get some rest."

Lin Man nodded and left the ward with her handbag.

Sean watched Lin Man leaving the ward. He put the porridge in his hand on the bedside table. Xu Lin was confused, "Mr. Smith, you haven't eaten anything all day... Why don't you eat more?"

"Get out!"

Xu Lin was a little scared. He looked at Sean cautiously. Sean was motionless, and his gaze seemed to be fixed on the door of the ward.

Xu Lin hurried out of the ward.

The next day, Lin Man arrived at the hospital early in the morning, and Sherman was already there when she arrived.

He was actually an old friend of Lin Man. Lin Man froze for a moment and quickly put away her shock. Sherman pretended that he didn't know Lin Man.

"Are you Mr. Smith's fiancée? You are even better looking than on TV. Nice to meet you."

Lin Man reached out and shook Sherman's hand and said in a low voice, "I know you. You are Amber's father. Amber and I were very good friends."

Hearing her mention Amber, Sherman was a little embarrassed, but he quickly recovered his usual self-possession, pressed his lips tightly and smiled.

"Mrs. Smith, why is Mr. White here?"

Mrs. Smith smiled stiffly and said in a low voice, "He's here for a bone marrow matching test. Lin Man, Sean is sick. We can't watch you marry him and ruin your happiness..."

Mrs. Smith was talking about breaking off their engagement again. Lin Man's expression instantly became cold and she sneered.

Three years ago, she forced her to give birth to Sean's children, but at this time, she was pretending to be selfless and considerate.

"Mrs. Smith, I love Sean very much, and I don't mind marrying him. I don't want to hear such words again. It will hurt Sean."

Mrs. Smith chuckled and did not respond.

Then Lin Man saw Marcus approaching from the other side of the corridor. He was in an Armani tailored shirt and black straight-leg trousers.

“You...”

Lin Man looked at him with a frown, “What are you doing here? Where is Amber?”

Marcus raised his eyes and smiled, “Mrs. Smith asked me to have a bone marrow match testing for your fiancé. Why are you looking for my sister? She has already divorced Sean and won’t pose any threat to you. Am I right?”

“Just because my sister and Mr. Smith were married, you have to make things difficult for her? Mrs. Smith, the new daughter-in-law you chose is too small-minded. She can’t compare with my sister at all.”

Mrs. Smith’s expression changed. Sherman stretched out his leg and kicked Marcus in his ankle, “Brat, don’t talk nonsense. Be polite.”

Marcus smiled and flicked the dust off his trousers, “I came here immediately after I got off the plane. I’m very sincere, but Miss Lin questioned me in an unkind attitude, which made me feel like I shouldn’t be here.”

Lin Man gritted her teeth and said in a low voice, “Why didn’t Amber come back? Is she unwilling to donate bone marrow to Sean?”

Marcus took a look at Sean.

It was just a few days. Sean looked a lot thinner. Even his shirt looked a little too big for him.

After Lin Man asked this question, Marcus noticed that Sean’s eyes instantly froze on the file that he was reading. He was like a sculpture, and even his breathing was lightened.

Sean was in a trance.

Would Amber donate bone marrow to him?

Sean was not sure. He knew Amber was a very kind person. Even if it was a stranger who needed her bone marrow, she would not hesitate to agree.

Amber didn’t show up here, but it didn’t mean that she didn’t want to donate bone marrow to him. It was probably because she didn’t know he was sick.

“My sister already knows about Sean’s illness. But she said that she reached a consensus with Sean’s father. At the time of their divorce, she said that she would not donate bone marrow to Sean. Mr. Smith agreed with her.”

Mrs. Smith’s expression changed a bit. She knew about their deal. That was why she arranged the wedding of Sean and Lin Man.

She pressed her lips, and said with a cold face, “Alright. The doctor has arranged the test. You two, please be cooperative.”

Marcus glanced at Sean with a smile, and followed Sherman out of the ward.

Lin Man followed Marcus’s line of sight and looked at Sean.

Sean was very silent. Lin Man had never seen him being so silent.

The air in her heart seemed to be evacuated, and it froze bit by bit.

Marcus's words were clear.

Although Sean was mentally prepared, the softest part of his heart was still stabbed by what Marcus said. His face was pale as a paper.

He had done so many things to break Amber's heart and hurt her. Even if she donated bone marrow to a stranger, she wouldn't donate it to him.

"Mrs. Smith, I don't understand! Amber's bone marrow matches Sean's. Why did you ask Sherman and Marcus to do the matching test? Isn't this a waste of time?"

Lin Man was about to shed tears. She seldom got worked up, "What if Marcus's and Sherman's bone marrow couldn't match Sean's? Sean's father is on good terms with Amber. If he talks to her, she will agree to donate bone marrow."

Lin Man didn't notice that when she said this, Sean's pupils were even darker. They were like ink and had no trace of light.

Chapter 490: Was Lin Man in Any Position to Question Her

0 4 minutes read

-

Being questioned, Mrs. Smith looked more upset. Even the people in the upper class didn't dare to question her. Was Lin Man, a nobody, in any position to do this?

Moreover, she was also worried about her son!

"That's ridiculous. Miss Lin, it was you who pushed Amber to the cliff. It was you who made Amber divorce Sean. You know she is a lunatic and Cindy is her taboo. Why did you hurt Cindy?"

"You vicious bitch. If my son can't survive, I will never let you go!"

Lin Man turned pale.

"Alright, Mom, Lin Man, I'm tired. Stop it."

Watching Sean getting thinner, Mrs. Smith felt like she was having a fishbone stuck in her throat. She fell silent because of the pain.

"You'd better stay out of my son's business, otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!"

Lin Man's aggrieved gaze fell on Sean's face.

Sean pressed the corner of his lips, as if he didn't see Lin Man's aggrieved look.

Marcus was not in a hurry to go back to Los Angeles. Anyway, Sherman had instructed the people in the subsidiary company to listen to Amber, and no one would disrespect her.

Moreover, neither his nor Sherman's bone marrow successfully matched Sean's.

Maybe Sean did too many things wrong to Amber, and God was deliberately punishing him.

But there were too many people who didn't want Sean to die.

Gu Jinyan went directly to the Feng Group.

The Feng Group started a new project, and Lu Xiangxiang was very busy. When Gu Jinyan arrived, she was sorting out a mountain of files in the secretary's office.

The desk was knocked twice. Lu Xiangxiang looked up and saw Gu Jinyan.

Only a few people know Sean was suffering from blood cancer. Lu Xiangxiang didn't know it.

So when she saw Gu Jinyan, a flash of surprise flew through her beautiful eyes.

"Why are you here?"

Since they quarreled last time, they were not as close as they were used to be. Even when they talked, their tone was alienated.

Gu Jinyan noticed that and paused.

"I have to talk to you. What about having lunch with me?"

Lu Xiangxiang stood up behind the desk, walked up to Gu Jinyan, and pointed to the empty small conference room, "I'm a bit busy recently. I may not have time for lunch. If you don't mind, let's talk in the conference room?"

Gu Jinyan's face darkened, "Mr. Feng's subordinates don't even have time to eat? Is your work so hard? Why don't you work for me? You'll be richly rewarded."

Hearing this, Lu Xiangxiang was a little surprised. She suddenly smiled and said in a low voice, "I am not working hard for salary, but to realize my life value."

What value could a little secretary achieve?

Gu Jinyan sneered, "Should I go to Mr. Feng and ask for a short leave for you?"

Lu Xiangxiang was a little impatient, and asked in a low voice, "What the hell do you want to talk to me? I have work to do."

"I want you to go to Los Angeles with me and persuade Amber to come back."

Lu Xiangxiang was a little surprised.

"So you are here for Sean?"

Gu Jinyan did not deny, "Sean is sick. He needs Amber."

"No, he doesn't. The person he needs is his fiancée, Lin Man. Isn't Lin Man Sean's mental nourishment? As long as she is by Sean's side, Sean will be cured!" Lu Xiangxiang mocked, "He is too brazen, isn't he? Amber is his ex-wife. Why does he still think about her?"

Gu Jinyan frowned.

After marrying Sean, Amber was indeed not happy.

However, Sean was dying. If Amber didn't help him, he was likely to die.

Besides, in Gu Jinyan's heart, Amber was a kind woman. If she knew Sean's illness, she would never sit idly by.

Moreover, she and Sean had a daughter, Cindy.

Gu Jinyan lit a cigarette and stood in the corridor of the Feng Group with an anxious face.

"Xiangxiang, you are badly wrong about Sean."

Gu Jinyan paused, and told Lu Xiangxiang the reason why he wanted Amber to come back.

At the secretary's office, there was a sudden silence. Sean was sick with blood cancer. Once it went out, it was likely to directly affect the Smith Group's stock.

Not like Sean's other news, it would cause a great impact on the Smith Group.

Lu Xiangxiang hesitated.

She took sides with Amber. After hesitating, Lu Xiangxiang said, "We don't need to go to Los Angeles. I will tell Amber about this and ask her what she thinks."

"Gu Jinyan, Amber and I are friends. If she agrees to come back and donate bone marrow, I will not stop her. But if she doesn't, I will not persuade her."

"You know she doesn't owe Sean anything."

Gu Jinyan lowered his eyes and nodded, "Let me know if you get her answer."

Lu Xiangxiang nodded.

Gu Jinyan left quickly. After all, he was the president of the Gu Group. He appeared in the Feng Group to see Feng Chen's secretary, which was easy to stir up rumors.

After he left, the people in the secretary's office begin to gossip.

"Is she here to be a secretary or a mistress? Even Mr. Gu is bewitched by her!"

"Yes, so is our president. Maybe we should guard against her. What if she leaks our company's secrets one day?"

"Bang!"

Lu Xiangxiang slammed the thick files on the desk. The office fell quiet. The two gossiping secretaries stared at her with wide-opened eyes. Lu Xiangxiang mocked directly, "You guys are quite good at gossiping. Why don't you spend your time on your work? It's okay to be ugly, but you can't be ugly and vicious. Am I right?"

"Lu Xiangxiang, how dare you!"

Lu Xiangxiang looked at the woman who was talking, and said in a low voice, "If I were Mr. Feng's mistress, I would tell him to fire you first!"

The secretary's eyes widened. Before she could talk back, the door of the president's office was open from the inside. Feng Chen walked out with rare fatigue on his face.