

Mr Smith 511

Chapter 511: Bring Him to the Wedding No Matter What Method You Use

0 4 minutes read

-

The cameras all aimed at Lin Man. She never felt so embarrassed. What she seemed to hear was all the mocking sounds of the others. They all seemed like laughing at her.

Lin Man trembled all over. She bit her lip, and her face turned livid with rage. Mrs. Smith left the venue, but Tomas was still there.

Lin Man pulled off her veil, threw the bridal bouquet on the ground, and squatted on the red carpet. She cried bitterly, "Dad, where's Sean?"

Tomas looked angry. Sean did such a thing three years ago. This time, he was going to marry his beloved woman as he wished, but he still didn't show up at the wedding.

The Smith family may owe Amber, but they didn't owe Lin Man.

"Go find Sean. No matter what method is used, bring him to attend the wedding."

Xu Lin, who was standing aside, suddenly smiled, "Mr. Smith, don't bother. Your son asked me to take Miss Lin to him."

Xu Lin walked up to Lin Man and made a gesture, "Miss Lin, this way, please."

Lin Man didn't want to stay here anymore. She nodded and followed Xu Lin away.

After Lin Man left the venue, Tomas still felt sick. He walked to the podium and had come up with the excuse why Sean didn't appear.

What he said was high-sounding, and he promised to entertain the guests as planned. Most guests were satisfied, except for Amber and Shi Muzhou.

"Is Tomas already skilled at dealing with his son's mess?"

Shi Muzhou stood up, taunting. Amber was like being absorbed in thought.

Amber didn't know why Sean didn't show up. Shi Muzhou was right. Sean and the Smith family had no ties to her anymore. What happened here had nothing to do with her.

Shi Muzhou was about to leave. Amber stood up and left the venue with him. Halfway through the way, they met Lu Xiangxiang and Gu Jinyan.

Cindy was in Gu Jinyan's arms. When she saw Amber, her eyes lit up, "Mom, did you see that? Dad didn't marry Lin Man!"

"She is not good-looking, nor kind. She doesn't deserve Dad! She doesn't deserve to be my stepmother!"

Amber found it both funny and annoying.

“Cindy, stop talking nonsense!”

“Mom, I didn’t talk nonsense. I didn’t call dad to stop him from marrying Lin Man!”

Gu Jinyan laughed, his peachblossom-shaped eyes shining with a touch of affection.

“Sister-in-law, Cindy is actually not talking nonsense. Lin Man didn’t even get the marriage certificate before the wedding!”

Amber’s heartbeat raced.

She forced herself to look calm and smiled softly, “Mr. Gu, no, I’m not your sister-in-law.”

Gu Jinyan apologized, “Sorry, I forgot you’ve got divorced from Sean. I heard that you are now working for the White Group. Shall I call you Miss White?”

“Just call me by name.”

Gu Jinyan smiled and nodded. Amber reached out to take Cindy over. Cindy dodged. The smile on Gu Jinyan’s face was deeper, “I’m taking Cindy to see Sean. Are you coming with us?”

“Coming with you?” Lu Xiangxiang answered, “Since you are willing to look after Cindy, the three of us will have fun on our own!”

Gu Jinyan smiled and nodded.

...

Xu Lin took Lin Man directly to Ritz-Carlton, the presidential suite on the top floor. Sean was holding a glass of red wine, shaking it, standing in front of the French window.

Lin Man was in a mess. After she entered the door, she saw Sean. He was in a white sweater and comfortable trousers.

Lin Man suddenly smiled, and tears came out, “Sean, why are you doing this to me? It was you who wanted to get married, but look at you, you don’t look like someone who is going to get married.”

“You didn’t even change your clothes. You never planned to marry me, didn’t you?”

Her strength seemed to be exhausted, and she squatted down on the ground.

“Why? I was with you for eight years, Sean! Why are you doing this to me?”

“Is your heart made of stone?”

Sean’s expression was calm, and the corners of his lips were slightly raised, “I treated you well, didn’t I?”

Lin Man turned her head and looked at him.

Sean looked at her condescendingly, facing the light with his back.

Lin Man only felt it shockingly terrifying. She blinked and asked in a low voice, “What do you mean?”

“You like to take Amber’s things away, don’t you? I’m doing you a favor.” Sean sneered, “Amber went through the wedding alone three years ago, accepted everyone’s ridicule, and took the position of Mrs. Smith step by step. Miss Lin, shouldn’t you go through those things as she did?”

Lin Man’s breathing seemed to be curbed. Her heart contracted and ached completely.

She looked at Sean incredulously, “You...You have recollected everything?”

Sean didn’t deny it.

Lin Man only felt like a fish lacking water. All she was going to say was stuck in her throat, “You’ve remembered Amber? You marrying me was just to get back at me?”

A touch of disgust flashed across Sean’s eyes. Back then, he loved Amber deeply. When he just lost his memory, he only knew he had a girlfriend. The woman in front of him approached him, imitating every move of Amber, imitating every word of Amber!

He felt it both strange and familiar!

He was as blind as a bat and mistook Lin Man for Amber. He was ought to bear all the consequences.

“Sean!”

Lin Man didn’t know what Sean was thinking, and she yelled at him in a shrieking voice, “I was with you for eight years! Doesn’t it get above the one year you spent with Amber!”

“I almost spent my whole youth to love you. Why are you doing this to me? I was with you for eight years and waited for you for three years. You owe me! You owe me!”

Sean’s eyes deepened, “I owe you? You were with me for eight years, so you think you should get credit for that?”

He sneered, “In my eyes, you are just a culprit who forced me to separate from Amber for eleven years!”

“Lin Man, you’re really disgusting. Don’t you think what you said is outrageous?”

Chapter 512: I Won’t Love You Even If You Are With Me for 80 Years

0 4 minutes read

-

“Aren’t those what you want? Why can’t you be satisfied?”

Lin Man’s expression changed. Sean continued, “The person I love is Amber. You are a fake. I won’t love you even if you are with me for 80 years!”

Lin Man cried suddenly. She stretched out and pushed Sean away abruptly, “I did nothing wrong!”

“It was Amber’s fault! I fell in love with you first! Amber knew that. We were best friends, but she went out with you secretly.”

“I did nothing wrong!”

Sean frowned. A fierce light suddenly flashed across Lin Man's eyes, "If there was no Amber, you would fall in love with me!"

"Look, I'm not worse than Amber! I am more faithful than her. Being with her, you will only be cheated on again and again. Look at me. Look at me."

She was choked with tears, and her makeup was ruined. She did not give up and showed her wrist, "Sean, do you remember? You gave me this watch. You said it matched me well!"

"You like me, don't you?"

Sean shook Lin Man away indifferently. Speaking of the watch, he suddenly got up and pulled the watch off his wrist.

"I bought that watch as a gift to Amber. You took advantage of my amnesia to take possession of Amber's things. The watch has been soiled by you. Lin Man, I want you to discount it to me!"

"You bought this watch for me. I'm returning it to you! I want you to give back all the things I originally wanted to give to Amber!"

Every word Sean said pierced Lin Man's heart.

"And there is one thing you are wrong about. You can't compare with Amber at all!"

He gritted his teeth, "She is more beautiful than you. She is kind and helpful. She is self-reliant and disdains to get anything from me. She will not put the blames on others!"

"She is 1000 times 10,000 times better than you. How can you compare with her?"

These words stabbed into the deepest part of Lin Man's chest, and the pain made her almost unable to respond.

"No..."

The more Sean said, the more furious he was. He even wished he could choke Lin Man to death.

But there were still a lot of things that hadn't been figured out.

He squatted on the ground, staring at Lin Man with scorching eyes. Lin Man was bawling her eyes out with her arms around her knees and her face in her arms.

Sean looked extremely impatient. Just as Amber said, he may be born with an indifferent character. At the moment, he hated Lin Man as much as he used to love her in those eight years.

He wouldn't comfort her or give her more love.

He was trapped in strong self-disgust and unable to extricate himself.

In the huge presidential suite, Sean was filled with depression.

Lin Man cried enough and stopped slowly. The tears ruined her makeup, smudging on her face, making her look a mess.

"Are you done?"

Sean mocked, "Good. You tampered with the result of the paternity test I did a few months ago, didn't you?"

Lin Man froze and looked at Sean. Sean chuckled, "You don't have to deny it. I remember that man. You met him twice at the gate of the high school eleven years ago. Maybe more than twice."

Sean's eyes were gloomy, "Amber said she was your only friend. She doesn't know about that. Eleven years ago, it was you who spread rumors about that matter and prevented her from going to Columbia University. Am I right?"

Lin Man's pupils contracted.

The boss of the paternity test agency was indeed her friend, and she did those things secretly. How did Sean find out the truth?

"Sean, are you slandering me because of Amber? Are you serious?"

Sean suddenly smiled coldly. Lin Man couldn't help but shiver.

"I'm slandering you? Lin Man, I am not as mean as you! The reason why I noticed that is because at that time, you always glanced at me with amorous eyes and you begged for Amber to join our dates. During that time, I was planning to introduce Gu Jinyan or other friends to you, but I saw you secretly meet him."

"I thought he was your boyfriend at the time, so I took a look at his appearance. But now it seems that your relationship was one-sided. Lin Man, that man went to jail for you, but you could still marry with peace of mind. I have been tricked by you for eleven years!"

Since Sean had known everything she did, there was no point in denying it. Her eyes were full of fierceness, and she smiled, "Yes, it was me!"

"Sean, you think that's all I did?" Lin Man said with sick pleasure in her eyes and said viciously, "Do you remember the cruise party eight years ago?"

Sean looked at Lin Man in disgust, and his eyes darkened a little.

"I fell into the sea, remember? You jumped into the sea to save me without hesitation."

Was that something worthy of Lin Man to show off? Even if it was Tang Tian who was with him back then, he would also save her like that! If Lin Man was really drowned, he would be blamed.

"At that time another person also fell into the water. I made her fall in. You probably have known who it was. She spent a lot of money and bought a white dress and appeared happily on the cruise ship. She hoped to meet you by chance, but she fell into the sea. After she came out of the water, she was soggy. Her underwear was even seen clearly by every man present."

"Moreover, she had to watch you hold me in your arms and soothe me softly."

Sean paused.

Sean suddenly remembered. Shen Chun mentioned that after Amber got off the cruise ship, she went to the rooftop of the school to burn the traces of their love.

She probably hated his guts at that time.

Sean's heart ached, and anger suddenly rushed into his eyes. Lin Man didn't notice that. She bit the corner of her lips. Every word she said turned into a sharp knife, stabbing into Sean's chest.

"I went to help Amber to her feet personally. In order to make her give up, I told her you didn't love her. You were with her because of me!"

Chapter 513: I'm Also Afraid of Losing My Husband

0 4 minutes read

-

"If Amber was as shrewd and smart as she is today eight years ago, how would she believe my words? Sean, you don't know women, do you? Women would remember the pain men brought to them in their early years forever!"

Sean didn't hit women, but Lin Man's words completely enraged him. He kicked her to the ground with one foot, wishing to strangle her.

Lin Man's shoulder blade seemed to have been shattered. She turned pale in pain and filled with hatred. She was with Sean for eight years. She treated him wholeheartedly, but he was not nostalgic for their good old days at all.

"Four years ago, your mother was afraid that you would die from blood cancer, so she asked me to give you a child."

Lin Man cried while laughing, and said, "She was afraid of losing her son, and I was afraid of losing my husband!"

"I went to Amber and begged her to give you a child. At that time, she disagreed. I put the drug in your wine and sent her the address. I told her you were drugged, and you would die if you didn't have sex with a woman! Unexpectedly, Amber whom you loved so much was so cheap. You had separated from her for more than seven years and didn't love her anymore, but she still rushed to throw herself into your bed!"

Sean turned pale. Lin Man continued, "She had the bone marrow matching test for you and did so many things to save you. However, you locked her in the bedroom when she was about to give birth!"

"I was so happy when I knew it. She was so lucky. Why didn't she die!"

"Enough!"

Sean snapped at Lin Man, "Get out of here!"

"Get out!"

Lin Man didn't intend to leave. Xu Lin reacted, crouched down, dragged Lin Man out of the hotel room forcibly.

When Lin Man was being dragged out, her leg hit the wall. As soon as Xu Lin stopped, she endured the pain, got up from the ground, and tried to go back. Xu Lin stopped her, "Miss Lin, you know Mr. Smith is not a good-tempered person. If you go back, he would really choke you to death!"

He knew too much on this day, and it was a bit difficult to accept them all.

"Don't go back. You would get yourself killed!"

Lin Man kept silent for a few seconds, "I wish Sean would really kill me!"

Xu Lin did not have the gentleman's manners that Sean had nurtured in the upper class. He pushed Lin Man. Lin Man, who was in a pair of high heels, staggered and fell directly to the ground, "Just get the fuck out of here!"

After that, he turned around and called the security guard to stop Lin Man from coming back before returning to Sean's room.

The curtains closed, and Sean sat on the carpet expressionlessly.

He was holding the wine glass in his hand as if his soul was gone and only his empty shell was still there.

"Mr. Smith, the doctor told you not to drink."

Sean's expression remained unchanged. He took a sip of the red wine, and it dyed the man's lips red, making him look depressed and stunning.

"Go find out the design drafts Lin Man submitted to the Smith Group and her finished designs."

Xu Lin didn't know what Sean was going to do. Sean continued, "Do everything you can to make her works popular within a week!"

"You are going to make her famous?"

At this time, Sean should wish Lin Man were dead. Why would he make her famous?

Xu Lin was puzzled. Could it be that Mr. Smith was still thinking about the old days of Lin Man and him and wanted to give her a chance?

Sean nodded.

Xu Lin didn't dare to ask why. He went out to make calls.

When he just reached the door of the suite, Gu Jinyan arrived with Cindy in his arms. Cindy was already drowsy, resting her head on Gu Jinyan's shoulder.

"Where is Sean?"

"In the room."

Gu Jinyan smiled, "I saw a crazy woman downstairs. Sean hit her?"

"Open the door."

Xu Lin nodded and opened the door of the suite. Gu Jinyan carried Cindy in.

The room was filled with the smell of alcohol. Cindy was almost asleep. Smelling it, she suddenly opened her eyes.

“Uncle Gu, are you drinking?”

Gu Jinyan burst into laughter, “No, it’s your father!”

Cindy turned her head left and right, and saw Sean sitting on the ground. He was immersed in his own world and didn’t even notice Gu Jinyan and Cindy came in.

Gu Jinyan walked to Sean and kicked him with his toes, “Sean?”

He suddenly came out of his trance, “Cindy?”

Cindy got out of Gu Jinyan’s arms and walked carefully to Sean’s side. She hugged Sean and asked, “Dad, what’s wrong?”

Sean reached out and hugged Cindy tightly.

All words were stuck in his throat.

He was not a qualified father.

Some time ago, she had a car accident. Feng Chen saved her. He gave a piece of land to the Feng Group, and he pestered Amber and tried to talk her out of divorce. However, he didn’t even ask Cindy whether it hurt or not.

At the time he thought he handled it well, but at this time, he was in deep self-doubt.

Did Cindy want his compensation?

No, what she wanted was his love!

Moreover, he didn’t even say thank you to Feng Chen after he saved Cindy.

What was wrong with him?

“I’m okay. Why are you here? Where is... your mom?”

Sean’s voice was choking. Cindy noticed but didn’t feel it unusual, “Dad, do you have a cold?”

Sean shook his head, “No, I’m okay.”

Cindy looked at Sean hesitantly. She didn’t believe it, but she replied, “Dad, mom and aunt Xiangxiang and uncle Shi are hanging out.”

Uncle Shi?

Shi Muzhou’s face suddenly appeared in Sean’s mind.

A teenager who had a bad temper and behaved like a naive stupid student.

Sean suddenly thought that eleven years ago, after he pursued Amber for a long time, she suddenly agreed to be his girlfriend. Why? Because he was good-looking?

If that was the case, Amber was indeed superficial.

Sean gave a wry smile.

“Dad, you said men who approach mom all want to be my new dad. Does Uncle Shi also want to be my new dad?”

Chapter 514: My Father Will Only Be You

0 4 minutes read

-

Cindy’s eyes were sparkling, and Sean didn’t see any reluctance in them.

Sean’s heart ached.

Shi Muzhou often bought things for Cindy, but he didn’t even care about her. It was understandable that she would like Shi Muzhou to be her new dad.

If he were Cindy, he would also choose Shi Muzhou.

With that in mind, his heart ached more.

Back then, after he left Amber, did Amber also have so many pursuers like Shi Muzhou and Fu He?

Fate fooled him and made him forget the woman he decided to love forever when he was still a teenager.

Sean licked his lips without speaking. Cindy continued, “Dad, don’t worry, although I like Uncle Shi very much, mom told me my father will only be you.”

Sean’s eyelid jerked, and his heart throbbed.

Amber told her that?

She said Cindy’s father would only be him?

Did she mean forever?

If Ambe married someone else, she wasn’t going to let Cindy call that man dad?

Sean felt so sweet. Cindy encircled his neck and kissed his cheek, then smiled and said, “Dad, dad, I know where Uncle Shi and mom are. Shall we go find her?”

“Mom said Uncle Shi has a lot of nice clothes at his place. She and Aunt Xiangxiang are going to get them. I know where Uncle Shi’s house is. Let’s go there, okay?”

Sean’s face darkened again.

Gu Jinyan suddenly smiled, “Sean, you seem pretty good at putting on and wiping off different expressions. You might have the makings to be an actor.”

Well...

Sean glared at Gu Jinyan. Gu Jinyan smiled and picked Cindy up from Sean's arms, "Cindy, your father has drunk and can't drive."

"Besides, your father and your mother are divorced. It is inappropriate for him to go to your mother." Gu Jinyan said with a slight smile, "Your Uncle Shi might be your new dad. If you go there, you will disturb them."

But Cindy only heard the first sentence, "Uncle Gu, then you drive! Let's go there."

Sean didn't say a word, and his eyes didn't even focus. Gu Jinyan didn't know what he was thinking. He smiled, "Okay."

Sean pressed his lips. Cindy reached out her fleshy little hand and took his hand, "Dad, mom said, drinking is bad. You should stop drinking."

Sean's heart ached.

Amber seldom drank. Why would she say that?

Was she telling anyone not to drink? Who was it?

Shi Muzhou? Fu He? Or Lu Yi?

Sean's sadness gradually spread to his face. He wanted to ask Cindy about it, but he was afraid that she would tell Amber...

He pressed his lips. Cindy continued, "Dad, mom said, if you drink too much, you will wet the bed!"

Gu Jinyan couldn't hold back his laughter. He laughed out and looked at Sean.

"Hahaha! Sean, you'd better drink less in the future. If you wet the bed, no one will change the sheets for you! Hahahaha!"

Sean's face turned blue and purple in anger, but the corners of his lips gradually curved.

Amber was bluffing Cindy. That was why she said drinking was bad.

Sean breathed a sigh of relief, and gradually became worried.

Shi Muzhou's career was booming and he was popular. He probably didn't have time to work at his relationship. His fans would not accept that he married a woman who had a daughter.

Sean paused.

Moreover, Shi Muzhou was in showbiz and always had scandals with other female stars. If Amber married him, it would be really tiring for Amber to deal with them.

Amber shouldn't marry him!

Silently, Sean found out all the reasons that Shi Muzhou was not suitable for Amber, but in the past three years, he was the one who always hit the entertainment headlines, not Shi Muzhou.

He went out directly in his sweater with Gu Jinyan. Xu Lin had already arranged it, and when he saw them coming out, he was taken aback, "Mr. Smith, Mr. Gu, are you going out? I'll take the car."

“No, Gu Jinyan will drive. I need you to do something else for me.”

Xu Lin narrowed his eyes and waited for Sean’s order, but Sean kept silent. Xu Lin stood for a while and looked up at him, “Mr. Smith?”

“I’ll send it to your phone.”

Xu Lin was confused. He was right in front of Sean. Wasn’t it more time-saving to tell him directly?

Xu Lin didn’t dare to say this. He nodded, “Okay.”

Sean took Cindy and followed Gu Jinyan into the elevator with his mobile phone. Xu Lin’s mobile phone buzzed. It was Sean’s message.

Xu Lin thought it was probably something like company secrets.

[Go to the central mall and buy some clothes and toys for Cindy. ]

Xu Lin, “???”

Xu Lin, “!!!”

Xu Lin gritted his teeth and called Zhou Ruo, “Give your work to others and take a taxi to the central mall and wait for me there.”

Zhou Ruo was a little confused, “What’s wrong?”

“We’ll go shopping!”

...

When Sean and Gu Jinyan arrived at Shi Muzhou’s house, Cindy jumped out of the car and ran into the villa. Sean was worried that she would fall, stretched out his arms, and picked her up from the ground.

When they walked in, Amber was folding clothes. The brand side gave those clothes to Shi Muzhou. Amber lowered her head and packed them one by one.

She squatted in the middle of a pile of clothes, talking to Lu Xiangxiang and packing them up with a faint smile on her cheeks. Her smile was gentle and beautiful as a light cloud on the horizon.

Shi Muzhou was lying prone on the bed and playing a game. Hearing footsteps, the three of them turned their heads together and looked towards the door.

The smiles on their faces disappeared at the same time. Shi Muzhou frowned, “ Tsk tsk, isn’t this the groom? Why are you here?”

Chapter 515: Where Is the Bride

0 4 minutes read

-

“Where is your bride?”

Sean's expression remained unchanged. He had drunk a lot of wine, but he was pretty sober, holding back his anger silently.

His eyes fell on Amber. Amber was somewhat embarrassed. She wanted to tell him to look away but found that the look in his eyes was glazed.

"Mr. Smith, what are you looking at?" Shi Muzhou's tone was a little angry. He jumped off the bed suddenly and blocked Sean's vision.

Shi Muzhou glanced at Cindy, and sarcastically curved the corner of his mouth, "Why? Mr. Smith, you have taken Cindy to see her stepmother?"

"Cindy, tell uncle, did your stepmother give anything to you?" Shi Muzhou's tone became more and more mocking, "The Smith family is rich. Since Amber and Cindy don't want anything from your Smith family, Lin Man shouldn't be stingy, right?"

Amber and Lu Xiangxiang were both shocked. Shi Muzhou's agency was the Smith Group. Wasn't he afraid of ruining his career?

Amber suddenly stood up and pulled Shi Muzhou.

Sean's eyes that were calm suddenly deepened.

Amber cared about Shi Muzhou so much.

She was probably deliberately distancing herself from him.

Sean took a deep breath. Amber approached him and reached out to take Cindy over, "Thank you for bringing her over."

The smell of alcohol on him was strong. Amber frowned. However, such a small expression was caught by Sean. Well...

Amber even hated to get close to him?

She hated to be close to him, even hate to see him. Maybe only when he was not around would she have a peaceful life?

Amber tried to take Cindy over, but Sean refused to let Cindy go. He stood at the door motionlessly with no expression, and he didn't even look at Amber.

Amber licked her lips and whispered, "Mr. Smith?"

Sean's eyes were silent, "You don't have to be thankful. Cindy is my daughter. I should do everything I can for her."

Amber would cry with joy if she heard such words three years ago. However, everything had changed, and her heart was already broken.

She went through expectation to calmness to indifference. Sean wore out all her hopes.

Amber smiled and nodded politely.

Sean only felt a sharp knife stabbing in his heart...

After hesitating, worrying that Amber would hate him more, Sean put Cindy into Amber's arms.

"You have brought Cindy here. Mr. Smith, Mr. Gu, you may leave now!"

Shi Muzhou said with a cold face.

Sean paused. He ignored Shi Muzhou and stared at Amber intently, "I need to have a few words with you."

Amber froze for a moment, and her expression remained unchanged, "Mr. Smith, I don't think there is something we can talk about. Mr. Gu is your friend. Muzhou and Xiangxiang are my friends. They don't need to step aside, do they?"

Sean also smiled, "Are you sure you want to talk with me here?"

Amber suddenly thought of last night. After all, she spent the night in Sean's ward before his wedding.

Amber was worried that Sean would mention this. She hesitated.

"Why don't you talk here! None of us are strangers. You are divorced. Is there still a secret you need to share behind us?"

Gu Jinyan stopped Sean from leaving. Sean glared at him.

"Amber?"

Lu Xiangxiang looked at them curiously. Amber was at a loss. Sean glanced at Lu Xiangxiang, "After the divorce, Amber left the country hastily. We haven't talked many agreements over!"

"Why, shouldn't I and Amber talk about them in private?"

Saying that, Sean pulled Amber out of the villa with Cindy in his arms.

Amber stumbled and followed him out of the villa. He opened the door of the back seat and asked Amber to get into the car.

Amber stood at the door of the car in fright, hesitated and asked, "Mr. Smith, are you going to drive?"

Sean drank quite a lot of wine. If he drove, Amber wouldn't dare to sit in his car.

"You drank. Isn't it dangerous to drive under the influence? Think about Cindy. She is only three years old!"

Sean didn't plan to leave. Hearing that, he threw the car key to Amber and whispered, "You drive, and I will sit in the back seat with Cindy."

Amber wanted to take the clothes away. She didn't want to come here again!

"Wait a minute. I'm going back to take out the clothes!"

"No!"

Sean snapped at Amber. Amber was startled, and frowned, "Why? What the hell is wrong with you?"

Sean clenched Amber's arm tightly and whispered, "Cindy is my daughter. Why would I let others provide clothes or food for her?"

Amber was dumbfounded. It had been a long time since Sean scolded her like this.

Amber was enraged. They had gotten divorced. Why would she bear Sean's anger?

"What do you mean by this?"

"Did you ever care about Cindy? You know what, it was also other men who bought her clothes and toys in the past!"

No matter how many favors she accepted from others, it had nothing to do with him!

When she was still Sean's wife, Sean never cared about her and Cindy. After they got divorced, it occurred to him that he should care about them?

Were men all like this?

Amber felt like having a huge stone on her chest. She couldn't even breathe smoothly.

Sean's lips moved, but said nothing.

Amber took a step forward, "Sean, stop building a good-father image for yourself. In the past three years, you never bought anything for Cindy. Now, we are not bonded to each other anymore. You don't need to buy her anything. Cindy's custody right is with me, not with you! Back then..."

Amber's voice was choking, "Back then, when I registered Cindy for the permanent residence, I didn't even have the birth certificate that was signed by you!"

"Her surname is White. Strictly speaking, I'm her only parent. My friends love her, so they are willing to buy her clothes. I won't reject it! What makes you think you can stop me from accepting their kindness?"

Chapter 516: Dad, Mom, Are You Quarrelling Again

0 4 minutes read

-

Sean turned pale and held Cindy more tightly.

No matter how upset he was, he had to admit that what Amber said made sense.

"Mom, dad, are you arguing again?"

Cindy looked at them at a loss. Sean lowered his eyes and stopped arguing with Amber.

When Cindy did something wrong, she would be taught a lesson by Amber. She was experienced. Therefore, she tugged at Sean's sweater and said, "Dad, admit your mistake. Tell mom you are sorry. She will forgive you and calm down soon."

She was serious. Sean and Amber were both a little stunned.

Sean indeed wanted to apologize, but his words were like being stuck in his throat. After Amber heard what Cindy said, her anger was like a balloon that went flat.

She opened her mouth and said, "Stop it. It won't work when your dad does that."

Cindy pouted and stared at her grievously, "Okay, I see."

Amber felt more embarrassed. She suddenly realized that when she scolded Sean, she was like an angry wife who was being angry with her husband.

She let out a long sigh, turned around suddenly, and was about to go back.

Sean grabbed her arm. Amber turned her head and cast a stern glance at Sean. Sean let go of his grip and said in a low voice, "Sorry, I made you upset."

"But, Cindy is indeed my daughter. You are right. I did not give her anything in the past three years. I know I was wrong. Now, I want to compensate her. You can't refuse to give me any chances because of what happened before."

"Shi Muzhou gave Cindy new clothes and toys. I am very grateful. I shouldn't have said those words. I've asked Xu Lin to buy some for Cindy. They are now in Xingyue Bay."

"Shi Muzhou buys clothes for Cindy every year, but I never fulfilled my responsibilities as a father. Just let me do that for her, okay?"

Amber never expected that Sean would use such a pleading tone.

Before she could react, Sean looked at Cindy and asked, "Cindy, do you want the new clothes I bought for you?"

"Yes!"

"Mom, mom, let's go home. I want to see the new clothes!"

In the end, Amber went back to Xingyue Bay with Sean.

She opened the door with the key. Cindy quickly slipped in. Some children's clothes were on the sofa in the living room. She knew its brand. Children's clothes of this brand were too expensive, so she seldom bought them for Cindy.

These clothes were in a myriad of colors and styles.

"Mom, mom, I like this dress. Mom, I like this doll... Wow! And Barbies. Do you see, mom?"

Amber nodded.

"You..."

"Dad, mom said I would grow fast. You don't have to buy so many clothes for me. They won't fit me after some time! Although I like them very much, I want you to refund them. Mom said diligence and thrift was a traditional virtue! I always keep it in my mind."

Sean was a little surprised.

Amber educated Cindy so well. He felt proud of her, and he was also grateful to Amber.

He was grateful that she never treated his daughter harshly because of him.

“Okay, I won’t buy more clothes for you. But I want you to wear them. After you grow taller, I will buy you new ones.”

“Thank you, dad.”

Cindy smiled, kissed Sean on the cheek, and jumped down to play with her new Barbie dolls.

Amber was helpless. Looking at the dolls that were about the same height as Cindy, she said to Sean, “Cindy and I are going back to Los Angeles in a few days. These things... After Cindy is gone, who can play with them?”

She couldn’t take so many things abroad.

Sean’s expression remained unchanged, “When will you leave?”

“In four or five days.”

“I will send you off then.”

Sean didn’t say anything to keep Amber. He looked at her and said in a light voice, “I will also go to Los Angeles for a checkup. I can go with you.”

“No!”

Amber said decisively, “Marcus has booked the return flight for us.”

Then she paused and said, “If you want to go with us, you can take some things for me.”

Sean lowered his head. He didn’t answer Amber but beckoned to Cindy. Cindy approached obediently, “Dad?”

“Cindy, tell dad, do you want to fly?”

Cindy said, “I and mom came back by plane!”

“Do you want to try our own plane?”

Cindy’s eyes lit up, “Dad, you have a plane?”

Sean nodded, “Do you want me to send you and your mom back to Los Angeles by plane?”

“Yes!”

Amber, “...”

Her daughter was really easy to be fooled. She always took sides with Sean.

Amber shook her head and went into the study to deal with her work. Cindy glanced in her direction cleverly, curled her lip, and said, “Dad, you can’t make mom angry again. If you do, I won’t help you anymore.”

...

Time passed in a flash.

In Ritz-Carlton, Lin Man and Sean totally fell out. Lin Man knew that Sean would not be nice to her anymore. He might even do something to depress her.

Lin Man knew Sean well.

Most of the time, Sean would grant whatever was requested by her. He would try his best to satisfy her.

He was rarely merciless to others, except for Amber.

Even if Lin Man didn't want to admit it, she knew Sean granted whatever was requested by her because of his deep love for Amber.

Sean's memory had been restored. Lin Man was not sure whether Sean would retaliate against her, just like he did to Amber.

She was frightened. After making a fuss in Ritz-Carlton, she went straight back to her residence, planning to pack her things and go abroad. Sean could do whatever he wanted in Tong City, but not necessarily abroad.

Chapter 517: Why Would Sean Fall in Love With You

0 4 minutes read

When Lin Man was packing, Lin Ye opened the door of her room and walked in.

Seeing the suitcase on the ground, Lin Ye couldn't help but put on a sarcastic smile.

"Lin Man, you are going to run away? What have you done? Sean has let go what you did in the vacation manor, hasn't he?"

Lin Man's face darkened. She directly reached for the vase beside the bed, and threw it towards Lin Ye.

Lin Ye dodged quickly, but the vase shattered beside his feet and cut his skin. He was a little enraged.

"What the hell are you doing?"

Lin Man smiled, "Who do you think you are? Stop being nosy."

Lin Ye smiled, "Illegitimate girls always have no good quality. How can you make Sean fall in love with you..."

"Shut up. Shut the fuck up!"

Lin Man screamed, staring at Lin Ye with a cold face. She looked like she was anxious to kill Lin Ye.

"Get out!"

Lin Ye didn't move. He chuckled, "All right, I didn't come to you to fight with you. I have good news to tell you."

“Two of your design drafts were taken to competition by employees of the Smith Group. You won an award.”

“Our Lin Group is also engaged in costumes business. Since you have the ability to win awards, you can return to our company. After all, you have fallen out with Sean.”

Suddenly hearing such news, Lin Man was shocked.

“What did you say?”

Lin Ye repeated it. Lin Man shook her head, “It’s impossible!”

“Was it Sean who did that? How could he help me win an award? What award is it?”

Lin Ye sneered, “Best Design Award! Lin Man, you think everyone in the world is as narrow-minded as you? This award is well-known for its fairness and just in the country, and your works were submitted for review a month ago. How could Sean have time to help you get the award. He was spending his time getting his wife back!”

Lin Man turned pale.

“What did you say?”

As soon as she finished speaking, it dawned on her.

Sean didn’t show up at their wedding because he wanted to get back at her for Amber!

Lin Ye looked at her, “Don’t stir up any trouble. Since Sean is not doing anything to get back at you, keep a low profile and didn’t show up before him again. Otherwise, your life might be ruined!”

“Our family is rich but has no power. Don’t think you can convince dad to turn against the Smith family for you. He knows our family strength well!”

Lin Ye finished speaking and left Lin Man’s room directly.

She gritted her teeth and threw the clothes in her hands on the bed. A month ago, the employees of the Smith Group called her and said that they would submit her works to the competition. Lin Man didn’t think she would win the prize at the time, but she thought it was good to participate in it.

Unexpectedly, she won the prize.

Lin Man was worried, and went directly to the official website to check the result.

The award-winning work was clear and eye-catching. Lin Man was stunned when she saw it.

It was not hers at all but another designer’s!

Lin Man’s heart raced abruptly. She liked the works of top fashion Bazaar designers. Every time she drafted her works, she would use that designer’s works for reference.

Although she studied abroad for many years, her designs had never been popular!

The reason why she could work at the Smith Group was that the Smith Group wanted to develop in the design industry. They invited famous designers in the name of the design exchange meeting and even invited some designers that were ordinary.

Lin Man was not very professional and wasn't invited. However, one of the executives was her friend, and he generously gave her a place.

If the Smith Group wanted to develop in the design industry, it wouldn't develop step by step. It would definitely spend a lot of money to hire a few well-known designers to flourish its design business.

Lin Man knew those designers. One of her award-winning works belonged to one of the designers hired by Sean.

The works of that designer were indeed excellent. Lin Man liked them and even imitated them before.

That designer's works were bright and colorful. She always pursued visual impact.

The same was true for this award-winning work. The other designers hired by the Smith Group seldom had such outstanding works.

Lin Man was in deep panic. That designer was a little older than her and didn't surf the Internet much.

Lin Man had been looking forward to becoming famous. She finally did, but by relying on some else's work.

She was uneasy and excited...

After a long pause, she gritted her teeth and stood up. She put on her hat and took a taxi to the Smith Group.

Many people of the Smith Group didn't know the truth. After seeing Lin Man, they smiled and greeted her. Some people even complimented Lin Man with fawning smiles.

"Lin Man, you are awesome!"

Lin Man forced out a smile and went straight into the elevator to the 12th floor. Then she went straight to that designer's office.

The atmosphere in the office was solemn. As soon as Lin Man appeared, it was like a bomb dropped in the deep water, and many people jumped directly from their seats.

Lin Man didn't notice that but said to the assistant, "Where is Alice?"

Alice's assistant looked sullen, "Lin, I selected that work and submitted it. How did it become your work? You owe Alice an explanation!"

Lin Man, "I need to see Alice."

The assistant was very angry, "You know the rules in the design business. Plagiarism is intolerable. Were you deliberately doing that to Alice because you are the boss's fiancée?"

"Enough, show me evidence before you blame me!"

Since Lin Man appeared here, she didn't show any intention to admit her mistakes. Instead, she looked extraordinarily arrogant.

Lin Man was anxious to negotiate with Alice. She pushed the assistant away and knocked directly on the door of Alice's office.

Alice was drawing something and seems to be preparing for the next work. The work only had a rough outline, but it was amazing.

Lin Man's eyes flickered. Alice probably had known about the award thing. She took a look up at her, smiled, and took a sip of coffee, "Please sit down."

Chapter 518: I Will Not Give Myself Away

0 4 minutes read

-

"Alice, I'm sorry about the award thing."

"It's okay. I don't care about winning the award or not. Sean said winning the award would help the Smith Group open the market in your country. That's why I participated in the competition. In fact, no matter whose it became, God and the judges would still affirm that it's my achievement."

If it were someone else, they would feel ashamed. However, Lin Man didn't. She even smiled, "Alice, believe it or not, I didn't know it became mine beforehand."

"I knew it after the result came out. Alice, I want you not to say a word about this, and I want this work to be mine for the time being."

Alice was not angry. She took a look at Lin Man and said, "Even if I don't mention it, your works will give you away."

Lin Man's heart raced, "Don't worry. As long as you help me this time, I will not let that happen."

"Okay."

Alice agreed readily, which surprised Lin Man.

Because designers treated their works as their own children and cherished them very much. Lin Man had no time to think about it deeply. Alice was a very trustworthy woman. Since she agreed, she wouldn't go back on her word.

Lin Man breathed a sigh of relief, thinking about getting rid of the Smith Group.

When she got out of the office, her expression became more serious. She had seen it. She was the only one who won the prize in the Smith Group. However, Sean wanted to open up the Smith Group's clothing design market through the prize. Since Sean was so cruel to her, she wouldn't allow him to take advantage of her prize.

The award, Best Designer, didn't become a trending topic on Microblog. The top trending topic was Sean's absence from the wedding.

Given that Sean did the same thing three years ago, he was condemned by netizens, and some people also scolded her.

They said she was a home wrecker. She ruined Sean and Amber's wedding, so she deserved it.

Lin Man took a deep breath and dialed a number, "Post what you photographed yesterday on the Internet."

After hanging up, Lin Man went directly to the personnel department for resignation procedures. The resignation procedures would be completed in half a month. However, someone from the Smith Group posted this thing on Microblog secretly.

It soon caused a big sensation.

The netizens set off a frenzy of discussion online.

[Lin Man left her job at this time? It is understandable, isn't it?] [Did Sean get used to missing weddings? He's totally an asshole.] [Fortunately, this wedding didn't happen. If Lin Man that home wrecker successfully marries Sean, other home wreckers would become more confident.] [I read a post some time ago. It said that Lin Man was Sean's first love. They were together for eight years. However, Amber came to Sean when she was pregnant. Amber was the real home wrecker.] [I was Sean and Amber's high school classmate. Sean's first love was Amber, which was known to everyone in the school at the time. Even our teacher knew it. Sean did a lot for Amber! Later, Sean left for no reason and never came back. Then I heard that he and Lin Man were together. Lin Man was Amber's best friend. Wouldn't she feel guilty after being with Sean? When Sean married Amber three years ago, I was relieved. However, Lin Man came back again! Sean is not the only man in the world. Why did Lin Man haunt him like a fly? Maybe shits are fragrant for flies?]

Lin Man looked sullen when she saw this and directly tipped off this reviewer.

Because of Sean, many people followed Lin Man's account. Seeing this, they all texted her and asked if what that reviewer said was true. Some of them even cursed her.

Lin Man's face was distorted in anger.

She pressed the corner of her lips, and logged out Microblog.

...

Amber had packed up things. Sean was squatting on the ground and helping Cindy dress up the Barbie doll. Amber walked to Sean, "Mr. Smith, you have been here for a while. I guess you should leave now."

Cindy suddenly stood up. She bit her lower lip, looked at Sean, and then at Amber, "Mom, dad has done nothing wrong. Why are you asking him to leave... Can dad have dinner with us before leaving?"

Seeing Amber's expression turn cold suddenly, Cindy cautiously asked.

Amber stared blankly at Sean, "You shouldn't have appeared here actually. You know what you did today. Maybe you think you are accompanying Cindy. In fact, you are bringing her into trouble."

"I don't care how you will deal with what happened today. Please leave now."

Sean froze.

He lowered his eyes and stood up slowly. What Amber said was right.

His phone rang when he was about to leave. Sean hesitated and glanced at the caller ID. It was Xu Lin.

Xu Lin knew he and Amber and Cindy were together, and would not bother him. He probably called for something urgent.

Sean answered it. Xu Lin's voice was a little anxious, "Mr. Smith, last night, someone took pictures of you and Miss White when she was in your ward..."

Amber's phone also rang. It was Shi Muzhou. She vaguely heard what Xu Lin said on the phone.

Her eyelid twitched, and a bad premonition arose in her heart. Xu Lin whispered, "Miss White and Shi Muzhou attended your wedding together. After that, Miss White took her best friend to Shi Muzhou's house."

"The paparazzi reported that Shi Muzhou bought a lot of clothes for Cindy and said that he and Miss White have been together for a long time... Dissatisfaction is spreading among Shi Muzhou's fans."

Sean's eyes darkened. He glanced at Amber and said in a low voice, "Contact the public relations department and ask them to deal with it immediately. Then contact Shi Muzhou's agent and clarify the matter with him!"

"Okay!"

Xu Lin said okay and hung up the phone. Sean looked at Amber, nodded at her and whispered, "Go ahead."

Amber clicked to answer the phone. Shi Muzhou's tone was a little husky, "Where are you?"

Chapter 519: Cindy's Custody Is With Me

0 4 minutes read

"Xingyue Bay."

Shi Muzhou paused for a moment, "They've caused an uproar on the Internet. I have already come up with a solution with my agent. I will make a statement soon. Before that, stay home and don't go out."

Amber nodded. Shi Muzhou was in showbiz. Therefore, he was more familiar with the rules in showbiz. Amber hesitated and asked in a low voice, "Muzhou, I will be back to Los Angeles in a few days."

"If the sensation can't be quenched, you may not be able to go back."

Shi Muzhou paused, "Amber, my fans are very crazy. You are the first woman who had an affair with me. It is difficult for them to accept it. If you go abroad, they will pour into the airport and cause congestion."

Amber was a little worried.

Seeing Amber's worried look, he said after hesitating, "If you want to go abroad in a few days, call Marcus now and ask him to refund the tickets."

"By then, I will send someone to pick you up."

Amber pressed the corner of her lips. Sean continued, "You will go back by helicopter."

Amber glanced at Sean deeply, and pointed to the door, "Mr. Smith, please."

Sean paused for a while without retorting, "Think it over."

After speaking, he strode out with his coat in one hand. Cindy chased after him, "Dad, dad!"

"Stop!"

Amber yelled at Cindy. Sean looked back at Amber with a dark face. Cindy looked at Amber in fear, and stood in situ hesitantly like a sapling which was titling to Sean without wind.

"If you leave with him, don't come back. I'll go straight back to LA!"

"Amber, don't yell at her..."

Sean spoke, but Amber didn't look at him, "Mr. Smith, Cindy's custody rights are all with me. The way I discipline her is none of your business."

"I..."

"Mom, I just want to ask dad a question."

Cindy pinched her fingers, raised her face, and looked at her eagerly. Amber was softened.

"Go ahead."

Cindy was pleased, approached Sean, and stretched out her hands towards Sean. Sean leaned down and picked her up from the ground. She encircled Sean's neck, and whispered, "Dad, will you come to see me again?"

"Sure."

After getting the affirmative answer, Cindy looked at Amber eagerly.

Xingyue Bay was no longer hers, but the real estate of Sean. How could she stop Sean from coming to his own house?

But Amber couldn't receive him happily.

She turned around and entered the bedroom.

Sean kissed Cindy's cheek, and put her down, "All right, Cindy, I'm leaving. Listen to your mom and don't make her angry."

Cindy nodded.

She walked Sean to the door, and told him, "Dad, remember to come to see me!"

Sean rubbed Cindy's head and said, "Cindy, mom didn't mean to yell at you. It's dangerous outside now. You shouldn't follow me around. She yelled at you because she loves you and cares for you. Don't hate her, okay?"

Cindy nodded obediently.

Sean smiled and closed the door of the house.

The sky gradually became a little clouded. The setting sun cast an orange glow over the sycamore trees. The shadows of them pressed Sean's heart, suffocating him.

Sean still felt that Amber was hiding her love for him deep in her heart.

Otherwise, she wouldn't have appeared by his side without hesitation four years ago. She wouldn't have given birth to Cindy. She wouldn't have put up with him for so long after being hurt by him deeply.

But at this time, Sean was suddenly not so sure.

He had drunk a bottle of whiskey. The smell of alcohol on him was strong.

Xu Lin was dealing with work and had no time to pick him up, but Amber urged him to leave. She didn't want him to bring her troubles.

Even if he had to drive under the influence.

Sean's chest was like being blocked. Even if he died out here, Amber would probably not take a look at him.

Sean didn't know why he and Amber would end up like this...

The sky became darker. Dark clouds covered the sky. Sean seemed to be deep in thought.

The raindrops suddenly fell and became heavy. The weather changed. Before Sean walked to the car, he was already soaked in rain. He stretched out his hand to pull the car door and paused, as if his strength had been exhausted.

At the same time.

Amber went into the kitchen to make porridge for dinner.

She lowered her head and cracked two eggs into the rice bowl. Then she washed a tomato and prepared to stew the sirloin. As soon as she looked up, she saw Sean who was in the rain motionlessly and thinking something.

She paused, and the tomato slipped out of her hand suddenly and fell into the sink.

Amber took a deep breath.

"Mom!"

Cindy suddenly opened the door and came in with tears in her eyes, "Mom, dad... is drenched in the rain."

Cindy knew Amber and Sean were not on good terms. She stood in front of the kitchen for a while and suddenly shed tears.

Amber's expression was cold. Cindy's room was facing the outside. She saw Sean when she was in her room.

Amber lowered her head and looked at Cindy who was looking at her with tears, "Mom, dad drank wine and is ill. Now he is in the rain. Will he feel sick?"

"Mom, can you let dad in?"

Her voice was choking, which sounded pitiful.

Amber did not speak. Cindy said incoherently, "Mom, I watched a cartoon. An adult who drove after drinking was caught by the police and was sent to jail. Mom, you won't want me to have a criminal dad, will you? Drive him out after the rain stops. Please let him in, okay?"

Amber was silent.

Five minutes later, the gate of Xingyue Bay opened. Cindy held a huge umbrella and walked in the direction of Sean in small leather boots.

The rain was so heavy that it splashed onto Cindy's face. She walked forward with difficulty, "Dad!"

Sean was too absorbed in his thought to hear her. He didn't react until Cindy called him in a hoarse voice.

Cindy had already reached his side. The umbrella she was holding was very big. Before she could get closer to Sean, the umbrella touched Sean's thigh.

Chapter 520: Dad, Let's Go Back

0 4 minutes read

He suddenly came out of his trance. As soon as he lowered his head, he saw an umbrella. The water on the umbrella's eaves was pouring into his hand-sewn leather shoes. He didn't mind, stooped down and took the umbrella over.

"It's raining so heavy..."

When his gaze fell on Cindy, he paused.

Cindy was in a small raincoat and a pair of small leather boots. It was not convenient to put on the small raincoat. Cindy couldn't put it on by herself. So...

Sean looked at the door of Xingyue Bay. Although it was open, no one was there.

He paused for a while.

He probably overthought it.

"Why did you come out here?"

Cindy stood on tiptoe and pushed the umbrella in the direction of Sean, "Dad, why are you in the rain? Why haven't you left?"

"Are you afraid of the police arresting you?"

Sean paused, pressed his lips, and nodded with a smile.

Cindy looked very distressed, "Dad, I've talked to mom. She said you can stay in our house before the rain stops."

"Dad, let's go back. Mom made Tomato Sirloin."

Sean froze.

Tomato Sirloin was one of his favorites.

When they ate together in high school, he would order it every time.

Did Amber make the dish deliberately?

Was she implying that she still loved him? As long as he was willing to apologize and spend some effort, she would come back to him?

Although he was around Amber these days, he didn't show any intention to make up with her.

Amber hated his guts. When did she change her mind?

He suddenly remembered the babysbreath Amber gave to him. He vaguely mentioned that he still remembered what happened eleven years ago.

He pondered for a moment. Was it because of that?

Because he remembered things eleven years ago, she thought they could rekindle their past feelings?

The rain gradually became heavier. The wind also became stronger and even lifted the hem of Cindy's raincoat.

He pressed his lips with silent eyes. Cindy didn't know what he was thinking. She looked at him and pulled the hem of his sweater, "Dad?"

"Let's go in."

Sean reached out directly and picked Cindy up from the ground. Although she was holding an umbrella, there was still a lot of water on her raincoat. Sean didn't mind it at all.

She walked towards Xingyue Bay with Cindy in his arms. He entered the door, helped Cindy take off her raincoat and change her shoes. Fortunately, her clothes were not wet.

He breathed a sigh of relief. Cindy took him directly to the master bedroom, opened the wardrobe and handed a large men's T-shirt to Sean, "Dad, change your clothes and come out for dinner."

Sean was stunned. Why were there men's clothes in Amber's wardrobe?

After he bought Xingyue Bay, he didn't change anything here.

When Amber left here, she did not take all things away. When he decided to let Amber stay in Xingyue Bay after she returned, he asked Xu Lin to clean up all the traces he left here.

This was not his shirt, which meant that it was either left here after a man stayed overnight, or that Amber bought it as a gift.

No matter what the reason was, Sean felt bad.

If it was left here after a man stayed here overnight, it meant he spent the night in Amber's room.

And...

Sean touched the T-shirt. Its fabric was comfortable. It was valuable and definitely custom-tailored.

He suddenly remembered what Amber said. She didn't have much spare money and couldn't buy what Cindy wanted...

However, Amber was quite generous when she spent money on men!

Sean raised his eyes and stood by the bed. The wine made him get out of the room with the shirt in his hand. He walked directly towards the kitchen with a gloomy face.

He left black footprints at every step.

"Dad, why haven't you changed your clothes?"

Sean ignored Cindy, and strode to the kitchen. Amber was making ginger soup with her head down. He didn't know if it was for him or Cindy.

She faced him with her back, looking at the fire intently. When she was about to turn around, her arm was grabbed by Sean. She exclaimed and was pushed to the glazed table by him.

Sean handed the shirt to Amber, "What is this?"

Amber was confused. She glanced at the shirt in Sean's hand, and asked with a frown, "What the hell are you doing?"

"Whose shirt is this and why is it in your bedroom? Tell me."

Amber's pupils contracted.

They were separated for eight years, and Sean never trusted her. Obviously, Sean was suspecting that she cheated on him before they got divorced and even lived with another man in Xingyue Bay.

Amber was speechless, but she looked calm, "What do you mean? Are you accusing me of me cheating on you?"

"We are already divorced, remember? What is the point of looking for evidence of marital infidelity now?"

"I didn't take your money, and I didn't take your real estate. Our divorce is simple and we have no interest disputes. Or, the proud and arrogant Mr. Smith is still thinking about me?"

Sean froze. The dim light above his head made him look angular and gloomy.

“Let go of me!”

She pushed Sean. Sean took a step back. The ginger soup was cooked. Amber stood up straight, and turned off the fire.

Sean followed Amber step by step, “Whose shirt is it, Shi Muzhou or Fu He? Answer me. Is it Lu Yi’s?”

Cindy came in and happened to hear this. She glanced at the shirt in confusion and said, “Dad, isn’t it yours?”