

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4026 -

“Mr. Ye, I am willing to give all the treasures in my hand, and please spare me your life!”

“I am also willing to hand in as many as I can, just to save my life and repay Mr. Ye in the future as a cow and a horse.”

“me too!”

Pfft!

Pfft!

Immediately afterwards, many sectarian powerhouses who were spared fell to their knees.

Levi Garrison sneered twice and said, “If I knew this earlier, why bother? It took so many lives in vain.”

“You guys go and scavenge for their talents and treasures, and remember that you can’t leave them a little bit.”

The Taiyi Chamber of Commerce’s guide and Murong Qingxue did not dare to disobey Levi Garrison’s instructions, and directly snatch the good things from many sectarian powerhouses.

I have to say that these people have a lot of good things, and there are many kinds of top-level precious medicinal materials, especially the dragon vein spirit crystals, which are up to tens of thousands.

The corner of Levi Garrison’s mouth rose slightly, this trip to Longyang City was really rewarding!

“I have always been merciful and soft-hearted, and since you have already handed over your things, please wait for your life!”

Levi Garrison said solemnly.

What the hell!

The surviving strong sects suddenly had a strong urge to swear.

Look at this bamboo forest corpse littered with blood and blood, it's degrading purgatory on earth, don't you insult the words 'kind-hearted and soft-hearted', okay?

But then again, after meeting Levi Garrison, many sectarian powerhouses suddenly realized something very important.

Levi Garrison seems to be very similar to the first gangster who has been rumored before!

They are all robbing genius treasures, and then slaughtering the opponents.

"How did you get into this evil spirit? I really didn't go out to read the almanac!"

Such thoughts rose in the hearts of the survivors.

Of course, I am very glad that Levi Garrison didn't say that they killed all of them this time.

"Let's go!"

Levi Garrison waved at Murong Qingxue and the others, and left the bamboo forest directly.

Until the figures of Levi Garrison and others completely disappeared from sight, many survivors of the sect dared to stand up slowly.

Everyone wiped the cold sweat on their foreheads one after another, feeling as if they had walked around the gate of hell, full of joy for the rest of their lives.

After leaving the bamboo forest, Levi Garrison urged the guide to speed up and rush to the Buried Dragon Valley.

"Sect Master, are we really going to Bury the Dragon Valley?"

Murong Qingxue asked in a trembling voice.

Murong Qingxue was indeed frightened. She had naturally heard of the Dragon Burial Valley. It was almost a Jedi that would die once it broke into the dead.

It is said that the previous master of the Xingyue Shenzong had reached the state of perfection, and he immediately went to the Dragon Burial Valley to take a chance, but there is still no news.

Basically belong to the misfortune less fortunate.

Gongsun Yueying was not much stronger than Murong Qingxue, and even said that she was not as good as Murong Qingxue.

As the daughter of the sky in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, she learned more about the Dragon Burial Valley.

The two hall masters have repeatedly stated that the Buried Dragon Valley is a Jedi, and even if the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple comes out of its nest, they would not dare to set foot there.

“Master, that place is indeed very scary, or we should not..”

Gongsun Yueying’s words behind him were stopped by Levi Garrison’s stern look.

“What, are you afraid?”

Levi Garrison said with a smile: “If something happens to me when I enter the Buried Dragon Valley, wouldn’t you just take the opportunity to escape?”

“No...don’t dare, why did the master say such a thing? Even if you lend me 10,000 courage, you wouldn’t dare to have such an idea!”

Gongsun Yueying hurriedly denied it.

Levi Garrison only showed such terrifying strength not long ago. If he finds out that he has different intentions, wouldn’t it be his own death?

“I hope you do what you say.”

Levi Garrison sneered twice, and then continued: “I have to go to the Buried Dragon Valley, let’s go!”

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4027 -

Although the Buried Dragon Valley is full of dangers, Levi Garrison is not afraid at all.

For God Bone Levi Garrison is inevitable.

The guide did not dare to be slighted in the slightest, and stepped up to hurry.

Especially after seeing Levi Garrison possess such terrifying power with his own eyes, he even dared not disobey his orders.

Everyone rushed for six days without stopping, and finally came to a swamp.

“Mr. Ye, the map provided by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce is here, and I can’t prepare to identify the route any further.”

“But as long as you continue to walk forward and pass through this swamp, you will see the primitive jungle. It is said that the Buried Dragon Valley is deep in the jungle.”

“The most notable feature of the Buried Dragon Valley is that there are constant thunderstorms, especially every few months, there will be thunderstorms, and the momentum should be easily discovered by you.”

The guide said with great respect.

Levi Garrison nodded and said, “You can go back and take your life. We will walk the road behind.”

“Thank you Mr. Ye for being considerate.”

The guide said gratefully.

Going forward, good and bad luck is unpredictable, and with his cultivation realm, he may die at any time.

The guide left quickly, and Levi Garrison waved to the two women and said, “Don’t be stunned, let’s go!”

Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying’s faces were as pale as paper.

Although there are all kinds of fears and worries in his heart, he can only bite the bullet and move forward in the face of Levi Garrison’s request.

Levi Garrison led the way first, and the two women followed carefully, looking around with vigilance from time to time.

This swamp seems to be endless. Fortunately, the three of them are running the exercises and their bodies are light, otherwise it would be really difficult to move.

In this way, the three walked forward for more than ten miles, and finally came to the edge of the jungle.

“Um?”

Levi Garrison suddenly felt a little strange.

This area of space seems to be filled with invisible power, which can actually suppress the speed of the exercise.

“This feeling is similar to exploring the secrets of the secular world at the beginning.”

Levi Garrison slandered, and at the same time raised his vigilance.

“This place is really weird, it feels like movement is hindered by some force.”

Murong Qingxue’s voice was a bit bitter, if it wasn’t for Levi Garrison by her side, she would have turned around and left this place long ago.

“The hall master once said that due to the release of the power of the thunder in the Buried Dragon Valley over the years, the surrounding area has formed a potential.”

“This space will naturally have a sense of blockage that is suppressed by power, making it difficult for people to move.”

“Those with weak cultivation will suffer internal injuries if they resist this kind of situation for a long time, which is why many people dare not go to the Dragon Burial Valley.”

Gongsun Yueying said in a condensed voice.

Levi Garrison said thoughtfully: “The so-called power should be equivalent to the power covering the field, and whoever this power comes from, belongs to whose power.”

“When outsiders break into it, they will naturally be hindered. Is that what you mean?”

“That’s right!”

Gongsun Yueying responded quickly.

Levi Garrison said with a smile: “Since the two of you are following me closely, it will not be affected.”

While speaking, Levi Garrison quickly ran the basic exercises.

The terrifying energy aftermath spread out, forming a room-sized regional energy shield that enveloped the two women.

Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue felt relieved for a while, and the previous feeling of being suppressed by them disappeared in an instant.

“This is to help us resist the energy attack? Is the power in his body inexhaustible?”

Gongsun Yueying was stunned again.

While Murong Qingxue was shocked, she was more grateful.

With Levi Garrison by his side, he felt an unprecedented sense of security.

“Keep going!”

Levi Garrison waved his hand and walked into the jungle first.

The two women followed closely. After all, the energy shield had a limited area, and if they left, they had to exercise their own skills to resist the suppression of the force.
