

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4134 -

In the astonishment and shock of the members of the Free King's party, Lei Kirin started a unilateral massacre.

I saw it roaring and jumping up and down again and again, sometimes spewing flames from its mouth, sometimes discharging its back, and sometimes releasing cold from its four hooves.

As a result, there are three endings for the army of the spirit beasts of the Happy King, or they are reduced to coke, they are burned to ashes, or they are frozen into ice sculptures.

Under Lei Kirin's triple attack, the army of spirit beasts completely lost their ability to escape, not to mention fighting back.

King Xiaoyao's complexion had turned from red to purple, and those arrogant subordinates were stunned and stunned.

One is happy and one is sad.

Compared with the shock and panic on the side of King Free and Easy, the powerhouses of the Xingyue Shenzong and the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were in shock and were particularly excited.

They never imagined that Lei Kirin, who is usually arrogant and manifested in front of his lover, could burst out with such terrifying fighting power.

More than a hundred high-grade spirit beasts were like lambs to be slaughtered in front of Lei Kirin, and they were completely powerless to fight back.

The key is Lei Kirin's triple attack, which shocked everyone.

"If I'm not mistaken, the power of thunder and lightning released by Lei Kirin has at most nine colors!"

"And the flame it spews out, which is comparable to the energy source bursting out from the top-level fire element spirit veins, and some spirit beasts are directly vaporized."

"And its extremely cold air. I feel like I have entered the Ten Thousand Years Ice Cave at such a distance. No wonder those spirit beasts were directly frozen into ice sculptures."

“Lei Kirin ‘s strength, I am afraid that the top powerhouses of several large sects can’t beat them.”

“As expected of Mr. Ye, he was able to take the king-level spirit beast under his command.”

Recalling that Lei Kirin was as submissive as a kitten in front of Levi Garrison, it is hard to imagine how Lei Kirin was abused by Levi Garrison?

“No, King Xiaoyao seems to be going to deal with Lei Kirin himself.”

Wei Shuyang suddenly reminded loudly.

Everyone looked in the direction of Wei Shuyang’s fingers.

Seeing that King Xiaoyao was holding a long sword, he had already jumped off the cloud boat, suspended in mid-air, staring at Lei Kirin with awe-inspiring killing intent.

In fact, Levi Garrison had noticed this for a long time, and directly drew a long spear from the pile of peerless gods.

Everyone turned their heads and watched, and saw that the long spear was silver-white, the spear tip was surrounded by electric arcs, and at the same time, there was a faint flame rising.

Although Levi Garrison did not perform any exercises, this long spear was full of charm, which made people unconsciously indulge in it.

“As expected of the top peerless magic weapon!”

“I don’t know how powerful this spear is.”

“Isn’t it weaker than Burying the Dragon or Slaying Thunder?”

The people of the Xingyue Divine Sect were amazed.

Many of them have seen the power of the Thunder Slashing Sword, and they have directly led many of the top powerhouses of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall to die on the spot.

The eyes of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were obsessed. They were also well-informed, but they had never seen such a peerless weapon of this grade.

Wei Shuyang was even more shocked. After seeing this long spear, he instantly felt that the magic weapon he had exchanged from Levi Garrison was not fragrant.

“It seems that Levi Garrison’s forging technique is much stronger than expected.”

While Wei Shuyang sighed in his heart, he strengthened his determination to protect Levi Garrison’s life.

“This gun is called Tiance!”

The name comes from Tiance Mansion!

Levi Garrison introduced it softly, and then suddenly threw it in the direction of King Xiaoyao.

laugh!

Tian Ce suddenly shot out, and everyone could clearly hear the sound of the spear breaking the sound barrier.

Especially when Tiance’s gun was surrounded by a more terrifying arc of lightning, the dazzling electric flowers kept flashing, but in an instant, it was already in front of King Xiaoyao.

the other side.

King Xiaoyao originally wanted to kill Lei Kirin himself, but when he was about to make a fortune, he suddenly sensed a strong premonition of crisis.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4135

As far as his eyes could reach, King Xiaoyao saw a cluster of dazzling electric lights rapidly approaching.

“You want to hurt this king with a hidden weapon? It’s just a fool’s dream.”

King Xiaoyao shouted loudly, Yun Gong urged the long sword, and threw it in the direction of the electric light.

hum!

The long knife burst into a bright light, and the terrifying knife gang formed a giant energy storm, aiming at the electric light and blasting it.

A sneer appeared on King Xiaoyao's face. In his opinion, it was impossible for him to break through the seal of the Blade Gang energy storm with a long-distance attack.

Next, he took advantage of the victory to pursue the attack, and with the help of the remaining power of the knife, he directly killed the king-level spirit beast on the spot.

However, after a moment, the smile on King Xiaoyao's face froze.

"how can that be?"

The King of Xiaoyao saw that the Sword Gang Storm was instantly swallowed up by the dazzling electric light, and the surroundings that had been discolored by the wind and clouds were instantly incomparably quiet.

At the same time, there was a chill to the extreme, and even the space was frozen at a speed visible to the naked eye.

And the top-level magic sword was frozen in an instant, and then it was bombarded into powder by the electric light.

"Danger!"

A strong premonition of crisis struck again, King Xiaoyao's pupils contracted, and he hurriedly mobilized all his strength to form an energy shield in front of him.

Swish swish!

An energy shield with a thickness of ten feet was formed in an instant.

At this moment, Tian Ce finally came into contact with the outermost energy shield.

bang!

The energy shield shattered when it touched, and it was penetrated layer by layer in an instant like a paper as thin as a cicada's wings.

The key is that the speed of Tian Ce's flying stab is not reduced in the slightest, and it is obviously not hindered by the energy shield.

"Oops!"

King Xiaoyao secretly said that it was not good, and almost instinctively wanted to dodge to the side.

However, it was too late to want to escape at this moment, Tiance spear came in an instant and pierced directly into his chest.

puff!

Even though King Xiaoyao wears top-level armor, he is still easily penetrated through his body.

The powerful impact has not diminished in the slightest, and continues to fly out the body of King Xiaoyao.

Whoosh!

The Free King formed an afterimage, and was finally nailed to the outer wall of the cloud boat suspended in mid-air.

The entire cloud boat also vibrated violently, and it was only able to stop when it retreated a hundred feet away.

"This...this is not...impossible!"

The unbelievable color was written on the face of King Xiaoyao.

However, the strong lightning and extreme cold power in the body instantly flooded the whole body.

King Xiaoyao's internal organs were electrocuted into a state of coke, and then they were instantly frozen into ice sculptures.

The blood flowers that burst out formed bright red ice flowers, which quickly fell from the air, looking extremely coquettish.

King Xiaoyao was instantly killed by the divine soldier Tiance, and the army of King Xiaoyao was immediately stunned.

"King Xiaoyao is dead, how is this possible?"

"What is it that is flying, how can it have such a terrifying power?"

"The long sword in King Xiaoyao's hand is already a top-level magic weapon, and it was instantly smashed into scum?"

"What should we do next, should we continue to attack the Xingyue Divine Sect?"

King Xiaoyao died, and the army was headless and panicked.

The Xingyue Shenzong and Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were also silent.

Only Levi Garrison stood with his hands behind his back, his face indifferent.

However, Levi Garrison's heart was not so calm on the surface, he only felt a burst of blood boiling.

It was easy to kill the strong men of Kunlun Ruins, and the army of the King of Free and Easy was shattered with fear and trembling.

Levi Garrison felt that he was the master of Kunlun Ruins at this moment.

At the beginning, he was the Kunlun God of War in the secular world, but with the passage of time, the secular world has become invincible.

Until he came to Kunlun Ruins to see many strong men, Levi Garrison felt that his blood that had been silent for a long time was boiling again.

Especially when the fighting spirit was re-inspired by the strong Kunlun Ruins, this wonderful feeling is really incomparable.

“Tremble, the strong men of Kunlun Ruins, I want to rule the world again.”

Levi Garrison was shouting in his heart, and his fighting spirit instantly rose to the top.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4136 -

After a brief silence, the members of the Xingyue Divine Sect and Taiyi Chamber of Commerce instantly boiled over.

“As expected of the sect master, this shot killed the King of Xiaoyao, but that was the King of Xiaoyao who once destroyed several large sects!”

“One blow shocked the entire Xiaoyao King’s army. Looking at their chaotic appearance, I am afraid they are already thinking about how to escape.”

“Does Levi Garrison really need us to protect it? This strength is too strong, right?”

“In the entire Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, there are only ten fingers who are stronger than King Xiaoyao, and they were stabbed to death by a gun?”

“It’s no wonder that the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce attaches so much importance to it, that long spear is probably the level of the best peerless magic weapon?”

“If I can have such a peerless weapon, I can definitely become a leader-level powerhouse in the Taiyi God Ancestor.”

The voices of the crowd naturally entered Levi Garrison’s ears.

In fact, the four peerless divine weapons, Burying the Dragon, Slaying Thunder, Ruining Ruins, and Heavenly Policy, were made by imitating the four divine weapons of the Demon Suppressing Division.

But the raw materials used are of the highest quality.

The forging environment is a combination of three excellent existences: earth vein flame, cold pool cold air, and the power of thunder.

The power of the peerless divine weapon forged is naturally incomparable.

After testing the power of these four magical weapons beyond expectations, Burying the Dragon and Slaying Thunder easily slaughtered seventeen top experts from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.

Two arrows from the ruins severely damaged the two sectarian forces of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy from thousands of miles away.

Today, Tian Ce killed the top powerhouse King Xiaoyao of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce with one shot.

With such a terrifying record, even Levi Garrison was very satisfied.

“Levi Garrison’s forging technique is far more terrifying than I imagined!”

Wei Shuyang was also amazed in his heart.

Because Levi Garrison hid the peerless magic weapons so well, Wei Shuyang didn’t know that he had built so many top magic weapons before.

Since coming to the Xingyue Divine Sect, I have seen four top-level peerless weapons of swords, bows and spears one after another. What kind of superb forging skills are required for this?

You must know that these four top-level peerless weapons not only have different shapes, but also have different characteristics, which requires the forgers to incorporate the ideas of more supervisors.

“Let’s not mention anything else, just these four top weapons are enough to prove the great value of Levi Garrison.”

“Even if the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce tries its best to protect it, it’s worth it.”

Wei Shuyang made up his mind and immediately passed the message to the president of Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.

The senior leaders of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters were shocked when they heard the news.

Although Wei Shuyang didn’t know what the grades of these four magic weapons were, based on their performance, they definitely belonged to the ceiling of the magic weapon world.

Moreover, once this level of magic weapon is known by other sectarian forces or large chambers of commerce, the chips given by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce will be uncompetitive.

Especially when Levi Garrison faced the siege of many sects of Zijin Chamber of Commerce, Taiyi Chamber of Commerce had to show a firm attitude.

After all, it is easier to touch people than to add icing on the cake.

Even if other larger sects know about this in the future, Levi Garrison will definitely remember the kindness of helping him when he was in crisis.

These four top-level magic weapons are enough to pay any price, not to mention that Levi Garrison himself has a forging master who forged such magic weapons.

After a brief discussion, the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce headquarters issued a death order to protect Levi Garrison's life at all costs.

Even the headquarters began to send strong men to support him, as if they were doing everything they could to support Levi Garrison.

Wei Shuyang was also very happy to receive such an answer. Their Longyang City branch finally didn't have to worry about fighting alone.

"You stand here to cheer, no one should come to help, I want to teach them a lesson."

Before he finished speaking, Levi Garrison jumped down the tower with Dragon Burial and Thunder Slayer in hand.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4137 -

Levi Garrison jumped down from the ten-zhang tower without making a sound, and then turned into an afterimage.

"Xiao Lei, step back!"

With a loud shout, Lei Kirin , who had almost slaughtered the spirit beasts, stopped and retreated in the opposite direction.

Levi Garrison passed by at a high speed and continued to rush towards the camp of the King of Free and Easy.

"The gangsters are coming, go back!"

"What are you afraid of, many of us are still afraid of him?"

“Just now King Xiaoyao was just underestimating the enemy. We gathered together and attacked him to avenge the snow and hate for King Xiaoyao.”

“That’s right, isn’t it easy for so many of us to kill him?”

After a short period of panic, the army of the King of Xiaoyao calmed down again.

After all, they are all battle-hardened gods of death, and many of them are even loyal subordinates of King Xiaoyao.

Of course, there are still some people who want to take the credit for beheading Levi Garrison to get the original status of King of Free and Easy, and then regain the power of Free City.

However, no matter how everyone’s thoughts are different, there is one thing – the idea is very unified, that is to kill Levi Garrison.

Everyone danced in unison with swords, swords, halberds, axes, forks, and forks, and rushed towards Levi Garrison’s direction.

However, they were greeted by fierce and violent sword qi and sword gangs.

Burying the dragon and slaying thunder swung together, and the sword qi and the sword gang formed a net of heaven and earth, which directly covered the army of the King of Free and Easy.

Everyone instinctively waved their weapons to resist, but in the face of the attack of the peerless weapons, how could they be able to resist these ordinary weapons?

Although it was not Levi Garrison’s all-out strike, it was tantamount to the annihilation of King Xiaoyao’s army.

In an instant, the weapons in their hands turned to dust, and many people were directly chopped into pieces if they couldn’t dodge.

Of course, there are many people who are concentrated by the cold air and the power of thunder contained in the two divine weapons, and become ice sculptures and coke.

“Mayfly want to shake the tree? Joke!”

Levi Garrison’s icy voice sounded, making Xiaoyao Wang Dajun couldn’t help trembling.

Clang!

Where the divine soldiers pass by, several people will become the souls of the dead under the sword.

Levi Garrison directly incarnates into a life harvester, frantically plundering the lives of the army of the Free King.

Looking from a distance, Levi Garrison rushed into the camp of the King of Free and Easy, rushing in and out several bloody paths.

At first, the army of the King of Xiaoyao would resist with all their might, but soon they found that continuing to attack would be tantamount to seeking their own death, so they all fled.

“It’s too late to leave now, isn’t it?”

Levi Garrison obviously did not intend to stop there, and immediately called Lei Kirin to pursue the victory together.

Wei Shuyang and the others were shocked, and they all shouted something like “the poor pirates don’t chase after them”, but Levi Garrison turned a deaf ear.

One man and one beast chased and killed from behind, and the army of King Xiaoyao scattered and fled.

“It’s too dangerous to go deep alone. No one knows where those forces are. Let’s go and help, lest Mr. Ye suffer.”

Wei Shuyang immediately issued an order, and the masters of the Taiyi Merchant Association rushed to help.

Naturally, Mu Rong Wanqing and others wanted to charge, but Wei Shuyang stopped them.

“You can stay here. If there are other forces attacking, spread the message as soon as possible.”

Hearing Wei Shuyang’s words, Mu Rong Wanqing and other members of the Xingyue Divine Sect expressed their approval.

Of course, they also knew that in the face of the powerful alliance of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce, even if they rushed up, they would not be of much help.

It may even drag Levi Garrison’s hind legs.

At the same time, the fleeing Xiaoyao King’s army was hunted down and severely reduced, and even Yunzhou was reluctant to open it.

They originally thought of picking up the divine weapon Tian Ce to give Levi Garrison a way to control violence, but as soon as the man came into contact with Tian Ce, he was frozen into an ice sculpture by the cold air.

When others saw this, they were even more afraid to fight the idea of Tiance Gun.

Levi Garrison and Lei Kirin chased each other all the way, and they saw another army coming towards them from a distance.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4138 -

This army is made up of the powerhouses sent by the Bailian Tianzong.

They saw from a distance that King Xiaoyao's army scattered and fled, and they were instantly a little stunned.

The deputy sect master of Bailian Tianzong frowned slightly. He had not received any information before, and he thought that he was the first to arrive at the Xingyue Divine Sect.

When he knew that the gangsters possessed top-level peerless divine soldiers, the Hundred Refinements Heaven Sect was also very coveted, and wanted to reach the Star Moon Sect first and take it for himself.

Bailian Tianzong has alchemy and weapon refining, and its obsession with top-level magic weapons far exceeds that of other sects.

"What exactly is this?"

"Hurry up and ask a few people from the King of Free and Easy."

The deputy sect master of Bailian Tianzong ordered.

The disciples of Bailian Tianzong had to be ordered to intercept them, but they were desperately killed by the army of King Xiaoyao.

Those people were mad and killed those who blocked the way, as if something terrifying was chasing them behind them.

"Vice Sect Master, it seems that someone is chasing after him!"

"That guy is holding a sword, but it is very similar to the gangster in the description!"

“Isn’t it just a gangster? It really doesn’t take a lot of time to find a place in iron shoes, and I’ve decided on the reward from the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.”

“There is a spirit beast behind him, it looks a bit like a unicorn!”

There was a lot of discussion.

The vice sect master of Bailian Tianzong didn’t take it too seriously, and directly ordered: “Prepare to fight, and kill the bandits on the spot.”

“As ordered!”

The strong people in the sects are in high spirits. They have made contributions and established their careers this time. Now that the opportunity is in front of them, they are naturally excited to the extreme.

It was Levi Garrison who came. He didn’t know any Bailian Tianzong, but since they all came to besiege the Xingyue Shenzong, they were his own enemies.

Enemy, kill without mercy!

Levi Garrison raised both swords and swords, and the sword qi and sword gangs swept out in a crisscross pattern.

The Heavenly Sect of Hundred Refinements does not take it seriously. Even if the strength of the bandits is stronger, with the power of so many strong men, are they afraid that they will not be able to resist?

There are not a few people who think this way. After all, Levi Garrison’s record at the beginning was nothing more than beheading the seventeen strong men of the Zijin Chamber of Commerce.

In the Hundred Refinements Tianzong, there are more strong people than this number, and they have resisted.

But when the strength of the two sides collided in one place, the powerhouses of the Hundred Refinements Tianzong were dumbfounded.

Clang!

Puff puff!

As the blade was chopped into several pieces, those strong men were swept away by the sword qi knife Gang, and immediately died in Huangquan.

Many people didn’t even have time to make a sound.

Immediately after Lei Kirin 's attack arrived, the power of the sky thunder, the cold air, and the flames of the earth's veins paralleled, making the Bailian Tianzong powerhouse suffer a lot.

Many strong people in the sect were roasted into coke, frozen into ice sculptures, and split into ashes before they had time to react.

The deputy sect master of Bailian Tianzong was horrified, and he never thought that many strong people in the sect would be so vulnerable.

If it is one person or two, it may be negligent, but so many strong people die on the spot, it means that the strength of the other party is extraordinary and far beyond imagination.

“Lie Bailian All Gods Formation.”

The Deputy Sect Master shouted loudly.

After all, the Hundred Refinements Tianzong is a top large-scale sect, and these strong people are the elites of the sect.

Although he was caught off guard by Levi Garrison, he quickly calmed down and began to line up to meet the enemy.

“Gods? I want to see what's so special about your broken formation?”

Levi Garrison continued to charge regardless, with his left hand knife and right hand sword, broke into the Bailian Tianzong formation and killed seven in and seven out.

Where the sword qi and the knife gang passed by, there were several hundred-refinement Tianzong powerhouses who were reduced to the souls of the gods.

Seeing this situation, the deputy sect master of Bailian Tianzong gasped repeatedly. He never thought that the strength of the bandits would be so terrifying.

No wonder Xiaoyao Wang's army fled in a hurry, and it seems that they were also beaten out by the gangsters.

“Wait, why does this seat say this word?”

The Deputy Sect Master could not help but twitched the corners of his mouth.
