

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3941

The improvement is far beyond Gong Qianqiu's expectations, which is definitely an unexpected surprise.

Seeing that the first son fell asleep again, Gong Qianqiu got up and went to find the seventh son.

The various performances of the Seven Holy Sons were seen by Gong Qianqiu yesterday, and now I am afraid it is the moment when I look forward to my appearance.

He carried a food box in his hand, which contained a bowl of porridge and two dishes of side dishes.

When I came to the residence of the Seven Saints, I saw that the door outside was open, and there was a faint snoring sound from inside.

"This child, it's noon and still awake?"

Gong Qianqiu deliberately raised the volume a little, and sure enough, the snoring in the room stopped abruptly.

After a while, the door of the inner room was suddenly opened, and the Seven Holy Sons broke out from inside.

"elder sister?"

After confirming that the person in front of him was Gong Qianqiu, the pale and haggard cheeks of the Seventh Holy Son were instantly replaced by surprise and excitement.

Just as Gong Qianqiu guessed, since yesterday's wedding banquet, the Seven Holy Sons began to drink alcohol until they fell drunk in the bedroom in the middle of the night.

I was unhappy all day, as if the most precious treasure had been snatched away.

The whole sky above his head collapsed completely.

However, when he saw Gong Qianqiu visiting him, the Seven Saints felt that the originally dark world was instantly lit up.

"Is that you?"

While speaking, the Seventh Holy Son rubbed his eyes vigorously.

Gong Qianqiu walked closer, pointed out the green jade finger and nodded on Qisheng's forehead, and said with a smile: "What happened to your child?"

"It smells so strong, rinse your mouth and eat something, or you won't have this appetite for a long time."

"Hey!"

The Seven Holy Sons suddenly felt like tears welling up in their eyes.

The love has not diminished, but it is still a familiar recipe and a familiar taste.

Soon after washing up, Gong Qianqiu had already placed the food in the food box on the table.

"Why are you still standing stupidly? Hurry up and sit down to eat!"

Gong Qianqiu urged.

The Seventh Holy Son resisted the urge to burst into tears, and after sitting down, he devoured it.

Although it was only the lightest white porridge and the simplest two dishes of pickles, the Seven Saints felt more delicious than any delicacies from the mountains and seas.

Soon the food on the table was swept away by the Seven Holy Sons.

And Gong Qianqiu watched quietly from the beginning to the end, his eyes were full of relief and love.

"As if you haven't eaten for several days, wipe the corners of your mouth!"

Gong Qianqiu handed over a silk handkerchief and said.

The Seven Saints took it over and smelled the faint fragrance from the silk, feeling extremely happy at this moment.

"If only my sister could keep taking care of me like this."

The Seven Saints said sincerely.

Gong Qianqiu sighed for a long time, and said with emotion: "I also think, seeing you like this, I am even more worried."

"It's a pity that I'm not alone now, there are many things... Forget it, not to mention such unhappy things."

Gong Qianqiu deliberately made an appearance that he was hesitant to speak.

"Sister, what's the matter? It's the boss...Isn't the eldest son treating you badly?"

I don't know why, even the title of the Seven Holy Sons has changed.

"That's not true, the Great Holy Son is very good to me."

Gong Qianqiu paused, then turned the conversation and continued: "But sometimes, I can't help myself."

"Whether the secular world or the Kunlun Ruins is a place where the weak eat the strong, it is an eternal truth that the strong are respected."

"Even if my elder sister's cultivation is not bad, for those who are extremely strong, they are like ants after all."

Although Gong Qianqiu didn't say it clearly, the Seven Saints also understood what she meant.

"My sister is most likely wronged by the Great Holy Son, but because of her lack of strength, she has to listen to the latter's words after all."

The Seven Holy Sons thought secretly.

With Gong Qianqiu's deliberate guidance, he resented the Great Holy Son even more.

"Sister, don't worry, I have a solution."

The Seven Saints said suddenly.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3942

Gong Qianqiu was excited for a while, but there was no expression on his face.

"Xiao Qi, don't make my sister happy."

Gong Qianqiu smiled bitterly.

The Seventh Holy Son said solemnly: "Sister, I'm not kidding, as long as you have enough strength, you don't have to be controlled by others."

"What kind of way is this?"

Gong Qianqiu sighed again and said, "Improving the realm of cultivation requires steady and steady progress, how can it be possible to ascend to the sky in one step?"

"It's really impossible to reach the sky in one step, but my sister has the swallowing technique and root bone. As long as she cooperates with a higher level of spiritual veins, she can greatly improve her cultivation in a short period of time."

Gong Qianqiu said with a smile: "How can it be so simple, to my current strength, even the improvement of the Holy Vein to me is not obvious."

"And the dragon veins are extremely rare. The dragon vein you discovered before is specially used for warming and nourishing the gods. Where is my share?"

"In the end, I'm still an outsider in the Taixu Shenzong."

Gong Qianqiu smiled bitterly, with helplessness written on his face.

"Sister, to be honest, I also discovered another dragon vein, and the scale is even larger than the dragon vein of Wen Yang Shen Jie."

"I'll give it to you, so you can't improve your cultivation base?"

The Seven Holy Sons said as if taking credit.

Gong Qianqiu was pleasantly surprised. She originally wanted to take the opportunity to get a few more holy veins in the hands of the Seven Saints, but did she think that there were still dragon veins in stock?

Just another surprise!

"No, this is something you discovered with great difficulty. Wouldn't it be better for you to use it for cultivation?"

Gong Qianqiu deliberately refused.

The Seventh Holy Son said solemnly, "I don't have any bones, and the dragon veins are of little use in my hands, so I'd better give it to my sister so that I won't waste anything."

"What's more, I have the ability to detect spiritual veins, do I still worry about finding other dragon veins?"

"But....."

"Don't be my sister, if you don't accept it, you won't treat me as a relative."

The Seven Saints said urgently.

Gong Qianqiu sighed and said 'reluctantly': "Okay, then my sister will accept it first. If you need it, my sister will return it to you."

Seeing Gong Qianqiu's acceptance, the Seventh Holy Son smiled again.

He just wants to make Gong Qianqiu continue to become stronger, so that he can get rid of the control of the Great Holy Son.

the other side.

Eternal kingdom.

With the sudden collapse of the Qianqiu Sect, the affiliated forces instantly collapsed and scattered.

And the few high-level survivors of the eternal kingdom have gathered members scattered all over the place, and there seems to be a resurgence trend.

Although they are still under the pressure of Levi Garrison, they can barely survive now.

In particular, Levi Garrison was preparing to enter the Kunlun Ruins at this time, and there was no cultivation method to deal with them.

It gave the eternal kingdom a certain living space.

In an underground secret base.

Several high-level officials of the Eternal Kingdom sat together.

"According to the reliable information of the eyeliner, the strong guard of the gods has appeared."

"And they are looking for super spiritual veins everywhere, especially they found a strange place in the War Eagle Country."

"It is said that there are a lot of spiritual veins in it, and the level of the spiritual veins is higher."

"If it wasn't for those who were guarded by the gods, we could also have a share of the pie, what a pity!"

Several high-level officials of the Eternal Kingdom shook their heads, their faces filled with unwillingness and helplessness.

The guardian of the gods is the force they are most afraid of. Even in the heyday, they have to shy away, let alone the current situation.

I am afraid that the gods guard a few strong people, and they can directly uproot them.

"It is said that Levi Garrison's people also appeared in the War Eagle Country before. Will these two groups of people meet?"

"I hope they meet, so we can sit on the mountain and watch the tiger fight."

"That's right, we can only reap the benefits of the fisherman when Levi Garrison and the guardians of the gods lose both."

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3943

Levi Garrison's side is still haunted by the world discovered by the War Eagle Kingdom.

He now feels more and more that the effect of the holy vein quenching body on himself has been minimal.

If you want to improve, you must find a higher level of spiritual veins.

Of course, Levi Garrison learned from Xie Zhongmou's mouth that the sacred veins are called dragon veins.

I think the source of super power in the world where God's Brain said it is most likely the dragon vein.

This further increased Levi Garrison's determination to enter that world.

However, at this moment, a message came from God's brain again.

"Mr. Ye, I have used new equipment to conduct multiple investigations and found that there is no sign of any living creatures in that area."

"And that energy has a tendency to overflow, so I am afraid it will attract the attention of many forces."

The tone of God's Brain was quite urgent, and it was clear that the truth was much more serious than his narrative.

After learning this information, Levi Garrison immediately rushed to the secret realm to mark the location.

The absence of any creatures means that there are no peerless powerhouses in the secret realm, so there is no need to worry about the extra branches of the dragon veins.

After all, the Taixu Shenzong is still eyeing the Kunlun Ruins, and it would not be a wise move to provoke other unknown transcendental strengths.

"Mr. Ye, how do you plan to enter the secret realm?"

After the meeting, God's Brain asked straight to the point.

During this time, the Brain of God used many new devices to explore the secret realm, but without exception, they all ended in failure.

Levi Garrison said with a smile: "Break it with strength."

Before, I was worried that there were unknown powerhouses inside to avoid disturbing the other party, so I didn't use this simple and rude way to enter.

God's brain could not understand the meaning of this sentence for a while.

But Levi Garrison did not explain in depth, and said solemnly: "You take people away, and you will become affected."

The Brain of God hurriedly retreated with the members of the base camp responsible for his protection.

Levi Garrison entered the secret realm again, and the feeling of being restrained and delayed by the movement struck again.

"Hi!"

Levi Garrison let out a loud shout, and then ran the basic exercises, exuding terrifying energy pressure from his whole body.

There are visible energy fluctuations in the regional space, and the feeling of hysteresis has completely dissipated at this time.

"Break it for me!"

Levi Garrison punched out, and the violent fist wind swept out, directly hitting the denser energy barrier at the far end.

Clap clap!

There was a faint sound of some kind of barrier cracking in the ear, and this sound spread very quickly to the surrounding.

"Break it to me!"

Levi Garrison didn't stop at all, and continued to blast several punches in the same direction.

Boom!

Finally, there was a deafening sound of collapse in the void.

Immediately after that, the surrounding environment changed drastically, and an extremely rich spiritual energy rushed towards him.

The entrance is a beautiful landscape, like a paradise.

Looking from a distance, there are more mountains and mountains, and the mountainside is surrounded by clouds and mist, like a fairyland.

"This is simply a paradise!"

Levi Garrison was very emotional.

However, then Levi Garrison found that many scenes were displayed in an orderly manner, as if they had been deliberately arranged.

However, Levi Garrison released his strength to carry out a carpet search and exploration, but did not find any suspicious persons.

Buzz!

Suddenly, Levi Garrison had an extremely strong energy induction.

That was when the energy probe he released collided with other terrifying energy sources.

"It must be a super spiritual vein!"

Levi Garrison galloped quickly following the approximate direction of the energy induction.

After a while, Levi Garrison came to a mountain.

The strong energy aura overflowed, especially in the energy raw ore in front of him, and there was a faint voice.

The lavender energy halo filled the surrounding spiritual veins, making people unable to help indulge in it.

"Is this the legendary dragon vein?"

Levi Garrison was very surprised.
