

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

Chapter 2344

Shu family has been peaceful for decades, family style, all aspects can be counted in Nancheng.

Even though Mr. Shu has done such and such wrong things all his life, he has let down a good woman and ruined his girl's life.

But the righteous things he has done, the things he has done to defend his family and the country, still cover up his mistakes, and he is still admired by people.

However, the old man never thought of it.

he died.

His family was broken like this.

The son, daughter-in-law, grandson, and grandson-in-law all advocate that they be as close to Alyce and Suzi as a family. They all felt that Alyce and Suzi must be regarded as close relatives for the rest of their lives.

However, the other three grandchildren who lived abroad all year round were unwilling.

In the eyes of these three grandchildren, Alyce and Suzi are two extremely abrupt women who broke into the Shu family.

Make them look terribly annoying. Remember the website and wish you could drive Alyce and Suzi out of the way right away.

But, because of the habit of being high above and being admired by others, and thinking of everything with self-centeredness, I thought that since Alyce was the illegitimate daughter of the old man, Alyce would kneel down and be afraid of his head to perform filial piety. I am grateful to the Shu family, because the Shu family gave her the surname 'Shu'.

You Alyce should feel honored.

You are an illegitimate daughter, of course, there is no property to divide.

So, you still go where you go.

Do not!

During the festivals, you have to come to Shu's house to do your filial piety.

This is the common thought of the Shu family's three sons, including their daughters-in-law, who have lived abroad all the year round.

Of course, they wouldn't treat their foreign friends like this when they were abroad.

But this is domestic.

The traditional thinking in China a few years ago was like this, and they couldn't come to their Shu family. It's broken!

Concubine is stingy!

Born to be humble.

The positions of the two sides are at war with each other.

Darius's parents, Darius and Galia were caught in the middle, extremely embarrassed.

The old man's body was still lying in the living room, but the three brothers looked at Alyce and Suzi's mother and daughter in disgust.

In the end, it was Alyce who was soft-hearted.

She and Suzi glanced at each other, then looked at the three nephews with a slight smile: "Okay, I will give up the old man's property, it's no use for me to ask for it. I'm so old, what's the use of asking for so much money? I have more money in my hands, maybe someone will miss me again, which is not good. In this way, when your family is reunited, it is time to discuss about Dad's funeral.

If you need it, brother, call me again.

Go I will come here for the crematorium and when I pay filial piety to the old man.

Also, I will not lose the gift money that should be given to the old man.

Brother, I will leave first." When the two sides have different positions, there must be one back down.

Otherwise, we can't let the old man's body lie here all the time, right?

Seeing Alyce being so generous, his eldest brother and sister-in-law, as well as Darius, were very grateful.

"Little sister, don't get to know the three of them in general. They have lived abroad for a long time and don't know the situation at home." Sister-in-law took Alyce's hand and apologized.

Alyce nodded: "I know."

Yu Bi, turned to look at Suzi:

Suzi, let's go first, let their family reunite first, discuss the funeral matters, and then we will come back."

"Okay. My mother." Suzi was not a hot person.

As long as her mother backs down, she will stay with her mother.

Her goal is to keep her mother from being bullied.

As for money or not, she wouldn't care.

The mother and daughter were about to leave Shu's house, but they were blocked by the three brothers at the door. The eldest said, "Afraid?"

Alyce looked at the eldest nephew angrily and funny: "Mingxia, what are you doing? Saying that we covet the property of the Shu family, we don't want it anymore. Isn't that covetous?"

Chapter 2345

What do you say about this funeral now, I will listen to you all, if you need me, I will come.

What else could this be? "

"You didn't have such an attitude just now. You and your daughter were playing around here just now!" Your daughter slapped me just now!

I now seriously doubt that you just didn't expect that our three brothers would be so united.

Do you think you can control our entire Shu family with your mother and daughter?

What a joke!

Now that you can see that something is wrong, you just turn around and want to leave?

no way!

I tell you, Alyce!

That slap your daughter slapped me can't just be the end of it!

I'm going to call the police!

and!

The dirty things you and your criminal gang have done must be made clear in front of our Shu family and the police!

My grandfather is so confused, what a liar!

But the Shu family is not alone!

With our three brothers in the Shu family, it will definitely help the Shu family revive the family-style!

The police are here, make it clear, if you are guilty and belong to the same gang as them, then I will serve as a surety for you at the police, and I will guarantee you first, and let you do your filial piety to the old man!

Now that you have the surname of our Shu family, it is what you should do to give the old man linen and filial piety!

If you can make it clear in front of the police that you haven't done anything with those gangs, then you should take it as a warning!

You remember me!

The children of our Shu family are never allowed to hook up with random people outside!

Now that the Shu family has admitted that you are the daughter of the Shu family, you will give me some honesty in the future!

For the rest of your life, you will take good care of my parents, be careful! And your daughter, if she wants to have a comfortable place in the Shu family, she should restrain her robber-like character.

Otherwise, I'll leave her with nowhere to go! “

“You fart!” As soon as Shu Mingxia's voice fell, there was a sudden burst of female voice here. It wasn't from Alyce.

It wasn't from Suzi.

However, she never spoke, never wanted to participate in this matter, and always stood behind Darius. Galia suddenly became furious.

Although Galia was not a well-off child from a wealthy family, she had a healthy family since childhood, loved by her parents, uncle, and aunt, and even her cousin loved her very much. Since childhood, she has been a little girl in a well-off family in the honey pot.

She has never seen any noble family.

However, she has always been carefree. She also grew up in a carefree manner and never had any bad intentions.

Until she met Suzi.

She has seen the intrigue among the rich and powerful. A little girl is a person with no ambition, neither arrogant nor flattering, and she is full of this sense of justice.

Therefore, she can take care of the little shrew Rayna. Be obedient, and then form a good three-person girlfriend group with Suzi and Rayna.

In the tug-of-war between Alyce, Suzi's mother and daughter, and the Shu family, Galia has always seen it clearly.

She knows best that the little aunt has always been generous.

The little aunt doesn't like seeing Grandpa so much, but the little aunt loves Ah Zhen very much, including her nephew and daughter-in-law, and the little aunt loves him together.

It's very real.

Galia wears the most precious diamond-wrapped gold necklace, which is a birthday gift from her little aunt, worth nearly one million.

Even her in-laws have never given her such an expensive gift.

Galia knew best in her heart that her little aunt and Suzi didn't feel sorry for the Shu family at all.

On the contrary, the three Shu families have never contributed to the Shu family, they have never been filial, and they have always been unscrupulous things abroad, and they are domineering here.

“Little aunt, Suzi, let’s go, I’ll go with you! When will these three ghosts get out of the way, let’s come again!” Yu Bi, Galia stood directly on the side of Alyce and Suzi.
