Chapter 71

"....."

Clearly is a warm scene, suddenly said strange people shy, she tooted her mouth, no longer talk to him.

However, Feng Yan is very nice.

When injured, can also hold her, rubs the wound for her.

Su Xiaowan limped into the house. Aunt Li was startled. "What's the matter, little grandma? Was it hit by a car? "

The whole body is covered with blood, and the trousers on the knee are broken. You can see that there is a lot of blood on them.

"Change your clothes and go to bed!"

He said this to her, and then he looked at her and asked, "can you change your own clothes?"

Su Xiaowan was stunned for a moment and nodded. Aunt Li immediately came to support her, "young granny, please slow down. How can you hurt so much? Is it painful?"

Su Xiaowan shrinks her nose. Aunt Li feels like her grandmother. She has a sour nose. She thinks of her grandmother. She doesn't know how she's doing there alone.

"It hurts."

This originally flat road is good, this step, can really hurt, bend a song, it's killing, she endured the pain, "Aunt Li, a little slower."

The man's eyes fell on the woman at that end. She was talking about something to Aunt Li. She strode over and picked up the man and put him on the bed. "Lie down first. I'll let someone come and have a look at it for you."

"... Feng Yan, in fact, I don't have to be so troublesome. I'm... OK."

"Make her a snack --""

"Yes." Aunt Li said and hurried downstairs.

Soon, the doctor came over and examined Su Xiaowan. She looked heavy and said, "young grandma, take a rest first, and I'll prescribe medicine for you!"

"OK, please." She suddenly stopped the doctor again, "don't tell Feng Yan that it's so serious later. I really have nothing to do with it."

They're all broken.

It's OK.

This young granny... Other people just want people all over the world to know that she has been hurt so badly that she doesn't say a word.

"I'm afraid. I'm afraid."

"I know. Don't worry."

In the bedroom, when Feng Yan comes in, he doesn't speak. His eyes just fall on her. Su Xiaowan gives him a guilty look.

I used my cell phone and pretended to play with it.

She couldn't stand it any more. She didn't know what the doctor said to him.

"Feng Yan... I..."

At this moment, Feng Yi knocked on the door. At this moment, Su Xiaowan just wanted to talk, so he had to shut up.

The man took a look at her and turned to go out.

Shut the door.

"Young master, there's news from the public security bureau that all the men have confessed. It's someone who wants to destroy the innocence of the young woman, but he doesn't know who it is. He said that the man came to him through the Internet. I've asked someone to trace the IP address. It's a foreign Internet bar."

Ruined her innocence.

Su Xiaowan's materials are clear and clear, with whom he has such a big hatred.

After a while, he felt the cool momentum of Feng Yan, "how does that person deal with it?"

"It's useless."

Aunt Li came up with something and looked at the man at that end. The man looked at her, "look at her this time, don't let her go out."

"Yes."

.....

Su Xiaowan listened to Aunt Li's words with a guilty heart. The more she thought about it, the more she felt that she was not doing well. Was Feng Yan found something unusual?

"He told me not to go out these days. Why?"

Blame that damned man. If it wasn't for him, how could he be exposed?

I don't know if that man will shake out what happened to her before. I hope he doesn't know anything

"You've fallen like this. Do you have to go to work?"

"I... I can't go, Aunt Li. I'll stay here to heal my wounds." Now even if she wants to go, she can't move.

"The young master likes to be clever. You should listen to him more. I was very angry when I saw him just now."

Chapter 72

"Is he angry?"

"No!"

Isn't it her fault again? I hope Feng Yan can believe what she said and don't go into it any more. Otherwise, she will show up soon. That way

She's not suqiqi who won't make trouble for him!

Su Xiaowan frowned, thinking that she had not been shaken just now. Isn't she already abroad? Why are you still haunting her.

If I hadn't escaped fast, I would have

But just now Feng Yan held her.

That's a good feeling.

She patted her head. Su Xiaowan, that's su Qiqi's man. Don't think about it!

"Aunt Li, I want to drink your porridge."

"Well, well, Aunt Li will do it for you."

After Aunt Li left.

All of a sudden, the mobile phone on the desk vibrated. It's hers. She clearly remembers that the mobile phone... Seems to have fallen into the driver's car. Why is it here?

Heart uneasy, at the moment that mobile phone has been shaking.

It's the manager's.

"Sorry, I was hit by a car. You'd better find someone else for this job."

The manager sighed, "that's OK. You're good for healing. You can come to me if you want to earn money in the future."

"Manager, you are very kind. Thank you."

One side of the woman looked at the manager hung up the phone, "Miss, this really can't help, she was injured, I can't go to force others, but that girl in the end offended you what?"

"Women's business, men mind less."

Su Xiaowan lost her cell phone. Now she was in a mess. She couldn't get through calling Su Zheng. At the moment, she couldn't move. Finally, she had to apply ointment and soon fell asleep. She had a nightmare. In the dream, her mother was standing on the balcony, precarious, and her body was like a butterfly.

"Ma, you can't go forward, Ma --!" She murmured in her dream and kept calling her, but she was still there and kept walking towards the front, as if calling her.

"Come with me, come with me..."

"No."

The man's arm will hold her in his arms, deep breathing, looking at the sky outside the window, gloomy, like his mood at this time.

"Don't be afraid!" The palm of the man's hand touched her back.

Her nose a sour, suddenly ran into his arms, such arms good warm.

The man's body suddenly froze, he is a bloody man, so close to him, where he can resist.

He stared at her and touched her head. The soft hair was flowing at her fingertips, with her own flavor, "Su Xiaowan."

In the next few days, Su Xiaowan was at leisure. She was lying at home to recover. However, during this period of time, she didn't see Feng Yan. She didn't know if he was aware of something strange. She was scared every day. She couldn't even sleep well. She even felt confused. She always felt that she had woken up after sleeping, as if someone was around.

I feel more and more nervous.

Her own number couldn't get through to Su Zheng, so she borrowed her mobile phone from Aunt Li and called home, but it didn't work either. The female voice said that she was not in the service area... But fortunately, nothing big happened these days.

But it's said that the calm before the storm.

The tranquility really upset her.

But there's no way. She can't do anything. She looks at Aunt Li and asks.

"Aunt Li, where is Feng Yan? I feel like I haven't seen him for a long time. "

"The young master went out very early. When he came to see you in the morning, you were still sleeping."

I don't know whether this is relief or true. Anyway, Su Xiaowan always thinks something is wrong.

She thought of that person's words silently in her heart. Next time, she would use her life to resist

Next time, she can't imagine.

Chapter 73

All that night, ups and downs, she dreamt of Feng Yan's coldness, "I hate cheating in my life, Su Xiaowan, you are the first --!"

When she woke up in a daze, Su Xiaowan felt that her knee hurt badly, but she didn't know when. It seemed that she had changed gauze on her knee

Just now, it seems that the door has been opened?

After a few days of recuperation at home, Su Xiaowan's knee injury recovered very quickly. Even she was puzzled that she could not see the wound on her knee very soon, even the scar was gone, but the bone was still sour.

She got up early and had nothing to do. She thought that she was going to defend her thesis after a while. She went to the study to prepare her thesis.

Her topic has not been selected, has been delayed until now, the time is more and more tight.

Fortunately, she is only an intern, otherwise, it is estimated that she would have been opened by the big group!

Su Xiaowan likes the feeling of living on her own. She feels as if life belongs to her own. She lives in this world, not her soul.

She looked at the voluminous words. Finally, she chose a direction about "the influence of cultural factors on advertising creativity". Just as she was about to write about it, her mobile phone rang.

It's from someone else's cell phone.

As soon as he picked it up, the irascible voice of the man at the other end rang.

It's Su Zheng.

"Something happened to your grandmother --!" The man who was talking was Su Zheng, whose words were right and round. "Now in Jiangcheng hospital, you hurry to see her. The doctor said that I'm afraid I can't survive tonight."

"What did you say?"

Su Xiaowan's heart tightly together, she left pen, even shoes did not change, hurried downstairs, "Aunt Li, I want to go out."

"Where are you going in such a hurry? The young master said he would let you recuperate here."

"My grandmother is ill. I'm going to the hospital to see her."

Aunt Li looked at her pressing look, "then I'll let the driver take you. Don't worry. I'll call the young master right away."

Before she finished, Su Xiaowan rushed out. She rushed to the hospital and looked at Shen Yin and Su Zheng standing at the door.

She looked at lying inside the grandmother with an oxygen mask, desperate to rush in, was Su Zheng scolded.

"What's the noise? Your grandmother is isolated and can't get in now."

She clearly remembers that when she left, grandma was very tough. How could she... But what did she mean tonight? How could su Xiaowan not know.

Su Xiaowan's eyes with blood, hand has been shaking, "what's the matter with grandma?"

Shen Yin stood there, and there was no way out as before, "your grandmother fell down the stairs when she was working a few days ago, injured her spine, and refused to be treated. Today, with unstable blood pressure, the doctor just said that the situation is very critical. If she can't find a professional expert in this field to carry out the operation in time, it will be two days."

Su Xiaowan felt a pause in her heart. She didn't expect that her grandmother would work by hand and mend other people's clothes all the time... In the past, she could take care of her grandmother at home, but now she was alone... If she was here, would it be different?

"Su Xiaowan, isn't that young master Feng very fond of you? Call him to see a doctor. It's his grandmother in it, too. "

"Do you think your grandmother is dead? Even if you are mean to us, do you still think of your grandmother... "Su Qiqi is not too big to watch the excitement. If her mother hadn't said that the old woman had a legacy in her hand, she wouldn't have come.

She felt bad in her heart. Grandma was the one who loved her most. She couldn't leave her alone, just... Call Feng Yan. Will Feng Yan help her?

"You hurry to find Feng Yan, don't you know the number of Feng Yan?" Su Qiqi looked at the ring on Su Xiaowan's hand. It was very common, as if it was her own. "Feng Yan didn't even want to buy a ring for you?"

Chapter 74

Su Xiaowan listens to Su Qiqi's words and doesn't want to talk to her at all. Feng Yan is not reluctant!

She didn't dare to wear such a big diamond ring.

Holding her mobile phone, she went to the corridor and vaguely looked at the old man in it. She frowned uncomfortably. Her heart was clenched, very stuffy and uncomfortable.

Except for him... Grandma seems to have no one else to help. She is really incompetent. She doesn't even have the ability to help grandma find a doctor.

If it's a big deal, I'll repay him.

When she called, Su Xiaowan was at sixes and sevens. She didn't know if she would agree with Feng Yan, or she would expose everything in front of her.

In recent days, she hid from Feng Yan, and did not dare to see him. What's more, she did not dare to mention the previous "car accident". She lived quietly, as if she did not want others to notice her existence.

With the sound of Dudu, Su Xiaowan is constantly imagining the result. If Feng Yan refuses, what should he do?

She didn't know.

Until the familiar voice came from that end.

"Su Qiqi."

Suddenly, her throat was tight and her nose was sour. I don't know why she didn't feel that way just now, but suddenly she collapsed.

"Talk!"

She gave a wordy nose and a lump in her throat.

That end soon heard, voice deep, "cry?"

When this kitten was bitten by a dog, no one would cry in the detention house. That day, when it was bitten like that, it didn't shed a tear at all.

Now you cry? She's a stubborn girl, always has been.

"No... Feng Yan, I didn't cry." Su Xiaowan never shows her weakness in front of others. She opens her eyes and looks out of the window.

Swallow your tears.

However, when it comes to her relatives, she is extremely helpless.

Su Xiaowan has no ability to protect her relatives. She hates herself.

So is my brother and so is my grandmother.

"Where are you? Have you been bullied? "

"No

"What are you crying for?"

"Feng Yan, I really didn't cry. I want to ask you for help." Her voice is weak, like a sick cat, wilting.

"Well?" The voice of that end is deep, listen to her that end have no voice, "you don't say how can I help you?"

"It's... Something happened in my family. Feng Yan, my grandmother fell and her spine was dislocated. In recent days, her blood pressure suddenly increased and her brain became congested..."

At the end of the day, Su Xiaowan cried. She didn't shed a tear when she was in pain, even though her whole body was full of blood.

"Feng Yan, grandma is the most important person to me. Can you help me find a doctor in this field? They said... They said that grandma may not be able to survive these days without medical treatment. I know it's very abrupt for me to find you, but I really have no other way. "

"Where is it?"

"City hospital."

"Wait." The other party just said two words and hung up.

When Feng Yan came out of the villa, he went directly to the garage to pick up the car. Before starting the engine, he dialed a phone.

"It's me. I want to ask my uncle for help."

.....

Su Xiaowan hung up, got up and was about to wait at the door of the ward, but listened to the movement in the corridor, "a Yin, is this something to do with you? Xiao Wan's grandmother has always been strong. How can her blood pressure rise suddenly? "

Chapter 75

"Ah Zheng, is that what I am in your heart? I just went to see the old man and rescued her. Is it still mine? So it's right that I should let her die there? "

"Well, all of a sudden, the old woman is like this. I don't know if she can make it through the night? I don't know if that legacy is real or not! "

"....."

“.....”

Su Xiaowan stood there, her eyes stopped. The so-called father was looking forward to grandma's death at the moment, because it had been said that Grandma had a legacy in her hand.

Now that his mother died, if grandma died, he would be the heir to the inheritance.

Up to now, I still think about this matter, instead of caring about grandma's body. I want to come to her and cure her. I just want to know if grandma has what they want.

She was very disappointed with him. If it wasn't for her brother, she really hoped he had nothing to do with her.

But that bloody blood.

She hated it, but she couldn't do anything.

She wants to hold her grandmother and live in the countryside with her now, and never come back here again.

"Su Xiaowan, these people are here to see your grandmother!" Su Qiqi yelled at the man at the other end, but he was silenced as soon as he yelled.

"What's the standard of a noisy hospital? Where are the patients now?" The doctor was in his fifties, surrounded by a group of people.

When Su Xiaowan heard the voice and looked back at the doctors at the other end, he was so dusty that he couldn't adapt to it, especially the old man standing in the middle, looking energetic.

"It's academician Chen. It's said that no one in his hands can't be cured. They all call him Hua Tuo again."

One side of the little nurse excited mouth, seems to be because of the sudden arrival of people, and let the corridor began to jam up.

"Academician Chen? Who has such great ability to invite people here? "

Academician Chen?

Naturally, she has seen this person on TV and is an expert in this field, but his sudden appearance is due to Feng Yan. If it is not for Feng Yan, it seems that no one has such great ability to invite someone.

Watching the man enter the rescue room, Su Xiaowan's heart seems not as heavy as before.

Su Xiaowan sat at the door of the emergency room, praying devoutly with both hands, hoping that grandma would be safe and safely through the danger this time.

Su Zheng came over and said, "this man was invited by young master Feng?"

Su Zheng was very happy. He really had a good daughter. Now he was sitting there talking about something, but Su Xiaowan didn't pay any attention to her. At last, he was so bored that he left with Shen Yin. "Qiqi will take care of your grandmother with you. There's something else in my family. I'll go back first."

Ear, finally no longer buzzing, Su Xiaowan looked at the tightly closed rescue room, has been more than an hour.

Although I know it's not a minor operation, the waiting time is really long... It makes me feel uneasy.

All of a sudden.

A pair of shoes appeared in front of her.

She was very happy and looked up. He was wearing a black coat and a white shirt inside. The dim light in the corridor fell on him and illuminated the man's features.

The man, as if from heaven, as if God arrived, so appeared in front of her.

Chapter 76

All of a sudden to her heart to pour through.

"President, what are you doing here?"

Feng Yan left in a hurry, forgetting the leather mask on his face. At the moment, he looked at the little woman and said, "I heard that you are sick these days. I'll have a look."

"I'm fine. Thank you for your concern."

"Did anyone say you were ugly when you cried?"

"Don't look at me if you think I'm ugly." She wiped her face. Her tears had dried just now.

How could he know he was crying.

But I really don't like this man.

Feng Yan sees that she wants to drive herself away and sits around her. Su Xiaowan immediately moves away. She stands there and looks at the man in front of her. "President, I have only Feng Yan in my heart in my life."

She spoke warily,.

"Why, all the seats here belong to your family? Can't I sit yet? "

The corridor was quiet, and her eyes fell on the man deeply, with resistance and uneasiness. The man's eyes were too aggressive, and staring at her was particularly uneasy. "President, I thank you for coming to see me, but it's not too early. Sitting here alone will make people misunderstood."

"Did you get the certificate with Feng Yan?"

"No Su Xiaowan blinked, "but sooner or later it will come to the point."

"Not without a license?" He teased her.

"I'm Fengyan, so I can't stay with other men." She said, and immediately stood up.

Su Qiqi bought a meal and went upstairs to see the man sitting there.

The beautiful face is very handsome. Under the light of light yellow, the face is particularly charming. The perfect jaw line makes you feel that all the things together are God's favorite.

She rushed over with rice and grabbed Su Xiaowan's hand. "Su Xiaowan, who is this man?"

Su Xiaowan wants to ask her to close her mouth firmly at the moment, "grandma, I'll take care of you here, you go back."

"How can I do that? How can I say that you are also my sister, and she is half of my grandmother. How can I look at it and ignore it?" Su Qiqi had never seen such a man, and he didn't know what good luck Su Xiaowan had. Feng Yan just wanted to marry her, but when he met such a handsome man, he was not a poor man without money.

She really took all the advantages.

She dragged Su Xiaowan, "who is this man? If you introduce me, I won't compete with you! "

Su Xiaowan's eyes are deep and Lu Li is really handsome. But Su Xiaowan doesn't have much interest in handsome people. She doesn't like them.

"He is Feng Yan's friend. If you like, go after him by yourself, but I remind you, don't talk nonsense."

Su Qiqi felt that he had half stepped into a rich family. This man was the existence of male god in his heart. His clothes now looked like some big brand.

Feng Yan's friends must be very rich. Although they may not catch up with Feng Yan, Su Qiqi doesn't want to marry Feng Yan.

"Su Xiaowan, if I marry into a rich family, I will thank you."

"I'm going to see grandma."

Su Xiaowan hates them and their hypocrisy, but she can't make friends with them.

Su Qiqi watched Su Xiaowan leave. Before she came to the man, she was scared away by the man's cold eyes.

"You deserve to be in front of me?"

Chapter 77

Garbage?

Su Qiqi's face is frozen there. This is the first time that she has been compared to garbage... You know, although she is not as good-looking as Su Xiaowan, there are many people chasing her. In school, she is in a long line, but in this man's eyes, she is a garbage?

I don't even deserve to be in front of him.

She looked at his back, "she is already a married woman, her husband is Feng Yan, you can't rob him, you know Feng Yan, the famous young master Feng is her husband."

But the man didn't stop, as if for a moment, Su Qiqi felt like a clown.

She threw the rice to the ground in anger!

One is like this, the other is like this!

She is so good!

Su Xiaowan stands at the door of the emergency room, takes out his mobile phone, looks at the man standing there, and wants to call Feng Yan.

But how to fight, that end did not pick up.

"Don't call. Feng Yan has gone abroad to deal with things. He won't answer your phone."

Su Xiaowan raised her eyelids and kept a safe distance from him. "You stay away from me. I don't believe what you said."

This silly woman, she is in front of her, she still

"You just hate me?"

"Well."

"The reason."

"I don't like you because I hate what a person needs."

The man's mouth, I don't know what kind of mood to use to describe the mood at the moment, "should I be more handsome than Feng Yan, so you dare not contact me, afraid of falling in love with me?"

"President, Feng Yan is not ugly."

With that, Su Xiaowan doesn't pay any attention to him any more. He takes his cell phone and makes a phone call there. Feng Yan feels that the vibration in his pocket is going to numb his legs.

After a night's operation, grandma was pushed out of the emergency room in the morning. Academician Chen's frown was relaxed a lot. "Blood pressure is stable for the time being. Don't stimulate her or let her leave the hospital bed during this period of time. After she leaves the hospital, she can't do heavy work."

"I see. Thank you, academician Chen."

Academician Chen has already pointed out to look at the man at that end, with a kind smile on the corner of his mouth, "the person you should thank is not me."

Along the line of sight, Su Xiaowan looks at the man at that end, Lu Li?

Is academician Chen invited by the president? Not Feng Yan?

She was just about to ask, but grandma was pushed out. She had not seen her for a long time. Grandma was thin. She trotted all the way to keep up with her grandmother. After a few hours, grandma finally opened her eyes and the situation was stable. Su Xiaowan finally let go of her heart.

As soon as I went out, I looked at the man at that end, "why haven't you left yet?"

"Xiao Wan, the gentleman at the door... Let him in for a while."

Su Xiaowan looked back, "grandma, he... Is the president of our company."

"Don't hide it from me. Shen Yin told me. Let him in. I want to talk to him." So, grandma was really stimulated by Shen Yin. I don't know what she said, which made her blood pressure rise so much.

Su Xiaowan frowned and looked at Grandma's stubborn eyes. She hesitated. She was really afraid that the president would expose her.

But she didn't want grandma to worry.

"President, my grandmother is a patient. Please don't stimulate her too much. Now she mistakenly thinks you are Feng Yan. Can you do me a favor, please?"

"When you ask for help, it's much more lovely." Feng Yan looked at her, "but it's not impossible for me to help."

"What do you want?"

Chapter 78

"I don't mind meat!" The man slowly bent down and said something in her ear.

Su Xiaowan's heart was pounding, and her flesh was enough... Her eardrum was burning.

The man passed her, walked into the ward leisurely, and closed the door. If he didn't walk fast, Su Xiaowan would have killed him now.

"Grandma, I'm Feng Yan."

The old man was still haggard after the operation, but now she couldn't sleep because she was thinking about her granddaughter. When she was sent to the hospital, she actually wanted to meet Feng Yan, who was a big family.

Why she chose Xiaowan is unknown to her.

She raised her eyes, in front of this, the man looks handsome, cold, expensive, quite a bit strange people do not close.

Su Xiaowan stood at the door with melancholy eyes.

Just now, why do you feel that this man... Has some flavor of Xu Fengyan.

It must be what he thought.

"The silly boy was afraid of me and didn't even tell me about his marriage."

His memory has always been amazing. He is familiar with the person who has seen it. This person is Su Xiaowan's grandmother.

She cherishes people.

The ward was very quiet, and the old man's voice was intermittent. Because she had just been ill, after the operation, her strength was not enough. "She... Grew up with me since childhood. The fortune teller said that her life was bad, so she was sent to me. I think it was fate. She has been lonely for more than 20 years, and now she meets you. I hope she can be happy and emotional in the future, It's not convenient for me to intervene, Feng Yan. I know that your family is big, and maybe she has more than one wife in her life. But I hope that no matter what she does is not good, you can let her change, don't hurt her too much, don't see that she doesn't care about anything. In fact, once she identifies a person, she won't like others. She is a good girl and our family is sorry for her, This thing... If you take it... "

Feng Yan's eyes narrowed. Why do you think it looks familiar?

Su Xiaowan stood at the door and looked inside anxiously, but the light was shining through, and she couldn't see anything. As soon as she was ready to stand on tiptoe, the door opened. She looked at the man coming out, her eyes stagnated.

Feng Yan's long character is colder, so he can't see any abnormality on the surface. He takes the door with him. Su Xiaowan wants to go in and is stopped. "Your grandmother has a rest. She asks me to take you home."

"Well, what did my grandmother tell you?" Su Xiaowan always feels strange.

"It's all about being nice to you in the future."

"You didn't say anything? I mean... You didn't say anything to stimulate her, did you? "

"With you watching, how dare I?"

Su Xiaowan is finally relieved, "president, no matter what, today's thing or want to thank you."

"Thank me? How can I thank you? How can I pay for it

"....."

Su Xiaowan doesn't care about that word, but he can't be too unkind when he thinks about helping her. Although others are not good, he does help himself.

"President... Shall I treat you to breakfast? You didn't have breakfast, did you? "

Feng Yan put his hands into his belt and looked down at Su Xiaowan, "I've done so much for you, just invite me to breakfast?"

"Don't eat it." But for Feng Yan's absence, how could su Xiaowan let this man in.

He frowned as the sun came in through the window and covered her in the golden light.

I don't know why, but I feel sad.

His deep eyes stopped there, quietly, just looking at her, but it seemed that he was looking at someone through her.

"What are you staring at me for?"

Chapter 79

"No matter what you think, I only like Feng Yan."

Then he walked away.

Men's eyes closely follow her, some want to laugh, and some helpless.

The shabby snack bar is overcrowded.

Su Xiaowan looked for many restaurants. This is the only one. They can still find a seat to sit down. Su Xiaowan ordered two bowls of wonton and two casseroles of Shaomai.

"The president of a group can't even afford to buy you a ring?"

Su Xiaowan looked at the ring in her hand, retracted her finger and raised her head. "In my eyes, a ring is a ring. It's expensive and cheap. Is there any other use for the president to give a woman a ring?"

"In front of Feng Yan, are you so smart? As far as I know, Feng Yan likes cute. "

"I don't need to compete with Feng Yan to get along with each other. He likes me very much. Of course, if he likes cute, I can change it for him. The president must have never liked anyone. That's why he said that!"

Two bowls of wonton were put in front of her, and Su Xiaowan pushed one bowl in front of him. "After eating this bowl of wonton, we will be clear."

The corner of the man's mouth a hook, "on your cheap way of sending people, I pour is the first time to see."

This bowl of wonton is only ten yuan, so she can make it clear.

She blinked, "if the president dislikes it, he can not eat it. When Feng Yan comes back, I'll tell him to give you a check directly."

This girl, I didn't find her so eloquent before.

I don't know what I will look like when I look at myself.

He took a few mouthfuls. The wonton didn't taste good, but Su Xiaowan ate it very well.

All of a sudden, he thought of what her grandmother said.

In fact, Su Xiaowan is easy to be satisfied. In the past few days, he has found out.

"Su Xiaowan."

These three words make huge waves in Su Xiaowan's ears. I don't know why. At the moment when she bowed her head, when she heard the three words, she felt a throb in her heart.

It seems that the voice belongs to Feng Yan.

I didn't think I just hated this person before, but now... That voice.

"President, you..."

She looked up, her eyes shining, but heard Feng Yan's words, "Feng Yan married Su Qiqi, and you are su Xiaowan. Why don't you explain to me why you married Feng Yan?"

Su Xiaowan was caught off guard. His heart thumped for a while, and he felt guilty. "It's not because of Feng Yan... Why should I tell you?"

"Then I'll tell Feng Yan that you lied to him."

"Wait a minute." Su Xiaowan looked at the man's action and stopped, "in fact, I knew Feng Yan a long time ago, and I like Feng Yan very much, so I convinced my sister to give me this opportunity. My sister is a good person..."

Then she heard her heart beating like thunder.

That's not true.

She didn't even believe it.

Feng Yan looked at the woman's black and white eyes, flustered, so delicate, it seems that people want to kiss the impulse.

This wench, why always like to lie, but the appearance of telling a lie, pour still calculate lovely.

"Isn't it because Feng Yan likes men and your sister doesn't want to marry to be widowed, that's why she let you marry for her. What do they force you to do..."

Before the man's voice fell, she was interrupted by Su Xiaowan. Her eyes were red, like an angry rabbit. "No, Feng Yan's sexual orientation is very normal. It's not that they like men. You are his friend. How can you say that like them?"

"Oh, how do you know?"

"I'm married to him... I'm married to him." Su Xiaowan's face feels burning. They two sleep in the same bed together. He has also kissed her several times, which is round off.

"I can prove that Feng Yan likes women."

"Are you still angry?"

"If you insult my husband, should I smile at you?"

"Do you want to protect Feng Yan even with your small body?"

"Mr. President, have you forgotten what happened last time?" Su Xiaowan felt that she had no appetite for her favorite wonton in front of her. She dropped her chopsticks and said, "I'm going home. If Feng Yan can't find me, she will be worried."

"Wait a minute."

Chapter 80

"What for?"

"Give me the ID card!"

"You..." Su Xiaowan felt that he was pinched. "What do you want my ID card for?"

"To prevent you from running away, you have to default."

"... I don't owe you anything. I don't owe you anything!"

"Your grandmother's operation cost one million yuan. The Su family didn't pay for it. I paid for it all."

million.

He said slowly, "so you owe me a million now."

"... how could that be so much."

million.

"Academician Chen, you can't invite anyone at will." The man's eyes fixed on her, "either give me the ID card now, or give me a million dollars now, choose for yourself."

"....."

"Otherwise, I will tell Feng Yan that you are su Xiaowan."

"....."

Su Xiaowan takes out her ID card from her pocket. After thinking about it, she still doesn't want to give it to him. If he takes the ID card, he can't run away.

"I'll pay back the money I owe you. I'm sure I won't default."

"I don't believe you."

"....."

"I gave you my ID card. You won't do anything wrong with it?"

The man took out his cell phone and said, "I'll give it to Feng Yan now"

"Here you are, here you are."

Su Xiaowan angrily gave his ID card to him, "when I get the money, your ID card will be returned to me immediately."

"It's natural. What do I want you to do with your ID card?" What I want is you. Feng Yan didn't say that.

Feng Yan's narrow eyes watched her leave.

A low smile spilled from the throat.

——He and I are married

Thanks to this woman, how can he not know?

When I think of her saying this, her cheeks are slightly red on both sides, like apples. With her ID card, Feng Yan's eyebrows are slightly raised.

Su Xiaowan thought of her ID card and she had to get it back as soon as possible, but the thought that the man knew her name made her feel like a time bomb.

I'm very nervous.

But in her hand, except for the money she wanted to return to Feng Yan, there was no money left.

This one million, she's not coming out at all.

She bought a breakfast and went to her grandmother's ward. Standing at the door, she was stopped by the nurse. "Young grandmother, you can go back home. I will take care of your grandmother."

Su Xiaowan didn't remember that she hired a nurse, and the Su family didn't even ask, "who are you?"

"Master Feng asked me to come."

Su Xiaowan slightly surprised, "Feng Yan?"

"Yes, the young master is waiting for you in the parking lot downstairs." The woman was respectful.

"Is Feng Yan here? When did you come? "

"I haven't been here long. You can go down. I'll take care of it here."

"Then my grandmother will trouble you. Give her the porridge when she wakes up. Please call me if you have anything. I'll go home and change my clothes first."

Su Xiaowan walked out of the hospital and went to the parking lot, quite absent-minded. At this time, a woman came across.

Wearing a pair of red high heels.

The four eyes are opposite.

The morning wind blows up, and the woman's long hair is enchanting. Shen Qi'er looks at the woman and is full of jealousy. After only a few days, the woman occupies her own position and climbs to Feng Yan's bed, which is a position she can't get all her life. It's said that on that day, Feng Yan did it for her

"Su Qiqi, why are you here? What about Feng Yan? "

"Miss Shen, it's not appropriate to ask where my husband is in front of me."

Shen Qi'er looks down on such a woman, but this woman is liked by Feng Yan. She definitely looks at her. She really doesn't know what she has to attract Feng Yan. Has Feng Yan never seen a woman or something? She is a very rustic woman.

"You really think you are Feng Yan's wife. You are just bought by him. Can you enter the gate of Feng's family?"
