Chapter 2388

“She has a good bowl of water, why are you a little unhappy?” Elliot laughed,

“Hayden is still unhappy!”

“Why am I unhappy. You have a good relationship with your children, don’t I have more peace of mind?

When the child is on vacation, you can take care of the child, and I can take it for granted.”

Avery couldn’t help laughing, “You like taking care of children so much, I will give you an award at the end of the year: the Best Nurse Dad Award!”

“Thank you! There is no need for the award, the child is mine, and it is my responsibility and obligation to take care of the child.”

Elliot said calmly, "The child won't need us for long. Hayden doesn't need us anymore, we need him.

Layla doesn't need us much anymore. If we weren't so strict with her, would you believe that she would go out to play as soon as she was on vacation? We went to our honeymoon this time, and she didn't bother Eric to stay with us. Does she play? If it hadn't been for the final exam, do you believe she actually wanted Eric to take her out to play?"

Avery didn't think much about it at first, but now hearing Elliot say it, she suddenly felt a little confused.

"That's why Robert still treats the two of us as treasures. If Layla had time to accompany him, he wouldn't play with the two of us." Elliot continued, "The child grows up very quickly. In a few years, When Robert go to elementary school, if he has good friends, he won't stick with us anymore."

"Why are you a little sad? You like to have children so much?" Avery teased, "You don't want to move out when you grow up and don't live with your elders. Is it? You are such a person yourself, why do you want the children to stick to us all the time?"

Elliot was speechless.

"It's still a long time before they grow up and move out! Don't think so much!"

Avery saw that Elliot seemed really sad, so she comforted him seriously, "If the children are all move out and live separately from us, The two of us will be able to travel around the world!"

Elliot responded, "Let's think about it later! We haven't reached that stage yet."

“They’re still with us now, you’re so lost, if Layla is going to get married in the future, don’t you have to cry?” Avery put her arms around his waist and stared at his face, “Husband, you still have me What! I won’t leave you.”

Elliot: “Well. Fortunately, I have you. Otherwise, I’d be so lonely when I’m old.”

Avery: “Stay alone!”

Elliot: “ ... ”

The two quarreled all the way, and when they got home, they stopped.

Dinner was ready, but Layla was doing her homework in the room, Robert pulled Elliot and asked Elliot to teach him to play checkers.

“Next time my brother comes back, I can play chess with my brother!” Robert explained why he wanted to learn checkers.

Elliot was moved by Robert, so he was successfully pulled away by Robert and went to teach Robert to play checkers.

Avery was hungry and couldn't wait for them, so she went to the dining room alone.

"Layla said she wasn't hungry, she said she'd eat after finishing her homework, so you don't have to worry about them." Mrs. Cooper brought dinner to the table, "Avery, how do you feel about going to work today?"

"I didn't do anything, but I'm hungry faster than usual at home." Avery picked up the bowl and chopsticks and started to eat.

"Going to work will definitely make you a little tired. Even if you don't do anything, you have more things to think about.” Mrs. Cooper said, “You eat more. You are already thin, so don’t get thinner because you go to work.”

“I will eat at noon today. There are quite a few. I’m sure I can’t lose weight. Maybe after a period of work, I will gain weight.” Avery doesn’t care as much about her figure as in previous years, because her physique is not easy to fatten, and her eating habits better, “I don’t usually like to eat snacks, and I don’t like to overeat, so my weight has been maintained at a relatively stable number.”

“Mrs. Cooper, Eric lived in our house two days ago. Did Layla make any noise to him?” Avery suddenly remembered this question and asked in a low voice.

Mrs. Cooper was stunned for a moment and replied, “No? I didn’t see Layla being noisy. Layla is not noisy! Layla is very sensible now.”
