

Substitute wife: mysterious husband, good evening

Chapter 7

The man's words interrupted her thoughts. Su Xiaowan looked up and swallowed.

Break your leg? Do you want to be so simple and rude?

Inexplicably feel a little pain in the stomach.

I don't think I want to mess with him.

Su Xiaowan looked at the man's face and said with a flattering smile, "don't worry, young master Feng, I won't go."

"Come down to dinner."

Then Feng Yan went downstairs. There were few servants in the villa. It was very cold. The living room of Nuo felt like an ice cellar.

It's said that Feng Yan didn't like to contact with strangers, so he left only a few shrewd maids in charge of daily cleaning, and the rest were dismissed.

"Young master, you may have dinner." The woman in front of her is the one who bathed her yesterday. She smiles at Aunt Li and looks at Feng Yan sitting there like a great master. I don't know if I should go and sit down. After all, I've only come to this villa for one night. At Su's house, I can't be on the table so early, hesitating.

"Come here."

Su Xiaowan raised her head and stood in front of Feng Yan like her daughter-in-law, "what's the matter?"

"Sit down and eat."

On the dining table, there are a variety of dishes, Chinese and western. I don't know if it is to take care of her taste. She is really hungry. She was sent here last night. Now, she hasn't got a grain of rice. In the morning, her stomach screams violently.

Su Xiaowan grew up with her grandmother and was used to eating porridge. She didn't have much interest in other dishes on the table. She took the porridge on one side of the table and got ready to eat.

"Still afraid?"

Su Xiaowan almost choked to death with a mouthful of porridge. She slowly raised her head from the bowl and looked up at the hot eyes. Although it was a little hard to accept, it didn't seem so terrible after looking at it for a long time. "My mother said that it's not good to laugh when eating, especially when staring at others."

"Yes? That sounds like a curse. " It was the first time that he was preached by a little girl. Feng Yan's face was a little more indifferent.

"No, master Feng... You misunderstood."

For a moment, the atmosphere was a little awkward.

At this time, the mobile phone in the pocket rang untimely. It was su Qiqi.

That deafening posture, never tired, Su Qiqi this person, with her understanding of her, will definitely keep on playing, until the cell phone exploded.

"Su Xiaowan, is master Feng very ugly? Did he touch you last night? " Su Xiaowan frowned at the Schadenfreude, and the voice was loud. It's conceivable that the man at that end must have heard it. She took a look at Feng Yan with Yu Guang. He was eating elegantly, and could not see the joy and anger on his face.

"I'm eating." She can't expose it face to face. She kindly reminds us that she hopes this woman can hang up the phone as soon as possible.

"I don't care what you are doing. I want to know whether master Feng is ugly or not?"

"Very good." In order to prevent Su Qiqi from saying something earth shaking again, Su Xiaowan said that her mobile phone had no power, so she hung up immediately.

Bow your head and get ready to eat.

She only felt her gaze fixed on her. She raised her head slightly, thinking of the eloquence she had just told him. She wanted to talk to herself. Su Xiaowan explained, "it's my sister. She's more willful. Don't mind."

"I don't mind."

Su Xiaowan suddenly felt that she was a bit frustrated. Although she was married for Su Qiqi, if she missed the trap, the Su family would certainly not be able to afford to offend her. She would certainly take Su Qiqi back because she had a big family and a big career. However, the man was very moody. If she was involved in her own life, wouldn't she be angry?

Su Xiaowan just wants to know the whereabouts of her younger brother. After a few days, she finds Su Zheng and asks about the elder brother. Then they can't force her to do something she doesn't like, and she will go back.

Her head drooped, "... In fact, my sister is very nice. She didn't mean to say it. Master Feng, she is still young and not very sensible. Can you stop worrying about her? What's more, my sister is very beautiful. When you meet my sister later, you will like her. " Su Qiqi is a beautiful lady. She looks so beautiful. Master Feng is sure to like her.

"I don't have the habit of polygamy!"

"..." Su Xiaowan was embarrassed.
