Chapter 2540 – 2541

Chapter 2540

"Of course, I agree." Suzi supported his daughter without hesitation.

She could see that her daughter didn't seem to like the bustling life in this city, but she loved nature more.

As long as her daughter is happy in her heart, Suzi will not stop her.

What kind of future, high education, as long as the daughter can support herself, have the ability to support herself, and have a more fulfilling life, it will be fine.

"Thank you mom." Shen Weiyi hugged his mom and said happily.

At this moment, in the eyes of Arron, Uncle Jun, and Uncle Jiang Chenhe, her small appearance is undoubtedly innocent and immature.

However, no one could have imagined that even though Shen Weiyi was only thirteen years old, his heart was also tortured.

Before the age of five, she followed the life of her mother and uncle, which made her understand the sufferings of the world prematurely.

Later, she came back to Nancheng with her father. She is the leading princess in Nancheng, the eldest young lady, and the youngest female son of the Fu Group.

However, she was also kidnapped by her own grandfather and kidnapped by the three brothers of the Shu family not long ago.

This made Shen Weiyi realize that the wealthy life of the aloof is not so stable.

And she is not so rare.

At such a young age, Shen Weiyi had already had his own attention.

She felt that life did not require so much money and power, and she imagined that her mother and Uncle Pan Youming would do things more meaningful to the society.

Of course, Shen Weiyi also loves his father more.

I feel more sorry for my dad.

She hoped that she could support herself so as to lighten her father's burden and tell him not to be so tired.

In the end, the only one is a child.

Still too simplistic.

She only knew that her father was breaking his heart every day. She thought that her father was working hard to make money for this family, for her mother, her and her brothers to eat and wear well.

Little children don't know that the huge Fu Group has hundreds of thousands of employees. If the Fu Group really does not exist, then hundreds of thousands of employees will face unemployment overnight.

Thirteen-year-old Shen Weiyi still didn't understand that his father had the responsibility to stabilize them.

Under the protection of her parents, the little girl has developed a very independent and very good character, but she has too much beauty and kindness in her heart.

This is the only thing like mom.

like grandma.

"Yi, if you're going to see the alley in the north, let your uncle know when the time comes, and uncle will make arrangements for you." Jiang Shenhe said to Shen Weiyi gently.

Shen Weiyi nodded: "Okay, Uncle Jiang."

Suzi on the side smiled: "I tell you, Lao Jiang, don't look at the speed of our girl's promise, it may not be when the time comes. It 's big."

"It's like Shaoqin." Jiang Chenhe said immediately.

"Who said no." Kraig also laughed.

Shen Weiyi lowered his head and smiled without saying a word.

She is very polite, and adults generally do not object to her comments. She is a very sensible child.

She knew that her mother and father were the people who knew her best.

At that time, if she really wants to study the hutongs in the north, she will not disturb anyone.

The little girl happily ran into the room to do her homework, and the adults continued to discuss their affairs.

“Shaoqin, what’s your plan next?” Jiang Chenhe asked: “Where you need my help, you must tell me.”

Arron nodded: “This is what I think now, in Nancheng, look for some business talents, let me They jointly manage the Fu Group. Then they can report their performance to me once a year.”

“No, Shaoqin!” Kraig immediately got up and dissuaded.

Arron looked at Kraig with interest: “Tell me, why not?”

Chapter 2541

“Several business talents, several! Still looking for in Nancheng, not in your Fu Group, then Isn’t it about to fall apart?” Kraig asked worriedly.

Arron chuckled lightly: “Jing Yu, everything has two sides. Disintegration is one aspect. What if several independent business talents restrict each other and compete with each other?

That will only make the company develop faster, have you ever thought about it? I know that you are worried that they will continue to compete for a long time and will cause conflicts, which will lead to disputes in the end. You can rest assured that I, Arron, are just retreating behind the scenes, but I am still there. I will always pay attention to them, restrict them, and let them They need each other. Since then, they have to think about how to surpass each other. They also have to think about not letting the other side fall. When necessary, if the other side falls behind, they have to reach out collectively.

When the time comes, I will issue a policy.

If any of the five independent executive directors fails, the remaining four of you will not be able to succeed."

Hearing Arron's remarks, Kraig and Jiang Chenhe were stunned. .

After a long while, Jiang Chenhe applauded: "Shaoqin, Shaoqin, you are indeed a business genius, once such a method is introduced, you will not only give other businessmen a chance to develop their own way, but you will be able to take a back seat. , go into seclusion.

Not only that, but it still does not delay the development of the Fu Group.

This method really kills three birds with one stone."

Kraig nodded: "Yes, yes, yes, in the future, in Nancheng, Arron's fame is in Nancheng. will gradually be submerged."

Jiang Chenhe shook his head and said, "What's the fear of being submerged in fame, as long as the strength is there, and the strength is more stable and stronger than before, it is a good thing that the fame is submerged, so when foreign enemies come to attack in the future, we will even catch them off guard. "That's right !

" Kraig patted the table, and he nodded solemnly: "Shaoqin, support you!"

Arron had a relaxed smile on his face.

Making this decision is not easy.

But after making the decision, he felt much more relaxed.

The next step is to find an unnamed and independent business director, and subcontract the Fu Group to five people.

Of these five people, neither can choose too young, because too young is not surprised and difficult to control. But you can't choose too old. It is best to be about the same age as his Arron, or a few years younger than him.

Thirty-five-six years old, thirty-seven-eight years old, just the right time.

So much the better.

Arron spent a month looking for four more suitable candidates. These four people are all self-made, conscientious and very capable, and they are no more than forty years old.

The most important thing is that these four people are very grateful to Arrongen for the sudden and great favor given to them.

They all promised Arron that they would do it well.

The liver and brain are on the ground, and they have to live up to Arron's expectations of them.

The four directors have been selected, and there is still one left.

Everyone is thinking, who will Arron choose for this last one?

Early in the morning, Arron received a call from Christopher: "Fourth Master, today I..."

"Why didn't you come to pick me up for work today? Are you up late? Go to the company, I have a very important matter with you today." Arron said to Christopher into the receiver as he walked out with the car keys.

Christopher: "..."

"What's the matter? Are you sick?" Arron asked with concern.

"No, Fourth Master, no, I'm not sick, I'll go to the company immediately," Christopher said hesitantly.

"Okay, as soon as possible! I have an urgent matter for you today." Arron said.

"Okay."

An hour later, Christopher arrived at the company and came to Arron's office:
"Fourth Master."

Arron handed Christopher a share transfer contract: "Follow me for so many years, you deserve it, you That's the fifth business director."

Christopher: "...Master, you...what did you say?"
