

Poor Billionaire Wife: Who Is The Real Boss? - Chapter 130A

Chapter 130A

Chapter 130 Tips On How To Flirt With Girls

Faced with Rupert's evidence, all the color drained from Judson's face, and he couldn't make eye contact.

Where did Rupert get this video?

He could find a reason to deny the recording, but he couldn't explain the video at all.

Because it was indeed him and Marilyn in the video.

After watching the video, the reporters roughly understood what was really going on.

"Wow, I never thought Judson was a traitor."

"I can't believe he was willing to jeopardize the safety of the customers for his own selfish gain. He even set up a bomb. What a fucking jerk!"

"Marilyn is also an asshole! Not only did she plagiarize, but she also made Judson do such a horrible thing just to frame Benton Group."

The growing hostility toward Judson overwhelming. He wiped the cold sweat on his forehead and tried to defend himself. "It's not true! The video's fake! You framed me!"

"Fake?" Annabel's eyes flashed dangerously. "Are you trying to say that both the recording and the video are fake? Unfortunately, our evidence against you is solid. I believe everyone here can tell whether it's fake or not."

"Oh, and there's one more thing. We also have a witness." Rupert smiled at Judson, but his eyes were devoid of warmth.

Finley took this as his cue. He said in a booming voice, "Bring her in!"

Soon, the door opened and several bodyguards came in with a short woman.

Judson's face turned ghastly pale when he saw the woman.

He was doomed!

One of the reporters recognized that this woman was a wanted criminal. Her name was Hester Ramirez. She was known for fabricating bombs and was implicated in several terrorist attacks.

Rupert's expression was cold and indifferent. He looked at Hester and asked, "Do you have anything to do with the explosion at the warehouse of Benton Group?"

Hester was keen on making explosions. After participating in a few terrorist attacks, she decided to lie low and had been hiding in the woods.

Judson had specifically sought Hester out and bribed her with money, asking her to plant a bomb in the warehouse.

It had taken Finley a great deal of effort to track down Hester. But in the end, he found her hiding in the mountain and made the bodyguards bring her here.

Knowing that she was powerless against Rupert, Hester admitted to the crime bluntly. "Yes. I made and detonated the bomb in the warehouse."

"And why did you do that?" Rupert narrowed his eyes at her.

Hester shrugged nonchalantly. "Someone gave me ten million dollars to do it."

"Who?" Rupert asked in a bone-chilling voice.

Hester couldn't help but tremble. She pointed at Judson and shouted, "He did it! He's the one who hired me!"

"What the hell are you talking about? I don't even know you!" Judson's palms were sweating profusely. Given the circumstances, there was nothing he could do but deny it.

"Is that so? I already asked someone to look into it, and it turns out that a week ago, you withdrew ten million dollars from your account. That's the ten million you gave to Hester!" Rupert cast a cold, harsh glance at Judson.

Annabel nodded. "We have all the evidence against you, Judson. There's nothing you can do. We'll turn over the evidence to the police. They'll decide what to do with you."

As if on cue, Rupert raised his hand, and police officers swarmed into the room and put Hester and Judson in handcuffs.

After the two were taken away by the police, Rupert's cold gaze swept across the crowd. "Now, you all know that the incident regarding the Ice and Fire project was all part of Love Jewelry's malicious scheme and that Judson was the mastermind behind it all. Benton Group will take this as a sign to do better, and such an incident will never happen again!"

Thunderous applause broke out. Annabel turned to look at
