Impulsive Vow to an Enigmatic Husband ( Cornelia Stewart ) Chapter 159

Chapter 159

“Let’s do it tomorrow then “Because of her busy work schedule. Cornelia had been putting off buying a house But she decided to finally go through with it this time

Once she got a house, she could bring her grandma to live with her and finally forget about Jeremy.

Zack said, “Alright, I talk to Abby later”

Half an hour later, they arrived at Blueshell Mansion

Marcus had several apartments in Blueshell Mansion, all of which were large, single-story units with 360-degree view balconies and top-notch amenities

He usually lived on the 26th floor, but the apartment on the 27th floor was vacant, and only Cornelia lived there once. The apartment had a master bedroom and two guest rooms Cornelia and Skyler naturally chose to stay in the guest rooms.

Dr. Dawson followed Cornelia, she always tried to persuade Cornelia to live in the master bedroom “Cornelia, this bedroom seems a bit small for you The master bedroom is empty anyway, so you can stay there if you’d like.”

“Dr. Dawson, this guest room is bigger than my home! How is it small? Cornelia was shocked.

Seeing that she couldn’t convince Cornelia, Dr. Dawson gave up and didn’t push further, fearing that Cornelia would become suspicious

After several hours of running around, Skyler was really tired and went to rest after having some soup.

Cornelia had slept all day and was now full of energy

With Marcus's permission, she took Zack on a detailed tour of the apartment.

This was Zack's first time in such a luxurious place, and he felt like he was dreaming. He couldn't help but keep praising it. "Nelly, let's work hard to make money so we can buy a place like this someday"

Cornelia laughed and said, Zack, you really dare to dream, huh?"

Zack replied, "Life would be too boring without dreams."

Cornelia agreed, "You're absolutely right"

Although the idea wasn't very realistic, there was no harm in thinking about it.

Besides, their studio's performance was getting better and better.

If they worked hard for another ten or twenty years, they might really be able to afford it.

Zack suddenly said mysteriously, "Your boss lives just downstairs. Doesn't he live with his wife?"

Cornelia replied, "They've had some misunderstandings recently, so they seem to be living apart."

"Men should spoil their wives after marriage. He's really not a good husband." Zack didn't like Marcus from the start, so he wouldn't miss any chance to badmouth him.

Cornelia defended, "President Hartley is not bad, you just don't know him well enough."

Zack had a strange thought, "Does he have some health issues?"

Cornelia quickly covered Zack's mouth, "Don't talk nonsense! Besides, I'm not his wife, so how would I know if he has any health problems?"

Zack pushed Cornelia's hand away, "You said he had flaws"

Cornelia explained, 1 meant that he's very capable at work, but he might be a bit slow in dealing with emotions, resulting in marital discord."

Zack said, "According to research, more than 50% of marital discord is due to a lack of harmony in the couple's sexual life"
