Chapter 281

That momentum... Those movements...

They were quite something indeed. However, that was all.

Andriss tapped his feet on the ground and shot backward like a swallow taking flight.

As soon as his figure left that spot, Hex's powerful punch landed with great force.

Boom-

The hard cement ground, on which even cars could drive, shattered from the blow, collapsing into a large crater.

Dust and gravel were sent flying in an instant.

The people's vision was obscured as they choked on the dust.

The dignitaries in the front row were all stunned!

Good Lord!

Even if an excavator came, it would take a lot of effort to dig up the concrete floor of this square. However, it was shattered by Hex's punch!

Was he really human?

He was simply a human-shaped killer with no feelings!

The dignitaries secretly exclaimed, 'It's no wonder that Hex is feared and infamous in the capital. That punch proves his strength!'

Andrius dodged the punch and said with interest, "Not bad. Your strength is great, and your punches are swift too. However, your eyes are too bad... Your aim is not accurate enough!"

At those words, a bloodthirsty light flashed in Hex's eyes. It was as if he wanted to swallow Andrius alive. However, before he could move, Andrius stepped out first. "My turn."

He shot toward Hex

His speed was like a darting rabbit, a cheetah giving chase, a meteor shooting across the sky! He shot forward several meters in just the blink of an eye and appeared in front of Hex.

Hex never expected Andrius to be so fast and hurriedly held out his fist to stop Andrius.

However...

Andrius saw that it was full of openings.

Swoosh!

Andrius's right hand was like a dragon's claw. He easily grabbed Hex's wrist.

With a grip and a pull..

Crack!

Hex's wrist was snapped on the spot, and he quickly withdrew.

Andrius moved forward.

The speed at which Hex retreated was no match for how quickly Andrius advanced Andrius soon caught up with Hex and grabbed his neck.

CS CamScanner

Smack, smack, smack!

He swung a large slap.

Hex was smacked around until his head spun. His face was swollen, his mouth was crooked, and his teeth flew out. He looked absolutely miserable.

However, that was just the beginning.

Next, Andrius pinned Hex to the ground and whirled on him. He punched Hex to death in front of all the dignitaries of Sumeria.

Barn!

When Andrius saw Hex's breath stop, he patted his hands and kicked the corpse away. Hex's body flew in a perfect arc and landed heavily in front of Idris.

The place was completely silent. Even the petals that were flying in mid-air stopped.

"Gulp!"

"Gulp

"Gulp-"

The dignitaries could not help but swallow their saliva when they looked at the imposing man. They thought that Hex was invincible. Unexpectedly, there was someone more powerful than him!

Who was that person?

The Millers and everyone else were flabbergasted and terrified.

Idris felt his mind explode on the spot. He was shocked and furious, regretful and fearful

What kind of freak was Andrius Moonshade? He even punched Hex to death!

Idris' heart raced when Andrius approached step by step. He constantly struggled with himself, and thoughts flashed in his mind.

There was no turning back now. The grudge between the Crestfall family and Andrius was too strong.

If things did not come to an end today, even if he went back to the capital, his days in the future would not be easy. It was better to go all in and bet on a fight to the death!

"Where are the assassins?"

A cold light flashed in Idris as he shouted at the surroundings.

Swoosh!

Whoosh!

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!

Countless killers suddenly swooped into the square like a flood. They all surrounded Andrius with bloodlust.

On high—rise buildings, by the windows and balconies, countless people aimed the dark muzzle of their guns at the square.

By rough estimation, there should be at least a thousand people.

This was Idris' final stand.

CS CamScanner

If Hex fell, the thousand assassins would be enough to drown everything and kill everyone in the whole square indiscriminately. Not even a fly would be left alive!

Idris saw these assassins and was confident.

So what if Andrius was strong? They had guns!

A cold and fierce light flashed in Idris's eyes. "You are very strong, but even if God himself were to descend today, He wouldn't be able to save you!"

Thump!

Chapter 282

Rumble

Clop, clop, clop

As soon as Idris spoke, the ground began to vibrate rhythmically

The dignitaries were confused and looked around to find the source.

At both the east and west horizons, tanks led countless heavily armed soldiers, marching over valiantly. The scene was awe-inspiring and magnificent. It was like a surging tidal wave.

Just a glance at their unparalleled state was enough for people to kneel in fear.

Not long after, the tanks and soldiers all arrived and surrounded the place. The gun barrel of each tank was like a black hole, filled with the aura of death and destruction.

Marcus immediately jogged over to Andrius and stood to his left, awaiting his orders.

Severus also jumped off the tank and quickly went to stand at Andrius' right, waiting for instructions.

They flanked him like they were protecting the President himself.

Just that scene was enough to make the assassins piss themselves in fright. They all dropped their weapons and knelt on the ground, praying for Andrius' forgiveness.

They were killers, not idiots. Going up against an actual army would be walking into the jaws of death. They still wanted to live!

Idris, James, and the others were all as pale as a sheet.

The capital's Crestfall family was indeed strong, but they were nothing compared to an army.

Idris's knees grew weak, and he knelt in front of Andrius and groveled. "Sir, I was wrong. I was really wrong. I shouldn't have had wicked thoughts about the Crestfalls in Sumera. I shouldn't have tried to harm you, Sir. I shouldn't have ignored your warning. I shouldn't have Idris repented for his sins each time he groveled. It was a tearful and pious confession

“Hah.” Andrius sneered as a cold light suddenly flashed in his eyes. “I had no intention of starting a bloody storm, let alone bother with you.

“However, you repeatedly came knocking on my door seeking death. Since you’re Grandpa Belarus’ brother, I won’t eliminate the capital’s Crestfall family, but your family must immediately move to the western border and are not allowed to take any of their properties or a single penny

“I’ll kill one person for every penny you take! As for you

Andrus gaze fell on Idris without any pity “Kill yourself on the spot to set an example ”

As soon as he spoke, Idris’s expression went dark. His eyes lost their sparkle and his body was drained of all strength as he collapsed on the ground. He forced himself to lift his head. There was a final question in his eyes. “Can you tell me... who exactly are you?”

Heaven’s Eye told him that Andrius was just a somewhat skilled man from the mountains

How was this ‘somewhat’ skilled?

Was he really from the mountains?

Idris did not believe it.

CS CamScanner

Andrius did not answer his question, and Severus made a motion with his hand.

“Wolf King!”

The soldiers cried out with as much respect and enthusiasm as they could.

“Wolf King!”

“Woll King!”

“Wolf King!”

Their roars resounded through the sky, powerful and fierce

As for Idris...

It was at that moment that he felt complete despair. It turned out that Andrius was the Wolf King of the Lycantroops in the west.

The

Crestfalls of the capital had been going against the Wolf King all this time. It was as a miracle that they even survived this long.

“Hahaha...” Idris suddenly burst into hysterical laughter. His laughter was miserable and sorrowful.” Brother. In the end, it was you who won.”

He muttered to himself, then told James, “Leave the capital and go to the western frontier. Then, be good people and live decent lives.”

After saying that, Idris picked up the pistol next to him and shot himself.

Andrius looked at the Miller brothers with a straight face. “Your turn.”

Thudi

Thud!

The Millers knelt in front of Andrius in fright. They regretted their decision.

The Wolf King was behind New Moon Corporation!

How were they supposed to fight?

“Wolf King, we were wrong!”

“Wolf King, I shouldn’t have lusted for Luna!”

“Wolf King, I shouldn’t have entertained unrealistic ideas about New Moon Corporation.”

“Wolf King, please have mercy

They groveled for mercy. Their foreheads turned red, but they barely realized it.

Andrius could not be bothered to listen to their nonsense and said faintly, "Marcus, start an investigation into the Millers immediately. Start from the family head to their industries and funds. Leave no stone unturned. If there are any violations of the law, they'll be dealt with seriously."

Marcus immediately answered with his head high, "Yes, sir!"

"It's over. The Millers are over."

"God, why did you let us mess with the Wolf King?"

"How are we supposed to live in the future...?"

The Millers were miserable in an instant, wailing for their mommies and daddies.

CS CamScanner

However, Andrius ignored them. He left the square, surrounded by the soldiers.

The moment Andrius turned around

Standing at the back, on her tiptoes, Luna shivered. Although she only got a glimpse, she saw Andrius every day, and his appearance was engraved in her mind.

"Andrius?" she called out uncertainly, immediately ready to turn and chase after Andrius to find out for

Chapter 283

“Luna, what are you doing?” Harry immediately stopped her and asked in confusion, “What do you mean? Why are you calling that guy’s name now?”

“He...” Luna pointed at the distant Wolf King’s back and muttered, “I saw Andrius when the Wolf King turned around just now!”

Harry was speechless.

Even Belarus and George fell silent.

“Geez

Harry looked at the Wolf King’s back and shook his head. “Shouldn’t you know what Andrius is like? How could he be the Wolf King?”

Harry shook his head, clearly not taking her seriously. Yes, Andrius can’t be the Wolf King.”

“If Andrius is the Wolf King, I’ll grovel at his feet on the spot!”

“Don’t be silly. It can’t be him.”

George and Dick also refuted this.

Meanwhile, the Wolf King had gotten into the tank.

Luna could only watch the Wolf King leave but could not go forward to confirm it.

Andrius, the Wolf King....

The Wolf King, Andrius...

The image from earlier constantly flashed in Luna’s mind. It was too late to say anything now since there was no way to confirm it. It would only remain a mystery.

Luna could not help but feel disappointed.

“Luna, you don’t still think that Andrius is the Wolf King, do you?” Harry looked at her daughter’s reluctant expression and suggested, “Why don’t you just call Andrius now and ask him where he is now?”

Luna immediately took out her phone and dialed the number.

Beep, beep, beep-

The line rang, but no one answered.

Could it be that... he could not pick up the phone because he was with the soldiers?

Luna's eyes lit up as her heart was filled with hope.

Then, she immediately called Fatty Frank. "Fatty, Frank, where's Andrius now? Tell me the truth and don't lie to me."

In Team Five's office, Fatty Frank immediately flinched. He remembered clearly how Andrius had just given him a pay cut yesterday.

Now, Luna was calling to ask about him.

Fatty Frank said with a straight face, "He's in the office now, but he just went to the gents. Do you want me to call him out for you?"

"Oh no need

Luna's heart rose and fell. The hope that had just ignited was extinguished in an instant.

CS CamScanner

However, she did not give up. A woman's intuition never lied. The glimpse that she saw earlier was too similar. She called the others in Team Five

"Boss is in the toilet!"

"He came to the office and asked why you weren't here."

"He really came into the office. I wouldn't dare to lie to you, Ms. Crestfall!"

"I'll call him over for you!"

The people of Team Five all told the same story.

Luna made several calls. Her heart was full of hope in the beginning, but it ended up with disappointment.

Maybe... she was mistaken.

A wry smile curled on Luna's lips.

The Wolf King was high above everyone and was the dream of the hundreds of millions of girls in Sumeria.

Andrius Moonshade was just a guy from the western mountains. Although he could fight, he had little skill and was too arrogant. He was so egotistical that he did not care about anyone else.

The two of them...

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea Chapter 284 -

CS CamScanner

Chapter 284

One was full of skill while the other was low-key and introverted.

The other was stubborn and only knew how to talk big They were on opposite ends of the spectrum.

How could they be the same person?

Luna sighed

in her mind, the two figures eventually failed to overlap and slowly separated. One flew to the clouds. The other fell into the sea of people

After thinking about it, she was relieved.

The Wolf King was a man standing at the top of Sumeria and even the world. How could he stoop so low as to go to the Crestfalls and become her husband?

It was impossible.

Belarus saw the change of expression in her eyes and comforted her by saying, “Luna, Andrius isn’t that bad. You don’t have to be so disappointed.

The Wolf King is high and mighty, but he might not be suitable for you. However, Andrius is made of proper blood and flesh. I think he’s a good match for you!”

Luna did not know how to answer that, so she just hummed.

The Crestfalls from the capital and the Millers were destroyed by the Wolf King. It’ll inevitably lead to a long vacuum in the South East Domain market.

Belarus old eyes shone with wisdom. This is a great opportunity. Our family must grasp this opportunity and develop New Moon Corporation.”

“I know, Grandpa” Luna took a deep breath, put away her thoughts, and nodded heavily.

The Wolf King

He was too far away it was unrealistic

In the future, she would not have those wild thoughts again. It would be easy to make silly mistakes if she dreamt too much

How to develop New Moon Corporation, how to restore the Crestfall family’s prestige, and how to protect her family well were what she should think about

The people left the venue one after another

What happened today would surely become the most sensational news in Sumeria for the foreseeable future

However, that was not the point. What they had to focus on was how to carve up the cake that was the market and how to get the biggest and sweetest slice,

In New Moon Corporation, Andrus immediately came back after saying goodbye to the soldiers.

Fatty Frank, Angel, and the others immediately gathered around him when he entered Team Five's office Boss, where did you go? Ms. Crestfall called to ask where you were earlier."

"She didn't come to the office today, so we all said that you came to the office, but you didn't answer your phone because you went to the gents

CS CamScanner

"Boss, don't spill the beans, or we'll all suffer."

Andrius smiled and said nothing.

After work in the afternoon, Andrius got ready to go to Noir's auto repair garage but was stopped by Luna at the entrance.

"Andrius, Grandpa wants to talk to you. We'll go to Crestfall Manor for dinner tonight," Luna spoke in a tone that left no room for argument.

In Crestfall Manor, Belarus smiled when he saw Andrius and took out a chess set. "Andrius, come here and play with me for a while."

"Sure!" Andrius sat down with a smile.

Andrius could play chess quite well

As White, he opened with e4. This was a classic opening move in games. It was also a form of his respect for his opponent.

"I see you know some tricks, Andrius..." Belarus smiled as he watched the moves play out.

The game continued, and pieces were taken.

Luna did not understand chess and went to pour two cups of tea.

Belarus thought about his next move while asking, "Andrius, how are you getting along with Luna these days? She's a little stubborn in character Did she make things difficult for you?"

“No,” Andrius denied it and looked at Luna to the side. He said with a smile, “We’re getting along very well!”

“Oh?” Belarus looked up and glanced at Luna’s stomach, asking, “You two have been living together for a long time... Have there been any changes I ought to know about?”

CS CamScanner

Chapter 285

Well

Andrius was at a loss. He picked up the King piece and then put it down again.

Luna was also embarrassed and lowered her head with a blush, not knowing how to answer that question “Checkmate!” Belarus pointed to the chessboard, looked at the two, and said, “You two have been married for a long time and should have already set a foundation for your relationship. It’s time to consider having children.

“I’m old and can’t wait anymore. My only wish is to have a great-grandchild soon.”

Andrius laughed awkwardly.

Seeing something off about the situation, Luna quickly changed the topic. “What fruit do you want to eat, Grandpa? I’ll go cut it for you!”

Belarus gave her a look and knew clearly that there was something wrong with this girl.

Otherwise...

Andrius was a young and virile man, and Luna was a beautiful woman. How could he not be tempted?

Belarus gave Luna a look and said, "Anything works."

Luna quickly left the scene as if she were fleeing.

Belarus looked at her back and turned back to Andrius. "Tell me the truth, Andrius. Does Luna not usually treat you well?"

"O—of course, she does." Andrius laughed dryly again.

Belarus noticed that Andrius was lying and sighed in his heart. When he saw Luna's disappointed expression while she looked at the Wolf King's back at the central square earlier, he already knew.

It seemed he would have to work harder if he wanted to hold his great-grandchild!

During dinner time, Belarus deliberately had a long bench moved over for Andrius and Luna to sit next to each other. He also personally served Luna's plate with food.

"Grandpa, this is too much." Luna hurriedly reached out to take the plate and saw that it was almost overflowing.

"Oh, is it? If you can't finish it, then give half to Andrius" Then, he split half the food on Luna's plate to give to Andrius.

As they ate, Andrius filled Luna's plate with side dishes.

Belarus said, "Luna, Andrius wants to eat that piece. As a wife, you should take the initiative to give it to him. Otherwise, how will your relationship as husband and wife improve?"

Luna had no way to retort and put some food on Andrius's plate. She kept adding more food.

She did not eat much during the meal but gave Andrius a lot of food.

Andrius did not have to reach for any side dishes by himself. His plate was always refilled before he could finish what was on it.

Belarus looked very satisfied.

CS CamScanner

After diver Luna was prepared to avoid any awkwardness again but was stopped by Belarus Luna, it's a te late now Andrus and you can stay over tonight I've asked the housekeeper to clean up your room!

As soon as she said that Luna's expression instantly changed

However she did not want Belarus to find out that her mamage was fake, so she responded, "Sure, Grandpa We'll stay over tonight"

Then she gave Andrus a look

Andrius agreed as well.

When they entered the room, Luna closed the door and warned, "Don't have any funny thoughts, Andrius only agreed to tonight because of Grandpa, understand?"

"Yep."

Luna picked up the quilt from the bed and threw it at him. "You can sleep on the floor tonight You're not allowed to go on the bed"

Sleep on the floor.

The famous Wolf King had to sleep on the floor.

Andrius was instantly speechless

Luna did not care what he thought and went to take a shower.

Not long after, she came out wrapped in a towel because she did not have pajamas. Her shoulders were half-exposed, and her long, heavenly legs were a mouth-watering sight.

Andrus, who had already made his bed on the floor, could not help but glance over a few times.

“Keep your eyes to yourself!” Luna snapped coldly and played with her phone on the bed

Knock, knock, knock

“Andrius, Luna, are you asleep?”

Not long after, someone came knocking on the door.

It was Belarus!

Luna was immediately startled and gestured to Andrius, ordering him, “Hurry up and get on the bed” Andrius was also worried that Belarus would overthink if he saw them and moved nimbly, taking care of everything swiftly. Then, he lay on the bed as if everything was fine

Luna sighed in relief and said, “Not yet. Do you need something. Grandpa?”

I washed some fruits for you Open the door

“Coming

Luna went to open the door

Belarus came in with a plate of mulberries, his eyes constantly darting between the two Then he placed the fruits on the bedside table

These are mulberries They're beneficial for your kidneys and are just right for young people like you to Kidneys?

Andrus quickly took the piece of fruit

Belarus cleared his throat, then left the room and closed the door.

Luna blushed and said, "Get down and eat

Andrias tried one. It was quite delicious, so he said to Luna, "It's quite sweet. Do you want to try one?"

"No I don't need to nourish my kidneys" Luna snapped at him, then noticed there was something off about her own words, and immediately said in embarrassment, "Hurry up and eat, then go to sleep"

Andrius did not respond and finished the plate of mulberries. Then, he made his bed on the floor and slept!

Knock, knock, knock

"Andrius, Luna, you're not asleep yet, right? I'll get the plate and wash it"

Andrius had just laid down when there was a knock again He immediately packed up again and quickly lay on the bed.

Luna went to open the door.

Belarus walked into the bedroom, glanced at them casually, and left with the plate

"Get down!" Luna shoved Andrius and said, "Grandpa shouldn't come back again after this

Andrius' heart felt bitter, but there was no point saying it out loud. He had to do as she said, so he lay back down on the floor again

Less than three minutes later, the same thing happened,

"Andrius, Luna, I left my phone in your room"

Andrius and Luna were speechless.

Again, Andrius packed up and got on the bed His movements were so practiced now that it seemed he was flying

“Forget it. Just stay on the bed”

After thinking about it, Luna realized that something was wrong

It seemed like Belarus was doing this on purpose, so she clenched her teeth and said to Andrius. “You can sleep on the bed tonight, but don’t come near me Otherwise

Luna held the taser and pepper spray and brandished them at Andrius

Andrius shrugged and lay on his side

Come to think of it, it was his first time sharing a bed with a girl. This night was doomed to be sleepless

Although they had their backs facing each other, Luna’s natural fragrance waf ted over from time to time, constantly stimulating Andrius’ nostrils. He wanted to have a good sleep, but who would be able to sleep in a situation like this? Who would be able to stand it?

Not even an ascetic would be able to resist!

Luna was no better than Andrius. She was afraid that she would make a move. Her hand clutched onto the taser and pepper spray, constantly vigilant

Eventually, dawn broke

CS CamScanner

Luna could no longer hold on and finally went to sleep in a daze.

The next morning, the two of them came down and bumped into Belarus, who was going up.

“Did you two sleep well last night?” he asked with a smile.

Not only did Luna blush at that question, but so did Andrius.

During breakfast, the three were eating with relish when Luna’s phone rang.

“What? Okay, I’ll get to the office as soon as possible.” Luna’s expression immediately changed after she answered the call, and she quickly finished her breakfast.

Belarus frowned and asked, “What happened, Luna?”

Luna looked very upset and said, “There’s a foreign-funded company called ‘Simon-Tooke’ in the capital. They’ve just sent a letter to Sumeria forbidding the enterprises here from going after the Miller Group and the Crestfalls from the capital. Otherwise, they’ll deem that as us going against them! New Moon Corporation received a letter too.”

After the Crestfalls and the Miller Group were dealt with, they left a huge vacuum in the market. It was enough for hundreds of small and medium-sized families and enterprises to feed themselves and earn a lot of money.

Simon-Tooke prohibited the enterprises from Sumeria from participating and getting a share. It was obvious that they wanted to monopolize the market!

Belarus’ expression also darkened.

Andrius said disapprovingly, “Competition in the market is based on the rules of the free market. Who cares who Simon-Tooke is? If New Moon Corporation is able to get a share, then that’s our right!”

Luna rolled her eyes at Andrius and explained, “Simon-Tooke is very powerful. Even some enterprises in the capital are not willing to provoke them.

“As soon as they entered the capital, they deliberately made their move against a local enterprise, Ascent Corporation. In less than a month, Ascent Corporation’s 3-billion market value fell to 300 million, and they had to declare bankruptcy.

“New Moon Corporation is still just developing. If we provoke them...”

Luna sighed at her own words and trailed off, but what she meant was self-explanatory. She ate the rest of her breakfast and left Crestfall Manor in a hu

ry. She had to convene a shareholders' meeting as soon as possible to deal with this matter.

After Andrius finished eating, he said goodbye to Belarus and also left the manor.

He got on a scooter and quickly went to Noir's garage.

As the Wolf King of the Lycantroops, he would not allow a foreign-funded enterprise to throw its weight in his country!

Chapter 287

In the auto repair garage, Noir was happily digging into his food and was stunned when he saw Andrius come over so early in the morning. "Don't you have work today, Andy?"

"Something came up."

Andrius went straight to the point and asked, "Can you manage a company?"

In his impression, Noir was nigh-omnipotent as the leader of the Shadow Wolves. At least, he would score full marks if the test was about his skills in combat, so managing a company should not be that far off

Noir looked troubled and said, "I can certainly destroy one, but if you want me to manage one, I don't think I can!"

Andrius frowned.

Noticing this, Noir asked curiously, "Why are you suddenly asking this, Andy?"

Andrius said, "A foreign-funded company called Simon-Tooke has gone to the capital. They took advantage of the Crestfalls and the Miller Group's liquidation to seize the market in the South East Domain and squeezed out the local enterprises in Sumeria.

"They also sent a letter to threaten us, saying that anyone who dares to compete in the market with Simon -Tooke will be ruthlessly retaliated."

Andrius' expression darkened at his own words.

Noir listened and said indignantly, "How can they bully our domestic enterprises when they're doing business in our great nation? Where are they from? Who do they think they are?"

"A company like that can't stay in the capital!"

Even Noir was furious.

It went without saying how displeased Andrius was.

Andrius said, "I'm going to set up a company myself and swallow all of the Miller Group and the Crestfall family's industries. I'll plug up the vacuum in the market!

"Then, I'll distribute it to the companies In Sumeria and some enterprises in the capital. We'll work together to stabilize the market and the capital's economy

"However..."

Andrius shook his head and said helplessly. "I haven't found anyone who is professional and trustworthy to manage the company yet."

"Andy, I'll recommend someone to you. I guarantee you'll be satisfied." Noir chuckled and declared, Sonia Timberland! She has a lot of experience managing a company, and she's also considered to be somewhat powerful in Sumeria. If you give her that position, it can also deter those with ulterior motives in Sumeria."

That made sense.

Andrius nodded. "Inform the Timberlands, Noir. I'll go visit them now!"

Then, he rode the scooter and left in a hurry.

Vouivre Estates was a famous villa area in Sumeria. The people living here were either rich or noble

CS CamScanner

The Timberland residence was the first villa in this area

Andrius stopped the scooter and walked to the villa.

The security guard at the gate immediately stopped him and said in disdain, "This is Vouivre Estates. Outsiders are not allowed to enter I'm here to see the Timberlands," Andrius said in an attempt to enter.

"Stop!" The guard stopped Andrius again and sized him up. "Look at yourself. You're not wearing a single branded item

"Someone as poor as you wants to go in and find the Timberlands? I think it's more likely that you're going in to run an insurance scam or steal some valuables! Just get out of here and don't force me to take action!" The guard tried to shove Andrus away.

Bam!

A cold light flashed in Andrius' eyes, and he kicked the guard to the ground in one swoop.

The two security guards on the side immediately charged at Andrius, ready to subdue him together.

Andrus threw two punches, and the two guards lay flat on the ground.

"Argh. Damn it, how dare you hit me?" The first security guard got up with a groan, picked up his walkie-talkie, and shouted, "There's a troublemaker here. Come over quickly!"

Whoosh

In a few seconds, a large group of security guards arrived at the scene.

“It’s him!” The guard pointed at Andrius and said fiercely. “That impoverished-looking kid intends to go inside and steal, and then he started getting violent when I saw through his motives. Grab him and send him to the police station!”

As soon as he spoke, all the guards swarmed forward,

Just then, there was a sudden yell in the distance. “What’s going on here?”

A large man rushed over. It was Tiger.

The first guard immediately pointed to Andrius and said, “Tiger, this boy wants to enter the villa and steal stuff. He even beat a few of us up!”

Tiger frowned and looked over Then, he immediately started to sweat.

Andrius Moonshade!

Tiger did not know about Andrius’ identity before. However, Bruce was one of the dignitaries invited by the Crestfalls yesterday, and Tiger had followed him over.

The Timberlands were one of the top families in Sumeria. Therefore, they sat in the front row.

Chapter 288

Tiger was shocked to see Andrius, especially when Marcus Freely and Sever al Sano appeared and called him Wolf King’

Wolf King!

Andrius was the Wolf King!

Bruce and Tiger were shocked when they found out, so much so that they could not sleep all night

When Tiger thought of the scenes of Andrius fighting in the past, he was amazed, afraid, and excited

He was amazed at how he had the gall to compete with the Wolf King before.

He was afraid of how reckless he had been back then to try to fight the Wolf King.

He was excited because he had been lucky enough to actually be able to spar with the Wolf King

However...

Something like this happened during his next encounter with Andrius!

“Wolf King!” Tiger went up to Andrius respectfully and gave a standard military salute.

Although he was a commander of soldiers, in front of the Wolf King, he was just a soldier!

The Wolf King?

The security guards were stunned. They naturally knew who Tiger was. He was Old Master Timberland’s personal bodyguard.

How could his words be false?

Thud!

Thud!

Thudi

The security guards were scared out of their wits, and some even pissed their pants on the spot. Their legs went weak, and they could not help but kneel down in front of Andrius.

I’m sorry, Wolf King. I didn’t know it was you.

“Wolf King. I was wrong. I’m sorry

“Wolf King

They all groveled and begged for mercy.

Andrius became increasingly angry as he saw this scene

These people scolded him arrogantly and accused him of stealing just because he was dressed in ordinary clothes. Then, they knelt and begged for mercy when they found out that he was the Wolf King

It was a typical case of bullying the weak and fearing the strong.

“You lot.”

Andrius’ gaze rested on the guards, making them tremble. They knew that the Wolf King was about to bestow judgment upon them.

“You’re just security guards in a luxurious villa area, but you think that you’re superior to others. You yell and scold others at will and judge others with your own biases.

Don’t you know that all people are born equal? Is anyone born the king of this world? Would you all know what the experiences of someone else are?

“No one is born higher than another!”

Andrius looked at Tiger with a cold face and ordered, “Just give them a little lesson this time so that they remember it for a long time!”

Tiger quickly said with a solemn expression, “Don’t worry, Wolf King. I’ll contact the security manager of the villa area and ask him to deal with these guards seriously. They won’t be able to find a job in Sumeria anymore!”

They would no longer be able to find a job....

Hearing this, all the security guards collapsed on the ground, turning pale. Some even tried to hold Andrius’ legs, but Tiger kicked them away

Tiger and Andrius went to the Timberland residence.

“Wolf King

Bruce had already gathered everyone in the family to welcome Andrius at the gate.

In the past, they did not know that he was the Wolf King, so they were not at fault. Now that they knew, if they still neglected Andrius...

That would be an unforgivable crime.

“Mm” Andrius nodded

“Please, come in”

The line of people entered the hall.

Sonia immediately went to brew a pot of tea with their best leaves.

“Wolf King, what brings you here today?” Bruce looked at Andrius. Andrius went straight to the point. “I’m here for Ms. Timberland.”

Chapter 289

Huh?

The Wolf King was here for Sonia?

Did blessings usually come so quickly?

Did Andrus take a fancy to Sonia?

Today marked the start of the Timberlands’ meteoric success!

Bruce was so stunned by the news that he could not believe his ears. He confirmed it again, “Wolf King, what do you mean?”

“I’m going to set up a company, and I need Ms. Timberland’s help to manage it,” Andrius explained simply Bruce’s pounding heart suddenly went quiet. He thought that Andrius took a fancy to his granddaughter and was going to propose marriage However “Sure, no problem!”

Although Bruce was a little disappointed, he quickly adjusted his mentality.

The Wolf King would have no trouble finding someone to manage a company. However, since he wanted Sonia, it was proof that she had a place in his heart. That was a very good sign.

If Sonia managed to finish her task beautifully.

The Timberlands could have further contact and build more relations with the Wolf King. Their future had endless possibilities!

“Wolf King, what kind of company are you going to start? How do you plan to operate it?” Bruce inquired seriously

“It’s like this” Andrius then told him about Simon–Tooke and said, “This company will first acquire all of the Crestfalls’ and the Miller Group’s industries.

“Then, according to the rules of the market, we’ll distribute it to enterprises in the capital and Sumeria in a cooperative manner as long as they’re reasonable and fair!”

Hearing this, Bruce immediately said, “No problem. In fact

He made a bold decision and said, “I can incorporate all of the Timberlands’ industries into this company. We’ll let the entrepreneurs in Sumeria get rich along with us!”

Bruce was more open minded after recent events.

Money was not everything. The Hanshus and the Hendersons had lots of money The Millers and Crestfalls were also the most powerful families in the capital.

However, when they faced the Wolf King.

They popped as easily as bubbles They did not even have the courage to struggle and could only offer up everything obediently.

Now that the Timberlands had the opportunity to climb the large tree that was the Wolf King, they naturally had to hold on tight. As long as the Wolf King did not fall, the Timberlands would have blue skies for the rest of their future!

The Wolf King was someone who stood at the top of the entire nation. How could he fall?

CS CamScanner

Bruce would believe it when pigs started to fly

That's fre

Andrius agreed casually without much thought "At that time, Ms Timberland will be responsible for everything in the company if there's something she's uncertain about, she can go to the garage to find Nor

Bruce remembered that he was that fierce fighter who came when the Timberlands were attacked it turned out that he was also working under the Wolf King ce nodded and replied. "Thank you for your trust, Wolf King

Andrius left the Timberland residence and went straight to New Moon Corporation. He walked into Luna's office kana looked like she was at her wits end as she stared out the window in a daze It was clear that something was weighing on her

"How's the situation? What did the shareholders say? Andrius asked bluntly

Luna sighed, shook her head, and said in a low voice, in order not to conflict with Simon—

Tooke and prevent them from targeting New Moon Corporation, the shareholders unanimously decided to give up competing for the two family's industries

Andrus immediately felt angry

New

Moon Corporation's decision was most likely the same as the vast majority of companies in Sumeria and the capital Simon Tooke was too overbearing!

"Are you willing to accept that?" he asked.

"Of course not?" Luna looked up at Andrus with a flash of resentment on her face. "It was my great grandfather who left the Crestfalls in the capital behind. They're one of us

"This time, my family was at the forefront of the fight and was almost destroyed, but now, we're at the mercy of Simon Tooke Do you think I'd be willing to accept it?"

At those words, Luna sighed and said weakly, "But even if I'm unwilling what can I do?"

Chapter 290

"Simon Tooke is a huge corporation New Moon Corporation can't afford to offend them"

Andrus said calmly. "That's easy! New Moon Corporation doesn't have to compete with Simon Tooke for those industries and market shares All we need to do is work together with companies who are also trying to seize those shares We'll be able to earn a lot

"Huh?" Luna was stunned and asked curiously, "Is there a company in Sumeria that dares to compete with Simon Tooke?"

“This has to do with the interests of our nation’s people. Our country’s people are righteous Someone will definitely step forward” Andrius sighed meaningfully and said, “I heard through the grapevine that a new company will appear in Sumneria and monopolize all the vacated market shares.

“When the time comes, New Moon Corporation can just work together with them. That way, we won’t conflict with Simon Tooke head-on, and we won’t have worked so hard just to get nothing in return”

Luna was not as optimistic as Andrius. She rolled her eyes at him and said speechlessly, “You can just listen to gossip like that How can you really believe it?”

“Simon Tooke’s strength is far beyond your imagination! Even if Anthony Henderson, the former richest man, was at his peak, he wouldn’t be able to fight Simon Tooke Trying to wrestle market shares from them is no different from trying to grab meat from a tiger’s mouth 1

Luna shook her head as she spoke. It was clear what she meant Drop the matter.

Knock, knock, knock!

Andrius was just about to say something when Danni knocked on the door and came in “Ms Crestfall, the president of Simon Tooke, Mr Longman, is here and he says that he has something important to discuss with you...”

“Let’s go and see what he has to say”

Luna and Andrius went to the reception hall together.

Longman looked like a typical Caucasian with blond hair and defined blue eyes.

“I heard about your beauty even before I came, Ms. Crestfall, but the rumors don’t do you justice”

Longman’s eyes swept across Luna’s curvaceous figure. He spoke like a gentleman and held his hand out toward Luna

Luna did not like him very much, but she stretched out her hand to shake his out of politeness

Unexpectedly, he took her hand and brought it up to his mouth for a kiss!

She blanched and immediately withdrew her hand.

A shadow flashed in Longmar's expression. He sat down with a flourish and crossed his legs as if he were the owner of New Moon Corporation.

"Ms. Crestfall, I'm here to invite you to make a fortune with me"

Make a fortune...

No one in Summeria, or even the East River State, did not know what that was supposed to mean.

Luna sneered in her heart and did not answer She knew that Longman would continue to speak.

"Right now, the Crestfalls and the Miller Group in the South East Domain have been liquidated, and the vacated market shares are enough for countless families and enterprises to rise and take flight.

"We at Simon—

Tooke don't want to monopolize everything. As long as you small companies are willing to merge with us, I don't mind giving each of you a slice of the pie.

What do you think, Ms. Crestfall?"

After Longman finished speaking, he looked at Luna with great interest.

Luna refused bluntly, "We'll pass. New Moon Corporation is just a small company that doesn't deserve your attention, Mr. Longman. You can leave that slice of pie to someone else."

Longman painted a pretty picture. They did not want to monopolize everything? Bullsh*t!

He said that he wanted their companies to merge with Simon–Tooke.

If companies like New Moon Corporation merged with Simon–Tooke, would they still have the right to speak? They would be chewed down to their bones!

It was a wild and savage ambition.

They used the shares vacated by the Crestfalls and the Millers as bait to catch more small fish to expand Simon–Tooke...

It was a good strategy!

“Ms. Crestfall, are you sure you don’t want to think about it?” Longman’s expression instantly fell when he was rejected by Luna.

“There’s nothing to think about.” Luna made up her mind and said coldly. “If there’s nothing else, you can leave now, Mr. Longman.”

Bam!

Longman suddenly flew into a rage and slapped the table, causing the teacups to rattle. He stared at Luna with his blue eyes and said coldly, “Aren’t you afraid of making me angry, Ms. Crestfall? Simon- Tooke will...”

Smack!

Andrius hated annoying people like Longman and slapped him before he could finish his threat. Not only did the slap make Longman swallow back his words, but even his mouth also became crooked.
